Little Change In Queen Standings

Candidates "sitting in the bushes" to keep their opponents guessing about the strength of their carnival ticket sales are believed to be responsible for the almost static condition of official returns of votes for Carnival Queen contestants. Since the publication of the standings of three of the candidates on Saturday, the only change in the listing has been the addition of the Rotary Club's candidate, Evelyn Bussey, to the roster. Miss Bussey now stands second with 14,000 votes.

The new measures are explained by the government as a temporary stop-gap.

SALMON CATCH DROPS SHARPLY

Bad weather was largely responsible for a decisive drop in sockeye salmon catches on the Skeena river on Monday but on both the Skeena and the Naas catches of pinks are increasing. On the Naas, where last week the sockeye average was more than 40 a day, Monday's catch dropped to eight sockeye with high boat catching 19. Catch of pinks averaged 15 per boat.

PARIS—Judge Mongibeaux read into the treason trial of Marshal Petain today a telegram from Petain asking Adolf Hitler's permission for the Vichy regime to conduct its own defence. Another telegram from Petain to Hitler congratulated the latter on repelling the Dieppe raid. Angry murmurs and protests arose from the spectators and twenty-four jurors when Petain stolidly refused to answer questions about the telegrams. He was heard to mutter, however, "How can I answer? I have heard nothing and do not know what is going on." The marshal had said on opening day of the trial that he would answer no questions.

This is Ideal Which Some Day Must be Realized, Declares Paul Reynaud

PARIS, July 25 (AP)—Former Premier Paul Reynaud testified at the trial of Marshal Petain yesterday that union of France and Britain is "an ideal which some day must be realized." The dapper little politician, who on Monday said he despised the aged Petain, described the union proposal of Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Great Britain when France was collapsing in 1940.

Reynaud accused both Marshal Petain and King Leopold of Belgium of treachery in surrendering to Germany.

Petain is on trial for his life on accusations of intelligence with the enemy and plotting against the security of France.

Chimney Smoke Enters Bedroom, Firemen Called

Smoke from a nearby chimney which poured in an open bedroom window roused residents of the Smith and Elkins Block from their beds at 1 o'clock this morning. Waking to find the bedroom thick with smoke fumes, a resident called city fire department which found that the smoke originated from the chimney of an adjoining building. Fire department received a second call at 1:25 from an alarm box near the Central Hotel on Second Avenue where, apparently, pranksters had turned in a false alarm.

PLANS LAID FOR CARNIVAL GARDEN SHOW

The loveliness of Prince Rupert flower gardens will be one of the attractions of the Civic Centre Carnival again this year, a group of city horticulturists decided at a meeting in City Council chamber last night.

The meeting, presided over by H. T. Lock, laid plans which they hope will result in an even better flower show than that held in conjunction with the carnival last year. The show will be held August 8 and 9.

Information that the only place near the carnival site where the flower show could be held is on the second floor of the old post office building drew questions as to its suitability. The ground floor of the building, where the flower show was held last year, is now occupied by a business concern.

A committee consisting of Mr. Lock, Mrs. R. M. Winslow and Mrs. E. J. McConnell decided to inspect the building today to determine its suitability.

Prizes for winning entries in the flower show will be similar to those offered last year—$1 for first prize and 50 cents for second. The same seven classifications of flowers and vegetables used in judging last year will be employed again.

An enterprising advertising schedule is planned to acquaint city gardeners with the rules of the show, and during the show itself, there will be outdoor advertising signs informing carnival patrons that it is going on.

Desirability of receiving entries from district gardeners was emphasized, and secretary C. G. Ham said that Mrs. C. J. Norrington of Terrace, had assured him that she would co-operate in encouraging Terrace gardeners to submit entries.

Summer "Twister" Visits Interior

Highway to be Discussed; Minister of Public Works Lists It as No. 1 Project

VICTORIA, July 25 (CP)—Hon. Herbert Anscomb, minister of public works, stated in Victoria yesterday that he proposes to discuss with the federal government at Ottawa this week the future of the northern transprovincial highway. Mr. Anscomb will discuss this problem during the meeting called for the Dominion-Provincial conference and gave it as his view that this development should be No. 1 on the list of post-war problems in that territory in which the federal government must be directly interested owing to its national character.

PREMIER IS NOT VERY DEFINITE

VICTORIA, July 25 (AP)—A general election will be held in British Columbia some time between now and the end of October, 1946, Premier John Hart said yesterday in answer to a query as to the date of a probable election. He was unable to give a specific date, he said, but speculation during the past week has been that the election will be held late in October or November this year.

USO INFORMATION DESK IN TOUCH WITH SERVICEMEN'S ACTIVITIES

When a Canadian soldier from a nearby army camp or United States Coastguardsman from a ship—both bored with the unending dullness of barracks life and duty watches—land in Prince Rupert with a six or twelve-hour pass, the chances are that both are strictly in search of entertainment. Unerringly their first question is: "What's doing?"

The answer is: "There's plenty."

Hearing that "Boss" Frank Finnerty of the Prince Rupert USO Club had established an information desk in the lobby of the Second Avenue servicemen's centre, a Daily News reporter called around to see what information there was to dispense. He came away with a mass of pleasant data that increased his regret that advanced decrepitude had prevented him from wearing the King's uniform.

Mr. Finnerty conceived the information desk as an answer-box for data on social and recreational activity for Allied servicemen in the city. Strategically, the service also may have been a manoeuvre of self defence.

"The boys kept coming to me to find out 'what's doing tonight' and half the time I couldn't tell them. There is so much going on that I could not keep track of it myself," Frank confided. "So I rounded up all the 'dope' I could and we set up the desk. It started Friday."

Craftily, Frank "manned" the desk with two attractive attendants of the female persuasion—Miss Linda McConnell and Miss Joy Berg—who are cheerful targets for all sorts of questions while the booth is open from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. daily. Their initial stock of information has swelled amazingly in the last four days.

Pinned to the walls of the booth are weekly schedules of the USO Club, YMCA war services, Salvation Army Red Shield, American Seamen's Club, Knights of Columbus war services, American Army special services as well as lists of civilian establishments noted as in-bounds and out-of-bounds for members of the various service branches in the city.

Foreknowledge For Servicemen "This last," Frank pointed out,

Dragon lizards feed on deer, wild boar and water buffalo.

"is an important item of foreknowledge for the serviceman who in his innocent search for a meal or refreshments may end his leave in 'the brig' for being caught frequenting an out-of-bounds restaurant or beer parlor."

An Influential Advocate . . .

It is gratifying that such a healthy interest should be taken in the northern transprovincial highway, of which the Prince Rupert Highway is an important part, as indicated in a statement from Hon. Herbert Anscomb, provincial minister of public works, published in the Daily News today. We have a strong and forthright advocate in Mr. Anscomb who has promised to take up the matter on our behalf at Ottawa next week and who further expresses the view that this development should be "No. 1 on the list of post-war problems" in this territory. If anyone can get action on the matter he should.

Final Fight Against Inflation

The danger of runaway inflation, which might easily put the cost of living out of all proportion for many people, may be even greater during the coming few months than it was at any time during the war. Even now millions of dollars in liquid assets are threatening economic stability and, unless price controls of basic commodities—and that means rents, clothing, food and other essentials—are faithfully observed, the whole fight against inflation might be lost.

It will be important that prices should be established on items which are now going into peacetime production for the first time in three or four years, making certain that these prices are fair to the public and fair to the manufacturer. Firmest possible control will still have to be maintained on the black markets which have been a practically inconsequential problem in Canada thus far.

Controls must be controlled for a time, no doubt, but, as supplies gradually come into balance with demand, it will be possible to drop controls at a faster and faster rate.

CABARET DANCE HELD BY USO

More than 200 Canadian and American soldiers and their guests attended a cabaret dance at the USO Club last night to meet the candidates of the annual Civic Centre Carnival Queen competition. This affair, honoring the four candidates, was arranged by Frank Finnerty, USO Director, and Bob Herrick, program director.

The spacious ball room of the club had been decorated especially for the occasion. The club had taken on a definite night spot atmosphere with tables circling the floor and soft lighting. For dancing pleasure, Jaque Antone and his swing quintet provided the music.

Seated at a special table with their guests and reigning as princesses of the club were Betty Beatrice Didrickson, Miss Evelyn Bussey, Miss Lillian Knutson and Miss Ruth Giske. Representing the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, Gyro Club, and Women of the Moose, respectively, one of these girls will be crowned Queen of the Carnival during the evening of August 10.

Included among the guests of the queen aspirants were His Worship, Mayor and Mrs. H. M. Daggett; Alan Hurst, former British Columbia educator, now Pacific Area secretary of YMCA; Mr. and Mrs. Don Forward and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McLeod.

One of the main events of the evening was the smart and lively floor show which was composed of the leading acts from "Camp Capers," a YMCA Service Show, led by Frank Scott, veteran showman of Vancouver for the past 25 years. Bob Herrick, as the notorious "Mr. Dingle," master of ceremonies, introduced the show to the cabaret audience.

A violin and accordion selection by Frank and Gladys Thelle, brother and sister, provided the opening number for the evening's entertainment. They were followed by an acrobatic number by Frank Scott and his son, Norman, a young man with a bright future in the theatre world. A Hawaiian dance, ably assisted by a soldier and coastguardsman, by Mary McInnis brought round after round of applause. The show closed with a toe-tap specialty by Frank Scott, his son, Norman, and daughter, Ruth.

This entertainment was provided through the efforts of Bruce McIntyre, and Don Forward of YMCA. "Camp Capers" has played to thousands of soldiers, sailors, and airmen, in the Vancouver area for the past four - and - a - half years. The show is composed completely of voluntary performers. Several had to quit their jobs in Vancouver in order to make the trip to Prince Rupert. "Camp Capers" is scheduled to play eight more performances in this area prior to returning south.

Following the floor show, the four attractive queen candidates, who had reigned as princesses of the club, were introduced, individually, to the cabaret audience. Immediately following her introduction, Frank Finnerty presented each girl with a beautiful corsage.

To climax the evening's entertainment the four queen candidates were asked to judge and select, in the joviality of the occasion, the queen for the "USO entry." Then, three soldiers and a USO worker, garbed in various bits of feminine apparel, one smoking a cigar, came on to the floor. They were "Miss Out-of-Bounds," "Miss Representation," "Miss USO," and "Miss Off-Limits." The four girls selected "Miss Out-of-Bounds," a 240-pound soldier as the winner. He was then presented with a meringue pie, accidentally of course, in the face. The audience screamed. The queen candidates, their guests, and the cast of "Camp Capers" were then entertained at lunch with Frank Finnerty and Miss Eva LaPierre acting as host and hostess.

Musical Feast—

Local Girl Acclaimed

A delightful hour-and-a-half's revel in interpretations of the masters by Marie Balagno Lundquist, Prince Rupert girl, who now lives in Seattle where she has been accepted as one of the Pacific Northwest's leading pianists, was enjoyed last night by an audience of lovers of the better things in music which nearly filled First Presbyterian Church. It was a treat which was deeply appreciated and which at the conclusion brought an ovation to the charming artist. Last time she was heard in public recital here, she was a shy, somewhat timid girl. Since then she has developed a pleasing poise to complement her talents which have long been recognized and have now matured to a stage attained by only the persevering few.

Superb interpretation displayed by Mrs. Lundquist was matched by technique of the most accurate quality and remarkable control. It was a flawless exposition in a repertoire of wide range and discriminating selection.

The program opened on a high plane with Bach's "Pavane in B Flat Major" followed by four colorful little Scarlatti sonatas. A group of Chopin numbers—"Impromptu in G Flat Major," "Etudes in F Minor and G Flat Major"—gave full scope for the artist's fine technique and the first half of the program culminated in a resounding "Nocturne in B Major" and the exacting "Ballade in F Major."

Schumann's "Sonata No. III in G Minor" was divided into four well defined movements—"Presto," "Andantino," "Scherzo," "Rondo"—in which the artist was given full scope for her versatility and technical skill of keyboard mastery. Six short and pleasing numbers—Vila Lobos' "The Cardboard Cat" and "Polichinelle" and Mompou's "Cris danse la Rue," "Jeu" and "Jeunes Filles au Jardin" and "Poulene's "Toccata" brought the musical feast to an all too early end. The encore demand was met with a delightfully modern little Gershwin "Prelude."

The recital was under the management and direction of the artist's father, Charles Balagno. Miss Mary Astori presided at the door and usherettes were the Misses Delphine and Helen Balagno.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Balagno where friends gathered to offer congratulations and express personal appreciation.

NOTICE TO LANDLORDS AND TENANTS
Concerning Board Order No. 537

This order and the following information applies only to self-contained houses, apartments and duplex or tripled dwellings. It does NOT apply to rooms either with or without house-keeping privileges, nor to rooms in rooming or boarding houses.

After July 24, 1945, no landlord may give a notice to vacate on the ground that he desires the dwelling as a residence for himself or for a member of his family.

NOTE: The only exception to this order is in the case of a discharged member of the Armed Forces, who is protected by Board No. 511 to the extent that if he desires to live in a dwelling which he owned or which he occupied under lease from a relative at the time of enlistment, a three months' notice may be given to the tenant.

All notices to vacate, legal proceedings, orders for or writs of possession outstanding as of July 25, 1945, are suspended and stayed, and a well-behaved tenant need not vacate unless a Court of Rentals Appeals by order reinstates such notice order for a writ of possession.

In cases of extreme hardship to the landlord resulting from the suspension of the notice to vacate or the staying of any legal proceedings taken thereunder, the landlord may apply to a Court of Rentals Appeals for an order to reinstate the notice or the proceedings. Such application shall be made in duplicate and filed at the nearest office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, NOT LATER THAN AUGUST 31, 1945, after which date no applications will be accepted.

In dealing with the application, the Court of Rentals Appeals will consider the relative needs and hardships of the landlord and the tenant. The application should therefore set forth clearly and fully the landlord's circumstances and the need for the dwelling as a residence for himself or for the named relative.

The protection afforded by this order does not extend to tenants who are in arrears of rent, or who are otherwise ill-behaved, nor to a tenant who has assigned his lease, or who is an employee of his landlord.

Miss McConnell explained her technique in answering requests for information.

"When they ask 'What's doing?' I ask them what sort of entertainment they want. If they say 'dance' I look up the schedule of dances and tell them where they can find one. The same goes for shows and other entertainment," she said.

A large part of the requests come over the telephone—from a Canadian soldier at Fort Barrett, an American soldier on Acropolis Hill, an air force man at Seal Cove or an American soldier or Coastguardsman at Port Edward, Miss McConnell revealed.

Finding out from Mr. Finnerty just what entertainment is available for servicemen in the course of a week resulted in a substantial and varied catalogue.

Movies, it transpired, are the most common entertainment. Excluding the downtown theatre, which, though it is open for soldiers, is considered by the services as being primarily for civilians, there are 50 movies a week shown in this immediate area.

YMCA War Services, which is responsible for the greatest number of showings, alone puts on 39 a week in Prince Rupert and at closely adjacent defence establishments. In the city as well, the USO puts on three, American Army Special Service, six and American Seamen's Club, two.

There are 10 regular dances a week, two each at the USO, American Corporals' Club, American Sergeants' Club and Knights of Columbus and one each at the YMCA and American Red Cross Club.

The sports picture is a special study in itself. For of almost continuous entertainment—basketball, handball and badminton there are well-equipped floors at the YMCA centre, Acropolis Hill, Navy Drill Hall, Seal Cove and the Armory. Outstanding baseball and softball fields are on Acropolis Hill and Gyro Park. In all these places, scheduled

BO-ME-HI IS WINNER AGAIN

Betty Hamilton Scores 12 to 4 Victory in Ladies' League

Fronting the speedy nine, Betty Hamilton, ace hurler for the High School kids, defeated the Moose team to the tune of 12-4 on Tuesday night in the Ladies' Softball League. It was Bo-Me-Hi's sixth straight win.

Due to more of the liquid sunshine, the field was in a none too good playing condition but, after much consideration the game was played.

Marie Caldwell, who walked off with top batting honors, proved too much for Edna Bond, Moose pitcher, as by her hard hit balls five runs were scored.

Game officials were Lance Corporal McWhinney, umpire; Ed Clarke, base umpire, and Verne Miller, scorekeeper. Mae Silverman coached the winners.

The girls' league has proven that girls as well as boys are capable of producing a fine brand of ball. These games are played Monday or Tuesday evening at the Gyro Park.

SHORT SPORT

Ontario, smashing all existing records in Willingdon Cup competition, captured the inter-provincial team golf championship at Mount Bruno six years ago. The 36-hole total of 583 strokes was 13 under the previous mark set by British Columbia at Laval-sur-le-Lac in 1934.

Robert (Lefty) Grove, one of the greatest southpaws of all time, entered the select circle of 300-game winners four years ago as he pitched Boston Red Sox to a 10-6 victory over Cleveland Indians. Grove allowed 12 hits in the triumph which put him among baseball's immortals.

CLEVER AND HUMOROUS

Great Entertainment in "Practically Yours" with Colbert and MacMurray

One of the outstanding moving picture comedy classics of the year, "Practically Yours," teaming Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray with such popular supporting stars as Robert Benchley, Mikhail Rasumy, Gil Lamb and Cecil Keilaway, comes to the Capitol Theatre for an extra day run this Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The fun begins when MacMurray finds, on his return to New York on leave, that he is the nation's Navy air hero. He also finds that, through a misunderstanding, he is regarded as Miss Colbert's boy friend. The complications bring on a cycle of fantastic events which are finally smoothed out.

Save and sophisticated humor are featured in a picture which is said to be one of the season's cleverest and most entertaining.
