Doubtful If Tanker Shelco Will Be Able to Make Port After Being Caught in Gale

She developed a leak during a sudden gale in the Gulf of Georgia and started to go down. Her fuel cargo was dumped overboard as naval vessels and tugs endeavored to tow her into port. Her stern was down and decks awash and it was considered doubtful whether she could make port.

Other tugs are also reported in trouble in the storm just outside Vancouver harbor.

Junior Chamber Selects Beatrice

Didrickson as Queen Candidate

With all forecasts pointing toward a season of glamour again this summer, members of the Carnival Queen committee of the Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce piloted the trend last night by selecting their candidate for the royal throne at the Civic Centre carnival to be held August 6 to 11.

She is 19-year-old Beatrice Didrickson, petite telephone exchange operator for the United States Army here, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stein Didrickson, 608 Fourth Avenue East.

Her selection as Carnival Queen candidate is believed to be the first to be made by any organization in the city.

Proud of their choice and bursting with plans to place her on the coronation throne on the final night of the Civic Centre carnival, the Junior Chamber committee plans to put on a campaign of publicity and ticket sales which will assure Miss Didrickson of victory.

Consulted at her home after the committee had pondered solemnly on the choice of a candidate, Beatrice did not know what to make of the proposal at first but agreed to run after her hastily advanced protests failed to impress the four committee members.

Born in Copenhagen, Denmark on June 12, 1926, Beatrice is blonde, slender, and of a warm vivacious personality. She came to Canada with her family in 1929, going with them to Winnipeg where she received her schooling. She has lived in Prince Rupert several years where her father is a partner in the Crawley and Didrickson boat works at Cow Bay. A telephone switchboard operator for the U.S. Army here, she has a host of friends throughout the city.

She has a younger brother, Stein, age 17, and a sister, Katy, 15 going to high school.

Beatrice isn't sure that she wants to enter the bathing beauty contest which will be a new feature of the carnival this year, but the Junior Chamber committee hope she will agree to enter that, too.

Members of the Junior Chamber carnival committee are Lloyd Morris, George Dibb, Roger Bell, Edward Garner, Bruce Stevens and J. K. McLeod.

Olof Hanson arrived in the city on Tuesday night from Smithers and leaves tonight for Vancouver.

The hospitals receive their regular rates and are not required to accept patients of the Association beyond the limit of their capacity.

FIGHTING INFLATION

More Necessary Now Than Ever, Local Council Hears

The urgent importance of strictly adhering to anti-inflationary measures in the critical post-war economic period was emphasized by Mrs. Andrew Thompson, chairman of the Prince Rupert consumers' sub-committee of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, who reported to the committee at a recent meeting on her attendance at a regional conference in Vancouver.

The consumers' sub-committee is comprised of representatives of local organizations who cooperate with and advise the Wartime Prices and Trade Board with a view to promoting fair and equitable administration in tune with local conditions.

Mrs. Thompson told how, at the Vancouver conference, W. B. Dowrey, Wartime Prices and Trade Board head for British Columbia, had given great credit to women for their co-operation which had greatly contributed to the success of the Board in its fight against inflation. Mr. Dowrey had warned against anything in the way of relaxation at this time.

Mrs. Irene Gougeon, national supervisor of the conservation program, had congratulated British Columbia women in leading the way in the financing of "remake" centres. There were now 183 such "remake" centres in Canada with 53 paid supervisors and 140 volunteer instructors. Last year 300,000 garments had been made over in these centres. Underwear shortage had been to a great extent relieved by this means. The continued importance of the "remake" centres was emphasized in view of the probability of an even greater shortage of textiles.

The possibility of opening a "remake" centre in Prince Rupert was canvassed and will be further considered at the next meeting.

Shortages must be accepted as part of the war effort, it was pointed out, and anything in the way of overstocking or overbuying should be discouraged so there might be fair distribution for all.

Due to European needs, it was likely there would be a meat shortage here, the meeting heard. Poultry and fish were available and could be used as substitutes for meat.

The world's sugar supply was not good and would not improve this year.

Had butter not been rationed, the price would have jumped to $1 a pound, it was felt.

The supply of rice was also limited.

POTATOES ARE "MUST"
 STRATFORD, Ont.—It looks as if potatoes are listed as a "must" for banquets given to returned servicemen, officials of the Stratford, Ont., district Canadian Legion have postponed a banquet planned for the returned veterans because of the shortage. It will be held in September when officials expect the tubers to be more plentiful.

INCREASES INCREASED

As an incentive to bring nurses here and keep them, the board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital last night decided to increase the annual increment from $5 to $10. Staff nurses now start at $90 per month (all found) and receive an increase of $5 per month at the end of the first year of service and $10 at the end of the second year. These increases will hereafter be $10 per year. Supervisors and technicians will receive similar increases.

Nurses who relieve casually by the day will henceforth receive $5 instead of $4 per day, it was also decided.

The difficulty of obtaining nurses here, the board felt, was not peculiar to Prince Rupert but was experienced generally.

The board discussed the possibility of making conditions more attractive for nurses. It was thought that a tennis court might be one effective means of making the surroundings more pleasant and the grounds committee was asked to look into this possibility.

A letter from the Prince Rupert Labor Council, R. H. Adcock, secretary, expressed concern at the turnover of nurses here, suggesting that, if sufficient remuneration was the only difficulty, that might simply be rectified in view of the financial condition of the hospital. The Labor Council will be thanked by the board for the interest it has shown and will be advised that nurses' salaries here are equal to, if not better than, those being paid elsewhere in the province.

LETTERBOX

CONDITION OF ROAD

Editor, Daily News:
 In the edition of the Daily News of June 19 it is reported that the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce had received an enquiry as to the possibility of driving to this city from Eugene, Oregon.

It is to be hoped that the Chamber in replying to this enquiry gives a more accurate description of the condition of the Skeena Highway than that reported by Douglas Frizzell in the same issue, who describes the highway all the way from Prince Rupert to Vancouver "as being in excellent condition" except for two bad spots.

The writer, who drove in to the city from Kitwanga on Sunday last can in no way agree that the road is in "excellent condition." On the other hand the fact is that the best part of the highway from Terrace to Rupert is one series of almost continuous pot holes. Some of them are so deep that thoughtful people have stuck pieces of trees in them as a warning, "excellent condition" indeed!

Instead of this kind of talk, it would be much better for the city if all service organizations and private citizens drew attention to the real condition of the road with a view to having it remedied. In any case to say that the road is in "excellent condition" now is misleading and serves no useful purpose to this community.

TRUTHFUL BOOSTER.

HOSPITAL COSTS STILL MOUNTING

Hospital costs continue to mount, the board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital learned last night when the report of the finance committee for the month of May showed a per diem cost per patient of $4.30. There were 2650 hospital days in the month and expenditures totalled $11,634.84. There were 667 patients during the month, 319 in and 348 out.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Houglund of Terrace are in the city today and will leave tonight on a trip to Vancouver.

STEWART IS MORE ACTIVE

Mining development and prospecting activity in the Portland Canal district is showing quite a revival this season, according to reports brought to the city from Stewart.

Oweny McFadden has ten men working on the development of the St. Eugene property on Bear River and encouraging results are being obtained.

J. E. LeFrancis is directing the driving of a new 50-foot tunnel on the Mountain Boy property on American Creek and good showings are being obtained. Eight or ten men are employed and a drill and compressor are being used. Prominent Montreal capitalists are interested in the Mountain Boy.

J. P. Ratchford of Vancouver, a new face in the Portland Canal is developing the Belvedere property in Bear River valley.

TERRACE

Mr. B. C. Bracewell, supervisor of municipalities, was in Terrace for the day on Tuesday, leaving for eastern points the same evening.

Sgt. A. Atree has recently received his honorable discharge from his regiment and has taken up residence in Terrace. Mr. Atree has many friends here, having lived in Terrace for several years before the war started. Mr. Atree was in the butcher business and during his years as a local citizen interested himself in the affairs of the district. He was, and likely will be again, prominent in the local lodges and societies. Mrs. Atree is expected to arrive in the near future. He is a veteran of both world wars. Their two boys attended the local school. The elder, Harry, was killed in action in Italy. The second son, Kenneth, is a member of the Provincial Police.

WOMEN'S CLUB BIG FACTOR IN CITY PUBLICITY

The importance of the publicity factor for Prince Rupert involved in the connections of the Prince Rupert Business and Professional Women's club with other such clubs across the continent was brought out at the regular dinner meeting of the newly formed club this week in a letter from Hilda Hesson, president of the Canadian Federation of Professional and Business Women's clubs.

Mrs. Hesson's letter welcomed the local group into the federation and inspired discussion as the possibilities of making the Prince Rupert club an active branch of the continent-wide federation. The contacts thus made would be valuable for Prince Rupert, it was felt. Indications of the active part that the Business and Professional Women's club intends to play in local affairs was given with the appointment of Miss Dorothy Creech as delegate to the Prince Rupert Public Relations committee and the appointment of Mrs. J. P. Hutchison as delegate to the consumers' branch of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

The entertainment feature of the program was provided by the 25 members present when each delivered a short autobiography. Several new members were welcomed. Miss Frances Cross was chairman in the absence of Mrs. Nora Arnold, the president.

WEATHERMAN ACCENTUATES PRECIPITATION

Aware that Prince Rupert vegetation must have moisture, the Weather Man really let it drive down this week. An accommodating fellow, he was probably aiming to make sure that the more deeply rooted plants get well watered for he was hurling little jewels of moisture down with all the force of a 22-mile-an-hour wind.

Up to 10 o'clock this morning 4.74 inches of rain had fallen since Friday. Much of it came down so hard it bounced but the official recorder was smart enough not to record it twice.

No reports have arrived here of vessels in distress, although a number left here within the last few days for Vancouver at the close of the Area Two fishing season. It is presumed that all have sought shelter at Butedale or other sheltered spots.

Temperatures remain moderate, the high during the last 24 hours being 49 degrees and the low 46 degrees.

Ambulance Operation Agreement Reached

The Prince Rupert General Hospital and the city council have reached an agreement regarding the operation of the ambulance until the end of the year. The basis of the arrangement is a fifty-fifty split of the operating cost.

QUESTION OF LOAD LINE

The much-discussed load line question as it affects deep sea shipping out of Prince Rupert cropped up again at Monday night's meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce when Arthur Brooksbank, chairman of the port committee, suggested that Prince Rupert should be represented at the next international load line convention with the proposal that the line should be moved northward in the Pacific to take in Dixon's entrance and Prince Rupert in addition to Cape Flattery and Vancouver. It was held that this would be a matter of importance in any efforts that would be made to promote deepsea shipping from Prince Rupert after the war, particularly under the summer load line for shipping moving southward. Some years ago the load line had been protested on behalf of Prince Rupert. Mr. Brooksbank expressed the opinion that expert advice and representation might have to be obtained. The matter was left to the port committee to pursue further.

Is Interested In Port Development

The Smithers and District Chamber of Commerce is interested in doing everything it can to promote the interests of Prince Rupert as a major port of the Pacific Northwest, a letter from the interior chamber read at the meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce Monday night said. Further information from Prince Rupert was sought. The letter was referred to the trade and commerce committee.

The local service boat F. H. Phippen has not yet returned from Ketchikan after having been dispatched north at the first of the week to tow back the dogfish boat Eight Bells which recently was wrecked on Percy Island, two of her crew losing their lives and the other two being in hospital at Ketchikan suffering from injuries and exposure in a harrowing experience before being rescued. Going north with the F. H. Phippen were Capt. Reg Green and Capt. Henry Hanson, two of the Armour Salvage Co.'s skippers who will assist in bringing the Eight Bells back here.
