AIR FORCE BUSY WEEK

OTTAWA, March 10 @-The R.C.A.F. issued its weekly summary of overseas operations last night. The report disclosed that the Canadian bomber group operated on two days and three nights of the past week.

The swift mosquitos of the Royal Canadian Air Force listed three night jobs for the week. One was an intruder patrol, while the other two were the escorting of heavy bombers.

Operations of Canadian squadrons on the continent were greatly hampered by unsettled weather. However, some 1200 sorties were flown in spite of that.

KEEPING UP JAP ALARM

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10 (-A Japanese radio commentator made the exaggerated statement today that American forces now are attempting to make a landing on Japan proper. However, the context of the statement showed clearly that the propaganda broadcast was not announcing that an actual inva-

RE-ARRESTED

PARIS, March 10 (P)-The Pari radio has announced that the escaped Italian General, Mario Roatta, has been re-arrested. Roatta's escape last week precipitated an Italian government crisis. The general was being tried on war crimes charges. The Paris broadcast quoted unofficial Rome dispatches. Roatta was Italian Army chief of staff under the Fascist regime.

NAZI COUNTER-ATTACKS REPULSED

PARIS, March 10 (CP)—Tank-supported German infantry struck at the fifty-square-mile American First Army bridgehead over the Rhine at Remagen today but were stopped cold as thousands of infantrymen sped over the bridge in a race against enemy columns moving up for battle. A front correspondent said the Germans have already lost the race. Farther upstream the American Third Army smashed forward to within two miles of Coblenz. To the north Ontario infantry of the First Canadian Army captured Veen, strong point in the Wesel triangle west of the Rhine. Allied forces have pushed the Germans out of four villages in the Wesel pocket.

LONDON, March 10 (CP)—On the eastern front the Germans are telling the story of their mounting reverses. Berlin says the Russians have captured part of the Oder River fortress of Kuestrin, 38 miles east of the German capital.
