S of Destruction of Steamer Prince George at Ketchikan

Such the courtesy of the Ketchikan Alaska Chronicle these graphic pictures of the destruction of the steamer Prince George at Ketchikan last Saturday were obtained by the Daily News. The air picture shows the Prince George as it was being towed and Pennock Island by the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps motor vessel General Kennedy from Prince Rupert for beaching on Gravina Island. The Ketchikan city fire boat is seen pouring water into the ship's freight hold while escorting naval and coastguard craft hover around the flaming steamer. The close-up shows the ship aflame from stem to stern. Before these pictures were taken Capt. Neil MacLean and fifty members of his crew as well as fire fighters had been removed after it was seen that she was doomed. The pictures were taken by Staff Photographer Walter Akens of the Ketchikan Chronicle from a Ketchikan Air Service plane.

Powerful Plea For Post-War Use of This Port Made By Delegation

Powerful Plea For Post-War Use of This Port Made By Delegation

Local Delegation Emphasizes Importance of Port Development—Dry Dock and City Briefs Are Also Presented

OTTAWA, Sept. 25—A powerful appeal for federal government subsidies to assist deep sea cargo ports to make Prince Rupert a regular port of call to the United Kingdom trade was launched in Ottawa Monday afternoon by Mayor H. M. Daggett, Wm. G. G. and James Nicholl when they delivered the brief for industrial and economic recognition to a panel of cabinet ministers who received the Prince Rupert delegation.

The brief emphasizes the need for government assistance if Prince Rupert is to have an "even chance" as a world port, the brief pointed a reminding finger at government subsidies which have been employed to place Vancouver and New Westminster on a competitive basis with the more advanced American ports of Seattle, Portland and San Francisco in years past.

In its initial paragraph it stated that, before the outbreak of war, the Dominion government had made financial provision for subsidizing regular steamship service between Prince Rupert and the United Kingdom, and urged that they now be put into effect.

These subsidies must continue if Prince Rupert becomes a "open" port, the brief contended.

It is pointed out that the steamship company can be expected to pioneer this service without the assistance of government subsidies because the present subsidized lines can secure full cargoes from Vancouver and all other Pacific ports and will not incur the additional cost to their ships to Prince Rupert to help develop that port.

The brief states that ships will only go to the ports which they can serve with the least expense and it must be shown that a new port, such as Prince Rupert can be served by a steamship line at a profit. The document reminds the government of the extent to which port facilities at Prince Rupert and Port Edward have been developed and of their war-

NOMINATION OF PATTULLO

Nomination papers of T. D. Pattullo, independent candidate for re-election as M.L.A. for Prince Rupert constituency were filed with Returning Officer A. Bruce Brown this morning, making him the first of the three candidates to give formal indication of his intention to seek re-election. Mr. Pattullo's nomination was proposed by Cyril H. Orme and seconded by George Watson Nickerson.

DIFFICULTIES AT CONFERENCE

Europe's Inland Waterways Cause of Latest Big Five Differences

LONDON, Sept. 25—The Big Five Council of Foreign Ministers, skirting main issues of the European peace settlement, ran into fresh difficulties yesterday on a comparatively minor problem—the emergency control of Europe's inland waterways. Divergence of views between Russia on one side and Britain and the United States on the other again cropped up in the discussions, adding to the disagreements of the last two weeks.

FIRE THREATENS DRY DOCK CRANE

A fire which broke out at the end of the fitting-out pier at the Prince Rupert dry dock created a threat to the 50-ton electric crane towering above it at 6:30 this morning but was extinguished with only minor damage to the planking and piling of the pier.

Greatest damage was the loss of a fireman's helmet by Acting Fire Chief Earl Becker which fell into the harbor as he climbed over the end of the pier. It was believed that the fire may have started from the government lighthouse tender Albern which spent the night moored at the pier. The vessel had left when the alarm was turned in by a dry dock watchman.

To Attend Paris Labor Conference

VANCOUVER, Sept. 25—Bert Showler, president of the Vancouver-New Westminster District Trades and Labor Council, left Vancouver today for Montreal and will sail on the New Amsterdam for Paris to attend the twenty-seventh session of the International Labor Conference opening October 13. He was appointed by the federal government.

CANADIAN BOAT HELPED REMOVE DOOMED VESSEL

The Royal Canadian Army Service Corps vessel General Kennedy joined U.S. Coast Guard tugboats in warping the doomed coastal liner Prince George away from the wharf at Ketchikan after she had burned for an hour and become a threat to waterfront buildings Saturday morning. The General Kennedy, which participated in the towing of the Greenhill Park at Vancouver in February, was actually first alongside the George and was the only vessel that actually towed her. Lieut. G. C. Bastedo, local water transport officer, was on hand to assist.

The General Kennedy had taken a Canadian Army softball team to Ketchikan and an account of her assistance in towing the burning vessel was given to a Daily News reporter by John Montgomery, Prince Rupert Y.M.C.A. war services director, who had accompanied the Canadian team north.

When they left Ketchikan late Sunday afternoon the Prince George was lying on her side still burning on the Pennock Island shore where she had been beached, Mr. Montgomery said. Still burning fiercely at the forward part of the hull, the steel plates of her midship section had caved in from the effects of the extreme heat.

All Saturday night the flames from the Prince George lighted up the Ketchikan waterfront. Mr. Montgomery recounted, "About 1:30 Sunday morning she was torn by a terrific explosion as her boilers blew up."

The ship was beached three different times as the men on the towboats sought to put her on the beach at a safe place, the observers declared. The first time she was set ashore on Pennock Island the rising tide set her adrift again.

Beached Close To Ammunition Dump

The second time she was put ashore, it was found that the Prince George had been beached at a spot only about 1000 feet from an ammunition dump on the island, and frantic efforts were made to pull her free.

Rationing Necessary

RATIONING TO STAY
VANCOUVER, Sept. 25—Donald Gordon, chairman of the Prices and Trade Board, said here today that meat rationing was here to stay because there was no alternative. It had become a moral issue, he said, and the government was to be congratulated on its courage in imposing it.

OTTAWA, Sept. 25—Finance Minister Isley has told the House of Commons that Canada would be a "quitter" nation if she refused to share her burden of post-war responsibilities. Mr. Isley told the House that part of Canada's share of responsibility was the delivery of her commitments of meat to Europe. He added that this makes rationing necessary in Canada.

C.C.F. leader M. J. Coldwell said that rationing indicated that such rationing is necessary in Canada. He said that his party will support the government in this matter.

Social Credit leader Solon Low said he believed that Canada should supply starving Europe but that other means than rationing should be investigated.

Progressive Conservative leader John Bracken told newsmen that the people had to wait a long time for the statement but it was interesting.

LOCAL CITIZENS "ON THE BALL"

Complaints that Prince Rupert people are apathetic to the future welfare of their city no longer impress City Clerk H. D. Thain. A series of experiences Saturday afternoon convinced him that everybody is right "on the ball."

When reports of the Prince George disaster at Ketchikan reached the city the telephone in the Thain home began to ring. Saturday afternoon is the city clerk's day off and he was improving it by chopping wood.

An unending series of voices asked the same question. "Have you informed the city's Ottawa delegation of the burning of the Prince George?"

Everyone had the same idea—the delegation should press for the construction of a new vessel at the Prince Rupert dry dock.

It gave Mr. Thain some satisfaction to be able to reply that he had wired the delegation the information just before noon.

HIROHITO IS "DEMOCRATIC"

NEW YORK, Sept. 25—Hugh Baillie, president of United Press, has had a 25-minute interview with Emperor Hirohito in Tokyo. Hirohito said he hoped the Japanese people would come to appreciate the value of a democratic form of government. Baillie said that Hirohito was taller than he had expected and he had a scholarly air.

Condemns Spanish Dictator

Soviet Ambassador Dubs Franco as War Criminal

Through Actions Against Russia Has Put Himself On Same Level As Hitler and Mussolini

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (CP)—Nikolai Novikov, acting Soviet ambassador for the United States, called last night for the removal of General Francisco Franco as head of the Spanish government and said he should be tried "as a war criminal."

Novikov, charge d'affaires of the Soviet embassy in Washington and acting ambassador in the absence of Andrei Gromyko, addressed 17,000 persons at a Madison Square Garden rally sponsored by the Spanish Republican government in exile.

Novikov said that Franco, through his actions against Russia, had "put himself on the same level with Hitler and Mussolini and, in the same measure as they, is subject to prosecution as a war criminal."

IS APART FROM CIVIC CENTRE

Explanation In Connection With Campaign For Recreational Funds

In connection with the campaign for funds which is now in progress, the Prince Rupert Recreational Council has pointed out that the objects of the organization in no way parallel the objects of the Prince Rupert Civic Centre Association, the main objective of which is to supply a building for recreational activities.

The purpose of the financial canvass now being undertaken is to enable the Prince Rupert Recreational Council to promote, direct and supervise a program of recreational activity which is already under way for the youth of this city.

The program for October is announced as follows:
 Monday—7 to 8 p.m., Women's Leaders' Class (I.O.D.E. Hall); 8 to 9:30 p.m., Men's Leaders' Class (I.O.D.E. Hall).
 Tuesday—7:30 to 9 p.m., Junior and Intermediate Boys (Westview School).
 Wednesday—7 to 8 p.m., Junior and Intermediate; 8 to 9 p.m., Men's Leaders' Class; 9 to 10 p.m., Open Class (YMCA).
 Thursday—6 to 7 p.m., Junior Boys; 7 to 8 p.m., Intermediate Boys (Seal Cove School).
 Friday—7 to 8 p.m., Women's Leaders' Class; 8 to 9:30 p.m., Men's Leaders' Class (I.O.D.E. Hall).
 Saturday—2 to 3:30 p.m., Women's Leaders' Class (YMCA).

The junior age is 6 to 12 and intermediate, 12 to 16.
 Collections for the first day of the drive totalled $250, Don Forward, Rec council secretary, announced.

Soviet Rebuke

Big Five Parley Is Dwindling

Hope Vanishing for Settlement Of Major European Problems

LONDON, Sept. 25—With hope vanishing for any substantial agreement on European peace settlements at this session of the Big Five foreign ministers, a Russian commentator has rebuked those who would blame the Soviet for divisions in the minister's council. A reviewer in Moscow's Pravda said "The pessimists not only engage in gloomy prophecies, but try to lay the blame for the rise of difficulties upon the Soviet Union."

The Big Five council today begins its third week of deliberations on such subjects as control of European inland waterways, extension of the Austrian government, and removal of British and Russian troops from Iran. This leaves in the background the conflicting series of major issues—the Balkan peace pacts, the Italian colonial possessions, and the frontier dispute between Italy and Yugoslavia.

tonnage for the northern main line of the Canadian National Railways.

2. Allow full utilization of the government grain elevator here.

3. Provide cheaper transportation for canned salmon to the world markets.

4. Assist development of other natural resources in north-central British Columbia.

5. Provide additional work for the government-owned dry dock.

"The northern main line of the C.N.R. connects the wheat fields of northern Saskatchewan and Alberta with Prince Rupert and traverses a large area rich in timber, base metals, coal and other resources," says the brief.

"A subsidized steamship service would result in shipment of all these products and provide additional traffic revenue for this portion of the system."

Shipments of grain would provide a permanent bulk tonnage and use the facilities of the government-owned elevator, thus justifying the construction of the elevator, which was to provide a prosperous export trade through Prince Rupert.

From careful enquiries it is estimated that there would be handled through the Prince Rupert elevator not less than 5,000 tons of grain a month with the possibility of it increasing to 15,000 tons.

A substantial portion of the British Columbia salmon pack is sold in the United Kingdom and a large part originates in northern British Columbia waters, tributary to Prince Rupert. All the northern B.C. salmon pack is shipped to Vancouver at a cost of $4 a ton, then transhipped to United Kingdom ports.

Given a direct service from Prince Rupert to Great Britain, the additional $4 a ton would be eliminated and salmon canners would meet other competition there to the extent of an estimated saving of at least 15 cents a case. This margin, in some varieties, would enable an exporter to compete profitably.

Since American canned salmon packed in Alaska sold freely in the United Kingdom before the war, there is reason to assume, that, given direct service from Prince Rupert to the United Kingdom, with the same rates quoted as from Vancouver and Seattle, vessels plying from Prince Rupert would attract a substantial part of the pack of southeastern Alaska.

In addition to the canned salmon trade, which "by a conservative pre-war estimate" was about 400,000 cases a year from northern B.C., the trade could be extended to frozen fish by the use of refrigerated vessels.

MAJ. DURNFORD NAMED RECTOR OF ST. ANDREW'S

Major (Rev.) Roy C. H. Durnford, D.S.O., was elected last night by a congregational meeting of St. Andrew's Cathedral to take over the rectorship left vacant by the election of former Dean J. B. Gibson to the Bishopric of Caledonia.

Unanimous choice of the meeting of 51 congregation members presided over by Bishop Gibson, Major Durnford has already intimated his willingness to accept the rectorship should he be elected.

It is expected that he may receive his discharge from the Canadian army next month. At present he is still overseas. Major Durnford, former rector of St. Peter's Church, Seal Cove, was padre of the Seaforth Highlanders of Canada and it was for courageous service on the battlefields of Italy that he was awarded the Distinguished Service Order—second only to the Victoria Cross. The Seaforths are due in Vancouver from overseas October 5.

The meeting also passed a motion to establish a fund to build a rectory on the lot adjoining the cathedral.

Collision Knocks Jeep on Sidewalk

Collision of a taxi and a U.S. Army jeep at the corner of Third Avenue and Third Street Monday morning sent the jeep skidding onto the pavement in front of the Northern B.C. Power Company's store but caused no injury to the occupant of the military vehicle, Cpl. Westel Fields of the 366th Quartermaster Stores Company. The jeep was said to have been struck in the rear as it swung from Third Avenue to Third Street by a taxi driven by Barney Turbitt. Both vehicles had been proceeding east on Third Avenue.

Monday night the new winter schedule went into effect with the first of the record dances which will be held each Monday night. Wednesday night the big dance of the week will be held with music by the "Men of Note" Orchestra. The record dance last night proved so popular and well attended that it has been decided to continue them as part of the weekly program.

Another program change takes the Music Hour to Friday night beginning this Friday evening.

The services have been lost of Bob Fleming who has been so generous with his time and talent in arranging these programs. Bob has been posted to Vancouver for discharge and left Saturday night. Sincere thanks are due to Bob for all his work in making these evenings of music so educational and interesting. The program will be taken over by Bob Morrison "Y" supervisor of Area Camp who will start off this Friday with an interesting program.

The delegates also submitted a brief advocating continued operation of the local dry dock, emphasizing the timeliness of using the yard immediately for construction of vitally needed new coastal liners for Canadian National Steamships.

Mayor Daggett presented a brief seeking federal assistance in rehabilitation of war-worn municipal streets and utilities.

PENTICTON MARRIAGE

William Fuller, Former Local Boy Now Squadron Leader, Groom in Pretty Ceremony

A quite wedding was solemnized on Thursday, August 16 at 4:30 p.m., in St. Saviour's Anglican Church, Penticton, when Gwendoline Mary, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Wiseman, was united in marriage to Squadron Leader William Albert Fuller, R.C.A.F., only son of Mrs. L. M. Fuller of Victoria, and the late L. M. Fuller (formerly of Prince Rupert).

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a dressmaker suit of beige and brown wool with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Rev. F. C. Briscall, of Oliver, officiated.

Miss Barbara Wiseman was her sister's bridesmaid and wore a frock of rose wool with brown accessories and carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations, in spike gladioli style.

Stanley Dalby, a school chum of the groom, was best man. The grooms gift to the bride was a gold wrist watch, to the bridesmaid a gold ring, and to the best man a Ronson lighter.

After the ceremony the party returned to the home of the bride's parents where a toast was made to the bride by Mr. Briscall, after which the wedding party proceeded to the Incola Hotel where a wedding reception was held.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were the groom's mother, Mrs. L. M. Fuller, and sister, Mrs. W. F. Wilson, of Victoria.

CANADIANS POLISH OFF COAST GUARD

A Canadian Army softball team administered a 4-3 beating to the cream of Ketchikan Coast Guard fastball practitioners in a seven inning international tilt at the Panhandle city on Saturday.

A composite team, composed mainly of Fortress players, the Canadians clicked beautifully both in fieldwork and at the bat. A home run by Martell, Fortress catcher, in the fourth inning brought in himself and Trichy, who had been lurking on first base after clipping off a singleton.

Burman, Fortress moundsman, hit two singles as well as pitching a first class game. He allowed five hits to the Ketchikan gang, and struck out 10 batters.

Lahman, the Ketchikan pitcher, allowed seven hits and struck out nine.

RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES AT WESTVIEW OPEN

The Prince Rupert Recreational Council will open activities at Westview School tomorrow evening.

In this endeavour the Recreational Council is co-operating with the Westview Bush Rangers to give them a more completely rounded program of activities. Classes will be open to boys—juniors 8 to 12 years old and intermediates 12 to 16 years.

The Westview Bush Rangers have been carrying on their activities for the past five years and Denis Garon, leader of the group, expects that, with the help of the Recreational Council, his club will be more popular than ever. With the money raised from Youth Week more classes for this age group, for both boys and girls, will be formed.

LOOKING OVER BALL LEAGUES

There were no baseball games played at all in the Major Leagues yesterday and the opening game of the final series for the International League's Governors' Cup was postponed because of rain.

The pennant race is still on in both Major Leagues but it is beginning to look more and more like Detroit in the American and Chicago in the National.

All that the Tigers have to do to clinch first place is to take two out of their remaining four games. Even if they win only one, they end up in a tie with the Washington Senators.

In the National League, St. Louis hasn't given up yet. The Redbirds open a two game series with the Cubs in Chicago today and all the blue chips are on the table for those two games. If they win both those games the cards will be right in there for the pennant but if they lose them the jig is pretty well up.

The pennant hopes of the Washington Senators received a jolt yesterday when their protest against the game they lost on Sunday to Philadelphia was thrown out by American League President Will HERRIDGE. Owner Clark Griffith had protested a rule in the eighth inning of the game, when Buddy Lewis fielded Mayo Smith's fly to right field for what apparently was the first out. The Senators say that after the catch, Lewis switched the ball to his right hand and started to make an under-handed toss to second baseman George Myatt who had run out onto the grass. Lewis inadvertently hit his glove with his right hand and dropped the ball. The umpire ruled it "no catch." The Athletics scored three runs in

Petroleum Pact Being Drawn Up

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Petroleum administrators of Britain and the United States have announced the signing of a British-American pact designed to promote orderly development of international petroleum trade. The pact, the result of a week of conferences, requires no further action by the British government but must be ratified by the United States Senate.

Big Leagues—

KEEN FLAG RACE IS ON

Chicago Cubs and Detroit Tigers Still Hard Fought

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The Detroit Tigers are a little closer to the American League pennant today in spite of the fact that they were shut out 5-0 on two hits by the St. Louis Browns Sunday. For, while the league-leading Tigers were losing to St. Louis, second place Washington Senators were splitting a double-header with Philadelphia. Philadelphia took the first game of the twin bill 4-3 and the Senators came back to take the second by the same score. The two games finished Washington's regular schedule and all that Detroit has to do now is to break even on their remaining four games.

In other American League games, Cleveland beat Chicago 8-2, and Boston and New York split a twin bill. Boston took the first game 6-5 and the Yankees copped the second 2-1.

Over in the National League on Sunday, the Chicago Cubs clung to their game and a half lead over St. Louis by beating Pittsburgh 7-3 in the first game of a double-header. The second game was postponed because of rain. St. Louis kept their pennant hopes alive by taking a 9-6 win from Cincinnati and Boston beat New York twice, by 4-1 and 7-3. Philadelphia and Brooklyn each won one game in their double-header. Brooklyn won the first 9-0 and Philadelphia the second, 4-3.

Rain forced cancellation of all National and American League games Monday.

that inning to tie up the game, and won it in the twelfth.

Here are today's baseball games:
National League—St. Louis at Chicago, Brooklyn at New York, Pittsburgh at Cincinnati.
American League—Cleveland at Detroit, Chicago at St. Louis, International League Playoffs—Newark at Montreal.

"The men who fought the fire as the Prince George was standing in mid-harbour certainly deserve credit for their bravery," Mr. Montgomery said. "There were seven or eight men aboard and at all times it looked as if they would have to jump overboard. Yet they stayed aboard and fought the fire as long as there was any hope."

Crew members of the General Kennedy came close to suffering burns when they approached the burning ship to cut the steel tow line after the ship had been set ashore. Sergeant Major H. L. Knox personally released the towline, assisted by Cpl. J. Beacham. They went into sizzling water in a 12-foot dinghy. The ywere actually sprayed with steam from the burning vessel.

Sgt. Major Knox received the British Empire Medal for an exploit earlier in the war when he was skipper of a ship which laid a cable in the open Pacific off the Queen Charlotte Islands.

As they approached to within 20 feet of the ship, steam lines exploded, and they narrowly escaped being badly burned by the torrents of steam that blew in all directions.

Mr. Montgomery said that two Canadian soldiers, members of the R.C.E.M.E., had been booked to return to Prince Rupert from Ketchikan on the destroyed boat. However, they obtained passage on the General Kennedy.
