Mr. Applewhaite's Debut . . .

E. T. Applewhaite, the Liberal candidate for Skeena in the federal election, made his debut on the public political platform in Prince Rupert and the people who heard him last night—political color notwithstanding—will probably agree that he made a favorable impression. He displayed an air of sincerity in a brief talk and was clear cut enough in the few matters that he was able to discuss. When a couple of C.C.F. disturbers interjected upon him he was cool and held to the point he was making in regard to the central control cabal of the Socialist party over its members and all their actions. We shall look forward to hearing more from Mr. Applewhaite in whom the Liberals of Skeena appear to have a very likely candidate in support of the Party and government for which Tom Reid, the fighting Scotsman from New Westminster and principal speaker, made out an able case.

C. C. F. anathemae—dictatorship at home and abroad and the Japanese question. If it wasn't for these, how simple the Socialistic utopia would be?

Parting of Political Ways . . .

Victory in Europe has not been long in producing a parting of the ways as far as the government of Britain is concerned. The British Labor Party has decided that the time has come for it to go on its own, terminating the wartime alliance which produced the national government. This is the Labor party's answer to Mr. Churchill's proposal that his national government should see the war with Japan through before it relinquishes office.

It would not be characteristically Churchillian to permit a situation like this to continue for long so a speedy move by the Prime Minister under the circumstances may be anticipated. It has been already suggested that this may come in the way of an early dissolution of Parliament, the formation of a new government consisting of Conservatives and such of the Prime Minister's present Labor colleagues as may choose to stay with him and the calling of a general election in the near future.

At this distance it might have seemed desirable to us for the National Government to have continued until after the war is really finished with the defeat of Japan. However, ten years is a long time for any democratic country to go without a mandate. The British Labor Party may have some justification in now asking for an expression as to what kind of a government Britain is to have in the now drawing era of peace. Issues involved are almost entirely in the domestic sphere. A general election in Britain, even the accession of a Labor government, could hardly have any major effect on foreign policy. Indeed it might even facilitate the solution of some of the different international problems which are already looming up in the world's councils.

It looks like the war is almost over when rats and unmarried mothers are the major topics of consideration for a pleasant summer evening's council meeting.

CANADA

it was right for him to pay tribute to Olof Hanson that whom, he said, there had been no finer citizen or Member of Parliament at Ottawa.

Back in 1940, Mr. Reid said, the Mackenzie King government had been elected to carry out the war. Now that government could come before the people and ask where it had failed in carrying out the war. The fact was that Canada had been guided and led in a remarkably good job. Man for man there was no nation which had surpassed it. Then why all the criticism from those who, instead of assisting in that war effort, had actually endeavored to deter it? Who could point to graft or misdoing?

"But what about profits?" came a question from the audience.

"I'm glad to hear a question like that," retorted Mr. Reid. "I'd like to know myself how anyone could beat Mr. Ilsley and make profits. If anyone knows of any millionaires coming out of this war, I would very much like to know who they were so I could have a check-up made on them."

As for Canada's fiscal record in war, Mr. Reid alluded to the billion dollars given outright to Britain and the billion dollars worth of goods and materials made available for it to draw upon.

"We did not ask Britain, fighting the enemy alone when the credits were made, about repayment," said the speaker, "but we have taken steps whereby Great Britain and other countries will purchase after the war the goods we have in abundance and which we would never be able to consume ourselves."

It was true that Canada's debt had trebled since 1939 but 97 percent of that debt was held by the people of Canada themselves who had bought nine billion dollars worth of war securities for which they received $297,000,000 a year in interest. Here was a revolving fund of purchasing power for after the war.

Mr. Reid referred to the Canadian price control system which had held down the increase in the cost of living to 18 percent—a price control system which had received the plaudits of all the nations of the world and had been copied by many.

As for the conscription issue about which so much had been heard, every party had promised in the 1940 election not to impose conscription for overseas service. At no time could conscription have won the approval of Parliament. Then why blame Mackenzie King for not imposing conscription by bludgeoning the representatives of the people? "Sometime this whole conscription story may have to be told and it may not be so nice."

No Central Centre Here

Mr. Reid was alluding to the C.C.F. when he assured the audience that Liberal members were responsible only to the people of their riding and could not be coerced in their actions either by a party or a government. Liberals promised service only to the people—not to a party executive. "Yes, we have voted in Parliament against our own party. Try that with some of the other parties, which I need not mention, and see how long you would last."

Turning to the government's post-war plans, Mr. Reid referred to the fifteen-point rehabilitation scheme for service men and women.

As for unemployment, the blunders of 1933 would never be repeated. Never again would a finance minister be able to stand up in Parliament and ask where was the money coming from to provide jobs and security for the people. "The war has taught us many lessons and not the least of these has been in regard to money."

The country had been surveyed with a view to providing employment for four million persons after the war and a scheme set up to meet that number.

Distribution of $250,000,000 per year in family allowances would be of direct benefit to every family person receiving less than $3,000 per year.

Only the provinces had prevented the federal government from implementing a more beneficial old age pension and health insurance scheme.

The National Housing Act had been amended to take care of every community in the matter of home building. A $100,000,000 fund was set aside. A survey showed $550,000 new homes would be needed in Canada. For $22.50 per month it would be possible to own a $4000 home in fifteen years.

Veterans who went on the land would have a straight gift of $2300 toward a $6000 farm and security was provided for them by a price floor scheme and the undertaking of government to buy all surplus products.

The same price floor scheme was provided also for fishermen in the marketing of their products.

"The future will have many problems—international and local—but here in Canada you have a government which has already taken steps to see that the betterment of the Canadian people is assured," concluded Mr. Reid. "This is what we have done, not what we are merely talking about doing, and that is why we come to you and ask that you support and return the Liberal candidate in the election on June 11."

Speaking of the Japanese question, Mr. Reid told how British Columbia members had insisted on a policy of nothing less than removal of Japanese from the country. The only hope for settlement of this Jap matter along the desired lines was the return of Liberal members from British Columbia. Certainly nothing could be expected from the C.C.F. who would go so far as to give them the franchise. The next thing they might be sitting in Parliament. Mr. Reid charged the C.C.F. with bringing the Japanese question into the political field by advocating the extension of franchise to them.

Mr. Applewhaite Also Heard

E. T. Applewhaite, the Liberal candidate, said, if he could be three-quarters as good a member as had been Olof Hanson, he would think he had not done too bad a job.

In offering himself as candidate, he appealed on two major grounds:

First, his personal worthiness to be the representative of the people of the district.

Second, his support of a Liberal administration of the country.

Mr. Applewhaite criticized the C.C.F. not being a responsible and democratic party as long as its members and their actions were controlled by a central executive or inner circle rather than by the people of the ridings concerned. "It is different with Liberals. Not even the National Liberal Federation could turn me out after I become the nominee of the people of the district."

No government in the world had made more comprehensive plans for the re-establishment of the service men on their return from war. Mr. Applewhaite, however, appealed to the people to welcome home the returned men—extending a helpful, cheerful and patient consideration not only in the enthusiasm of the home coming but in the years beyond.

The Liberal candidate made his stand on the Japanese question clear—their exclusion from the coastal region of British Columbia and, insofar as feasible, the deportation of all people of the Japanese race. "I will vote against any government which does not act along these lines," he promised.

Olof Hanson Brief Speaker

Olof Hanson spoke briefly. He promised his assistance to this district wherever possible even if he was no longer a member. He had no intention of quitting the north.

The retiring member read from a letter from an Army officer in Germany who said that he could see no other party than the Liberals because of their able and efficient service.

The Liberals were bound to go back into office at Ottawa and Skeena could not afford to be in opposition at a time when all assistance would be needed in the development of the area.

"small business" ISN'T SO SMALL!

Ordinarily one Canadian in every six gainfully employed, earns his livelihood in a "small business." It may be a farm, a store or a lumber yard; an architect's office or a servicestation. Taken together, these individual enterprises provide a very substantial part of Canada's total jobs—must continue to do so after the war.

During the years ahead many people who dropped small business for war reasons will want to return to their accustomed or new ways of making a living. Thus old businesses will be revived. Many new ones will be started by returned men and people now in war industries. The new Industrial Development Bank and the commercial banks, together, afford assurance that no sound credit requirement need be left unserved in the field of small business.

As such businesses grow, they create additional job openings; that has been the pattern of Canadian enterprises. Most large companies began in a small way. And practically all could name some bank which played a part in their growth by providing the loans they needed to finance their day-to-day operations.

Your bank stands ready to serve businesses, small or large, well established or just starting out. Banks do not initiate such businesses—but they do furnish necessary working capital and many other forms of banking service.

'MUSIC, MUSKIE' MADE BIG HIT

Pete Wambach's Opus Meets With Approval at Seal Cove

Pete Wambach's opus, "Music and Muskie," two-act, seven-scene musical comedy, opened at Seal Cove last night before a packed house of airmen and their guests which was not hesitant in expressing its appreciation. The show is scheduled to play Acropolis Hill Wednesday, Port Edward Thursday, and the YMCA Friday.

From the opening curtain at 8:00 to the finale at 9:45, the audience enthusiastically accepted the witty dialogue and sparkling tunes with rounds of applause. The comedy roles of S/Sgt. Tommy Walton and Helen Marchildon were the highlights of the production. Sgt. Harry Norman and Jo Murray Sykes played the romantic leads to perfection with Norman's sentimental ballads stilling the audience. The excellent performances of the supporting cast—Cpl. Walter Roberts, Sgt. Bill McBride, Pfc. Johnny Cizmas, Cpl. Cecil Frey, Pte. Tex Fenske (Canadian soldier), Pfc. Jack Fisher, Pfc. Harry Parker, Alice Clapp, Steve Sionski, and accompanist, Frank Mansell—contributed largely to the success of the show.

The action of the play is centred on Acropolis Hill, the Boston Cafe and the Stedman Hotel in Ketchikan.

The overture was played by the Acropolis Hill Post Band under the direction of Sgt. John Stroessler and included a special arrangement of the hit songs of the show.

Following the final curtain, the audience shouted their demands for the author. Director Pete Wambach, tired, hair tousled, slowly climbed the stage, obviously happy at the way his show had been received. For the first time, Wambach was at loss for words. All he could say was a humble "thank you," his pride and appreciation for the excellent work of the cast, the fine job of the producer, Frank Finnerty, USO Director, and the prop-men, Sgt. Larry Rounds, Pfc. Irv Radditz, and Pfc. John Donchak.

F/L R. W. Peel, of Edmonton, Alta., representing the Officers and men at Seal Cove, thanked Pete Wambach and cast for a fine evening of entertainment. Later, the cast were guests of F/L Peel at the Officers' Mess.

AIR FORCE IN FINALS

Defeated Soo Suds 9 to 3 in Floor Hockey Last Night

The Air Force team hurdled its last obstacle to the finals of the Area Floor Hockey League by defeating Soo Suds 9 to 3 in a sudden-death game last night. The Flyers are slated to play Navy tonight in the first of the best-of-three games final series. Jeffries paced Air Force in its victory with three goals while Yelles secured two and Boyd, Hughes, Brophy and Arnold got one each. Louls, Marinacci and Cox tallied for Soo Suds.

The score by periods follows:
Air Force 5 2 2-9
Soo Suds 0 1 2-3

Previous to the floor hockey game, two volley ball league tilts were played and in these "B" Mess downed Prince Rupert Defences with three straight wins and Navy defeated Coast Regiment by the same margin.

No Soccer Field Is Yet Available

The soccer season has been delayed in Prince Rupert this season because Acropolis Hill authorities have not granted the Area League permission to use their field, it was learned today. In previous years the soccer players have had the privilege of using the field.

SEA CADETS ON CHURCH PARADE

The Prince Rupert Sea Cadet Corps rounded out a busy week on Sunday morning with a smart church parade. Under Lieut. Commander Alex Mitchell and led by their bugle and drum band, they marched from the Court House grounds to First United Church where Padre E. W. Scott conducted an appropriate service. The lesson was read by the commanding officer and the padre delivered a sermon of timely import. The corps settles down to routine again tonight with its weekly parade.

The tight-lipped men who clock the morning workouts at Toronto's Woodbine Park say the 26th running of the $10,000 Kings Plate May 26 should be a familiar story for railbirds—Hatch first and the rest nowhere with scarcely a dissenting voice, they declare the double blue silks of wealthy owner-breeder Harry G. Hatch of Toronto should be first to the wire in the mile and one-eighth gallop for the guineas, just as they were in 1936, 1937, 1941 and 1944. It was last year—1944—which Hatch reserved for his greatest sweep. Then his three entries, Acara, Ompalo and Sayonara, finished first, second and fourth respectively in the most sweeping triumph for one owner since Don Juan won the inaugural running of Canada's richest horse race in 1860.

Many horesmen say Hatch can do it again this year. When final payment was made on May 1, he still had four eligibles—Uttermost, Fair Jester, Paul J. and Luresteo. Any of the four, believe the backstretch brigade, might be good enough to win. But most of the applause is reserved for Uttermost, bay colt by imported Soleil du Midi-Uppermost which earned $18,595 last season in winning Ontario's Triple Crown for juveniles—the Coronation Stakes, Clarendon Plate and Mrs. Orpen's Cup and Saucer.

Uttermost has whirled a mile in 1:44 4-5 in pre-race workouts, one of the fastest dawn trials recorded so far. He has been worked in company with Fair Jester, a Kentucky Derby eligible by Fairway, which was imported in utero.

On 1944 performances, the only horse outside the Hatch barn with any pretensions to class emerges in Optionor, owned by H. W. (Butch) Taylor of Toronto. Optionor twice finished ahead of Uttermost—once in the rich Diamond Ring at Dufferin Park—in winning three of 15 starts during the season.

For the rest of the 42 eligibles, about 12 of which are expected to go to the post in the Plate race on the second Saturday of the Woodbine spring meeting which opened May 19, pre-race odds range from 5-1 to 100-1. Seventeen of the outsiders are fillies and one of these—Leigh McCorhy's Corvite—stepped front and centre in the Plate picture recently with a mile workout in 1:44 3-5.

Others prominently mentioned are Hemjohn, owned by the Bur-Fit Stables of Hamilton, Ont.; Cosgrave Stable's Iribelle; Mrs. B. Hulse's Frivolous Kit; Frank Gilpin's Tarian; Medway Stable's Floral Gift; Halton Brook Stable's Ferry Pilot and John Stuart's the Sheriff.

The King's Plate is the oldest continuously-run race on the North American continent. In its unbroken 86-year history, it has been staged at Carlton, Guelph, London, Hamilton, St. Catharines, Whitby, Kingston, Ottawa, Barrie, Woodstock, Prescott and Pictou. Since 1882, it has been run at Woodbine Park.

Notes and Views of the CITY COUNCIL

A draft of an order-in-council drawn up by a firm of Vancouver solicitors which would authorize local garages to close for half a day on Saturdays instead of Thursdays, submitted to council by Rupert Motors, was referred back to the garage men's solicitors by council for clarification of a clause of the draft.

A request by Victory Shows of Edmonton to play in Prince Rupert from September 1 to 8 was granted by council providing the proprietor pay a licence of $100 a day and be subject to regulations set by Police Sgt. O. L. Hall.

Council last night authorized the finance committee to meet with the executive of the local branch of the Canadian Legion to discuss the Legion's offer to purchase the lot adjoining the Legion building.

Three readings of a bylaw authorizing the sale of city-owned lots to Math and Emma Norgaard and Eldor Anderson were given by City Council last night. The bylaw authorizes the purchase by Mr. and Mrs. Norgaard of lots 17 and 18, block 12, section 7 for $250 and the sale of lot 22, block 8, section 1 and buildings to Mr. Anderson for $1710.

FIRST SORORITY

The first letter sorority, Kappa Alpha Theta, was founded at De Pauw University in 1870.

Of General Interest

Watch For Label

From now on virtually every type of men's women's and children's clothing must be labelled in such a way that the manufacture can be identified, regardless of when the clothes were manufactured. The label, which must be attached to the garment when it reaches the customer, will make it easier to investigate in cases of suspected degradation.

Strict Co-ordination

War charity funds throughout Canada are collecting money now some clothing for shipment to the liberated countries, but only under the supervision of National War Services.

Good News, Girls

More aluminum is now available for pots and pans than there has been for some little time, and it is expected the supply available in retail stores will improve within the next few months.

Liberal Rations

On 10-day leaves, the long-leave ration card of any service man or service woman will contain coupons for a full two weeks ration. Each butter coupon on a long-leave card may be used to purchase one-half pound of butter.

Are you entertaining out-of-town house guests? You will be doing them an honor by having us publish a personal note about their visit.

KEEPING HOUSE IN WARTIME

Collectors' Items That Are Easy To Make and Good to Eat

Career woman, bride-to-be or 40-years-married—every homemaker at heart loves to collect recipes. Judging by the number of repeat requests received for them, today's recipes are among the most popular ever issued by the Consumer Section, Dominion Department of Agriculture. So, brides, get out your scissors! Recipes for dishes easy to make, as good to eat, don't come your way every day.

Hurry Up Rhubarb Pudding

1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
2 teaspoons sugar
1/8 teaspoon salt
2-3 cup milk
2 cups rhubarb cut in 1-inch pieces
2-3 cup brown sugar
3/4 cup boiling water

Mix and sift flour, baking powder, sugar and salt, add milk and combine. Place rhubarb in a greased baking dish and spread batter over it. Dissolve brown sugar in boiling water, pour over batter. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375 degrees F., for 30 minutes. Six servings.

Crinkles

1/2 cup mild-flavored fat

Timely Tips

Kitchen Garden

Don't throw out that cooking onion that is starting to sprout and get soft. Put it in a jar or dish with a little water and watch the sprouts turn green. These sprouts are handy for seasoning salads, soup or vegetables and give a fine flavor.

Glossy Finish

Soap should not be used for washing enamel paint—it dulls the gloss. Instead, use clear hot water, to which one teaspoon of washing soda has been added for every gallon of water.

Indispensable Salt

... and usually at hand for emergencies. If a teacup is stained, dampen it, rub with salt and the stain disappears; if the hot water bottle leaks, fill it with hot salt and get good heat; if food is spilled and burns on the stove, smother the smoke with a small amount of salt. (Warning—salt must not get into the unit of an electric stove).

Capabilities

In these busy days it is a smart move for mothers to search out and develop home-making talents in their children. No matter how small the job, the trick lies in careful teaching as a profession so that there is pride in accomplishment.

LONDON, G.—Mr. and Mrs. Warwick Fedden are living almost directly over a big German bomb. It was dropped one night in 1940 but failed to explode, was covered with 16 feet of concrete and declared safe.

LONDON, G.—Sir John Anderson, chancellor of the exchequer, told an all-party deputation of women members of parliament that the present evil service practice of dismissing women on marriage will be reconsidered immediately.

Nutrition Quiz

Here is a true-false quiz from the Division of Nutrition, Ottawa. Correct answers follow, but test your knowledge first.

Question 1.—Milk should be kept in a dark place. True or false?

Question 2.—One half-cup of tomato juice at breakfast supplies the day's requirements of vitamin C. True or false?

Correct answers:

1. True. If exposed to direct sunlight, up to 66% of the B-vitamin, riboflavin, is destroyed in 2 hours.

2.—False. Tomato juice is only about half as rich in vitamin C as citrus fruits. Therefore, when serving tomato juice for breakfast, make sure that other foods high in vitamin C are included in the diet the same day. Cabbage salad or greens, preferably raw, are excellent supplements.

They located an enemy SP that was pinning down an entire company of infantry. Although the company commander was killed at his side and his own driver severely wounded, Gomez fearlessly advanced his SP to a suitable position. His own gun was hit twice by enemy fire but Gomez, laying the gun himself, destroyed the SP with one round.

Shortly after that a strong enemy patrol attacked an infantry company headquarters. With his gun exposed and at very short range, Gomez mounted his SP and manned the machine gun. He killed one German, seven others surrendered and the remainder retired, enabling the infantrymen despite heavy casualties, to hold the vital area in the face of spirited counter-attacks.

About a week later while in support of 7 C.I.B. between Goresell and Deventer, Jig Troop six-pounders, commanded by Lieut. R. F. Howsam, Toronto, and with Sgt. Herb Ruddock, St. Stephen, N.B., as troop sergeant, engaged the enemy firing from a group of farm buildings across the Ijssel. They poured six rounds of armor piercing and 12 rounds of H.E., setting the building on fire. The Germans scurried away.

The troop saw another gun firing some 1400 yards away. It was a French tank, hull down and only the turret exposed. As the range was too great for a six-pounder, Major W. K. Love, St. Stephen, B.B., battery commander, summoned Gomez and his SP's. Thirty-one rounds were fired and the tank left burning.

The 105th is an SP battery and whenever there's a particularly tough task to be carried out it's a better than even bet that Gomez and his gun crew will draw the assignment.

They will add color and a delicate flavor closely resembling that of chives. Finely chopped green onion ends added to fluffy mashed potatoes give a new twist to an old standby.

BLACKHEADS

Don't squeeze blackheads—dissolve them. Get two ounces of peroxide powder from any drug store and apply gently with wet, hot cloth over blackheads. They dissolve and disappear by this safe simple method.

The Experts Say...

First aid for vitamins—how to have or not have these elusive elements. Here are a few do's and don'ts which apply to fruits and vegetables whether they are fresh from the garden or fresh from the market. Don't crush, bruise or soak. Keep cold until ready to cook or eat. Serve as soon as possible after preparation. Vitamin C is allergic to air. That means that the larger the surface exposed to the air, the more quickly vitamin C is destroyed. Save it by making raw salads and cole slaws at the last minute. If cooking, make the time as short as possible, keep tightly covered and use a minimum of water. One last don't: If you're using frozen vegetables do not thaw them before cooking.

SANDWICHES—For a meal at home, in the lunch box or in the picnic basket—play an important role. They are equally suitable as a main course, cold with garnishes or hot with gravy or sauce. But certain rules always apply: sandwiches should be well seasoned, flavorful and decorative. The home economists of the Agriculture Department Consumer Section gave me these helpful hints for successful sandwich making. Use sufficient filling to make sure that sandwiches are tasty and wrap them carefully to retain freshness. If they have to be made ahead of time, wrap them and place them in a loosely covered container in the refrigerator. To stretch the butter supply, butter only one slice of bread and put a soft, moist filling on the other. When mayonnaise is used, use it instead of butter on one slice. Cream a small portion of butter and add to the sandwich filling, then blend. When using this filling do not butter the bread.

Warmer days mean more picnic lunches and here is a filling recommended for such outdoor meals. It will keep for several days if it is kept covered and cold.

Savory Sandwich Fillings—Combine 1 1/2 cups minced, cooked roast beef, corned beef or tongue, one cup grated, mild-flavored cheese, 1/2 cup sleet pickle (chopped), one teaspoon grated onion, 1/2 cup salad dressing and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Blend together lightly. This makes three cups of filling.

GREENS—If your family is "greens shy," nibbling the white ends of spring onions and discarding the tender green tips, don't be upset. Cut off the green tips and set them aside to be chopped up later to season potato, tomato or cabbage salad.

Real Social Security or Rationed Scarcity?

To the political and economic reactionary, Social Security is something to be used as a bribe to win votes—a sop to soothe unrest. Social makeshifts of that kind are actually offered to-day as political substitutes for sound, economic planning for the post-war reconstruction of Canada.

To the State Socialist, on the other hand, Social Security is a bookish theory seeking to prove that poverty would be much more endurable if only it were much more general.

And now, listen for a moment to John Bracken, the forthright leader of the Progressive Conservative Party:—"The State here in Canada, unlike in Germany, is the servant of the people, not its master. Finance, and economic mechanisms associated with it, must likewise be regarded as the servants, not the masters, of our economy. The underwriting of prosperity AND social security is a proper function of the State."

Notice how closely prosperity and social security are linked together.

We are determined that Social Security shall no longer be regarded as a charity but as what it is—a social obligation and national responsibility of the very first magnitude and importance. Social Security must grow with prosperity—because the degree to which social services may be provided is determined by the size of the national income. We are pledged to maintain that income at a high prosperous level. It is against this background of plenty for all, that the Progressive Conservatives see Social Security.

The Progressive Conservative Party is pledged to provide, without delay, a uniform and comprehensive social security programme for all Canadians, including:

- Extended unemployment insurance coverage.
Adequate payments for the maintenance of unemployables.
Accident and sickness benefits.
Children's allowances.
Maternity benefits.
Widows' benefits.
Retirement pensions.
Increased old age pensions at age 65.
Increased pensions for the blind.

Where any of these social services are administered provincially, we shall provide grants large enough to ensure adequate standards of social security for all Canadians.

Compare this positive and complete programme with the make-shift expedients of other parties. No other party can equal or even approach John Bracken's guarantee of security for all Canadians.

It's rational security—NOT rationed scarcity.

DANGER OF DIPHTHERIA

Report from Europe Alarms Health Authorities—Value of Toxoid Emphasized

The authentic report from the health division of UNRRA that Nazi armies carried diphtheria with them to all parts of invaded Europe is significant in that it serves to emphasize the value of toxoid and just what can happen when health services, including immunization, are disrupted or neglected, says Dr. R. G. Knipe, medical health officer for Prince Rupert. Canadian health authorities have reason for alarm over such a report.

The UNRRA said Norway, the Netherlands, Belgium, Northern France and Czechoslovakia suffered especially. Only Great Britain and Hungary, where immunization was pushed to the limit, escaped the scourge.

Disease carriers with the Nazi armies spread diphtheria epidemics wherever they went. The same can happen in Canada with our own returning troops perhaps being the innocent "carriers."

In an editorial warning against diphtheria, the Toronto Globe and Mail said that "considering that thousands of Canadian soldiers soon will be returning from the Netherlands, Belgium and Northern France, which have especially suffered from the German-borne scourge, the value of toxoid is underlined. The editorial stated that "careless parents who fail to take advantage of the opportunity to have children treated at no cost to them will be derelict in duty if they fail to guard against a threatened invasion of the disease. They surely ought to be shaken from their indifference by the warning that oceans constitute no effective barrier against a disease of the diphtheria type."

Dr. Roger G. Knipe said in an interview that toxoid is the only substance known to science that proves efficient, lasting and positively harmless in the protection against diphtheria.

MIGRATION FROM TERRACE TO LAKE STARTS; VISIONS OF FLOODS SEEN

People have begun to go out to Lakelse Lake in ever-increasing numbers. Sunday, being a particularly warm bright day, saw considerable activity in the vicinity of the old hotel. Some people were swimming, others boating and still others were lying on the beach sunning themselves. Along the lake shore boats were being fixed and painted and a number of people were busy fixing their summer cottages. A few fishermen were also in evidence and one individual in particular had been abundantly rewarded for his efforts.

Weather is getting hot. The river is running high. This is causing some apprehension among people living near the Skeena who remember the destructive freshet which ran amok in 1936. In that year the record-breaking floor was caused by a combination of factors. The hot weather came two weeks early. It followed a week of very heavy rains and the preceding winter had coated all the country with a heavy mantle of snow. This year the hot weather is two weeks early and it follows upon several weeks of chilly days with some occasional frosts. Otherwise the weather is ideal for those crops in which Terrace takes its greatest pride—apples, cherries, small fruits. All are looking exceedingly well at this time.

The Skeena Motor Transport, which has been closed for alterations since Tuesday, was reopened. The interior has been completely re-painted and a number of changes have been made.

Oliver Smith, formerly of Stewart and now of Prince Rupert, spent Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Terrace. He was very much impressed with the fertility and general appearance of the Terrace district and may locate here in the near future.

Commissioner T. W. S. Parsons and Inspector Ernest Gammon of the B. C. Police were in town on Saturday.

Colin Cameron, M.L.A., speaking in support of the C.C.F. candidate, Archibald, held a well-attended meeting in the Orange Hall on Friday night.

Jack Stacey, secretary of the I. W. A. (C.I.O.), called a meeting

Sooke, Vancouver Island, arrived in Terrace on Saturday. Captain Colthurst lived in Terrace quite a number of years and has a summer home at Lakelse Lake.

Major J. T. Harvey, Progressive Conservative candidate in the coming federal election, is having a meeting in the Oddfellows' Hall tonight.

Flight-Lieut. Court and Flight-Sgt. Penton spent the week-end in Terrace.

Mr. Harrison of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Prince Rupert, was in town during the latter part of the week on official business.

Inspector Moodie of the A.R.P. drove up from Prince Rupert with the B. C. Police on Wednesday and proceeded to Hazelton on Thursday.

Mrs. J. Poole returned on Saturday night from a trip to Pentleton.

Mrs. Arthur Beaudin left on Tuesday night's train for a trip to Prince Rupert and returned on Thursday.

Harry McKenney, former Terrace policeman now stationed in Prince George, spent Sunday in Terrace. He was warmly welcomed by his old friends.

Harry Eggleton of the British West Indies officiated at the evening service held in the Pentecostal Assembly on Sunday evening. On Monday evening he showed a number of films.

Sam Ayres, formerly of Prince Rupert and now of Terrace, has purchased the property of E. Olsen of Remo who died recently. Joe Kilby of Prince Rupert is taking care of the place at present.

of sub-local 1-71 on Sunday afternoon. The meeting was held in the Orange Hall.

Terrace Hospital—

MOVE IT TO LAKELSE LAKE

Various Suggestions for Future Of Presently Abandoned Institution

Many suggestions are being heard as to the disposition of the fine military hospital which was established by the Canadian Army at Terrace and which has now been abandoned for the time being at least.

One of the newest suggestions has been put forward by J. E. Boddie of Prince Rupert whose idea is that the buildings should be removed from their present location on the beach front of Terrace to beautiful and health-giving Lakelse Lake hot springs. There could thus be established a fine sanitarium with the possibility of also meeting local hospital needs of that part of the district.

The Terrace Board of Trade has already communicated with the federal government proposing that the hospital be taken over as a military hospital with one portion set aside for local civilian use.

A proposal emanating from the recent Associated Boards of Trade convention at Vanderhoof was that both Terrace and Prince George hospitals be turned over to the provincial government.
