More Jobs Than Men

So Says Minister of Reconstruction C. D. Howe

TORONTO, Sept. 19 (CP)—Reconstruction Minister Howe says that right now there are twice as many jobs open as there are persons hunting them.

John R. MacNicol, Progressive-Conservative member for Toronto-Davenport, disagreed with Minister Howe's optimistic view of the employment situation.

TELFORD FREED BY ASSIZE JURY

Not Guilty Verdict in Breaking and Entering Case at Assizes

A verdict of not guilty brought in by an assize jury at 4:30 Tuesday afternoon cleared Boyd Telford of charges of breaking and entering with mischief at the end of the second day of the hearing.

Telford was charged with entering the apartment of Liberty Giacinti on the night of May 10 and damaging her clothing and furniture with acid.

The jury brought in the verdict which cleared Telford after 20 minutes deliberation. They entered the jury room after being instructed in the law for more than an hour by Mr. Justice M. Coady, presiding judge.

The defence, conducted by T. W. Brown, based its case on evidence that Telford was at the apartment of a friend, Peter Richards, Summit Apartments, when the offence was alleged to have occurred at Miss Giacinti's rooms in the Letourneau Apartments.

Witnesses supporting this testimony were Charles F. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Richards, Anthony Richards and Miss Riekey Williams, a friend of Telford.

Damage to articles of clothing belonging to Miss Giacinti was done by nitric acid, Genille Cave-Brown-Cave, chief analyst of the provincial Department of Mines and Resources, testified.

Telford was at a party at the Richards apartment on Summit Ave. from 8:30 to 11:30 on the night of May 10, defence witnesses testified. The damage to Miss Giacinti's belongings was alleged to have occurred at 10 o'clock that night.

Need For Clothing . . .

A National Clothing Collection will be staged in Prince Rupert and across Canada in October for the people in war-devastated Allied countries. These victims of war are desperately in need of clothing, especially the children. Unless they get substantial quantities of serviceable wearing apparel, millions of them will suffer during the coming winter. There is a partial solution to the problem in Canada.

For every man, woman and child in Canada, there is a double, a human shadow of ourselves in ravaged Europe or Asia. There are children "over there" who would be overjoyed if they could have the clothes our children can wear no longer. Whereas, we have enjoyed the comfort and safety of distance from the world's battlefields, our doubles wrecked by the tide of war, are now among the "statistically naked." For each one of us, working, shopping, tending our chores—there is another human being—"statistically naked." It is a phrase to remember. It means that our doubles share a shirt with six other people, take turns wearing a pair of shoes.

The National Clothing Collection for War Relief wants your help in gathering practical clothing—warm, sturdy garments, shoes tied in pairs, plain shoes, knitted headgear, any sort of clean blankets, clothes and more clothes, every size, but practical.

Make up your bundle. A representative of a local organization will call for it; or you will be informed where to take it. Get ready!

Healthful Recreation or Crime

It is evident from our newspapers that the predicted crime wave, the aftermath of the long war years, is sweeping Canada.

That the perpetrators of many of these crimes are mere children is indeed alarming. An important movement is now on in Prince Rupert to help prevent the development of this wave here. It is the fast-moving setting up of the Pro-Rec facilities which include organized sport programs such as archery, volleyball and badminton, hobby groups such as woodcraft, leatherwork, plexiglass and chess and checker club, and cultural activities such as drama groups, play reading, public presentations, outdoor summer theatre, music, Young Peoples' band, music appreciation classes, swing club and orchestra.

The movement is worthy of the support it is receiving and it is something that every person in the community may well become actively interested in.

Ask Fair Division Of Food Supplies

LONDON, Sept. 19 (P)—Many British housewives now are suggesting that there should be a revision in the division of food supplies between restaurants and homes—to the benefit of the latter.

Some housewives say that the distribution is inequitable and that persons who can afford to eat in restaurants fare better than ordinary householders of moderate means. The housewife's troubles are due to increase by the return to normal employment as, during the war, hundreds of thousands of war workers had their noon meal at canteens but now will have to provide for themselves out of the household ration.

SURPLUS UNDIES TO BE RELEASED

LONDON, Sept. 19 (P)—Negotiations are being conducted between the board of trade and women's services in the forces to release surplus stock of underclothes to meet a drastic shortage of women's underwear this winter.

At present, it is almost impossible to buy a pair of women's pajamas in the United Kingdom, but the release of services' supplies would put thousands of pairs of warm pajamas on the market for the winter. Also available will be white wool and cotton service vests with pants to match.

Corsets, only a bright memory for most civilian women, also will be made available by the services, with garters and brassieres to match.

PRO-REC CLASS OPENS TONIGHT

First leaders' class of the training program of the Prince Rupert Recreation Council will get under way tonight in the YMCA gym. George McGregor, Rec director announces. "They will form the nucleus of a display group which will be one of the most interesting of our planned activities," he added. Both service people and civilians plan to attend tonight's opening class at the "Y".

U.S. SERGEANTS' CLUB HAS PARTY

More than 100 privates and their dates attended a special party given in their honor last night at the American Sergeants' Club. Twenty-five sergeants and corporals were allowed to attend as guests of the privates.

With the "Sophisticates" on the bandstand, the entire facilities of the club were turned over to the sixth and seventh graders. The sergeants acted as waiters and bartenders. Each girl was presented with a corsage as she entered the club, the parties being escorted to their tables by M/Sgt. Thomas McCurdy, Port Sergeant-Major. All food and refreshments were at the expense of the club.

Staff-Sergeant Phil Cretella, acting as official host for the last time, paid his respects to all those in attendance. Sgt. Cretella, who has been stationed in Prince Rupert for more than three years, resigned his position as president of the club as of yesterday. He will be leaving for his home in Girard, Ohio, the latter part of this week.

BIG SPORTS DINNER HELD

Enthusiasm Pervades Final Gathering of Softball Enthusiasts Last Night

Even the umpire came in for a big hand last night when team members of the Prince Rupert area softball league got together in the felicitous atmosphere of the banquet hall in what will probably be the final grouping of sportsmen as this city has ever seen on a ball field.

Transferring their zeal to the banquet room at Reid's cafe, members of the Port Edward, Barrett, Fortress and Signals teams attacked their victuals with admirable gusto, and then launched into a series of brief after-dinner speeches keyed by the sporting spirit.

The banquet was arranged by Capt. L. C. Davidson, R.C.E.M.E., president of the area league, and Lieut. R. H. Robertson, R.C.C.S., area league secretary, with assistance by John Montgomery, director of the Y.M.C.A. Red Triangle centre. More than 40 Canadian and American team members attended the 7 o'clock function.

Keynote of the league's success was sounded by Capt. Davidson in his chairman's remarks. "You are soldiers," he said, "yet you have carried on your military duties well and done something else besides. You have done something extra. By taking part in softball and baseball, you have enjoyed yourselves and provided pleasure for many Prince Rupert people who have watched your games."

Capt. Davidson complimented Port Edward, the league winners, and Fortress, the runners-up. "If Fortress and Barrett had been able to put the same teams in the field every time they played, Port Edward undoubtedly would have been given a better run for the winning place," he added.

Brief speeches, laden with sportsmanship and good will were given by members of the league executive and team captains. The official league umpire, Pfc. I. Celmor, got in a final cheerful word.

"Umpiring," he said, "is a tough game. You've got nothing to lose except your life."

Other speakers were Lieut. Robertson, who arranged the banquet, John Montgomery, Y.M.C.A. director, Corp. Forrest (Rabbit) Southward, manager of the Port Edward team, Sgt. Bard, Captain of the Barrett team, Pte. Rube Sher of Fortress,
