Windsor Strike— No Primary Settlement

Although Sympathy Workers May Return to Jobs—General Strike November 30?

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 23.—Ford Motor Co. officials announced today that they are accepting an offer of the United Automobile Workers of America (C.I.O.) to open the power house at the strike-bound plant and that it will open immediately.

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 23.—There is a possibility that the 8500 sympathy strikers in the Windsor district may soon return to their jobs.

It was learned this morning that the union might review the situation of the 8500 sympathy strikers.

As the situation now stands, the sympathy strike, coupled with the original Ford strike, has almost completely halted motor car production in Canada.

Meantime there still appears little hope today for a settlement of the Ford strike, now in its 73rd day.

In an effort to aid the long-idle Ford workers, the Canadian Congress of Labor has called for a national Ford strike day on Nov. 30.

MAN INJURED IN STREET MISHAP

Hurrying across Third Avenue apparently to catch a bus about 8:20 last night, H. Parsons of Number Two staff house collided with the side of a taxi which was travelling slowly to make a turn at the corner of Fulton Street.

At witness said that Parsons hurried out of a newsstand at the corner, and hunching his shoulders to protect his face from wind and rain, failed to see the moving car which was driven by Raymond C. Judd.

Ernest Bevin Speaks Today

Tells Course Which Is to Be Taken in World of Atomic Power

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Britain's foreign secretary, Ernest Bevin, today gave Commons the Labor government's view on the path Britain's foreign policy should take in a world concerned with the ultimate implications of atomic power.

Winston Churchill and Mr. Bevin clashed over a Labor government suggestion for a three-year postponement of the Greek plebiscite on the fate of the monarchy.

Churchill shouted in reply:

"Delay of two or three years on the question of monarchy or republic would be wrong for it is a burning question in Greece."

Bevin replied: "I defy anybody to run a plebiscite in Greece at the present time.

Earlier Bevin had asked the great powers of the world to say exactly what they want either in territory or bases "to allay suspicions that might jeopardize peace."

Continuing the debate on foreign affairs, Bevin pledged that Britain will not commit any actions that would be unfriendly to any other country, great or small.

A New Era Here . . .

The curtain has gone down on an era. It is not going down. It's down. It's not enough to expect changes. They're here.

It's not enough to admit it or just resign ourselves to it. We must seize the fact—become part of it—shape our work to it—or else we are has-beens.

Has-beens are unimportant. The important people wade into new complexities with determination not to look back! They study, discuss, explore, work themselves to a frazzle. But they come up with ideas, plans, suggestions, that fit today. That makes them important in this new age we have entered willy nilly.

We all have a responsibility in the reconstruction of the nation's prosperity and economic safety.

It's like the first day of school for most of us. We must know each other's problems.

Let's forget the war problems and get to work making ourselves a part of today's enormous responsibility.

Then we'll belong to this new age. It may make us sweat but it will make us happy.

The Real Problem . . .

The problem of the world today is not the atomic bomb, but the nations—which insist on their sovereign rights to destroy one another, which are too sovereign to join in using the bomb to prevent war.

What is needed most is imagination in the political field equal to that of the men who produced the bomb. So far it has not appeared.

Possibly a showdown with Russia—a clearer statement of her political aims and security requirements—would clear the air and help remove that "spectre of fear" which is filling this postwar period with pre-war tensions. But more than anything we need a bold strike of statesmanship that will cut through the suspicion and misunderstanding which really arm the bomb.

What Mr. Attlee said recently is fundamental:

"The foundation of world order must be laid in the hearts of men."

The people themselves, by combating hatred in their own hearts and developing their sense of brotherhood, must lay the foundation on which statesmen can build the new world of peace.

HAZELTON ROUTE

ley flanked on each side by 4000 to 10,000-foot mountains, 50 to 100 miles in depth. This road would develop little or nothing, neither mineral nor agricultural nor timber lands, nothing in fact throughout its length of 500 miles between Prince George and Lower Post. The construction cost was estimated at $20,000,000. That amount of money spent on the "B" route would mean that not further funds would be available for another 20 years for development of our north lands. There are those who do not wish to see our north lands developed, other than by a process of slow absorption.

The objective of all three highway projects—that is, connections to the Alaska Highway—may be considered as Whitehorse in Yukon Territory. Any British Columbia connection has, therefore, nothing to do with any portion of the Alaska Highway beyond Whitehorse.

Vast numbers of maps have been published and distributed showing the "B" route and also the Prince George-Port St. James-Takla Lake route. These maps do not show the Hazelton-Whitehorse project, however. Why? The reason is simply that neither of the other two routes will bear comparison when visualized on a map. We have not utilized our own best argument.

The maps and literature at present being broadcast in the western United States are boosting the Prince George-Port St. James-Takla Lake project, the "safe" International Highway Commissioners' choice at the time when the Japs menaced our west coast.

The Hazelton route, starting 180 miles from Prince Rupert, was considered too close to the coast, even though there was a railway and highway to that point. Prince George, 470 miles east of Prince Rupert, was chosen as the starting point by the Commission. This is possibly the road that should have been constructed in those hazardous days—a road to Whitehorse via Fort St. James and Takla Lake—but eastern interests made the decision without regard or reference to the commissioners' findings.

Our coasts are now secure and a road, chosen for safety reasons, gives way for other points now more vital. By the way, considerable confusion has arisen in the route designation "A". The Hazelton project was the "A" route in the beginning. In what appears to be an attempt to eliminate or confuse the issue, the term "A" is often applied to the Prince George-Port St. James route.

Strong efforts are still being put forward backing this Fort St. James route. The fact, however, that it closely parallels the Prince George-Prince Rupert railway and highway as far as Hazelton must be taken into account. In attaining the same northing and approximate westing as Hazelton, about 200 miles of quite unnecessary new construction with double maintenance for ever would be required. On this stretch it would not give access to any new country, as that territory is already very well served by the Manson Creek-Germanson roads and connecting waterways. Beyond Hazelton, the outlet for the Groundhog coal and any other mineral is definitely westward and must be served by a Hazelton route. There are up to date hotels, lodges and auto camps in the many small towns and villages between Prince George and Prince Rupert with such side trips as Tweedsmuir Park. Tourists would be deprived of these comforts and the people along the way of tourist trade were the Fort St. James route to be chosen.

An argument is being strongly presented in the States. It is that the Prince George-Port St. James road is the shortest way from Seattle or Spokane to Alaska. This is not so. By breaking away from the Cariboo Highway at Williams Lake and heading northwest for Whitehorse via the Chilcotins, east end of Tweedsmuir Park, Grassy Plains, Houston Station on the Canadian National Railways, Smithers, Hazelton, thence to Whitehorse, about 100 miles would be lopped off the distance. This latter road would entail little more new construction than the other two. However, we have towns and country capable of great development, and a highway to Hazelton from Prince Rupert and from Prince George. Why not make use of them? The added business would be well worth while.

The Hazelton-Whitehorse project can be built for one half of what the "B" route would cost. The Prince George-Port St. James project would cost about midway between the two. The highest elevation is found on the Port St. James project, that is 4000 feet approximately, which is not great. Excellent grades prevail on all three.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Predictions from the Atlin constituency forecast a large majority for candidate H. F. Kerwin in the December provincial elections.

Mr. Justice Denis Murphy, in a Vancouver court, made an order on behalf of the creditors of the bankrupt Prince Rupert Dry Dock and Engineering Co. staying the sale of the plant until December 2 pending the conclusion of negotiations.

The man in the Moon opined that when candidate S. M. Newton spoke for three hours at a political meeting at Kitwanga he doubtless did so on the assumption that, if he spoke long enough he might say something.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cloutier, 733 Thompson Street, who recently received one son, Henry, home after two years' service in the Canadian Army, are looking forward to having another boy, George, back by Christmas from duty with the Canadian Navy. George enlisted from Winnipeg early in the war and was here on furlough before he went overseas. He served aboard H.M.C.S. LETTERBOX

INJUSTICE IN JAVA?

Editor,
Daily News.—

In your editorial on Java you state that Great Britain is fighting the Indonesians only in an attempt to "maintain law and order" and that the present trouble there is caused by Japanese influence.

Last night's news broadcast announced that there are Japanese soldiers fighting in Java but—they're "under British command"! You state in your editorial that "the problem is therefore to disarm and isolate the Japanese." It is quite obvious that the British are doing the exact opposite. They are arming the Japanese in order to suppress the Indonesians' Independence Movement.

The present Indonesian rebellion is only the latest in a long series of heroic struggles on the part of the Javanese to throw off their Dutch oppressors. They are fighting for the right of every nation to independence and self-determination, guaranteed by the Atlantic Charter. This struggle began long ago before Japanese fascists conquered the island and it is mere wishful thinking on the part of many to say that Britain is bombing only "firebrands," "irresponsible young men," "extremists," etc. Possibly George Washington was considered rather an extremist in his day too.

Let us recognize the fact that Britain which won the admiration and respect of the whole world at the time of Dunkirk and the Battle of Britain is losing that respect by her role in Java. The Australian labor movement which did all in its power to help defeat Japan has courageously and honestly come out in favor of the Indonesian Republic. Dock workers have refused to load ships on their way to Java. Australian soldiers, sailors and airmen are organizing demonstrations and picketing British ships destined for Java while the crew of the British naval auxiliary ship Moretor Bay this week walked off the ship just before it was to sail with 1600 Dutch soldiers.

Let us, instead of confusing the issue, speak out fearlessly in condemnation of this attempted injustice to the millions of Indonesians who are demanding freedom from foreign oppression.

TRUE STORIES OF CANADIAN ACHIEVEMENT

FOR 450 feet through the solid rock beneath Niagara Falls, a new tunnel was recently finished to mark one of the most brilliant feats of Canadian engineering in all history.

There, in the uproarious mists of a billion trillion gallons of water, twenty workmen carved a grim gash 450 feet long, seven feet high and six feet wide.

Into this tunnel . . . the biggest under any falls on earth . . . men poured thousands of tons of concrete through an eight-inch hole drilled from the roadway far above.

While dealing with the tricky problem of hardening cement in a revolving spray, they also carved three openings. You and others from the farthest corners of the world may stand before those openings today and see the falls of Niagara from the bottom up.

Brightly lighted by the very falls under which they stood, these saturated workmen could not hear each other speak because of the mighty roar. In the beginnings they had to cope with winds of hurricane force which turned the spray into ice.

And yet the tunnel smashed through the rock smoothly lined with cement and opened to visitors by the people of Ontario as a matter of routine achievement.

As in War . . . So in Peace . . .

Canada is capable of building works to benefit all mankind, comparable with any nation. This is the first message of a series intended to inform and inspire our people with stories of the peacetime achievements of our engineers and men of science. Offered in the public service by . . .

ROTARY DANCE LIVELY AFFAIR

More than 100 Rotarians and their wives and guests spent a lively and enjoyable evening at the Rotary Club's annual dinner and dance held in Reid's Cafe last night. Following the dinner, at which the guests furloughed their brows by the cerebral exercise of answering a quiz contest between couples, the guests danced to the piano music of Andy McNaughton, or played cards in the upstairs lounge room.

During the dinner a warm welcome to non-members was expressed by President J. H. Thompson. As master of ceremonies, Martin Stuart brought in the disappointing news that, owing to strike conditions in an eastern plant, the new 1946 automobile which was to have been awarded to the winner of the quiz contest was unavailable. He didn't add that owing to extensive collaboration among the contestants, there was also no winner.

The following were among those who attended the function: Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. David Allen, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Dodds, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. ACROPOLIS HILL CLOSING DOWN

Officers and Men Getting Together at Farewell Party Tomorrow Night

Closing down of the United States Army post on Acropolis Hill will be marked this Saturday night with a farewell dance at the Officers' Club when officers and enlisted men will mingle with their lady friends of the city as special guests. Special music is being arranged for the event which will be the last of many bright social functions which have been held in that club while the Americans were in Prince Rupert.

Yesterday American Thanksgiving Day here was observed by the Americans, culminating as far as the army was concerned with special turkey dinners in the various messes.

Services of the American Army are rapidly closing down and will involve another flip for local businesses for the time between now and when all the Americans finally leave Prince Rupert.

Mohammedans call their faith "Islam" which means obedience to the will of Allah (God).

BOOMERANG THROWING

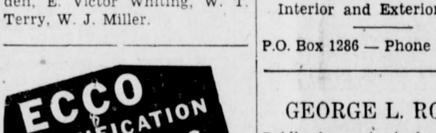

Australian bushmen have been known to throw a boomerang as far as 100 yards before it began its leftward curve. The boomerang sometimes rises as high as 100 feet in and may circle five times before returning to the thrower.

MULVANY ON VISIT SOUTH

Seeks Better Compensation Board Rates for Pit Prop Industry

VANCOUVER, Nov. 23.—Barney Mulvany of Omineca is renewing acquaintances in Vancouver where he has been in consultation with the Compensation Board in regard to having the assessments on the payrolls of the pit props industry in Central British Columbia reduced as he claimed that the risk involved in working in the lodge pole pine areas was not ten per cent of that of the coast logging operations.

He states that he found the officials of the Compensation Board most courteous and efficient, but still "just a little tougher than the Federal Bureau of Investigation."

He explained that, owing to a shortage of labor in Northern British Columbia, it had been necessary to let contracts to the local Indians to cut by the cord. "This just suited the bucks who will take a contract, start their squaws, papposes and even their dogs to work, and peacefully resume their favorite occupations of hunting and fishing," he said.

The members of the board informed him that the original contractors would be held responsible for compensation for anyone engaged on their timber limit who sustained an injury. A brief will be submitted to the board from the pit prop contractors of the north asking for a substantial reduction of their assessments.

Mr. Mulvany is now in Victoria.

Unbreakable Specs Prof. Low's Latest

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Spectacles which can be trodden on, dropped or bent without being damaged have been perfected by Professor A. M. Low, the scientist.

Professor Low is the inventor of the bifocal lenses used for both long and short sight, and the contact, the invisible lens which fits over the eyeball. His new unbreakable glasses weigh less than half an ounce.

They are made from one piece of fine wire with the tiny half-moon lenses set just below the line of vision. The frames can be bent double without harming them and the glasses themselves can be dropped or kicked without fear of damage.

AFRICAN DEAD AT 130 YEARS

"Veritable Monument of Native History" May Have Been Even Older

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 23.—Believed to be the oldest man in Africa, a native of Bechuanaland who trekked to Matabeleland 100 years ago, died recently. He was named Ramonotwane and was said to be about 130 years old, although some reports made him more than 140.

A full-grown man when he made the journey to Matabeleland, he once described without prompting the raid by Boers under Potgieter on the Matabele cattle kraals in the Matapos in 1847.

Medical evidence some years ago supported his claim to great age and also testified that he was well nourished and possessed great vigor. Described in the Johannesburg Star as a "veritable monument of native history," Ramonotwane had many thrilling tales to recount of his capture by Matabele raiders and his subsequent release and of his experiences in the Ntswenwen fight when Dr. Jameson was marching on Bulawayo in 1893. Ramonotwane now lies in his old cattle kraal after a ceremonial burial.

Meanwhile reports from the Nylstroom district tell of the oldest woman in Africa—a native named Marthe Majaje—who is alive at 130 and still talks of her life as a slave in the Voortrekker days. Recently she drove up to the magistrate's office at Nylstroom in a donkey-cart to apply for her old-age pension.

ST. PETER'S FALL BAZAAR

Annual Event Yesterday Was Fine Success

The annual fall bazaar of St. Peter's Church Women's Auxiliary, which was held yesterday afternoon in the church hall, was a complete success both socially and financially.

The hall was seasonably decorated for the occasion and looked very attractive as a result of the efforts of the Young People's Club members.

Rev. Gordon Smith, rector of St. Peter's, opened the bazaar with prayer and words of welcome.

There was home cooking in abundance and pleasing variety and a great display of sewing, showing many months of work and preparation.

The variety stall also was well patronized, there being many useful articles to choose from.

The ladies were received by Mrs. W. G. Smith, president of the auxiliary, and Mrs. Gordon Smith, wife of the rector.

Those in charge of the various stalls were:

Home Cooking—Mrs. W. Garlick, Mrs. W. Adolph, Mrs. D. Deane, assisted by the Misses Lorna Lattery and Margaret McFarlane.

Sewing—Mrs. D. Sievert, Mrs. William Davidson and Mrs. H. V. Tattersall, assisted by the Misses Lou Smith and Patsy Wardale.

Variety—Mrs. A. J. Crossford, Mrs. Dufour and Mrs. H. Caddick.

The Evening branch was in charge of the tea room, those in charge being:

Kitchen—Mrs. William McLean, Mrs. Alex Barbe, Mrs. Robert Gilmore and Mrs. D. F. Baldwin.

Serviteurs—Mrs. Wilfred McLean, Mrs. Robert Kelsey, Mrs. William Wardale and Mrs. V. Holmes, assisted by the Misses Jenny Harriet, Erma Bishop and Christine McWhinnie.

Cashier was Mrs. W. A. Speer. The Junior Girls W.A. was represented by the girls assisting at the stalls and in the tea room.

Expected that the section of the Skeena Highway between Hazelton and Terrace will be open some next week. Gull Creek bridge on this side of the river still has to be replaced. The highway from Hazelton to Prince Rupert may be through in two to three weeks. Big obstacles are the slide near Amstutz, the wash-out just west of Hazelton, and the local road gang at this work and it is expected that the weather has been extremely mild with the snow melting. There will be more wash-outs in a question of days.

Miss J. Devine, school teacher from Usk, was visiting in Terrace over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Trelenberg left for Vancouver on Friday night's train.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Reynolds and three children, Shirley, Hazel and Stephen, arrived from Hazelton on Monday night to take up residence on the Titcomb farm. Shirley is in Grade IV and the other children are not yet of school age. Mr. Reynolds plans to start an electrical supply shop on Lakelse Avenue in the building which was originally McKie and Davidson's Store.

A buyer has been in the district looking for cedar poles. These are to be shipped east and will be used for electrical installations.

TERRACE PLANS WELCOME HOME

Village Council Takes Lead In Event to Honor Returned Servicemen

TERRACE, Nov. 23.—The village municipality is to sponsor a party of welcome to those men and women who are now returning from the armed services to civilian life.

A meeting was held here Wednesday night of delegates from each organization and lodge in Terrace under the chairmanship of E. Haugland, who is also chairman of the village commissioners. Committees were formed whose job will be to estimate the number of guests to be expected and the costs. It is proposed to invite all returned soldiers, together with their parents, wives and lady friends.

The party will likely take the form of a banquet, with a community dance to follow and the probable date may be December 28. It is understood that the two village halls will be offered free of cost and if it should transpire that the costs threaten to swamp the finances of any local body there may be a collection among citizens.

Many Attended Topley Funeral

TOPLEY, Nov. 23.—There was a large congregation of friends yesterday afternoon for the funeral of the late Mrs. Walter Holmes, whose death had occurred on Sunday in the Smithers Hospital. Mrs. Holmes was well known and highly esteemed and took an active part in community life with the Women's Institute and Red Cross. Besides her widower, she is survived by five sons—Varden of Prince Rupert, Ivan, Merton and Gordon at home, and Kenneth, attending school at Telkwa—and one daughter, Mrs. Rene Strimbold of Burns Lake.

SMITHERS

Snow continues to fall throughout the Bulkley Valley and there is already on the ground a depth of about equal to the annual average fall. Snow plows keep the roads and streets open but, if it continues as it has been for a while, there will likely be a near record fall of snow.

SMITHERS HAS FINE NEW STORE

SMITHERS, Nov. 23.—The new store of Leach Bros. at the corner of Main Street and Second Avenue was opened for business this morning and was thronged with customers from the time the doors opened at 9 a.m. It is a spacious, well lighted and well heated store and would do credit to any city.

These young merchants have shown progressive and civic spirit.

The premises were constructed by the contracting firm of Bovill and Hann and contain fluorescent lighting and automatic coal heater. There is ample store room at the rear and an apartment on the second floor for Herbert Leach, one of the proprietors.

The Leach Brothers, Herb, Billy and Archie, were born and raised in Smithers, and Billy Leach served several years in the R.C.A.F. overseas.

SMITHERS DID WELL IN LOAN

SMITHERS, Nov. 23.—The final tabulation of Victory Bonds for the ninth Victory Loan at Smithers shows that there was subscribed from this point a total of $97,850. With a quota of $40,000 this shows a percentage of 244.6 percent of quota. The town rightly feels proud of this fine contribution.

CHRONICLE OF THREE "SKUNKS"

A series of cribbage games that resulted in three "skunks" in a row—a combination said to be highly unusual in the game—are reported by John Odowes, local business man who said that the scores resulted from three games played against Frank Evan of Whitehorse, a town which takes its cribbage seriously.

Three "skunks" in a row is even rarer than the much advertised "29 hand," Mr. Odowes said, and his opinion was borne out by other devotees of the game. To "skunk" an opponent a player must beat him by at least 30 points or "before he rounds the bend."

Mr. Odowes told of "skunking" Mr. Evans the first game, then being himself "skunked," making a comeback in the third game to win also by a "skunk."

SHORT SPORT

It has finally been settled that the Winnipeg Blue Bombers—Western Canada champs—will get in a few days practice sessions in the east before meeting the eastern title holder in the classic east-west final on December 1. The Bombers announced in Winnipeg that they will leave Winnipeg for Toronto next Monday. Coach Bert Warwick left Winnipeg yesterday for the east to scout Saturday's eastern final between the Toronto Argonauts and Toronto Beaches.

Bobby Managoff retained his hold on the Montreal version of the world's wrestling title Wednesday night in Montreal when Yvon Roberts—the challenger—was disqualified in the third fall. Managoff had taken the first fall with a drop kick, while Roberts won the second with a combined wrist lock and drop kick. In the third fall, Roberts repeatedly hurled Managoff into the press box and, when Referee Danny Murray attempted to interfere, Robert knocked Murray to the canvas. Managoff climbed back into the ring. But Roberts was waiting and threw him right out again.

THIS AND THAT

No, no, champ! Over here!"

Murray—still on the mat—raised Managoff's hand in victory.

Big Primo Carnera has just made the sport headlines again—but not in the way he wanted. The former World's Heavyweight Boxing Champion went down in a knockout in the seventh round of a bout in Milan, Italy, Wednesday night. His victorious opponent was Luigi Musina, the claimant to the European heavyweight crown. Carnera was completely out-classed by his young foe, despite the fact that the big Italian had a seventy-three pound weight advantage.

Royal Copeland May Not Play

TORONTO, Nov. 23 (P)—Gridiron experts are checking back over their predictions today in the light of the announcement that Toronto Argonauts' starry Royal Copeland may not be able to play in the sudden-death eastern Canada football final between the Argos and Toronto Beaches. The announcement was made last night that Copeland had suffered a strained muscle in a scrimmage and would possibly be out of the Saturday game. Doctors will decide today whether the fleet half will be in the lineup or not. Argos officials expect Copeland will play—but probably not much.

CROSS-COUNTRY RUN AT BERWICK

BERWICK, Pa., Nov. 23 (P)—Little Johnny Kelly of Action, Mass., braved a strong head wind yesterday to win the Berwick cross-country run. It was the 26th renewal of the annual American Thanksgiving Day event. It was Kelly's fourth consecutive victory over the course. He completed the rugged stint—nine miles, 203 yards—in 49 minutes, 16 seconds. Forest Efav of Stillwater, Okla., was second—46 seconds behind Kelly. And Robert "Scotty" Rankin, the veteran runner from Preston, Ont., was third. Rankin is a five-times winner of the Berwick run and holder of the course record of 45 minutes, 16 8/10 seconds. In fourth place was Ab Morton of Galt, Ont.

LONDON, (P)—nearly 25,000 evacuees from the Channel Islands have been returned to their homes since June.

ST. PETER PORT, Channel Islands, (P)—Germans occupying Guernsey pillaged farmer Sidney Jamouneau's farm, stole his cattle, then built a power station on the land. Unable to farm, he found another job—teaching farming to the Germans.

RANGERS AND HAWKS DRAW

Lively Third Period in Game Last Night—Three-All Score

CHICAGO, Nov. 23 (P)—The New York Rangers, currently cellar-dwellers in the National Hockey League, stepped into a fifth-place tie last night with the Toronto Maple Leafs when they hammered out a 3-3 tie with the Chicago Black Hawks.

Playing on W-ody City ice, the Rangers virtually executed circles around the slow-moving Hawks for two periods. They dropped behind temporarily at the beginning of the third period but then turned on the power again and tied it up.

New York got things rolling with a goal early in the first frame. Al Demarco was the scorer. A brief six minutes later, Chicago tied it up on a goal by Doug Bentley. Alex Shibicky chalked up the only tally in the middle stanza, putting New York out ahead, 2-1.

The third period opened in lively fashion, with nearly every player on the ice—as well as all three officials—mixing it up. Mariucci and Bill Juzda received major penalties for fighting and Phil Watson of New York was clapped into the cooler for a ten-minute penalty for misconduct. It was then that the Hawks spurred forward. The brothers Bentley went into action, Max scoring first and then Doug, with Mosienko lending a hand in each case. Two minutes after Doug Bentley's tally, Shibicky tied it up for New York.

Aussie Scientists Produce "Churkeys"

SYDNEY, Australia, Nov. 23 (P)—Australia's first churkeys—a cross between turkeys and chickens have just been hatched at Glenfield, New South Wales. It is said, however, that Russian scientists had already produced the cross.

The chicks walk like turkeys but look more like ordinary chickens. It is expected that they will mature more quickly than turkeys but be a good deal smaller.

Monster Prawns Off Australia

SYDNEY, Australia, Nov. 23 (P)—Scientists of the Australian Museum have found off the east coast of Australia a new prawning ground swarming with king prawns. These are from 10 to 12 inches long and weigh eight ounces each. Frank McNeill, an authority on prawns, compares the new grounds to the prawning areas of the Gulf of Mexico. He says that the supply is inexhaustible.

LONDON, (P)—Central Hall, Westminster, is being cleaned and decorated for the international peace conference.

RUP-REC - News -

"What is the first task and the purpose of sport, from the objective and Christian point of view, but to cultivate the dignity and harmony of the human body, to develop its health, vigor, agility and gracefulness?"

These are the words of one of the most prominent and influential Christian leaders spoken recently at a sports association gathering.

Something about the Rup-Rec instructors and instructresses might be interesting. First, because they are a group of pretty nice people, and secondly, because if these enthusiastic and hard-working young men and women had not persevered in their strenuous leaders-in-training course, the present Rup-Rec program would not be off to its successful start.

One of these modest young people was cornered last night and, by asking Eric Freeman a lot of cheeky questions, the following data was gleaned:

Eric, a clean-cut young man, with twinkling blue eyes, was born in Kamloops. He lived there nearly all his life until coming to Prince Rupert in 1942 to work for the C.N. Telegraphs. He was always interested in gymnastics and, from an early age, belonged to the Kamloops Athletic Association. He went on tour with the K.A.A. group of gymnastics, under Bob Watson, their first instructor, and then with Art Stevenson, who took over after Bob resigned.

Eric has always liked games and he is a proficient basketball player, keen on badminton, bowling, swimming, and he was table tennis champion of Kamloops and district. Eric is certainly an asset to the Recreational Movement program in this city.

Next week a few more Rup-Rec leaders may have been trapped down for further "Personalities."

Another evening of Keep Fit exercises for ladies, followed by the Ladies' Gymnastic Class, is scheduled for the I.O.D.E. Hall this evening.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When calling for a girl at her home, isn't it all right for a young man to sound the horn of his car as a signal to her that he has arrived?

A. No, it is ill-bred and not considerate of the neighbors, and would indicate that he is too lazy to walk to the door and ring the bell.

Q. How should the engagement ring and the wedding ring be worn on the finger?

A. The wedding ring should be placed on the finger first, the engagement ring over it.

Q. Is it proper to use service plates at the breakfast table?

A. No.

HELIUM FOR TIRES

LONDON, (P)—Helium has been used successfully to inflate large airplane tires, reducing the total aircraft weight and increasing range. It takes 92 pounds of air to inflate a 110-inch tire but only 13 pounds of helium. This represents a saving of 156 pounds for the two main wheels on each plane.
