Siegfried Line Abandoned

PARIS-American patrols broke into the first hamparts of the Siegfried Line Thursday, eleven miles southeast of Monschau and found only a flicker of life in German's concrete western fortifications. Full sections of the line were found abandoned. When the American First Army advanced to within plain sight of the strangely silent Siegfried Line on a broad front indications grew that the Germans had withdrawn farther back. Overnight advances generally reached four miles deeper into Germany. United States Third Army infantrymen, 71/2 miles from Troon, have seized four more German towns, headquarters reported. The First Canadian Army in Holland has removed the threat to its operations by wiping out the last German bridgehead south of the Meuse

Jap Retreat Surprising

GENERAL MacARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS-Subic Bay and its naval repair base of Olongapo, dotted with pillboxes but inexplicably abandoned by the Japanese, are back in American hands. Sixth Army troops have reached Calumpit, 28 miles from Manila in their drive down a stretch of highway flanked by huge swamplands. Failure of the Japanese to put up a fight in this natural defence zone is as puzzling as the enemy's lack of opposition at Subic Bay.

Berlin In Near Panic

LONDON-Reports from neutral sources say that Berlin, which is swarming with refugees from the eastern frontiers, is in a state of near panic. New defences are being rushed day and night but the guns of the anti-aircraft batteries protecting the city are being sent east for immediate use against the on-rushing Soviet Legions.

LONDON-Royal Air Force bombers blasted Berlin again last night. Supreme Headquarters announced the night strikes against the German capital, adding that heavy bombers also pounded vital enemy communications at Mainz, Ludwigshafen and Siegen. The Canadian Tiger and Blue Nose Squadrons took part in the night operations, all returning safely.

Nazis Serenade Canucks

ROME—Vigorous patrolling is continuing along the Senio River front in Italy and in the sector south of Lake Comacchio just inland from the Adriatic. Sharp clashes develop whenever Canadian patrols encounter those of the enemy, resulting in additions to the prisoner totals nearly every night. The Germans play symphonic recordings of Straus and Waldteufel waltzes in nightly serenades to the Canadians. The only noticeable result is that the Canadians bring mortar fire to bear on the enemy. Dispatches reaching London from Berne, Switzerland, indicate that enemy withdrawals may be underway from the peninsula area of Italy. Long convoys have been spotted moving north towards the Brenner Pass.

LONDON-The London Telegraph said today that it was indicated the Nazis were ready to send two hundred new uboats into an attack upon convoys headed for France and Russia.

JURY LAUDS RESCUE EFFORT

The courageous but unsuccessful efforts of Rufus White of Massett to rescue Harry Geddes from drowning at Beresford Bay, Langara Island were commended by a coroner's jury at Massett which recently investigated the circumstances of Geddes' death.

The jury, under coroner D. T R. McColl of Queen Charlotte City, returned a verdict of accidental death by drowning.

According to testimony presented at the inquest, Geddes, White and Cecil Brown were rowing in a skiff from land to a larger fishing boat standing offshore. For some undetermined reason the skiff upset in the rough water. White, a competent swimmer, managed to save Cecil Brown, and returned to rescue Geddes. Geddes, however, had disappeared. VALUE OF TRADE BOARDS STRESSED AT ANNUAL MEETING IN TERRACE

TERRACE, Feb. 2—Value of Boards of Trade in community and national life was brought to the fore by a succession of speakers at the annual meeting of the Terrace and District Board of Trade Wednesday night. The attendance of more than sixty members and prospective members indicated a revival of interest in the organization which Mr. King described as a unit in "one of the most important bookies in Canada."

Lasting six hours, the event began at 6:30 in the Terrace hotel with a banquet which was followed by a business meeting. During the banquet talks were heard by Olof Hanson M.P. and George Mitchell, E. T. Applewaite, Arnold Flaten of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce and other speakers.

Harry King, president of the Terrace and District Board of Trade, presided throughout the evening. At the election of officers he was returned for his eleventh consecutive term of office. All other members of the 1944 executive also resumed their last year's positions.

Walter Wilson of Burns Lake, exponent of the Hazelton-Whitehorse highway route, presented an article which he had prepared for publication and which had been endorsed by the Burns Lake and District Board of Trade. Reds Say They Are Forty Miles From Berlin On Strategic River

MOSCOW, Feb. 2 (CP)-Red Army troops today are probing German defences along the Oder River Barely forty miles east of Berlin. They have made one attempt to storm across the river, a German broadcast said today, indicating patrols may have already crossed.

Soviet columns are apparently meeting stiffer resistance in this sector but are continuing to advance at an unslackened pace elsewhere along the 320-mile front in eastern Germany.

Broadcasts from both Berlin and Moscow indicate that a critical phase of the Russian offensive is near.

The Berlin radio boasts that the German High Command is preparing to launch strong counter measures.

On the Oder . . .

-Per Year By Mail, per month

The question today in Berlin seems to be whether the Russians can be stopped at the Oder. The German High Command apparently counted on the Red Army outrunning its communications before reaching the last river defense. But already Russian units are at the Oder if not beyond.

By comparison with the Belgian bulge, what may be called the Russians' "Polish pouch" is roughly six times as big. The Red Army may require more than one hop to reach Berlin, but it has already gone the greater part of the distance since it jumped off from the Vistula line twenty days ago.

More Beer . . .

We note that the individual beer quota in British Columbia has been increased and that there is to be a larger quantity available for the beer parlors and clubs. To this we have no objection provided it does not lead to a return of conditions such as existed here about three years ago when beer was flowing like water and the downtown streets and some of the residential ones too were a Donnybrook with the pandemonium and roisterings of those who were not able to handle their beer in the substantial quantities available.

It was evident that when the beer became scarce there was a definite quietening down in nocturnal conditions in Prince Rupert. The authorities admitted that improvement at that time was the reflection of less beer being available. We hope that an opening up of the beer supply now will not result in a repetition of the former conditions.

Those, who cry for more beer can do something to keep the freer supply maintained if they show themselves that they are entitled to the privilege by keeping their equilibrium and and orderly community.

Life Insurance

The year 1944 has seen an impressive growth of life insurance in Canada. Both the number of policies in force and their aggregate amount have rapidly increased. The volume of new applications has steadily risen, accompanied by a marked decline in the percentage of policies discontinuing.

A strong financial position is shown by the annual reports of the companies which are being published from day to day in the press. The long and unbroken record of good stewardship for which Canadian life insurance is known both in Canada and in many other countries of the world is being well maintained.

The true measure of a man is his character and the same test applies to a business. Canadian life insurance has stood the test through good times; and bad, in wartime and peace. Its record alone is evidence of how exaggerated and ill-informed have been the criticisms made at times by persons obviously actuated by political motives.

Police Pay . . .

Current agitation to pay the police higher salaries is indicative of a reform that is needed in more cities than one, says the Christian Science Monitor. New York City proved for itself not so many years ago that $3,000 a certain organizations for inforyear paid to a good patrolman was mation and guidance," he said not too much; on the contrary it cut "Any success I have achieved are down corruption to the vanishing point and attracted intelligent men to the force.

No one thing can your help if he is to do his best do more to produce a self-respecting, for you." upstanding police force than a generous salary scale. And, vice versa, nothing will more quickly and certainly convince the police that their value is not recognized than low pay. Low salaries for the police, furthermore, open up minor temptations which ripen into major derelictions of duty.

And, finally, it is surely an ano-keenly interested in northwestern staying within due bounds when they maly to present a patrolman with the B.C. as a highway outlet, he had average citizen but in their less enjoy it. When a weary homing pigeon, heading across the Channel from France, came to rest on a British tug, an important chain of events was kept intact and a Canadian corvette, H.M.C.S. "Mayflower," was given an unexpected chance to help speed the victory. The tired pigeon carried important information from a French patriot regarding gun emplacements and flying bomb platforms. It was sent aboard the "Mayflower" which broke wireless silence to send the information in code to shore authorities. The picture at the left shows the pigeon being passed in a bag from the tug to the Canadian corvette and the one on the right shows the well-bred and mannerly visitor taking its ease by a porthole of the wardroom on board the "Mayflower."
