Accidents-preventable accidents resulting from carelessness-take a fearful toll in death and injuries each year. Be on guard against carelessness at all times ... that's the first step in accident prevention. It is equally important, however, to know how to render First Aid when accidents do happen-for First Aid, rendered competently and quickly, is often the means of saving a precious life.

That is why the work of the St. John Ambulance Association is of vital importance to every Canadian. Through this Association facilities are made available to everyone to learn the science of First Aid-a sound knowledge of First Aid has been imparted to hundreds of . thousands of Canadians by the St. John Ambulance Association.

Decide now to learn First Aid. For full details get in touch with your local St. John Ambulance Association branch or write to St. John House, 321 Chapel Street, Ottawa, Ontario.

The St. John Ambulance Brigade is the serving branch. Members of the Brigade put the instruction received from the Association to practical use-rendering a First Aid and Nursing Service throughout Canada and the British Empire.
