"Who was with you?" "Alfred Robinson and Douglas Venn."

"How did it happen?" the police official said he enquired. "Alfred Robinson was cleaning a gun and did not know there was a bullet in it," the wounded man was said to have answered. Staff Sergeant Johnson presented a .351 calibre rifie which he said had been lying on a forward bunk in Alfred Robinson's 28-foot gas boat on Sunday when he visited Fishery Bay and also a door to the moat cabin in which was embedded the bullet which passed through Mckay's abdomen.

Mrs. Jessie B. Sadler, R.N., Field Matron of the Indian department at Kincolith, told how she had been called to attend the wounded man after he had been brought to Kincoha. She had
