Canadian Freighter Is Believed Gone Down

Novadoc, with 25 Aboard Feared Lost in Atlantic

BOSTON (CP)—Fate of the Canadian freighter Novadoc, last heard from as mountainous seas battered her off the New England coast, remained a mystery today but fears were expressed that she had gone down with all her crew of 25.

The Novadoc, out of Digby, Nova Scotia, was last heard from Sunday when she radioed 25 miles east of Portland, Maine, with one cargo hatch torn away.

The 2,227-ton vessel, 248 feet long, was under command of Capt. A. J. Vallis of Montreal.

MARSHALL ON WAY TO MOSCOW

WASHINGTON (CP)—Secretary of State Marshall headed for Moscow today and the start of a give-and-take struggle with Russia that may affect the fate of all Europe.

Foreign Secretary Bevin already is on his way to the Russian capital where the foreign ministers will meet Molotov across the conference table next Monday in historic sessions.

AVAILABILITY OF HAINES CUT-OFF

Uncertainty as to its Status To Be Cleared Up by Local Committee

Uncertainty as to whether or not, as has been reported, the Haines cut-off connecting south eastern Alaska with the Alaska Highway, is to be opened for Canadian trucking in bond, has not yet been cleared up in correspondence on the subject between the Haines and Prince Rupert Chambers of Commerce so the latter body, at its meeting Monday night, referred the matter to its Alaska committee to be followed up.

The only information that the Haines Chamber was able to give in a letter was a notice in Jessen's Weekly of Fairbanks, stating that "Prince Rupert was expecting to use the Haines cut-off this coming summer for the transportation of freight in bond into the Yukon, namely, Whitehorse and Dawson, the article also stating that "bonded trucks would be shipped from Prince Rupert to Haines, thence over the cut-off into the Yukon."

The Haines letter added: "We understand that the Haines cut-off will be open again this year to light traffic and that the Canadian customs will open an office at Pleasant Camp, B.C., on or about April 18, 1947."

NO MASS LOBBY AT VICTORIA

VANCOUVER (CP)—A mass labor lobby to the legislature at Victoria was abruptly vetoed last night by the Vancouver, New Westminster and District Trades and Labor Council. Instead, 10 delegates were appointed to go to the capital when proposed legislation is brought down to study and make recommendations and amendments, if necessary.

"The lobby last year accomplished nothing," said Alderman R. G. Gerwin, secretary of the council. "It left a sour taste in the mouths of the legislature."

DRAUGHT WAS THIEF

VICTORIA, Australia (CP)—When a shirt disappeared from police headquarters here, detectives placed a sheet of paper on the exact spot where the shirt had been. A draught wafted the paper through the open window, carried it to the back of an adjoining building where police found it—beside the missing shirt.

Vast Amount of Talent, Skill Brought to Light in Art Show

Artistic talents and handcraft skills ranging from the sensitive paintings of Miss Yeanne Faure, 77-year-old interior artist, to leather, wood and needle craft work by more than 100 other contributors are to be featured at Prince Rupert's first arts, crafts and hobby show which opens Thursday in the Civic Centre here.

Backbone of the show, but by no means all of it, are the paintings by Miss Faure, whose sense of form and color has remained unimpaired despite her years. Her paintings, most of them on loan from purchasers for exhibition purposes, embrace more than half a century of work in her native Holland and in the British Columbia interior as well as a few local scenes produced during the last few days.

Particularly striking are her oil paintings of interior scenes and black and white drawings of similar subjects. Her greatest pride, however, is in her still-life paintings done before she came to Canada.

Photography exhibits by 10 amateur photographers, some of which have won acclaim in various parts of the province, are also on display. Among them are displays by Dr. W. S. Kergin and Provincial Police Sgt. L. A. N. P. Oerton, who has recorded striking scenes of beauty while stationed in Penticton, Ocean Falls, Smithers, Stewart and Prince Rupert.

TAKE TO BOATS AS S.S. NORTH SEA GOES ON ROCKS—The crewmen and 150 passengers were removed from the S.S. North Sea when it went aground at Idol Point on its way to Alaska. An amateur radio operator received the first report of the North Sea going on the rocks. Photo at left shows rescue ships coming alongside the steamer Prince Rupert after removing passengers from the North Sea. Lucille Livingstone, one of the passengers who survived the shipwreck, is photographed at right aboard the Prince Rupert. Shown with her are her husband and a ship attendant.

SNOWDRIFTS STRANGLE SOUTH ONTARIO IN WORST KNOWN STORM

Food shortages threatened hundreds of rural communities today as plow-defying snowdrifts strangled the rural economy in the southern part of Ontario's May 23-27. The wake of the worst snowstorms in Ontario's history cut off from normal commerce by rail and road as drifts ranging up to 30 feet in depth closed schools, stopped milk and food deliveries and left hundreds of travellers stranded.

BANK ROBBED IN JERUSALEM

JERUSALEM (CP)—Three armed men held up the cashier of a motion picture theatre in downtown Jerusalem today, escaping with $800 loot and touching off a flurry of military activity that whipped the city into intense excitement.

Shrill sirens sent British armored cars racing through the streets. The police said the robbers were young Jews armed with revolvers.

Storm Strikes Great Britain

Transport System In Chaos Again; 15-Inch Fall Is Recorded

LONDON (CP)—Icy roads and new snowfalls left Great Britain's transport system in a chaos today as the country struggled for normalcy after the fuel crisis. An 18-hour storm spread up to fifteen inches of snow in southern England and the Midlands. Thousands of trains were slowed or halted and vital coal shipments were held up.

RAILWAYMAN HAS RETIRED

SMITHERS—His well-wishing associates in the railway service and friends generally in Smithers gathered in large numbers at the Anglican Hall, Saturday night, to honor John R. McIntyre, veteran engineer on the Smithers' Division of the Canadian National Railways, who has just retired from the company's service. Mrs. McIntyre was included in the honors because of her husband's long and popular career which is enjoyed by her husband. Presentations were made as tangible tokens of the kindly sentiments which are felt.

Mr. McIntyre started running on this line in 1914, immediately on its being opened, and having been on it ever since, was the dean of engineers on the division. At first, in 1914, he ran out of Prince Rupert, but later removed to Smithers and has operated the most of the time out of there. For many years he has been on the Smithers-Endako run through the Bulkley Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre, having been here so long, have no idea but to continue their home in retirement here. "I will be happy to fish and garden," says Mr. McIntyre, who is an enthusiast in both lines. "I could never break the old associations by leaving this country."

Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre have three daughters and one son. The daughters are Mrs. Harley Lewis of Prince Rupert, Mrs. Ray Commens of Quesnel and Mrs. Robert Richardson of Bralorne, and the son, Melvin McIntyre, of Smithers.

NAVY REDUCED 60 PER CENT

LONDON (CP)—Britain will reduce the Royal Navy 60 per cent this year, the Admiralty announced today in presenting its budget estimates. The navy slash will bring an over-all reduction of about 2,430,000 in British land, sea and air forces.

Purchase of Military Wing Of Hospital Announced

Purchase of the military wing of the Prince Rupert General Hospital—built by the army in 1940 at a cost of over $70,000—for $5,642, and of equipment and supplies valued at $15,000 for $5,900 by the hospital board was announced at the annual meeting of that body last night by Frank Dibb, retiring chairman.

The purchases, resulting from negotiations with the Department of National Defence and War Assets Corporation, place Prince Rupert in an "enviable position" so far as hospital accommodation and equipment are concerned, Mr. Dibb told the meeting.

However, the hospital is faced with a different situation in regard to nurses. The nurse shortage has resulted in the trained hospital staff being reduced from 23 nurses in 1945 to 14 at the present time, and caused the hospital board to close the ground floor of the institution several months ago.

Foreseeing an even more desperate situation regarding nurses, the board authorized a wage increase for staff nurses of $15 a month, raising the basic rate from $135 a month to $150 a month. The scale is believed to be the highest in the province.

"It has come to a situation where we are going to have to 'buy' nurses," Vice President Arnold Flaten said. "We cannot close the hospital, so we will have to take the other alternative and bid competitively to fill the nursing staff."

In his report, retiring President Dibb recalled that the hospital board had made inquiries of school principals in and around Prince Rupert to learn if any girls were interested in entering the nursing profession. Lack of response caused the board to scrap its plan to re-open the training school for nurses at the hospital.

FEWER PATIENTS DURING YEAR

Mr. Dibb presented a series of operational statistics that revealed a decided drop in the number of patients last year as compared with 1945. Rising costs of medical, surgical supplies, foodstuffs and higher salaries boosted operating costs from $443 per day in 1945 to $537 per day in 1946.

"To offset these increases we were forced to raise our rates 50 cents a day," Mr. Dibb said. "This was done only after a great deal of consideration and after comparison with hospital rates elsewhere in the province." Closing of the ground floor last April resulted in a loss of revenue exceeding $10,000, and efforts are being made to have

TAX RELIEF IN AUSTRALIA

GOV'T ACTS TO QUELL RIOTS

LAHORE, India (CP)—Sir Evan Jenkins, British governor of the Punjab, took over the provincial government in an attempt to solve the crisis resulting from two days of communal rioting in which at least 25 persons were killed. Sikhs and Hindus fought the Muslims in the old walled section of the provincial capital again today, adding to the toll of casualties.

Troops aided police who fired on the rioters several times. Shops were set afire and a bank was reported looted.

The Estimates . . .

A SORT of preview of the all-important budget, the main estimates have been brought down in Parliament at Ottawa by the Minister of Finance, now the youthful Hon. Douglas Abbott. Expenditures are materially cut to bring them in line with normal peacetime conditions and promise a given of a balanced budget. The estimates give indication of a satisfactory state of financial affairs. Observers in the capital are constrained thereby to anticipate that Mr. Abbott, later on in his budget, will be able to really deliver the "pleasant surprise" which he hinted at recently and, of course, could only be one thing—a material decrease in taxes.

Reduction of taxes, of course, implies a reduction in government spending which, naturally, should come in a peacetime economy. Reduction in taxes will lighten the shackles which have bound us all during the war years to the job of paying for the war—the corporations, the businesses and the private individuals alike. The reduction of taxes will make it possible for business to expand and give better service for the use and enjoyment of the people instead of for the destruction of men and property. The reduction of taxes will help to restore the incentive to work well and usefully that better satisfaction and contentment may be the lot of all.

Jaycee Head Welcome . . .

THE Junior Chamber of Commerce here has an important and welcome visitor today in the person of its national president, Paul Leframboise, prominent young business man of Quebec. Mr. Leframboise will find in his Junior Chamber of Commerce here a keen and energetic group of young men anxious to find outlet for their zeal and efforts in advancing the interests of the community and of the nation. The Junior Chamber is finding in Mr. Leframboise a bright and far-thinking young man with a vision and the ability to put it in words.

Mr. Leframboise can and will inspire the worthy members of the Junior Chamber here, particularly along national lines which, after all, have an important bearing in the course of local affairs. His visit will be a tonic for them and a direction pointer which could be obtained in no other way than through such a personal visitation.

Not only the local chamber but the city itself is honored with Mr. Leframboise's visit here.

To Broadcast Gale Warnings

Complaint made recently by Capt. J. R. Elfert, harbor master, that he had been unable to get a storm warning broadcast over the local radio station because of CBC regulations, has brought a report from the radio committee of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, following investigation that the local station had now advised that, in case of any emergency arising which was not covered by the regular weather reports from Vancouver and Prince Rupert, it would be glad to broadcast gale warnings under the signature of the harbor master. The co-operation of Station CFPR had been promised by C. H. Inslander.

25 YEARS AGO

An epidemic of influenza swept the village of Metlakatla striking at every home in the community. There were a number of serious cases. Dr. D. Cade made daily visits to the village to attend those who were ill.

Six budding orators made their debut on the stage of the Booth Memorial School auditorium in the Rotary Club's oratorical contest. They were Howard Frizell, Bill Kergin, Miss Pat Tremayne, Miss Gertrude Nelson, Bartlett Wakefield and Lee Gordon. The latter was judged the winner.

The Canadian Pacific coast-r Princess Beatrice inaugurated a new direct Vancouver-Prince Rupert run, stopping only at Ocean Falls. Previously, company boats had stopped at the camps and the Skeena canneries.

MOUNTAINOUS SNOW DRIFTS BLOCK TRANSPORTATION—Tunnelling his way through a huge snow drift to open the way to his home is a Regina, Sask., resident (left) who lives on Gray Street, one of the outlying districts on Regina's west side. Street car and delivery services were out of commission for almost a week as the worst storms in history tore at the Regina plains, caused a number of deaths and untold suffering as a result of fuel and food shortages. Homes were almost buried in snow. Top picture (at right) shows a home on Dewdney Avenue West where snow covered the front verandah and piled up on the roof to a depth of three feet. A snow drift, in places 30 feet deep and almost a mile long held up traffic on the Regina-Yorkton (C.N.R.) line for days. Even rotary plows, used as a last resort, bogged down on the huge mountain of snow, eventually removed largely by scores of men with shovels. Drifts like the one at bottom right tied up almost every line out of the prairie city, and no train moved out for three days.

RESPONSIBILITY OF BUSINESS

is Not Assuming its Full Social Duty, Citizens' Forum Feel

Majority opinion of a small gathering at last night's weekly Citizens' Forum in Civic Centre was that big business was not assuming all the social responsibility that it might in Canada. A minority felt that, if prejudices as between business on one hand and labor on the other were sunk the parties could come together on a basis of better mutual understanding which would go far to bringing about an assumption of due regard to the interests and welfare of the other.

Dealing with the subject of "What is the Social Responsibility of Business in Canada?" the gathering discussed and disposed of three pertinent questions to the subject:

1. Question—Should business be required to open its books so that government or labor would be in a position to determine whether or not companies could afford to pay higher wages, or is this an invasion of the rights of business?

Answer—That the government department involved should have from business all the information necessary to form a clear picture of the situation in all matters affecting Canadian economy. (Vote 7 to 2).

2. Question—Where an individual company or group of companies has a monopoly of a production or a public service, what do you advise? (1) public ownership; (2) government regulation; (3) industry be left alone?

Answer—The order in which these questions were placed were acceptable to the majority but some took the reverse order.

3. Question—Do you believe that business should allow labor to participate in management?

Answer—That business should allow labor to participate in management insofar as it might lead to better working conditions.

M. H. Waters acted as chairman of the meeting. Next week's subject will be the social responsibility of labor.

Portia White to Spend Two Days Here on Concert Tour

Portia White, outstanding Canadian contralto, will appear in the Civic Centre in Prince Rupert on March 26 instead of March 24, as previously announced, according to Civic Centre Manager, Don Forward, who was advised Tuesday of the change in the noted singer's schedule.

PORTIA WHITE

Miss White will arrive in Prince Rupert by boat on Wednesday, March 26, appear before the local audience that night and leave again for the south the following night. Thus, she will spend more than 36 hours in the city.

Nova Scotia born and trained, Miss White is the first Canadian singer to receive official sponsorship. Leading citizens of her home city, Halifax, and government officials of the province, created a trust fund to give her financial aid. The triumphant success of the young contralto has justified their faith and encouragement.

Miss White has sung ever since she joined the choir of Cornwallis Baptist Church at the age of six. The choir was noted in Halifax. While in high school she decided to devote her life to music.

At many later concerts in this country Miss White achieved increasing fame. Then she went to New York to sing for Edward Johnson, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera. He advised one more year of study, after which, he believed, she would be ready for a New York debut.

Her first Town Hall recital a year later was a notable success. Seven months later, Miss White repeated her vocal triumph in the same hall. Her talent was acclaimed widely.

Although only in her twenties, Miss White's voice and experience are equal to the most varied and exacting program, according to the critics. The unusually large volume of tone which she possesses is still controlled by impeccable taste and musical training.

SCORE PUBLIC INDIFFERENCE TO HOSPITAL

Five New Board Members Named by Acclamation

Public indifference to the affairs of the Prince Rupert General Hospital was scored by veteran board members at the annual meeting last night when little "new blood" was present to take positions on the directorial staff of the institution.

"It has come to a poor pass when we cannot even get enough people out to hold an election," Arnold Flaten declared when, after a considerable amount of persuasion, five association members allowed their names to stand for the five positions to be filled on the board.

"This is a community service which does not hold any reward, but it is one that has to be done," Mr. Flaten said. "I think we have the right to look for a wider public response than has been shown tonight."

The five representatives of the hospital association who became directors by acclamation were Ald. C. G. Ham, who was later chosen president; Arnold Flaten,

HOSPITAL DEFICIT IS $10,000

Going into the "red" for the first time in more than a decade, Prince Rupert General Hospital experienced a deficit of $10,000 in its 1946 operations, according to the annual meeting of the Hospital Association last night by managing secretary H. W. Birch.

Rising costs of supplies and salaries coupled with a decrease in the number of patients accounted for this deficit, retiring president Frank Dibb explained to the meeting.

Total operating expenditures were $122,163, while revenues aggregated $111,868, leaving a gap of $10,355. However, a portion of this deficit was made up of money set aside to cover possible non-receipt of doubtful accounts and therefore may be reclaimed.

Net hospital fees totalled $88,193, while other revenue, made up of provincial and municipal grants, investment interest, laboratory fees, totalled $23,614. Expenditures included $59,992 in salaries and wages, $38,248 for supplies and utilities and services, $13,168.

PACKERS ARE JUST NOSED OUT AFTER THRILLING GAME WITH SAVOY — MACEY'S COP SENIOR "B" HONORS

B. C. Packers fought desperately last night to get into the win column in the first of three Senior "A" games coming up with Savoy but, in the closing minutes of the game, Savoy snatched a four-point lead on the Packers which was just a little too much for the fishermen to overcome. Savoy took the win 56-52 in one of the best Senior "A" battles this season. The Senior "A" brand of games is getting better with each match and if the play-offs are anything like the game last night they will be good.

Savoy got the jump in the first frame and before the Packers knew what was happening, they were on the short end by an 11-1 count. They pulled themselves together somewhat just as the period ended and had crept up to make the score 11-4.

In the second quarter, Packers fought hard, battling their way to within three points of the hotelmen, 26-23. Again in the third frame the Packers fought uphill, but this time they were rewarded by being in the lead, scant one point at the three-quarter mark, 40-39.

The last frame was a killer, with both squads pounding at each other with all the drive they could muster. First Packers were out in front, then Savoy, and then the Packers snatched the lead, 46-45. Suddenly Packers were behind, 50-48 then it was 52-48. But grimly they fought on, narrowing it down to 52-50. Still Savoy moved and now the score was 56-50. Packers were driving hard and again they were within four points but the pace was too much. The game slowed down and then it was all over.

Savoy won—but it was a sad blow to Packers. Bob Houston of the Packers, was the key man in the scoring bracket, pounding in 21 points with Sev Dominato and Herb Morgan vying for second-place honors, each with 14 points. Handling the whistle by himself and doing an A-1 job of it was Johnny Comadina, who commented after the game that the Senior "A" was sure putting on some bang-up ball games. But the most noticeable thing was that they were playing basketball instead of carrying on feuds. A mere 24 fouls were dished out and Savoy copped the honors in that department, taking 13 of them, while Packers got by with 11.

Savoy—M. Holkestad, T. Arney 10; R. Holkestad 9; R. Hautors just before the half ended with the score standing 15-12. Macey's took over again after the half and led by one lone point at the start of the last frame, 20-19.

The last period was a ding-dong battle with Co-op vainly trying to take over the lead and to hold it. But Macey's weren't to be stopped—although it did look like it for awhile.

The scoring honors were divided with Menzies of Macey's and Viereck of Co-op each netting 11 points. But Menzies had a little more support than did Viereck. Co-op's usual big gun, Slatta, had another of his off nights, netting a mere five points. Macey's win last night puts them up as the winner of the second half of the Senior "B" league, with the Bo-Me-Hi Rainmakers the winners of the first half, just before they were sent up to the Senior "A" division. As yet though a play-off date has not been set.

Macey's—Menzies 11; Arnsten 8; Haugan 2; B. Pierce 5; E. Pierre 2; Teng 2; James 2—32.

Co-op—Menzies 3; Petersen 6; Leland, Viereck 11; Slatta 5; Lewis, Whitbrook, Sheppard 4—29.

GROTTO COMES HOME AT LAST

In the Junior loop last night, Grotto came out of the doldrums with a roar and downed the Watts and Nickerson squad 40-23 in a fast show. Watts and Nickerson trailed all the way but still they managed to have a good half of the play in their hands.

Grotto had the shooting eye last night, with Andy Owens sparking them with 16 points. Trailing 10-1 at the first quarter mark, Watts and Nickerson still couldn't get rolling in the second frame. And Grotto ended up the half by increasing the lead to 15-5.

In the second half Watts and Nickerson began to show a little better form but still they trailed 27-13 at the three-quarter post. In the opening minutes of the last period, it looked as though the clothiers might get back into the battle as Ray

SHORT SPORT

In the 16th annual hockey game between the West Point Military Academy and the Royal Military College at Kingston, Ont., eight years ago today the United States cadets won their first victory over the Canadians. Previously the West Pointers had tied only one game to breach the R.M.C.'s string of wins.

The mile bicycle record held by Torchy Peden of Victoria was bettered at Los Angeles 12 years ago by Frank Bartell, bewiskered Czechoslovakian, who skinned around a track at 80.584 miles an hour, four miles better than the Canadian red head's mark.

SERVING CANADIANS THROUGH CHEMISTRY

"Chemistry?.. I DON'T HANDLE IT!"

YOUR STOREKEEPER may think he doesn't handle chemistry, but everything he sells from costume jewelry to refrigerators, is in whole or in part, a chemical product.

Chemistry is a vital factor in fabrics and foods, leather and toys. It's at the cosmetic counter and in the hardware department. You find it more and more whenever you shop—as nylon hosiery, fabrics and bristles, in new plastic articles and as "Cellophane" wrappings to protect goods and make them more attractive.

The chemical industry never stands still. It continues to create new useful products and to improve many old ones. It contributes to the well-being of all of us... with the C-I-L oval the symbol of an organization devoted to serving Canadians through chemistry.

For instance...

RODANT

Rats are clever and hard to kill... they have long been a destructive, disease-carrying scourge... but chemistry is resourceful. It comes up now with "Rodant", a tasteless poison—deadly to the common rat. It is a product of Canadian Industries Limited, Head Office, P.O. Box 10, Montreal.

India Receptive To Church Work

MONTREAL — The people of India now are more willing to listen to the teachings of Christian missionaries than they were before the war, Mrs. A. Earl Toombs, on leave from India, told the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Mrs. Toombs said one of the features most evident to western visitors to India was the disease and the deformity among children.

There are 1,000,000 lepers, and 1,500,000 of the population are blind.

Hindering the treatment of disease was fear which must be overcome by Christian teaching.

From 150,000 to 180,000 women die in childbirth every year and thousands of children under five die every year from unhygienic conditions.

Mrs. Toombs called for support to missions to aid in alleviating these conditions.

MISS MOONEY'S RESIGNATION

Relinquishing Position as Hospital Lady Superintendent

The newly-elected board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital received the resignation of the hospital lady superintendent, Miss Phyllis Mooney, R.N., as its first item of business when it met briefly following the annual meeting of the hospital association last night.

Miss Mooney's resignation was handed to President Clifford Ham within a matter of minutes after his election to that post by the other board members. Miss Mooney asked that it be effective on April 1.

President Ham and Vice President Arnold Flaten were appointed by the board to interview Miss Mooney to learn if she would not reconsider her resignation, which would further confuse the already serious staff problem at the hospital. The interview was scheduled for this afternoon.

No reason was given in Miss Mooney's letter as to her reason for leaving.

DID I SAVE A LIFE?

Yes you did! AS A CONTRIBUTOR TO THE CANADIAN RED CROSS.

YOU, whether of your substance or your blood, or both, gave the greatest gift one person can give another... Life.

YOU, by the same token, helped give a total of over 2 1/2 million Canadian blood donations during the war years, undoubtedly saving countless young lives.

YOU, in these days too, may help carry on this greatest of all services to your fellow-Canadians. How? Please read on.

In one year, almost 7,000 people in Canada met violent deaths. Many of these would be alive today had immediate transfusions been available. Mothers in childbirth, patients in hospitals, children struck down by accidents, depend for their very lives on blood transfusions.

To every such patient in Canada, the Red Cross plans to provide FREE OF CHARGE, life-giving whole blood and plasma.

For this purpose, a new Dominion-wide Blood Transfusion service is now being organized. It should prove the greatest life-saving project upon which the Red Cross has ever ventured. And so, whether it be your money, your blood, or both, what you give may save a life.

The Red Cross needs every dollar you can spare as your share in its great work. Please give as much as you can.

RADIO "HAMS" ORGANIZE CLUB

Amateur radio enthusiasts took a step toward giving Prince Rupert a widespread voice on the world air waves last night when two dozen of them met in the Civic Centre to organize the Prince Rupert Amateur Radio Association.

The "hams" elected officers and heard the aims of the organization outlined by Frank Parlette whose efforts were very largely responsible for forming the group.

Officers of the new organization are Constable Robert Kyle, president; Leonard Hagg, vice-president; Frank Parlette, secretary, and Robert Silversides, treasurer.

Aims of the organization, according to Mr. Parlette, are mutual instruction in codes and technical problems, assistance in obtaining licenses; to take collective advantage of developments in electronics.

Broadcasts by local "hams" will have a high publicity value for Prince Rupert, Mr. Parlette said. At present, there are about half a dozen licensed amateur operators in Prince Rupert, although there are not that many sets operating.

The next meeting of the group will be held in two weeks.

GERMAN CHILDREN SEND TOYS IN GRATITUDE—Five-year-old Diana Asher of Philadelphia, Pa., is holding a stuffed doll and admiring a miniature horse at the display of German toys put on by the American Friends' Service committee there. The toys, more than 1,000 of them, ranged from bookmarks to ingenious mechanical devices, were made by the children of Darmstadt, Germany, out of odd bits of material and sent to the committee in appreciation of American gifts.

Canvassers All Out Now

Prince Rupert's Red Cross Drive got into full swing today with the appointment of canvassing committees for two sections of the city which previously had not been covered, according to campaign chairman Stanley Saville.

No returns have been made to campaign headquarters in the $5,000 drive so far, although Mr. Saville expects that they will start coming in at the end of the week.

"I have no doubt that the response will be just as good as in former years and that Prince Rupert will fill its quota as it has always done," he declared.

Support for the campaign was given by Mayor Nora Arnold last night in a radio address in which she outlined the background of the Red Cross and appealed for support for the drive.

Three additional canvassers have been added to the group of ten which Tuesday started soliciting funds in the area between Fourth and Ninth avenues west of McBride. They are Mrs. George Hill, Mrs. G. R. Krause and Mrs. M. Delorme.

The district east of McBride to the Hays Cove bridge is being canvassed by Mrs. V. M. Fossum, Mrs. J. F. Feasby and Mrs. H. M. Lindseth. East of Hays Cove bridge to Seal Cove, the canvassers are Mrs. A. MacDonald, Mrs. L. Dolron, Mrs. R. L. Wicks, Mrs. C. W. Wardale and Mrs. R. P. Wilkins.
