Britain Turning Over Indian Power At Once

Great Expansion of Traffic to Here to Alaska Seen

Looks so good to me that I wonder somebody has not in it long ago," said Phillip G. Briggs, of the Briggs Steamship Co., in enthusiasm at night's dinner of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, at which he was an honored guest on the occasion of development of a new traffic route from the Middle West States through Prince Rupert to Alaska. Mr. Briggs admitted that it would probably be quite a pull getting established in the next few months but he was confident that, inside of half a year, the service which he was instituting with his new ship Southeastern, now in port, would be on a sound basis and that a second ship would be needed. He looked forward beyond that even to the time when four or five ships would be operating out of Prince Rupert with cargo not only for southeastern but for western and central Alaska. "The whole thing seems so logical to me," he said "that I find it hard to understand why it was not developed before."

"This is my part of the country now," said Mr. Briggs, whose residence has been in New York for several years but who will make his future home at Juneau, "and I intend to stay here." He declared that Alaskans were back of the Prince Rupert route and the new shipping venture 100 per cent. He acknowledged the help that he had obtained from the city of Prince Rupert and the Canadian National Railways in connection with the developing of his plans for the new shipping line.

Speaking of the new ship, he felt it was well suited to the run. Its officers were all Alaskans.

Mr. Briggs also took opportunity to speak of the highway which, after having been told in the east it was practically impassable, he had found to be one of the finest and most beautiful drives he had ever experienced. "There is nothing wrong with the road either. In fact, I would say it is a good road."

Elmer Jones, representative of the Alaska Midwest Co. at St. Paul, brought greetings of the St. Paul Association of Commerce which he said was keenly interested in the development of trade with Alaska over the line of the Canadian National Railways and through Prince Rupert. He foresaw great things in the future for the route. So great was the interest that a party of St. Paul business men, led by Fred Sperling head of the wholesalers' division of the St. Paul Association of Commerce, which was already doing much to promote Prince Rupert as the real gateway to Alaska, was coming here enroute to Alaska on a goodwill tour to help solidify the trade between Alaska and the Midwest through the port of Prince Rupert. Mr. Sperling was one of the best known and most eloquent advocates of the system of free enterprise and he (Mr. Jones) suggested that the people of Prince Rupert should hear him if possible.

Other members of Mr. Briggs' party who were guests at last night's meeting were T. H. Gustafson of Juneau, traffic manager for the Briggs Steamship Co., and G. L. Springer, Ketchikan representative of Alaska Midwest Co.

NANKING (CP)—Six full Communist army divisions under General Wan Yi were reported battling Nationalist defenders of three key cities on the Changchun-Mukden Railway in China's civil war today. Despatches said the battle was going against the government at Changtu, Sze-lingkal and Kaiyuan.

HUNGER IS THE SAME IN ANY LANGUAGE—You don't have to possess the gift of tongues to know when you're hungry. These Viennese, few of whom know English, still have the word for that aching void in the beltline and are displaying it in a demonstration outside the chancellery. Hunger is rampant all over Europe, with each country believing that it is hungrier than its neighbor.

ACTIVITY OF CHAMBER COMMERCE REFLECTS NEW PRINCE RUPERT ERA

Wide Variety of Matters Receiving Attention—Fifty Attend Monthly Dinner Meeting

Continued activity of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce on a variety of matters of current importance in connection with a new era of commercial and industrial development which appears to be setting in for Prince Rupert and district was indicated at the monthly dinner meeting of the Chamber last night with some fifty members in attendance. Several busy committees presented reports on matters taken up and accomplishments achieved. In addition to general business, the meeting heard from Phillip G. Briggs, head of the Briggs Steamship Co., which is inaugurating a new shipping service out of Prince Rupert; to southeastern Alaska, who, with other members of his party, were guests of honor.

Moscow Sees Jitters Here

Radio in Red Capital Talks of Military Co-operation With United States

MOSCOW, (CP)—Moscow radio, in a news broadcast yesterday, said Canadians are getting more and more uneasy about the impending infiltration of United States troops consequent upon plans for United States-Canadian defence co-operation.

The broadcast claimed that the Canadian government had been forced to introduce a new draft act dealing with the observance of regulations and general behaviour of United States troops in Canadian territory.

"The troops are given such privileges that have never before been given foreign troops on territories of other countries in peacetime," the broadcast said.

ST. LAWRENCE PLANE CRASH

Four Killed When Aircraft Plunges Into River Near Montreal

MONTREAL.—The death toll in the crash of a light seaplane Sunday, into the St. Lawrence River near Longueuil, across the river from here, was set at four men yesterday with the recovery of another body from the water. Identity of the fourth victim was not known immediately. The bodies of three Toronto mining men, Jim Matheson, pilot, M. M. Smith and Tucker Harris were extricated yesterday. The plane was coming in for a landing from northern Quebec mining fields.

Hold-up Portland

Portland, Ore.—Police are holding up an armed messenger today in the fourth floor of the King department store. The messenger carried two gunmen $107,000 in cash but only $304 in checks.

Two gunmen stepped on the elevator behind the messenger, Albert Curtis, late yesterday afternoon. Curtis is being held today. They entered the elevator, one pointing it and the other at the elevator operator. One grabbed my money bag. They then stepped out of the elevator and me to keep quiet."

Vancouver Woman Deceives Northern B. C. Area One of World's Richest

VANCOUVER (CP)—Mrs. M. Armitage-Moore believes that in the Groundhog in the north central interior, British Columbia had "one of the richest and largest coal fields in the world."

"She owns the only known plans of the Groundhog deposits and also samples of anthracite taken from the field 150 miles north of Hazelton. The coal is shining, clean and hard, although taken from the terrain 37 years ago by her father, the late Ronald Campbell-Johnson, H. G. Archibald, (C.C.F. - Skeena) recently made public a letter from Mines Minister Glen stating "the area clearly warrants further attention... but we lack base maps."

Mrs. Armitage-Moore has the base maps made by her father from 1909-1911.

"There is gold, gelina, hematite, oil and coal there," she said in an interview, reading from her father's reports. "The coal extends over 2,000 square miles. There is the largest untouched stand of timber in Canada—and the biggest stretch of spruce."

Transportation problems have prevented opening up the rich area to date and numerous private holders have reverted to the government.

DEATH PLUNGE IN VANCOUVER

Seaman Dies After Quarrel—Another Man Little Hurt in Bridge Fall

VANCOUVER (CP)—One is dead, and the second is making a remarkable recovery following plunges from a hotel and bridge within the past thirty hours.

Jack Mistlebrook, a 19-year-old seaman, died in hospital last night. He fell fifty feet from the fifth floor of a hotel window on Sunday, following a lover's quarrel. Two men and a woman are held for investigation.

Charles Ferrier, 57, suffered only slight bruises and shock when he fell an estimated 30 feet to the ground from the south end of the Second Narrows bridge last evening. Hospital officials said he would likely be discharged today.

LONDON, (CP)—Prime Minister Attlee has been recommended for election as a Fellow of the Royal Society.

SHOCKED BY TRAM

LONDON, (CP)—Passengers who were boarding a double-decker omnibus received electric shocks when a short circuit made one of the handrails "live."

VICTIM OF COURTROOM SHOOTING—Fatally wounded in a shooting affray in the Washington, D.C., municipal court, Ray Devendorf, clerk to George W. Dalzell, secretary to the District Bar Association Committee of Grievance, is carried from the court on the way to hospital. He died before arrival. Two other persons were wounded and a policeman killed in the shooting. The gun welder, said to be a Negro, was himself wounded by police bullets and is in a Washington hospital. The man was identified as Dan Williams, a disgruntled bar applicant.

People Will Determine One or Two Governments

Epochal Announcement Made Today By Prime Minister Attlee and Vice-Roy Mountbatten

LONDON (CP)—British Government said today it will transfer power in India to the Indians almost immediately and leave it to the Indian people to decide whether there shall be one or two governments. Announcement was made simultaneously by the Prime Minister, Mr. Attlee, in the House of Commons, by the Vice-Roy, Viscount Mountbatten, in a broadcast to the Indian people and by the British Government in a white paper.

Autos Still Most Fatal

NEW YORK (CP)—Despite the two worst aeroplane crashes in the history of North American commercial aviation and two disastrous tornadoes, the United States yesterday looked back on Memorial Day week-end in which automobile mishaps again headed the list of violent holiday deaths.

The total of those who died violently was 482, compared with 292 last year.

There were 214 traffic fatalities and 95 deaths in two aeroplane crashes.

PEACE APPEAL MADE BY POPE

VATICAN CITY, (CP)—Pope Pius yesterday portrayed the "fruitless conferences succeeding one another" and appealed to the world's peacemakers to grasp remaining opportunities to restore normal relations among nations.

"There is," said the Pontiff, "always room for a peaceful settlement. May the rulers of states not let slip this opportunity! It may be—God forbid—the last opportunity."

INTERESTING NEW INDUSTRY—MOSS GATHERING—ON Q. CHARLOTTE

The beginning of a new industry which may be of importance to west coast florists, and to the Queen Charlotte Islands hangs on the results of an experimental shipment of spagnum moss which left Port Clements on the Union Steamship Cassiar at the week-end, bound for Seattle. The moss, three carloads of it, was harvested near Port Clements, and it is destined for use by companies of florists at San Francisco and Vachon Island near Seattle who believe that it may be the prime answer to their need for a decorative moss for floral wreaths as well as a moisture-maintaining agent for shipping plants.

Unlike ordinary green moss, of which there is no lack anywhere along the coast, the Port Clements moss is whitish in color, and apparently is exclusive to that area. If it is found satisfactory, the demand no doubt will increase. It was shipped in small bales—400 of them—measuring 18 by 31 inches and weighing 40 pounds each.

The shipper is W. B. Crane who had intended at first to go to Alaska to get his moss but went instead to Graham Island after he had investigated the field there. He plans another shipment in two weeks.

During World War I considerable spagnum moss was gathered in this area for use in connection with surgical dressings.

UNION RESPONSIBILITY

INDUSTRIAL PEACE in both the United States and Canada has been given great support by the recent order of Philip Murray, president of the Steelworkers' Union, to its 3000 locals in the United States that they refrain from strikes during the next two years of their new agreements with the steel companies. Mr. Murray told them that they must meticulously respect the provisions of their collective-bargaining contracts. These provide for an adequate grievance procedure, arbitration and no strikes.

As Mr. Murray is also president of the C.I.O., which has many branches in Canada as well as in the United States, he wields an unusually powerful influence in labor and his demands for orderly methods of adjusting difference with management will, doubtless, cause many men outside his union to follow his lead. His pronouncement should be far-reaching in behalf of labor peace. Much needed also is his advice that steel union officials be not anti-company but sincerely concerned with the best interests of the business.

Too many unions have insisted that employers carry out their contracts to the letter but have not been so particular themselves. There has been trifling with no-strike and walk-out pledges, particularly among the newer unions. Many youngsters going into labor organizations don't know what a union is and often think that unionization just means going out on strike. Wildcat strikes unauthorized by top union officials, not only in United States but in Canada, have been added to strikes called by veteran union leaders who know better.

Coming up from nothing to a membership of around 850,000 within the last ten years, the Steelworkers is now the largest union in the United States. Its emphatic stand for sticking by contracts evidences, as we have already said in these columns, that labor is better realizing its responsibilities.

THE T.B. CLINIC

THERE HAS BEEN a thorough canvass of Prince Rupert for the setting of dates of adults and teen-agers for the mass tuberculosis survey clinic which is now here with its van. This is just a word to those who have been "dated" to keep their appointments without fail and to those who may have been missed to get dated.

It is not only personally beneficial to see that one is in good health, particularly when no personal cost is involved, but it is good citizenship to co-operate in every way possible in finding where disease lurks and thus be in a position to stamp it out. Briefly, one is not only helping one's self but one's community by attending the tuberculosis survey clinic.

25 YEARS AGO

June 3, 1922
Daily train service between Prince Rupert and Jasper went into effect. Eastbound trains left the city in the morning and the westbound arrived at 7:15 in the evening.

The Board of Trade threw its weight behind a move to have a post office branch opened at Seal Cove. The request had been repeated continually by a number of Seal Cove residents in petitions.

Mines and mills in the interior would reduce operation until settlement was made in a current freight rate dispute, John Willman, interior mine and lumber operator, said. Buyers, he said, would not purchase products at present when faced with the possibility that the freight charges on them might be reduced at a later date.

GYMNASIUM DEMOLITION BIDS AWARDED

Contract for the demolition of the Roosevelt Park gymnasium, material from which will be used to build an auxiliary gym attached to the Civic Centre, has been awarded to the partnership of Haugen, Johns, Henriksen and Brown, Civic Centre manager Don Forward announced this morning.

The contract was awarded on a basis of demolition costs per thousand board feet of lumber. Bids also were received from North West Construction Co., John Moritz, and Allan MacDonald and Ralph Wick.

All material will remain the property of the Civic Centre Association, and part will be used to construct additional gymnasium space at the Civic Centre.

The Civic Centre Association decided to demolish the building several weeks ago when it felt conclusively that repair of the building would mean exorbitant expenditure. The building has depreciated considerably since it was purchased from War Assets for $5,000 more than a year ago.

Contract for the purchase of plumbing fixtures in the former American Army building was awarded to Bar and Anderson.

A bid by W. D. Lambie for outright purchase of the gymnasium was rejected on grounds that the material will be needed for construction of the new addition to the Civic Centre.

Cost of building the new Civic Centre addition is expected to be about the same as would have been required to rehabilitate the Roosevelt Park structure, and Civic Centre authorities felt that more gymnasium space at the Civic Centre would be more practical than repairing the Roosevelt Park building.

It is expected that demolition costs largely will be offset by the sale of excess material.

BEST WISHES OF RAILWAY

Message to P. G. Briggs From Vice-President of Canadian National Railways

Among congratulatory messages received in connection with the institution of the Briggs Steamship Co. of its new Alaska freight service out of here with the motorship Southeastern, is one from W. R. Devenish, vice-president of Canadian National Railways, western lines, Winnipeg. On behalf of Mr. Devenish and the railway management, which is taking a keen and active interest in the venture to develop further Alaska traffic through Prince Rupert, the message was conveyed to Phillip G. Briggs by C. A. Berner, divisional superintendent.

Calvert 1622 MEN OF VISION Tupper 1864

Painted for Calvert by Adam Sherriff Scott, R.C.A.

In Toronto on November 2nd, 1864, Sir Charles Tupper urged an immense torch-lit throng to support federation. Long an advocate of unity, his leadership did much to ensure Confederation. Premier of Nova Scotia, Prime Minister of Canada, Sir Charles Tupper gave freely of his genius to develop the Dominion.

In 1864 TUPPER said:
"Create a union... of understanding"

In 1622 CALVERT said:
"Fair dealings lead to union"

EARLY in the 17th century, Calvert foresaw the development of the New World through united effort. "Assist your neighbours" he said, "They are men of high esteem."

Famous English statesman, Secretary of State to King James I, founder of colonies in Newfoundland and Maryland, Calvert championed unity far back in the 1600's. "Prepare for the future" he urged his pioneer settlers, "preserve unity."

Man of Vision 300 years ago, Calvert's ideals have been shared by all men of vision since Calvert's time. Today let each of us be a man of vision—work earnestly for a united Canada.

The full measure of our stature as a nation depends upon unity of purpose. There is only one Canada for clear-headed Canadians.

Clear heads call for... a United Canada

Is this your MOM'S-EYE VIEW?

No fun for parents looking at scenery like this.

Perhaps Feen-a-mint is all you need to start smiling like this. Feen-a-mint is a deliciously mint-flavored chewing laxative that everybody likes. It's gentle, yet really effective. And won't upset your stomach or disturb your sleep. Millions use Feen-a-mint. Get a package at any drug counter and keep it handy.

Rented room:
It's no trick at all to turn "hopeless" gloomy surroundings into an enchanting, cheerful room. Yes, even on a slim-Jim budget! Try a gay print bedspread... wallpaper trim around the windows... a cozy writing nook. But be sure you start with a sparkling new Gold Seal Congoleum rug! That's the way to get a floor covering that lends excitement to your whole color scheme... that is smooth, easy to clean, comfortable underfoot. Best of all, it's such a good "buy"! For Gold Seal Congoleum — both rugs and by-the-yard — has a wear-layer of heat-toughened paint and baked enamel equal in thickness to 8 coats of best floor paint applied by hand! But remember — without this familiar Gold Seal — it isn't Congoleum! So look for it before you buy! You'll be surprised how much quality you can buy for so little money.

SHORT SPORT

Montreal will spend $350,943 during 1947 to maintain 28 playgrounds and at the same time improve children's health and decrease juvenile delinquency. During the last six years, the city has developed many new parks and organized play and recreation centres. In 1942, Montreal had only nine recreation centres with an average attendance of about 1,500 children. In 1945 there were 62 centres under the guidance of trained monitors.

During that period, as shown by official federal government figures, there was a drop of 29 per cent in Montreal juvenile delinquency although the ratio across Canada increased in that period. Last year organized recreation centres numbered 85 and the downward trend in delinquency continued. A survey of 256 children stricken with poliomyelitis during the country-wide epidemic last year showed only seven were regular attendants at city playgrounds; 54 went occasionally but the majority never went at all.

Today, Montreal has 80 public parks and 88 playgrounds, 33 of which are side-by-side—that is park and playground combined. Future plans call for 39 more parks, one combined park and playground, and two new playgrounds. Total area of parks and playgrounds is 1,950 acres, six per cent of the city's total surface. Recreation is supervised by monitors who are compelled to attend a spring course in organized recreation. Tennis,

COMEDY OF ERRORS AT GYRO PARK

It wasn't exactly fastball as the critics would recognize it but, nevertheless, everybody seemed to have a fumbling good time and the fans weren't noticeably offended last night. After two hours and seven innings of mis-play, Navy managed to give Gordon and Anderson 41 runs while the merchants issued the Navy credit for 15.

Obviously, error is contagious. It was a session made memorable by the almost complete disappearance of fielding ability on both sides although Gordon and Anderson managed to retain a fairly substantial capacity to smite the ball.

Umpire George McWhinney summed up the shambles by enquiring politely if the players would be satisfied with seven innings because he feared, if it went to nine, the game would not be over in time for tonight's game.

Reminiscences By W.J. and Reflections

Wandering back through the files—away, away back through the dusty, dusty newspaper files with limp and faded pages—we met up with the late Captain Hoomes K. Freeman. He had written another letter to the paper. Reading it, one could almost hear his voice and watch the play of expression across his weatherbeaten face. Skipper Freeman of the Narbethong had his convictions and liked to give them an airing. Every letter to the press he would conclude with this bit of moralizing—"the best governed country is the least governed country."

Evans was the name. He met the boats and sang the raucous praises of the Calumet bunkhouse at the head of Centre Street. Harry Evans, short and stoutish, flourished when Prince Rupert was young. His chief claim to fame was the power—but not the sweetness—of his voice. Once passengers were safely ashore, he would turn it on with the starry Heavens the limit. The stranger in town was apt to give a start, as that piercing, penetrating yell drowned all minor noises, as Evans told his brief and simple story. Follow the track up Centre Street, and rest at the Calumet. That's all there was to it.

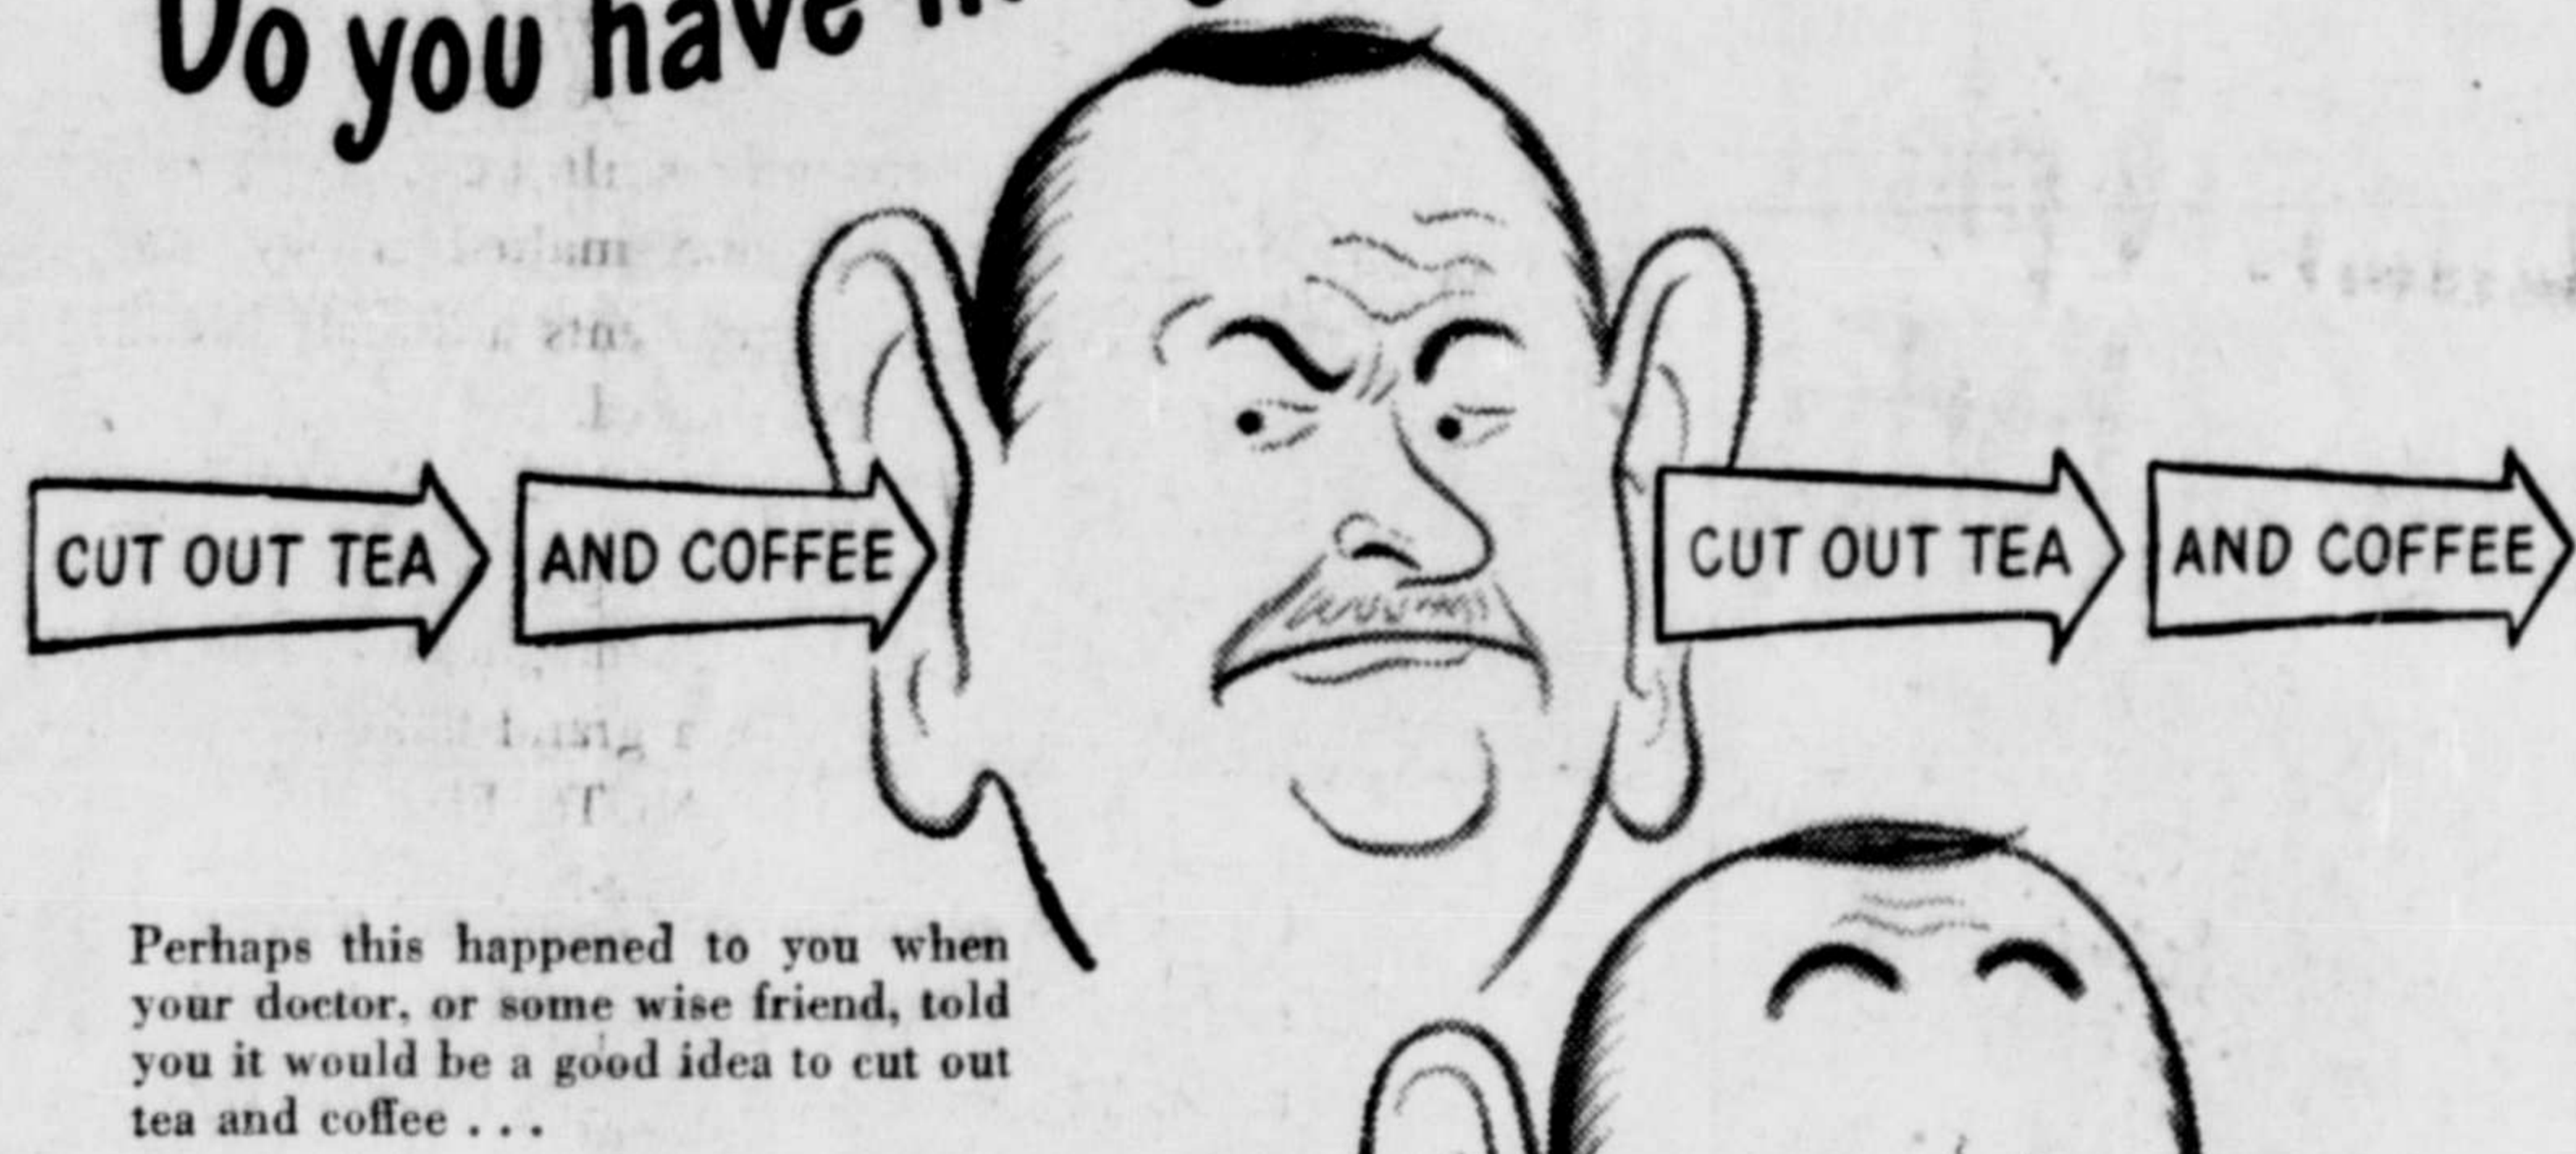

Prince Rupert has a mountain in her backyard and some day there will be a motor drive to the summit. Part of it is known as Mount Hays, the other part Mount Oldfield. The time is coming when the view from the crest will be a star attraction, convenient as well as superb. Away to the north, gleam ranges not visible from the city. The townsite seems almost at one's feet. Islands little and islands large dot blue water—Chatham Sound and Hudson Bay, Edey and Bell Passages. Isles are near and far, hilly and flat. To name Porcher, Stephens, Dundas, Digby, Kinahan, Lucy, Tugwell, Melville, Kalen, Tree Knob and Baron is only to specify a comparative few. And Kalen, of course, is the best known of the lot. There is a reason.

Tourists were spreading across the dock one enchanting summer morning. A rangy looking old gentleman, with what could have been wife and daughter, paused and considered. His gaze rested on the Simpson peninsula—in other words, across the harbor. "Now," he remarked, "where we are standing is in

Do you have in-again, out-again ears?

Perhaps this happened to you when your doctor, or some wise friend, told you it would be a good idea to cut out tea and coffee...

But if someone says "Drink Postum instead", that really rings a bell!

Yes—Postum is a grand way to stop drinking tea and coffee if the caffeine in those beverages upsets your nerves, keeps you awake.

You can drink Postum any hour of the day or night—enjoy as much as you like, as strong as you like—and not miss a wink of sleep. Postum contains no caffeine, nor any other drug—can't affect heart or nerves or digestion.

Make Postum right in the cup, just by adding boiling water or hot milk. Costs less than 1¢ a serving.

the aviation committee, Stone reported on progress made towards having air mail service carried between Vancouver and Prince Rupert now Canadian Pacific Airlines is instituting a scheduled service, the matter being under consideration of the minister-General's department.

committee was also following up the drive to have Prince Rupert set up as a direct entry and clearance for aircraft—both commercial and private—eliminating the need for entry and departure by way of Massett. There is partial success as far as aircraft were concerned but commercial aircraft will still be bound by the off-land regulations.

L. Armstrong reported for the committee which had the matter of this disbanding represented at the National Exhibition in Vancouver. Recommendation of a panel of pictures be entered at an estimated cost of $1000 was adopted and the matter referred back to the committee for further action.

report from the entertainment committee, J. H. Black, chairman, on a recent successful meeting for Hon. E. T. Mackenzie was read and received with applause.

THE CALVIN

THE CALVIN—Providing the utmost in functional convenience and comfort within an area 26'x30', this attractive two bedroom, one story home is the small house reduced to the irreducible minimum. Its floor area is only 780 square feet. It contains about 10,000 cubic feet. It is the nearest thing to the $5,000 house, craved by so many families, that can be built at today's costs.

Although the house is small, there is no cramping of room sizes. The living room with its open fireplace is a grand room. There is a separate dining space. There is no basement. Heating and hot water equipment go in a utility room.

the Canadian Chamber of Commerce sent a report. In view of his effective representation, a letter of thanks and appreciation is being sent to Mr. Dockrill.

Senator J. G. Turgeon, who has been active on behalf of the Chamber in port development matters at Ottawa, is also being thanked. At his suggestion, a new brief is being sent to the Department of Transport to be used in connection with the campaign to have Prince Rupert relieved of existing discriminatory international load line regulations. Another appreciation which the Chamber will express is to C. G. Cockshutt, president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, for having paid a special visit to Prince Rupert recently.

The meeting was advised of a visit to be made here September 10 by a party of forty British lumbermen. A luncheon will be held in their honor with special invitations to timber operators in this area, the lumber committee of the Chamber being delegated to make arrangements for the

MAY BUILDING PERMITS SLUMP

Building construction in Prince Rupert for the first five months of 1947 slumped by more than $26,000 under the value of construction for the same period in 1946, a survey of building permits issued by the City Engineer's office indicates.

Permits issued in May were valued at $9,325, bringing the year's total to date to $60,117, as compared with $86,752 for the first five months of 1946. Permits issued in May of last year totalled $14,353.

Largest individual permit issued last month was for the construction of a $3,000 building to be used for a store by Harold Helgerson on Second Avenue near the Park Avenue intersection.

Here is the May building permit list:

- S. P. Woodside, $150, McBride Street, repairs.
- W. McLean, $200, Seventh Avenue East, fireplace.

SKEENA RIVER FALLING FAST

High Water Danger Now Appears to be Over

Water level of the Skeena River, which had been alarmingly high toward the end of the week, has been rapidly receding since then. There has been a four-foot drop at Kitwanga since Saturday. There was no trouble from high water anywhere along the Skeena today, divisional superintendent's office reported. For a time last week there had been water over both railway and highway, the worst point being Kitwanga. One small highway bridge near Kitwanga was loosened but the road was not impassable.

1 A breakfast cereal made of two grains instead of one was big news in 1897. Everybody was talking about the distinctively-different Grape-Nuts flavor — achieved through a skilful combination of both wheat and malted barley and other fine ingredients uniquely blended and double baked.

2 Still high on top in popularity, that same glorious flavor is yours today in a grand flake cereal—POST'S GRAPE-NUTS FLAKES — as well as Post's Grape-Nuts.

3 And all this good two-grain nourishment is in every delightful serving of Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes: carbohydrates for energy; proteins for muscle; phosphorus for teeth and bones; iron for the blood; other food essentials.

4 When you reach for Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes you get "gimme more" flavor, "up-and-at-em" nourishment, and a choice of either regular or large economy packages that carry tested recipes for muffins, soufflés and other delicious cooked things made with those same curly, honey-golden flakes. SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

Southeastern Sailing Tonight—New Union Schedule—Southholm in Port

Loading of the new Briggs Steamship Co. motorship Southeastern, Capt. Alexander Barov, with cargo from the Middle West accumulated here after having been delivered by Canadian National Railways, was completed by last evening and the vessel will leave tonight for Ketchikan, Wrangell, Petersburg and Juneau. Being open to the public this afternoon, quite a few citizens took advantage of the opportunity to visit the ship with which they were favorably impressed.

Changes involving Union Steamship Co. sailings from Prince Rupert are announced. They are effective as from now. The steamer Catala will arrive Friday mornings from the south and sail at 5 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints. The Coquitlam will arrive at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoons from Vancouver, sailing at 8 p.m. for Stewart and Alice Arm, which is being made a regular port of call, returning here Tuesday mornings to sail at 1:30 p.m. for the south. The schedule of the Camosun to Ketchikan remains unchanged while the Chilcotin will start next week on a special weekly six-day cruise north from Vancouver to Ocean Falls, Prince Rupert and Ketchikan with visits to such scenic waters as Portland and Gardner Canals.

Southbound from Alice Arm, where she unloaded 200 tons of machinery and lumber for Torbit Mine, the Frank Waterhouse freighter Southholm, Capt. William Gleeson, docked here Sunday afternoon, stopping first at the Fairview Bay fishermen's floats where it unloaded 45,000 board feet of lumber for John Currie, contractor. The lumber will be used to complete the floats. Bright, dry weather in Prince Rupert probably will bring with it less dust when the city workmen spread calcium chloride on the streets. The anhydrous substance has the happy faculty of absorbing moisture from the air, and thus, when spread on the streets, reduces the blanket of dust ordinarily caused by traffic. After weeks of effort, the city managed to secure 18 tons of calcium chloride in Vancouver. It was delivered here Sunday on the freighter Southholm. The Southholm also delivered a small amount of lumber for Armour Salvage Co. and 5,000 bricks for Philpott, Eviatt, Co. Leaving here at midnight, Sunday, the Southholm stopped at B. C. Packers Port Edward plant, picking up 32,800 gallons of halibut oil for delivery to Imperial Cannery, Steveston. From Port Edward, the vessel went to North Pacific Cannery and Butedale to discharge cannery supplies, then to Ocean Falls to load a cargo of paper for Vancouver.

The Seattle fishpacker Einstoss, Capt. Saul Einstoss, was in port Monday unloading 2 carloads of frozen fish from Alaska for shipment over C.N.R. lines to the eastern United States.

After calling at the south Queen Charlotte Islands on Monday, Union steamer Cassiar was due to call at Butedale today to pick up 100 tons of frozen fish for Vancouver. The Cassiar sailed from here Sunday night for the south.

A member of the crew of the ss. Princess Louise died recently at Skagway. His name was Percy Jones, 59 and he passed away while at work in the ship's hold. The body was sent to Juneau from where it will be taken to Vancouver. It is understood the deceased had no relatives.

H.M.C.S. Uganda will be in Vancouver from June 9 to 11 with the University naval training division men aboard. The warship will return to Esquimalt June 11.

The salmon canning season is at hand, now that halibut fishing in Area 2 is about over. Gill-netting for spring salmon is under way and later there will be activity in sockeye, pink and chum operations. Sockeye runs have been depleted in the Fraser but a heavy run of pink salmon all along the coast is expected.

LONDON, @—In a letter to Norman Robertson, High Commissioner for Canada, the chairman of the National Women Citizen's Association expressed thanks to the Canadian women for gifts of food.

NURSE'S LOVE STORY TOLD

A touching romance extending through the years, but doomed to defeat, is told in "Sister Kenny," an authentic story of the Australian bush nurse who developed a new treatment for infantile paralysis. Rosalind Russel and Alexander Knox costar, and Dean Jagger is top featured in this picture showing at the Capitol Theatre this Wednesday and Thursday. The nurse falls in love as a young girl with an Australian Army officer. Their romance lasts all their lives and many times the wedding date is fixed, and each time postponed owing to Nurse Kenny's interest in the cause to which she has dedicated her life. A professional ruling bars nurses from marrying unless they left their profession. "Sister Kenny" lays great store by her love, and her whole life is a struggle between love and duty, but duty always wins. The officer dies faithful to his love.

"RHEUMATIC PAINS DON'T BOTHER ME NOW!"

"My joints had troubled me for years. I was almost an invalid, never felt lively or right. I got relief when I began taking Gino Pills. One box made me feel a lot better so I kept on and rheumatic pains don't bother me now. Gino Pills are sure good medicine."—E.W.B., Toronto, Ont.

That's a letter typical of the many being constantly received from satisfied users of Gino Pills—the 40 year old kidney remedy that helps rid the system of pain-causing poisons. Your druggist sells Gino Pills on a satisfaction-or-money-back basis. Insist on the genuine.
