An authoritative report today said that Gen. Sir Alan Cunningham would return to his post in Palestine as high commissioner.
Martial law is not imminent.

MONTREAL HARBOR CRIME INCREASE

Police Nip Operations of International Smuggling Ring
MONTREAL (CP)—Crime stepped up on the Montreal waterfront during the recently closed shipping season with harbor police making more than the usual number of arrests.
Capt. James Cowley, chief of harbor police, said the reason for the crime increase was the return of imported cargos, goods of which brought a lucrative return on the outside. Better part of the goods was recovered and most of the would-be thieves caught in the act.
Capt. Cowley, 32 years on the force, revealed that his staff nipped in the bud what might possibly have been an international smuggling ring. Discovery of the smuggling in Montreal came to light unexpectedly one night as a British vessel docked.
One crew member left the ship with a large bag and made for two automobiles, one a taxi,

WAS BELOVED IN SMITHERS

Mrs. Mary Elliott Passes Away at Age of 62
SMITHERS—Mrs. Mary Elliott, respected citizen of Smithers, passed away on Sunday morning at her home here.
Mrs. Elliott was born in Portfar, Scotland, 62 years ago. She married Robert Elliott in Toronto in 1913 after his discharge from the Army in World War I. They came directly to Smithers 28 years ago and opened a shoe store. During the early years of Smithers Mrs. Elliott, who was a registered nurse, often left her home for duty at the bedside of the sick and needy. In her quiet way she had made a host of friends throughout the district and she will be missed by all of them. She was one who had a cheery greeting no matter how hard things were going, and it seemed that, the harder the times, the more cheerful she would be.
Mrs. Elliott is survived by her husband, Robert Elliott, of Smithers; two sisters in Toronto, and a nephew, Thomas Ogilvie of Smithers. Funeral service was held from the United Church here this afternoon and interment was made in the Smithers cemetery.

Chamber of Commerce at Smithers to Develop Market—Bounties Discussed
SMITHERS—At the regular meeting of the Smithers and District Chamber of Commerce Monday night correspondence concerning the increase in bounty on predatory animals received considerable discussion and it was finally decided to have Hon. E. T. Kenney, Minister of Lands and Forests, take the matter up directly with the attorney general as there seemed to be very little satisfaction from any dealings with the game department.
The meeting decided it would go all out in an effort to raise funds for a full page advertisement in the coming Statehood issue of the Ketchikan (Alaska) Chronicle. It was pointed out by one of the members that the Alaskan market was open for Bulkley Valley produce and the secretary was instructed by the meeting to contact all Farmers' Institutes asking them to send representatives to the next monthly meeting of the chamber with a view to establishing a central organization so that all produce could be funnelled into it and be graded before it was shipped out. It was decided that every effort should be made to establish the Alaskan market and to hold it once it was established.
The question of officers for the ensuing year was given some discussion and Dr. Greene was appointed chairman of the nominating committee. Nominations will be made at the annual dinner which was set for January 29.

VICTORIA (CP)—Premier John Hart, commenting Monday on reports that New Brunswick Premier J. B. McNair is dissatisfied with British Columbia's new financial agreement with the Dominion government, said that his province is willing to agree on similar terms with New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

Under the Hart formula, the federal subsidy is minimized at $18,000,000 and B.C. will share 50-50 with Ottawa on collections from corporation income taxes on electric and gas utilities which will amount to about $500,000 this year.
Ottawa also agreed to write off $8,000,000 of B.C.'s treasury bill indebtedness for direct relief during the depression years.
Premier McNair charged "gross discrimination" by Ottawa in favor of the west coast was an affront to New Brunswick.

What of the Coming Year?

WE HAVE BEEN ASKED a good many times since the year turned as to what we expect for Prince Rupert in 1947. Quite frankly, we look for no sudden boom in Prince Rupert this year but we do hope for steady progress toward the development and expansion of our great natural resources and the use of our strategically located, amply equipped port and facilities along sound and permanent lines.

In spite of reverses and disappointments which we have suffered since war ended and during the still uncompleted period of transition, we expect, barring some national economic calamity which would carry us all downward, that a year from today Prince Rupert will be enjoying a sounder measure of prosperity than it is today. Meantime, there are none who can say that Prince Rupert—with little if any unemployment, its people well fixed with the world's goods and business people enjoying good patronage and demand with some lines they still profess they are unable to meet—is not a prosperous place today—even if some of us may be a little unhappy over the recession to normalcy from the unnatural war boom.

We may have a seasonal quiet for two or three months between now and spring but we know that our basic industries are due for a good year if for no other reason than the still unfilled demands not only of the home but the world markets.

The lumber industry has still a lot of unfilled orders to catch up with as the whole country cries for building materials. That will keep the men busy in the mills and in the woods.

The demand of the world for food will keep the fishing industry at a high economic level and agricultural products will still be in strong demand.

The year 1946 was the best our mining industry has had since before the war. All signs point to 1947 being an even more active year in reopening such coastal areas as Portland Canal and Alice Arm. There should also be a real revival in the central interior as long inactive properties command renewed attention and steps proceed to open up and develop new properties.

Our basic industries are in a very promising condition and they reflect their healthy state in the prosperity of the distributing and administrative centre of Prince Rupert.

We have mentioned nothing about the more problematical possibilities of increased shipping through Prince Rupert as a result of the expanding use of the port for Alaska traffic, possible grain shipping or even trans-Pacific commerce which, although having suffered temporary setbacks, are by no means to be ruled out. We have not speculated on what may ensue from the clarification of the disposition of the great war established facilities here and hereabouts. Nor have we counted upon what may result from the extensive surveys that are now being made in connection with the possibility of a new major industry, involving not only this port and Port Edward but the whole lower Skeena Valley. If any of these things develop, they will be all to the good, over and above what we may surely expect from a normal use and development of already established and developing basic exploitation of our natural resources.

We think of the situation from all angles and, although to be sure things may not have been moving as rapidly we might have hoped for, we can see no reason for pessimism or uneasiness about the future—immediate or long range—of Prince Rupert.

Council's Burden

IF THE INAUGURAL address of our lady mayor may be taken as the keynote, the new city council is resolutely setting itself to the job ahead with realism and courage. Mrs. Arnold accepts the position that, unless some immediate and permanent improvements are made, heads will fall "including our own." She and her council know that the public is becoming increasingly impatient about the disgraceful condition of the city's facilities and services such as streets, waterworks and sewers and that even the most valid of excuses for nothing being done to improve them will not be accepted.

In other words, the 1947 city council is "on the spot" for sure and it must get something done or take the consequences. It must not only try. It must do. It is not going to be good enough to tell us there is no money. If there is no money, something must be done about obtaining it and that without further delay. Financing looks at the moment to be a major problem.

Political Situation

MR. KING was 72 last month. He has put forth a rumor, and even said it himself, that he wishes to retire.

The difficulty confronting Canada is that, to date, no one else has appeared in any party around whom the electorate can rally.

Liberal deterioration, if such there be, is not reflected in the country. The Gallup poll, which has not yet been wrong, reports the relative position of the three major parties to be unchanged.

The Canadian people are no more inclined to vote Socialist now than earlier.

The Bracken party has failed to exploit the weaknesses of their opponents. It is now four years since Mr. Bracken became the leader.

RADIO AUCTION PROCEEDS $467

The Civic Centre, Pioneers' Home and the Salvation Army each received $155.75 as their share of the $467.25 net proceeds of the Junior Chamber of Commerce radio auction held last month, according to S. G. Furk, radio auction secretary.

Mr. Furk's final report, which will be presented to the monthly meeting of the Junior Chamber Thursday night, showed gross receipts of $544.75 from talent bids and merchandise auctions. Expenses totalled $77.50.

The Junior Chamber membership decided to split the proceeds of the radio auction three ways, giving the Civic Centre, Pioneers' Home and Salvation Army equal shares, and named D. G. Esselmont radio auction chairman of the committee at its November meeting. The auction was held in the Civic Centre auditorium December 12, 13 and 14.

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL PLANS FUTURE WORK; LOCAL FIRM

At the regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Industrial Development Committee last evening further plans were definitely made for a continuation and developing of various contacts made with outside agencies already interested in promoting the resources of the undeveloped areas in the north and western parts of the province that regard Prince Rupert as their logical centre.

A survey of local inhabitants having faith in the future development of the area indicated that they were prepared to invest in a local veneer or plywood industry. Inquiries from outside points, eastern Canada and United States also showed that those interested were learning of the possibilities for profitable investments. These contacts are being maintained and information supplied. One letter acknowledged receipt of water analysis which showed the suitability of the water for pulp and paper use.

Plans were completed for the meeting with Col. H. B. Smith, recently appointed trade representative for British Columbia in Great Britain and, in conjunction with the executive of the Chamber of Commerce, the committee will meet and provide Col. Smith with full information regarding the district.

Correspondence that the Chamber had received from the federal government regarding the subsidy for Deep Sea Navigation was considered at length. The value of the Prince Rupert Shipping Co. in the marketing of products of the interior was discussed.

Ex-mayor H. M. Daggett, as chairman, and W. M. Watts, as secretary, were unanimously named to continue in their respective positions. The great service each had given in the past was enthusiastically acknowledged. The chairman welcomed as representatives of the city council Alderman A. Brooks-bank and Alderman C. G. Ham. H. G. Archibald, M.P., was present and took an active part in discussions. Others present were J. S. Wilson, J. Nicol, A. P. Crawley and J. S. Black.

To study and report on various brochures and pamphlets received from different cities and government development branches a committee consisting of J. S. Wilson, A. Brooks-bank and A. P. Crawley was appointed.

Welsh Harbor Towns Unite To Aid Trade

CARDIFF, Wales. — Harbors in South Wales and Monmouthshire have set up a "joint ports committee" for united action to restore commercial business shattered by the war.

Alderman George Ferguson, Lord Mayor of Cardiff, told a committee luncheon meeting that unity was vital in attracting new trade, particularly since the coal exporting business, once most important, had become a negligible item.

"If we all unite," he said, "I don't think it is impossible to get all that business back. On behalf of the council I represent I can promise that we shall do all we can to assist in trying to get more business to bring the ports up to the standard of the past."

Chairman of the joint committee is Group Captain George Bailey of Cardiff.

D. Fisher, Canadian National passenger train conductor out of Prince Rupert, returned from the Prince Rupert this morning from a holiday trip to Vancouver.

H. J. Brown, Port Essington trustee on the Prince Rupert district school board, arrived in the city last night from the Skeena River village to attend the first meeting of the 1947 school board, which will be held tonight.

This is a plea for something far more precious than money... YOUR blood! For blood means life itself to someone whose life is on the point of slipping away.

Every year thousands of Canadians... children struck down by accident... mothers in childbirth... patients on the operating table... depend for their very lives on blood transfusions.

Except in large centres, transfusion facilities are almost non-existent. In whole sections of the country, no plasma at all is available.

A great new civilian Blood Transfusion Service has been opened by the Canadian Red Cross to provide whole blood and plasma, FREE... not even a Hospital Service charge, to every hospital patient in Canada in need of a blood transfusion.

But voluntary blood donors are needed. Thousands of them! Will you volunteer?

Contact your nearest Red Cross Branch or Clinic and say, "Yes, I will be a donor."

PRAYER FOR NEEDY, WAS SERMON TOPIC

"Prayer for the hungry and those in need" was the topic of Rev. R. A. Wilson at the first meeting of the annual Week of Prayer sponsored by the Prince Rupert Ministerial Association which is being observed this week.

The meeting was held in the Salvation Army Citadel and the service was led by Adjutant P. L. Gorrie, with Mr. Wilson giving the brief address.

Mr. Wilson pointed out the fact that people quickly become hardened to familiar things and that while the plight of the people of Europe and Asia drew a wide sympathetic response a year ago, it is still great in those areas.

He quoted Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin's statement that "not only is there a great physical hunger in Europe, but a vast spiritual hunger as well." This spiritual hunger must be satisfied in terms of fellowship and removal of racial barriers, Mr. Wilson said.

He concluded by pointing out that in religion and prayer can people not only become aware of the needs of others but in it they also can find the power to alleviate those needs.

Mr. Wilson's talk was preceded by the singing of hymns and was followed by a period of spontaneous prayer by the congregation.

Nick Mazzone of the local B.C. Packers staff returned on the Prince Rupert this morning from a holiday spent in Vancouver.

Among the commercial travelers to arrive in the city this morning on the Prince Rupert to make their first calls of the year were Horace Whittaker of H. J. Heinz Co. and Howard Singleton of Smith, Davidson & Wright Paper Co.

Laughs At Doctors, Skates Quite Well

MOOSE JAW, Sask., (C)—About two years ago at a Canadian Army Hospital in Birmingham, England, a medical officer told 23-year old Doug Cushman of Moose Jaw he might be able to get around with the aid of crutches or a cane, "but skating, my dear boy, is positively out of the question."

Today, Cushman not only gets around without the crutches or cane but skates as well.

A trooper with the Royal Canadian Dragoons, he lost both legs after stepping on an enemy shoe mine in Italy late in 1944. At the department of veterans' affairs office in Regina, he was fitted out with artificial legs, and started experimenting with crutches, later a cane and finally neither.

Besides skating, he has tried swimming, bowling and dancing. "I don't pretend it's as easy as skating with natural legs," Cushman says. "There isn't the same resiliency to the foot, for one thing, and you have to watch how you put the skate on the ice. But I guess I haven't done too badly so far."

EXMOUTH, England (C)—Noel Coward's "I'll See You Again," from Bittersweet, was played at the funeral of Mrs. A. G. Brown, widow of an army colonel.

Protest In Hoop Match

Timekeeping Under Fire Last Night—99 Beats Savoy?

Directing his complaint straight to the Basketball Association, "Doc" Montgomery last night lodged the first protest against the officials handling the games. Protest was time-keeping in the Senior "A" game, important to both the Savoy and to 99 Taxi, which had been declared 43 to 41 in favor of 99. This score, however, was secondary by the time the smoke cleared away. It had been a good game, hard fought and clean with fine refereeing but, when the bell sounded, all this was soon forgotten. When Dr. Montgomery formally presents his protest it will be up to the basketball executive to make the decision on the outcome of the game.

At the half the Savoy squad was in the lead 14-8. Then in the second half both teams started firing away at each other, playing wide open ball with the Taximen getting the better of the deal. The main thing that was noticeable to the crowd was the turnabout the cabbies had made. With Lindsay and MacPhee gone two players from the Senior "B" Mezey's squad were working out with the 99 boys.

The individual scoring was as follows:
Savoys—R. Holkestad 13, D. Murray 1, Davis 10, D. Arney 2, Vuckovich 2, T. Arney 8, M. Holkestad 4, Haugan 1. Total 41.
99 Taxi—Beynon 6, Houston 11, Dominato 11, J. Haugan 6, Clausen 2, Viereck 5, Menzies 2. Total 43.

Port Edward Defeats Co-op

After battling neck and neck in the first half with the Co-op, Port Edward tore loose in the second half to claim the win in the Senior "B" hoop tussle 36-23. Right up to the end of the first half both teams were playing close with the cannerymen edging out the Co-op lads 16-14. However, when the second half got under way, Gurney of the Port Edward squad went wild and dropped in 14 points to lead his team on to the victory. Co-op fought hard to keep him down but Gurney was deadly and just couldn't be stopped. He ended up being the high scorer of the game with 18 points. Although the Port Edward squad won by 8 points the Co-op team were fighting right up to the final whistle. These two teams are two of the best matched squads in the league, each displaying very aggressive ball.

Port Edward—A. Gurney 18, C. Clayton 9, A. Stevens 2, D. Mowen 5, C. Barton, L. Leeson, R. Morgan 2, A. Stevens, Total 36.
Co-op—Johnson, Astoria 4, Leland, Slatta 6, Lewis 8, Sheppard 4, Wesch, Petersen 2, Menzies 4. Total 28.

girls' game showed two fighting teams battling hard with the more experienced People's Store taking the win 23-6 over Sweet Sixteen. In this game the score was just incidental. No one paid much attention to the score. It was the floor play that kept the fans hopping. The People's Store were playing, short handed an so, when Sandhals was handed her fifth personal early in the third quarter, she was allowed to continue the game in order that the teams would both be playing at full strength. But rough as it was the game was not "dirty." It was simply the eegerness of the two teams plus the easy "refing" that led the girls on to rougher play. At the half the Sweet Sixteeners were on the very short side of the 14-4 score. But in the third quarter the Sweets held the People's Store down to only 2 points, bringing the score to 16-6. Then in the last quarter the Store girls got the jump and dropped in 7 points to bring the game to a close.

BURIED IN WELL—Battling against time, workmen struggled for nine hours to rescue, alive, Donald L. Morris, 32, of Pembroke, Mass., from a 35-foot well in which he had been trapped when it caved in. Morris was about to be hauled from the well when tons of earth and rock thundered down on top of him. Photo above shows him as he was raised from the bottom of the well by his rescuers and rushed to the hospital.

Timely TERRACE Topics

Charles Fixler of Tupper Creek was in the district at the beginning of the week. A long time resident of the Dawson Creek area, he has been looking over the area and, as an old orchard and vineyard operator, was specially interested in the fruit growing of the district.

During the absence of Mr. Noakes on Monday and Tuesday, Miss Dorothy Hills substituted as teacher of Grades 5 and 6 in the local school.

The weather continues mild with snow disappearing rapidly.

This Blind Boy and these women and kids have been "living" on roots among starving millions

Starving, sick and weak, these Chinese war victims can stand only a little soft food when at last, after homeless wanderings, they reach a relief centre.

Ravaged by war, famine, disease, millions of our Chinese allies, who fought bravely for eight terrible years, are in dire need.

Today they cry to fortunate Canadians for food, clothing, medical supplies, hospital equipment.

UNRRA's work is ending. Voluntary agencies must carry on. Canada must do her share.

Common humanity, the need to rebuild the One World of which we are a part, the plight of a good neighbor and future customer, alike compel us to do all we can. Will YOU help?

This is the only national appeal to be made in Canada within the next twelve months for Chinese relief.

NOISE DETECTOR DISCOVERS TALK AMONG COUNCIL

A motion by Alderman Ham that the radio trouble-finding instruments which the city received some time ago from the provincial government should be turned over to a local radio service company for six months with the provision that they be used to detect radio interference was defeated by council last night.

Instead, the aldermen voted to refer the matter to the utilities committee to investigate the ways of using the instruments and the possibility of the city enforcing the removal of disturbances which spoil local radio reception.

Alderman Ham proposed that the "trouble shooting" gear be given to Rupert Radio and Electric Co. for six months, providing it was used to clear up disturbances but this was overcome when Alderman Youngs asked if other service companies had asked to use the equipment.

Informed that they had, Alderman Youngs suggested that council might leave itself open to criticism of discrimination if it gave the equipment to one company and the other aldermen agreed.

Alderman Black suggested that
