TWO BOYS AKE DROWNED NEAR TELKWA

Teen Dead and 206 Escape From Acre Jail

of Biggest Jail Breaks In Modern History Engineered By Jewish Underground—Ladies Are Caught In Bath

TEL AVIV (CP)—British troops and police fought over northern Palestine today in a great battle for 206 Jewish and Arab prisoners still at Acre after a mass delivery from Acre prison which was engineered by the Jewish underground. Sixteen including eleven members of an underground band who blasted a two-yard hole in the wall of the ancient citadel, were killed in the break, described as one of the biggest in modern times.

A total of 251 of 555 prisoners of the old prison north of Haifa participated in the dash for freedom, but five Jews and four Arabs were killed before they could make good their escape. Nineteen others, wounded, were captured within a few hours and more were being gradually picked up today.

Twenty-three others were wounded in an exchange of gunfire which accompanied the break. At least nine of the underground raiders were captured uninjured. The break had a humorous side when some of the escapees fled through a steam bath in which 30 women were taking advantage of "ladies' day."

SMITHERS — Gerald, aged ten, and Arthur, eight, sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Spence of Hubert were drowned in the Bulkley River, one mile east of Hubert at 8:30 this morning. A sister, June, nineteen, together with Michael, four, were taking the boys to school in a rowboat attached to a cable. In crossing the river the cable broke, and a tie, coming down the river, smashed into the boat, capsizing it. June grabbed Michael and swam to shore with him in her arms but the other boys went down the river. One lad was seen hanging onto the tie for some distance but finally lost his grip on it.

TRUCKING HEARING

THE Public Utilities Commission is to be commended on its promptitude in meeting the request of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, backed by other chambers and boards in the district, that the hearing on the Canadian National Transportation Ltd. application for a scheduled trucking licence to carry freight and express on the highway between Burns Lake and Prince Rupert should be held on the ground concerned instead of in Vancouver as originally announced. All those interested in making representations one way or another on their own behalf or on general principles will now have the chance to do so without the inconvenience and cost which would have been involved in going to Vancouver. It means that the Commission is coming to the interested people instead of the people having to go to it which is quite fitting and proper.

IMMIGRATION POLICY

CERTAINLY Prime Minister Mackenzie King cannot be accused of being very drastic or far-reaching on immigration plans which he has given to Parliament. In fact it indicated no definite intention on the part of the government to open the bars to immigration in the near future and there will be considerable criticism that more speedy measures are not being taken to bring in the people which Canada obviously needs in some more substantial measure.

British Columbia is particularly interested in the matter of Oriental immigration on which the government, with Progressive-Conservative approval at least, appears to be playing safe. It is certain that, as far as the Japanese are concerned, there is no desire to open the gates to them.

JAYCEES SHOW THE WAY

GLISTENING example of what can be accomplished by an effort of well organized enthusiasm stands the museum building on Second Avenue today, transformed since yesterday from a grimy old architectural eyesore to a shining ornament. Thus the energetic members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, giving up their ordinary Sunday leisure and personal occupations, turned out for a painting bee by which "Clean up and Paint up Week" in Prince Rupert is colorfully inaugurated. That the rest of the citizens of Prince Rupert will follow the lead thus set and enhance their own properties as well as join in the general intensive campaign of civic beautification which will mark this sunny week is to be hoped.

One of the most important things expected of good citizens is to be neat and tidy. We are all anxious that Prince Rupert should have a good name. We can never have that if we are dingy and dowdy. Such a condition is an obvious indication of lack of civic pride.

So, congratulations to the Junior Chamber of Commerce and good luck to their "Clean up and Paint up Week!"

HELPING CHILDREN

THE WORLD WE BUILD today will be the heritage of tomorrow. What kind of a world will it be? Whatever kind it is, it will be the world in which our children live and work and it is worthy of our highest endeavors.

A vital task of rehabilitation in war-ravaged lands, along with the rebuilding of levelled towns and villages, is the rebuilding and reshaping of the lives of the people, and especially the children, into patterns of normalcy and hope.

The sacrifice in lives to free the world from tyranny has been great and the cost of victory dear, yet victory cannot be said to have been won while children starve. And let it not be forgotten that among the children of today are the leaders of tomorrow. Deprived of healthy childhood, living in cold and want and fear, can they develop into well-balanced, emotionally stable, constructive world citizens in the years ahead?

Today many children are in grave need of help. They need food that we can send, and warm clothing and shoes. And, no less important, they need the spirit of goodwill these things will symbolize. For there are wounds of the spirit which only a great spiritual compassion can heal. Only the warmth of a universal love put into action can banish fear and restore confidence and hope to the lives of these child victims of war.

We are all world builders. Our goal is the establishment of a world wherein dwell peace, equality of opportunity, ever new concepts of freedom, a more abundant life. We can win this goal most readily by doing what we can in the practical things of providing food, clothing, and medicines which is the present need and which may start millions of children back on the road to constructive lives.

There is no greater or more urgent demand today. There is no richer opportunity. There is no higher privilege.

EXECUTIVE OF TEACHERS IN SESSION

At a meeting of the executive of the Prince Rupert District Teachers' Association on Saturday afternoon, J. S. Wilson, chairman, geographical representative of Northern British Columbia and a member of the provincial executive, referred to a report on teacher training and certification. This report had been made by a special committee and had been submitted to the provincial government over a year ago. The teachers decided to press for the publication of the report.

British Columbia teachers will form a province-wide committee to continue a study of the B. C. Teachers' Federation proposals in the same field. The Federation is already on record as supporting a "college of education" to be affiliated with the University of British Columbia. Under the proposed set-up, direction of all teacher training would be unified with an extended and improved program the primary objective, B. C. Training standards are already high though in some provinces the training standards are scandalously low, said Leonard W. Brockington, K.C., C.M.G., I.L.D., D.C.L., of Ottawa, who was the special convention guest speaker. Mr. Brockington advocated a national commission to probe all phases of education in Canada.

Mr. Wilson also stated that the Federation would press for the rights of teachers to hold public offices. For society to be free, teachers must be free. And it was inconceivable that society, which entrusts the training of its children, to qualified teachers, should continue to deny teachers the right as citizens to hold office on civic committees.

Present at the executive meeting were Miss Cunliffe, Miss Beale, J. Boet and H. T. Bateman.

MASONIC FUNERAL

Final respects were paid yesterday afternoon to the memory of Saleung Fong, long prominent in Chinese Free Masonry, local merchant, and active in the affairs of Prince Rupert's Chinese community. Grenville Court Chapel was thronged to capacity. Rev. P. Antros, pastor of First Baptist Church, conducted the service. He spoke from the gospel of St. John, telling of the divine promise of Heaven of a place prepared for those who would be prepared to enter into this future state.

The hymns included "Abide With Me," "The Old Rugged Cross," and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." Mrs. J. C. Gilker acted as organist.

There were numerous flowers and the casket was draped with the colors of the Chinese Masonic order—scarlet, black, green and white. There were at least nineteen cars in the procession line.

Missing Goods From Lonely Kinahan Id.

Although the police are baffled, R. Vick of Port Edward is still on the hunt for coffee and other materials valued at $75 which disappeared around the first of the year from Kinahan Island where he had stored them following purchase from the War Assets Corporation. After removing some other materials which had been contained in the observation post and house built on the island during the war, Mr. Vick carefully stored the rest in the shed on the wharf there, intending to come and get them later. After a few weeks he did return, but the door of the shed, which had been soaked, had been broken into and the contents gone. Mr. Vick posted a reward for information leading to the recovery of the goods.

TERRACE

SPEAKERS AT TERRACE P.T.

TERRACE—The Terrace Parent-Teacher Association had as its guest speakers for Thursday evening Mrs. Godfrey Lomas, Girl Guide Commissioner for British Columbia, and Mrs. Geo. Dover, of the Terrace and District Red Cross.

Mrs. Lomas stated that she always welcomed the opportunity of speaking to P.T.A. or similar groups because it gave her the opportunity to explain the work and objectives of the Girl Guides and Brownies to the parents and so gain their support. Then she proceeded to state and explain three things important to a Brownie: the promise, the salute, and the uniform.

Mrs. Dover spoke of the work of the Red Cross as it affected B.C. generally and Terrace in particular. She stated that the Red Cross outpost hospital to be established here will be second largest outpost hospital in B.C. She asked for volunteers to donate blood when the clinic comes to Terrace.

Mrs. Floyd Frank, who has just attended the 25th annual convention of the B.C. P.T.A. in Victoria, was present and stated that Terrace had the honor of standing fourth in membership increase for the year. Mrs. Frank will present her report on the convention at the June 5 meeting of the P.T.A.

CITY FASTBALL SCHEDULE TO START MAY 16

Organized fastball will start on a scheduled basis in the city on May 16 when first league games will be played at Gyro Park, a meeting of the association decreed on Sunday. Three pre-season exhibition games will be played by men's teams prior to that time.

Sunday's meeting approved the appointment of the three-man commission which will rule the destinies of the league for the season. Commission members are J.S. Wilson, chairman, Walter Landon and R.G. Moore. Commission Chairman Wilson presented a constitution for the league, based on the rules of the International Fastball Association. This was adopted by the representatives of the five men's and three women's teams that will constitute the league.

Mr. Wilson told the meeting that they plan to make every effort to have the city and Parks Board get the Gyro Park field in playing condition for the first of the exhibition games on Friday night. Among improvement plans are the completion of bleachers along the first and third base lines at the park.

The meeting decided that there will be no regular double-headers this season. The schedule, which will be drawn up by the commissioners, will make allowance for only one nine-inning game on each playing night. Games will be played on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

"Excuse me for laughing—but this man came from the finance company to collect for the furniture!"

on Friday night, will be between Co-op and C.N.R., while the second game, on May 14, will be between General Motors and Gordon and Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frizell are planning on leaving tomorrow for the Hot Springs on the Skeena River, which they have been conducting every summer for years. Last season, weather conditions were somewhat more advanced. Then, they were there in April. Mr. Frizell's health has of late seen a welcome improvement.

MUSEUM TAKES ON NEW COLORS AS JAYCEES WIELD PAINT BRUSHES

Prince Rupert's museum building is facing the world more cheerfully today after being attacked Sunday by two dozen Junior Chamber of Commerce members who swarmed up scaffolding and ladders with paint pots and brushes to set a public example at the start of "National Beautification Week."

In place of its former drab brown-and-grey surface which was faded by the rains of many years, the Second Avenue building is sporting a cheerful coat of white and green which its painters feel will make it more attractive to tourists and citizens alike.

The building underwent its transformation in less than eight hours after Mayor Nora Arnold officially started the painters working when she laid the first brush of white paint on a pillar at the front at 10:15 Sunday morning.

A scaffolding crew directed by James Greer and Junior Chamber President Tony Crawley was on the job an hour earlier, erecting staging that still surrounds the building in readiness for application of a second coat or final "touch up" work where needed.

Speed with which the work was performed was made possible by the use of a pressure paint sprayer made available by William McKenzie and Victor Morrison of Handiman Service, who donated their time on Sun-

Names That Meant Speed to Make Comeback

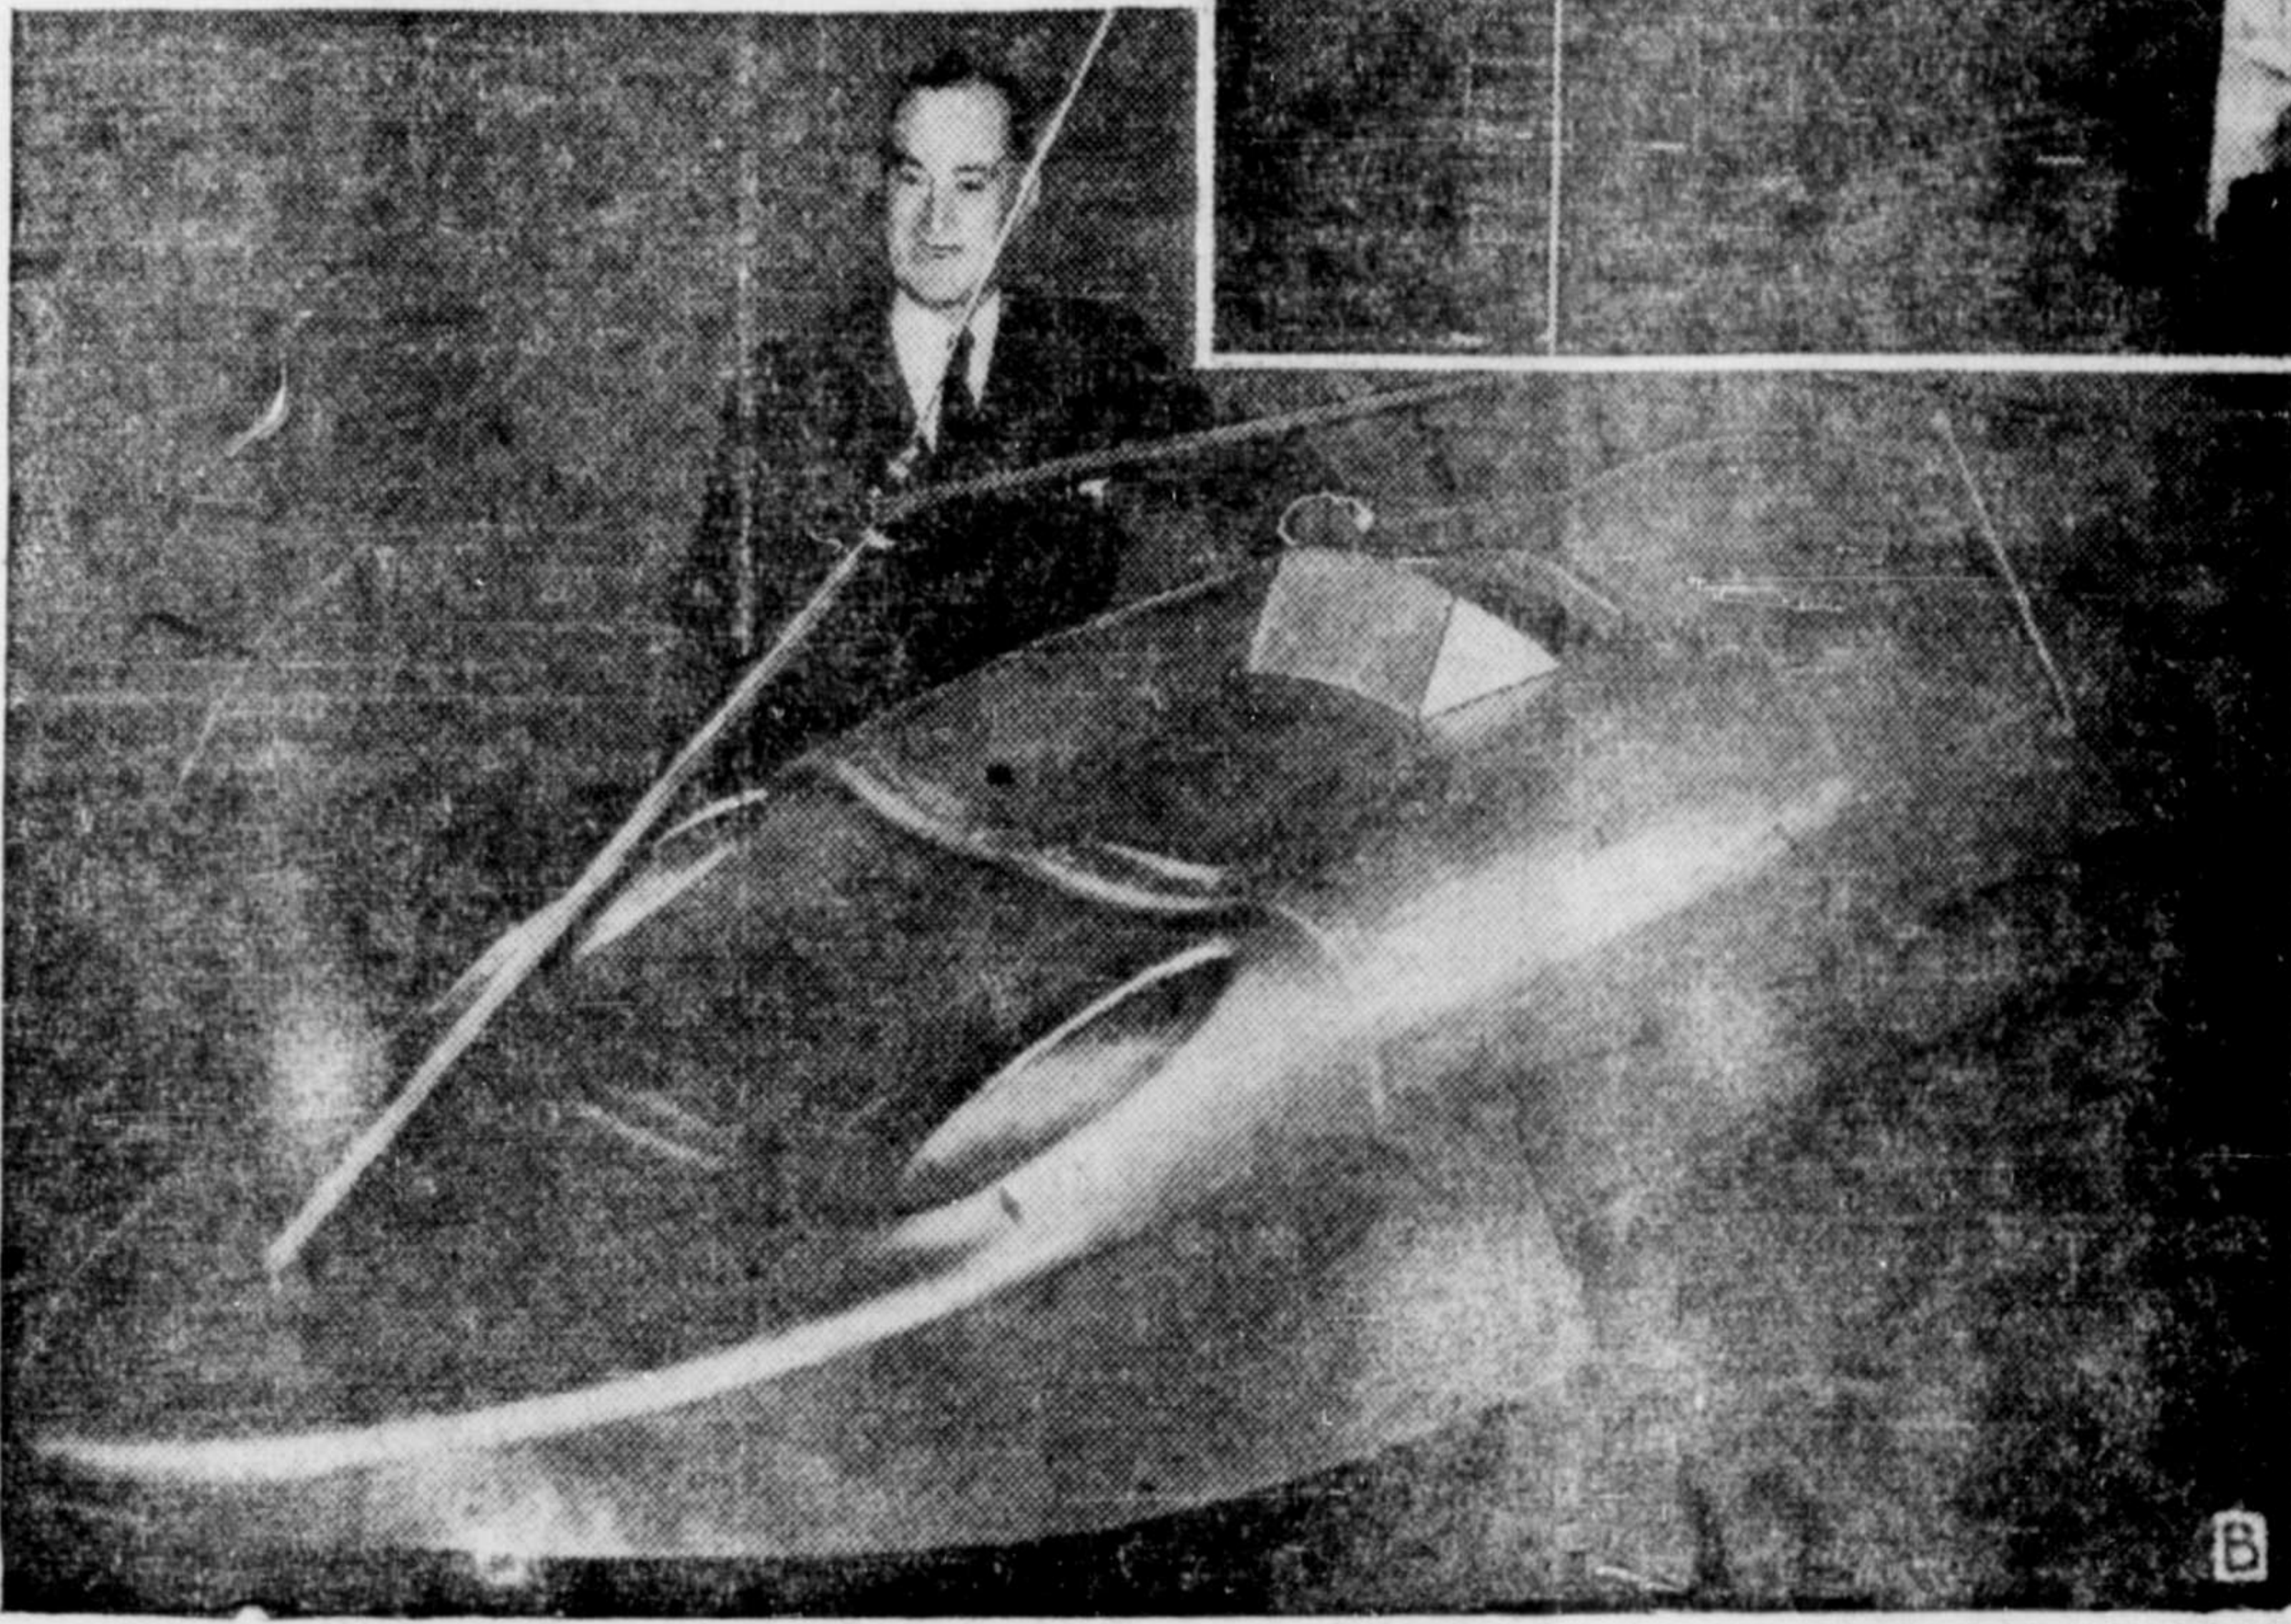

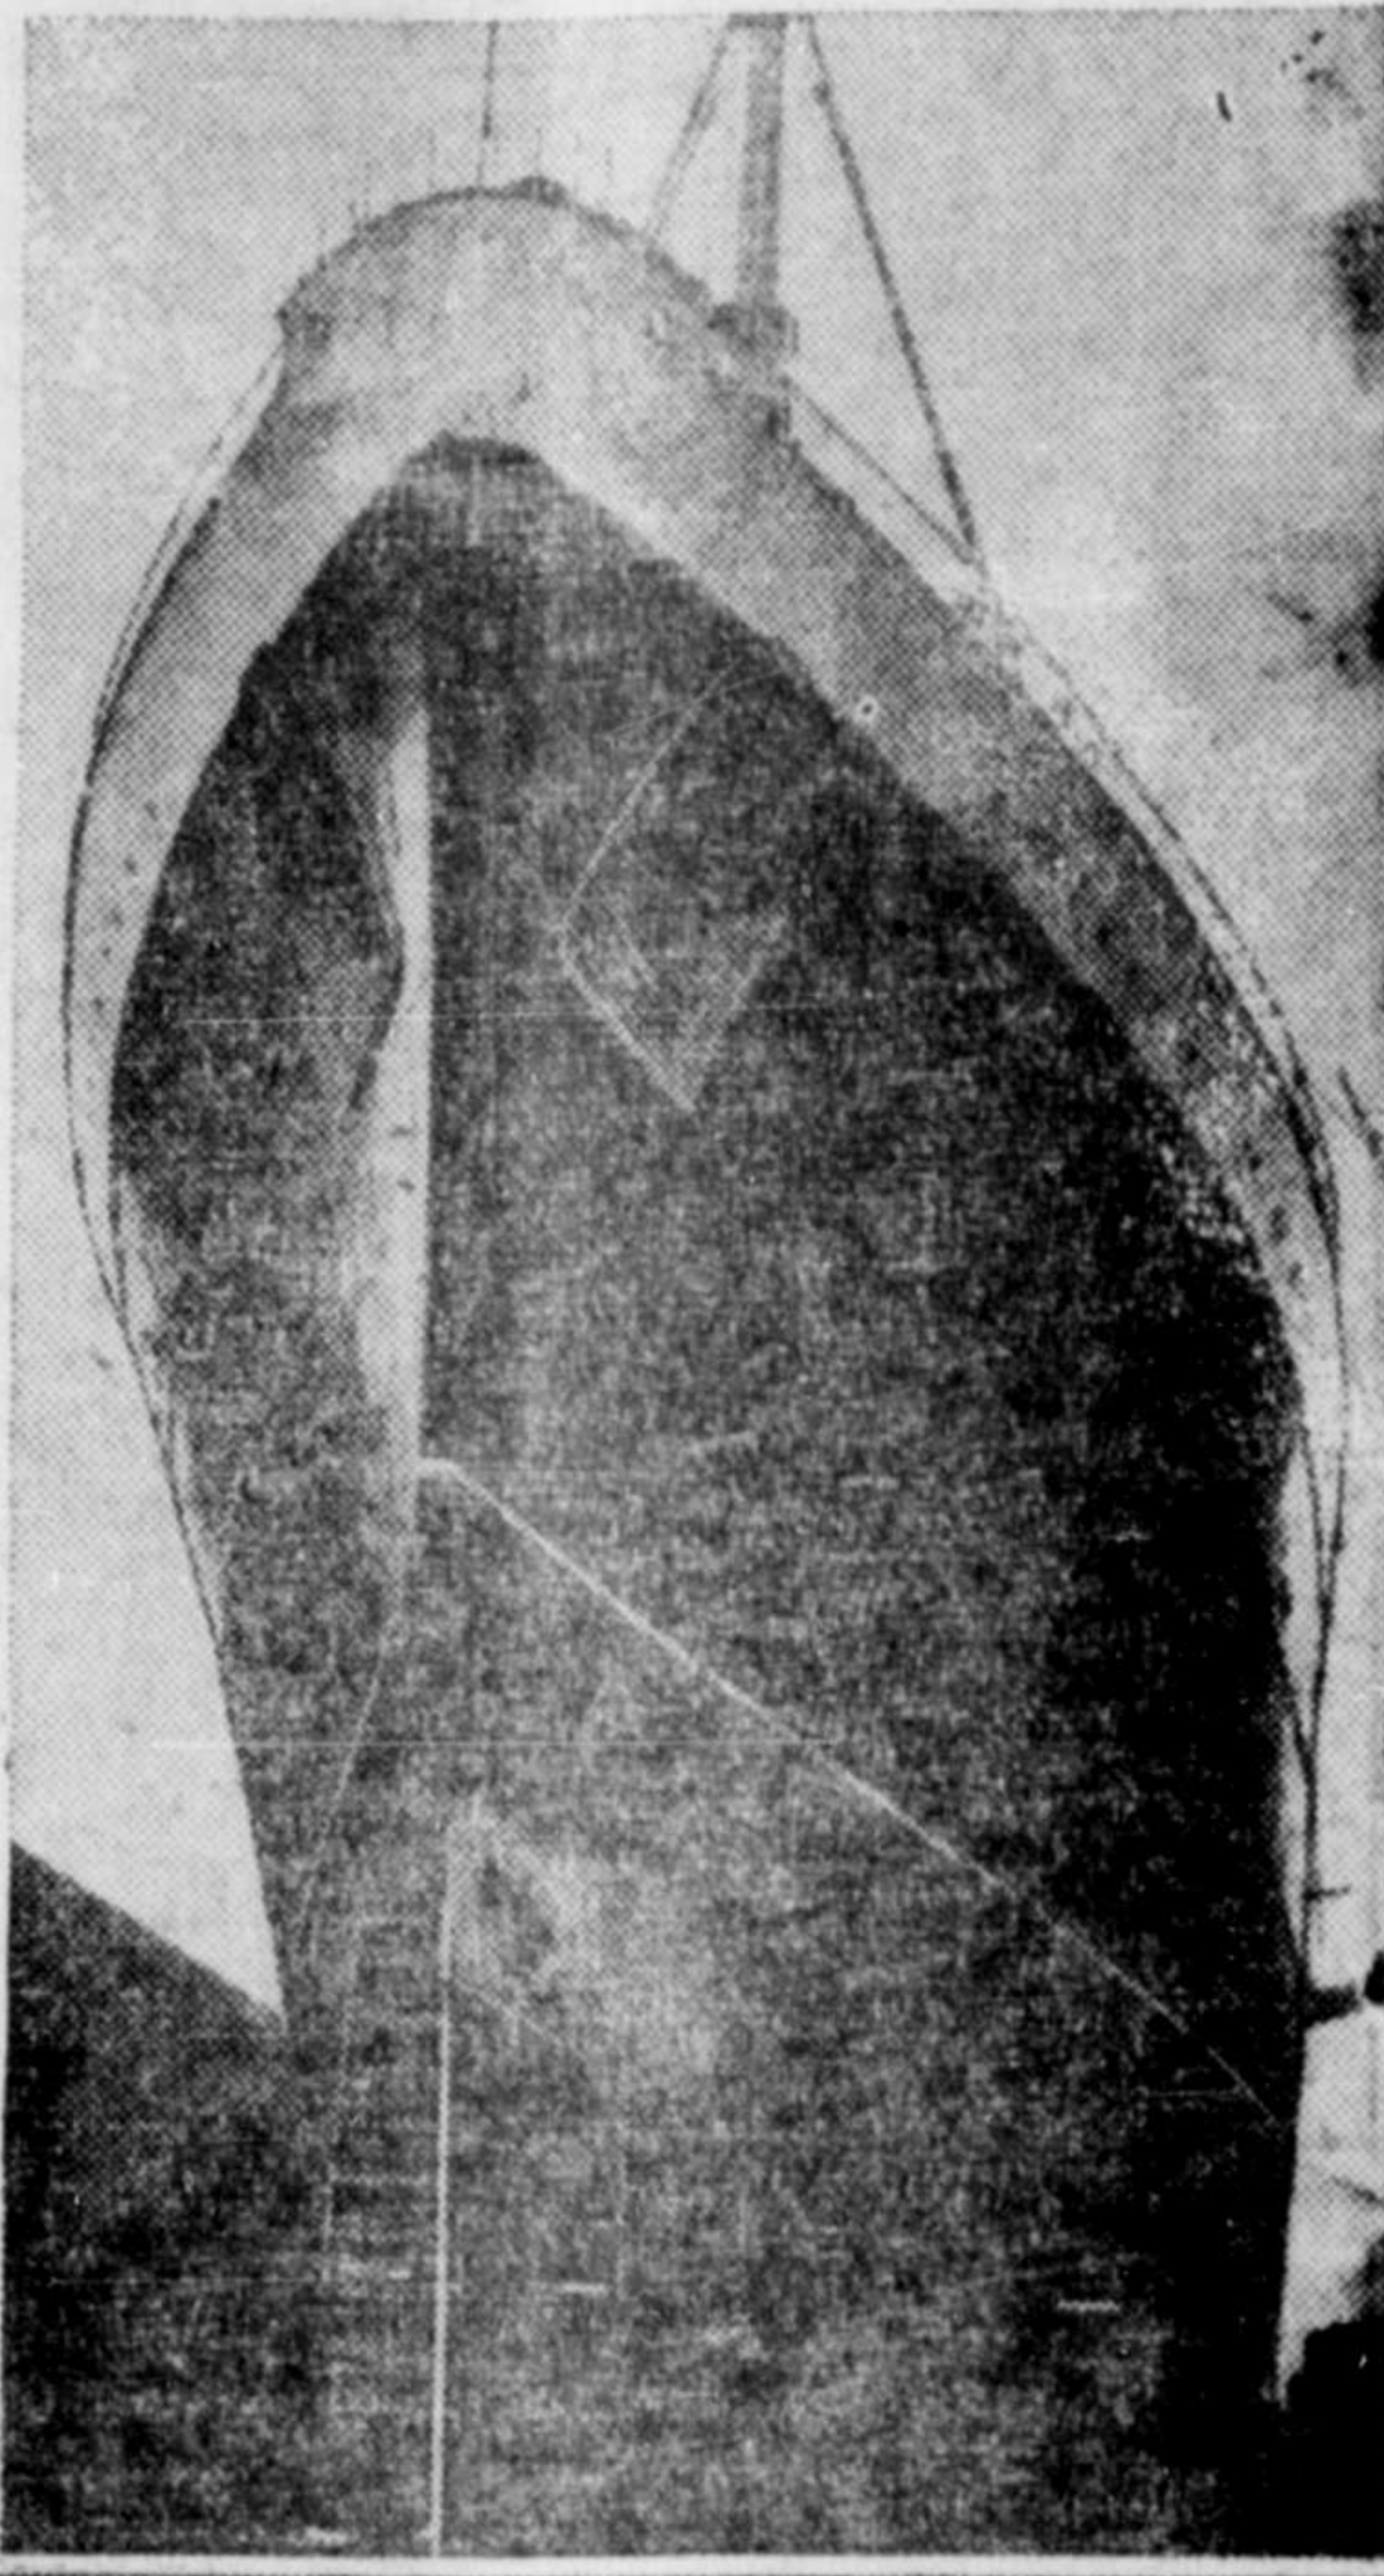

WORLD RECORDS on land and water once meant Mauretania and Bluebird. Now the famous names are news again.

Rising against the sky (right) is the bow of 35,677-ton liner Mauretania, undergoing at Liverpool, England, reconversion to a peacetime luxury liner.

The British vessel, completed in 1939, replaced her famous namesake which held, from 1907 to 1929, the record for the fastest North Atlantic crossing. During 7 years of war service she safely carried 330,000 Allied troops across Atlantic, Indian and Australian waters. Her reconversion includes the scraping and painting of her hull, the overhauling of her 25-ton propellers, and the inspection of her three 9-ton anchors.

Smiling below is Sir Malcolm Campbell, once holder of the world land-speed record, and still, at 62, holder of the world water-speed record. His hand rests on a scale model of a new jet-powered speedboat when its advanced, streamlined design was being wind-tunnel tested for him at Hayes, Middlesex, England.

When his new boat, to be called Bluebird, like all his record-breakers, is finished, the British speed king hopes to better his present 141.74 m.p.h. for a dash across water.

day. Operating cost of their equipment was borne by Philpott Evitt Co., and was volunteered by Alderman T. N. Youngs, company manager.

Top half of the building, a shingled surface, was painted in green, with white trimmings on window frames, while the lower clap-board was painted in white. Front steps were painted light gray.

The work was the object of interest of scores of city residents who strolled by during the afternoon. The weather man smiled on the project by providing ideal sunny weather.

The work was one of the major projects in community betterment to be put on by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and gave the workers considerable satisfaction in seeing it done with such dispatch.

Favorable comment from passers-by added to the satisfaction of the job.

Despite the fact that the amateur painters climbed high to work under the eaves and on the peaked gables, there were no mishaps. However, faces, hands and clothing were well spattered with vari-colored paints.

Those who took part in the work were: A. P. Crawley, A. J. Dominato, James Greer, Allan Armstrong, Harold Helgeson, J. K. McLeod, Dennis Garon, Stuart Furk, James Ham, Al Manson, Norman Hooper, Gordon Durkin, Pierre Le Ross, Bruce Stevens, James Jefferies, Walter Landon, Ted Smith, Don McEwen, Ernest Friesen, Harold Hampton, Ray McLean, William McKenzie, Victor Morrison, Bert Edmundson.

Bruce Brown returned last evening from a brief visit to Terrace. Speaking of the appearance of the Skeena-Highway as far as the scene of the slide, he intimated it is in pretty fair shape. This, together with the faultless weather, attracted considerable motoring. No less than a dozen cars were noticed from the train.

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

First appearance at this port of the Union Steamship Co.'s new coastal liner, Chilcotin, former Castle Class corvette, will be on May 23 when, with the Princess Norah, she arrives here from Vancouver with an excursion of Shriners for a ceremonial here. After that special maiden voyage, the Chilcotin will go for a couple of voyages on the Ocean Falls-Prince Rupert-Ketchikan run. In place of the Camosun, which will be withdrawn to have her funnel raised and other overhaul work done, then she will engage in a series of special summer coast cruises for tourists, the schedule calling for stops at Alert Bay, Prince Rupert and Ketchikan with side cruises up Portland and Gardner Canals. Captain Alex McLennan, now of the Camosun, is expected to be the skipper of the Chilcotin with Captain Harry McLean taking over the Camosun while Captain John Boden, commodore of the Union fleet, remains with the flagship, Coquitlam, on the Prince Rupert - Stewart route and veteran Capt. Ernest Shepard stays with his old love, the Catala, on the coastal canny and Skeena River run.

With a fair-sized list of passengers, Union steamer Coquitlam, Capt. John Boden, arrived in port at 8:45 last night from the south, sailing at 11:30 p.m. for Stewart and other northern points whence she will be back here tomorrow morning to sail on her return south at 1:30 p.m.

In connection with a campaign to raise funds for fifteen hospitals for crippled children and in celebration of the 25th anniversary of the founding of the hospital movement, a radio program of more than usual interest and entertainment value is being carried by the national network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, including station CFPR of Prince Rupert, at 9:30, tonight.
