Freighter Is Lost Off Columbia River Mouth

INCREASE IN RAILWAY FREIGHTS WOULD HURT THIS AREA

Any increase whatsoever in freight rates on the coast would most assuredly bring about large unemployment in central British Columbia, the serious effect such increase would have on the shipments of timber and fish products, and would result in widespread suffering and despair. So asserts a memorandum which has been compiled by the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia after receiving and studying reports from eight member boards on the subject of freight rates in the light of a recent application of the railways for permission to impose a thirty percent increase in rates.

The summation of the Associated Boards' study has been sent to the Board of Railway Commissioners and provincial government and is as follows: Inasmuch as the main industry of Northern and Central British Columbia is lumbering and shipping of forest products and whereas the bulk of the output of these products go by rail to Eastern Canada and United States any increase in freight rates would mean an increase in the cost of the products to the eventual consumer. Increased cost of the products to the consumer automatically reduces the volume of (Continued on Page 6)

INVITED OUT; LEFT THROUGH DOOR PANEL

When Hans Peter Holthe was asked to leave the Central Lunch, Third Avenue, Friday afternoon, he took the rebuff so seriously that he put his foot through the plate glass panel in the door, stepped out through the hole, according to a complaint made to the police by Margaret Johnson, the cafe manager. Holthe was reported to have turned and given the occupants of the cafe a stern but courteous "good-bye" before he walked off up the street. He did not get far before he was picked up by the police. He appeared in city police court Saturday morning and pleaded guilty under the Vagrancy Act. The case was adjourned for sentence by Magistrate W. D. Vance. In the meantime, restitution of $25 was made.

Prince Rupert's Case For Air Services; Survey in Support

Recently, in an effort to establish the public convenience and necessity of establishing a scheduled air service between Vancouver and Prince Rupert, the Canadian Pacific Airlines has conducted an exhaustive survey of the business, resources and services of this area. Since then Canadian Pacific Airlines has submitted formal application for permission to operate such a service. The information thus obtained and presented to the Transport Board is considered of sufficient interest to publish for the benefit of Daily News readers. Here is the tenth installment.

MINING INDUSTRY

The mining industry of the region is mainly concentrated in the Stewart area, reached by steamship from Prince Rupert once a week. It is, however, possible to secure private boat transportation to the area at intermediate times but the cost is sufficiently high to make air charter practical. The history of the region has been one of exceptional activity in base metals prices were high, and recession with a decrease in that market level; and during the war, normal work was almost entirely. The area was opening up very rapidly, and some seven new companies were being formed, adequately equipped for the rather large operations which they have laid out. The vital importance to the financial success of these companies that rapid air transportation from Vancouver to Prince Rupert be introduced. In saving time for transportation of geological, mining engineers and experienced men, the saving in financial outlay will be considerable.

Question of Albanian Mines Again Before Security Council
LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y. — A United States motion to postpone United Nations discussion of world wide arms settlement for two weeks was adopted by the security council by a vote of 9 to 4. Russia and Poland voting against. Russia opposed the plan on the basis of past arguments. After disposal of the arms motion, the council will now consider British charges that Albania is responsible for sowing mines in Corfu channel, damaging two British destroyers with 44 casualties on October 22. Albania has denied the charges and has accused Britain of violating her territorial waters.

ESCAPED FROM HOSPITAL PLANE

Radar Landing Missed the Mark in Fog at Oakland Yesterday
OAKLAND — One person was killed and 20 others injured when a United States Navy hospital plane crashed while making a radar landing in dense fog here late yesterday. The plane overrode the field, struck an embankment and broke its back. It was miraculous that so many were thrown clear and escaped death.

Full Day Holiday Measure Deferred

VANCOUVER — The city council today tabled a petition seeking a full day instead of half-day weekly holiday on Wednesday. No action was taken in view of the fact that Mr. Justice A. M. Manson had quashed such an enactment in Chilliwack and the matter is coming before the Legislature anyway.

EASTERN MINE STRIKE NEAR

Last Chance Conference to Be Held Tomorrow
GLACE BAY, Nova Scotia — Here of stopping the maritime coal fields major shut-down threat has its last chance in today's conference of representatives of the government, the miners' union and the mine operators. Freeman Jenkins, president of the United Mine Workers' district 26, announced the shut-down will come on January 31 if the conference fails to grant the union's wage demands for $2.50 increase above the basic current rates of $5.84 daily. He said that all coal operations "under contract with the United Mine Workers in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick" would be included.

Pulled Wrong Tooth; Dentist Must Pay

VANCOUVER — Marjorie McRae, aged 10, will receive a $800 fund invested for her until she is 21 because a dentist extracted a wrong tooth in the process of straightening her teeth. Her father, E. G. McRae, mill worker, was granted $875 by Mr. Justice A. M. Manson from Dr. W. L. Elliott and his assistant, Dr. W. D. McLeod, as compensation for an error made last August. The settlement includes $275 for further dental work.

Bread and Butter Prices Going Up?

OTTAWA — Bread and butter price ceilings may soon be raised, it is reported—butter 8c to 10c a pound and bread 15 to 25 percent.

PREMIER MINE IS ISOLATED BY BIG SNOWFALL IN PORTLAND CANAL

With nineteen feet of snow recorded so far this winter at Stewart town and seven feet within the last week, the famous mining camp at Premier, sixteen miles up the Salmon River valley, is completely cut off today from the outside world as far as transportation is concerned. The road is blocked by the snow which fell so fast that the Portland Canal district snow plowing equipment was unable to keep up with it. At the same time, the tram line from Premier wharf is broken broken down and the depth of snow makes it difficult to render repairs. No immediate concern is, however, felt in regard to the supply condition at Premier which is usually kept in readiness for just such a winter emergency in a district where these deep snows are common enough. While Premier camp is hemmed in, some sixty miners, recently recruited to work at Silbak-Premier, are being held at Stewart unable to reach their destination. Monday night, according to arrivals here today from Stewart, there was a dense blizzard, further adding to the snowpile there. So high is the snow piled alongside that the road between Stewart wharf and Stewart town seems like a veritable tunnel.

Russia Lifting All Censorship

MOSCOW — Russia has agreed to lift all censorship on dispatches of foreign correspondents from the forthcoming foreign ministers' conference in Moscow. This was one of the conditions upon which Moscow was chosen as venue for the conference.

ATHENS — The Greek ministry of merchant marine last night placed the list of supposed perished as a result of the sinking of the steamboat Chimarra early Sunday morning at 392, the balance of a total of 615 persons—crew and passengers—on the vessel having been accounted for. That 210 persons had been rescued was announced last night.

REDS ASSURED OF POLISH WIN

Communist-backed Government Party Gets 73 Percent Of Seats
WARSAW — An unofficial report of Poland's 6,726 voting districts apparently assured the Communist-backed pro-government bloc of a smashing victory in the elections, giving them 324 seats out of 444, or approximately 73 per cent. Vice Premier Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, opposition leader, of the Polish Peasant Party, was elected to a seat, although his party got only 24 per cent of the votes. Candidates of the "National List" filled 72 seats, the Labor party 10, the New Liberation group 7, small political groups 4, while three other seats were not indicated. Mikolajczyk is preparing an appeal to the supreme court to have the elections declared invalid on grounds that the voting was not free and unfettered and was, therefore, in violation of the Potsdam and Yalta agreements.

NO QUICK MOVES IN PRICE RAISES

Policy Across Canada Seems To Be One of "Wait and See"
OTTAWA — Restauranters, used car dealers and shoe merchants across Canada tended today to follow a "wait and see" policy before acting on the authority of the Prices and Trade Board to raise prices up to the maximum of 10 per cent. In Vancouver some restauranters may raise their prices tomorrow and car dealers expect to make an immediate increase. There are no changes in Victoria and car dealers there say it will not make much difference anyway because they still cannot compete with the black market.

SHIPS FAIL TO REACH VILLAGE

Aircraft to Be Used For Relief of Anticosti
SEVEN ISLANDS, Quebec — The supply ship North Voyager and the government ice-breaker Ernest Lapointe sailed for their home ports Monday after failure Sunday to break the ice in the Gulf of St. Lawrence and land food at the village of Port Meunier on Anticosti Island. The village has been without a food delivery since early December. It is believed that aircraft will have to be used to drop supplies to the inhabitants. The two ships delivered badly-needed supplies to 17 other isolated hamlets in the St. Lawrence River since leaving Quebec two weeks ago.

PRINCE RUPERT PEOPLE STINGY WITH BLOOD; CAMPAIGN LAGGING

The life of a new mother was saved at the Prince Rupert General Hospital at the end of the week by a blood transfusion but she would have died if she had depended upon the enthusiasm of Prince Rupert people to offer their blood for the bank which is being established here, blood donors for which the local branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society is appealing. The number of responses to the appeal here so far is shockingly low, indicating a deplorable lack of interest by local people in this humanitarian cause. There have been only fifty volunteers to come forward so far. The example of Vernon, no larger than Prince Rupert, and its 600 volunteers is pointed to. Arnold Platen, president of the local Red Cross Society, is still hopeful that Prince Rupert will yet come forward by registering with himself or other members of the executive—H. A. Breen, secretary, and S. H. Saville, treasurer—or at any of the city banks.

Stalin "Anxious" About Britain

LONDON — The Daily Mail said today that Field Marshal Montgomery reported to government heads that Stalin is anxious about British policy. The newspaper said that Montgomery's report was the reason for the vigorous denial by the government last week of a Pravda commentator's assertion that Foreign Secretary Bevin had repudiated the British-Soviet treaty alliance.

Army officials said that 700 volunteer Army personnel are keeping the road groomed for the time when it becomes an integral part of the Canadian highway system.

Freight Rates Case

THE ASSOCIATED BOARDS OF TRADE of Central British Columbia, headed by George McAdams of Terrace with Duncan Kerr as secretary and an able lieutenant, is to be congratulated on the study of the freight rates question it has made and the report drawn up on the basis of reports from eight member boards. The summation, which is being sent to the Board of Railway Commissioners and the provincial government, is published in the Daily News today and makes interesting reading.

A strong case is made out as to why the industries of central British Columbia, particularly lumber and fish, cannot stand the thirty percent increase in railway freight rates. In conclusion with a general summarization which might well state the case for all of British Columbia pointing out that the unfair situation in which this province is already placed by the mountain differential would be only further aggravated by the proposed increase in rates generally.

Aid to China

WHEN you make a contribution to something, you often wish you knew a little more definitely where it was going, for what it was going to be used. Here is something definite—commandingly definite—about the Canadian Aid to China Fund, which is now appealing for $2,500,000 to cover its 1947 program. Of this sum British Columbia is asked to raise $250,000.

The Canadian Aid to China Fund is supplying drugs for mobile clinics which are covering two large areas in the province of Honan, China, where Kala-Azar is rampant. Kala-Azar—"Black Fever"—has stricken at least 2,000,000 children in China. It is almost entirely confined to children, and is always fatal without treatment. Always. With treatment, 98 per cent of cases are cured.

But the drugs developed for its treatment cost $5 per person for the 12-day administration required. That accounts for one big item in the year's budget of the Canadian Aid to China Fund, for there are 20,000 or more Kala-Azar cases in the Honan areas it is pledged to cover.

Kala-Azar is a tropical disease which takes nearly two years to kill its victim, who gets thinner and thinner while his stomach swells bigger and bigger. Around the face there comes a dark shadowing which gives the disease its name. But drugs—$5 worth of drugs per child—can almost certainly save a life.

This is good reason to reach into our pockets or purses this moment and take out the good Canadian bill that will shake death's shadow off the face of a Chinese child?

LANDING OF AQUITANIA MARKS END OF GREAT CANADIAN TROOP TREK

Story of Canadian National's Mighty War Transportation Effort Recalled—Halifax Was Focal Point

HALIFAX—The story has swung to the full circle and closed. Seven years ago the Aquitania sailed from the ancient port of Halifax with the first Canadian troops aimed at the heart of Hitler's expanding empire. Before dawn today, the Aquitania returned to Halifax with the last Canadian contingent coming home. The job is done. Hitler lies dead, his forces shattered, mankind, freed at last from the bonds of nightmare, slowly, painfully, and with much heart searching, sets to work to build a new world out of wreckage of the old.

The war is an old story to Halifax. But even to a city that in two years' time will celebrate two centuries of history the second world war loomed too large to be regarded now as merely another episode. Like the war that preceded it, like the great disaster that struck this community nearly 30 years ago when the explosion of an ammunition ship killed 1,100 people, it will never be forgotten. Now that the last troopship has come home, Halifax relaxes a little after her labors at high pressure over seven years and remembers with pride her achievements. But the present and the future are making their demands and Halifax has neither the time nor the inclination to rest on her laurels.

Certainly, transportation men in this great seaport are too busy today for reflection on the past. The Aquitania's passengers require seven special trains to carry them to all parts of Canada, as far west as Vancouver. It has to be done smoothly and quickly but, compared with some of the operations the railroaders here had to carry through during the war, it is an easy job.

Biggest Homecoming Of All in 1945

If they had time, Canadian National men could tell for instance of the biggest homecoming of all when in October 1945 the Queen Elizabeth docked here with 12,000 troops and a trainload of civilians. They went out of Halifax in 27 special trains, one every hour, until the port was cleared, and a downpour of rain that lasted 18 hours didn't get into the works. C.N.R. men are proud of this because only a week before the Ile De France had come into Halifax with enough troops to fill 23 specials.

Fifty special trains in a week meant careful organization. No sooner were some of the Ile De France trains emptied in Quebec, Ontario and Manitoba than they were turned back to seaboard to pick up Queen Elizabeth passengers. Nothing bound west of Winnipeg could come back in time. Yet because of plan-

School Physical Classes Begin At Civic Centre

First of the King Edward elementary school physical training classes to be held in the Civic Centre gymnasium on an experimental basis was conducted Monday afternoon by RUP Rec Director Neil Ross who put the Grade Six boys through marching and running exercises. Under Principal R. G. Moore, who is also their class teacher, the 27 boys marched briskly from the school to the gym to put in the final class period of the day in physical training. If Mr. Moore's plan is successful, the school will have four regular gym classes a week in the Civic Centre.

Mr. Moore's plan was given official blessing by the school board at a recent meeting and also is receiving support from the Civic Centre authorities.

Under Mr. Moore's schedule, the boys and girls will take separate gym classes. The plan applies only to the three senior grades, Four, Five and Six. Grade Six boys attend on Monday, Grade Six girls on Tuesday, Grade Four and Five boys on Thursday and Grade Four and Five girls on Friday.

strategic significance while the United States remained a neutral country.

During the second world war, the Canadian National hauled more than 433,000,000 tons of freight and carried 160,000,000 passengers. These included 42,000,000 on workmen's trains and 5,000,000 troops moving between assembly points and camps as well as proceeding overseas or coming home. Thousands of wives and children were also carried; nearly 65,000,000 telegrams and cables were transmitted, 85,000,000 express shipments were handled and 4,350,000 hotel guests cared for. The System's war work was spread across thousands of miles. No part of it, not one of its staff of 100,000 was untouched.

MRS. R. M. CLARK DIES SUDDENLY

A member of one of Prince Rupert's earliest pioneer families and a resident of this city for 39 years, Mrs. Leola Sibyl Clark, wife of Reginald M. Clark, 301 Ninth Avenue West, passed away at her home shortly after noon Monday while her family was preparing to take her to hospital. Mrs. Clark was 50 years old.

Mrs. Clark was the former Miss Leola Braman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Braman, pioneer residents who came to Prince Rupert in 1908. She was born in Rockford, Washington, but received much of her schooling here.

Mrs. Clark was pre-deceased by her parents about 10 years ago.

CHURCH HAD GOOD YEAR

First Presbyterian Congregation in Annual Session

Reports presented by the various departments and organizations of First Presbyterian Church at the annual meeting of the congregation last night showed that the past year had been one of fruitful achievement and encouraging progress. The pastor, Rev. A. F. MacSween, presided over the meeting in the Church Hall.

The financial report, presented by the treasurer, E. J. Smith, showed that the congregation met all its current liabilities and had a small operating surplus. In addition, over the past two years a reserve fund had been established which will be added to for the purpose of putting a new roof on the church building.

The moderator, Mr. MacSween, reported that all the young people's groups which had been started two years ago were carrying on with increased membership and interest. He paid tribute to and acknowledged the faithful and valuable service rendered by all organizations, groups and office-bearers of the church and reported that plans were being prepared to deepen and extend the work that had already been established. To make the church function more effectively and to meet the increasing challenge of the times, Mr. MacSween emphatically declared that strong leadership must be maintained. He proposed that the session be increased by five additional members.

Officers for 1947 were elected as follows:
Congregational Secretary—W. C. O'Neill.
Congregational Treasurer—E. J. Smith.
Board of Management—R. Parker, A. McMullen, J. Bremner, E. J. Smith, with G. C. Mitchell, G. Murray, J. D. McRae, F. Conrad, C. G. Ham, R. R. Strachan, James Hadden, W. Martin continuing.
Auditor—R. R. Strachan.
Trustees—Justice A. M. Manson, G. R. Naden.
Members of Session—Rev. A. F. MacSween (moderator), J. E. Davey, S. Massey, J. A. Teng, H. Calderwood, W. W. C. O'Neill (clerk).

Smiles 'n Chuckles

Counsel addressed the man in the dock:

"Did you or did you not, on the day in question, or at any other time previously, or subsequently, say or even intimate, to the defendant or to anyone else, that the statement imputed to you, whether just or unjust, and denied by plaintiff, was a matter of no moment or otherwise? Answer me! Did you or did you not?"

The man in the dock clutched his throat.

"Did I or did I not what?" he gasped.

A young man whose knowledge of cards was vague was roped in to complete a bridge four.

He committed his first mistake by throwing away a king on a trick already taken by his opponent's ace.

"Good Heavens!" bellowed the young man's partner, "a king doesn't usually beat an ace."

"I know," stammered the beginner, "but I thought I'd let it have a try."

On a busy day a woman walked into the office of the court room at Atlanta, Ga., and addressing Judge Blank, said:

"Are you the reprobate judge?"

"I am the probate judge."

"That is what I was saying," she said, "and I have come to you because I am in trouble. My husband was studying to be a minister at a college seminary, and he died detested and left three little infants, and I have come to be appointed their executor?"

"My overdraft at the bank goes to my wife—she can explain it; my equity in my car goes to my son—he will then have to go to work to keep up the payments. Give my good will to the supply houses—they took some awful chances on me and are entitled to something. My equipment you can give to the junk man—he has had his eye on it for several years. I would like six of my creditors to be pallbearers—they have carried me so long they might as well finish the job."

Two sisters—apparently all in all to each other—had lived together for many years. Then, when the one was ninety-eight and the other ninety-six, the elder died. The relative who undertook the task of breaking the painful news to the survivor feared the shock would be fatal to her. But the old lady bore up wonderfully. "Ah, well," she replied, "now I suppose I shall be able to have my tea made as I like it."

An Irish judge was just about to deliver his summing up of the case when he noticed that there were only 11 men in the jury box.

"Where is the twelfth jurymen?" he asked irritably.

"That's all right, yer honor," the foreman answered genially; "he was called away on business, but he's left his verdict with me."

Wagg "Say!" More than one person has been guilty of mutilating the books I lent them, but my latest experience caps the climax.

Wlags: "What was it?"

Wagg: "I lent Blank my dictionary last week and yesterday he returned it without a word."

Recently a friend of the family said to an old Boston miser, "Pete, I hear your nephew is going to marry. On that occasion you ought to do something to make him happy."

"You think so?" said the old man.

"OK," was the generous rejoinder, "I'll pretend I'm dangerously ill."

The witness was certainly no chicken an dthe young lawyer though it would be to his advantage to get her rattled.

"And now, madam," he said, "I must ask you a personal question. How old are you?"

"Young man," she replied, "it isn't more than an hour since the judge objected to hearsay evidence. And I don't remember being born."

Smith looked up from his paper and handed it to his wife.

"Wrong sort of heading, that, isn't it?" he said, pointing to the line: "Woman's Talk."

"Why wrong?" inquired Mrs. Smith.

"Well," he replied, "there is only half a column beneath it!"

It is claimed by certain authorities, that dark-headed men marry first. It is suggested in other quarters that it is the light-headed ones.

A man was boasting to a neighbor who lived in the same block of flats that he had kissed every woman in the building except one.

The neighbor, boiling with jealousy, went straight home and reported the story to his wife, saying with a suspicious glance: "I wonder, Maegle, who the woman is that he hasn't kissed?"

"Oh," was the reply, "I suppose it will be that stuck-up Mrs. Macintosh on the third floor."

CANADIENS AND BRUINS

Second and Third Place Teams to Meet Tomorrow Night in National Hockey League

MONTREAL, (C) — Montreal Canadiens will catch up on one of two games in hand in the National Hockey League tomorrow night at Boston when they meet the Bruins. Meantime the fast-moving young Toronto Maple Leaf outfit is riding on top of the standing with a full four-game or eight-point margin which will mean a lot of catching up for the Canadiens. Behind the Canadiens in third place ride the Boston Bruins who all the experts thought at the first of the season were sure for the league championship.

Second game scheduled for tomorrow night will see New York Rangers, who have been making a surprisingly good showing of late, meeting the luckless cellar-dwelling Chicago Black Hawks.

The league standings to date:

| W | D | L | F | A | Pts. |
|----------|----|---|----|-----|------|
| Toronto | 25 | 5 | 9 | 129 | 91 |
| Montreal | 20 | 5 | 11 | 116 | 77 |
| Boston | 14 | 8 | 14 | 100 | 102 |
| New York | 14 | 5 | 19 | 104 | 113 |
| Detroit | 11 | 7 | 20 | 108 | 132 |
| Chicago | 11 | 2 | 21 | 98 | 140 |

SHORT SPORT

A Toronto Maple Leaf-Montreal Canadiens National Hockey League match was ordered postponed 11 years ago as a mark of respect to the memory of King George V who died January 20. The tribute was the first of its kind in the N.H.L.'s 19-year existence. The Chicago-Maroon game at Montreal was also called off January 28—date of the King's funeral.

United States amateur tennis received a blow 15 years ago today when Francis T. Hunter followed Big Bill Tilden, his famous doubles partner, into professional ranks. They made their pro debut February 13 the same year at New York before a crowd of 14,000.

COYOTE DAYS NEARING END

EDMONTON, (C)—The last days of the coyote may be numbered in Alberta with the announcement by the government here of an all-out campaign against the animal.

The province will hire special coyote hunters, allow widespread snaring of the animals, make a number of coyote-killing machines available to sheep ranchers.

At a recent farmers' convention here a loud outcry was heard against the prairie wolves, one delegate saying they were so bold that they threatened the sheep-raising industry in Alberta.

WITHOUT A GARDEN?

TASK FOR GARDEN
When last which can be done in winter is the construction of a cold frame. Every gardener should have one; in fact, it should be one of the first things that you do in the year that you start your garden. It is a service which it can perform for you.

Form cold frames have been used by gardeners for centuries. Originally they were pits in the ground in which plants were sheltered from cold winds. Glass has been available for some time, but cold frames with glass panes are more efficient and more expensive.

Hard glazed sash is difficult to get this year; but various substitutes are available which can be stretched on frames and serve the same purpose while being much more economical.

To make a cold frame is so easy that any one who can wield a hammer can do it. It is usually made 3 by 6 feet, or a multiple of this, for the size of the standard hot-bed frame or a hot-bed frame may be any size you wish.

ORANGE PRICES MOVING LOWER

Slump in Citrus Fruit Market Reflected Here

A recent slump in American citrus fruit prices has had its reflection on local grocery store shelves where oranges are down as much as 22 cents a dozen in some sizes and 16 cents in other sizes. Lemons, formerly in the vicinity of 60 cents a dozen, now range from 37 to 47 cents.

The price of lard, which moved up a few cents in December, recently jumped another six to eight cents a pound, and is now selling for 28 cents.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make a cement for pipe joints?
A. Mix ten pounds of yellow ochre, four pounds of ground litharge, four pounds of whiting, one-half pound of hemp, cut up fine. Mix together with linseed to about the consistency of putty.

Q. How can I remove a rusty screw?
A. Heat a poker or spike red-hot and apply it to the head of a screw that is rusty and obstinate. When the screw has become hot it can be removed very easily.

Q. How can I take away all dampness of rooms?
A. Place blocks of camphor in all corners and on shelves, replacing them as they evaporate.

FUNERAL AT METLAKATLA

Local Veterans Join With Villagers in Final Rites For Albert Leighton

Veterans of World War I from Prince Rupert journeyed to Metlakatla Saturday afternoon to participate with the villagers there in the funeral rites for the late Albert Leighton, native veteran of the First Great War, who had succumbed here last week after long suffering from disabilities of that conflict.

The funeral service was held at St. Paul's Anglican Church where Rev. Basil S. Prockter of Prince Rupert officiated with Mrs. Alvin Leask presiding at the organ to accompany the hymns which were "O God Our Help in Ages Past" and "Lead, Kindly Light."

Following the service the cortege proceeded across the passage to the cemetery at Aurio Point where interment was made in the family plot. The "Last Post" was sounded over the final resting place by Bugler W. J. Rance of Prince Rupert while snow fell gently into the open grave into which the flag-draped casket was lowered.

There were two groups of pallbearers. One, consisting of members from Prince Rupert, comprised J. A. Allen, Bert Wouden, Edgar Woodward, W. J. Rance, G. Leighton and J. A. Teng. The other group consisted of Cecil Ryan, Howard Nelson and John Ryan, representing the village council of Metlakatla, and John Auckland, John Louth and George Ryan of the Young Men's Benevolent Association.

Beautiful floral offerings included wreaths from Peter Leighton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown and family, Sue and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Leighton, Mr. and Mrs. G. Delgren and son, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Leighton, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wouden, Mrs. Christina Leighton and Horace, Gus Starnpare, Mrs. Alice Leighton, Mr. and Mrs. George Haldane, Mrs. Ryan and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. Little Known Dressmaker Makes Princesses' Dresses For South African Tour

LONDON, ©.—Many of the clothes to be worn by Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret when they tour South Africa now are in the hands of "Miss Ford," a little-known London dressmaker who has designed clothes for them since they were young children.

"I have been dressing the princesses for many years, but few people know of this," said Miss Ford in an interview in her modest store on Albemarle Street.

"I have executed many of the dresses, gowns and outfits for the royal tour."

Other clothes are being designed by more famous dressmakers, including Moynieux and Norman Hartnell.

The princesses have been given extra clothes coupons but are also making over many dresses culled from their wardrobes.

QUEBEC—The body of Cardinal Villeneuve, who died last week in Los Angeles, will arrive here by airplane today and will lie in state until Friday when the funeral will take place from the basilica with high dignitaries of the church from Canada and the United States participating in the rites. Cardinal McGuigan of Toronto will be chief celebrant and Cardinal Spellman of New York will also participate.

With line conditions back to normal again following snow trouble during the week-end, tonight's train, due from the East at 10:45, was reported this afternoon to be on time.

MALTA WOMEN TO GET VOTE

Will Exercise Franchise
For First Time in History

LONDON (C)—The women of Malta, Britain's Mediterranean island fortress, will vote for the first time in history if constitutional proposals now before the British Parliament are put into effect.

After the Second World War, when Malta was awarded the George Cross for heroism during three years of aerial bombardment from Sicily and Italy, a national assembly was set up to frame proposals for a new constitution, a reproduction of that of 1921.

English and Maltese will be the official languages instead of English and Italian.

The British parliament will vote Friday on an $30,000,000 bill for reconstruction and rehabilitation of Malta.

Local Boy Incurable

Leonard Campbell Will Get Worse Instead of Better,
It is Found

Leonard Campbell, 11-year-old Prince Rupert boy, who was recently sent to crippled children's hospital in Vancouver as a result of a campaign conducted on his behalf in this city, will not recover but will become "progressively worse." This is the verdict of specialists in Vancouver who have diagnosed that he is suffering from creeping paralysis. His legs are already useless and his arms are losing their power. Now he gets around by crawling. Before long he will not even be able to do that. Mrs. Ross Richardson, who took the lad south recently, is now endeavoring to find a home for him in Vancouver where he is about to be discharged from the crippled children's hospital because of his incurability.

Simma Milner has written in the Vancouver Sun as follows about Leonard:

"A little boy, helpless and terribly crippled, has one ambition—to get 'big and strong and support my tiny Mum'."

"And now every night his prayers are punctuated with: Please dear God, make me better soon."

"But his nurse, who has just been told her 11-year-old charge—Leonard Campbell—will never realize either his ambition or his prayers, has a more attainable wish. That is to find a home for the youngster."

"Leonard is the victim of creeping paralysis. His legs are useless and his arms are losing their power. Instead of realizing his ambition, the lad soon will not even be able to move by crawling as he now does."

Friends Do Best

"Through the efforts of Leonard's Santa Claus, Thomas Smith, and his 'airy godmother' nurse, Mrs. Ross Richardson, both of Prince Rupert, the boy was brought from the northern city to Vancouver for special treatment and examinations last Thursday. The fact that he is incurable was ascertained this week."

"Specialists here agreed that

TO SING HERE—John Beadell, distinguished Canadian tenor, who will be heard in recital at the Civic Centre this week. He has been hailed as the "coming Richard Crooks." FREIGHT RATES sales with consequent reduction of employment in our district and a corresponding reduction of revenue to the railways.

"Therefore any increase in freight rates will result in decreased rather than increased earnings of the railroad and the workers in the forest industries."

"Further, owing to the long freight haul involved in bringing our products to eastern markets, it is only the low production costs which enable the small producers of our area to meet competition in a highly competitive market. If these production costs are increased by added freight charges the bulk of Central B. C. lumber will be prevented from reaching the only market now available."

Another major industry and the main source of employment for Prince Rupert and the coast districts is the gathering and processing of fish and sea products.

The market for fish is mainly in Eastern Canada and Central and Eastern United States. As the main competition for our fish to these markets comes from the Atlantic Coast with much lower freight charges, this proposed increase in western rates would be a very serious handicap in the sale of our fish.

This would also apply to export shipments to Great Britain which are carried by rail to the Atlantic seaboard for shipment by boat.

Regarding foodstuffs, fuel, gasoline and other manufactured products we find that inward freight represents 5% of the cost of these goods. Whereas the householder is required eventually to assume all freight charges for goods brought in, any increase in those charges will result in a general price increase on the main necessities of life. This will certainly tend to bring about the inflation which our government agencies are striving so hard to avoid.

"Striving the cost of living in districts served by rail is necessarily higher than in those served by water transport an increase in freight charges will automatically increase the above differential. In this manner the smaller inland population of the country would be required to subsidize rail services to the larger population at seaboard points who receive their supplies mainly by water transport.

"In addition to the cost differential mentioned above there is also a rate difference known as 'terminal rate' which allows a lower rate on all shipments to seaboard towns."

"British Columbia has been for a long time at a disadvantage due to the so-called 'Mountain Differential' in freight rates whereby the railroads have charged higher rates in British Columbia than for comparable distances in other parts of Canada. Any further increase would only aggravate this already unfair situation."

"This organization takes a very serious view of this matter and feels that any increase whatsoever in freight rates will most assuredly bring about large scale unemployment in Central British Columbia resulting in the widespread suffering and despair of the 'depression years.'" the Prince Rupert boy would become 'progressively worse.'

"For the first time since Leonard's first muscular paralysis began at the age of five, things began to happen for him about three months ago."

"It all started when Mrs. Richardson, walking down the street, noticed some boys pushing another youngster's face into the mud."

"Come on, she said to the mud covered lad, get up and hit them back!"

"Aw he can't. He's a sissy! screamed the bullies."

"Come on fellow; encouraged Mrs. Richardson. Show them you aren't."

Fight Brings Forth Tears

Tears started from the mud-encrusted eyes and the boy replied:

"I can't 'cause I can't walk."

"Mrs. Richardson then realized the boy's plight for the first time and carried him to his home."

"What she saw there appalled her. His mother was a frail and sickly woman with her five children ranging in ages from 2 to 11. The boy's father was making barely enough to support himself."

"She immediately contacted Thomas Smith who, as Prince Rupert's good samaritan, had already done much for the crippled boy. The two of them canvassed the city and raised $665 to get him to Vancouver for special treatment and examination."

"Now Leonard is to be discharged but, because of his condition and the situation in which the family lives, he cannot return north."

"Leonard is a good looking boy whose ready laugh seems to be reflected in his brown eyes. He can improvise jokes, too, and never indulges in self pity for he is sure that he will be 'playing baseball soon like the other guys.'"

"He loves companionship and in the week in Vancouver, he has already made good friends in the hospital."

"Leonard is considered a very intelligent youngster by both nurses and friends. But because he had to be carried to the school bus and then into school, his education was interrupted in Grade Two."

"Leonard is a natural artist. His understanding and love of the out-of-doors has been a means for transplanting natural life to his cripple's couch. There he spends most of his time coloring birds, trees, animals and flowers that he finds in color books. His sensitivity and sense of reality for color has been marvelled at by many of his little friends and the nurses."

"Before long, however, the youngster won't be able to draw. Already his paralysis-threatened arms are weakening."

Mrs. Richardson, who left her business to bring Leonard to Vancouver and is now staying at the Burrard Hotel, won't leave here until she can find a home, or the wherewithal to keep him in a home.

"He needs medical attention, care and friendship—three things he cannot get in his crowded home in Prince Rupert. He hasn't even place to crawl there, explained Mrs. Richardson. Besides, there is danger of catching pneumonia on the floor of their rarely heated home."

"But despite the fact that Leonard will be without a home Saturday, he still smiles and says:

"It's okay though. I'll walk soon and then I'll go back and take care of my tiny mother."

"Mooseburgers"
Out, Alaskan
Governor Says

WASHINGTON (C)—Alaskan Governor Ernest Gruening today defended Alaska's moose, even though they attack trains, cause derailments, run ahead of engines and delay schedules.

Col. C. P. Johnson, Alaskan railroad manager, requested that the "pesky moose" be reduced to "mooseburgers" but Gruening replied that the railroad delays were not serious enough to warrant killing the animals which are an attraction to tourists.

Johnson complained that they caused 14 schedule delays and one derailment on January 10.
