Indian Social Service Asked

VANCOUVER (CP)—Full social services for all Indians was advocated before the Canadian Conference on Social Work convention Saturday. E. L. Coughlin, district supervisor at Prince Rupert for British Columbia Social Welfare Branch, said Indians should be given the same services as whites. "We can not justifiably expect a solution of any of the Indian problems unless they are granted these services."

Move to U.S.-Canada Union

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (CP)—External Affairs Minister L. B. Pearson said Sunday the closeness of Canadian-American relations should not be construed to mean Canada is "moving inevitably and happily into union with the United States." "That is a possibility which is being considered for delivery at St. Lawrence University. "We are quite confident of our present position and our independence within our commonwealth of nations."

JOHANNESBURG (CP)—There is no question that Field Marshal Jan Christian Smuts is retiring from politics, his son said at the weekend. Smuts, leader of the United Party, is seriously ill. The United party Parliamentary group stated Wednesday that Smuts had retired from the party's Parliamentary leadership because of illness and that J. G. N. Strauss had been appointed leader in his place.

Prince George Bridge Menaced

PRINCE GEORGE — A huge log jam has been menacing the railway and highway bridge here and blasting has been resorted to. Any mishap to this bridge would completely cut off transportation to Prince George as well as railway movement west to Prince George. However, water in the Fraser River has commenced to drop slightly, in spite of continued warm weather, and the flood is believed to have reached its crest.

ALBANY—Thomas Dewey, for the past eight years governor of New York and twice Republican candidate for President of the United States, said yesterday that he would not be a candidate for re-election as governor. He indicated that he would return to private law practice. Some time ago Dewey renounced any further presidential aspirations.

American Found Under Girl's Bed

MUNICH (CP)—Bavaria's biggest German-American man hunt ended in the meek surrender of jail breaker Homer Cook, under a bed in the apartment of his German girl friend. The 27-year-old ex-serviceman and former boxer told the captors his love for Anna Sporrer, 23, led him to make his third break out of Dachau army stockade three nights ago. Nearly 4,000 German police and American M.P.s had sought Homer on a wide-ranging three day manhunt.

Jigsaw Puzzle Becoming Clear

WASHINGTON (CP)—With three American citizens under arrest, additional pieces are falling into place in the jigsaw pattern of Russian wartime spying in the United States. Further arrests appear in the offing. Agents of the F.B.I. have spent months putting together bits of information from all sorts of sources in an effort to complete the picture.

STRANGULATION DEATH CHARGED

MONTREAL (CP)—Gerard Royer, 36-year-old cook, has been charged with the strangulation killing of Helen Bowmer, 37, in a dingy down-town hotel room Tuesday. Royer, cook in a religious institution, was ordered for preliminary hearing June 22 after a coroner's jury found him criminally responsible for the death of Miss Bowmer, called by police "a well known street walker." Both lived in Montreal.

Car Plunges 500 Feet Off Road—Terrace Woman Badly Injured

TERRACE — Severe spinal injuries were sustained by Mrs. William Williams early Saturday afternoon when the car in which she was riding with her husband to Hazelton went over the edge of the road east of Usk on rounding a sharp curve, and plunged over 500 feet down the hillside. The car, a Studebaker, rolled over several times and came to rest against a large spruce log which prevented it from going into the Skeena River below. On being notified of the accident Constable T. Brue proceeded immediately to the scene with the ambulance of James MacKay. Mr. Williams, the driver of the car, was badly shaken up but otherwise unharmed. Mrs. Williams was brought into the Red Cross Outpost Hospital where she was attended by Dr. S. G. Mills and later removed by train to the Prince Rupert General Hospital.

Liquor Store Is Under Way

Construction of New $61,700 Dispensary Starts
Construction of the new $61,700, 100 x 61 foot reinforced concrete government liquor store on the north side of Second Avenue between Sixth and Seventh Streets began for fair this morning when pile driving operations for the foundation commenced. Fraser Valley Builders, Ltd., contractors for the job, expect the building will be completed by the end of September. The front of the building below window level will be faced with tapestry brick. Windows themselves will be translucent glass blocks. The entrance will be at the centre of the building and will lead directly into the public section, a large room 32 x 61 feet. Offices will open off the public section at the west side of the building. The warehouse runs along the east side of the building straight through to the north wall and along the north wall to the west wall and will provide about 3,200 square feet of floor space. There will also be a lunch room, wash room and lavatories for the employees and a boiler room. Flooring will be terrazzo tile. Interior of the public section will be finished with lath and plaster. Lighting in the public section and offices will be by fluorescent fixtures. The warehouse will be lighted by incandescent lamps. A. H. Ogilvie is provincial government inspector for the job.

84 Persons Lost In Two Crashes

PARIS (CP)—Air France, in an official statement today, said 84 persons were lost in the two crashes of company planes in the Persian Gulf last week. Sixty-six bodies have been recovered. Eighteen others are missing. One of the foremost weather experts in the United States said strong up and down air currents are common in the Persian Gulf and may have caused the two crashes.

High Water Expected But At Lessened Rate

Harrison Lake Overflows And Hotel Flooded Some Residents Evacuating

Flood Now Past Crest

VANCOUVER (CP)—Dominion water resources officials looked more hopefully at the Fraser River flood picture today with the announcement that waters of the Upper Fraser and Thompson Rivers have shown a marked slackening off since yesterday. This may soon be reflected in a leveling off at Hope and Mission. The gauge at Mission stood at 23.94 feet today, up half a foot in 24 hours. It is not expected to rise any more than half a foot in the next 24 hours. The Kootenay River is up nine inches since Friday and the Columbia River eight inches since Wednesday. Meantime dikes are holding through the province today against creeps and rivers doing their best to cope with snow after pouring down the mountainsides. Harrison Lake, 75 miles east, rose over its banks last night and spewed two feet of water into the leading hotel in Harrison Hot Springs. Eleven families left town and it has been suggested that others evacuate. At Agassiz only a few miles away from Harrison, optimism was followed by caution today as the Fraser moved up again after a minor recession. Hot weather again today should provide an increase.

East Fishermen Got Protection

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian government is taking measures to protect fishermen of this country from interference by vessels of other countries on the North Atlantic banks, Fisheries Minister Mayhew told the Commons today. The minister said the matter was being taken up with European nations whose vessels allegedly have interfered with operations of Canadian vessels on the banks.

The plea of guilty to all 60 counts against him was entered by his lawyer. Maximum penalty on each count of the charge is one year in jail and a $500 fine. The big gambler is subject to a possible sentence of 60 years in prison and $30,000 in fines.

FOOTBALL WILL NOT PROTEST

Darrow Gomez, captain of the Heavy Battery football team, states that his team will not proceed with proposed protest against Canadian Legion football eleven for playing too many players in their last game. It would be a good move if the Football Association gave a clear ruling as to the number of substitutes that may be used in a game. There seems to be some doubt on the matter.

A City In Difficulty

THE citizens and we ourselves have at times labored and criticized our city administrations for inactivity, ineptitude and inefficiency and they have no doubt, on occasion, deserved it. When utilities fail to give good and adequate service, when streets and sidewalks become dilapidated to a point where they are notorious disgrace not only in the eyes of the people who live here but in the view of the thousands of people who visit us, the failure to meet the situation is bound to be the focal point of dissatisfaction and criticism. Further, the taxpayers, who foot the bills and sometimes think they are not getting much for their money, are entitled to assurance that they are being given the best measure of return. That there has been some apprehension on that score it is not necessary for the Daily News to say. One has but to listen to the talk that is heard wherever groups of citizens are gathered together.

However, there is also something to be said in fairness to those who have the difficult conducting of city affairs in their hands, a duty from which so many citizens shy away each December when the municipal elections come around. Possibly there is no city in British Columbia whose municipal requirements in the way of public works and services are more difficult today, due to the size and extent of the city, the nature of the terrain, the pressure of growing population, new industrial development and increased demand in recent years and the fact that the city for so many years has been falling into an increasing state of disrepair. The situation today is that, even with all the ingenuity and efficiency of planning and financing that might be exercised, Prince Rupert, as a city corporation, simply has not the available resources to carry out the accumulation of work and projects that have now become urgently essential if this is to be a community in which people can live even comfortably, much less proudly. With water system inadequate, sewers collapsing, streets dilapidated and falling to pieces, sidewalks broken down and dangerous or non-existent—to mention only some of the essentials—the program which must be undertaken right soon, if the place to be inhabitable—would be staggering to the most talented and efficient city councils and administrations.

Prince Rupert, difficult as things may be owing to peculiar local circumstances, is not the only city which finds itself nigh helpless in the grip of forces which cannot be surmounted or controlled. This is not the only city that faces demands—justifiable ones too—from the people for better and more adequate services than they are getting. The fact is that while people are expecting more (and here in Prince Rupert they are today getting less)—in the way of services, the means and resources of the city to meet the needs are hedged by antiquated limitations and restrictions. The point has been reached whereby there is not the wherewithal to meet the most primary needs of a modern civilized community. As the Daily News has pointed out before, what the city of Prince Rupert needs is a "new deal" in the way of financing.

Under these circumstances, the utmost efficiency and good service must be insisted upon in the city government and administration, but, even with all that, Prince Rupert, for one municipality at least, just cannot meet the physical requirements of a constantly deteriorating situation.

We suggest that, as start which cannot be much longer deferred unless the people are forced to move out because of lack of essential services and ordinary amenities of community living, the city, itself, might move towards the instituting of a special study of needs on a large scale and long term basis and special measures which will have to be taken to meet them. In that connection it would be logical to suggest that the co-operation of the provincial municipal affairs department, which keeps us so closely in check from the financial standpoint, might be reasonably enlisted. Something has got to be done. We simply can't go on this way.

DEAR WAR BRIDE

THIS IS A LETTER addressed to Marjorie F. Minaker, an English war bride who recently wrote the following letter to a paper:

Sir: This is an open letter to any discontented British war brides living in British Columbia—that lovely country which even England cannot excel.

If they are homesick and if they are lonely and if they think that Canadian life is callow beside the British—they should come home. But they should have a return ticket in their pockets.

If they have not money enough for the return tickets, tell them to stay. Tell them to turn their eyes to the hills and the tall trees and the great lakes, and the restless rivers, that are Canada.

Tell them to think of their husbands, unhappy, perhaps because of their wives' resentment to their own beloved country. Tell them to stick it at all costs—for when they come back they will find to their surprise that Canada has many virtues—and England many faults (which cannot be seen through roseate glasses 6000 miles away).

I am a British war bride—I have been in England six months with my two children—while my husband is still in the lovely little village of Crescent, B.C. I long to come back to Canada and my husband—but it may be years before I do because I have no return tickets.

If this letter serves any useful purpose, I shall feel happy that my own mistake may prevent others from going a similarly foolish thing.

Marjorie F. Minaker, Babbacombe, Torquay, England.

Well, cheer up Mrs. Minaker. You can get back to B.C. and have a happy family re-union—yes and you can do that for $500.

NOW ABOUT THE $500. IF your husband will get in touch with me, and let me know exactly how you are fixed, we will see what can be done. In case you do not want your husband to pay for your mistake, let me know direct. If necessary you could earn the money over there or here in Canada.

Also—see Colonel Alan Chambers, Canada House, London. He is head of our Canadian Veterans' Affairs Department in Britain. He is about the best trouble shooter and fixer-upper I know, and he does just about anything under the sun for families of Canadian veterans.

AND SHUCKS, MRS. MINAKER, don't feel too tragic about it all. I tell our daughter, who is getting married this month, that every bride is entitled to run home to mama at least three times. That's just part of the routine of getting to know how to live with another human being.

That makes it tough for brides who marry and move over oceans. You just can't get your proper quota.

In Friday's Daily News report of the graduating ceremonies of Booth Memorial High School, the name of "Charles Robert Armstrong" appeared as one of the graduating class roll. This should have been "Charles Robert Williamson."

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Prince Rupert has been called lots of names in the past forty years. Some were unkind, a few were well deserved, and others were rather picturesque. But all had one thing in common. This was never termed "just another town" which means that after all the abuse, there must be something here.

Prince Rupert will be represented in the big assembly of Boy Scouts in Valley Forge. There will be lads from all over America there, and knowledge of history will be considerably widened. Like enough, some are only finding out where Valley Forge is, and what it's all about.

When Prince Rupert was first heard of, it was to be expected the vast fisheries and mineral wealth of the adjacent coast would be widely discussed. Thousands had never been near there. Someone was describing Portland Canal—all of a hundred miles long.

"Did you say canal?" inquired a listener in all innocence.

"Yes."

"How did Mr. Portland ever dig a canal that size?"

But before the general roar exploded, an elderly, quiet appearing man called:

"I can tell you, mister. The same way old Puget handled his Sound."

In the 25 years ago column, something is said about gold recovery in the black sands of the Queen Charlotte Islands. We'd almost forgotten about that elusive stuff. It had attracted and disappointed people, longer ago than 25 years. No one denies the gold is there, but its quantity is such that separating it from the sand seems practically impossible. But by this time, possibly, someone has a new idea, and would welcome a little help, financially.

Extensive surveys have already been made by the Aluminum Company of Canada in Tweedsmuir Park and down the coast. Before long the Aluminum Company of America will conduct surveys up north, south of Whitehorse, the project covering the northwest section of the Province. Wait a while longer and the asking of questions will become what is known as superfluous.

One naturally dislikes discouragement when the competition is in such a worthwhile cause but the man or woman guessing how long it will take that Rotary barrel to float down stream from Terrace earns the prize. The Skeena for the time being, is not dependable. It's now up now down, now out, now in. But, anyway, roll out the barrel and look pleasant!

Hugh Tennant, port steward for Canadian National Steamships, Vancouver, was in the city yesterday going north on the Prince George to make the round trip to Alaska on official duties.

Hot Campaigns In By-Elections

HALIFAX — Political artillery boomed in the riding of Annapolis-Kings and at Halifax as 125,000 electors in the two constituencies tried to decide how to vote in today's Federal by-elections.

At Kentville, Liberal candidate Angus Elderkin, was flanked by Resources Minister Winter and Agriculture Minister Gardiner. John Diefenbaker was alongside candidate George Nowlan. The Annapolis-Kings by-election is a sequel to a decision of the Nova Scotia Supreme Court, which declared void Elderkin's election in last year's general election. He won the seat by four votes on a recount.

The Halifax by-election was caused by the elevation of Liberal member Gordon Inor to the Senate. Saturday C.C.F. leader Coldwell addressed a rally in support of Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson, retired minister. Other candidates are S. R. Balcom, Liberal, and Lloyd Allen, Progressive-Conservative.

Although world-famous Enrico Caruso once sang for $70.36—he didn't even get the money. On a street corner in Cobourg, Ontario, he joined a little band of Salvation Army officers who did not know his identity until the tambourine was passed and filled with large contributions.

Little Hope That Miners Still Alive

CADOMIN, Alta. — Two mechanical mud muckers and sweating crews of rescue workers today continued the battle against time to open up the coal mine tomb of five trapped miners. But little hope is held that the men, imprisoned for more than four days, would be found alive.

Discovery yesterday of a broken miner's lamp and the severed lery is silent in the ridings of the diggers were coming close. The mud muckers speeded up the job of moving tons of debris from the tunnel 270 feet below surface.

Ketchikan Ball Series Arranged

The executive of the Prince Rupert Baseball Association last week decided to accept Ketchikan's proposal for a four-day, six-game series the first four days of July.

Saturday, July 1, there will be a double-header here. Sunday there will be one game here. On July 3, Prince Rupert will go to Ketchikan to play the first game of the return series. On the Americans' great holiday the local boys will play the remaining two games against the Alaskans.

Art Murray, president of the local baseball association, looks for some top notch games.

Eleven women employees of the Canadian Fishing Co. plant at Carlisle arrived in the city aboard the Coquitlam Sunday from Vancouver.

Such As It Was— Lots Of Ball Seen Sunday

Last week sports writers all over the country considered the 29-4 shellacking the St. Louis Browns took as big news and wrote it as such, but here is a story for them today. Yesterday at the Roosevelt Park diamond a crew of construction workers tried their hand at baseball and were sadly out of their element. They finally managed to get the last man out shortly before dinner hour and the Commercial Hotel went home with somewhere around thirty runs to their credit with Watson Island ending up with a meagre two.

Manager Dan Doswell of the Island outfit tried everything but hypnotism on his club but one can't make a sow's ear out of a purse or something like that, so Dan finally had to give up even clapping his hands to show the boys where the bench was. Everything seemed to go against Watson Island, but the Commercial Hotel club was more to blame than anything else. Sammy Sinclair, who is more at home in boxing togs, started off his pitching career very nicely and, if he never pitches again, he will still have something to tell his children about. Sammy had trouble getting used to the rather awkward pitcher's rubber at the beginning of the fracas but settled down to give a good account of himself throwing nothing but fast balls.

It was a nice afternoon up on the hill and it gave people who don't usually see much baseball a chance to crowd a lot of stuff into one afternoon.

After all, baseball is made up of runs, hits and errors and there were enough yesterday to do for some time.

Hazelton Is Not Alarmed

Flood Crest of Skeena is Believed Passed

HAZELTON—The weather has been extremely warm here the past week which has been an indirect cause of the rising Skeena River. However, it is but a little above normal, not enough to cause much anxiety as the snow on the ground and up to timberline had disappeared several weeks ago.

The Public Works Department and some citizens spent several hours Tuesday evening hauling rock and brush to keep the river from washing away any more of the bank.

As far as a flood is concerned no one in Hazelton is alarmed. The river, it is thought, has reached its crest, so there is no danger this year.

The Public Works Department has spent two days hauling sand and rock to build up the bank.

Terrace Has Boxing Card

TERRACE—A fine exhibition of boxing was given by some of the local boys on Saturday night at the Civic Centre, and the crowd of spectators thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Due to the closing of the Prince Rupert highway, the card which was to have taken place with Prince Rupert boxers lined up against the local lads had to be called off. However, two Hazelton boys showed some fine boxing and equal to their Terrace opponents and were well received. Nick Schmeling refereed the bouts.

The bouts were:
Ronnie Earl and Robert Cote.
Louis Tetreault and Francis Lofredo.
Harvey Hobenshield and Wayne Statham.
Kenneth Earl and Peter Magnus.
Rusty Gordon and Lawrence Brown of Hazelton.
Chuck de Kergommeaux and Leonard Morgan of Hazelton.

Burns Lake Milk Strike

BURNS LAKE—The village of Burns Lake is threatened with a milk famine, as the local dairy-men, Magnus Anderson and Leonard Radley, threaten to go out of business owing to the action of several prominent citizens. There is no herd law in this district and farmers must fence in order to protect their crops. The village passed a by-law prohibiting stock from rambling through the village but, so far has no pound, nor official pound-keeper. The dairy farm adjoins the village boundaries, and the work horses frequently come in to town. Irrate citizens impounded them, fed and watered them and presented the owners with a bill.

Notice has been given that there will be no milk deliveries after July 1.

Herb Spencer is around again after a period of confinement to his home with a bad case of influenza.

In the course of a business trip throughout the district, T. M. Gibson of Vernon, regional superintendent for the B.C. Power Commission spent Thursday in town.

Brightening Up Terrace

Many Improvements in Business Section

Work is going ahead with the corner building, next to the Silver Tip Cafe, which, when completely renovated, will be occupied by Den Dodds Drug Store. It is expected that the move will take place about July 1.

Another store which is soon to have a new location is the government liquor store which is to be moved to Lakelse Avenue near Kalum Street, as soon as the new building there is completed.

In line with the general smartening up of the business section of the town Mr. and Mrs. Carson Jackson have renovated the building on Lakelse Avenue which was known as the Sundal Apartments and its bright, brick finished exterior is a decided improvement on the former building. The interior has been changed and decorated with living quarters for the Jacksons. On Saturday they opened their new restaurant "The Home Grill."

Further along the same block on Lakelse Avenue the Smahas have transformed the building next to the Canadian Legion Hall into a neat appearing construction which will house their dry-cleaning establishment and living quarters.

On the south side of Lakelse Avenue the new home on the former Halliwell place and the new United Church are improvements which are seen from the centre of the town.

Such improvements and building are going on all over town but the beauty of the lovely trees along Lakelse Avenue and the other streets in the town is marred with the grey dust which rises in clouds every time a vehicle passes over it.

Bussinger President

BURNS LAKE—The annual meeting of the Omineca District Liberal Association brought a large gathering from all points between Vanderhoof and Telkwa and crowded the Community Hall here, some eighty delegates with their full quotas or proxies being in attendance.

Retiring President John Berg occupied the chair and was assisted by Secretary Jack S. Brown who despatched all old business, and called for nominations of new officers, which resulted as follows:

Honorary President, Rt. Hon. L. S. St. Laurent.
Hon. Vice President, Hon. B. I. Johnson.
Presidents, E. T. Applewhite, George Murray, M.P., and Cecil Steele.

Clarence Bussinger of Telkwa, was elected president of the organization and will be backed up

SHAMES EVACUEES NOW IN TERRACE

TERRACE—Several of the families from Shames have moved into Terrace until the near-flood waters of the Skeena River have subsided. These are, Mrs. Fred Leake, whose husband is C.N.R. steel gang foreman, and who with her three children, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Jackson; section foreman and Mrs. C. DeGrasse and two boys who are living in a section house here; and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eckerman.

by Walter Holmes of Topley, Mark Connolly of Fraser Lake, and Jack Andros of Vanderhoof as vice presidents, and J. H. Sewell of Vanderhoof as secretary-treasurer.

Next annual meeting will be held at Burns Lake.

Hurt at Terrace, Is Flown South

Mrs. S. G. Mills of Terrace arrived in the city on yesterday's train from the interior. She brought in a patient, Allan Green, who sustained a double fracture of the leg and other severe injuries in a blast while working as a driller on a new logging road west of the Kalum River for Columbia Cellulose. She continued by plane today to Vancouver with the patient, who spent overnight in Prince Rupert General Hospital.

In the course of blasting rock on the roadway Green started to drill one rock which had been loaded with dynamite but not discharged. An explosion occurred. He was removed immediately to the Outpost Hospital at Terrace before being taken to Prince Rupert.

It is believed that the name "Nickel" derives from "Kupfer-Nickel," meaning "Old Nick's Copper," given to the metal by early-day miners in Saxony because it was difficult to smelt and work.

Terrace Has Warmest Day

TERRACE—Friday was the warmest day of the year here with the mercury going up to 92 degrees in the shade. Despite this, the Skeena River does not appear to be rising further, and on Saturday morning it was reported to have fallen about six inches at Braun's Island where, on Wednesday, it had been thought the residents might have to be evacuated.

The haze of a forest fire covers the Lakelse Mountains area.

Towards 6 o'clock on Saturday afternoon a short thunder shower hardly dampened the parched ground and dusty roads and the air remained thundery and close all night.

Indians Blamed For Over Hunting

OTTAWA—Wildlife experts are critical of Indians who do more hunting than they should. A conference of dominion-provincial wildlife officials decided if this excessive taking of wild life by Indians continues, it will ultimately work to the disadvantage of the Indians themselves. Birth Control And Catholic Doctors

LEEDS, England—Roman Catholic doctors may eventually find themselves excluded from Britain's national health service because of their stand on birth control, a speaker suggested at a meeting here. Mrs. A. Kembal of Manchester, past president of the Catholic Women's League, said the Royal Commission on population had recommended that national health service officials be prepared to offer birth-control advice to any married couple wanting it. She contended that if this were put into effect, Roman Catholic doctors, nurses, midwives and health visitors could not accept office in N.H.S. Mrs. Kembal, who is a Manchester Alderman, said that what the commission should have emphasized was not the need for birth control but of more and better houses in which children could be brought up.

Prince George yesterday were Sir John and Lady Molesworth-St. Aubyn, of Cornwall, England, and B. C. Medemeyer, Portland, Oregon, prominent lumber executive. Well known Vancouverites making the ten-day voyage are Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Anderson.
