Tackling Problem Of Britain On Her Feet

WHERE PLANE HIT—The wide gap in this clump of tamarack trees traces the course of the ill-fated R.C.A.F. Canso amphibian as it crashed in the northern Manitoba bush, killing its 21 occupants. Bits of debris are scattered along the path of the plane, which was flying from Churchill, Man., to Winnipeg when it crashed and burned. There were no survivors. (Photo)

Memorable Trip Over

Presentation to Mrs. Alex Mitchell Culminates Job's Daughters Tour

"On behalf of the directors, crews and staff of the Union Steamships I wish to present you with these flowers for a good job well done." So said little Sandra Skinner, daughter of Frank Skinner, local agent for the company and Mrs. Skinner, with Managing Director G. Mc-Bain looking on approvingly, as the presentation of a beautiful bouquet of red gladioli was made to Mrs. Alex Mitchell on the return of the victorious Job's Daughters yesterday afternoon. Loud applause burst out from the many assembled parents, relatives and friends as the girls disembarked from Union steamer Catala, Capt. E. Sheppard, with the skirl of the pipes played by Piper William McKay spreading over the harbor.

Proudly carrying the two handsome trophies that the drill team had won at Spokane, Alex Mitchell said that, as soon as the team went on the floor, he knew that they would win. Their drill was perfect. They had just completed a march of fifteen blocks in very hot weather too, but they performed their drill like veterans.

Many of the girls have remained in the south to visit friends and those returning were Ruth Ketcheson, Margaret Strachan, Heather Brewer, Diane Kennedy, Carol Moorehouse, Ethel Moorehouse, Marjorie Tattersall, Olive Strand, Mary Strachan, Margit MacArthur, Donna MacArthur, Gerd Lien and Melaine Brechin. Mrs. Robert Gordon, Miss Pat Mitchell and Bobbie Mitchell also returned with the party.

The girls, tired after a strenuous two weeks replete with keen excitement and all manner of new experiences, were still full of enthusiasm as they were welcomed by the crowd of relatives and friends when the Catala arrived. The trip will provide reminiscences for many a day to come. They were loud in their appreciation of hospitality and courtesies extended them all along the way.

At Vancouver Tuesday night, before their steamer sailed, they were given a banquet by Vancouver Bethel at the Bethel headquarters in Grandview. Local Job's Daughters, now in Vancouver, were on hand to farewell them as the ship sailed. Capt. Ernest Sheppard was host at a party aboard on sailing night.

At Alert Bay the girls donned

FIVE DIE IN CRASH

LEOPOLDVILLE, Belgian Congo (AP)—Five persons were killed today when a DC-3 aircraft crash-landed and burst into flames shortly after taking off from Leopoldville airport. Two were passengers and the others members of the crew. The plane carried sixteen passengers and crew of four when it left the airport here on a regular run to Elizabethville, 1000 miles away and near the Northern Rhodesian border.

FINALISTS IN WOMEN'S GOLF

VANCOUVER (AP)—Babs Davies of Vancouver, lone Canadian semi-finalist, was eliminated yesterday four and three and the defending champion, Grace Lenczyk of Newington, Connecticut, is also out of the Canadian women's golf open. Grace DeMoss of Corvallis, Oregon, beat Babs Davies and meets Mrs. Marian Heron of Portland who beat Miss Lenczyk.

Their uniforms and staged a display for the benefit of the people of Alert Bay and also for Mr. and Mrs. Hoefler, professional moving picture photographers of Los Angeles, who were among the Catala's passengers.

FIRE EVACUEES—Neighbors helped load furniture aboard a truck and automobile as occupants of a summer home at Terrence Heights, Que., pulled out of the path of a blazing forest fire near the small Laurentian village. The army and the provincial police supervised evacuation of the danger area. (C. P. Photo)

Reds Take To Attack

CANTON (AP)—Chinese Communist troops, hurled back on the front north of Canton, have returned to the attack and have made new gains, the defence ministry admitted today. The ministry said that Manchurian veterans of the Red general, Lin Piao, have recaptured Anhwa, 90 miles north of Changsha, on a sector of the front more than 370 miles north of this refugee capital. There was no news from the front closest to Canton. That is on the northeast where the Reds are 140 miles or less away.

7 DIE IN SUB

SOLO (AP)—The United States submarine Cichino exploded, burned and sank in Arctic waters yesterday. One member of the crew, a civilian technician, was lost and six Navy submariners, aboard a sister ship, Tuks, perished during rescue operations.

The Cochino's 84 officers and men were saved. The two vessels, together with the submarines Toro and Corsair, were on cold water manoeuvres when an explosion in the battery room sent the craft to the bottom.

NEARLY MADE CHANNEL SWIM

DOVER, England (AP)—Blinding fog forced Mrs. Willi Croes van Rijsel, 31-year old Dutch housewife, to abandon her bid to swim the English Channel yesterday after seventeen hours. The plucky Amsterdam, who is believed to have been less than two miles from the goal when she quit, took it in her stride. Ashore an hour later, she smiled and said: "I'm going to try it again."

EMPLOYMENT IS SATISFACTORY

But Housing is Reaching Critical Stage in Prince Rupert

At the monthly meeting of the local employment advisory committee last evening considerable discussion took place regarding the need for housing accommodation at present and the feeling that the shortage would become even critical in the near future caused the committee to formulate a resolution to the Regional Committee pointing out the need for some organized effort to have houses built. Whether this should be done by the municipality or whether the problem should be tackled on a wider basis with the department of industry giving a lead was a matter for consideration. The local employment office is advising all who write from outside points of the need to have accommodation taken care of before they come to the city.

The local employment situation is very satisfactory with job vacancies exceeding the number of applicants. There is no unemployment among the women in the city. While the fishing industry is slackening off there is a backlog of construction that should provide work for all. The Columbia Cellulose Company has increased its payroll as construction progresses. Work should be started soon on the highway from the city limits to Galloway Rapids.

The plan for directing some of the courses provided at the High School to give specialized instruction leading to training personnel for the fishing and fish processing industries is being followed up. Present at the meeting were J. S. Wilson, chairman; J. C. Gilker, Robert McKay, W. E. Waterman and E. Victor Whiting, manager local Unemployment Insurance Commission.

Insurance Rate Upped

VANCOUVER (AP)—Premier Byron Johnson announced yesterday that compulsory hospital insurance services would cost more in 1950. Single persons will pay $21 instead of $15 and married persons with dependents will pay $33 instead of $24 and $30. The new payments will be due in October.

Premier Johnson said that the one-year old plan had not been paying its way owing to higher hospital charges due to increased costs, principally in salaries and wages, and another $3,000,000 was needed. The Premier said he was convinced that the people wished the service continued.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis

Skies are clear over British Columbia today. However, some increase in cloudiness is expected over southern sections tomorrow. Temperatures in the interior today and tomorrow will range through the seventies and low eighties and along the coast through the sixties and seventies.

Forecast

North Coast Region—Sunny today. Cloudy tomorrow. Little change in temperature. Winds light. Lows tonight and highs tomorrow—At Port Hardy 50 and 62, Masset 50 and 60, Prince Rupert 48 and 63.

DIEPPE VETS RETURN TO FRANCE—Sgt James Copland of the Essex Scottish Windsor, Ont., and Pipe Major Angus Graham of the Camerons of Winnipeg are shown above playing a Lament at the ceremony held at Dieppe cemetery in France on the 7th anniversary of the famous raid. The two pipers accompanied the Canadian detachment of Reserve Force soldiers all veterans of the raid who were present for the occasion. (Can. Army Photo)

Great Hurricane Lashes Florida; Damage Is Heavy

WEST PALM BEACH, Florida (CP)—A tremendous tropical hurricane today had swept through Florida's rich citrus belt with millions of dollars in property damage already counted in the State. The Palm Beaches were hard hit and so was Belle Glade on the eastern shore of Lake Okeechobee where damage is estimated at more than $1,000,000 by town officials.

Up and down the Gold Coast, a stretch of 120 miles, the storm left houses unroofed and trees uprooted. Shrubbery was torn to ribbons.

Velocity was as high as 155 miles per hour.

However, only one death was attributed to the storm. Andrew Jonkman, 20, was drowned at Miami as he tried to swim ashore after purposely sinking his sailboat to protect it from the storm.

At least fifteen were injured. The National Guard was put on duty in West Palm Beach to prevent looting in the damaged city.

Winds died down today, heading into the Gulf of Mexico.

LIBERALS TO NAME LEADER

WINNIPEG (AP)—The provincial executive of the Manitoba Liberal-Progressive Association voted today to call a convention in September to name a new party leader. C. Keith Irving, president, announced the decision.

Premier Douglas Campbell has been holding the office for some months but the party leader is still the man he succeeded, Hon. Stewart Garson, now federal minister of justice.

Members of the party executive are also urging postponement of a provincial election until the coalition issue is settled.

Premier Campbell has reportedly run into a strong movement inside the provincial executive aimed at breaking the coalition which is now nine years old.

Story of 'Quake Centre Is Told

Graphic Account Is Given By Queen Charlotte Fisherman

A first-hand report of actual experiences during the recent earthquake has been supplied to the Daily News by Charles Valley, captain of the MV Omar K, and a fellow captain, Paddy Dwyer of the MV Belinder, two fishery patrol boats operating near the south end of the Queen Charlotte Islands. Their two engineers, Mickey Dwyer and Ross Morrison, feel sure that they were in the centre of the earthquake area.

Sunday was a calm, peaceful evening with the sun low in the sky shining over a placid sea. But just after eight o'clock there was a low rumbling that seemed to come from behind Swede Mountain. Then everything began to shake and the noise increased and sounded like heavy thunder. Valley and Morrison came out on deck to see what was causing the rumble. The water quivered and surged and rocks and timbers could be heard coming down the steep sides of the many mountains that make up this Lockport area. All along the shoreline for a distance of twenty feet out the water seemed to be boiling and the tidal wave ten feet high ran inland. The quake lasted all of two minutes with one terrific shake. For hours afterwards there were many lesser tremors.

On shore was McKey Dwyer who said that he had to hang on to a tree to keep from falling down. Underfoot he could hear and feel the rocks grinding. "I've always wanted to know what a real earthquake would feel like, and my gosh, it sure was a dandy." The tidal wave took his dinghy up and he had to run in and retrieve it. Paddy Dwyer was out in the other dinghy at the narrow entrance towards Swede Bay. Here the cliffs are over a thousand feet high. His dinghy rose and fell and he made for the beach. The boat capsized but he got it and himself ashore. All agreed that the mountains, some of them four miles away, actually moved up and down.

Next day there were lots of broken trees and roots floating about the inlet and many new slides were visible on the mountain sides. Though the men called the motion of the water a tidal wave they noticed that actually it was not a wave but that the whole body of water seemed to rise and fall, with many whirlpools appearing and reappearing as if there were a great commotion underneath. However, there was no sign of any dead fish and not more than an hour afterwards herring could be seen flipping about and some coho were jumping.

A Timely Revival

"THE FAMILY that prays together, stays together." Under this striking slogan, a new and unique religious revival campaign will be launched September 4 by the Roman Catholic Church in Western Canada and Alaska including Prince Rupert. Essentially the movement has for its purpose the strengthening of the foundations of good family life. Although initiated by the Roman Catholic Church, the appeal of the campaign has equal validity for all, irrespective of creed.

The family has ever been the smallest, but the most stable of human organizations. The family is conceived as the unit, or the individual brick, from the multitude of which are builded all nations. The family is a natural society, wherein man's innate thirst for happiness, for his perpetuation, and for social security is quenched. The family is sacred, for it is the cradle not only of children, but also of the nation—its force and its glory.

The Roman Catholics are to be commended upon their initiative in launching a campaign which seeks to do so much for the family and for the country by the promotion of family prayer. Every Christian can heartily endorse the efforts for his Roman Catholic fellow citizens in their pursuit of universal family prayer.

The Christian Church and all who profess allegiance to it are on trial. The troubles of the world are not of its making, yet it is expected to solve them. Now, as never before, the world sorely needs God's help.

Protestants can do two things about this Catholic Crusade. One is to pray for it and wish it every possible success, both in its organization and ultimate objective, and the other is to take a lesson from it, to copy it in their own fashion, to blend their prayers with the prayers of their Catholic brethren in an earnest and penitent plea for God's mercy and help.

POLIO PRECAUTIONS

WHETHER OR NOT this is an epidemic year for poliomyelitis, there are certain precautions that health authorities say should be taken during this season when epidemics may occur. These are largely common-sense health precautions which it does no harm to follow at any time.

1. Avoid crowds and new contacts if possible. Avoid crowded places where you may be close to another's breath or cough. The exact method by which poliomyelitis is spread is not completely known but the virus is present in discharges from the nose and mouth of a person who has the disease. Only a small proportion of the people who have poliomyelitis become paralyzed, and many cases of the disease are never recognized. It has been estimated that about 7 of 100 persons are cases or carriers during the late summer and fall, and all these seven may spread the disease.

2. Avoid over-fatigue. Too active play, late hours, worry, irregular living schedules may invite a more serious form of the disease. It is believed that over-fatigue and too strenuous exercise may precipitate a paralytic form of the disease in a person who has a previously unrecognized infection.

3. Avoid chilling. Take off wet clothes and shoes at once. Keep dry shoes, sweaters, blankets, and coats handy for sudden weather changes. Sudden chilling of the body, as may occur in a plunge into cold water on a hot day, may lead to a serious form of the disease.

4. Postpone nose and throat operations during a poliomyelitis outbreak. Although statistics thus far do not substantiate the theory many doctors believe that a severe form of poliomyelitis frequently follows operations on the nose and throat.

5. Keep clean. Wash hands after going to toilet and before eating. Keep food covered from flies and other insects. Burn or bury garbage not tightly covered. Avoid using another's pencil, handkerchief, utensil or food touched by soiled hands. Since the virus has been found in nose, mouth and bowel discharge and on flies, general hygiene measures are necessary in this as in other diseases.

Parents are also warned to be alert to early signs of illness or changes in the normal state of health. A physician should be called at once if there are symptoms of headache, nausea, upset stomach, muscle soreness or stiffness, or unexplained fever. Early diagnosis and prompt treatment are important.

SATURDAY SERMON

THERE IS A NAME

(By REV. G. E. SENDALL, First Presbyterian Church)

The earliest Christian password was, "Jesus is Lord." By that name they identified themselves with the company of heaven. When they met one another, they used this password as a salutation. The Christian community committed itself to His name. "Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God."

The hymn writers of the ages have carried on the good confession. Call to mind the numerous hymns which exalt the name of Jesus Christ. Consider the many books written about Him. "God also hath given Him a name which is above every name." He is the most influential person in history. Men have reviled and misused that name, sometimes as a cloak for unworthy ends, but Jesus stands as a peak for humans to consider.

Pause a moment before His personality. Inner unity and harmony, characterized Him. Altogetherness of spirit, a purity of heart and singleness of purpose that most of us long for and seldom achieve, was His, inherently. He met rancor, bitterness, conflict, without compromise or weakness. Yet He was wonderfully kind. Without fear or suspicion, He trusted God His Father in a spirit of goodwill. He utilized spiritual forces to solve spiritual problems and share spiritual values. In the face of opposition and threat, He never wavered or turned from His Mission, which was to redeem others. He chose truth, faith, love, holiness, beauty, goodness, vicarious sacrifice. He met life at its highest and best, bringing the eternal into the midst of time. Those who follow Him and believe in His name have a new dimension for living.

His name lives because His church has convinced enthusiastic followers who keep alive the name and power of Jesus Christ. He gave true answers to the perennial problems of life—He faced the same issues as we do and the principles He gave ring true and meet the need of the human heart. We can test them. His truth is experiential and experimental. The ethical dynamic of Jesus moves ahead of us, challenging us. We are very short of the glory of God.

Wherefore God also hath highly exalted Him—that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow. Jesus saw deeper into men's hearts, with truer insight into what men might be. He develops the hidden resources by inspiring and encouraging those who trust Him. He came to redeem not to destroy. He shows us how to develop by the secret of unselfish devotion to the best, the art of finding life by losing it in the greater life. He sets us in cosmic proportions bringing life and immortality to light. He makes us able for victorious living and dying.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Fond dreams visioned more than a generation ago in Prince Rupert are today becoming gradually realized. Some of those who looked ahead still live—but the majority follow the long, long trail. It was their job to lick into shape a rough foundation and it's been done.

Viewing, as a member, the unfolding of parliamentary procedure at Ottawa next month, will be an entirely new experience for some who hold seats in that honored Chamber. It is years and years since so many will be finding themselves there for the first time. The member for Skeena will have company among the tyros.

You can discover the fall shooting season dates in Skeena by glancing in the Daily News. And right here is also the time and place to remind one that when he takes aim, it is highly advisable to be certain about what's being aimed at. To think you know is not good enough.

A theatre will be included in the new hotel building. The city can stand that much of an increase in local amusement sources. People appreciate the wines of France are flowing again and the streams are rich and plentiful. This may be

CHORISTER'S 71-YEAR RECORD

SHAMLEY GREEN, Surrey England — William Broomfield, 80, claims to be Britain's oldest chorister. For 71 years — first as nine-year-old treble, now as bass — he has sung in the choir at Shamley Green parish church, rarely missing a Sunday service. "I'm still going strong," he said "I can keep up with the best of them."

Your Child and School

FAULTY eyes are a serious handicap to growing youngsters, force them to undeserved slowness, dullness, when other children are quick, keen and sure.

Inefficient eyes should not be allowed to handicap their learning ability, to retard their development.

Approximate 25 per cent of school age children's eyes are found to be faulty, so plan now for their constant care.

Before school begins, give your child freedom to learn, easily and rapidly, without fatigue and nerve wearing eyestrain.

PLAY BALL

Indications that a break has taken place in the Merchant baseball dispute comes to light with the report that the manager and players have got together to find that their disagreement is not as critical as originally indicated.

Hopes that the Merchant team will not fall apart are brightened by Art Murrays announcement that he had reason to believe that all the players will have their differences ironed out by Sunday when the Merchants are scheduled to meet Savoy.

Savoy have their backs to the wall after Thursday's defeat by the Commercial. Another loss would leave only one game between first and last place teams, leaving the league virtually wide open for any team to hang up the flag.

When the teams meet on Sunday, both will have brand new fathers at first base. Ian Dunbar is the proud father of a future first-sacker while Joe Davis' offspring is a daughter. Joe says she will make a good wife for a next generation ball player.

FRENCH WINE PRODUCTS UP

PARIS — In spite of the summer's drought, French wine production in 1949 is likely to be higher than in any year since the end of the war.

The industry has so far recovered that production, now nearing the pre-war level, is today less a problem than its export and sale.

The alcoholic content of the 1949 crop is also likely to be above normal—an important factor for export because some foreign markets demand a high alcoholic content. Low alcoholic content was responsible for example, for reduced imports by Switzerland and Belgium last year.

France produced 1,474,000,000 gallons of wine and Algeria 374,000,000 gallons in an average pre-war year. But during the German occupation, production became so reduced that monthly ration of two bottles a person was instituted.

FOOTBALL—

Legion Wins Finest Game

Battery on Short End of 5 to 3 Score Last Night

Giving their best exhibition of the season, the Canadian Legion forward line yesterday evening scored five goals to enable the team to defeat the Heavy Battery five goals to three and so tie with the gunners in the leadership of the Mobley Cup Football League. The game itself provided football at its best with the Battery scoring two early goals and the last goal, but in between, the Legion scored five goals with the final result Canadian Legion five, Heavy Battery three.

Dawes headed away a long drive by James and then Krause saved from Vuckovich. Krause did well to save at full length from Pavlikis and Billy Gomez cleared well. Armstrong and Smith broke through but Morgan saved. From Ward's well taken corner Darrow Gomez headed in a picture goal. Billy Gomez centred well but Pavlikis shot just too high.

The Battery was pressing and, from Ward's centre, Vuckovich put his team two goals up. Dawes stopped Ward and D. Gomez at the expense of a corner and Krause felled Pavlikis. Sunberg cleared and Baxter crossed the ball with Murray and Armstrong combining well for Armstrong to beat Morgan with a great crossdrive. The Legion was now doing better and Baxter went right through only to have his inside men fall weakly. Then Ralph Smith forced his way through to score and tied the game.

Play was very fast and Krause was lucky when Parkhouse headed another of Ward's perfect corner kicks against the underside of the crossbar only to have it rebound into play. A cross by Vuckovich was just missed by Pavlikis who finished up in the net but without the ball. Halftime found the teams even two goals each.

The Legion replaced Dawes and Alexander with Bremner and Bowman. Morgan failed to clear after Baxter, Murray and Armstrong combined well and Bowman put the Legion ahead for the first time in the game. Both goalies were kept busy with Morgan cutting out a fine cross from Baxter, Murray and Greer put on a fine passing play. Pavlikis went close from D. Gomez' pass but the Legion went two goals up when Smith converted a fine cross from Baxter. Dunbar and Ferguson cleared well and then Morgan saved at full length but back came the Legion and Smith scored his third goal to make the score five to two. The Battery attacked strongly and Krause saved a fine shot from W. Gomez. Mazzone did well and Dunbar was very good but his forwards were stopped. In a fast Battery attack Eby handled the ball inside the penalty area and Darrow Gomez gave Krause absolutely no chance with a grand drive into the top corner to finish the scoring with the final result

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

Apples are known as a dependable "standby" to every Canadian housewife — for pies, sauces, puddings, up-side-down cakes, baking individually or in salads.

Each variety of apple has its own distinctive taste—sweet, mellow or tart. Since some apples are better suited for eating out of hand, and some for baking, care should be taken to select the best variety for the particular purpose. Yellow transparents, Greenings, Wolf River are good cooking apples. Delicious and Snow apples are marvelous eating varieties. McIntosh, Wealthy and Northern Spy are all-purpose apples. Fruit should be chosen that has good color, free from blemishes or bruises and firm to the touch.

Warm temperatures hasten the ripening process and apples lose their crispness and tangy flavor so they should be stored in the refrigerator or a cool, dry store-room. To prevent discoloration of peeled apples, place the slices as they are prepared in a bowl of cold water to which a little salt has been added. Home economists suggest the following recipes designed especially for apples. Applesauce

Sherbet has a cool apple flavor. Royal Apples makes an attractive and colorful dessert and Apple Cereal Pudding has a tasty crunchiness that will be a family favorite.

Applesauce Sherbet

2½ cups sieved, unsweetened applesauce
¼ cup white honey
Few grains salt
¼ to ½ cup sugar (to taste)
2 egg whites

Combine the applesauce, honey, salt and half the sugar, blending well. Beat egg whites until stiff, add remaining sugar gradually, beating until mixture stands in stiff peaks. Fold into applesauce mixture. Pour into tray of refrigerator and freeze, with refrigerator set at coldest point, until solid.

Yield: six servings.

Note: 8 medium apples and 1 cup water will make about 2½ cups applesauce.

ROYAL APPLES

6 apples
½ cup sugar
1½ cups water
Few drops red vegetable coloring
1 egg white
2 tablespoons sugar

Pare and core apples. Cook sugar, water and apple parings for 5 minutes. Remove parings and add red coloring to syrup. Add apples and cook very slowly until tender. Place the apples in a serving dish, cover with the syrup and cool. When thickened, garnish with a meringue made with the egg white and 2 tablespoons sugar. Brown meringue delicately in a moderately hot oven, 375 degrees F. Serve very cold. Yield: six servings.

APPLE CEREAL PUDDING

2 cups cornflakes OR 1½ cups bran or wheat flakes
2 cups sliced, peeled apples
½ cup brown sugar (firmly packed)
1 teaspoon cinnamon
2 tablespoons butter

Place a layer of cereal flakes in a well-greased casserole, then add a layer of thinly sliced apples. Sprinkle with a mixture of brown sugar and cinnamon and dot with part of the butter. Repeat, finishing with cereal flakes. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 350 degrees F., for 30 to 40 minutes. Serve warm or cold with cream. Yield: six servings.

FAMOUS MAT CHAMP RETIRES

REGINA—Regina's wrestling policeman, Sergeant Dan Matheson, has retired from the city police force. After 33 years of helping maintain law and order in the Queen City the burly, quiet sergeant with one of the most impressive records in Canadian wrestling history has hung up his uniform.

Sgt. Matheson was instrumental in bringing Regina 31 Canadian wrestling championships from 1923 to 1925 and again in 1931.

Almost as well known as his skill in the ring is his ability as a wrestling instructor. The most famous of his pupils is former British Empire amateur champion Earl McCready, who turned professional in 1939.

Until his retirement at 56, Sgt. Matheson instructed city police recruits in physical training. He also helped organize boxing and wrestling clubs in Regina.

POLE FINDS WIFE AFTER FIVE YEARS

BIRMINGHAM, Eng. 27—Fifty-year-old Pawel Kletke, now working in a Birmingham factory, is patiently awaiting a reunion with his wife, whom he last saw in Poland five years ago.

Until recently he believed she was dead.

Then the German Red Cross wrote that she had been located in Sulingen in the Bremen district of Germany.

"Any time now she'll be coming over to join me," Kletke said.

For a while after the German invasion of Poland in 1939, Pawel fought with the Polish Army. After the German occupation he worked in his home town. It was in 1944 that he last saw his wife, for he then became a member of a Polish division of the Russian Army.

When he got back to Lodz in 1945, Pawel's family had vanished. Neighbors said they believed his wife was dead and exhaustive inquiries failed to reveal her whereabouts.

Waterfront -- Whiffs

TUNA HOPES DWINDLING—EFFECTS OF EARTHQUAKE—ALASKA TRADE

Hopes for a profitable season of tuna fishing are dwindling. The fish are off the west of the Queen Charlotte Islands and in large numbers too, but so far there have been few caught. There is one exception, however, as 400 pounds have been landed at the Atlin Fisheries at Skidegate. But the future prospects seem dim.

The recent earthquake centering off Queen Charlotte Islands naturally is the subject of much discussion along the waterfront. At some places large waves were definitely noticed but there is no report that any damage was done anywhere. Some suggest that the antics of the quake may well have caused considerable mortality among the fish population, and may even have an adverse effect on the tuna fishing.

On one boat there was an unusual rumbling so the engine was thrown out of gear.

The rumbling continued and as the crew could find no way of accounting for the noise the engine was thrown back into gear and they continued on their way. They could hardly be expected to know that the noise had been made by the submarine earthquake.

At Skidegate, with his boat on the grid, the owner was more than puzzled by its strange behaviour. He was thankful that the tremors had not occurred with the tide a few feet higher or there could have been serious damage to the boat.

With the fog lifting on Thursday afternoon there was considerable activity around Cow Bay. Captain Tony Crawley and his ferry were kept busy transporting swimming enthusiasts to McNichol Creek as the sun broke through and shone brightly on the harbor. At the Yacht Club owners were busy getting their crafts under way, the different paint jobs that have kept the owners busy recently, showing to advantage. Engines were being tuned up and the air was filled with many rattles and crescendos and diminuendos as the engines responded more or less satisfyingly to the owners' efforts.

There is no spectacular activity along the waterfront at present but there is a great variety of shipping always going and coming. The tourist traffic is taxing passenger accommodation to its maximum, the regularly scheduled voyages being increased by special cruise groups.

At the Ocean Dock the arrivals of frozen and canned salmon from Alaska points are well maintained. Among arrivals this week were the MV Sidney, Captain Osmund Hendrickson with four carloads of salmon. The MV Dagney from Ketchikan had four cars of canned salmon to be transhipped east by rail. The Robert Eugene, Captain Fred M. Dahl, brought five cars of frozen fish from Sitka for the east.

In port with her regular barge P. T. and B. Co. 1597, the Seattle tug Shinn, Captain Otto H. Barkhausen, is loading fourteen cars of perishables for shipment to Haines where the cargo will be loaded into trucks and taken over the Haines cutoff and the Alaska Highway.

In the course of one of her routine voyages, Home Oil tanker Dynamic arrived in port Thursday afternoon to take on supplies of oil for the various camps in the district. Captained by Captain McCleese, she will continue south to Vancouver as she supplies the various camps on the way.

The tug Horseshoe operated by the Armour Salvage and Towing Co., under Captain Reg. Green, is assembling logs at McNichol Creek in preparation for the construction job at Balmoral where a government wharf is to be built for the snagboat Essington.

A large 16,000 gallon oil tank at present lying on the wharf is one of four that are being moved from Arrandale to Butedale. The four will be put in the water and taken in tow for installation at Butedale in the very near future.

Fank Waterhouse freighter Southholm, Captain William Gleeson, arrived in port on Thursday afternoon with a miscellaneous cargo including 50,000 feet of lumber for wharf construction and 25 tons of lime for the Silver Standard Mine at New Hazelton. The Southholm continued to Watson Island.

"Three generations from riches to poverty" is an age-old saying though not a very truthful one. But it might be properly applied to the shed that is being dismantled on the wharf near where the Naval Buildings were situated. It was at one time obtained by Max Asemisen to be used as a playhouse. The pressure of war activities resulted in its being converted into a tool shed and put to more practical uses. It has reached the third generation now and is being dismantled and in the course of being torn limb from limb is giving definite proof that it was constructed of sound timbers. It is resisting the breaking-up process stubbornly.

A packer that has not visited Prince Rupert for a long time is the New Laurel Manned by an entirely Canadian Chinese crew she arrived in port with a cargo of salmon for the Atlin Fish Co. from Ogden Channel. Generally the New Laurel works out of Vancouver.

Announcement is made from the local office of the Fisheries that sealing closed Friday night in this district except in the Whale Channel area.

The Cape Bala is in port standing by for a call from the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co for instructions for packing.

The Miss Jean, landed 50,000 cod with some halibut and sold to the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. Ltd.

The Cape Spencer with 21,000 pounds of cod sold to the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative Association.

Fiddle Fish Bring Luck to Fishermen

FLEETWOOD, Lancashire
Eng. — Fleetwood's fishing fleet caught some fiddle fish, the first landed here in 10 years. Fiddle fish are four feet long and shaped like a violin. You can't eat them but they're lucky. So the fishermen attach them to ropes and hang them over the stern. They'll be towed behind the vessel that caught them—for luck.
