British Ships In United States Ports Boycotted

Reprisal Measures Taken Against Dock Workers' Refusal In Old Country

MONTREAL (CP)—Hal C. Banks, international representative of the Seafarers' International Union (S.I.U.), said today that all British ships in eastern United States ports will be boycotted starting tonight in reprisal against refusal of British dock workers to work Canadian vessels.

"They want desperate action and they'll get it," Banks said. "There are more than 3,500 British ships docked along the Atlantic seaboard and the Maritime Council have as the Seafarers' Union that boycott will be observed." Banks, official of the Canadian Seafarers' Union dubbed the boycott an "attempt at dictation by the American Federation of Labor."

Death Is Mystery

Japanese Railway Chief Murdered or Did He Commit Suicide?

OTAWA — Did President Mori Shimoyama of the Japanese Railway Corporation commit suicide or was he murdered? The question today brought forth a variety of opinions. The most of occupation Japanese authorities felt Shimoyama was slain. The railway chief disappeared after ordering the first 30,000 of railway workers to be arrested. He was following an order by General Douglas MacArthur, Supreme Allied Commander, to ease the cost of occupation to the Americans. Shimoyama's dismembered body was found scattered along a railway track. Its condition was such that it was difficult to determine whether he had been killed and the body placed on the track, was left there unconsciously or had ended his life by the wheels of a train.

STREET CAR FARE BOOST

VANCOUVER — The British Columbia Electric Railway Co. yesterday applied for an increase in street car and bus fares from three tickets for 25c to 10c straight cash fare. Dal Grauer, president of the company, gave reasons for the increase, including losses incurred by the transportation section of the company, accentuated by recent increases, as the reason for higher fares being required. The increase does not apply to Victoria and New Westminster for the time being at least.

VISIT OVERSEAS

MONTREAL—R. C. Vaughn, G. chairman and president of the Canadian National Railway left here last night en route to Great Britain and the Continent. He will sail from New York on Thursday in the Queen Mary.

He will discuss immigration and other matters with many officers abroad and call on the leaders of industries with which the Canadian National does business on a large scale.

PRODUCTION AT NEW HIGH

OTTAWA — Canada's production set a peace-time record in April, the Dominion bureau of statistics announced today. The index for production hit 187.2 for April, compared with the previous peace-time record high in December, 1948 of 185.8. The index is based on the 1935-39 level of 100. Increased production of durable goods is primarily responsible for the increase, with the sub-index for transportation equipment moving from 252.5 in March to 266.7 in April, said the bureau.

PENAL GUINEAPIG

This Sing Sing prisoner, recently gave 18 pints of blood in a futile attempt to save an eight-year-old girl from dying of leukemia. He is Louis Boy, 49, native of Sicily. He is now being tested weekly to determine if he contracted the dread blood disease in his voluntary effort to save the child who died June 10. Boy is serving a life sentence for complicity in the death of John T. Moore in a garage robbery. His death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment by the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, then New York governor. In 1942, Boy helped medical experts test the effectiveness of atabrine as a malaria treatment, and in 1943 he volunteered to test an influenza medicine.

POLICE SEEK SLAYER OF NATIVE MOTHER

LILLOOET — Police today sought the mysterious slayer who shot down Mrs. William Thom, 45-year-old mother of 13 children as she worked in the garden of her home on an Indian reserve.

The unknown killer pumped a bullet, believed to be a .22 calibre, into her head as her 10-year-old son, Francis, worked near her Tuesday morning. Two of the Indian woman's children rode seven miles on horseback to report the slaying to police here.

Police are investigating two possible motives—robbery and a dispute over irrigation reserve property. Mrs. Thom may have had as much as $5,000 in the house, relatives said. She was planning to purchase a farm.

GOV'T BLAMES C.S.U. EXECUTIVE

Official Statement Made at Ottawa in Regard to Seamen's Strike

OTTAWA — The deputy minister of labor, Arthur McNamara, yesterday made public an official letter to Harry Davis, president of the Canadian Seamen's Union, and T. G. McManus, secretary, placing on them and their "associates" responsibility for the "disastrous" seamen's east coast strike and suggesting that, since the strike had failed anyway, it should be called off at once. Mr. McNamara promised that, if this was done, the department would still use its good offices with the employers on behalf of the seamen.

Mr. McNamara charged the C.S.U. with endeavoring to place the responsibility for the strike elsewhere than where it really belonged. The letter pinning the responsibility for the strike on the "red-tinted" C.S.U. executive, was dated June 27 and was in reply to one from the C.S.U. executive offering a four-point proposal for settling the strike.

GAS CONTROL IS CHALLENGED

EDMONTON — Hope of a quick and easy passage of the Alberta government's legislation to control export of natural gas dimmed yesterday as Opposition members served notice that they will fight it to the last ditch. The six-man Opposition yesterday staged a three-hour marathon of criticism as two major export bills came up for second reading in a special session of the Legislature. Led by C.C.F. Chief Elmer Roper, the Opposition attack was climaxed by a proposal from J. Harper Prowse, Liberal leader, that the government submit the question of natural gas export to the people.

FRASER LAKE MILL BURNED

FRASER LAKE—A $60,000 fire almost completely destroyed the Fraser Lake Sawmills Ltd. plant here yesterday. Only a couple of small buildings remain. It was the industrial mainstay of this community.

POLICE PROBE MONEY LOSS

The complaint was laid by John Waver, owner of the boat. The money was reported to have been kept in a cash box aboard the boat and to have disappeared during a brief absence of the owner.

OSLAND MAN SUCCUMBS HERE

The death occurred in hospital here Tuesday of Frederick August Kristmanson, a resident of Osland for almost 30 years. He was 78 years old. Born at Dalsislu, Iceland, Mr. Kristmanson came to Canada in 1903, settling at Winnipeg where he lived for four years. In 1907 he moved to Lundar, Manitoba, where he took up farming. He remained there until 1920 when he moved to Osland with his family. At the Skeena River settlement, he was a salmon fisherman. Married in Iceland shortly before coming to Canada, he is survived by his wife Mrs. Ellin Kristmanson, in Prince Rupert. (Continued on page 4)

CAREER AS AIRLINE STEWARDESS TAKES AUSSIE GIRL TO FAR PLACES

Flying may be a convenience or a pleasure for most people but to 24-year-old Elizabeth Brewis, stewardess on Canadian Pacific Air Line's Prince Rupert-Sandspit flight, it is a career which she has pursued half way across the world—and one that she hopes to continue for many years. A brunette with a smile that is not only a personal characteristic but a definite company asset, Miss Brewis is on temporary duty at Prince Rupert waiting the time when she can join that select group of other Australian and Canadian girls who will attend to the safety and comfort of passengers on C.P.A.'s future scheduled trans-Pacific flights.

She had no idea when she started as a stewardess with Australian National Airways in April, 1946, that she would wind up in Central British Columbia but, if she had known, she would not have been disturbed. "To me, flying and seeing the world meant the same thing. I find this part of the world very interesting," she says.

The differences between her native Australia and Canada are considerable but, in one respect, they are a distinct let-down. One of her genuine thrills last Christmas was to see the first snow in her life at Vancouver, knowing that her countrymen to the south were sweltering under 100 degree heat. It was the language that was the let-down. When she left Australian National Airways in

Statement By Sir Stafford

Further Commitments In Dollar Areas Banned

LONDON (CP)—Talks between finance ministers of Canada and Great Britain here on Saturday may be more important than the meeting of Commonwealth finance ministers on June 13. Canada and France are the two countries most precariously balanced between the sterling and United States dollar areas.

In the present crisis Great Britain could immediately relieve her dollar plight by defaulting her Canadian bulk contracts for wheat, cheese, bacon and timber. She could then get these goods from the United States with Marshall Plan dollars instead of from Canada with her own dollars.

Sir Stafford Cripps, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, today banned further commitments for purchases in the dollar area except where "urgent national interest" is proven. He reported that the sterling area's reserves are down to $1,624,000,000 after dropping radically in the last six months—but he said Britain has "not the slightest intention of devaluing the pound."

Existing contracts for dollar area purchases will stay in force, Sir Stafford told the House of Commons, but the treasury will permit further spending only "where a clear case of urgent national interest is established."

The Chancellor said that Britain must reduce the prices of her products to encourage exports. He said that this can be done through efficiency of production and "we have no desire to see wages cut." The "standstill" in the dollar buying which Sir Stafford ordered will continue at least until September. By then E.R.P. (European Recovery Plan) funds for the coming year will have been distributed and a new scheme of payments among European countries will be in effect.

The Chancellor said that diminishing exports to the United States were the main reason for the drain on Britain's reserves.

LIBERAL WIN IS CONFIRMED

VANCOUVER — Election of Thomas Goode, Liberal, as member of Parliament for the new riding of Burnaby-Richmond was confirmed today when Returning Officer M. H. Reigh made his official count. Burnaby-Richmond was the one British Columbia constituency which was left in doubt following last week's election. On election night Mr. Goode was shown to have a small majority. The next day it was indicated that Mrs. Dorothy Steeves, CCF, had a small margin. Then another count showed Mr. Goode to be back in the lead again. The final count confirmed his election.

Victory of J. A. Byrne, Liberal, in Kootenay East was also finally established by an official count. His majority is 92 over Rev. J. H. Matthews who held the seat for the CCF in last parliament. Official counts also changed the results in two Saskatchewan ridings. In Regina, J. O. Probe, CCF candidate for re-election, won over E. A. McCusker, Liberal, whom first count indicated had scored a victory in Melford. P. E. Wright, CCF was re-elected over T. R. McNutt, Liberal, who was at first believed to have defeated him.

A New Dispute

SOMETHING new has been added in the way of disputes between boat operators and salmon fishermen. The latter are demanding that, no matter who owns the boats, the seining crews should be permitted to sell the catches to the highest bidders.

Here is a point which we can see will, indeed, be difficult of obtaining agreement upon as far as the owners are concerned. The general conception of the privileges and rights of private ownership of property and the disposition of the revenues therefrom are certainly involved.

The men themselves must feel that they were being done really badly by when they resort to such lengths as this as the grounds of dispute.

VERSATILE POLITICIAN

THE FEDERAL ELECTION has taken place but that fact need not discourage comment. Says the Windsor Star: "Conservatives did not enter candidates in Skeena and Cariboo held by Harry Archibald and William Irvine for the C.C.F. Mr. Irvine is the only member who has sat under three different party labels, for three different constituencies, in two different provinces and in four different parliaments."

SEXUAL INCONGRUITY

A FEW DECADES AGO it might have been a source of gratification to the dominant male to survey the results of an election which had wiped out participation in Commons by women members, comments the Victoria Times whose editorial writer is Harry Hodges, wife of Nancy Hodges, Victoria M.L.A. Sober reflection of the situation created by polling can furnish no similar sentiments. This implies no criticism of the electors. They chose the candidates they wished—albeit nominating conventions left them scant choice between sexes. But in this so-called enlightened age, it would seem that a greater number of feminine voices should be raised in debate at Ottawa.

It is a little incongruous that of the 262 representatives of about 13,000,000 people, approximately equally divided by sex, not one is a woman.

Canadian women parliamentarians have enjoyed, for the most part, a distinguished record, regardless of party. Their contributions to the discussion of vital matters have been in no way impaired by undue femininity. They have demonstrated their right to respect in a land which has long granted to them full political equality.

Vital as is woman's contribution to the home, there are many whose particular qualifications merit expression in a less restricted forum.

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Sweden's first athletic postage stamp will be issued in connection with an international gymnastic festival to be held here this summer. The stamp which depicts a male and a female gymnast, will be slightly larger than that of ordinary Swedish stamps now in circulation.

The average age of top-ranking Hollywood male movie stars is 40 years; the women average 32. They say.

AIRLINE STEWARDESS

recalled. "I calculated that I would have to wait six years before it was my turn to enter, so I took out a six-month visitors' visa just to look around."

She visited Los Angeles, Phoenix, and Houston, Texas where she acquired a southern drawl which, she hopes, still lingers amid her Australian speech. At Houston and Los Angeles, she took a familiarization course with Pan American but, seeing no hope of permanent employment with the company, she contacted C.P.A. last June. In September, she arrived in Vancouver.

Although she is not a registered nurse, she finds that this does not hamper her in her career as a stewardess. Nursing qualifications were not required on Australian National, nor were they necessary on Pan-American routes. However, when she first applied to C.P.A., the ruling was in effect. Later it was relaxed.

Apparently when C.P.A. begins its trans-Pacific services to the Orient and antipodes, the big North Star planes will carry two stewardesses—one a nurse and one a non-nurse. One of her ambitions is to drop in casually on her mother in Melbourne sometime just as she used to do when she was flying with Australian National.

"I used to get to Melbourne about once a month. I would drop in on my mother unannounced, much to her delight. It got so that, if she were going out, she would leave a note, just in case I arrived."

However, she doubts if she can be so casual about it this time, after a two-year absence. Elizabeth's father, a veteran of the First World War, was killed on the island of Timor, fighting the Japanese in the Second World War.

When she gets back to Vancouver after her temporary tour of duty here, she plans to look up another Australian girl, Margaret Linehan, who is also to be a C.P.A. overseas stewardess. The world is big, it seems, even for air-line stewardesses, but not so big that one cannot run into an old friend in far places. Elizabeth and Margaret once worked together for Australian National "down under."

Marriage? Not for a lo-o-ong time. "That would upset my career."

"Oh, and there's just one more thing. Can Charlie come over and hang a few pictures for me? Ed just can't drive a nail."

Ray Reflects . . . and Reminisces

The Toronto Star, quoting a biologist, says the liver and not the heart is the true seat of the affections. It must be something like that because the idea has been heard of before. Indeed, a columnist once indulged in the following parody: "Maid of Athens, ere we sever. Give, oh, give me back my liver!"

One cannot see why the heart should be the whole works. W. L. MacKenzie King, having looked on his work and seeing it was good, has finally retired to his private residence in Ottawa, taking with him a sense of satisfaction and a vast content. In this mellow mood, perhaps he will sit down and tell us the story of his life.

Once it becomes known for a fact that an aluminum plant will be built on the B. C. coast—as seems probable—it will be needless to wait years before seeing actual production. Once it becomes a certainty vast outlay and large-scale employment will awaken scenic solitudes around Tweedsmuir Park and Kitimat, this part of Canada will respond to the enterprise that means so much.

Four youths direct from Paris bitten by midsummer insect pests, lean, tanned and hardened, are paddling their way from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico. By this time, they have left Ottawa River behind. They belong to the Rover Scouts, and have set out to follow, in two canoes, the route of Father Marquette, the missionary who 276 years ago, braving the unknown, fared forth from Three Rivers, Quebec to discover the mighty Mississippi and follow that historic stream down its 4,500 miles. The young men are Jean Raspail, writer; Yves Korondeau, painter; Philip Andrieu, scenario writer and Jacques Bouchariat, photographer and insurance agent. A worthwhile hazard, an outing like that. The boys won't meet any red men (but will see thousands of Reds), hoist any flag, or try to convert anyone. But they will become much better acquainted with North America by the time they again behold Paris.

It was on Dominion Day when Prince Rupert was young many a new-comer first realized that away up north so far from any other settled point in Canada, not only were there costly band instruments but also capable bandsmen and handsome uniforms. It came, with obvious astonishment, to discover organizations, so colorful and talented taking an important part in the celebration. Parades and processions were staged almost before there were streets to march on.

PILGRIMAGE TO HURONIA

Martyrdom of Five Priests in Indian War to be Recalled

MIDLAND, Ont.—Descendants of the victors and vanquished in the sanguinary Iroquois conquest of Huronia, three centuries ago this year, will meet at the martyr's shrine for a special Indian pilgrimage this week-end to commemorate the memories of the five Jesuit missionaries who were martyred by the Iroquois during the obiteration of the Huron nation.

Rev. T. J. Lally, director of the shrine, announced that the famous Iroquois choir of mixed voices from Caughnawaga near Montreal, will participate in their ceremonial costumes. Together with the Algonquin Ojibways of Manitoulin Island in their picturesque tribal dress.
Many other Ojibways, whose ancestors lived along the boundaries of Huronia and in the thirty thousand islands of Georgian Bay but were thrust westward by the Iroquois to Lake Superior district, will come from Long Lac on the Canadian National Transcontinental Line, Nipigon and other points to the head of the Great Lakes.

One of the outstanding commemoration ceremonies will be a pilgrimage over the old Huron Trail from the mission village of St. Louis, where Fathers John De Brebeuf and Abriel Lale-mant were captured and taken to St. Ignace, three miles away, there to meet martyrdom under terrible torture on March 16, 1649.

C. M. Brown, of Winnipeg, regional auditor, Canadian National Railways, arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert this afternoon from Vancouver. They will leave on tonight's train for the east.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kenkel and daughter, Elizabeth, of Montreal are visitors in the city today making the round trip on the Prince Rupert. Mr. Kenkel is assistant to N. B. Walton, executive vice president, Canadian National Railways.

APPLEWHITE LEAD IS 1682

Only Two Small Polls Unreported—Official Count
July 28

According to an official check
by Returning Officer Rod Mc-Leod, the result of the federal election in Skeena riding stands at:

E. T. Applewhite, Liberal 5855.

H. G. Archibald, C. C. F., 4173.
Applewhite majority, 1682.
These figures include the advance, polls and service vote.
Two small polls remain to be heard from and are not accounted for in these figures.
They are Larsen's Harbor and Pendleton Bay. The final official count is set for July 28.

THE WINNER—The 14-pound coho salmon on Ronnie Hunt's left pulled the eight-year-old youngster into the river three times before Ronnie finally landed it without assistance. Ronnie made the catch on the Bulkley River at Telkwa, 240 miles east of Prince Rupert. Ronnie had no hand in pulling in the "little fellow" on his right, a seven-pound steelhead caught by a Uni-

BASEBALLERS BRING BACK HOOP TROPHY

Prince Rupert's all-star baseball team didn't do anything to embarrass their Ketchikan opponents during their Independence Day raid on the northern city, but nevertheless, team manager Alex Bill brought back a memento. It was a huge gold-plated trophy, said to be valued at $150 and it had nothing to do with baseball although it did have a personal meaning for Mr. Bill.

The trophy, donated by the First National Bank of Ketchikan, was for the Booth Memorial High School Rainmakers Basketball team which won the annual hoop series from Ketchikan last spring. The trophy was not ready after Bo-Me-Hi won the series, so it was sent with the baseball team which returned here Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Bill's connection with it? Well, he happened to be coach-manager of the Bo-Me-Hi hoop team, too.

The return of the local team from Ketchikan permits a resumption of the city league schedule tomorrow night with the fixture between the first place Savoy and the runner-up Commercial.

case takes up five minutes at a home.

A circle is drawn about eight inches in diameter, with lines across it marked A-B, X-Y, D-E, or any similar combination. The "patient" then takes a pen or pencil and ties a string nine inches long to it with a small weight on the end—say a 10-cent piece. The weight is held over the centre spot without a rest for the arm. If a line, say A-B, is thought of, the coin is supposed to move directly along it. The same goes for any other combination, including around the circle. The theory is that the exercise may affect subconscious as well as conscious control of golf strokes. As for the coin, it did move for one reporter, but it failed for two others. But then, whatever the converse, golfers aren't reporters.

and four sons and one daughter. The sons are Barney, Arthur and Daniel of Prince Rupert and Jonas of Vancouver. The daughter, Mrs. Johanna Adelstein, lives in Iceland.

Deceased had been ill for several months and had spent the last six months in hospital. While living in Manitoba, he had been an active member of the Good Templars Lodge.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

FISH INFRACTION CHARGE DROPPED

A charge laid under the fisheries regulations was dismissed by Magistrate W. D. Vance in city police court after he had ruled that the court had no jurisdiction over the case because the infraction was alleged to have occurred outside Canadian territorial waters.

The charge was laid against Walter Lundigan, skipper of the halibut boat Gosnell, who was accused of fishing in a restricted halibut nursery area off Tow Hill last May 25. The place was about nine miles off the northeast coast of the Queen Charlottes and, therefore, beyond the territorial limits.

The charge was dropped at request of defence counsel, T. W. Brown, who claimed that the case was outside the jurisdiction of the court.

Rod MacLeod appeared for the Department of Fisheries, which laid the charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morin returned to the city today from Vancouver where Mrs. Morin has been recovering from an injury received several months ago in the south. Mr. Morin went south last week to accompany her home.

Transferred to Regina after having been stationed here for the past two and a half years, Alan Matheson of the Canadian National Railways city passenger office is leaving on this evening's train for his new post on the prairies. His successor here will be T. J. Gorman who is expected from Regina Saturday night.

HARRISON WINS—Dutch Harrison, the ambling giant from Little Rock, Arkansas, won the Canadian Open Golf championship by the simple process of clipping strokes off par. Harrison shot 271 for the 72 holes over St. George's golf course, Toronto, to win $2,000 top prize money and the Seagram Gold cup. Harrison, for the full distance was 17 strokes under par (which is 72) and four better than Jim Ferrier of Chicago. Ferrier finished with 275 for second prize of $1,400. The best display by a Canadian was that of Bill Kerr of Montreal, who ended up in a three-way tie at 277 for third place.

CONFESSES TO DUAL SLAYING

SONOMA, Cal. (C)—Henry Brun Gulbrandsen, an ex-convict, surrendered last night and admitted to the police that he killed two men yesterday in California's idyllic Valley of the Moon country.

He denied however, that he raped a woman who accused him of that crime. The woman, screaming and hysterical, ran to a group of picnics clad only in a blood-spattered shirt to tell them of the slayings.

Gulbrandsen contacted the editor of a Sonoma newspaper who sent a reporter to a saloon where Gulbrandsen told his story. He later repeated it to the editor and the reporter who called the police.

Modern Etiquette

Q. When wedding gifts are displayed, should the cards of the donors be attached?

A. No. The bride-elect or some member of her family should make a list of the gifts with the names of the persons sending them before removing the card. This is to enable the bride to acknowledge them. Of course, the best procedure for the bride to follow is to write her note of thanks as each gift is received.

Q. Which is the more formal closing to a letter, "Yours very truly" or "Yours very sincerely"?

A. "Yours very truly."

Q. Is it improper to eat the lettuce upon which a salad is served?

A. Inclination may guide a person in this. He may or may not eat his lettuce, as he wishes.

MINERS' COAL ALLOWANCE

GLASGOW, Scotland (C)—Scottish coal miners will receive a free allowance of nine tons of coal a year, the Scottish Coal Board decided. That is, unless they get free battis at the pithead. In that case they'll get only seven tons of coal.

Sport Shots

Here's a cure for nervous golfers. A British specialist says he has a process to eradicate golfers' fitters not just for a week or two but probably for good. He says that sinking feeling a player gets as he approaches a four-foot put is as easy to beat as finding a bunker. The treatment doesn't take much time—just twice a week for 45 minutes a time. He says that although there's no hypnotism or psychiatry attached it's based on the old Coue business.

The nerve-wracked golfer lies down comfortably on a couch. For a short space he gazes at a dim light to induce drowsiness. Then the "master" takes one of the golfer's hands. Without a word spoken he works on the subconscious mind for about 30 minutes. An additional exer-

News of Francois Lake

Miss Evelyn Antilla spent a few days with her brother, Wallace, and Mrs. Antilla at the forestry residence at Southbank. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Thain, George Rudderham, and C. E. Mayo, and Mrs. Winnie Black, all of Prince Rupert.

Dr. and Mrs. B. M. Fahrni and young Christopher are spending a few days at the Landing, also Alex Kean, all of Vancouver.

On Tuesday the new ferry went on schedule for the first time and crosses the lake in about eleven minutes. Now there are no trucks and cars waiting for one trip to the next. The engineers are W. Corner and B. Kirby.

A needed rain came on Monday and, if it gets warmer, the growth will start. At present things are almost a standstill, it being so cold.

Most people think that pigs cannot or will not swim unless forced. A young pig, belonging to the Tweed Ranch, wandered around the bay and was found in some of Nicholson's buildings. When started off for home, instead of running around, he simply stroled into the lake and swam across the bay, about a quarter of a mile.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers Phillips and two children arrived on Friday from Vancouver to spend the next two weeks on holiday with Mr. and Mrs. George McAdams, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Phillips. Mr. and Mrs. McAdams drove to Prince Rupert to meet them and took them out to their cottage at Lakelse Lake for a few days.

GAME HEADS AT TERRACE

Young People Prominent in Terrace Rod and Gun Club

TERRACE—There was a good turnout of young people at Thursday night's meeting of the Terrace Rod and Gun Club but disappointment was expressed at the pathetic attitude of the adults who displayed such little interest. The financial importance of fish and game matters from a tourist angle has been well recognized and it was hoped that more adults would attend the meetings.

The meeting was called for the local sportsmen to meet Commissioner Cunningham of the British Columbia Fish and Game Commission and Inspector Gill, head game warden of the province, James Bacon, past president of the Prince Rupert Rod and Gun Association, accompanied by Mrs. Bacon, was also present.

Commissioner Cunningham complimented the executive on the large attendance of the young boys. It was brought out that a $7 license for angling has been levied this year and the game license for non-residents remains at $25. Special attention was drawn to the fact that the local $1 angling license is used exclusively for the building of fish hatcheries.

Willow grouse is definitely on the increase and there will be an open season of two weeks this year, Mr. Cunningham announced. Forms for keeping track of game kill will be issued and these may later become mandatory as scientists working for the Game Commission must have this information.

The Commissioner stated that the local club members should work through their own member, Hon. E. T. Kenney, in connection with wild life matters as he had always been most willing to co-operate to the utmost in these matters.

Mr. Bacon spoke on the necessity of close co-operation between all the Rod and Gun clubs in this zone.

Films on fish hatcheries and on American wild life were shown to open and close the meeting.

CEDARVALE'S FIRST TEACHER IS BACK AGAIN

J. A. Wilson, globe-trotting school teacher, who started the first school at Cedarvale thirty years ago after World War I and is back there again in a similar capacity, is a visitor in the city to receive minor surgical treatment at the Prince Rupert General Hospital. A veteran of two world wars in both of which he served with the Imperial forces, Mr. Wilson, after spending his first year at Cedarvale many years ago, moved to southern British Columbia but the wanderlust caught him and he found himself in Australia. Home again in England for the second war, he taught in the schools of Hull, England, before returning to Canada to end up again in Cedarvale two years ago.

"I always liked this part of the country," said Mr. Wilson yesterday, "and that's why I'm back." Asked if he was married, Mr. Wilson merely chuckled and observed: "I could not have done all this moving about if I had been."

Mr. Wilson drove in on Monday with Morris Dahlquist.

CELEBRATION AT STEWART

Crowning of Miss Joan McKay as Queen is Feature of Dominion Day

STEWART—Rain, accompanied by a cold wind, did not dampen the enthusiasm of the residents of the district as they turned out in large numbers to witness the crowning of Miss Joan McKay, Moose candidate, as Dominion Day Queen. Accompanied by her attendants, Miss Betty Behnsen, Canadian Legion, and Miss Shirley Lawrence, Parent Teachers, train bearers Bobby Norton and Terry Stewart, and flower girls Peggy and Lottie Walker, Pat Nelson, Margaret MacLeod, Daphne Woodford and Ann Morrison, the queen-elect proceeded to the steps of the Court House where the retiring queen, Mrs. J. Bouzek, transferred the crown from her own head to that of Queen Joan.

W. D. Smith, M.L.A., made appropriate introductory remarks. After the ceremony the procession proceeded to the Canadian Legion club rooms where tea was served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather only a few sports events could be held. The shot put was won by Felix Hunger of Premier with Johnny Hahti of Stewart coming a close second. Hitting the Dummy, a ladies' affair, was won by Violet Manojlovich. The nail driving contest, ladies only, was won by Mrs. A. Manojlovich. The 100 yards was won by Violet Manojlovich with Johnny Kustas fighting all the way to make second place. The sack race was won easily by Ross Stewart, the other competitors falling by the wayside.

A dance at the Legion Hall in the evening climaxed a very successful day. Music for the dance was supplied by Mrs. L. A. Behnsen, Mrs. H. Stewart and Mrs. W. J. Crawford on the piano, Sam Kirkpatrick on the violin, and Bob Hutchings, Louis Behnsen and W. S. Orr on the traps. W. J. Wakefield was master of ceremonies. John Bouzek, Lou Behnsen and James Garlick took charge of the proceedings. The Women's Auxiliary took care of the training of the flower girls and the Queen and her attendants. The refreshments were also in their care.

WEALTHY CANINE—"Rip," nine-year-old wire haired terrier, was one of Canada's wealthiest dogs. When Mrs. Marguerite Ethel Spratt died in 1946 her will provided for a $75 a month to care for her pet until his death. The will provided "Rip" should sleep in her bedroom and be bathed in her bathroom by a registered nurse. For this the nurse was to receive $1,000 a year and $5,000 when the dog died. The nurse became seriously ill so that the executors have ruled "Rip" went to a kennel. On his death he was buried in the garden of the Spratt estate which is going to be sold. (C. P. Photo)

Q. How can I prevent cracking of patent leather?
A. Olive oil, glycerine, or sweet oil rubbed over the surface of patent leather occasionally will prevent it from cracking.

Q. How can I make a substitute for cream of tartar?
A. When mixing cake that calls for cream of tartar, a good substitute is buttermilk. If the buttermilk is not sour enough, add a little vinegar.

Q. Are short or tall candles preferable for the dinner table?
A. Tall candles are preferable, as they bring the light above the level of the eyes and produce a soft glow on the faces.

"Tap Roots" at Capitol Theatre Starting Thursday

Hailed as an outstanding technicolor drama, "Tap Roots," which co-stars Van Heflin and Susan Hayward, and has Boris Karloff in the leading featured role, will open Thursday at the Capitol Theatre. Scenarized from James Street's novel of the same name, "Tap Roots" is a saga of the independent Dabney clan of Lebanon County which fled from Mississippi prior to the Civil War.

Van Heflin, as Keith Alender, a renegade newspaper publisher, falls in love with Miss Hayward, and for this reason alone joins her in their rebellion. Heflin's famous dueling pistols are feared by any man who crosses him. The beautiful, red-haired Miss Hayward, gives her love to two men and, in keeping with the times, lives for the hour. Karloff, as a Choctaw Indian, whose bullwhip is as deadly as Heflin's dueling pistol, is a friend of the family.

Among the supporting players, Julie London has the role of Miss Hayward's younger sister, Ward Bond is seen as their stubborn and defiant father. Richard Long plays the hot-headed younger brother.

With action centered on Lebanon County in Mississippi, the story of "Tap Roots" begins in 1860. When Mississippi secedes from the Union, Lebanon County becomes a free and independent community.

Dramatic incidents which follow, including Lebanon County's furious but futile conflict with the might and millions of the Confederacy.
