LIBERALS COME BACK

Saskatchewan Government Back With Decreased Majority

REGINA, (CP)—The C.C.F. government of Premier T. C. Douglas was returned to office in Saskatchewan yesterday with a majority slashed by a strong Liberal come-back. The vote was the heaviest recorded in provincial history despite an intermittent drizzle which mired the country back-roads.

In 30 of 50 seats, the C.C.F. were returned. Liberals took 13 seats from the government to elect 18 members.

One of four Liberal-Progressive - Conservative candidates were re-elected.

The standing today compared with 1944 is as follows:
C.C.F. 30 (47).
Liberals 18 (5).
Liberal Progressive-Conservative 1 (0).
Doubtful 1 (0).
Deferred 2 (1).
Total 52 (52).

Ten per cent of the estimated 520,000 voters were those between 18 and 21 years of age, voting for the first time in a Canadian election. The final total recorded vote may hit 500,000.

No Social Credit or Progressive - Conservative candidates were elected and the leaders of both were defeated.

Both Premier T. C. Douglas and Liberal Leader Walter Tucker won handily.

Two cabinet ministers—Resources Minister J. L. Phelps and Welfare Minister O. W. Valleau—lost to Liberal candidates.

The 46-year-old governor won the nomination on the third ballot by a unanimous vote of 1,094 victory confident delegates to the party convention.

Dewey led from the start sprinting ahead of a pack of rivals through one ballot in the afternoon, picking up power in the second, then defying competitors to figure any way of catching him during a 2 1/2 hour recess.

The rival candidates were Senator Robert Taft of Ohio, who

Board Set-Up Between Restaurant Operators and Waitresses

A three-man arbitration board will sit here in the near future in an attempt to settle a dispute between the Prince Rupert Waitresses' Union and the restaurant operators involving demands for union security and provision for statutory holidays by the employers' group.

The dispute has been dragging on for several months. William Fraser, provincial government conciliator, made an unsuccessful attempt to settle it during a visit here some time ago.

Date on which the board will sit has not yet been set, Mr. Nickerson said this morning.

No request for increased wages is involved in the dispute.

Saskatchewan

IT WAS NEVER seriously expected that the C.C.F. government would be turned out in yesterday's provincial general election in Saskatchewan. The most noteworthy feature of the result is the very substantial comeback which the Liberal party has staged, now winning eighteen seats whereas it had only five in the last House while the government's number of seats is reduced from 47 to thirty. Possibly the Liberals would have done better had it not been for the Progressive-Conservatives, who have long been almost a political nonentity in the province, and the Social Crediters who were unable to elect a single candidate. It is to be noted that the Socialists, whereas they had a substantial majority of the popular vote, have but 48 percent now.

The C.C.F.'ers won their re-election fairly and squarely and will feel satisfied over the result although they have nothing to boast about. It was certainly no enthusiastic renewal of mandate.

DEWEY, PRESIDENT?

GOVERNOR THOMAS E. DEWEY, as winner of the Republican nomination at the national convention in Philadelphia yesterday, should, according to all prognostications, be the next President of the United States. If ever there was a political certainty, it appears to be this. That was why there was more than usual international interest in the outcome of the convention proceedings.

From the international standpoint, Dewey is so far to large extent an uncertain quantity. He has been a good governor of New York, apparently, and his record as district attorney before assuming gubernatorial office showed him to be a courageous and fearless personality. He has youth on his side and appears to be solid and steady-going. He certainly cannot be called a political midget although he may never figure among the presidential greats such as it might have been good for United States to have in these momentous days.

WHY THE MYSTERY?

PRINCE RUPERT still awaits with interest news regarding the disposal of the former United States Army port installations here about which we were to have heard something weeks ago but information on which appears to be still deferred. There may be nothing much we can do about it but their future disposition is a matter of keen interest here in view of the possibility that they might be used in future port development.

Meantime, the feeling is growing that some definite statement should be forthcoming on the matter, particularly since we have made so many courteous inquiries. There are some who view the long silence and refusal to give information with some skepticism if not anxiety. Why everything should be so secret appears difficult to understand.

WILLING TO WORK OR FIGHT—It is common procedure for the shotgun or rifle to form partnership with the hoe in the Galilee area of Israel. For the young farmers here are girl members of Haganah who farm their crops while remaining ready to fight at a moment's notice. The land they till may become a battlefield at any moment. This area of the new state has been reported attacked by Syrian troops.

Reminiscences and Reflections

By W.J.

Speaking of Dewey, there was a fellow of that name who went on a sight-seeing tour back in the early summer of 1898. Happening to be sojourning for a while in Hong Kong, he took a notion to visit the port of Manila, in the Philippine Islands. He introduced himself and his friends publicly and became quite well known.

Edmonton is to rejoice in a six million dollar hotel, according to a recent announcement. The Bessborough at Saskatoon is a pretty nifty caravansary too. But it cannot be said either city can provide the best of salmon fishing, scenic drives, the ocean and a comfortable climate the whole year round. These are found in another city a thousand miles or so further west.

Floods crippled regularly in the mail service but you can't have it your own way all the time. Suppose it had been your happy fortune to dwell in Prince Rupert back in 1908? Then there was one boat a week, taking care of everything, including the mails. In winter, Barney Mulvaney's dog team padded over the Skeena River ice. Prince Rupert took it and also liked it. Feeling sorry for oneself was wasted effort.

After all, it's only civility, or perhaps giving a shakedown to the golden rule. Strangers will persist in speaking of "friendly" Prince Rupert. Thankee, sir, and thankee Madame. We strive to please. Come again and bring your knitting. The News this week printed a story about a family from Ohio who motored all the way here, and the prompt co-operation given when inquiring about a garage. They took care to remember, and mention

PRINCE RUPERT YEARS AGO

(June 25, 1923)
Sir Henry Thornton, president of Canadian National Railways, visiting Prince Rupert for the first time, predicted that it would become "one of the greatest ports on the Pacific Coast." The Canadian National Railways has every reason to join with you in bringing that objective about," he said.

In tow of the tug McCullough, the Belmont-Surf Inlet Mining Co.'s yacht Belmont was brought to dry dock here after striking a rock and sinking in Grenville Channel.

Hon. Alex M. Manson, provincial Attorney General and member for Omineca, announced that he intended to come to Prince Rupert to attend a meeting of the Board of Trade with Sir Henry Thornton.

(June 25, 1913)

Work commenced on the erection of the buildings for the dry dock at Hays Creek. Wineland Engineering Co. of Vancouver had the contract. Buildings to be erected included a power house and smoke stack, shipshed, boiler and blacksmith shop and machine shop. It was expected to take more than a year to complete the job.

A shipload of prominent United States visitors was due to arrive in the city on the steamer Jefferson, bound for Alaska. The Board of Trade planned entertainment, including a train trip to Terrace.

The overflowing Skeena river delayed train traffic between Prince Rupert and the end of the steel. The worst washouts were at mile 73 where 50 yards of track were swept away.

The flood is leaving an assortment of difficulties of varying degrees of seriousness and general cussedness without equal in the province's history. No fewer than fifteen thousand persons are said to be affected in the Fraser Valley alone. Nearly every kind of loss has been suffered and the reward of years of effort, shattered or destroyed. And on top of it all, the sense of advancing age, greater insecurity and all round discouragement.

"Back in 1920 when I was on a buying trip to Vancouver I met a wholesale tobacco man. His name I do not recall but he was a member of the Vancouver Rotary Club. He told me all about Rotary. Until then I had not heard of such a body. "This meeting occurred just after the 'flu epidemic when nearly everyone was ill and not nearly enough people to care for the sick. I recall at one time during the epidemic in Prince Rupert seeing nine rough boxes piled in front of the undertakers. Times were very distressing. "The tobacco salesman told me of similar distressing circumstances in Vancouver. He also proudly told me of the part played by the Vancouver Rotary Club which had provided care, food and medical treatment to friends and strangers alike in Vancouver. "Later, I received a letter from Vancouver written by Otto N. Nelson, president of the Vancouver Club, in which I suggested I contact prominent citizens in Prince Rupert with a view to establishing a Prince Rupert Rotary Club. "This was done, resulting in a charter being granted with the following as charter members: Fred Dawson, E. F. Duby, T. H. Johnson, S. P. McMordie, Thomas McClymont, D. C. McRae, R. E. Moore, George Munro, H. F. Pullen, Harry Rochester, James Steen and Fred Stork. Otto Nelson installed the first slate of officers. E. F. Duby, manager of Emmerson Sawmills, was first president and D. C. McRae first secretary. "Other officers installed at yesterday's meeting were Fred Scadden, sergeant-at-arms, installed by Past President James H. Thompson; Alex McRae, treasurer, installed by past president A. S. Nickerson; H. T. Lock, secretary, installed by past president S. D. Johnston, and directors E. T. Applewhite, Martin Stuart and George Mitchell installed by Past President P. H. Linzey. A summary of the projects completed during the year was given by retiring president Lee Gordon, who also thanked committee chairman and members for their work. Mr. Gordon, in turn, received a hearty vote of thanks from the club. Guests at the meeting were Sydney Barker, Vancouver; Sam Joy, Vancouver; David Hay, Prince Rupert; Ralph Green, Vancouver and William Allen, Vancouver.

A. E. Meeker of Vancouver, after a ten day visit to the city, left by yesterday's plane on his return south.

MERCHANTS DEFEAT SAVOYS AGAIN

DUAL VICTORY IN BASEBALL LEAGUE LAST NIGHT

Merchants 7, Savoys 4

Cliff Dahl's Merchants celebrated a dual victory last night when they defeated Savoys 7-4 at Roosevelt Park baseball field—their second victory this week and their second win over Savoy this season.

As far as the Merchants and Savoy are concerned, competition is lifting its interesting countenance and smiling on the fans. Although Savoy still hold leadership in the city league with five wins and two losses, Merchants are crowding them closely with six wins and three losses. Furthermore, if past performances have any bearing on the future, it looks as though both teams will take another victory each in their next two games.

That is, of course, if both teams defeat Moose which they seem to have the habit of doing. Savoys meet the lodge brothers on Sunday and Merchants will bump into them in next Tuesday night's regular fixture. Last night's game put Merchants within a very close percentage of the league-topping Savoys and puts the storekeepers in the position of being the only team to have administered a drubbing to the hotel boys. Also, it was their second win of the week, a climax to their 9-2 victory over Moose on Tuesday night.

Second home run of the season was scored by Jack Lindsay, Savoy right fielder, who clouted a ringer on Letourneau's first pitch to him in the first inning. The homer also brought in Bruce Simundson who had got on base on a wild pitch.

Merchants tied the score at 2 to 2 in the first when Don Hartwig, who is batting a tidy .364, got on base on a fumbled ball. He was followed by Dahl who was walked. Both were brought home on Abel's double.

Savoys remained scoreless until the eighth when Lindsay and Pavlikis singled. Both runners came home on infield plays.

Merchants took three hits for two runs off Bill in the third and two hits for two runs in the 4th. Their final run was in the 8th when Forman got on base on an error by Arney.

Savoys put Lindsay on the mound in place of Bill in the 7th but it was too late to stem the Merchants' march. Dick Letourneau went the course for Merchants striking out 13, allowing one base on balls and eight hits.

This evening's football game between the Canadian Legion and the 120th Battery should provide some keen competition. The winner will meet the High School on Dominion Day in the final of the Dominion Day Football Cup.

In previous meetings between tonight's contestants the Battery have had the advantage as the Gunners won their last fixture. Both have been beaten by and drawn with the High School team so they appear evenly matched. On their last showing the Battery should win but the Legionnaires feel that their worst games have been played and that from now on they will be on top.

With the standard of football surprisingly high after the lapse of competition the spectators are being given a sample of how football should be played and the skill of the individual players as well as the combination of the teams make an attractive game to watch. As the recently football film showed, football is

Prince Rupert citizens who are looking for a lively summer reading would find "Sense and Nonsense" by Eric "Jaber" Nicol easy going. Professor Nicol packs a lot of humor into his small book. When the heat waves are doing their burning best to roast the unfortunates who must stick to the city during the hot weather, Richard Finnie's "Canada Moves North" may give you a few refreshing hours.

There is a way you can ice-cool your drinks now without diluting them. A firm has put out shatter-proof plastic cubes with water sealed within them. You keep a few of these "nice cubes" in the refrigerator so their contents are frozen and dunk them in the drinks as required. They can be used over and over and come in a variety of colors.

Do you avoid small carpets on highly polished floors? They are O.K., brother, if they have been painted with a new plastic liquid that is guaranteed to keep them from slipping from under the unsuspecting floor walker. It won't mark the floor either, according to the maker.

In small houses and apartments the lady of the establishment is always looking for some way to economize on space. Dining tables are usually bulky but now there is a type in town that can be folded until it looks like a side table. For family use a leaf is folded back from the top and rests on a secure extension leg. For reunions the table can be stretched out to about 7 feet and additional leaves used for the covering.

Perhaps mankind is getting softer. Anyway it seems to be the style to cushion even the humble kitchen chair these days and, while you are on the job, you might as well do it up right with padding encased in plastic material that won't crack, wrinkle or lose its shape. (That's what the man said.)

It used to be fashionable to buy imported goods but today there is a growing demand for and pride in things Canadian. Pride in home products was particularly noticeable among Canadian troops who served overseas. And speaking of war equipment brings us right up to those dainty little floral brooches worn by many of the fair sex. Canadian manufacturers are competing very favorably in that china novelty industry.

Curbside observations indicate that, when the sun is pouring its maximum candlepower on to the city streets from a cloudless sky, some of our male citizens are not averse to matching the weather's mood with shirts and jackets of gay colors. Hurrah! But they have a bit of catching up to do before they can out-dazzle the girls. Some

Helmar Hammarberg Came In Early Days to Lakes District

FRANCOIS LAKE—Helmer P. Hammarberg, early settler of the Lakes district, passed away at his farm home near Danskin last Tuesday and the funeral was held on Saturday, a large number of friends from all settlements to the south being in attendance. Service was conducted by the Rev. A. W. Atkinson and many beautiful floral tributes covered the casket.

Mr. Hammarberg was one of the first four settlers to locate in the areas now known as Grassy Plains and Danskin. His partner was Eric Johnson, who predeceased him. Others of the party of pioneers were Andy Dahiberg and Axel Olson, the latter being the only one of the quartette to be still alive. There was neither road nor trail to the settlement they chose to develop but they moved slowly, and built roads and trails as they progressed.

Hammarberg and Johnson trapped the Big Eutsuk and over the Coast Divide in 1912 making a record catch of 396 martens and a proportionate number of beaver, otter, fisher, mink, wolverine, ermine and other furs which abounded in that district. All the trappers who have wintered in that district put together have not equalled their catch during the past fifteen years, which goes to show that the fur bearers are doomed to extermination.

The deceased is survived by his wife and his son, Eric. Honorary pall bearers were Axel Olson, Barney Mulvany, David Murray and Oscar Bostrom, while active pall bearers were Howard Brott, Andrew Johnson, Henry Anderson and William Bickle, all friends of thirty-five years standing.

WHERE THREE ZONES MEET IN BERLIN—This is the strange scene in Potsdam Square, Berlin, where all three zones—Russian, British and U.S., meet each other. A plebiscite for the unity of Germany has been under way since May 23 and is about to end. Each sector carries a poster concerning it. The Russian zone poster says: "You are entering the Russian sector! Here exists democratic right of self-government. Here you can stand up for Germany's unity. Here you are not hindered in signing the lists of the plebiscite." The U.S. zone poster, not shown, says: "You are entering the U.S. sector! Here exists American democracy. One wants to forbid the plebiscite, however no power can hinder you from signing. Don't forget your democratic rights. Sign the lists." The British zone poster says: "You are entering the British sector. Here you are allowed to sign for the plebiscite. Decide as a German! Germany's unity is Germany's future, for it guarantees bread and peace for our people. Therefore sign the lists of the plebiscite for Germany's unity."

"The Stereoscope"
Three dimensional wonder

Down from Pike's Corner would come Aunt Jane, Uncle Ned and their brood... happy to view the wonders of six continents... the foreign... the exotic... the new... All through that wonder—the three dimensional stereoscope. It was ever an instrument, "Ah" evoking... a delight and education to all!

The evening then topped off round the festive board... pickle-packed, laden with cold ham and chicken, apple sauce and milk for the children, and, of course, Royal Export for the elders. Today, as in 1901, the thoughtful host still counts on Royal Export Beer to help him, perfectly, round out a gathering of his good friends.

Richard told the jury he was playing with a gun "loaned" to him by another boy who had stolen it and he didn't know it was loaded.

EVERYTHING HASN'T RAISED IN PRICE...

It may surprise many but 1847 Rogers and Community Silver flatware is the same price as before the war.

And as the tax is now off it should be doubly attractive.

Bulger's always sell standard goods at Canadian advertised prices even though express charges are more than those of places nearer to the factories.

For instance a Big Ben clock or set of silver sells for the same price as in Ontario where it is made.

A large part of our stock is made up of standard advertised goods and we try to keep the balance in line with the prices of other cities. And we guarantee the satisfaction of our goods.

Something from Bulger's is always something worth having.

H.A. DESIGN-OF-THE-MONTH — Here is a six-roomed brick veneer house only 28 feet by 28 feet that has been planned to avoid the box-like appearance of many small house designs. The wide Dutch dormer across the front provides a pleasant break to the roof and, with hall space kept to a minimum, rooms are more spacious than is usually the case in houses of similar size. The kitchen features an efficient U-type arrangement of fixtures at one end and dining space at the opposite end, a boon to the busy housewife. The two front windows allow a plentiful supply of natural light and fresh air in the living room. For estimating purposes, the floor area of the house is approximately 1,069 square feet. Complete construction drawings for this plan, known as Design No. 196, are available from Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation
