

Thousand Coast Fishermen Start Strike

Salmon Industry Tied in Price Controversy

PRINCE RUPERT (CP)—Four thousand British Columbia fishermen, tendermen and plant workers are in a chum salmon strike called by the United Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union (A.F.L.).

Over 2,500 men will be idle within a week if the strike continues and additional thousands of canneries may be affected.

PEARSON BLASTS SOVIET ATOMIC CONTROL STAND

NEW YORK (CP)—L. B. Pearson, Canadian delegate to the United Nations, blasted Russian proposals for international control of atomic weapons as "hypocritical and meaningless" if Russia continues to demand national sovereignty in atomic problems.

The Dominion's External Affairs Minister delivered one of his longest and most direct criticisms of Russian policy in the U.N. Assembly.

He said that the peace proposal made last week by Foreign Minister Vishinsky was "obviously meant for propaganda, not peace."

He said there is no real peace, but fear and insecurity in the world today.

MURDER CASE OPENS FALL ASSIZE COURT

Fall session of Assize Court opened at the Court House here this morning before Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson with two murder charges and an attempted rape case listed on the criminal docket.

The session opened this morning with a murder case, that of Jimmy Louis, Bear Lake Indian, charged with the stab-killing of his step-father, William Dennis at Bear Lake last April 1. It is continuing today.

Tomorrow, an attempted rape charge against Peter Williams, a native is expected to come up. Williams is accused of attempting to rape a young native girl at a Skeena River cannery last August.

Final case of the criminal docket is a murder charge against Earl Johnson, of Nanaimo. He is to be tried for the gun-shot death of his brother, Vic Johnson on a fishing boat here in August.

Prosecuting in the Louis case today is Deputy Attorney General Col. E. Pepler, K.C., of Victoria. T. W. Brown is appearing in behalf of Louis.

The murder charge arose out of the death last April 5 of 70-year-old William Dennis, Louis' stepfather, following a drinking part which, according to testimony, also involved Louis' mother, Mrs. Harriet Dennis in their house at Bear Lake. Bear Lake is north of Hazelton.

Preliminary hearing of the case was held at Prince George last June.

Dr. John Gordon MacArthur of Prince George, testified this morning that Dennis' body contained three knife wounds in the back, any one of which might have been responsible for his death.

Alex Bob, a native trapper from Bear Lake told of returning to the small village or the evening of April 5 and hearing sounds of a struggle coming from the Dennis home. He entered the building to find Mr. and Mrs. Dennis fighting on the floor. He separated them and remained for an hour for their tempers to cool off.

He then headed for his own cabin, 150 yards away to prepare supper and was called out by Mrs. Dennis. Returning to the cabin, he found Dennis dead.

All three had been "very drunk," Alex Bob testified.

While he was in the house the first time, he put Jimmy Louis to bed, the witness testified. Louis had gone to sleep.

On his return, Jimmy was on his feet and told him that "my mother killed William."

A hunting knife, presented by A. W. Allaire, Emil Blain, Cleeve Crown Counsel Pepler was identified by Alex Bob as the property of Jimmy Louis.

Jurors hearing the case are Fred Conrad, foreman, O. H. Hoskins (Smithers), Daniel J. Wick, Henry R. Copeland, George Lee, Ivor Wahl, J. W. Odowes, A. W. Allaire, Emil Blain, Cleeve Crown Counsel Pepler was identified by Alex Bob as the property of Jimmy Louis.

NORONIC MASTER—Captain William Taylor of Sarnia protesting against being photographed on the pier after flames sweeping through his ship had forced him from the engine-room exit. Face scorched and right hand bandaged, Capt. Taylor told the Canadian Press 18 hours after the fire that after going through the ship twice he tried to return by the regular gangway but was prevented. Then, he said, he broke away and ran to the bow to get aboard but was stopped by the crowd at the ship-side. The photograph was taken by Art Cole of the Toronto Globe and Mail. (C. P. Photo)

AIR DEFENCE COSTS DOUBLE

TORONTO (CP)—For an internal air defence system, the Department of National Defence has contracted for "considerable" quantities of radar equipment of a modern design and high power. They will be produced in Canada, Defence Minister Claxton said.

So far this year, he said, aircraft construction costs have been $45,500,000, for five months, more than double the total for all of last year.

Also, Canada's own two-seater long-range night fighter interceptor is about to be tested. A development contract for $4,000,000 for 10 of the new fighters has been let.

U.K. GOV'T TO ASK CONFIDENCE

LONDON (CP)—The government will call for a vote of confidence over its devaluation decision in Parliament's emergency session which opens tomorrow. This was disclosed today after the cabinet had met to gauge feeling in the Labor party and the country following devaluation.

Where, for instance, has mass hysteria risen to such a pitch as it did in the fifth and final round Saturday night when Karlenko, receiving what everyone conceded was his just deserts, was hurled bodily from the ring four times by McLaughlan.

McLAUGHLAN ROUGHS UP KARLENKO IN CROWD-PLEASING WRESTLING

Jack McLaughlan, coast junior heavyweight wrestling champ, crowned a distinguished career of violence here Saturday night by winning the Northern B.C. title, and at the same time, doled out a generous amount of punishment to Leo Karlenko to the great vocal delight of a packed gallery at the Civic Centre auditorium.

If McLaughlan means what he says, he now will fade into the shadowy glory of retirement replete with honor and, let us hope, sufficient dollars to make his retirement a thing of dignity.

Certainly, no fighter, whether of the mat or glove variety, ever approached retirement with louder applause echoing in his ears than he received Saturday night when he dropped curly-locked Karlenko for two falls in the final session of the Civic Centre's two-night tournament.

And looking at it from the opposite direction—the fans' side—no Prince Rupert fight crowd, in recent times at least, has ever been treated to a livelier show than McLaughlan and Karlenko put on.

Russia Admits Possession Of Atomic Secret Since 1947

MOSCOW (CP)—An official Russian statement Sunday said that Soviet Russia has possessed the secret of the atom bomb since 1947.

The statement, issued by Tass, the Soviet news agency, came at the same time that Russia renewed her demand in the United Nations for prohibition or control of the atom bomb.

The Tass statement did not confirm or deny the occurrence of an atomic explosion in Russia, but recalled a statement by V. M. Molotov, then Soviet foreign minister, on November 6, 1947, to the effect that the secret of the atom bomb had "long since ceased to exist."

In Frankfurt, Germany, a high American officer said that Germany had worked in the man brains, equipment and Soviet Union since 1945.

CITY PIONEER CELEBRATES 80TH BIRTHDAY

A citizen of Prince Rupert since earliest days, F. J. Fuller of First Avenue was able to look back on the eightieth anniversary of his birth on Friday. He continues to enjoy good health and takes a live interest in local progress and affairs in general.

Mr. Fuller, who was born in Derbyshire, England, came to Prince Rupert in 1906. He purchased property and was active in construction and community development. All told, his contracts included 28 buildings.

The year 1906 was far in advance of completion of what was then known as the Grand Trunk Pacific. There was only a handful of people here, most of them engineers and surveyors and others in employ of the railway. These included James Bacon, harbor engineer, J. H. Pillsbury, A. W. Agnew and Bill Casey, to mention a few. One of the first he met was P. W. Anderson, another well known contractor.

Bishop Du Vernet, who established the Anglican Church here had already arrived in the district, living then in the native

Referee Tom Andrewchuck, an ex-wrestler himself, needed considerable agility to stay out of the way of hurtling, sweat-drenched bodies and at the same time, officiate over the niceties.

Three boxing bouts and a battle royal by fighters from Red Watmough's training class at the Civic Centre provided the preliminaries.

Donald Husvik and Arthur Turcotte fought to a draw as did Gordon Brain and Donald Haudenschild, while Dicky Bury was awarded a decision over Billy Watmough.

In the battle royal, Doug Letourneau gave an excellent account of himself among the four pairs of flying fists. Involved in the battle, in addition to Letourneau, were Carl Jackson, Danny Newfield and Rocky Terry.

In Friday night's boxing preliminaries, Billy Saunders took a decision over Sydney Bond. The bout was one of the best of first night's card.

SCOTCH PRICE REMAINS SAME

LONDON—Scotch whisky is not going to be devalued. The council of Scottish whisky distillers has decided to adjust prices on whisky for export to secure for Britain as far as possible the previous dollar income from whisky.

AS DAY IS DONE—A couple vacationing in Bermuda relax at the water's edge to watch the setting sun and listen to the gentle surf as it rolls in on the pink-tinted sandy shore. The southern coast of Bermuda is lined with more than 12 miles of sand beaches like the one shown in this Bermuda News Bureau photo or quiet coves where visitors spend the day lazing in the sun and swimming in the warm waters. LUCKY ESCAPE—Two Toronto men, riding in this truck, escaped serious injury when the big transport dropped through the Maclean River bridge near Southampton, N.S. Even the truck was little damaged. It is believed the bridge slipped off its cribs just as the vehicle started to cross. The bridge was a complete loss. (C. P. Photo)

MERCHANTS WIN DOUBLE BILL TO TAKE CITY BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Merchants 3-5, Savoy 0-4

Merchants became city baseball play-off champions Sunday afternoon as they defeated the defending Savoy Hotel team in a double-header by scores of 3 to 0 and 5 to 4.

An unfortunate accident marred the second game in its later innings as Jack Sharpe, preparing to pinch-hit, was struck on the forehead by a bat that slipped out of the batter's hands. He was immediately taken to hospital for examination.

The first game was a pitchers' duel between Sharpe and Ciccone. Merchants scored their first run in the third innings when Ciccone was safe on an error, was pushed around to third on Lewis' single into left and then scored on Dahl's ground-out to second.

Savoy strategy backfired in the fifth when with Ciccone on third, two down, they gave an intentional walk to Davis, to get to Lambie, who proceeded to line the first pitch into left-centre for a double scoring two runs with Davis coming all the way from first.

Savoys only threatened in the ninth when they got a runner as far as third. With two out, Pavlikis was safe on the third baseman's error, stole second and went to third as Abel's throw went into centre-field. Morgan walked and Bury came into pinch-hit. He grounded out to end the game.

The second game followed after a 15-minute intermission with Bill and Maundrell opposing each other on the mound.

Scoring came early and fast as Savoy broke into the run column in the very first inning as they used a squeeze play to score Simundson. They did the same in the second with Pavlikis scoring. The heavy-hitting Merchants teed off on Bill scoring one in the second, two in the third, and one in the fourth to take a 4 to 2 lead.

Savoy tied it up in the seventh when Morgan singled Pavlikis fled out to right, Scherk lined a single over short-stop and Bill was hit by a pitched ball to load the bases with Gurvich coming up. He surprised everybody by coming through with a good ground ball single between first and second to score two runs.

Merchants scored the winning run in the eighth when Abel doubled into right centre and Rosedale came through with a single to bat in the tie-breaking run.

Dahl came in to pitch the eighth after Maundrell had walked Arney. Arney stole second and when Merchants beefed to the base umpire without time being called Arney trotted down to third which was not covered. Dahl then got Bury on strikes, and then Morgan attempted to bunt but Arney was held and Morgan thrown out. Pavlikis ended the game by a ground-out, pitcher to first.

BASES IN EUROPE

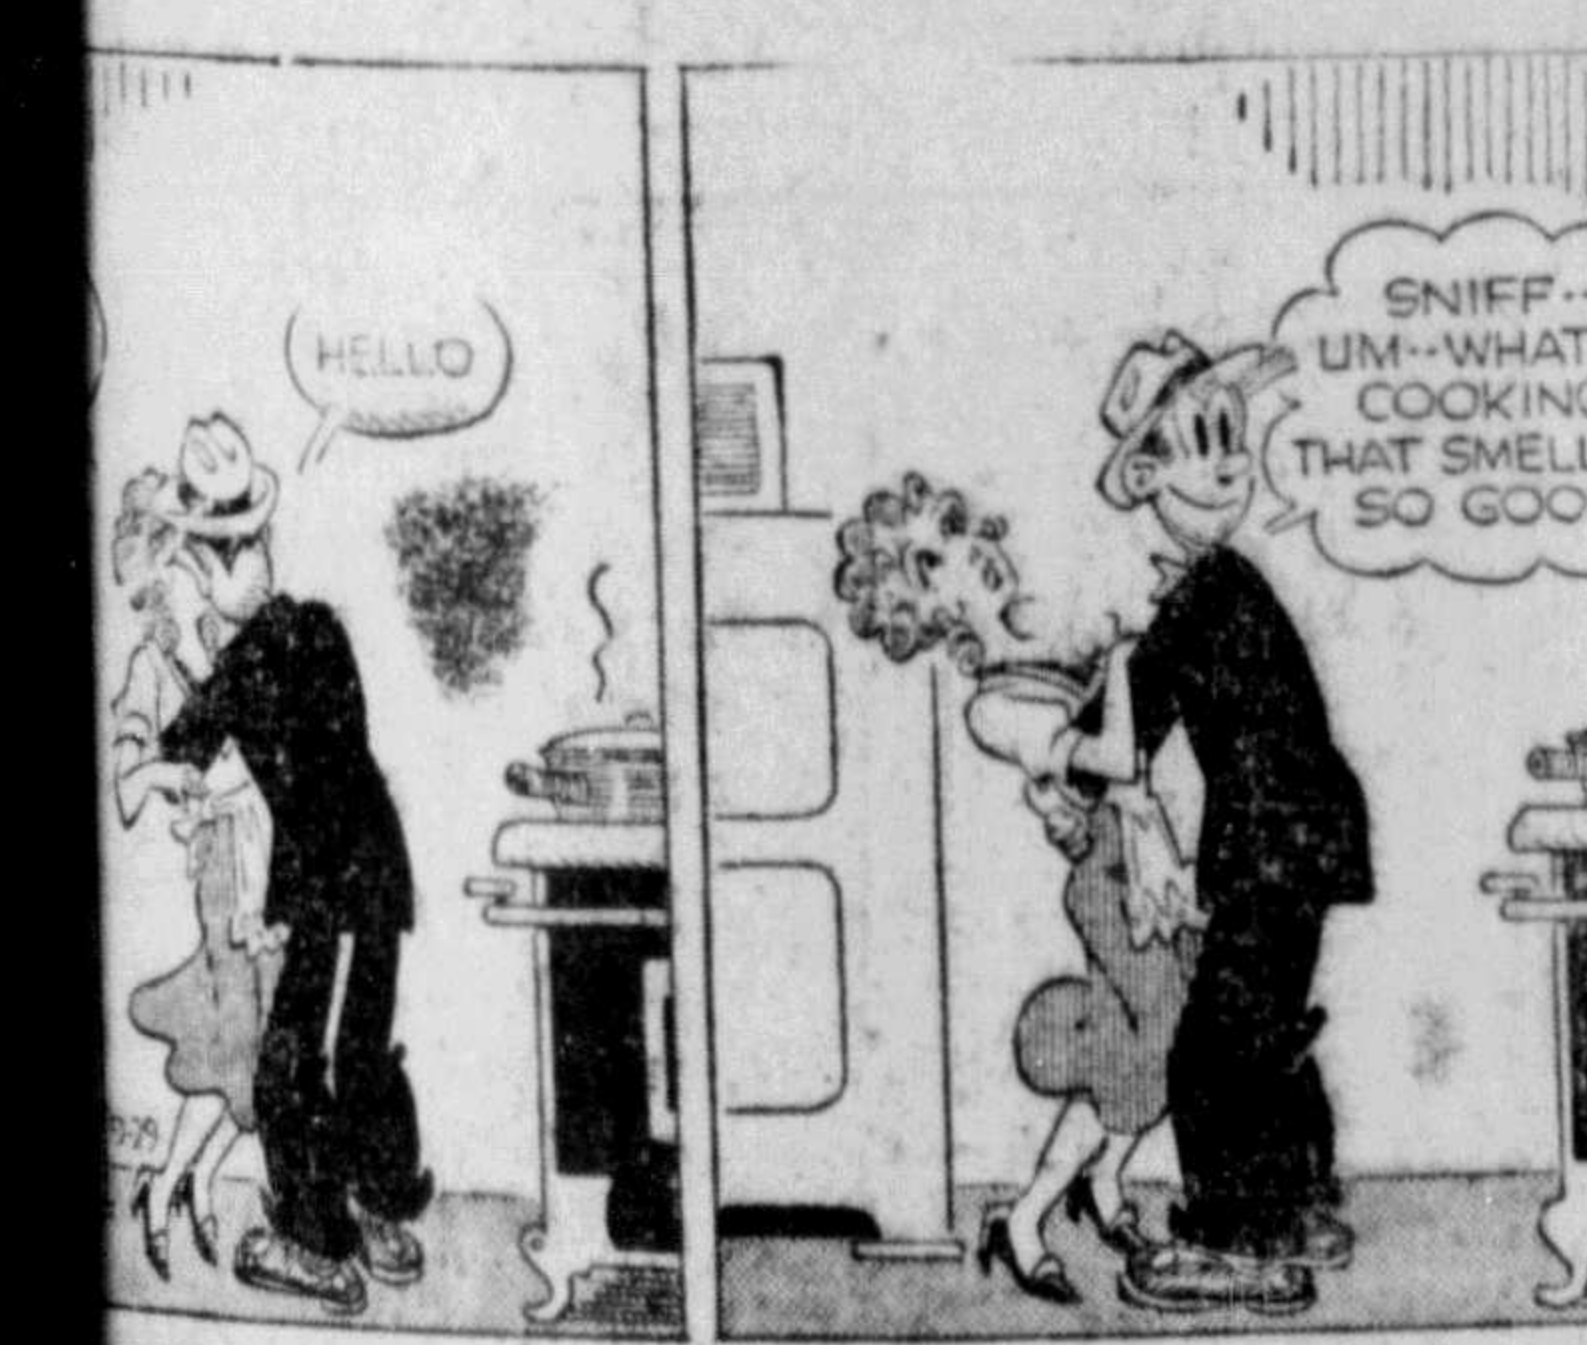

Russia had dotted Europe with launchers for deadlier rockets than ever used during the war and United States today. They said the munitions plants in that zone are producing rockets for Russia. The exact location of the bases is not known.

Major Andrew Clark of the Royal Canadian Artillery and Mrs. Clark called at Prince Rupert yesterday to meet many of their old friends. They were making the round trip on the S.S. Catala.

WITH GAS—When John Gregory of Edmonton's subway had his water well deepened to 330 feet, the drill struck natural gas instead of water. Here Gregory whips eggs over the gas flames while his wife and child Gregory will investigate the possibility of using the gas at home. (C. P. Photo)

SKY HIGH—Muscle and acrobatic ability play important roles in ballet routines as John Marsha of Toronto and Detroit-born Connie Campbell practise on a remote Georgian Bay beach near the resort centre of Wasaga. Members of Toronto's Volkoff ballet company, the pair performs on sand dunes against a backdrop of Georgian Bay sky. Marsha uses his muscles to box and wrestle between ballet seasons to pay for his dancing career. (C. P. Photo)

TO RESIDE AT EDMONTON AFTER TERRACE RITES

TERRACE—Linking two well known families of the coast and interior, an interesting wedding was solemnized in St. Matthews Anglican Church on Wednesday evening, when Emerson Stanley Roper, son of Mrs. Myrtle M. Roper of Prince Rupert, and the late Mr. Roper, and Ina Belle Smith, second daughter of Mr. William Smith of Terrace and the late Mrs. Smith, were united by the Reverend Percy Mallett of the Knox United Church.

The lovely little church, made lovelier with gadiolus, asters and dahlias in silver vases was filled with many friends and guests of the happy couple.

Given in marriage by her father, the petite dark-haired bride made a lovely picture in an exquisite gown of white nylon marquisette over an under-skirt of heavy taffeta. The off-shoulder model featured short sleeves and three large tucks in the skirt. She wore long lily-pointed fingerless gloves to match her gown and a Queen Anne coronet of seed pearls held in place by a circular fingertip veil of lace. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls the gift of the groom.

Matron of honor was the charming younger sister of the bride, Mrs. A. C. Calder whose floor length gown was of soft yellow taffeta with short sleeves, nylon net yoke and double bertha collar. Similarly dressed but in turquoise taffeta was the pretty bridesmaid, Sharon McIlroy, young niece of the bride. Each wore a matching head-dress of net with a red centred white gladiola tucked in place and each carried arm bouquets of white and red glads.

Supporting the groom was Tony Bussanich of Prince Rupert. Bruce Smith, brother of the bride, was usher.

The nuptial music was played by Miss Lorna Melvin and during the signing of the register, Mrs. Lloyd Johnstone sang "Because."

Following the ceremony, a reception for 150 guests was held in the Oddfellows' Hall where Mrs. P. McIlroy, older sister of the bride, in a street length gown of grey with flying panels and black accessories received them. Her corsage was of yellow glads. Mrs. M. M. Roper, mother of the groom was charming in brown with beige accessories and a golden 'mum corsage.

A profusion of glads dahlias and asters decorated the hall and tables. A buffet supper was served on a long table decorated with pink and white looped streamers. A silver basket of deep red dahlias stood on the lace covered table where Mrs. A. Kirkaldy and Mrs. A. Brooks poured tea and coffee.

Planking the wedding cake which stood on a small table covered with an embroidered cloth, were tall pink tapers in crystal holders. Made by the bride herself, the cake was iced and decorated by Mrs. Florence Bailey.

A large table of beautiful gifts was on display. The toast to the bride was given by Tony Bussanich to which the groom responded and Peter Van Stolk gave the toast to the bridesmaids. An evening of dancing followed until it was time for the newlyweds to leave on the early morning train for Edmonton where they will reside, the groom being in business there.

For her going-away costume the bride chose a turquoise wool suit with black accessories, and a black topper. Living here most of her young life, the bride was a popular member of the staff of J. H. Smith store.

Out-of-town guests included besides the groom's mother, his sisters, Miss Ellen Roper and Mrs. Tony Bussanich all of Prince Rupert.

"But we thought you were bringing the sandwiches!"

LOSES APPEAL IN LIQUOR CASE

An appeal by Russel Morgan city taxi driver against a conviction on a charge of keeping liquor for sale was dismissed in County Court by Judge W. O. Fitton Friday on grounds that the appeal had been entered at the wrong sitting of the court. Morgan was fined $300 and his automobile was confiscated following his conviction in police court last May.

The appeal was dismissed on grounds that it should have been heard at the June sitting of County Court, rather than the September sitting.

R. E. Gladding returned to the city by air Saturday from a business trip to Vancouver.
