The world - famed Scottish comedian died at his home at Strathaven last night after his long months of illness. He had suffered from arterio-thrombosis and kidney ailments and had been near death ever since August although he rallied temporarily three months ago. His passing was announced as "quiet and peaceful."

Oldest of a poor family of seven children, Lauder started working at the age of eleven as a flax mill boy and then became a coal miner. He started entertaining while still working in the mines but it was not until he was 30 years of age that he had his first .121/2 real success and became a professional. Many tours followed and he often visited Canada, the .1312 United States, New Zealand, Aus-.031/4 tralia and South Africa.

Japs In Fisheries.

D. McRAE, M.L.A. for Prince Rupert, came out emphatically in the Legislature last week against the return of the Japanese to the British Columbia coast, particularly to the salmon fisheries. He had this to say:

"At the outbreak of World War II., the Department of National Defence, exercising precaution, had all the Japanese removed from the coast to the country. Our government called on our own natives to fill the breaches in the fishing industry, both as labor in the canneries as well as operating the fishing vessels. Even as a result of this turnover, the lines output of our fishing industry increased during the war wears. With the return of the Japanese to our coast, a labor problem is going to arise. Are we going to let the Japanese replace in our canneries the natives who were loyal during times of peril? Furthermore, are we going to permit the unresisted issuing of fishing licences to Japanese so they can replace our own natives in the fishing industry?"

These emphatic statements by Mr. McRae were corroborated in a somewhat qualified way by Frank Calder, C.C.F. member for Athin, who, although saying he was not in favor of racial discrimination, did deprecate any action by private fishing companies which would recruit former Japanese fishermen from the interior of the province in numbers to man the fishing boats. "This," he said "would drive out the older Indians who were such an asset during the war."

The return of the Japanese to the fishing industry is a timely subject of discussion now. Mr. McRae and Mr. Calder doubtless, express the feelings of misgiving of a great deal of the public in regard to the effect of the Japanese on industry.

Actually, of course, the headache of the Japanese, as far as the fishing licences is concerned, is that of the Dominion fisheries department which issues the licences.

BREAKWATER, AT LEAST

CATISFACTION will be felt that, at long last, deposit will be released on the return the federal Department of Public Works finds it possible to call for tenders for the breakwater at the fishermen's floats at Fairview Bay. It has been a risky business, leaving the big fleet there unprotected so long from a possible westerly gale and it is to be hoped that the breakwater will be in before such an eventuality occurs.

. It is known that the cost of the breakwater will be a great deal more than was originally estimated. That, together with testing of rock materials that are to be used in its construction and unexpected engineering problems, has been at least partially fied cheque if required to make up responsible for the delay in getting the tenders called.

It is satisfactory to note that the closing date Department of Public Works. for the tenders has been set for before the end of the fiscal year so that complete revote of the funds may not be necessary.

HYPNOTIZES HEN INTO LAY-ING EGG, OR SO HE SAYS-All you need is some ham, a chicken and the hypnotic eye to whip up a platter of ham and eggs—that is if you can emulate the technique of Searhabey, French magician, who says he can hypnotize a hen into laying an egg whenever he feels like it. Searhabey shows how he does it here. The baffled Biddy doesn't seem to know what to make of the whole thing. If you should decide to try this, pick a weak-willed chicken, or the tables might be turned and you lay the egg.
