EUROPE AID HELD VITAL

Baruch Heard by United States Senate Foreign Relations Committee

WASHINGTON, (CP)—Bernard M. Baruch, advisor to President Truman, laid before United States senators today a program for "peace-waging" including a "roll-back in food prices, no wage raises and no tax cuts for two years."

Baruch told the Senate foreign relations committee in discussing aid for Europe that "dollars alone will not save Europe nor win the peace." He then proposed restoration of the excess profits tax at 50 per cent of wartime level.

"The time has come," Baruch said, "to organize to mobilize for peace. It cannot be put off safely any longer."

Baruch proposed a joint defence pact among nations being aided under the Marshall plan as a protection against aggression.

Cold Wave Hits East

Twenty-Five Persons Are Dead—Away Below Zero in Ontario

CHICAGO (CP)—The worst cold wave of the season swept across eastern and southeastern United States today but moderated considerably in the midwestern states. The icy wave caused a minimum of twenty-five deaths and cut sharply into fuel oil supplies. The Chicago Weather Bureau said that sub-zero readings were general.

In the New England States the mercury skidded well below freezing as far south as Southern Florida.

The coldest weather was at Phillipsburg in Western Pennsylvania, 26 below zero.

In Memphis, Tennessee, twelve inches of snow fell on Saturday and the temperature stood at three above zero early today.

President Truman has ordered restrictions in the use of heating and motor fuels.

ONTARIO GETTING IT COLD ALSO

TORONTO—A cold wave was sweeping into Ontario today with Sudbury reporting 58 below zero and White River 47 below. Snow started falling this afternoon in the Toronto area.

Constable E. D. Anderson of district headquarters of the provincial police returned to the city on the Catala last evening from a brief trip to Vancouver on escort duty.

PUBLICITY FOR AREA SOUGHT

Provincial Government to be Asked to Provide Area Booklet

With various communities in the area planning their own individual publicity literature efforts, the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia executive, in session at Terrace at the week-end, decided to request the provincial Department of Trade and Industry to produce a booklet assembling in some detail particulars, possibilities and attractions of the entire Central British Columbia area from a general industrial standpoint. It was felt that this would be the most effective way of publicizing the area as a whole, supplementing rather than duplicating efforts now being planned in the local communities such as Prince Rupert and Terrace. It was felt that, in view of the increasing active interest being taken by the provincial government in the north it might be favorably disposed to such a publicity project.

Sawmilling At Terrace

Operations Temporarily Slowed up by Heavy Snow—Forty Mills

Upwards of 40 sawmills, some fairly large and some rather small affairs, are now operating within a 25-mile radius of Terrace, providing employment for an estimated 350 men in plants and bush. Recent heavy snow conditions in the area have slowed up operations since Christmas both in mill and bush but by the end of the month most of the mills should be humming again. Meantime, mill crews are engaged in loading yard stock for shipment and logs are starting to be moved by trucks again from camps into the mills despite the difficulties of handling the timber in soft snow which is as deep as five feet at some points and in which the trees virtually disappear on being felled.

Terrace-produced lumber is still finding its market in the United States, Eastern Canada and the United Kingdom and, paradoxically enough, the lumber for export to the United Kingdom is being delivered to New Westminster for transshipment at 65¢ per hundred feet for the rail haul instead of 17¢ per thousand to Prince Rupert, a situation which is irksome to the operators as well as those who are agitating for development of the port of Prince Rupert.

Little, Haugland & Kerr and Sande's Mill at Terrace and Little, Haugland & Kerr at 17-Mile on the Kalum Road and Carl Pohle in the Kalum Lake area are still the major operators.

Newest mill in the Terrace district is the Fraborn Lumber Co. plant nine miles south of

To Represent This Area at Meeting

When the Associated Boards of Trades delegates gather in Penitentiary February 25 to discuss federally aided transprovincial highway projects and other matters of mutual importance, George McAdams of Terrace, former president, will likely represent the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia. The question of sending a delegate to this conference came up at an executive meeting of the Associated Boards in Terrace at the end of the week and Mr. McAdams indicated the possibility of his attending. Mr. and Mrs. McAdams will be in Prince Rupert on Thursday night of this week from train to boat enroute to Vancouver for an extended holiday trip to the southern part of the province.

Soaking Terrace Lumber

SAWMILLS in the Terrace area have been paying 62c per hundred pounds to ship lumber to New Westminster for export to the United Kingdom whereas local rate to Prince Rupert is 17c per hundred pounds. This amounts to a difference of approximately $15 per thousand feet and, when it is considered the many thousands of feet a ship may take, depending on size of ship and whether or not it is full cargo, it would appear that it is quite an additional expense to carry the lumber by rail to New Westminster rather than Prince Rupert, the logical port of ocean shipment.

It seems reasonable that some shipping interests at least should be seriously considering the use of Prince Rupert. The wonder is that this sort of thing should be going on and that there should not be continued and even greater pressure to have this port enjoy the passage of export shipment of which is obviously long overdue.

If there ever was any doubt about the economic aspect favoring the use of this port, the extravagant method of export of Terrace lumber to the United Kingdom amply illustrates it. Nor is the Terrace area the only one in the central interior which should be making Prince Rupert instead of the ports of the Vancouver area the export shipping point for lumber. As the overseas exports of lumber increase with the ultimate stabilization of postwar buying power, the volume of the traffic may be expected to increase and the desirability of shipping in the most economical manner should be even more seriously considered, particularly if there is to be competition with other countries.

And lumber is not the only thing. If mixed cargoes are wanted there is our canned salmon, which now goes to Vancouver for re-shipment, and there is the ready feasibility of exporting grain through the notoriously idle and long discriminated against terminal elevator at Prince Rupert.

Meanwhile, there is no reason for Prince Rupert to go on accepting the excuses, sometimes most flimsy and often looking almost false, which are given to keep this fine port idle and not playing its part in serving the national economy and the world's needs.

Prince Rupert, with such specific instances as the Terrace lumber in point, might even do more in the way of campaigning for the use of the port than it is doing. It appears to be a case of organizing and seeking the co-operation of interests which are willing to see that there is more than one centre for export shipping on the British Columbia coast.

Another objection to old age is that there's so little future in it.

FOOD FOR BRITAIN

POSSIBLY the most concise and concrete talking point in favor of supporting current organized campaigns for the shipment of food to needy Britain might be this comparative tabulation of the amounts available in Britain under the existing strict quotas and the average consumption in Canada, per week in case:

BRITAIN	CANADA (Average Consumed)
1½ pints milk	7 quarts milk
2 small chops (or equivalent)	10 small chops (or equivalent)
2 strips bacon (or equivalent)	14 strips bacon (or equivalent)
2 oz. butter	8 oz. butter
3 oz. margarine	nil
2 oz. lard	6 oz. lard or shortening
2 oz. cheese	4 oz. cheese
2 oz. tea	8 oz. tea and/or coffee
7 oz. sugar	8 oz. sugar

Those who predicted a brave new postwar world weren't 100 per cent mistaken. It takes a fair to middling brave person to live in it.

WHILE RUPERT DOES NOTHING

CANADIAN SHIPYARDS are making a substantial contribution to the restoration of world trade and the industrial development of this country. Some forty vessels, aggregating 99,000 gross tons, were completed during the past year. Total deliveries consisted of fourteen cargo vessels, three passenger and car ferries two passenger vessels, two colliers, one tanker, one tug, three trawlers and fourteen barges.

We've heard a considerable number of persons say they wouldn't want to live to be 100 but we have never heard a person 99 years old say so.

Answering Your Questions

ABOUT IMPORT CONTROL

MOST of the countries which are Canada's regular customers have not recovered sufficiently from the war to pay, in the normal way, for all the goods they need, despite extensive help from this and other countries. Nor are they able to send us enough of their goods to balance accounts—or to pay us in the kind of money which we, in Canada, can use to buy goods in other countries.

At the same time, Canada has been buying more goods than ever before from the United States and other countries demanding U.S. dollars. This is because these goods were not obtainable elsewhere and because of demand pent-up during the war.

Buying from the United States or U.S. dollar areas must, therefore, be temporarily reduced until our trading again becomes normal.

To meet this emergency, purchase of goods and services or expenditures for travel, which must be paid for with U.S. dollars, are now subject to control.

IF YOU ARE AN IMPORTER OF CONSUMER GOODS and wish to find out what goods are (1) prohibited, (2) subject to quota, or (3) unaffected by controls, see or write your nearest Collector of Customs and Excise.

IF YOU WISH TO IMPORT GOODS SUBJECT TO QUOTA and wish to establish your quota authorization to import, or need special information, consult your nearest Collector of Customs and Excise. Quota application forms (E.C. 1) and instructions for completing them, are available at all Customs Offices. These applications must be filed with the Collector of Customs and Excise.

IF YOU WISH INFORMATION ON THE AMOUNT OF YOUR QUOTA. After your application has been filed with your Collector of Customs and Excise, all correspondence about the establishment of quotas or cases of exceptional hardship through import prohibitions should be directed to Emergency Import Control Division, Department of Finance, 490 Sussex Street, Ottawa. Quotas are issued on a quarterly basis and any unused portion may be carried over into the following quarter.

IF YOU ARE AN IMPORTER OF PRODUCTION PARTS, STRUCTURAL STEEL, stone, machinery or other capital goods or automobiles, and wish to know the import restrictions in these classifications, write or see Emergency Import Control Division (Capital Goods), Department of Reconstruction and Supply, 385 Wellington Street, Ottawa.

IF YOU INTEND TO TRAVEL OUTSIDE CANADA and wish to know about foreign exchange available for this purpose, consult any bank or the Foreign Exchange Control Board at Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto, Windsor, Vancouver. If you wish information about personal purchases of goods made during travel outside Canada, consult the nearest Collector of Customs and Excise before departure.

IF YOU ARE A MANUFACTURER, WHOLESALE OR RETAILER and wish information about excise taxes, or about the list of goods to which they apply, consult the nearest Collector of Customs and Excise.

IF YOU NEED OTHER SOURCES OF IMPORTS consult the Foreign Trade Service, Department of Trade and Commerce (Import Division), Ottawa, regarding your supply problems arising from import quota restrictions. Through the Trade Commissioner Service, the Import Division is endeavouring to arrange increased supplies from the United Kingdom and other "non-scheduled" countries.

IF YOU ARE A HOUSEWIFE and wish information on available alternate foods which have comparable nutritional values to those now prohibited or subject to quota, informational material which has been prepared by the Nutrition Division of the Department of National Health and Welfare may be secured from your Provincial Health Department or local health unit.

The administration of these emergency import controls is the responsibility of various departments of the Government. The above information is given to aid Canadian citizens in complying with the new import control regulations with a minimum of inconvenience in their business and personal affairs.

The Experts Say - -

COOKING RESOLUTIONS — As 1948 takes over for another year, home economists have drawn up a set of cooking resolutions for Canadian housewives.

1. Resolve to save food by not washing it. This means using all food to the best advantage, cooking it well so there won't be any left on the plates.

2. Resolve to learn the facts about graded foods, read labels, and buy by grade.

3. Resolve to use every crumb of bread.

4. Resolve to follow recipes and measure accurately.

5. Resolve to save all drippings from meat and poultry, and use in cooking.

And to begin keeping the resolutions, here is an excellent recipe for using all that leftover chicken fat.

Butterscotch Slices—Ingredients: One-third cup chicken fat; one-half cup brown sugar; one egg; one-quarter teaspoon vanilla; 1½ cups pastry flour or 1½ cups all-purpose flour; 1½ teaspoons baking powder; one-half teaspoon salt.

Method: Cream fat and sugar then add vanilla and egg. Beat well. Mix in flour sifted with baking-powder and salt. Shape in roll about two-inches in diameter. Wrap in wax paper. Chill thoroughly. Cut in and bake at 375 degrees Fahrenheit for 10 minutes. Makes four dozen cookies.

Salad a Day—The rules for health say "serve a salad every day," and this means at least one green or raw vegetable in the day's meals. Raw carrots, beets, turnips, and parsnips, all are included among good salad vegetables.

Both colorful and appetizing are cabbage, beets and apples, as winter-time salad makings. When apples are used the skin should be left on as it brings red or green touch to the salad. Cabbage and Beet Salad is a bright luncheon dish for the post-festive season.

Ingredients: Two cups finely shredded cabbage; one cup diced celery, one cup diced, unpeeled, red apples; one-half cup finely shredded, raw beets; one teaspoon horseradish; one-third cup French dressing; salt and pepper.

Toss all ingredients lightly together, and arrange on crisp lettuce leaves or outer cabbage leaves. Garnish with parsley and celery curls. Serves six.

GARDEN NOTEBOOK

HOT-BED OUTSIDE WINDOW EASY TO BUILD AND MANAGE

For the gardener who has a basement window with southern exposure, it is possible to build a practical hot-bed which is more easily watched, aired and watered than the standard type.

In front of the window make a shallow excavation about a foot deep. The size must be figured carefully, so that a frame set in this excavation can be covered by window or hot-bed sash. As in the case of other hot-beds, a glass substitute may be used on the sash, if desired.

Build a frame to fit in the excavation. The sides must slant sharply from a point above the window, almost to the ground. Fit the sash on this frame, using hinges at the top so the sash may easily be raised for ventilation. Earth may be banked around the frame to keep out the cold; and the sides should be as tight as possible to keep out the wind.

The frame should be caulked where it joins the foundation to prevent drafts.

Heat is supplied to this bed by opening the basement window, and allowing the heated basement air to enter the bed. The window is left open at night and may often be closed during the day when the sun is shining on the bed. Hotbeds of this type have been tried and tested, and although they do not maintain temperatures as high as other kinds the heat will be more even, and the ventilation much better.

What to sow in a hot-bed? The tender vegetables that need a long season, such as tomatoes, peppers, and eggplants, the harder cabbage and cauliflower, a few cucumbers or summer squash in pots sunk into the earth so they may be transplanted readily, all may be started here.

Most of the annual flowers will benefit from an early start here if you do not plan to put them in the cold frame, otherwise use the hot-bed only for the tender or slow ones.

The main things to watch are temperature and drafts. Ventilation is necessary on warm days, and for very short periods on cooler days. Sow seed thinly and water bed moderately when planting; thin out when needed.

William Gordon, customs officer at Ocean Falls, who has been on a brief visit to the city, is sailing by the Princess Louise tonight on his return to the paper town.

SAVOY DEFEATS CO-OP 33-27 IN HOOP FIXTURE

Led by Joe Davis with 18 points, Savoy defeated Co-op 33-27 in Saturday night's senior basketball league fixture. Flaten, for Co-op, was outstanding with 14 points. Lindsay and MacPhee of Co-op spent the evening on the bench due to illness. Savoy started off by taking the lead and held it throughout the game. At first quarter the score was 12-9, 22-15 at the half and 30-21 at the three-quarter mark.

In the intermediate game Port Edward made their debut by losing a close one to the Bo-Me-Hi lads. Port Edward led right up to the dying minutes when two baskets by Shier and one by Scherk made the score 29-27 to take the game for Bo-Me-Hi. Vickers was high for Port Edward with 13 points while Shier and Scherk were tops for Bo-Me-Hi with 11 and 12 respectively.

In the second Intermediate game of the evening the Merchants, after a slow start, took the Fashion Footwear by a score of 27-23.

In the Junior game Stone's won over Gyro 16-12. After tying the score 12-12 at the end of the third quarter, Stone's scored four points while they held the Gyro scoreless.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL LEAGUE IN OPERATION AT CIVIC CENTRE

Every Friday in the Civic Centre Gym is Juvenile Basketball League day with four teams from the local schools participating. Booth School has one grade 7 team, Borden Street has another team and King Edward rounds out the league with two squads.

On Friday last the two weekly games were played before a howling crowd of ardent supporters. In the opening game King Edward No. 1 squashed the Booth School quintet by a wide margin, 12-2. This was a thrilling game even though the score was so one-sided. King Edward, under the leadership of coach Bob Irvine, worked wonders with a "zone defense" which Booth just couldn't break up.

In the second game of the day, Borden Street school bowed down to a close 5-4 decision at the hands of King Edward No. 2. This was the hard fought game of the day with both squads battling furiously for the victory.

The league standings to date are as follows:

TERRACE RED CROSS BUSY

Spurred by New Hospital, is Doing Fine Work
TERRACE—The annual meeting of the Red Cross Society in Terrace was held in the Red Cross rooms on Wednesday evening with R. M. Corey presiding. There was a fair attendance. Reports were presented and it was stated that there were about 300 members and the amount of $781.00 was collected in the membership drive last March. In his report the Red Cross out-post hospital at Terrace had been completed same time ago and was now expected to be opened in March. Mrs. George Dover chairman of the Work Committee, gave a detailed report of the year's work which showed how very active the organization has been during the past year. From January to June ten complete layettes as well as socks, mittens and sweaters, were made and shipped out before the summer recess. Among these were some very attractive little girls' dresses made by Mrs. Alger and her church helpers.

In June the local branch was asked by Miss Jack, supervisor of Nurses and furnishings for Out-post hospitals, if they would make the curtains and hangings for the local hospital as well as certain supplies such as crib sheets, bassinette sheets, dresser covers, bed-side table covers etc. This was no light task as there are about eighty windows with two curtains to each window. This work was started in September and, until it was finished, the Red Cross rooms were open on Friday afternoons as well as the usual Tuesday afternoons, with help coming from ladies who had hitherto not been active in Red Cross work.

Mrs. Elwood Brooks supervised a group of girls in the making of dressings for the blood donor clinic and for which there is a constant demand. A room has been set aside in the new hospital for Red Cross work which will be carried on under ideal conditions, and the year's program will include sewing and mending for the hospital. Mrs. Dover asked that more workers rally around this year and show appreciation of the Canadian Red Cross in establishing here such a fine hospital as well as showing interest in, and sympathy for the helpless victims of the war. Finished articles shipped during 1947 included 38 babies' nightgowns; 30 babies' vests; 10 babies' blankets; 10 babies' jackets; 10 babies' bath towels; 10 babies' face cloths; 10 babies' bonnets; 20 babies' booties; 140 babies' diapers; 20 pairs children's socks; 47 pairs boys' socks; 6 sweaters; 5 pairs mittens; 7 girls' dresses; 18 handkerchiefs; 1 quilt; 2500 blood clinic dressings.

Reminiscences By W.J. and Reflections

To combat the rising cost of living, Canada's consumers are turning to baked beans. It should not be inferred from this that pork is associated with the beans, although it has always been assumed there is a certain affinity. In short, a sort of "two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one" identity. Today, in considering beans it must be stated that pork is out. Pork is not only out. It is, in fact, becoming exclusive, if not positively uppish. The price is beyond the average man, and so he falls back on that homey little brown pot, filled to the brim with well cooked "yaller eyed beans," hot and tasty, along with molasses fragrant, steamed brown bread, and plenty of butter and coffee. No one starves on that.

This man found Seattle altogether too swift for him. He prefers to stay up north. His name is Emmett Botelho, and he's an Alaskan territorial patrolman.

Not long ago he took a trip to Seattle for the first time in his life. He had never been further south before, than Ketchikan. Now he is back and he says:

"Things and people move too fast there for me."

In Seattle he was met at the plane gangplank by a horde of photographers and news reporters, for he was a novelty, and therefore, news. But, he did not wish to be photographed or interviewed. He moved for a car as quick as he could.

"I may go south again in 20 or 30 years," he remarked, after his return.

Sir Wilfred Laurier was in Metlakatla once. Aboard a stern wheel steamer he spent part of a busy day, viewing the landscape from the shore at Metlakatla, and slowly pacing the deck, and the Premier drank in the freshness of the September morning, and beauty of the hills. As much to himself as to those within hearing he said, with a slight accent: "A grand countree. A grand countree." The party strolled from the shore at Metlakatla over to the school and Laurier, bowing to the teacher, remarked that a new pupil had come to her fine little school—and suggested that all have a holiday.

Prince Rupert has seen five theatres come and one remain between 1909 and 1948. First of the lot was a glorified barn on Rupert Road where the late Frank Stevens assaulted the piano and villainy pursued virtue all over the screen. Next, on Second Avenue beyond Seventh Street appeared what looked like a promising little movie house but it first had a fire, then contracted malnutrition and died in real life. The Westholme and Empress theatres on Second Avenue saw years of good—and not so good—business, each giving stage plays as well as pictures. Even musical comedies, with buxom chorus on the pint-size stage of the Empress, remains one of the minor mysteries of the amusement world. The Westholme was roomy, with balcony and boxes.

FUNERAL OF JOSEPH JACK

Many Pay Final Tribute to Memory of Prince Rupert Pioneer

Mount Pleasant Funeral Home in Vancouver was crowded with former Prince Rupert people as well as other friends and a former Prince Rupert clergyman when the funeral took place on Wednesday of last week of the late Joseph E. Jack, who succumbed to serious injuries sustained in an automobile accident a few days previous. In the same accident, Mrs. Jack was also injured and was still confined to hospital, when the funeral was held.

Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church officiated, paying high tribute to deceased and alluding to the respect and esteem in which he had been held throughout his long residence in Prince Rupert. Following the service interment was made in Forest Lawn Cemetery. Consisting principally of old Prince Rupert friends, the pallbearers were Joseph Saunders, Ernest Gammon, Malcolm McLeod, Robert Cameron, J. Lowe and E. R. Baker.

Among the many who sent floral offerings were: The Family, Douglas, Grace and Bert, Belist Chapter O.E.S. (Prince Rupert), Tsimpsean Lodge A.F. & A.M. (Prince Rupert), Conestoga Lodge A.F. & A.M. (Drayton, Ont.), the Bothemlys (California), The Boys (California), Bryce, Wanda and cony and boxes. Around the corner on Third Avenue, another playhouse, the Majestic, for a year or so relieved lives' vexing worries and finally came the Capitol, which immediately became the city's entertainment centre, setting a strictly modern and gratifying standard.

Moose Whist Drive And Dance Enjoyed

The weekly program of card playing and dancing in the Moose Temple under the auspices of the Loyal Order of Moose Saturday night proved to be an enjoyable and successful affair. Card playing, under the direction of William Terry, took up the early part of the evening. Prize-winners for the women were Mrs. D. Bolam and Mrs. A. Moller for the women with Gillis Royer and Joe Ratchford tallying high scores for the men.

Dancing to music provided by Stevens' Orchestra commenced at 10:30. Following the distribution of prizes to the winners at cards during intermission, the gathering was entertained by the talents of Mrs. Nora Thompson at the piano and Stephen Drew with his guitar. Refreshments were served at 11:15 and the balance of the evening was devoted to dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Harding left this afternoon by air for a trip to Vancouver.

TERRACE OLD TIMER DIES

Joseph McLaren Succumbed to Heart Attack in His Home at End of Week

TERRACE—Having evidently been dead for about a day, probably as a result of a heart seizure, the body of Joseph McLaren, resident of a quarter of a century or more here, was found lying on the floor of the kitchen in his home west of town late Saturday afternoon.

Discovery of Mr. McLaren's death was made by his son-in-law, James O'Brien, who had arrived from U.S. to visit him. He walked in and found the body on the floor. Deceased had been seen alive last on Thursday afternoon when he had been in town, or some time he had been in poor health.

The coroner, Will Robinson, and Dr. Stanley Mills were called and satisfied themselves that death was due to natural causes. A native of Scotland, Mr. McLaren was 69 years of age. He came here from the East Kootenay country where he had followed mining. Some years ago he was assistant forest ranger and later engaged in trapping and well digging.

The widow has been spending the winter in Trail where she has married daughters—Sophie and Fanny—reside. Another daughter is Mrs. James (Margaret) O'Brien of U.S.

How better radio tubes create employment for Canadians

In the very earliest type of three-electrode radio tubes produced about 1906-7, various metals were tried. Some of these were too expensive. Others corroded, or were difficult to keep clean during the manufacturing process.

Lee DeForest, the inventor of the Audion tube, found that Nickel did not oxidize in the process of making the tube. It was easy to weld to other metals.

So today the metal parts of vacuum tubes are being made almost entirely of Nickel or some alloy of Nickel. The International Nickel Company's research department has co-operated with the radio industry in the development of the best Nickel alloys for use in radio tubes.

Improvements in the vacuum tube have steadily increased its uses. It has become the heart of long distance telephone service. The development of motion picture films with sound tracks, as well as amplifiers for public address systems, have been made possible entirely by vacuum tubes.

Previous to 1906 not a single pound of Canadian Nickel was being used in vacuum tubes. Today hundreds of tons of it are used in millions of radio and telephone receiving and amplifying tubes.

This new market for Canadian Nickel, brought about through scientific research means jobs for hundreds of men in the Canadian Nickel industry. The expansion of the radio industry, in which Nickel has played a part, has also provided employment for thousands of Canadians. This does research develop better products, create more employment.
