NOTICE OF MEETING

The annual meeting of the Civic Centre Association of Prince Rupert will be held Friday, January 27, 1950, at 8 p.m. in the Civic Centre Auditorium.

Many Ignore Appeal For Curtailment

Water Low And Coal Is Scarce Unless there is an immediate forty percent reduction in the consumption of electricity in Prince Rupert or the long cold snap turns to soft and wet weather, the Northern British Columbia Power Co. will be able by ten days to provide only enough energy to keep essential industries going on a minimum basis.

While some consumers may have cut their use of electricity, Mr. Black said, others have apparently increased it and consequently there has been no reduction in the total usage.

Water levels at Falls plants, continuing to drop and efforts being made to conserve them, the company has the steam plant at the Canadian National dry dock running on a full time basis. One hundred tons of coal daily is being used and slowness of deliveries of coal to the city had today reduced the stock of fuel available there to ten days.

Water levels at Woodsworth Lake dam, source of the Shawatians Lake power plant water supply, is being lowered at the rate of 4.8 inches per day, leaving a maximum storage available for all purposes of twenty days at the present rate.

Falls River maximum level is 302 feet, the present level is 288.2 feet and the minimum useable level 282 feet.

With a forty percent reduction in power consumption, the dry dock plant could be kept running indefinitely, Shawatians plant thirty days and Falls River plant, twenty-one days.

Mr. Black reminded also the vital importance of water supply from Woodworth and Shawatians Lake being maintained if the dry dock plant is to be kept running. This points to the necessity of general water as well as power conservation.

Really A Purge

NEW NATIONALISM DECREES in Hungary arrests and deportations of British, American, Swedish and now Canadian citizens from Hungary, Poland and Czechoslovakia seem part of a single process. The purpose is the complete isolation of these European nations from the rest of Europe in order that they may be brought more completely under Russian control and influence.

The purpose of the nationalisation decrees is not economic. It is officially described as a means of preventing the offices and works of foreign firms from being used as "nests of sabotage and espionage".

It is all "sabotage". Foreign businesses are to be liquidated in order to prevent sabotage. Foreign residents—even consular officials—are arrested on charges of espionage.

The effect is a double one. Life is to be made intolerable and work impossible for any Westerner living in these countries. They are to be expelled or induced to leave: who would wish to remain with the possibility hourly over his head of arrest? And at the same time, an atmosphere of dread and distrust is created. So that, whether for fear or suspicion no Pole or Czech or Hungarian will have any contact or any dealings with any Western foreigner if he can avoid it. For even to meet and talk with a Westerner is to invite doubts of one's own "reliability".

So, even when not arrested or directly threatened, the foreigner will be boycotted until he removes his unwelcome person. The whole process is a purge, an expulsion of all Western elements.

NORMAN WALTON

IT IS TWENTY-FIVE YEARS SINCE Norman B. Walton was assistant general superintendent of Canadian National Railways at Prince Rupert and he went a long since that time, rising to the post of executive vice-president which he held when he died suddenly in Montreal at the week-end. Had he not been at the age of retirement, Mr. Walton might well have become the president of the system for his capabilities as an executive and a railwayman, which were apparent even when he was in Prince Rupert, had long since become widely recognized on the national level.

Those who knew Mr. Walton when he was in Prince Rupert, and after a quarter of a century their numbers are now dwindling, remember him as an able, courteous and fair official, taking a keen interest even in the smallest problems that were brought to him by the humblest persons. One did not have to be an important business man, a member of the Chamber of Commerce or something like that to receive the personal attentive and usually helpful consideration of Mr. Walton. He consequently, had friends and admirers not only among his subordinates in the railway service but among all the citizens with whom he came in contact one way or another. Those qualities which made him such a successful administrator in the local and regional spheres soon won for him the advancement to the broader national scope in railway affairs where he served many years and with admitted and consistent success. (He was a protege of S. J. Hungerford, a former C. N. R. president, who first spied his outstanding talents at Prince Rupert.)

A man of perception, integrity and decision, Mr. Walton made friends wherever he went not only for himself personally but for the railway system he served. He was a good friend of Central British Columbia. He knew and could sympathize with the problems of this part of the country. We shall miss him from the national level of railway affairs for even thousands of miles away on McGill Street he never lost the keen interest in the affairs and people of Prince Rupert and Central British Columbia with whom he became so well acquainted and obtained such a grasp during the four years he was here.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

In future the unnering wail of the siren will tell Prince Rupert there is a fire. We first heard it after Pearl Harbor. Some sounds are pleasant but not this one. It gets under the skin. It is sinister and ruthless—all for instant action of some sort. Not a word is spoken but you understand everything perfectly. It says: "Wake up! Watch out! Danger toward! Away with you! A fire d--n it."

A noted British Columbia poetess told a local audience that people should expose themselves to poetry. Their lives will be the richer for the experience. Well, only the other day, we wrote a limerick without assistance.

"Most people," observes a psychologist, "are grouchy at breakfast." This has been noted at Prince Rupert during the present icy snap. How can one feel merry and bright after a poor shave, partly warmed house, diluted milk, more porridge, cold cup and saucer, an egg too soft and a reminder to be sure and bring home what was forgotten the day before.

Under such compelling conditions, it should be hardly necessary to urge fullest co-operation in conserving power. As a matter of fact, as everyone knows, there has always been the tendency toward wastefulness. It's little short of amazing to discover how much one can do without for a while without suffering more than a little inconvenience.

Higher Wages Being Sought

Substantial Increases Asked
By Fish Workers

Substantial wage increases are being demanded by the Prince Rupert local of United Fisherman and Allied Workers Union following a special meeting held Sunday to consider proposed changes in the 1949 agreement between the union, fish companies and the Co-op operating along the city waterfront. Alex Gordon, business agent of U.F.A.W.A. from Vancouver was present at the meeting. After visiting the local branch for the past week he left for the south aboard the Chilcotin Sunday.

The wage demands, details of which are not announced pending presentation to the operators will be based upon the fact that the cost of living during 1949 showed an appreciable increase with indications that further increases will occur. Relinquishing of rent controls by the Dominion government which will result in an approximate five per cent increase plus and the effect on the cost of living occasioned by the ten per cent devaluation, were cited by speakers as other factors which will cause a continued rise in living costs.

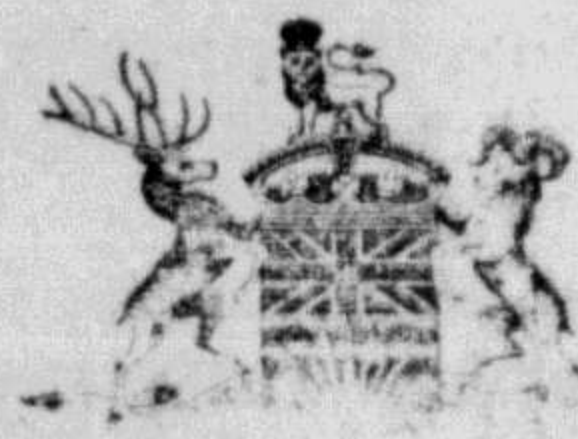

Also considered by fishworkers was the great disparity existing between the American fishing industry wage rates and B. C. rates. This question, it was held, is of prime importance to all persons connected with the Canadian west coast fishing industry, since at the present time, a powerful campaign is being carried on by U.S.A. operators and unions to either increase tariffs or place embargoes on imported B.C. fish. One of the main arguments used by those interests across the border against importation of B. C. fish is the comparatively low fish price as a result of wages prevailing in the B.C. fishing industry which places United States producers and processors in an unfavorable competitive position. Improved hourly and overtime conditions, union security and several other general improvements are being sought by the group.

How many people today know who the "Covenanters" were? Covenanters! The National Covenant! The Solemn League and Covenant! The Cameronians! Claverhouse! David Leslie! The Lowland Scottish Brigade! Loos! That's the association of ideas. From 1581 to 1915. And now these Scots are at it again. They have another Covenant which patriotic Scots (in Scotland) are signing by the thousand. All they want is a Scottish Parliament. Well, British Columbia, with less than a million inhabitants, governs itself locally. The Six Counties have their Parliament in Belfast. But the five million people in Scotland are governed by the Sassanach majority at Westminster. Apparently these Scots like English government today no better than they did in 1300.

Historically noted for their ferocity, their quarrelsomeness, their haughty pride, their love for direct action and their contempt for the gentle art of compromise, it will be interesting to watch how, if, as and when these Scots get their Parliament in Edinburgh again, how this stiff-necked nation of individualists manages to conduct itself. Modern parliamentary procedure might make them hold themselves down in doing which their former kings had such indifferent success.

Co-ops Win Rough Game

Defeated High School With Two Points to Spare
Basketball fans witnessed the roughest game of the season Saturday evening when the league-leading Co-op won over the second-place Bo-Me-Hi team by a scant two points—56 to 54. In the final quarter players really started to rough it up and Referee Alex Bill was forced to call an official's time out. It was a good move and the cooling-off period settled the players down to some fast moving basketball and gave the game a thrilling finish.

Co-op flipped in the first basket and was never headed from that moment until well on in the fourth quarter when the students took over the lead for the first time at 45-44. The lead was only temporary, however, as Co-op immediately sank two baskets and a foul throw to lead 49-45. It was at this point that tempers started to fray and every player seemed to have some old score to settle. Bo-Me-Hi continued to threaten Co-op's lead and the final close score was a pretty good indication of the night's play. Either team could have won the game and it was of no discredit to end up the loser.

The Scherk brothers were both hot in their shooting, Sid Scherk for Bo-Me-Hi leading the way with 17 points, 16 of them from some one-handed set shots that were worth the price of admission to see. Brother Don sank 7 field baskets and two free throws to garner a smart 16 for Co-op, followed by R. Holkestad who peppered the hoop for 13 markers, and Jim Flaten who looped in 10. Joe Davis was quick on the rebounds and made a handy eight points for his efforts. Ray Spring worked in 15 points, mostly from the pivot position, but too often shot from the key when well checked, instead of getting the ball out to his teammates. Carlson and Webster played well for the school, Webster showing more confidence each game and giving a nice demonstration of dribbling and faking that left the opposition flat-footed on several occasions.

Bo Me Hi—Bill 6, Carlson 5, Moore 2, Hatchford, Scherk 17, Sharpe, Spring 15, Webster 7, Kristmanson, McChesney 2. Total 54.
Co-op—Arney 2, Davis 8, Flaten 10, Holkestad 13, Morgan 2, Scherk 16, M. Holkestad 1, Beynon 4. Total 56.
Officials, Dominato and Bill. Personal, Bo-Me-Hi 13, Co-op 6.

INTERMEDIATE
Fashion overwhelmed North Star in the Intermediate fixture to win by a 43 to 17 score. Haugan showed some of his old speed and fire to light up the score board like a pinball machine, getting top score for the evening with his 19 markers. Referee Teng and Sunberg called 10 fouls on Fashion and 11 on the North Star. It is just a case of weight, height, and experience paying off when these two teams get together and, as Fashion has a big edge in all these attributes, the final result is just about inevitable. However North Star boys will all be a year older and wiser in another season and then will be a force to be considered.

Fashion—Gill 6, Haugan 19, Hebb 3, Hill 8, Intermela 4, Lien 1, Watson 2. Total 43.
North Star—Hamilton 2, Hartwig 3, Ketcheson, Parnell 2, Sedgwick, Simonsen, Wesch 5, Young 5. Total 17.

JUNIOR
There were two games in the Junior division, Sea Cadets nosing out Stone's by a 26-22 score, and High School having an identical lead in their encounter with Rupert Hotel which they won by a 23 to 19 score. Drake for Sea Cadets racked up 13 points to lead the four teams in scoring, followed by J. Parnell with 11, Sather with 8 and Clarke and Nickerson with an even half-dozen. High School—Brown, Clark 6, Nickerson 6, Peterson 2, Rhodes 2, Sheppard, Smith 5, Tait 2, Total 23.

Rupert Hotel—Forman 1, B. McFarlane 4, Mark 2, Morrison 3, Sather 8, Stacey 1. Total 19. Officials, Large and Calderoni.
Stones—P. Parnell 5, J. Parnell 11, Jeffrey, Sankey 4, Stewart, Antone. Atkins 2, Marshall, Total 22.
Sea Cadets—Christiansen, Wing 2, Mathews 2, Drake 13, Leighton, J. Leighton 3, Toderas 1, Black 5, Ford, Total 13. Officials, Large and Husoy.

Civic Centre Is Partly Closing

Setting an example for the rest of the community, Civic Centre management today decided on a curtailment of activities in order to conserve light and power in view of the current emergency.

Auditorium and gymnasium will be closed but smaller meeting places will remain available for essential meetings. Closing of the gymnasium will mean suspension of basketball leagues.

The Daily News at the week-end started a power conservation program which, it is estimated, will mean a fifty percent saving in consumption.

Because the landlady could not sleep, what might have been a major fire was averted early this morning. Mrs. E. M. Cook of the Vernon Apartments on Second Avenue woke up early today and smelled smoke. She made a check of her room and, finding nothing there, rushed outside for an investigation of the ash can. Returning to her suite, she noticed sparks flashing from the ceiling next to the chimney.

The fire department was called and by 1:30 a.m. the blaze, which had been caused by ashes dumped in a paper box by the roomer directly above, was quickly extinguished. Damage is estimated at between $50 and $75.

The flames burnt a hole through the ceiling of Mrs. Cook's suite. Events of the Moose Hall fire still fresh in their minds, the landlady and the Fire Chief both felt irked by the act of disposing of hot ashes in a paper box.

Churchill Stirs Them

LONDON — Former Prime Minister Winston Churchill stirred up Britain's election campaign during the week-end with a warning against "another plunge into Socialistic regimentation."

Sir Hartley Shawcross, the Attorney General, last night retorted: "I would have thought that, if ever men's souls were regimented, it was under the old Conservative party regime."

Churchill, in an address Saturday night, called for a return to free enterprise to "win us back the glorious ascendancy" which marked the rise of the British Empire. It was his first major speech since the general election was set for February 23.

United Nations In "Worse" Situation

LAKE SUCCESS — The United Nations today faced the prospect of trying to function without Russia for at least a month.

Only six atomic talks have been stopped by the walk-outs of Soviet Russia and Soviet bloc countries since December 13.

Other committees continue their work, apparently unhampered but with the knowledge that Russia will not consider any decision taken in her absence as legal.

Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary-general, says the United Nations is in a worse situation than when the Berlin blockade threatened to burst into war.

Reconversion of this building will, it is estimated, cost upwards of $100,000.

The first suites should be available by late spring with six months required for completion of the whole project.

A new company is being incorporated around this new apartment project and Armstrong Agencies have been appointed to handle the property.

"Me use Nickel?"

The oil and gas he sells would cost more were it not for Nickel. Tough, hard Nickel Steel bits bite through rock to reach the oil. Drilling equipment is made of Nickel Steel to stand terrific stresses and corrosion.

In the tankers at sea, in the tank cars which transport oil products, in the tank trucks which bring oil and gasoline to the service station, Nickel alloys are used in many ways.

Forty-three years of research have uncovered hundreds of uses for Nickel in the United States and other countries. Now Nickel exports bring in millions of U.S. dollars yearly. These dollars help pay the 14,000 Nickel employees and also help pay railwaymen, lumbermen, steel and iron workers and other men and women making supplies for the Nickel mines, smelters and refineries.

CREW RESCUED

Staff, the Port Simpson oil-gan camp on the lower Naas. At 9 a. m. the barge left and pushed into the freezing wind and ice. Within an hour it was frozen in and the Naskeena answered a phone call for help, towing the barge back to Kincolith dock where the cooling system was changed and repairs effected.

Meantime the crew, traveling over the ice, had reached Fishery Bay and late in the afternoon got to Red Bluff working their way out on the ice in a vain search for the barge. They camped in an Indian shack for the night but, from all reports, did not get much sleep and were out with the dawn of the morning—it was Friday the Thirteenth. Hiking with their sleds, they waited for three long hours until through the misty vapor rising from the river there appeared what looked like a white wall moving toward them. It was the barge smashing its way slowly with its 350 h. p. engines toward the men and finally reaching them at noon. There were ten inches of solid ice around them, huge masses of which, some ten feet high, pushed up on the sand bars by the tide. Those men were certainly glad to see that barge which tried unsuccessfully to drop its apron and had to get them aboard over the icy side. It took four husky men to hoist the weighty cook aboard but at last all were safely on the barge while the young teacher, Alan Calford, and his Indian friends were on the way back to Greenville.

Back in Rupert

The barge reached Kincolith in good time and there the men were transferred to the Naskeena which brought them through to Prince Rupert the same night. The landing craft, in charge of John Flewin, skipper, and Barney Brophy, engineer, left Kincolith an hour or so later after reconverting their cooking system. They were accompanied by Mr. McDougall and William Flewin and reached the city the following day. Indian Superintendent F. E. Afield has nothing but praise for the co-operation and assistance rendered by all concerned especially Howard Reade, forester for Columbia Cellulose, whose careful planning and overall supervision brought the venture to a successful conclusion. The Agency launch was in charge of W. B. Bailey, assistant superintendent, with Vincent Wells and Leonard Rapp as crew members. Mr. Bailey, a veteran of the Arctic as well as the Navy during the war, said he had never seen ice and wind in greater force than on the Naas that trip. Pictures taken on the trip bear out these statements, showing ice floes, pack ice and the picking up of the crew at Red Bluff.

Construction of the schools will be resumed when the weather permits and most of the evacuated crew hope to go back and complete the job uninterrupted by these unusually severe winter weather conditions.

Alaska Boat Grounds on Kinaban Island—Chilkoot Heading for Skagway

The Alaska fishing vessel Molly was assisted to Prince Rupert late last week after it had gone aground south of here at Kinaban Island. Aid was given by the Birnie of the Department of Transport. The Molly had run out of gas and, while in this condition grounded on the island, propeller and rudder being damaged. The hull is reported in good condition.

Flagship of the Frank Waterhouse line fleet of coastal freighters, the steamer Chilkoot, Capt. Harry Stevens, was in port during the week-end. The vessel arrived 10:15 Saturday morning from Vancouver and Butedale and sailed at 4 p. m. for Watson Island whence, after a brief stay, she sailed for Alice Arm to unload supplies for Torbrit mine and load concentrates after which she proceeded to Skagway with coal and general freight for the Yukon. Local Customs Officer Norman McGlashin accompanied the Chilkoot to Alice Arm and will return here tomorrow morning on the Coquiltam. The Chilkoot is expected back here in about a week's time south-bound from Skagway.

Union steamer Coquiltam, Capt. William McCombe, arrived in port at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Vancouver and waypoints, sailing at 11 p. m. for Alice Arm, Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow morning to sail south at 1:30 p. m.

On her way back to Vancouver from Maset Inlet points, Union steamer Chilcolin, Capt. Harry McLean, arrived in port at 6:30 last evening and sailed at 11 p. m. for Vancouver and waypoints.

ILL STICK THIS LETTER IN DADDY'S HATBAND SO HE'LL BE SURE TO MAIL IT WHEN HE LEAVES

I'LL HAVE TO LEARN ALL THOSE LITTLE THINGS FOR WHEN I BECOME A WIFE, WON'T I?

YES, DEAR

JUST TO GET A LITTLE VARIETY IN MY LIFE, I BELIEVE I'LL WEAR MY OTHER HAT TODAY

NOW WHAT DO WE DO, MAMA?

GOSH, HOW I DREAD SHAVING EVERY MORNING WHEN I GET UP

I WONDER HOW I'D LOOK IF I'D JUST LET MY BEARD GROW

THANKS FOR CLEARING THE TABLE FOR ME

I JUST HAVE TO SHAKE OUT THE TABLECLOTH

DO YOU REMEMBER THE TIME THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES WAS HERE AND THOSE CRUMBS?

I TOLD HER I WAS SORRY
