Canada To Recognize
State

A. Q.—Canada probably will recognize the new state in Palestine in the near future, a cabin-indicated here today.
The move will be in line with President Truman's recommended late Friday recognition is
"facto" basis—recognition which would involve the use of diplomatic attaches.

miners were rescued today from a flooded coal mine here.
They were Edward Heck, 35, and Peter Gorton, 35, both from Kin.
The men were trapped Tuesday after coming gushing in from a shaft where they were working from mine.
Bashore, 42, working on strata on the same mine, was believed killed by flood water.

Twenty Million Yearly Health Program Planned By Gov't.

OTTAWA (CP)—A permanent $30,000,000 yearly program of federal grants to help the provinces extend their public health services was announced in a statement Friday afternoon by Prime Minister Macdonald in a 3,000-word statement.
Parliament will be asked to vote the money at the session, presumably the month before program described the grants
"first steps" in developing a comprehensive Canadian health insurance plan.
The program will be in force now, Mr. King said, it will be because of the country's shortage of needs. The money will be used by the provinces in surveys, cancer, tubercular and venereal disease control, treatment of crippled children, research, mental care and hospital construction.
The only condition attached to the grants is that the provinces maintain "at least" their present expenditures on health services. Generally, the grants will be made on a per capita basis.
Mr. King's announcement won prompt approval of the opposition parties.

AN COMMUNIST CHIEF ARRESTED—This photograph shows the capture of Clotilde Prestes, sister of the Brazilian Communist chief, Luiz Carlos Prestes, and other South American during police raid on clandestine Communist press in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Still shouting defiance at police, she (centre) is surrounded by her husband, Justino Prestes de Menezes (beside her), and other comrades. The man in the foreground is described as being with herself (at left). Clotilde Prestes is described as the most important woman Communist leader of Latin America.
Police reported that she had recently returned from Brazil and had been the object of a widespread hunt.

Arabs Start Large Scale Invasion Of Israel

Guardsmen Protect Meat Plant Workers

SOUTH ST. PAUL, Minn. Q.— National Guardsmen with fixed bayonets held back a surly crowd of about 500 persons today as automobiles containing workers, followed by more than a score of military vehicles carrying soldiers, moved into the strike-bound Swift and Company plant.

The strike for higher wages was called by the United Packinghouse Workers' Union (CIO) in mid-March.

More than 25 automobiles loaded with workers moved into the plant and within a few minutes a large convoy of National Guard trucks followed.
The crowd roared its opposition and many gave Nazi salutes and parodied the national anthem as the trucks rolled by.
There was only one minor disturbance, however.

FATHER OF 'BOYS' TOWN DIES IN BERLIN

BERLIN Q.—Msgr. Edward J.
Flanagan, 61, known throughout the world as the father of "Boys Town" in Nebraska, died in an army hospital here early today after a heart attack. He had been on a youth inspection tour of Germany.

MARGARINE PROBE PLANNED

OTTAWA Q.—The government will launch a Senate committee investigation into "all questions" on margarine at the beginning of the next session of Parliament, Government Leader Senator Wishart Robertson announced in the Upper House Friday.
The move culminated the three-year, unsuccessful attempt by Senator W. D. Euler (L.-Ont.) to legalize the sale of margarine in Canada.

Sensor Robertson said Friday that "careful consideration should be given to the proposal to establish a domestic margarine industry in Canada and its utilization of domestically-produced edible oils. Tariff protection against foreign competition and the possible effect on the price to the consumer should be considered."

The Senate adjourned until June 1 after passing the bill to increase war pensions by an over-all 25 percent.

VAST HANGAR TO BE BUILT

OAKLAND Q.—What is probably the world's biggest airplane hangar will be built by the U.S. air force at Fairbanks, Alaska.

The Hudson Pacific Murphy Corporation disclosed today that they had completed 80 percent of the hangar's prefabricated steel framework. The hangar doors are 280 feet wide, larger than any aircraft now in service.

HAGANAH FIGHTERS MAN THEIR POSTS—Fighting for their Holy Land homeland which is still in the throes of birth, a girl and youth of the Haganah (Jewish national army), man their outpost in the rugged country outside Jerusalem. Although young in years these girl and boy fighters are already veterans of the battle with the Arabs for an independent Jewish state. Meanwhile the British army announced that considerable reinforcements of infantry, guns, tanks and marine commandos were being sent to Palestine. Some have already landed and will be in Jerusalem in a few days.

Lower Prices $64 Question To Country As Demands Increase

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

Do we get higher or lower prices, is the current $64 question as fresh demands are made upon North American production.

It has within recent weeks replaced the question current since early 1947, which was:
"When Does the Recession Start? (Apparently any general recession has been put off for this year at least.)"

To the high or low price question a different answer might be given every day, depending upon what section of business or industry is reporting.

It is not altogether a matter of demand pressing upon supply.
It is considerably a matter of an economy which has been pressed with abnormal demands for nine years, and under conditions in which normal economic laws do not operate freely.

It is also a situation where an easing-off trend has been met by the new demands of the European Recovery Program and re-armament, with a sort of business whirlpool resulting.
In all it seems to make for general prosperity, but with individuals falling victims in the hurry going.

Will this result in a new inflation on top of present high prices?
Those who say "no" do so on the ground that they don't think the present economy can support any drastic price-rise.
They argue this way:

The First World War was followed by a new income and price level and a higher standard of living for the individual.
It was, however, a level with inherent limits. It could be consolidated but no immediate way had been found to extend it into higher ground. An effort to extend it through a stock market boom ended sadly in 1929. Even the depression, however, didn't destroy the new standard—people lived far short of it, but it remained the achievable goal.
The same process of still higher income and price level followed the Second World War.
Again it has inherent limits until it is consolidated.

One difference in the situation following the two wars, is that where as the first was followed by a turn to restrictive trade practices, the second is being followed by efforts at wider world trade. This is the chief hope that the world can head into a real prosperity.

For the present there is a prospect of shortages in vital materials, which may well become worse as the year goes on.

There is considerable doubt, however, that these can be translated into higher prices for consumer goods, for the simple reason that people cannot afford to pay higher prices. No matter how heavy a demand may appear, there comes a point where it can price itself out of existence. Example: You may not like to crowd into a house with other people, but you will if the price of one of your own comes too high.

MARKETS HOPE-UL

What people would like to see is a situation where, with efficient and increased production, they may use their increased incomes to get a greater share of goods. The stock markets which since 1946 had regarded the economic situation with uneasiness, have recently displayed confidence in its essential soundness and majority opinion seems to foresee a further rise in quotations.

MAYOR ENDORSES JUNIOR CHAMBER CLEAN-UP WEEK

Mayor Nora E. Arnold today gave her support to the Junior Chamber of Commerce "Cleanup-Paint-up" committee, urging citizens to beautify the city for the benefit of Prince Rupert morale and the enjoyment of visitors.

Clean-Up-Paint-Up Week, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, begins Monday, concluding next Saturday.
Mayor Arnold's message:
"The members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce are to be congratulated on their enterprise in conducting the annual Clean-Up Campaign and I commend this effort to all citizens and urge them to do their part by improving their own properties.

"We have a beautifully located city with its mountain-ringed harbor and the many trees and rock formations are the admiration of visitors. We can have a beautiful city also if we all join in and do our best to improve our own sites.
Much work has been done in the past to develop gardens out of muskeg and the many new owners of the former wartime houses are to be commended on their efforts during the past few months. Let us have a clean and beautiful city and we shall find both material and moral benefits."

NORA E. ARNOLD,
Mayor.

EARTHQUAKE CAUSES TIDAL WAVE SCARE

Seismographic recordings of the quake indicated that it was near the Aleutian chain.

VESSEL STRIKES MINE, SINKING OFF CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO Q.—The United States Coast Guard today reported an SOS from the American freighter William E.
Channing, saying it had struck a mine and was sinking. The ship was about 35 miles off Crescent City or the Northern California coast.

There was some confusion over the identity of the vessel, however, pending a Coast Guard check.

Halibut Fisherman Drowns

Turbulent Hecate Strait Friday claimed the life of a halibut fisherman despite the efforts of his crew mates to rescue him after he had fallen overboard.

Drowned was Herbert H. Valpy, 53, of Vancouver, a former Prince Rupert man, crew member of the halibut boat Invercan II.

He was drowned after being washed overboard as the ship was buffeted by a 35-mile an-hour southeast gale. Fellow crew-men's efforts to save him were unavailing in the rough sea.

The mishap occurred 10 miles from Squadree while the crew was hauling gear.

A line thrown from the boat reached him and he grasped it, but the vessel surged so strongly in the waves that it was jerked from his hands.

Then his shipmates tried to reach him with a pike pole but he was too far from the boat.
Weighted down with his heavy fisherman's garments, he disappeared. The body was not recovered.

The Invercan, Capt. Oscar Snodgrass, came to port last night.

Born at Port Essington he was one of a family of seven boys, most of whom live in the district.
He was a veteran of the First World War, and served overseas with the 102nd Battalion, C.E.F.
He was well known as an athlete before leaving for Vancouver 12 years ago.

He is survived by his widow and six children living in Vancouver.

Barbara Bail To Reign As Kinsmen Queen

It wasn't magic, but yesterday afternoon at the Civic Centre, Margaret Slinn, assisted by Neil Ross, drew a queen right out of a hat. It was just an ordinary hat but in it there were the names of five princesses, all candidates for Queen of the Kinsmen's celebrations May 24.

Petite Barbara Bail of Conrad Street School is the lucky girl and on her coronation day she will be honored by the "royal" presence of Alice Nickerson, queen in 1947 and princesses Norma Montgomery, Joan Anderson, Bertha Marion and Olive Strand.

The drawing, arranged by R.
G. Moore, chairman of the Kinsmen Queen committee, was held during a recess in the two-hour indoor track meet carried out by pupils of the King Edward School.

Terms Radio, Movies 'Mental Flophouses'

Pulp Magazines Scored By University Department Head

MONTREAL Q.—The three biggest "mental flophouses" in America are the radio, movies and pulp magazines, Dr. J. B.
Nash, director of New York's University department of physical education and health, told a meeting here.

Dr. Nash said that 555,000,000 man-hours a day are spent listening to soap operas which fail to even challenge "the mentality of a seven-year-old moron."

"One of every seven persons in the United States went to movies nightly to see pictures which were an insult to the intelligence.

"The mechanical age," he said,
"has brought us a tremendous amount of leisure, but in spite of all the time-saving devices, there is hardly a person in this audience who is doing as much for some worthy cause as did his mother and grandmother."

FELICITATIONS FOR PRESIDENT CHIANG— Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek beams with her husband as they read messages from abroad, at Nanking, China, congratulating Chiang on his election as the first president of the Chinese republic under the new constitution. Chiang was elected on April 19, but he has been top man in China for many years with the title of Generalissimo.

MODERN WAR

PROFESSIONAL MILITARY MEN are admitting that if war ever comes again, the later weapons can, and doubtless would involve their own destruction, as well as that of the enemy. Once certain agencies and instruments whose dread power is understood, become released, control vanishes.

An atomic bomb, the first ever dropped, destroyed a Japanese city. A second one followed, with the same result. This was near the end of the Second Great War. What atomic bombs can do today had best be left to the imagination. But defence experts in the United States are calmly saying that atomics could level cities such as Washington and New York, Philadelphia and Chicago.

A HEALTH PROGRAM

THE POSSESSION OF HEALTH is rightfully regarded as coming first in the list of blessings. Because of it life can be useful in various and valuable ways, be reasonably happy, and contribute to the general welfare of family, community and country.

Premier King's announcement of a permanent $30,000,000 yearly program of Federal grants to assist the provinces to expand their public health services comes as welcome news indeed. It was given approval of parliament, irrespective of parties, as it should. Maintenance of health is a public duty, but a service to be effective, must have money. The provinces will see in these Federal grants, the gradual realization of what has so long been hoped and worked for.

FORMER CITY RESIDENT DIES

Advice has been received in the city, announcing the death of Louis Phillip Metz, in Seattle, May 1, at the age of 68 years. He will be remembered by many of the pioneer citizens, for he was in business here, operating a machine shop at Cow Bay between 1920 and 1923.

He was a member of the Moose Lodge, as well as being a trustee of that organization. He is survived by his widow, Emily Sophia Metz, a stepson, Elmer Roy Webber, of Park City, Utah, and three sisters and four brothers in France.

Mr Metz had been a resident of Seattle since 1923, being a machinist and boiler-maker for Drake-Puget Sound and a member of the Boiler Makers' Union, Local 104. The funeral took place May 5 in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Would Use Planes To Fight Locusts

CAPE TOWN — Farmers want the government to make use of aircraft to exterminate locust swarms in the Cape Midlands. The swarm in the Graaff-Reinet division is regarded as the most serious since 1938.

Eight lorries and 100 men go out daily with hundreds of bags of poison, to fight the rapidly-growing swarms. It is estimated that they are meeting with 90 percent success.

Unless the locusts are stopped, the new veld growth will disappear and the position will be serious. A Karo flying service offered to aid the locusts division if equipment were supplied. Air spraying, it was stated, proved most effective in the United States and Kenya.

Motorists travelling through the Belmont Flats are squelching through layers of locusts and radiators of cars are being clogged up.

Along the Jansenville road, vast tracts of grazing land look as though they had been burned away.

The local locust officer, Jurgens Smith, stated that in some parts it was estimated that 90 percent of the Karoo had been destroyed.

FORMER SMITHERS WOMAN DIES AT VICTORIA

The mother of a former Rector at St. James Church, Smithers, died at Victoria earlier this month. She was Mrs. Hannah Maria Hales, mother of Rev. Leonard Hales, Rector of St. James Church several years ago. Mrs. Hales lived with her son at the Rectory.

Funeral services were held May 7 at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, conducted by Rev. Arthur E. Greenhalgh. Rev. Mr. Hales, who is now at Kinistino, Sask., attended the service.

SAINTLY CITIZENSHIP

May 16 is the birthday of the Christian Church as it is observed by Western Christendom. It is also called Pentecost, or fifty days after Easter. It commemorates the occasion when the Holy Spirit came to earth in His present fullness. With His coming many spiritual gifts became available to men. One of them was immediately seen in the disciples, who a short while before were cringing in fear. They became bold in the knowledge of the truth. They were sure of themselves in spiritual matters and showed it as they faced the multitude with their message.

The message that was so prominent is the story that God has sent Jesus Christ to provide the forgiveness of sin for men. The Holy Spirit makes this forgiveness available, so that men can become saints. Surely, it is foolish to think that we can make ourselves holy. Still, what we cannot do, God is able to accomplish. We cannot forgive sins, but God can. By the work done by the Holy Spirit, men are cleansed from the guilt of sin. They become holy in God's sight. They are given the state of sainthood.

The Holy Spirit enables us to believe God. His Word is made available in the Bible or at church services. Its message enters the heart of man, and there does its purifying work. Jesus once told the disciples that they were clean through the word which He had spoken to them. That word convinces us of sin and of God's wrath against sin. It also points us to Christ as our Saviour from sin, death and the power of the devil. It gives to us the knowledge that though we have sinned against God, there is forgiveness to all who receive Christ as their Saviour. God calls all those who receive Christ saints. Because of that, anyone who is a Christian is a saint. A saint is a holy person. The Christian is holy because he has received the forgiveness of sin, the Holy Spirit has taken up His dwelling in his heart, and he has received a cloak of righteousness as God's gift. This is the mark that makes him a citizen of the Kingdom of God. That kingdom is found on earth in the hearts of true Christians. It is found in a fuller sense in heaven.

Sometimes it is hard to understand this truth. We are all familiar with our own lack of holiness. But the holiness that makes us saints is God's gift. It is not of our own making. It is not the same as our own character. It is a spiritual quality that enables us to have fellowship with God. It makes of us children of God. The Holy Spirit bestows this gift upon men. He desires you to have it. He bestows it upon you if you permit Him to do so. Sainthood means that our home beyond this world is heaven.

Scribe Clips Fellow Writers' Sports Poll

By EDGAR SIMON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO—Sports writers have suffered the unkindest cut of all.

They stand accused by one of their own number of having no more intelligence than the average hockey coach.

The stab in the back was administered by Andy Lytle (Toronto Star) as he looked over the balloting for the Hart and Lady Byng trophies, compared it with the vote for the National League All-Star team and shook his head sadly.

The two trophies went to New York Rangers Buddy O'Connor—"just a fair country puck carrier," says Andy—as a result of a poll among writers in N.H.L. cities. The All-Star squad was picked by the league's coaches. It isn't easy to say, Andy concludes, whether the writers outvoted the coaches in voting.

The coaches, of course, committed social suicide in Toronto circles by almost ignoring the champion Toronto Maple Leafs in their All-Star selection, with Turk Broda the only Leaf making the grade. But Andy is no kinder in summing up the writers' job in picking the trophy winners.

In the Hart race, Milt Schmidt, "one of the greatest centre players in the league," got three voters to O'Connor's 36. Syl Apps and Ted Kennedy rated seven votes apiece along with Detroit's Ted Lindsay. Gaye Stewart picked up three votes and Doug Bentley a singleton.

In Lytle's copy, the above summary is liberally studded with outraged exclamation marks.

In the Lady Byng poll, Doug Bentley collected only two votes and Gus Bodnar one.

Andy's most crushing retort will probably bar him from sports writers' clambakes and coaches' conferences for life: "Current methods of selection leave both sets of experts wide open for liquidation."

Opposition Curlers Trim N.S. Cabinet

Government's Worst Defeat Not in Legislature

HALIFAX—The Nova Scotia government took a bad defeat half way through legislative sittings but not through a no-confidence vote.

After a year-old challenge, the cabinet finally got around to an after-work exhibition curling match against the backbenchers and took the 15-7 trouncing.

Cabinet curlers were Premier MacDonald, Highways Minister Rawding, Health Minister Davis and Agriculture Minister MacKenzie.

Opposing them were Henry Hicks, R. A. MacLellan, G. T. Purdy and D. D. Sutton.

Selection Of Puck Gentleman Causes Furor

By VIC MORRIS, Jr.
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO—The selection of Buddy O'Connor of New York Rangers as the most "gentlemanly player" in the National Hockey League has caused a minor controversy.

O'Connor who this week became the first player in the history of the N.H.L. to win both the Hart and Lady Byng trophies in the same season, received twice as many votes as Toronto's Syl Apps, his nearest rival for the Lady Byng award which goes to the most gentlemanly player.

Doug (Windsor Star) Vaughan fails to see eye-to-eye with hockey writers and broadcasters in six N.H.L. cities who selected O'Connor. He thinks Apps was deserving of the Lady Byng award and gives his reason why the selectors missed out in the picking of the right man. He says: "Too many of the selectors, past and present, seem to think that in the awarding of the Byng trophy all that should be done is to check the records for the season, find the player who has drawn the least number of penalties and you have the man entitled to the award."

A hard going player can be the finest sportsman in the world and still he will draw penalties because hockey is a rough game, he says.

The 31-year-old O'Connor is light and fast and can't afford to take the bumps like his heavier opponents.

"That's why he doesn't get penalties. Apps, on the other hand, is big and strong and has never ducked giving or taking a body check when occasion demanded it."

"In our book," says Doug, "There have been few more gentlemanly players ever to grace the N.H.L. and 'Old Man' Vaughan thinks Apps should have been the winner of the Byng trophy this season."

LIFE in this Prince Rupert by BIDDEE JINKS

Coming to Rupert has been a bit difficult for Ross A. Lort, adjudicator for the recent Music and Drama Festival (innocently dubbed "the agitator" by the very young).

His first arrival, 6 years ago, was premeditated 35 years. Each day of that span may not have been spent pondering the thing, but at its beginning Mr. Lort, in Victoria, hesitated while deciding whether to go south to San Francisco or north to Prince Rupert. His address, while hesitating, has been Victoria.

On May 5, 1942, Ross Lort arrived in Prince Rupert. On May 5, 1948, he arrived again; and on May 5, 1949... but no tip-toeing into '49!

Both times he has carried his little satchel down the gang-plank trouble dogged him from behind then met him out front. This latest, after tramping the decks fearing the boat could not pull up a 12-hour behind schedule which existed at Ocean Falls, it docked more than an hour ahead of Festival opening. Mr. Lort stepped off to hear that the only out-of-town drama entry was holed up somewhere out in the mountains, with no telling when they could arrive. Mountains are such stubborn things.

On the first arrival Mr. Lort was enroute to Terrace with the Royal Canadian Engineers. He was government engineer, supervising construction of the military camp at Terrace—and the only civilian in the lot, due to an uncompromising attitude held by the Army and the Navy regarding ages.

That was six years ago, with the war on, and people practically crawling over each other. Difficulties had a way of sticking out like barnacles. It was like that for Ross Lort for that one month. Always, it seemed he was at the tail end of a cafe queue, hungry, hoping food would hold out. While that gnawing went on 'way down, a sweet little thought of where to spend the night would pop up—just by way of making the present not so bad.

Thinking back, I'm trying to remember if Mr. Lort was one of the many who came to the door in those days begging a bed. If there was not a spare room, then could they please sleep on a mat, or anything, just for one night?

Probably not; for before things got too desperate, inner wheels of an inner wheel got working and turned out a ticket which allowed board and room in a staff house. Mr. Lort was a dock-worker, and didn't know it. He was too honest and didn't know that—until he went to pay for his board which little manoeuvre raised the airy question: "Who is this—and when doth he start work?"

When the staff house door shut next time, Mr. Lort was on the outside. Looking for food, and another bed.

After the first week, voluntarily, Ross Lort left his next room. He declares it was haunted. Every night, at the same hour, he wakened, aware of a presence which he simply left to haunt some other, heavier sleeper. He climbed into the upper bunk of a naval barrack where he stayed

CITY SHRINERS ATTEND VERNON CEREMONIAL

Over 500 Shriners and their ladies will be converging on Vernon May 21, for the Blossom-Time Ceremonial of Gizeh Temple, Oasis of Vancouver, Desert of British Columbia and Yukon, being held Saturday, May 22.

Among them will be several members of the Prince Rupert Shrine club who were hosts to the ceremonial here a year ago.

The Ceremonial will be preceded by a grand ball in the Vernon Arena the previous evening, Friday, May 21, to which the public will be invited. Gizeh Temple band and colourful marching units will give a special display on the dance floor, and special selections will be sung by Gizeh Temple Chanters.

G. Roy Long, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of British Columbia, and William R. Simpson, Grand Secretary, will be special guests at the ball. Another special guest will be Illustrious Noble Dr. Ben S. Bailey, Past Potentate of Kharum Temple, Winnipeg, who, as Supreme Grand Master of the Sovereign Great Priory of Canada (Knights Templar), is en route to the coast.

His Worship Mayor Adams and Mrs. Adams, the Superintendent and Matron of Vernon Jubilee Hospital will also be introduced.

Shriners from all parts of the province, as well as from neighboring Temples, will be present. The coast Shriners and their ladies, to the number of nearly 400, are leaving Vancouver by special trains the evening of May 20.

A civic reception and parade will take place at Kamloops on the morning of May 21 and visitations will be made to Tranquille Sanitarium and the Provincial Home. On the afternoon of May 21 when the Shriners' trains arrive in Vernon, they will be met by Nobles and their ladies from all interior points. There will be a colorful street parade in Vernon.

On Saturday afternoon, May 22, in Vernon, there will be another parade to the Jubilee Hospital. At the Ceremonial on Saturday evening over 60 candidates will traverse the 'hot sands.'

The Shriners, and particularly the candidates, are looking forward to a warm reception in Vernon and en route, as was tendered to them in Prince Rupert last spring.

ADVERTISING PAYS OFF

Bill Geddes, while digging in muskeg the other day, found, at a depth of about two feet, a celluloid card, bearing the date 1912. On it appears a portrait, and below the portrait, the words "When in town call and get acquainted with Martin O'Reilly, Prince Rupert, B.C." The card is in an excellent state of preservation.

Mr. O'Reilly, who died a good many years ago, and who carried on a men's furnishings store, was in business on Third Avenue, between Fifth and Sixth Streets.
