Peace In Palestine Is Approached From New Angle By U.N.

PARIS (CP)—Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting United Nations mediator for Palestine, today presented to a private session of the Security Council, draft of a resolution which would call on Arabs and Jews to begin armistice and peace negotiations immediately.

The Security Council has explored a new approach to peace in Palestine, transforming the present truce into a United Nations-sponsored armistice. The Council had two sessions scheduled for today—one private and one open. Some sources say the armistice would widen the separation of Jewish and Arab forces.

Meanwhile Israel has formally asked the United Nations to investigate reports that "not inconsiderable numbers of British troops have entered Transjordan and some, Palestine.

The Arab Legion of Transjordan is British-trained and subsidized. It bore the brunt of summer fighting in Jerusalem. The Egyptians are reported evacuating Gaza.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
Cold weather was general across all regions of southern British Columbia this morning. Coldest spot in the province appears to have been Cranbrook where the mercury fell to 13 above but 25 recorded at Vancouver airport was 14 degrees below the normal for early November.

The high pressure area that has dominated the southern B. C. coast for the past few days is slowly weakening although no marked change is likely during the next 24 to 36 hours.

The northern coastal regions are expected to remain cloudy with occasional light rain or drizzle. Fog will form during the night along the southern mainland.

Forecast
Queen Charlottes and North Coast—Cloudy today and Wednesday. Occasional light rain or drizzle. Winds southwesterly (20 m.p.h.) in the exposed areas, light elsewhere. Little change in temperature. Lows tonight and highs Wednesday: Port Hardy 25-46, Massett 40-45, Prince Rupert 40-45.

PRINCE RUPERT ON AIR NETWORK

Prince Rupert is to be featured as Canada's "Town of the Week" on the Canadian coast-to-coast radio broadcast on December 22. Don Forward, director of Prince Rupert's Civic Centre, has been advised.

This city has been selected, says a letter from Ogilvie Flour Mills Co. Ltd. of Montreal, sponsors of the "Town of the Week" program, because of the fine community efforts shown here by the Civic Centre organization.

Further, a check for $100 is to be presented by the milling company to assist in Civic Centre work.

The program will give Prince Rupert much valuable publicity including facts of its historical background and present population, industries, educational facilities, beauty spots, interesting buildings and streets, featuring, of course, the Civic Centre itself, what it has already done and what it hopes to accomplish.

New Effort Launched To Settle Problem Of Berlin; Currency Study

PARIS (CP)—Secretary General Trygve Lie has assigned his top United Nations legal expert to study the Berlin currency problem in a new effort to reach a settlement. Neutral efforts to find a solution of the Berlin crisis broke down last month, mainly over the currency question.

B.C. Associated Boards Council Approves Local Resolutions

Resolutions from Prince Rupert dominated a recent meeting of the council of Associated Boards of Trade of British Columbia in Vancouver, according to word received by E. T. Applewhite, secretary of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce which sent several resolutions through the medium of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia.

The council endorsed locally-originating resolutions dealing with:

- Establishment of Coast Guard service on the coasts of Canada.
- Permanent year-round maintenance of the Alaska and Haines Highways.
- Greater freedom of travel between Canada and the United States.
- Control of coastal freight rates.

WRECKED LIGHT KEEPER COMING

Temporary Replacement Has Been Made at Egg Island

R. L. Wilkins, keeper of the Egg Island lighthouse, which was dislodged and wrecked by a gale which swept Queen Charlotte Sound last week, has made such recovery from the resultant experiences that he and his wife and child are able to leave Bella Bella Hospital. They are boarding the lighthouse tender Birnie at Bella Bella and are expected to reach the city Wednesday night or Thursday morning.

Meanwhile a temporary unattended flashing light has been installed on Egg Island until such time as there is a permanent replacement.

Lt. Cdr. N. A. Beketov, the new agent of the Department of Transport here, is leaving on Thursday night aboard the lighthouse tender Albemarle to survey the situation at Egg Island.

ELIZABETH'S DOCTOR ON CALL

Royal Baby Is Due This Week-End at Buckingham

LONDON (CP)—Princess Elizabeth's baby, whose birth is expected this week-end, will bear the title of Prince or Princess. He or she will be addressed as "Royal Highness." King George today altered a 1937 ruling by his father King George V which limited this title of children or grandchildren of the King in the male line only to ensure that the baby will have the title. The amendment was announced tonight in the official London Gazette.

Sir William Gilliat, Princess Elizabeth's gynaecologist, who will deliver the baby in her room on the second floor of Buckingham Palace, said that he refused to say whether next Saturday, Sunday or Monday is the expected date, as reported by London papers, or whether the pain-killing drug trileone will be used as an anaesthetic.

LIFT ZONING RESTRICTIONS

The city council last night adopted a recommendation by the zoning committee that land which Allan Armstrong is purchasing from the Canadian National Railways on the north side of Fourth Ave. adjacent to Section 6 be zoned to permit multiple dwelling units and that the existing zoning bylaw be amended to permit erection of such buildings in the whole of Section 6.

BIG FUNERAL FOR CHINESE

VANCOUVER (CP)—One of the largest Chinese funerals in the history of Vancouver was held Monday for Jung Jin Sow, aged 59, publisher of the Chinese Times and grand master of the Chinese Free Masons.

Headed by a band playing a funeral dirge, more than 150 cars took part in the procession. Jung, a native of China, died October 2 but, because of his importance in the Chinese community, the funeral was deferred.

Prince Rupert Gyro Club will be in regular monthly business session at the weekly luncheon meeting tomorrow. Yesterday there was an executive session.

This shows the bus telescoped into the street car.

Bulletins

SENTENCE INCREASED

VANCOUVER—Charles Frederick Haines, 64, will serve fifteen instead of five years in prison. He was convicted of setting two fires at Youbou, Vancouver Island, May 8 and 28 in which two men were killed and fourteen injured. The appeal court raised the sentence Monday following an appeal by Attorney General Wismer.

ACCIES BEAT AIRDRIE

LONDON — Hamilton Academicals defeated Airdrieonians 1 to 0 in the replay of a Scottish League cup quarter-final game. Both previous games had resulted in ties.

MORE WAR IN CHINA

NANKING—Chiang Kai-Shek, far from down and out, warned China to get ready for eight more years of war on the Communists. Observers today believed that Nanking would be in Communist hands before the end of the year.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

OTTAWA—Remembrance Day, November 11, is a statutory holiday. Its observance depends upon custom. It is listed as one of eleven public holidays in the year but the government has no power to enforce its observance.

SHANGHAI CRISIS

SHANGHAI — Hungry crowds today stormed rice shops in Shanghai where prices showed no signs of abating in an economic crisis, described as "worst in 100 years." Police were tearing through the streets all day in armored cars in response to calls for help from harassed shopkeepers. Since yesterday prices of most daily necessities, including rice, have doubled.

Cold And Foggy Weather Is Tying Up Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—Heaviest fog of the season blanketed this city today and caused one serious accident, tied up hundreds hurrying to their morning work. Two street cars collided on East Hastings sending the motorman and two passengers to hospital. The city is also having exceptionally cold weather. It was 25.6 above early this morning.

PEOPLE TO VOTE ON POLICING, PARK FINANCING, CHLORINATION

The number of plebiscites which will be held in conjunction with next December's civic elections was boosted by two last night when Alderman George Casey obtained passage by council of a pair of resolutions which will sound out local opinion on policing methods in the city and on a plan for financing park improvement.

Another resolution, urging a plebiscite on the matter of whether the mayor should be elected for one year or two, was defeated by the aldermen by a vote of eight to one, Mr. Casey being the sole supporter of his motion.

Alderman Casey now stands as the champion plebiscite promoter of the year with three to his credit. An earlier one which passed through council last summer under his sponsorship, will ask the voters to give their opinion of chlorination of the city's water supply.

TWO NEW QUESTIONS

The two resolutions which were passed last night will seek popular opinion on the questions:
1. "Do you approve the policy of policing the city with provincial police by annual contract with the provincial government?"
2. "Do you approve of a special levy of one mill to be added to the tax rate for five years for the improvement of city parks?"

In speaking to the resolution on the police plebiscite, Alderman Casey said that he "had no quarrel with the police" but that he disagreed with the principle of centralized police authority.

"Besides, the Indians are not exactly getting a proper show when they come to town," he said. "The police give them too much attention."

Mayor Arnold replied that Sgt. Potterton had informed her that of the number of native cases which come to the attention of the police only about 10 per cent—the most flagrant cases—reach police court.

Alderman Brooksbank said that "it should be stressed that this is no criticism of the present police force. The plebiscite should be granted only on grounds that the people should have the right to decide what form of policing we should have."

RULE FROM VICTORIA

Alderman McKay supported Alderman Casey in objecting to "rule from Victoria."

Alderman T. B. Black said that "I feel this is the best system of policing that Prince Rupert ever had and I am in favor of continuing it."

Mayor Arnold reminded the aldermen that, if the electorate did vote against policing by the provincial police force, the city would have to cancel its contract and organize a city police department.

Employing D.P.'s

SIX WOMEN from displaced persons camps in northwestern Europe have reached Prince Rupert General Hospital. Eighteen months ago the hospital authorities, in desperation at being unable to get suitable help locally, put in an order to National Selective Service. The arrival of these women at this time is the answer.

A letter taking exception to the importation of these women has been received at the Daily News office and has been denied publication because it has only a non-de-plume and no signature for bona-fide responsibility. Probably there will be other comment as to why the hospital board has resorted to the D.P.'s.

No doubt, the hospital authorities, as much as any one else, would prefer, if at all possible, to obtain local women or girls for the domestic help or, failing that, at least present residents of the country. As for the D.P.'s they are nothing more or less than carefully screened European immigrants such as many of Canada's best citizens or their ancestors were at one time. So there can be no particular objection on that score particularly at a time when it is agreed that Canada needs more population of the right type of people who will be able to do useful work, adapt themselves to the country as good citizens and assimilate to build and stock the nation.

Unfortunately, instead of being reasonably capable, responsible and conscientious, some people turn out to be clock watchers, trying to do as little as they can for as much as they can gouge and thinking of everything else than the work they are paid to do. There may not be many of these but what there are may spoil things for the others.

Speaking generally we would say that local employers are only too anxious to obtain the services of local people and all they ask is that some measure of value received be given for the wages paid.

'COMIC' NOTE

THERE HAS BEEN some discussion of late as to adverse effect or otherwise of the comic books, at least a certain type, on the young people. We are inclined to agree that there can be no ill-effects. To say nothing of the money and time wasted when both might be used to better advantage for more useful purposes or for more wholesome literature, it seems futile to suggest that there cannot be some ill physiological effect from a lot of the rubbishy comics which are about these days and which probably have little parental supervision.

In passing, here is a new item which we picked up from an American newspaper:

"A 16-year-old Mississippi boy, tired of cotton picking, went to Little Rock, Ark. There, police say, he boasted of committing from one to eight holdups. Proceeding to St. Louis, he robbed a restaurant, was pursued by one of the waiters, shot his pursuer, was caught finally by the police, who say he told them he was 'inspired' to become a holdup man by comic books and crime movies."

OUT OF CHARACTER

CLOTHES MAKE THE MAN, according to the old saying, with the implication that man must dress the part if he wishes to create the right impression at the right time and place. This must have slipped the mind of a hold-up man in Chicago on Hallowe'en night, when he attempted to rob a tavern. The state of the robber's clothes, described as resembling those of "a booby prize winner at a costume party," led the bartender to ignore an order to hand over his money. The stick-up man flashed his gun at the customers, who merely gave him an amused glance and went on with their conversation. Nonplussed, the would-be criminal gave it up as a bad job. He turned and ran, without loot or dignity, the victim of society's dictum that you must look like what you profess to be if you want the world to believe you.

-Victoria Times.

CARE IN HUNTING

SO FAR this season hunting casualties in the district have been comparatively few. In earlier years it seems there were more fatalities. Possibly today hunters are fewer and game less, or repeated warnings against acting too hastily in the woods have been taken more to heart.

To reflect on this is to feel a deep satisfaction. A violent death, under any circumstances, is deplorable. When the victim is a stranger, the shock and sorrow overwhelm, but when he is an acquaintance—perhaps close friend and neighbor—it is even more grievous if that could be possible.

Continued vigilance is to be recommended. Be sure before you shoot!

LETTERBOX

NOT FROM MOSCOW

Editor, Daily News:
I have read a pamphlet secured from the office of the Chamber of Commerce entitled "How Communists Operate." I was unable to detect anything new that I had not witnessed throughout my thirty years' experience in the trades union movement dating from 1894 to 1924. The two elements were forever present and all the tactics described in the pamphlet as communistic were the general order of my experience in the labor movement. To my own personal knowledge these tactics were not imported from Moscow as Lenin was little known in the western world until after the Russian revolution in 1917.

The high priests of my day were Samuel Gompers, Eugene Debs, W. D. Haywood and Daniel DeLeon—all now deceased. All were Americans loved and respected by millions of working people throughout the North American continent representing all shades of political opinion. DeLeon was at one time a professor in economics in the same University as Woodrow Wilson who later became president of the United States. Debs drew more votes as presidential candidate in 1904 than Henry Wallace did in 1948.

Without the radical or aggressive element the trade union movement would die of stagnation.

It might be news to some of your readers, Mr. Editor, to know that P. C. Rawlings, an editor for more than twenty years on the Vancouver Province, was at one time an associate of Debs and Haywood in the revolutionary movement as the stenographic report of the fifteenth annual convention of the Western Federation of Miners will show. I myself was a delegate to that convention in Denver in 1907.

In 1919 William Montgomery, the late S. D. Macdonald and myself represented the trade union movement of this city at the Western Labor Conference at Calgary when greetings were dispatched to the Bolsheviks of Russia and the Spartans of Germany. That dispatch conveyed the feelings of Canadian labor at that convention.

The labor movement contains within its fold a variety of views—political, economic, religious and social—that provide a reasonable balance. Hence the onward progressive march of civilization under the dynamic force of economic determination—not communism necessarily but a combination of forces in the struggle for existence.

What City Council Did

Received statutory notices from the Electricians and the Civic Employees unions that re-opening of negotiations for revision of current working agreements would be sought for next year.

Turned over to the City Engineer for study and report, a request from the Prince Rupert Gyro Club that the city construct a substantial fence around the new Gyro pool at McClymont Park as a safeguard.

Appointed Aldermen Rutherford and Brooksbank to sit with Mayor Arnold on the Court of revision which will give final approval to the civic voters list later this month.

Approved the sale to Stanley Wozney of the easterly half of lot 5, block 23, section 6 (Ninth Avenue East) for $135 and the westerly half of the same lot to George D. Anderson for the same amount.

Approved a report of the board of works requesting the City Engineer to prepare a report and estimates covering the proposed drainage of McBride Street from Fourth to Third Avenue.

Licensing committee action in granting trade licenses to two persons was approved. Licenses were granted to J. P. McLean to operate a messenger service and to Prince Rupert Builders Supplies Ltd. to sell building supplies.

Approved action of the utilities committee which reported that a pay telephone station has been installed at the junction of Piggott and Sixth Avenue and that an additional location will be chosen and a further station installed in that general area in the near future.

"He wasn't taking argument, I merely asked him to explain the situation," countered the Mayor.

Alderman Nickerson said he could see no reason for putting a plebiscite to the people on the matter.

A plebiscite, Alderman Rutherford said, would be all right with him.

The motion was passed, with Aldermen McKay, Casey, Rutherford, Brooksbank and Black voting for it and Aldermen Nickerson and Stone dissenting.

Alderman Casey's final resolution, asking a plebiscite regarding a special tax levy for park improvement was passed unanimously after an amendment by Alderman Brooksbank had been agreed to, changing the resolution to include all city parks instead of Roosevelt Park, as was contained in its original form.

INSPECTOR SPEAKS TO CONRAD PTA

Conrad Street Parent-Teachers' Association heard an address by Inspector of Schools Joseph Chell last night in which he discussed the purposes of Education Week. Mr. Chell spoke at the monthly meeting of the organization in the school basement.

Purpose of Education Week, he declared is to focus public attention on what the schools are trying to do and to solicit their support of modern educational methods.

Schools, he said, are becoming increasingly important because of an increasing tendency on the part of parents to leave the training of their children to these institutions. He stressed the responsibility of both parents and teachers in this training.

Mrs. Robert Cameron, Conrad Street representative to the Parent-Teachers Council, read a report from the council urging support of all P-T.A. groups for the new school building by-law which will be voted on in conjunction with the December elections.

Mrs. Harold Thom, treasurer, reported that current membership of the Conrad Street group is 92.

Principal T. G. Bateman, reporting for the film committee, said that so far, films appropriate for showing at the school

THE ICEMEN COMETH—IN FORM OF NEW YORK RANGERS—Seems like only yesterday the boys were sweltering in the bleachers. And here it is hockey time again. The New York Rangers rang up the curtain with a battle against the Detroit Red Wings at Madison Square Garden in New York. The home-town fans were disappointed, for Detroit beat the Rangers 3-2. However, the team is handicapped through injuries sustained by star players in a bus accident at Montreal before the season opened. Here are Eddie Kallman, Edgar Laprade and Tony Leswick, expected to be the backbone of the Ranger sextet this season, chopping up the ice during practice.

Today in Sports

BASKETBALL
Of course the current topic around the Civic Centre gym these evenings is the Harlem Globe Trotters and their anticipated visit to Prince Rupert. Those who already have seen these boys in action will naturally look forward to seeing them again. Those who haven't are in for something. These masters of melon-tossing are now renowned all over the world and it was a very great surprise to Don Forward when he received word from Chuck Jones, their Vancouver representative, that Prince Rupert is to be favored with their show. When it is considered that crowds of ten to fifteen thousand turn out in the large centers to see them, there seems little likelihood that they are looking forward to the few shakels they will pick up here. It appears very clear that it is just an outing for the lads and a bit of a break for that tough circuit they follow in the United States.

Getting back to the home town lads here we should go out on a limb and predict a victory for one of the two senior teams in tonight's battle but it's a very difficult chore and also dangerous in this rabid community. With the exception of very slight changes here and there, both Savoys and Brownwoods are essentially the same clubs that fought it out tooth and nail on many occasions last season.

settled before they became too dangerous. With Sampson at centre, Brownwoods should have a better team than last season and they scored as many points as anyone in the 1947-48 show. With the top whistle experts of the league unavailable at present, the referee problem is proving a bit of a headache for the Referees' Association. It is generally felt that, in this growing community of ours, there must be the odd referee and coach drop in from time to time. Those who are in that category would be welcome at the Civic Centre desk. While it has been mentioned that there is a shortage of referees, it hasn't been told why Johnny Comadina and Fred Calderone aren't around so far this year. Well Johnny had to part with his tonsils, a very unpleasant parting by the way, and is on the road called recovery moving at a fast clip. Calderone took his vacation from his oil company job to hit the fishing grounds for a week or so and is due any day now. It is to be hoped these two boys appreciate how much they are being missed and how important their presence is to the successful operation of the league. Get that wheel-chair rolling Johnny.

Reminiscences
By W.J. and Reflections

Clyde Gilmour writes in The Province about the time he was in Newfoundland during the war. He says:

"I'll never forget the old fisherman I was chatting with one fine morning on Water Street in St. John's. A pretty girl went by with a perky, bouncy walk and smiled at us. I pointed at her, and said: "Nice, isn't she?" The old man took his glasses off so he could see better. He gazed after her in silence, for several seconds. Then he sighed and, with the utmost chivalry and sincerity he said: "Dat be truly wunnerful, sir. I do like to see a wooman dat she's got a bit of a twitch to dah flank."

The situation at Stewart, is healthier than what it was made to appear last summer following closing down of the Premier mine. According to those living there anyone wanting work, can find it. Even there's been some small business increase. After all, once a spot has driven its roots, frail though they may be, it's not so easy to kill it utterly. While there cannot be said to be growth there seems to be such a thing as indefinite lingering and to be one of the community is not so uncomfortable.

Yesterday's paper said the chairman of the United States House of Representatives committee on un-American activities could not pass unnoticed or neglected. That long voyage around the Horn led to the founding of what became some of the leading families of Washington and Oregon.

Mrs. J. S. Matthews, who helped her husband found Vancouver's city archives 35 years ago, died last week. The collection covers an entire floor of the City Hall. It has real value. Unless someone takes a direct and practical interest in this job of preservation, in any growing city, it will never be done. Prince Rupert has already made a first rate start and is deserving of fullest encouragement. Providing this is done, Prince Rupert by 1983 will indeed have something.

TRURO, N.S. — St. James Presbyterian Church recently celebrated its 188th anniversary. The church is one of the oldest protestant churches in Canada.

HOW CAN I ???
By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make the floors warmer?
A. The floors will be much warmer and less draughty if newspaper is spread under the rug or carpet. The paper also acts as a preventive for moths.

WISE BIRDS
EDMONTON @—A small flock of Hungarian partridges seems all set to ride out the hunting season in safety. The birds have established their headquarters on the Alberta Legislature grounds—well within Edmonton's city limits and out of range of the nearest hostile shotgun.

STORM DAMAGE—Scows broke loose from tugs, ships hurried to shelter, trees toppled and wires were torn down by a severe storm which swept Vancouver Island last week. Shown here is the Dallas Road seafont at Victoria where 10-foot waves broke over the seawall at Ross Bay, tossing heavy logs onto the road and blocking traffic. (CP Photo)

PRINCE RUPERT YEARS AGO
Twenty Five Years Ago
Mrs. Agnes Glennie, Mrs. Rebecca Keith, Mrs. Margaret Cornish and Mrs. Laura E. Kemp were the first women ever to be called for petit jury service in the history of Prince Rupert. They answered the roll call at the opening of an Assize Court session.
Heavy rains caused a landslide near Anxox which carried away a portion of large water piping near the power house, causing the smelter to be closed for a week. So heavy were the floods that residents were evacuated in case the dam broke.

At a re-organization meeting of the First Troop of Boy Scouts, 12 new members were recruited. Scoutmaster was J. A. Teng and his assistant was George Rorie, Jr.
Thirty Five Years Ago
Forecast that many new industries would be established at Prince Rupert following the completion of the railroad was made by the Daily News. These were expected to include a ship-building plant and a shingle mill at Port Edward.
Mayor T. D. Pattullo formally opened the Catholic ladies bazaar. Father Bunoz presided.
