FISH BOAT FOUNDERS

Crew of Loyal I Rescued From Mountainous Seas Near Victoria

VICTORIA (CP)—Four members of the crew of the fish boat Loyal I were rescued early today by the fishing vessel Santa Maria from a dinghy after abandoning the foundering vessel in mountainous seas about two miles off Victoria harbor. A search is now under way for the abandoned craft which Capt. Wylie believes sank at 1:30 this morning, the crew taking to the dinghy. The Loyal I was enroute from Barkley Sound to Victoria with a load of herring.

THOMAS MEILAS HAS OPERATION

Local Man Receives Surgical Treatment for Eyes

VANCOUVER (CP)—An elderly resident of Prince Rupert—Thomas Meillas—is in Vancouver General Hospital awaiting the outcome of an operation that may restore part of his lost sight.

The operation was performed in Vancouver after Prince Rupert citizens contributed to a fund to meet the cost. He will be released to a Vancouver nursing home in several days and will return to hospital later to be tested for glasses.

Meillas is also deaf, but efforts to fit him with a hearing aid while he was in hospital failed.

Victoria Hospital Boosts Its Rates

VICTORIA—A rate increase of $2 a day at the Royal Jubilee Hospital has been announced here. This brings the rates up to $6.50 a day for public wards at the hospital, $7.50 for semi-private and $8.50 a day for a mother and baby in maternity. The Jubilee Hospital has a current deficit of more than $134,000.

COLLEGE CLOSING BEING PROTESTED

FAIRBANKS—The Associated Students of the University of Alaska will protest the threatened closing of the University of Alaska, which is the most northerly college of the continent. The possibility of the closing would be due lack of funds. The 322 students include 173 veterans representing 32 states and the District of Columbia.

THE WEATHER

It flows to her ankles. She wants to make a career of showing her hair and is willing to sell it by the foot.

BRITAIN IS GALE SWEEP

Several Ships Are In Distress In Pounding Seas

LONDON (CP)—Heavy seas today pounded the coast of Great Britain and several ships were reported in distress. One, the Italian steamer Silvia Ororata, is aground on the dangerous Goodwin Sands. Eleven men on the Conningberg lightship, off the south, Wexford coast of Eire, have entered their eighteenth day without relief. They have emergency food supplies for only a few more days.

Norman Nelson, of Nelson Bros. Fisheries arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert today on a business trip in connection with his local interests.

Cut 'Small' Taxes, Boost Business Levies, Pres. Urges House, Senate

WASHINGTON, (CP)—President Truman today asked the United States Congress to vote for an immediate tax cut of $40 for each individual taxpayer and each dependent and to raise corporation taxes by $3,200,000,000 to offset it. He thus laid the groundwork for another tax battle with the Republican-controlled House of Representatives and Senate.

President Truman labelled his recommendation a "cost-of-living" credit designed primarily to relieve the small taxpayer.

Arabs Killed At Gate of Jaffa

Disguised Jews Responsible For Latest Incident in Palestine's Warfare

JERUSALEM (CP)—Jews, disguised as Palestine policemen, rolled a bomb into Jaffa gate of the old walled city of Jerusalem today from a crudely armored motor car and killed 10 Arabs.

An Arab policeman and a Jew were killed by a second bomb tossed from the car in flight.

NO POLICY ON OLEOMARGARINE

As a result of a national referendum on the question to member boards and chambers being indecisive, the Canadian Chamber of Commerce has been unable to establish a national policy concerning the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine in Canada, the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce has been advised.

Recently the Canadian Chamber canvassed its constituent member bodies on the recommendation of one of the member boards that the Chamber "exert its full influence with the federal authorities to authorize and permit the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine in Canada." The result of the poll was as follows:

Yes, 119.
No, 102.
Abstaining, 14.

The affirmative vote was not the sufficient two-thirds required for the establishment of Chamber policy.

The Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce favored the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine.

Sydney Fisher, well known local Canadian National train conductor, returned to the city on the Prince Rupert this morning from Vancouver where he has been receiving medical attention.

BROOKLYN PIER IS FIRESWEPT

Million-and-a-half Dollar Fire on East River Waterfront

NEW YORK (CP)—A 1000-foot pier and its cargo contents were destroyed, a freighter was damaged and two barges were burned in a million-and-a-half dollar fire which raged on the Brooklyn waterfront early today.

The steamer Rio Parana, 8,490-ton freighter of the Argentine state merchant fleet, was towed aflame into the East River where the crew and fireboats extinguished the fire.

ARROW HOOP TEAM HERE FOR SERIES

Fresh from a casual victory at Ocean Falls where they played a game while their boat, the Prince Rupert, was docked, Vancouver Arrows senior "A" basketball team invaded the city at noon today eager for the first of their two-series games with the Prince Rupert all-stars tonight.

Heading the 10-man squad of visitors was coach Ted Milton, crafty pilot who has brought the Arrows to the top ranks in Vancouver's rough- high-flying senior hoop scramble.

Yesterday at Ocean Falls the Arrows drubbed the paper mill boys by a score of 96 to 34 as they passed through. Previously, they took a win and a loss in a two-game series at Kamloops in close games. The Arrows won the first game by a score of 42-40 and lost their second by a score of 47-42.

At noon today they were guests at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club, after which they planned to familiarize themselves with the Civic Centre gym and then rest in preparation for tonight's game.

Actually, they brought only nine players, because Gordon Sykes who was recently elevated to professional rank, failed to regain amateur status in time to leave Monday night.

Here are the names of the players, and their descriptions:

Jack Alton—Forward, age 21, height 5 feet 7 inches, weight 150.

Jack Byford—Guard, age 19, height 5 feet 10 1/2 inches, weight 155 (team captain).

Bert Dinsmore—Forward, age 19, height 6 feet, weight 160.

Doug Grant—Guard, age 20, height 5 feet 11 inches, weight 155.

Jack Green—Centre, age 16, height 6 feet 2 inches, weight 185.

Don McKay—Forward, age 20, height 5 feet 7 inches, weight 150.

Jim Moses—Centre, age 17, height 6 feet 1 inch, weight 170.

Trevor Shaw—Guard, age 18, height 5 feet 8 inches, weight 140.

Bruce Thompson—Guard, age 23, height 5 feet 11 inches, weight 170.

They are shown as they lunched together at the London home of U.S. Ambassador Douglas.

Bulletins

OREGON FLOODS

EUGENE, Oregon—The flood crest of the Willamette River swirled northward today from this stricken upper valley area, leaving thousands of persons in the care of relief agencies and at least three died after being trapped in a ferry on the Rogue River as well as a child drowned in a rain-swollen ditch. Communities are braced for greater floods and more evacuations. Warm chinook winds caused mountain snows to melt and add to flood conditions.

STALIN GRAVELY ILL?

RIO DE JANEIRO—Mario Pimentel Brandao, ambassador to Moscow for 18 months before returning here, reports that Premier Stalin is suffering from paralysis of the right side and walks with crutches. He said that Stalin is gravely ill and that Foreign Minister Molotov is being groomed as his successor.

WASHINGTON, D.C., (CP)—President Truman today recommended statehood for Hawaii and Alaska. "I believe that the time has come," Mr. Truman said in a message to Congress on the State of the Union, "for Alaska and Hawaii to be admitted to the Union as states." The message of the President is tantamount to the introduction of legislation provided for the statehood of the two territories which would become the forty-ninth and fiftieth states.

Controls To Be Resumed

OTTAWA, (CP) — As the price squeeze on a multitude of foods tightened, the capital was buzzing today with rumors that new price ceilings and relaxation of import controls were imminent. They went without official confirmation as the government kept secret plans they might have for the bringing down of rising costs of meats, butter and fresh vegetables. There were reports that ceilings would be reimposed on beef and pork unless consumer costs dropped.

Butter may also be placed under ceiling again.

EXPEDITION HAINES

EDMONTON—Western Command of the Canadian Army announces that troops will be sent to Whitehorse for winter fighting manoeuvres to be known as "Exercise Haines."

FORCED KING TO ABDICATE

Swiss Newspaper Tells Dramatic Story of How Michael Stepped Down

GENEVA (CP) — Former King Michael of Romania had either "to bow to force or be taken prisoner," the Journal de Geneve declared today in quoting a "sure source" for a dramatic account of methods said to have been used to obtain his abdication.

The newspaper declared that Michael was called to a meeting of ministers and presented with an act of abdication. The palace had been surrounded by a regiment loyal to the government and empty cars were waiting in the courtyard.

"Michael either had to bow to force or be taken prisoner at the risk of disturbances in the country," said the newspaper. "The king did not wish to bring fresh tragedies so he signed the abdication document."

NO WHEAT THIS WAY

Chamber of Commerce Receives Report from its Grain Committee

Grain committee of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, in a report made to the Chamber through its chairman, C. A. Berner, is not very hopeful about the prospects of grain moving through the local elevator this season but has suggested that a letter to the Wheat Board, which issues specific orders for export movements of grain, might not be out of order. The Chamber is, accordingly, opening such correspondence.

"The Wheat Board," says Mr. Berner in his report to the Chamber, "has made the assignment of grain movement from prairie points to various destinations for December to April, and I do not believe that any has been routed to Prince Rupert. A large portion of the grain this year is routed to the lakehead rather than to the Pacific Coast due to it being out of condition for export via Vancouver."

'GUESS WHO?' CASE GRANTED NEW HEARING

A new trial has been granted by the British Columbia Court of Appeal for Edison Brian Briscoe, who was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson last October after he had been found guilty of a charge of retaining a stolen boat.

Briscoe appeared in Assize Court here charged with being in possession of the troller Rio II which the Crown alleged he had re-named the "Guess Who?" The "Rio II" belonged to two Vancouver men and disappeared from a Vancouver wharf in December, 1946.

At the Assize court hearing, J. T. Harvey prosecuted and Henry Castilhou, K.C., acted for Briscoe. Phillip S. Marsden, Vancouver barrister, acted for Briscoe at the appeal.

Unless a change of venue is requested, the new trial will be held at the spring Assizes which opens here on May 10.

World Responsibilities

NO ONE denies that the relationships of the nations of the world deteriorated seriously in 1947. Is there hope that 1948 will see them come together again? Have the teachings of the Prince of Peace taken a strong enough hold on the world to assure peace and co-operation? These are perhaps the most compelling questions in many minds as the new year opens. One thing has become clear—the prosperity and happiness of all Canadians is bound up, perhaps more than that of any other people, with the question of peace and world co-operation. Many wish that this were not so and that we could shake our responsibilities, but most observers at Ottawa believe that Canadians of all parties will stand together to do our full part in the councils of the world.

Canada has a foreign policy of its own and all political parties in Parliament appear to be unanimous on all major aspects of the policy. It is a policy that seeks friendship, co-operation and trade with all nations of the world regardless of their "ideologies" or political complexion. It is based on a firm belief in the good faith of our closest neighbors—Great Britain and the United States. We hope that 1948 will bring reason for a like belief in the good faith of other great powers.

COURSE IN DRIVING

TALKING OF CHANGES which have been made in school courses since the days when only reading, writing and arithmetic were hammered into young Junior's head, Edmonton school officials would like to inaugurate still another course to acknowledge the present age of mechanization—automobile driving.

J. C. Macdonald, chairman of the school board there, recently returned from the United States where he witnessed such courses being taught in schools. Together with R. S. Sheppard, school superintendent, he believes that if similar courses here would save only life, they would be worthwhile.

The plan, now being discussed by the Alberta government curriculum committee, would involve only high school students as boys must be 16 years of age and girls 18 before they can obtain a driver's license in Alberta. It would be a voluntary course and the question of whether credits would be given for it is still unsolved.

Seats would be set up in classrooms, equipped with steering wheels, gears, clutch and accelerator. This would be attached to a panel, wired with lights. A projection screen at the front of the room would simulate actual driving conditions. Teachers watching the lights would know how students were progressing. Later, they would be given lessons in dual controlled automobiles and, after passing examinations, would be presented with a certificate.

Mr. Macdonald says that such courses in the States have cut the accident rate by 52 per cent and he also believes they would cut down on property damage. If the plan is approved, it is planned to have the first course presented in school this year.

MUNICIPAL PROGRAM

A COMPREHENSIVE program of principal municipal activities for the coming year with no rash promises was laid before the council at its inaugural meeting Monday night by Mayor Nora Arnold. It is a reasonable program and one which the city should have the capacity to implement, particularly if Prince Rupert makes the progress during the year which it should under the new anticipated industrial development which is now under way.

As the mayor pointed out, the city will be having its financial problems during the year, even under the best of conditions. Under her program, a reasonable start would be made on long needed improvements such as telephone system, streets and other services.

Mrs. Arnold is to be congratulated on the sensible and reasonable grasp of the situation, its possibilities and limitations that her program implies.

PRINCE RUPERT'S WEATHER

PRINCE RUPERT recorded the warmest weather in Canada the first of the year with 44 above. Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, was found to be the coldest with 32 below zero. But how many will believe this?

For forty years and more, this city has been trying to tell the rest of the country the simple truth but they would have none of it. But whatever is a glaring falsehood or wildly distorted is calmly accepted as a matter of course.

Nevertheless, the day will yet come when westerners will move this way as a desirable location for the winter season.

"What do you prefer in skirts?" asks a woman columnist. Women.

WARTIME DEVICE MAY END JOLTING ON FAST TRAINS

By WILLIAM G. SMOCK

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—A "first cousin" of the wartime gadget which enabled tank gunners to fire accurately at high speeds over bumpy terrain soon may give the railroad dining car a "cushion" against drink-spilling jolts.

The new device is a revolutionary shock absorber. Eventually, it may also be applied to buses and passenger automobiles.

Created for war use, the absorber was called a tank gun stabilizer. It won a presidential citation for its inventor, Dr. Clinton R. Hanna, who also developed its first cousin, the railroad shock absorber.

Railroad engineers made substantial contribution to adapting the device to trains, said Dr. Hanna, associate director of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation's research laboratories.

Reduces Swaying

The invention, which is now being road-tested by one of the nation's leading railroads, is designed to eliminate more than 60 per cent of the bumps and sway caused by track irregularities.

Its backers hope it will enable trains to take curves at 25 per cent greater speeds without so much as splashing a drop of coffee from a full cup in the dinner. The result, they say, will be faster train schedules at greater comfort.

The tank gun stabilizer that helped Allied soldiers blast Rommel at El Alamein had a gyroscope to do its brainwork, but the vehicle stabilizer depends jointly on floating weights that feel up-and-down motion, and a pendulum that senses the pull of centrifugal force and gravity.

"Working together or separately, these two elements can detect and respond to bumps or side-sway in just three one-thousandths of a second, thus anticipating the movement and correcting for it before it is felt by the passengers," Dr. Hanna explained.

The stabilizer automatically moves car trucks or bus wheels up and down to compensate for bumps in the road surface and train wheels are moved from side to side to correct for track weaving. A "tilter" banks the car as it rounds curves.

Dr. Hanna simplifies the operation of his invention this way:

"When the car comes to a bump or dip, the floating weight instantly senses the motion of the body as it begins. This movement opens one valve and closes another, causing oil under high pressure to flow into the proper cylinder. The pumping of oil drives the piston in the cylinder with just enough force in the right direction to counteract the bump and hold the car body virtually motionless."

"What actually happens is that the wheels are pushed down into the valleys and raised over the peaks while the car floats on a cushion of oil in the cylinder. The same type of suction moves the wheels right or left to correct for side-sway and the car body moves forward in a straight line."

Somewhat like his new shock absorber Dr. Hanna's career also has been well regulated. He has devoted a 25-year stint with Westinghouse Laboratories largely to developing apparatus regulating speed, position and electrical voltage. He has about 100 patents in his own name.

Associated Boards To Get Together

Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia and the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce have been invited to attend a joint meeting of the Associated Boards of Trade of British Columbia which has been proposed for Pentecost, February 25. This would be preliminary to a larger convention to be held later in the year. The Prince Rupert Chamber is sending its approval of the idea of such a conference which, it is suggested, might, among other things, promote the idea of federal-financed transprovincial highways. The possibility of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia having a delegate at the conference is being canvassed.

Oyster Plantation Southeast Alaska

Mrs. Fairbanks of Ketchikan is organizing a company to develop the oyster trade, and is hoping to be well away by spring. Already ninety bushels of oysters from Japan have safely arrived and the rest of the shipment will come from Seattle.

SAILING TO HEAD NEW JEWISH STATE?—Among the passengers who sailed from New York recently were Dr. Chaim Weizman, veteran Zionist leader, and his wife, who are shown just before they embarked. Dr. Weizman, one of the pioneer crusaders for a Jewish homeland in Palestine, has been most frequently mentioned as the possible first president of the Jewish state created by the United Nations.

STEAMSHIPS DIFFICULTIES

Chamber of Commerce Hears Union Steamships Explanation and Expresses Appreciation

Appreciation was expressed by motion at the meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce Monday night of the ready response which had been forthcoming from Union Steamships Ltd. recently when the Chamber had protested vigorously at a proposed drastic curtailment in the company's coastal steamship services.

The company had proposed to reduce its services to Stewart, Alice Arm, Port Simpson, Bella Coola and certain other points to twice a month instead of weekly and to drastically curtail service to the Queen Charlotte Islands but, following the representations of the local Chamber and other organizations, reconsidered the decision in favor of retaining the existing schedules with smaller operating units.

A communication from B. McBean, managing director of the company pointed out that, while it was imperative that the company achieve some economies, it was not wished to do so at the expense of isolated communities. "With the greatly increased cost of operating," said Mr. Mc-

Bean's communication, "we are concerned with the eventual position of the company unless we are able to improve recent operating results and, while there is no desire to unduly restrict service, we are obliged to exert every honest effort possible to achieve maximum economy and efficiency."

"We very much appreciate the considerate attitude of your organization and sincerely believe that the eventual results of our present difficulties will be improved service and equipment on this coast."

George Munro, who has been living in Vancouver since he moved away from Prince Rupert expects to revisit the city next summer during a Masonic convention. He was in retail trade here for years and is now connected with realty in Vancouver.

Reminiscences By W.J. and Reflections

The first camp tent to be erected in Prince Rupert was in the leafy month of April 1906 and the first pilerdriver to show its head was in May.

These stood convenient to where the G.T.P. wharf would be and each was the ultimate in trying to see how much one could do without. For those first few months, it was the day of small things. Woods grew handy to the harbor front. There wasn't even a picture show.

The first building to have itself labelled "hotel" was called the Grandview. It was all that, too. The views were grand, as well as numerous enough to be reckoned a dime a dozen. In the first photo, three men were sitting out front. There was austerity, looking far more severe than anyone dreams of in England today. All three were reading something. One might be studying his pocket book. The Evening Empire, back in the spring of 1906, was still unborn. The first post office was in a sizeable looking tent, and likewise the first court house—with four figures grouped outside—Judge F. McB. Young, William Manson, W. H. Vickers and Lionel Crippen. Protruding through the front of the canvas court house was a stove pipe, sufficiently high to carry away the smoke.

Sometime that winter ladies who had come north their husbands had their taken. There had been a of snow and the log cabin rear gave it that fitting touch. Everybody looked there were seven. Judging their expressions no one finding any fault with life.

MRS. BUCHANAN Laid at Rest

Final Rites Yesterday
Afternoon for Esteemed
Elderly Lady

Family friends and sympatizers crowded the Greenville Court Chapel of the B.C. Undertakers yesterday afternoon when
Rev. Allan McColl of First Presbyterian Church officiated at the funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Lindsay (White) Buchanan, mother of Mrs. Robert Cameron of Overlook Street.
The pastor, in his sermon, eulogized the deceased as a glowing example of what a Christian church member ought to be and one whose presence would enhance the state above.

Mrs. E. J. Smith presided at the organ to accompany the hymns which were favorites of deceased—"Lead, Kindly Light" and "Nearer My God to Thee."
Interment took place in Fairview Cemetery with H. T. Lock,
G. F. Forbes, J. E. Davey, Murdo
McLeod, Sam Currie sr. and Samuel Massey acting as pallbearers.

There were many beautiful
floral tributes.
The late Mrs. Buchanan was born in Coatbridge, Scotland,

September 30, 1858 and was married in 1879 at Boness to James Buchanan of Coatbridge. Six children were born to them. Mrs.
Buchanan came to Canada 31 years ago, six years after the death of her husband, to take up residence in Montreal with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Cameron, with whom she came to Prince Rupert in 1925.

Surviving Mrs. Buchanan are three sons—Thomas, William and James Buchanan, all resid-

Who's Who In All-Star Basketball

The selective ability of Coach Alex Bill was strained to the utmost to select from the current crop of players an aggregation of suitable ability to meet the dynamic Vancouver Arrows who arrived today for a two-game series.

Coach Bill finally came up with the following roster, to which Art Murray and Bill Long added brief biographies. Here is the lineup and an outline of their backgrounds:

(Alex Bill, Coach)

Alex was born in Anyok but moved to Juneau, Alaska, six months later. Came to Prince Rupert at the age of three and has stayed ever since. Attended public and High School here and played guard on the Bo-Me-Hi Rainmakers while in High School. He took up coaching early in the war years and since then has had remarkable success with High School teams. This is his first year as a senior coach but will certainly not be his last. He is locally acclaimed as the leading authority on basketball in Northern B.C.

(Angus Macphie, Captain)

Angus was born in Glasgow Scotland and arrived on Kaia Island some nine years later. He immediately took up basketball. In public and High School he was a star at centre but moved to the senior leagues before he started shaving. Angus is 6 feet 3 1/2 inches and weighs 190 lbs so might be considered a fair chunk of a lad. His height and general excellent ability are well known all over the north where he has played in nearly every gym with a backboard. Angus is also a former city tennis champ.

(Herb Morgan)

Born in Vancouver, Herb moved to these parts at an early age to help his dad sell tobacco but went into typography instead. Attended school here and entered senior company with Macphie some twelve years ago. Nicknamed "Spider" by his teammates, he is the most elusive player on the team. Herb is just over 6 feet, weighs 170 pounds and started his athletic career as a pugilist. He also plays behind the plate for the city all-star baseball team.

(Sonny Reynon)

Sonny was born in Port Simpson and came to Prince Rupert to attend school and show the fisherfolk how to score baskets. With his uncanny shooting ability, Reynon earned a ten gun salute in Khaki, the Canadian Army magazine, for his work on the basketball courts. He is 25 years of age, weighs a little too much right now, and is 5 feet 10 inches in height.

(Sev Dominato)

The badman of our local league and considered the badman in most cities he has visited. Sev is probably the most popular basketball player in the north. Has been playing All-Star games for many years and should be around for a while judging from his present performances. One of the comedians in the game in these parts he has been booed and cheered more than any other member of the team. Measuring 6 feet, 2 inches and weighing 195 pounds, he is a handsome lad—but he's married, ladies.

(Reg Lavigne)

One of the youngsters of our club, Reg is in his first year with all-star company and only this year came up from a berth on the Bo-Me-Hi team to play senior. He is only 19 years of age and came to Prince Rupert in 1942. Birthplace is Bathurst, N.B., where he played hockey at school. Reg is also one of the finer prospects in the local baseball league.

(Rupert Holkestad)

Another young lad with pleasing style. Age 20, he is just over six feet. Born and raised in Prince Rupert, "Rupe" as he is known by all his friends, is generally the most dangerous forward on the team. He is playing his second year as an all-star. Plays centre and forward and shoots with either hand.

(Jim Forman)

Over six feet and weighing around 160 pounds, Jim is a very dangerous shot and the backbone of the Brownwoods' entry in the local senior league. He is 19 years of age and graduated from High School last year after playing on the Rainmakers for three seasons.

(Don Hartwig)

The New York State Athletic Commission dethroned heavy-weight champion Max Schmeling 19 years ago today when he refused to sign for a return bout with Jack Sharkey. The black-browed German lost a decision in June, 1932 to Jack Sharkey and was knocked out in one round by Joe Louis in 1938.

Frank Chance signed a $25,000, three-year contract to manage New York Americans, now the Yankees, 34 years ago. One third of the famous Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance Chicago Cubs combination, Chance piloted the Yankees in 1913-14, and was succeeded by Bill Donovan.

RETURN TO NORMAL AND ECONOMY AFTER HOLIDAY

That slurring tone so often heard when referring to stews as a day food is usually quite needless for. A stew, properly made, may be as much of a treat as prime roast beef.

The home maker who takes one of the cheaper cuts of meat and serves a savory meat course that will make the members of the family smack their lips has mastered the art of economy.

Home economists say that stews may help to balance the Christmas budget.

Long slow cooking has always been a point to consider but the low pressure saucepan makes it possible to serve a stew in much less time.

Stewings, light and white, add much to any stew but they must be cooked over boiling stew and the cover must not be lifted during cooking.

Stew Supreme

1½ lbs. lamb or beef (breast, shank, flank, neck or shoulder)

2 tablespoons fat

1 cup chopped onion

2½ cups canned tomatoes

¾ teaspoon salt

1¼ teaspoons spicy meat sauce

3 medium carrots, diced

¼ cup chopped green pickle (optional)

½ cup sweet or sour milk

Cut the meat in narrow strips, 1-inch in length. Brown meat with onion in hot fat. Add tomatoes, salt and meat sauce. Cover closely and simmer 2 to 2½ hours. Add carrots and continue cooking for 20 minutes or until tender. Ten minutes before serving, add the green pickle and the milk. Six servings.

Goulash

2 tablespoons fat

1 small clove garlic, peeled and finely chopped (optional)

½ pound chuck beef, cut in 1-inch cubes

½ pound lean pork shoulder, cut in 1-inch cubes

2 cups canned tomatoes

1½ teaspoon salt

1-2 teaspoon pepper

1½ teaspoon paprika

6 small onions, peeled and sliced

6 medium potatoes, peeled and cut in quarters

6 medium carrots, peeled and cut in finger lengths

2 cups cubed turnip

Melt fat in bottom of deep, covered kettle. Add chopped garlic and lightly brown it. Add meat and brown well on all sides. Add tomatoes, salt, pepper and paprika, cover and simmer for 45 minutes. Add vegetables and cook 45 minutes. If using a pressure saucepan, brown meat well in cooker before adding tomatoes and seasoning. Cook 10 minutes. Add vegetables and cook for 5 minutes longer. Six servings.

Commerce Chamber To Redraft Bylaws

Intention to set up a special committee to modernize the constitution and bylaws, which have not been amended for many years, was indicated Monday night at the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce by the incoming president, Dr. R. G. Large. Special attention will be given to the method of nominating and electing officers and executive and the appointment of committees with a view to spreading about the duties and responsibilities. A notice of motion by Theo Collett which would have ruled out for re-election of members to the same office at the conclusion of two consecutive years of service was withdrawn after assurance was given of the intention to give consideration to general constitutional redrafting.

BURNS LAKE FAIR MEETING

Annual Meeting Called—Last Show Reported Upon

BURNS LAKE—Notices of the annual meeting of the Burns Lake, Francois Lake and District Fall Fair will shortly be mailed to all members of the fair association. The meeting will be held in the Francois Lake Hall on January 22. The Fair Board for 1948 will be elected and reports for 1947 presented.

Following is a summary of judges' reports of the 1947 fair: "In field crops, vegetables, flowers and livestock, competition was found in all classes and in many cases over six entries were made, the average quality being very good. Field crops and livestock had the smallest entries, but there was fine quality in some of the livestock, especially in the beef entries. Home produce was above expectations with increased entries and a high standard of quality. This fair needs greater interest in quality livestock, as it is the centre of a fine cattle and sheep area. In women's work some improvement should be made in displaying the exhibits in this section. This was a good fair, it is well organized and is serving a very useful purpose in helping to improve the farm produce of the Lakes District."

BEST WISHES TO NEW B.C. PREMIER

Hon. Byron Johnson Invited to Visit This Area Soon

TERRACE—Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia recently sent a wire to the new Premier of British Columbia, Hon. Byron Johnson, congratulating him on the occasion of his assumption of the high office. The message was dispatched by Duncan K. Kerr, secretary of the Associated Boards, and in extending best wishes to Mr. Johnson for his success, expressed the hope that he would follow the policy initiated by his predecessor of promoting development in northern and central British Columbia. An invitation was also extended to Mr. Johnson to visit Central British Columbia as soon as possible so as to familiarize himself with the conditions and possibilities of this area.

FIRE THREATENS R. C. CHURCH

TERRACE—The presence of mind of the caretaker of the Church of the Sacred Heart saved it from probable destruction by fire early on Sunday morning. Mr. Degenhart entered the church basement about 6 a.m. to light the furnace and found the place filled with smoke. Closing the door, he walked to the fire station and with Bill Christy in charge the fire engine was on the scene as quickly as possible. The fire seemed to be centred around the furnace and 600 gallons of water were used before it was under control which took about an hour and a half. Damage by smoke and water to the church furnishings was extensive and the church floor was burned right through.

Miller Bay Hospital Gives T. B. Service To 10,000 B. C. Indians

Entering Its Second Year, 150-Bed Institution Is Already Making Notable Contribution to Native Health

Miller Bay Hospital, second of three large Indian tuberculosis treatment centres to be opened in British Columbia by the Department of Health and Welfare, is gradually assuming an outstanding place in the lives of 10,000 Indians to whom tuberculosis is an ever-present scourge.

Although opened for less than a year-and-a-half, the 150-bed institution has already admitted more than 500 patients and its records contain case histories of more than 5,000 natives in central and northern British Columbia.

The hospital, situated about five miles from Prince Rupert on the Port Edward road, at present contains 149 patients, which to Dr. Douglas Galbraith, director, is its capacity considering staff shortages.

Although the hospital is operating efficiently on its present staff of 79, the actual shortage exists in graduate nurses, of which about 20 could be employed. At present, there are 11 and an equal number of practical nurses without whom, Dr. Galbraith says, the institution could scarcely operate.

There is need, too, for an additional doctor. Current medical staff consists of Dr. Galbraith, who doubles in capacity of administrator and X-ray expert, Dr. M. Clough-Ormonston, resident physician, and Dr. J. A. Macdonald, who maintains an office in Prince Rupert but also gives part of his time to the hospital work.

An additional doctor, Dr. Galbraith feels, would allow him more time for administrative duties which are growing increasingly heavy.

The position of senior matron also is unfilled and at present Miss M. Morton is in charge of nurses, assisted by Miss I. Carriss.

Since the hospital opened in August, 1946, Dr. Galbraith has become increasingly aware of the co-operation received from the natives who prior to that time had little chance of hospitalization for themselves or their families.

"It's remarkable, when we consider the problems we expected to face when we started out," Dr. Galbraith said. "This co-operation on the part of the Indians is most encouraging."

PATIENTS FROM FAR AFIELD

In hospital are Indians from as far east as Vanderhoof and Prince George, as far north as Telegraph Creek and from Bella Bella in the south and the Queen Charlotte Islands on the west. The record rooms contain records of about 3,500 of them, while written records of more than 5,000 are on file.

There are more patients who

need hospitalization, Dr. Galbraith says, but there are not many, and the new 200-bed hospital which the Indian Health Services has taken over from the army at Nanaimo is gradually taking part of the load.

The third big tuberculosis hospital for Indians in British Columbia is at Coqualeetza, near Chilliwack. This 180-bed institution was opened in 1941.

Treatment at Miller Bay Hospital is of a standard equal to that given in sanatoria for the white population and the latest techniques are combined with that old and proven one—plenty of fresh air, good food, rest and a cheerful state of mind.

Most of the cases are pulmonary tuberculosis and on about 20 of these the pneumo-thorax treatment—deflation of the infected lung to give it a rest—is used. There are also cases of spinal tuberculosis and infected bones in other parts of the body.

Streptomycin, latest of the mould drugs, has been employed with encouraging results in two cases, one of which was that of a young man with a tubercular knee which responded to the treatment and now, according to Dr. Galbraith, is completely healed. However, the young man will have to continue the treatment for some time yet.

Dr. Galbraith is proud of the hospital's well-equipped laboratory, which is presided over by Miss Dorothy Aschoff, a smiling laboratory technician whose day is a continual round of sputum tests, blood tests and culture work.

The hospital received between 200 and 300 X-ray plates a month from doctors in all parts of central and northern B.C., and a large part of Dr. Galbraith's work is to interpret these plates and send back reports. He uses a dictaphone to record the readings from the negatives.

The Christmas season did much to enhance the atmosphere of rest and cheer which the staff endeavors to maintain in the hospital. Innumerable Christmas gifts were sent out by the people of Prince Rupert and Port Edward, all of which contributed to the happiness of the patients.

Incidentally, the wards contain children as young as a year-and-a-half, but the majority are young men and women. For the children of school age, there is school instruction for a couple of hours each day, the instructor travelling from ward to ward.

Hobbies flourish. Among the men leatherwork is the favorite, while the current rage among the women and girls is the knitting of diamond-pattern socks.

MORE CONSTRUCTION WORK IS PLANNED

One of the problems at the hospital is housing space for the staff, most of whom "live in." This, however, will be relieved this summer with the construction of a duplex dwelling for the doctors, which will allow one of the present doctor's dwellings to be converted into a men's dormitory.

Another construction project scheduled for this summer is the building of a powerhouse and laundry. The building, to be situated close to the hospital, will be of concrete, 40 by 70 feet dimensions. The lower floor will house two high pressure steam boilers, providing ample steam and hot water for hospital use. A modern laundry will occupy the upper floor.

The winter season is a rather quiet one as regards visitors but in the summer the patients' families come trooping in from all parts of the coast and interior. Dr. Galbraith welcomes these family visits, not only because it
