Russia's Collaboration With Nazi Germany Revealed by Gen. Marshall

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CP)—Secretary of State Marshall threw a book at Russia Wednesday night—massive array of captured German documents revealing details of a partnership between Russia's leaders and Hitler's Reich for the division of Eastern Europe.

KE CALL SAVARIA

On Workers May Walk In Protest at Food Shortages

MUNICH (CP)—The Bavarian Trade Union Federation called today for a twenty-four hour walk-out of virtually all workers in Bavaria to begin tonight at midnight.

The strike, protesting food shortages, would affect nearly a million workers in this American zone state.

About 200,000 workers staged a 24-hour strike yesterday at Hamburg and Cologne. It was the largest walk-out in Western Germany since last April.

The strike could affect other large cities as Munich, Regensburg, Augsburg, Regensburg, Wuerzburg and Coburg.

HOUSE DAMAGED HARBOR BOAT

Wales Island No. 7 Drifted Across Harbor In Gale

An attempt is being made today to raise the damaged harbor boat Wales Island No. 7 which was sunk on the beach at the entrance to the Salt Lake early Wednesday morning after breaking her mooring lines during an overnight gale and drifted across the harbor.

The Wales Island No. 7, owned by George Howe, was moored at the Fairview Bay fishermen's wharf when she broke loose in the wind early Wednesday morning. Mr. Howe learned of the loss when he went to inspect her.

Extent of her damage will not be known until the vessel is raised and brought to a repair yard here. The boat is lying partially submerged on the western side of the Salt Lake entrance where she piled up during the storm after drifting across the harbor.

Mr. Howe left early this morning in the hope of raising her. It is expected that she will be taken to McLean's boat yard, Seal Cove.

Load Line Convention Set For London, England, This April

The International Convention on Safety at Sea, which has to do with the setting of the International Load Line in connection with which the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce has been agitating for years to be placed on equality with Vancouver, is to be held in London, England, in April of this year.

It was originally to have been held last October but was postponed. Information to this effect was obtained by Dr. L. M. Greene, president of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia, on a recent visit to Britain and was transmitted to the executive of the Associated Boards of Trade at Terrace a few days ago.

Prince Rupert has already obtained the support of the Department of Transport, the Canadian National Railways and

MASS IS FATAL TO ALTAR BOY

CHARLOTTE, Pa.—A 12-year-old altar boy, Clifford Donaldson, is dead as a result of burns suffered when his surplice was set afire by a candle while he was serving Mass. He had left the altar of the Mother of Sorrows Church to light candles in the sacristy for benediction. Shortly after, a fellow altar boy heard him scream. Others, in beating out the flames, were burned on the hands.

COLDWELL BACKS UP PREMIER KING

On Proposal to Have Investigation into High Prices and Danger of Communism

OTTAWA—M. J. Coldwell, national leader of the C.C.F., agreed last night that the Parliamentary committee to investigate high prices in Canada was a good thing. He hoped, however, that it would not have the effect of action being taken.

Speaking on Mr. King's statement of denunciation of Communism, Mr. Coldwell said he hoped it would contribute to a better understanding by the people as to the seriousness of the situation.

Calls on Western Europe to Face Ruthless Soviet Drive For Control

MICKLEBURGH BACKS DOWN

Withdraws From Saanich By-Election to Support C.C.F.

VICTORIA — The Labor-Progressive party has withdrawn Bruce Mickleburgh, formerly of Prince Rupert, as a candidate in the Saanich provincial by-election and will throw its weight behind Colin Cameron, the C.C.F. candidate. Nigel Morgan, provincial leader of the C.C.F., said that the defeat of the Coalition candidate could best be brought about by a labor union. Harold Winch, C.C.F. leader, was disdainful of the Labor-Progressive support, adding, however, that the C.C.F. would welcome all individual voters.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
Warm, moist air from the southwest was pouring over British Columbia this morning, resulting in unusually mild weather over the greater part of the province during the night. The rain is continuing along the coast with the heaviest falls during the night being reported from the west coast of Vancouver Island. Skies are relatively clear along the eastern edge of the province while the remainder of the interior regions remain cloudy. Rain or drizzle is expected to persist along the coast for the next 36 hours with little change in prospect for the rest of the province.

Forecast

Prince Rupert, Queen Charlottes and North Coast—Overcast, with intermittent rain or drizzle today and Friday. Winds southeasterly (15 m.p.h.). Little change in temperature. Lows tonight and highs Friday—At Port Hardy 40 and 46, Massett 38 and 46, Prince Rupert 40 and 45.

Reluctantly Admits That Peace Is Seriously Menaced — Madness To Minimize Need of Four-Power Co-operation

LONDON (CP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin today announced plans for a union of the states of western Europe to face the "ruthless" drive by Russia to control the continent. He said that "the time is ripe for consolidation of western Europe" and announced that British talks were already under way with Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. Britain's alliance with France will be tightened, he said, and Italy and other countries would be brought into "this great conception."

Mr. Bevin said that Russia was making a drive to dominate Europe and that he believed a continuation of this policy by any one power would lead to another war.

In opening a vital foreign affairs debate in the House of Commons, the Foreign Secretary declared "The Marshall program has brought to light vividly what must have been under the surface all the time."

Outlining what he termed Russia's "ruthless policy," Bevin said: "We are driven to that conclusion." He said that the Soviet was trying to communize western as well as eastern Europe.

"It has been made quite clear, I think, that the communist process goes ruthlessly on in each country. It, therefore, matters little how we temporize and may appease and try to make arrangements. Decisions now taken, I realize, will be vital to the future peace of the world."

Nevertheless, Mr. Bevin emphasized British eagerness to co-operate with the Russians, saying: "It is madness to think of anything else if we are ever going to have peace. But the

Norway Best Off Country in Europe, Asserts Vice-Consul

Of the European countries which suffered Nazi occupation in the war, Norway is the best off today, Dr. Jens Munthe, Norwegian vice-consul, told the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at luncheon yesterday and he gave the Labor government of that country, with its effective policy of labor-management co-operation the projection of interesting moving pictures taken on the trip.

President Orme Stuart was in the chair and appreciation of the club was extended to Dr. Munthe by W. J. Scott.

Luncheon guests were S. E. Parker, William Glass and J. E. Ormheim.

Next week's Gyro Club speaker will be Mrs. R. J. Sprott of Vancouver, provincial organizer of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, ladies to join the club members for this occasion.

C.C.F. REJECTS L.P.P. ADVANCE

TORONTO (CP)—The Ontario C.C.F. party said Wednesday night it would reject any offer of support from the Labor-Progressive Party. The C.C.F. said it would not collaborate with the L.P.P. in any way or make any election arrangements. A situation along similar lines has developed in Victoria where the L.P.P. announces it will support the C.C.F. candidate, Colin Cameron, in the Saanich by-election February 23.

B.C. IS HARD UP

VICTORIA—The British Columbia government is finding it difficult to balance its books. Sources here say the government is so badly "strapped" consideration is being given to introduction of a sales tax. Additional millions must be found for the health and welfare program.

Party Organization

THE SITUATION in regard to Liberal party organization must be similar in other parts of Canada to what it is in Prince Rupert and possibly elsewhere in northern and central British Columbia, judging from the comment of no less a person than the Prime Minister himself who told the National Liberal Federation in Ottawa that the party does not at present have "efficient organization" necessary to win a general election. Possibly the same situation also applies to the Conservative party which has also been having its organizational activities although it cannot be any more moribund generally than are the Liberals.

However, the purpose of the Prime Minister's statement along this line was, as he said, to warn the members and supporters of the party to take action "before it is too late." Skeena is certainly one of the ridings where the Liberals might accept that warning.

The C.C.F., who captured both federal and provincial seats here from the Liberals in the last election, have not been idle, even in the flush of victory, and, to date at least, the Liberals and Conservatives, already faced with the necessity of having to come up from behind, have been doing little about it. Now both federal and provincial elections are not more than two years off and possibly not that long.

Even the strongest of candidates and the finest of records need active organizational support when elections are held and Prince Rupert Liberals must know by now that such organization cannot be effectively mustered a few weeks before elections and completely neglected between times.

CIVIC CENTRE MEETING

WITH THE HOLDING tonight of the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Civic Centre Association, the people of Prince Rupert who are so entitled through membership in the Association will have the opportunity to hear what is going on and pass any observations or make any suggestions.

If they have any useful criticisms about the Civic Centre, which has long since become a shining example and the envy of the rest of the country, or the way it is being run, now would be a good time to express them for everybody to hear and think about.

At the same time, it might also be an appropriate time for a few nice things to be said in acknowledgment of what the most of people think is a fine job being well done.

In any case, it is to be desired that there should be a good turn-out so that the Civic Centre people may know that a healthy and appreciative interest is being taken in this highly important function which some of us possibly are beginning to take just a little too much for granted.

THE INDIAN CLAIMS

THERE CAN BE NO argument against the contention as made before a commission in Alberta investigating the administration of that province's children's welfare that Indian children are entitled to receive educational opportunities equal to those of the white children.

Education, indeed, is only one of the equalities for which the natives are contending and to which they are unquestionably entitled.

Too long already have we been treating our worthy native people as inferiors, denying them not only the privileges but also the responsibilities of citizenship. That, simply enough, has been a major fault of our Indian policy. Happily enough, steps are now being taken to seriously consider their representations for a new deal. And the sooner it is forthcoming, the better it will be.

CANADA YEAR BOOK

THE 1947 EDITION of the Canada Year Book, authorized by the Hon. James A. MacKinnon, M.P., Minister of Trade and Commerce, has made its appearance.

The chapters show changes that have taken place so far as data were available when the various sections were sent to press. In the editions published between 1939 and 1946 a considerable amount of standard textual analysis was either unduly condensed or eliminated in order to provide the necessary space for special material on the War Effort. This condition is now being gradually remedied and the peacetime balance restored. To facilitate this end the chapters in the present volume have been re-arranged; related subjects are now brought together so that the treatment is more logical and permits of more convenient cross reference—a very important consideration in a publication of this type.

The regular statistical and textual data contained in each chapter have been carefully revised or brought up to date to reflect changing conditions.

AIR-SEA RESCUE OF FISHING BOAT CREW—The U.S. Coast Guard has reported that 17 survivors of a wrecked fishing boat had been taken off Geronimo Island, 190 miles down the Baja, California, coast. Four who were injured were flown to San Diego aboard a Coast Guard plane. Dollie Jenkins, on stretcher, is shown being transferred from small craft to the Coast Guard plane.

STIFFKEY, Norfolk—While Mrs. Joan Parsons, 24, waited for her husband to come home on leave from the R.A.F., an aircraft crashed in a garden 20 yards away. Her husband, the only occupant, was killed.

INCONSTANT OPAL—The opal appeared to Shakespeare as a fit emblem of inconstancy for he refers to it as such in "Twelfth Night."

Ford Sedan Is Kin Prize

Drawing to Aid Camp Fund—Field Day—Queen Contest—To Choose Eligible Bachelor

After Victoria Day has come and gone someone in British Columbia will be the richer by having won a 1948 Ford sedan. This year the Kinsmen Club of Prince Rupert will sponsor an honorary membership campaign, selling tickets that will permit the holder to attend the traditional school children's field meet, the dance that will be the final event of the day and participate in the door prize drawing.

There will be a May Queen as usual but this year it has been suggested that, instead of having a ticket selling contest among the students, each school should elect their own candidate and the queen be chosen by a panel of judges.

In the past the Kinsmen Club has relied greatly on the proceeds of its May 24 celebrations to help offset the operating expenses of the Kinsmen's Kiddie Kamp at Lakelse Lake. This year the club plans to add a considerable number of permanent improvements to the camp, including the erection of a number of new buildings. In order to meet this added expense the club is launching what will probably be the biggest project of its career. Stan Saville and George Dibb, assisted by the executive, worked out the details of the campaign and had their plans approved by the club last night when it met at its regular dinner meeting in the Civic Centre.

Bruce Stevens, who is in charge of arrangements for the Kinsmen's leap year dance to be held February 27, reported that Bobby Woods and his Four Dukes will provide the music and that one of the highlights of the evening will be the choosing of Prince Rupert's most eligible bachelor by the ladies. Candidates will be drawn from the various service clubs and business organizations of the city.

Norman Carter of Vancouver, who is a charter member of the Prince Rupert Kinsmen Club and who was the first Kinsman to hold the office of vice-president here, was a guest at last night's meeting. A new member, Ronald Barber, formerly of the Prince George club, was welcomed to the organization.

In the absence of President R. G. Moore, vice-president George Dibb acted as chairman. During the business session Carson Wallace was elected to the office of director and Harry Seaman was appointed Kinsmen representative to the forthcoming Music and Drama Festival.

Following the meeting club members adjourned to the home of Sid Elkins for a social evening.

Johnny feels so BIG!

JOHNNY doesn't know why he is able to carry so many of the shiny milk pails. "Aluminum" means nothing to him now. It will, when he grows up. For this modern metal is already doing much to make farm work easier.

This light metal that won't rust is being used for all kinds of farm implements and equipment to reduce labour and last longer—for such things as milk cans, garage doors, flashing, roofing, siding, ventilators. It is a "natural" for all sorts of uses about the dairy—so light, so easy to clean and, as aluminum paint, for inside and outside use, it is equivalent to putting on a shield of wear and weather resisting metal.

In the kitchen, too, it saves endless labour as cooking utensils and housekeeping appliances. Yes, aluminum will make life on the farm a lot easier. Johnny's parents have discovered its many outstanding advantages.

Where does Aluminum come from?

All basic raw materials are imported; Bauxite from British Guiana, Cryolite from Greenland, Fluorspar from Newfoundland. Canada makes use of her waterpower and manpower to turn them into Aluminum—uses up no natural resources of her own. All these "ingredients" are brought together at the model city of Arvida, Canada, home of the largest aluminum-producing plant in the world.

KING EDWARD P.T.A. MEETS

Mrs. Harry Black Guest Speaker—Hays Cove Site is Approved

Tuesday night saw King Edward's first 1948 P.T.A. meeting favored with a good turnout despite the weather. Highlight of the meeting was an address by Mrs. H. Black on a trip to national Parent-Teacher Association convention in the Maritimes. After giving a delightful word-picture of the proceedings Mrs. Black ceremoniously had Major CoCoper open a sealed parcel sent to her by Mr. Fletcher, chief superintendent of education in the Maritimes, containing a vial of Atlantic Ocean water. The ceremony was hilarious.

The meeting opened with one of the most pleasant business sessions of the term. Community safety practices were discussed and it was strongly recommended that children be enforced to equip bicycles with lights and reflectors for night cycling and that more adequate co-operation be solicited from children and motorists in respect to traffic regulations at

Interior Lumbermen Plan Amalgamation

At a recent meeting in Quesnel, members of the North Cariboo Lumbermen's Association met with 15 representatives from the Northern Interior Lumbermen's Association with headquarters in Prince George. Amalgamation plans were considered. While no action has yet been taken, a merger is a distinct possibility. Another conference will take place.

Also endorsed was the British Columbia P.T.A. Council's resolution that the current influx of unsuitable juvenile literature be controlled by a board of censors. Following the address games were played under the sponsorship of Miss Hart and the evening wound up with the serving of refreshments and motion pictures, Mrs. McLeod convening.

THEATRE GROUP PRESENTS PLAYS FRIDAY NIGHT

Farce, comedy and a musical revue will be the entertainment fare of those who attend the Prince Rupert Little Theatre group's first seasonal presentation in the Civic Centre auditorium Friday evening. The plays will be the result of long months of rehearsal by local actors and actresses.

Both the farce—"Good Night, Caroline"—and the comedy—"Op-O-Me-Thumb"—are under direction of Rev. Basil S. Procter while the venue is directed jointly by Mrs. J. S. Black and Mrs. Hazel Wright.

The revue, an extravaganza, set in a bar room of the Gay 'Nineties period, will feature music of the era, song-and-dance duets, a clog waltz and a pantomime with a thoroughly nostalgic flavor.

Included in its cast will be Mrs. Black and Mrs. Wright, John Currie, Clifford Knutsen, Lorraine Youngman, Marie Lavigne, Lois Thompson, Nina Youngman, Maresa Windle, Monica Holtby, Victor Duncan, Gordon Carlson, Dorothy Keehn, Al Forman, Bob Irvine, with Jim Sabourin as commentator and master of ceremonies.

The bedroom farce, "Good Night, Caroline" will contain a cast of Mrs. T. Fraser, Robert Irvine, Ann D'Graff and Joseph Goscoe.

The comedy, with its setting in a laundry, will have such players as Mrs. J. S. Black, Kathleen Kerr, Grace Brown, Hazel Wright, Thalia Moore and Jim Sabourin.

NORTHLAND ON RUN TO NORWAY

The writer of a letter signed "On Looker" appearing in P.L.A. (Port of London Authority) says: "It was toward the end of the summer that the somewhat unusual lines of a small steamer lying at New Fresh wharf attracted my attention. I found she was the Norwegian vessel Ottar Jarl discharging a cargo of whale meat from Hammerfest and frozen fish from Bergen. She was formerly the American-owned M.V. Northland engaged along the Yukon trade and had accommodation for 50 passengers. The vessel is now being run by the Nordenfjedske Line, and is employed regularly in the United Kingdom-Norwegian trade."

Prince Rupert people will, doubtless, be interested to know that the foregoing has reference to a ship that for many years was a regular caller at Prince Rupert. She was then commanded by Captain Len Williams. The Northland was a familiar vessel along the British Columbia-Alaska coast.

MRS. HOLTBY IS RE-ELECTED

Mrs. A. L. Holtby was re-elected president of St. Andrew's Cathedral branch of the Woman's Auxilliary when the annual meeting was held at the home of Mrs. R. L. McIntosh. Reports for 1947 showed a year of pleasant and profitable activity. The President stressed the need for more willing workers.

The full list of officers for the ensuing year is as follows:

BOOTH P.-T.A. HEAR LECTURE, LEARN DANCING

Members of Booth Memorial High School Parent-Teachers' Association learned of the courses and credits required for university entrance and high school and vocational school graduation at their monthly meeting in the school last night.

Speaker was A. H. Hurst, High School principal, who used a blackboard to illustrate his address. Mr. Hurst pointed out the courses necessary and the credits required before students could achieve status for university entrance or graduate from high schools or vocational schools.

Members of the group expressed approval of Mr. Hurst's talk because it gave them opportunity to understand the problems facing educators and students. Mr. Hurst was thanked by Mrs. George Hills, P.-T.A. president.

The business meeting which preceded Mr. Hurst's address covered discussion of the forthcoming drama festival, proposed school site, collection of money for charitable purposes through the schools, and the banning of disagreeable literature from the news stands.

An hour's instruction in square dancing under direction of Jack Evans was enjoyed, after which the meeting was turned over to J. A. Teng to arrange plans for future instruction in square dancing. It is planned to hold one dance meeting each month.

Psychiatric Theme Marks Study Films

National Film Board Produces
Series On Mental Mechanisms

OTTAWA (C)—More parents may start raising their children with an eye to their mental health as well as to their physical well-being as a result of study films on "Mental Mechanisms," which the National Film Board now is producing.

"Feeling of Rejection," first of the series the N.F.B. has made in co-operation with the Health Department, originally was intended for study by professional persons in their dealings with mentally-ill patients.

But Board officials said so much outdoor interest has been taken in the film that it is being released for general use.

Filming of the second of this N.F.B. series, "A Feeling of Hostility" now is under way and should be ready for release this spring.

Unlike the first film, which deals with the unhappy mental processes of a quiet 23-year-old girl, the second picture is the story of hostility existing between mother and adolescent daughter.

In contrast to the usual treatment of a psychiatric theme, neither film dramatizes nor glamorizes the patient or his mental sufferings. Rather they both delve carefully into the depths of a sick mentality, diagnose it, and suggest a remedy.

"Feeling of Rejection" was one of two films chosen by the Canadian Scientific Film Association as a representative scientific film of Canadian origin, shown at the International Scientific Film Congress in Paris last October.

"It now is regarded by parents as of great help in child training," said a Board official. "Welfare and parent organizations alike have been sending in requests for the film to be shown at their meetings."

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

BETTER BATTER FOR WINTER PUDDINGS—DELICIOUS DESSERTS

The theory expressed in the old tongue twister "Betty Botter bought a bit of butter to make a bit of batter," is quite out of date. Home economists say that a perfect, light batter may be made with any mild flavored fat. It is the mixing and baking that does the trick.

Batter puddings are winter-time desserts. Plain cottage pudding may be served with dozens of different sauces. Upside down puddings and roly poly with their fruity sauces have almost unlimited possibilities.

Texture of batter depends on the air incorporated and this in turn may depend on other leavening agent and on the type and amount of flour used.

These batter puddings are all delicious.

January Pudding

2 cups sifted pastry flour OR 1 3/4 cups all-purpose flour
2 tablespoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons mild flavoured fat
1 cup sugar
1 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

HOW CAN I ??? By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I clean a suede jacket?

A. It can be washed in warm water with pure soapsuds, in which one teaspoon of household ammonia is added to each gallon of water. Rinse lightly and stretch to the desired shape and size to dry.

Q. How can I prevent spattering of grease when frying eggs?

A. Sprinkle a tablespoon of flour, or a little cornstarch, in the hot grease and break the egg into this. It also adds flavor to the eggs.

Q. How can I remove acid stains from marble?

A. Try rubbing with ammonia. But one should avoid allowing any acids, such as lemon, to come in contact with marble.

Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Cream fat, add sugar gradually and cream well together. Add the sifted dry ingredients alternately with the milk, a small amount at a time, beating well after each addition. Add vanilla. Beat well. Bake in a greased 8 x 8 x 2-inch pan, in moderate oven, 350°F., for 1 hour. Serve hot with sauce. Six servings.

HOW HOUSEWIVES CAN SAVE—Food prices may climb, but should the housewife dig her armoire cooking recipes out of the kitchen cupboard, she may find it's still possible to save a little money. Take butter, for instance.

COOKING POTATOES—Nutritionists have found that only one Canadian housewife in nine knows how to cook her potatoes to retain as many as possible of their elusive vitamins and minerals.

About half the vitamin "C" in a potato is lost if it is peeled, boiled and then mashed, say nutritionists. The loss is 20 per cent if it is just peeled and boiled. On the other hand, potatoes baked, or cooked in their jackets in a little water in a tightly-covered dish, will keep most of the vitamin "C."

Apples are the most popular fruit these days. The housewife might try apple fluff for dinner.

Ingredients: two cups apple sauce, three egg whites, one-half cup cake crumbs (preferably spice cake). Add cake crumbs to apple sauce. Fold into

PRINCE RUPERT YEARS AGO

January 22, 1923

The question of moving the Prince Rupert drydock to Vancouver was being considered by the Canadian National Board of directors, according to Sir Henry Thornton, interviewed by the Vancouver Sun.

It was reported that the New England Fish Co. was negotiating for the purchase of the canneries at Shushartie Bay, Margaret Bay and Butedale, owned by Western Packers Ltd.

At the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Agricultural and Industrial Association, a board of directors consisting of Ralph Lepine, Joe Greer, C. H. Orme, Harry Lipsett, Ben Self, Frank Dibb, Thomas McMeekin, R. E. Benson and E. A. Mann was chosen. The group were instructed to select their own officers.

January 22, 1913

The Northern Brick and Tile Co. was incorporated for the purpose of supplying brick for the Prince Rupert market. The plant was to be located at Mile 82 up the railway line where clay beds of a suitable character for making brick were secured. The company was made up entirely of local men.

Mayor T. D. Pattullo and members of the board of works paid a visit to Shawatlans Lake in connection with the laying of the pipe line for the city's water supply.

Joe Greer of the G. T. P. who had been on a visit to his home at Lindsay, Ontario, returned on the Prince Rupert via Vancouver.

Norman Carter, former manager of Eaton's mail order depot here, arrived in the city yesterday on the Prince Rupert from the south on a business trip. Mr. Carter is now a resident of New Westminster and is supervisor of British Columbia mail order houses. He will be in the city for several days.

SHORT SPORT

A 69-year old—victor of the last Olympic games held in London is likely to run the final stage of the Olympic Torch Relay when the 1948 Games open at Wembley, July 29. He is Joe Deakin who carried the baton for the British three-mile relay team in the 1908 Games, now the only member of Britain's team for that Olympiad still on the active list.
Every Saturday he goes for a run in Richmond Park and a few weeks ago with a 12-minute allowance he won the Surrey Athletic Club's five-mile championship. The Torch, lit in Greece, will be carried across Europe by members of many athletic clubs, and it is understood authorities plan to give Joe the honor of carrying it the last two miles into the stadium where the games will be staged.

All through the dark months of winter, Dan Maskell, veteran coach of the P.A.I.-England Lawn Tennis Club, has been trying to find a future British Wimbledon champion, and thinks he may be succeeding. He is giving daily lessons to about 30 young players passed on to him by coaching committee of the Lawn Tennis Association, and says: "Admittedly, this work is of a long-term order—there is no one developed enough to face the world's best players yet. But there is good material among the 30." These are the names to watch for, says Dan: John Horn, Peter Bond, E. M. G. Earle.

Many cricket fans think it's high time starry Denis Compton gave up soccer and concentrated on the summer game, as most of those who have played both sports professionally have done. But Denis Compton doesn't think so. He says he regards soccer as essential in his fight against increasing weight. Playing for Arsenal reserves this season has enabled him to trim down from 199 pounds to 178 and he hopes to be a few pounds yet lighter before he takes the Australians next summer. Meanwhile Denis is being outshone at the winter sport by brother Leslie, whose tight play at centre-half is considered one of the big reasons that the Arsenal first team has stayed on top of the first division all season.

Add shortages in Britain: Wrestling costumes, Olympic rules call for wrestlers to wear a sort of bathing suit arrangement instead of the trunks generally worn in other tournaments. The British Amateur Wrestling Association has been looking for six months for eight such suits with which to clothe its entrants in the 1948 Games, and hasn't found one yet.

TERRACE MAKING FULLER USE OF CIVIC CENTRE; SPORT ACTIVITIES

TERRACE—With basketball, bowling and badminton activities now in full swing and gymnastic classes being organized, Terrace's Civic Centre, the former Army drill hall, is being put to an increasing measure of good use as a centre of community athletic and recreational activity. The ultimate aim is to make rather extensive interior alterations to fit it out as a suitable gathering place for public gatherings and social functions. In this connection plans call for the dividing off of the massive interior in various smaller rooms, leaving, of course, adequate floors for games and gymnastics.

Princess Is Style World's Leading Lady

Designers Expect She Will Bring Prestige to Britain's Dress Export Trade

By NORMAN CRIBBENS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (P)—When Princess Elizabeth returns to public life towards the end of January, she will be the first lady of the land of fashion.

Fashion experts are looking to her to bring prestige and dollars to Britain's dress export trade. The government hopes she will bring better dressing and therefore better morale, to women at home.

She has what the dress world calls the "perfect figure," "apart from her good figure," a West End designer said, "she has excellent dress sense and the real interest she takes in her clothes makes her a born leader of fashion."

While the bride of a few weeks is the same person as the bride-to-be of a few weeks ago, the Princess is more qualified to lead the world of fashion as a young married woman; for no spinster has ever been a leader of fashion.

Millions see pictures of Elizabeth every week, yet only the privileged few see half of her dresses. Almost invariably her day frocks are covered by a coat in public and some of her prettiest dresses are the simple dinner gowns she wears only at Palace receptions or in the homes of friends.

Fewer know the system on which she plans her wardrobe—and the little tricks by which she contrives to look different

DEPICT RUSSIAN LIFE

STOCKHOLM, (P)—An exhibition of Russian photographs was opened here recently under the auspices of the Swedish-Russian Society. It gives a cross-section of life in the Soviet republics during 30 years of its existence.

LEICESTER, Eng. (P)—A certificate was re-designed because critical schoolboys who were awarded it in a school garden contest said they wished it was "worth looking at."

By bringing the changes with a comparatively small number of garments.

CAREFUL SELECTION

Her wardrobe is carefully planned. She never buys anything—not even a coupon-free hat—just because it takes her eye.

In principle the Princess adheres to the Queen's pre-war method of giving two main orders: one for clothes for the spring and summer and another for autumn and winter wear.

Elizabeth periodically takes stock of her existing clothes, decides which still have the most wear in them and decides what she needs most—a dinner dress, perhaps, or a tweed suit, or a two-piece costume for day wear.

Her lady-in-waiting then writes to Norman Hartnell, the Princess's dressmaker, explaining what is wanted and asking him to prepare designs and patterns of material.

Later Hartnell goes to the Palace with sketches and samples of fabric available. Elizabeth chooses the styles that appeal to her and selects the fabric and the color. Sometimes she asks for an idea of her own to be incorporated in the chosen style.

"She is fairly conventional in her ideas," a friend said, "but no one could call her lavish. She has very definite ideas about what she wants to wear."

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

A local notice of the Department of Transport advises mariners that, until further notice, the light on Susan Rock in Milbank Sound will show a single flashing light instead of group flashing.

With a fair-sized list of passengers, C.N.R. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. Ernest Caldwell, arrived in port at 11 o'clock yesterday morning from Vancouver, Westview and Ocean Falls and sailed at midnight for Ketchikan whence she will return here this evening to sail south at 11:15 p.m.

Canada Won't See Australian Beauty

SYDNEY, Australia (P)—Canadians will be deprived of seeing "Miss Australia 1947," beautiful Miss Judy Gainford of Sydney, by the federal government's re-introduction of the wartime dollar exchange control on travel from Australia to Canada and the United States.

Judy was to have visited Canada as part of the prize for winning the nation-wide "Miss Australia" contest. Shortage of dollars will confine her world tour to the sterling areas.

The latest restrictions mean a virtual ban on travel to Canada and the United States by all unless their business is strictly in the interests of national economy.
