Focal Point For Delegates To Jaycees' Regional Convention

More Than 50 Visitors Are Arriving For Annual Gathering of Young Men's Group

Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce completed its sprucing-up operations preparatory to the annual convention of the B.C. region of the Chamber of Commerce of Canada which opens tomorrow and began to welcome the first of three delegations.

Delegates come from all parts of British Columbia with the exception of the Peace River and a dozen from the south. As they stepped ashore today, they were met by a Canadian Pacific plane this afternoon. From the central-incoming train, they will arrive tonight or tomorrow by car while some come on the Union Coquitlam tomorrow and will be met at the airport by automobiles bringing them to the hotel.

The regional executive, in this instance composed of the combined incoming and outgoing officers will meet Saturday afternoon, after which a reception will be held at the Civic Centre. (Continued on page 4)

Voter List New Record

Still Incomplete But Already In Excess of 1945 In Federal Riding

Skeena federal riding can anticipate a record list of voters for the June 27 elections, according to the preliminary list in the hands of Returning Officer Rod MacLeod. The present, incomplete list already contains more names than the list used in the 1945 Dominion elections.

Total number of names from Prince Rupert's 20 polling stations and 87 of the 109 rural polling stations is 14,736, while the revised list in the 1945 elections contained 14,646.

According to Mr. MacLeod, there are still seven outlying polling districts to submit their lists to his office. It is likely that the total list may exceed 15,000.

The unrevised list shows 4,991 names in the Prince Rupert urban area and 9,745 in the 87 rural districts which have reported.

Revision of the completed list will take place in Room 10, Smith Block on June 9, 10 and 11. Herbert F. Glassey will act as revising officer.

Numbers of names on the unrevised list of rural polling stations are as follows:
Atlin 120; Bennett 20; Lower Post 120; Telegraph Creek 77; Premier 5; Stewart 186; Alice Arm 71; Torbrit Mine 144; Arandale 17; Alyanish 10; Tulsequah 221; Kispiox 47; Hazelton 10.

Challenge By St. Laurent

Calls On Conservatives to Publicly Repudiate Religious and Racial Tactics

OTTAWA (C)—Prime Minister L. S. St. Laurent today called upon Progressive Conservative leaders to repudiate publicly racial and religious tactics which he said have been used in French-speaking Quebec.

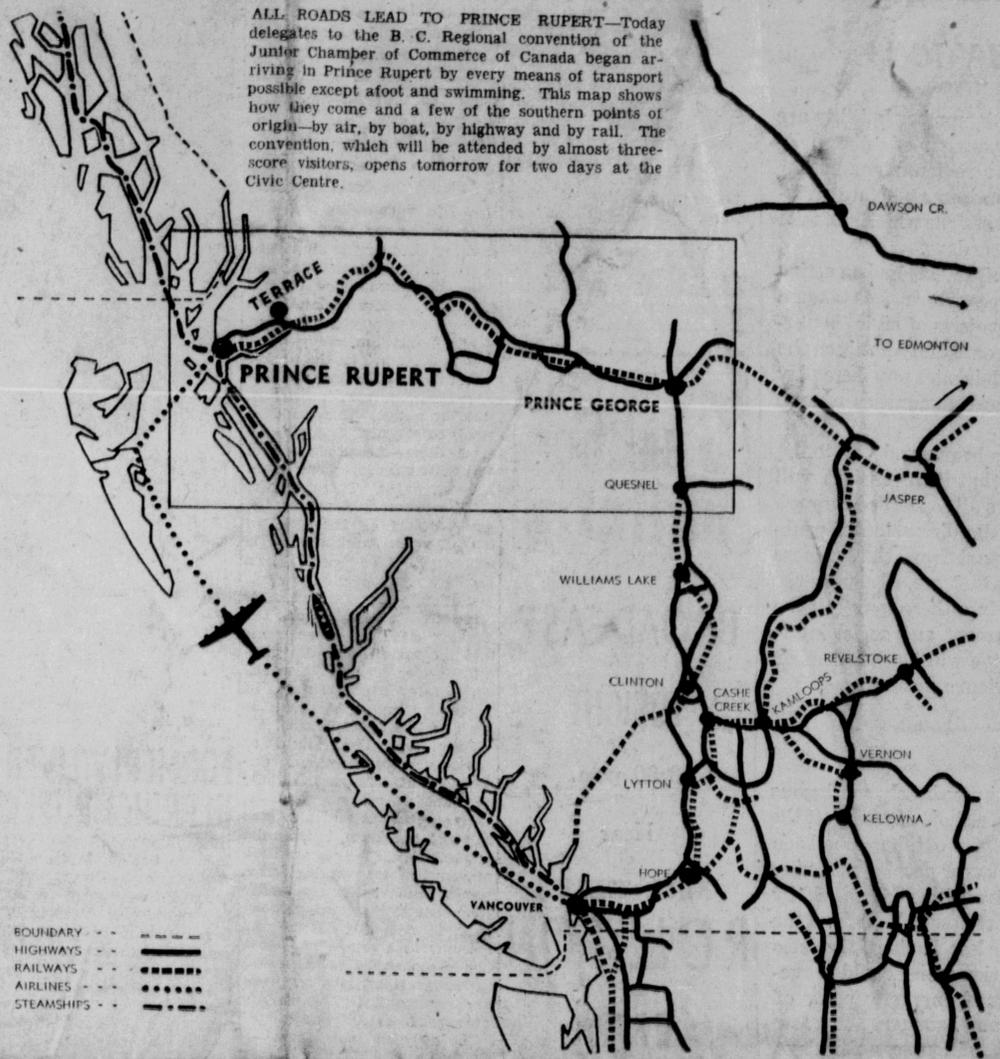

The Prime Minister cited an advertisement in a French language newspaper which said the French language would be abolished by the House of Commons and that he had refused to appoint an ambassador to the Vatican.

DEFENCE OF HONG KONG

British Defence Minister Flying There—Naval and Army Reinforcements

LONDON (C)—Defence Minister A. V. Alexander is reported last night to be flying to survey the defences of Hong Kong which the government has promised will be defended against the Communist drive.

Already naval reinforcements have been sent to Hong Kong. Fifteen hundred British troops sailed from Southampton yesterday to reinforce the garrison there.

ALL ROADS LEAD TO PRINCE RUPERT—Today delegates to the B. C. Regional convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Canada began arriving in Prince Rupert by every means of transport possible except afoot and swimming. This map shows how they come and a few of the southern points of origin—by air, by boat, by highway and by rail. The convention, which will be attended by almost three-score visitors, opens tomorrow for two days at the Civic Centre.

Search is Under Way

By Land and Air For Missing Fishing Boat Skipper

Air and ground search is proceeding today from isolated Tartoo Inlet, on the west coast of Graham Island, for Martin Ulmer, skipper of Nelson Bros. Fisheries Ltd. gillnet boat Atomic, who has been missing since May 22 when he set out for a sixteen-mile tramp overland from Athlow Bay following the abandoning of his broken down boat.

A Royal Canadian Air Force plane arrived yesterday at Queen Charlotte City from Vancouver and took on Provincial Constable J. W. Fletcher and party, flying them to Tartoo Inlet where they commenced an intensive search from the air and also by land over the rough terrain through which Ulmer would have headed.

WILL REJECT RUSS OFFER

BERLIN (C)—Leaders of the Berlin railway strike said that 12,000 strikers will hold a vote today on the Russian compromise offer but added that they expect to reject it. The vote is on whether or not to end the 12-day walk-out by accepting an offer by the Russian-controlled railway management to pay the men 60 percent of their wages in west marks.

COALITION SEEN BY C.C.F. LEADER

OTTAWA (C)—Speaking in Ontario in the course of the federal campaign, M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, charged that the Liberals and Progressive Conservatives were entering into a coalition in some federal ridings.

DREW IS CHALLENGED
OTTAWA—Prime Minister St. Laurent has challenged George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, to make Mr. Drew's proposal for devaluation of the Canadian dollar the main issue of the campaign for Canada's general election June 27.

NO COALITION
NEW WESTMINSTER—Progressive Conservative Leader George Drew pledged his party to no coalition with the Liberals if the Progressive Conservatives fail to win a majority. The Liberal administration has denied information to Parliament, he said.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE
VANCOUVER—Nick Agostino, one of six men arrested here yesterday for alleged complicity in a Canadian narcotic ring, is believed to have attempted suicide by slashing his wrists with a broken electric bulb in his cell. After hospital treatment he was returned to jail. The R.C.M.P. announced the sixth Vancouver arrest in connection with what they describe as their most extensive crackdown on illicit narcotics combines in Canada. Arrested in Calgary was Steve Bobach of Vancouver.

FOREIGN MINISTERS
PARIS—Three western foreign ministers met again Wednesday to discuss their diplomatic campaign against Russia in the foreign ministers' council. Advisers were said to be anxious that the ministers pass on to the second subject on the agenda today—the question of Berlin, its currency and its future. It is understood a 75-minute session yesterday was about whether the council should go into "restricted" session.

DECEIVER AND FAILURE SAYS GEORGE DREW OF SOCIALISM

KELOWNA (CP)—A claim that he is fighting Socialism because he is loath to see Canada shackled at the greatest period in her history was made in this Okanagan Valley centre yesterday by George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader.

"I am fighting Socialism because of its cruel deception," Mr. Drew said, "and because of its failure wherever it has been tried. I am fighting Socialism because it opens the door to Communism."

Drew was speaking on behalf of Theo Adams, Progressive Conservative candidate for Yale in the June 27 election.

CONTRADICTORY PROMISES MADE

OTTAWA (C)—Speaking in the Northern Ontario mining area, Hon. M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, said Liberal candidates were making election promises which contradicted one another and that Liberal cabinet ministers were evading the issues developed from the campaign.

Mayor Greeted Jaycee Delegates

Members of the City Council and myself are happy Prince Rupert has been chosen as the venue for the convention of the B. C. Regional Conference of the Chamber of Commerce of Canada, and we extend a warm welcome to all visiting delegates.

The Prince Rupert Junior Chamber is a vigorous and working group of citizens and they have done a great job in fostering civic pride and civic spirit in our city. We are ready at all times to assist in any project of importance and their presence among us is a sign of healthy citizenship.

We are proud of this body of younger citizens who are accepting their responsibilities in a cheerful and forthright manner and we trust that the convention will be an enjoyable and profitable experience for all taking part in it.

NORA E. ARNOLD, Mayor.

U.S. TOURISTS FIND CANADIANS LOSING OUT BY POOR SERVICE

Connecticut Couple Drives Here Despite Lack of Accommodation and Warnings of Border Officials

It was not particularly the rough roads or the dust—although they encountered plenty of both—it was their failure to obtain sleeping accommodation and their inability to buy gasoline after 6 p.m. that jarred a veteran pair of American motor tourists.

Irwin Conn, of New Haven, Connecticut, who drove his dust-sheathed car into Prince Rupert at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, feels that if Canadians are going to roll up the streets when the clock says sundown, they are going to lose a lot of nice, crisp American dollars. If he had not been a particularly adventurous man, with an equally intrepid wife, they would have lost some of his.

Perhaps it is because he is a second cousin to the boxer Billy Conn that Mr. Conn was so determined not to be beaten by the weather.

MISSIONERS ARE NEEDED

Bishop and Other Speakers at Meeting of Diocesan Women's Auxiliary

At the annual meeting of the Caledonia Diocesan Board of the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England in Canada yesterday, the Bishop of the Diocese, Rt. Rev. James B. Gibson, graphically described the two women mentioned in the Bible, Mary and Martha. He delivered his sermon at the opening service in the morning. The trend of today was towards the following of the practical Martha rather than the more spiritual Mary but he urged the members of the Auxiliary to remember that the Lord had said, "Mary has chosen the better part."

Reports were presented by various officers followed by a delightful luncheon prepared by the members of St. Andrew's Cathedral W.A. at which P. E. Anfield was the speaker. Mr. Anfield took for his subject the spheres of missionary enterprise throughout the world and vividly brought the minds of his listeners into focus with present day needs. This was necessary if Christianity was to go forward and not lose ground. He spoke of the need of Christian leadership, bringing the matter right to the doors of the diocese which had missions without clergymen. He hoped that, as the Church in other lands was securing religious leaders from among themselves, so the time would come when they would be raised from the various tribes in this part of the world.

Mrs. K. E. Taylor, vice-president of the Diocesan Board, spoke in the afternoon on her work of greeting and sending off W. A. missionaries to the Orient and of the work that was going on in India, China and Japan. The people in those lands were seeking to hear of Christ. New settlers must be ministered to and Indian missions properly manned. "We must pray and work to so put before the youth of our church the vocation of the ministry and the missionary life that candidates will be forthcoming."

Mrs. Nora Arnold thanked the speaker for her address, and after further business, the meeting adjourned until today.

At the opening of the proceedings, Mrs. R. L. McIntosh gave an address of welcome to delegates, Mrs. E. Bird of Hazelton responding.

TOURISTS FIND

obstacles on his drive from Bel- lingham to Prince Rupert. Cer- tainly, he says, the difficulties would have discouraged a less determined pair of tourists.

It began at the border crossing at Blaine, where Mr. Conn says, immigration of- ficers were definitely out to discourage him from attempt- ing to drive to Prince Rupert. They were not only unwilling or unable to provide him with any information about the road, but they were insistant that it was impossible to travel.

"I told them that we would try it anyway," he told the Daily News.

The fact that parts of the highway along the Fraser River canyon were washed out and he had to provide a surface by building up logs was part of the game, Mr. Conn continued, but he did object to not being able to get gasoline at a couple of places after 6 p.m. and hotel rooms at 10 p.m.

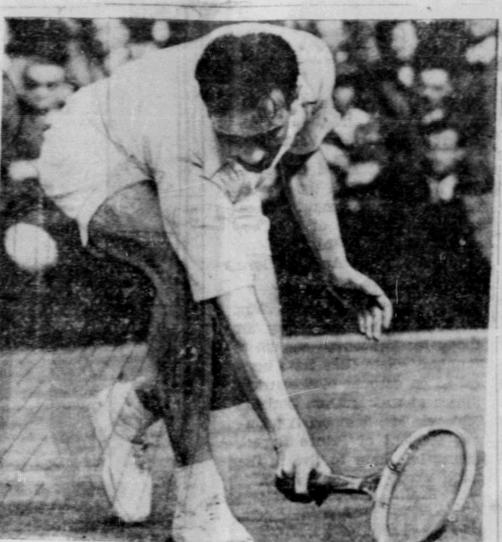

The former happened to him twice at places which he could not identify from memory and the latter at Williams Lake and Hazelton.

At both Williams Lake and Hazelton he could get no re- sponse to repeated attempts to arouse the management in order to get a room although it was only 10 o'clock.

"At both places, we had to wrap ourselves in blankets in the car which we didn't appreci- ate after a hard day's driving."

Directional signs are another requirement if the highway is going to be attractive to tour- ists, Mr. Conn believes. Lack of such signs caused him difficulty several times in getting on the right road when leaving towns. At Vanderhoof, he drove several miles up the Fort St. James trail before he realized he was on the wrong road.

"In a lonesome country like this there should be highway

BOOTH TRACK TEAM RETURNS

Booth Memorial High School's three-man track team returned to the city Wednesday from Van- couver where they competed at the week-end with track teams from high schools from all parts of the province in the annual meet held at Varsity stadium.

Sudden change from dirt tracks to hard-surfaced lanes took its toll on the local team, eliminat- ing two of the runners in the first events last Friday while the third, Gordon Rothwell, came fourth in the finals in the 400- yard dash.

Eric Moore was eliminated in the 800 the previous day, as had been Bob Williamson in the 100 and 220-yard events.

Difficulty in adjusting them- selves to hard-surfaced tracks was credited by Coach Jack Evans as a major part of his team's trouble. Mr. Evans re- turned with the youths today.

Winner of the meet was Oak Bay High School, Victoria, with Trapp Tech of New Westminster coming second.

ON TO ALASKA

Mr. and Mrs. Conn left their home at New Haven 10 days ago with the determination to drive to Alaska. Their present journey is only a part of the wanderings they plan for the summer.

Last night, they boarded the steamer Prince Rupert for Ket- chikan, taking their car. They plan to spend a couple of weeks there.

"Then we are going to come back here and drive until we get on the Alaska Highway and travel as far as we can go."

Mr. Conn said that he was able to collect a substantial fund of information regarding the Al- aska Highway but very little about the road to Prince Rupert. Had he known about the Manson medal which is available to the driver of the first car from New York City to Prince Rupert, he would have tried for it, he said.

"After all, New Haven is just outside of New York."

However, he plans to write some friends and tell them of the conditions required to win the medal. He is sure they will accept the challenge later in the season.

A butcher by trade, Mr. Conn has become almost a profession- al traveller. He and his wife have been on the road since last October, visiting Mexico, Cali- fornia, Florida and other south- ern states.

"Now, we are on our way to Alaska."

AID PLAN PRESENTED

United Nations Moving Further to Help Backward Nations Economically

LAKE SUCCESS — The United Nations today presented an $85,000,000 plan to boost economic development of backward countries.

The report on the plan emphasized, however, that progress of economic development must be measured in decades rather than years and that the present plan is only a pattern for further action.

The plan would be carried out by the United Nations itself and its specialized agencies such as the International Labor Organization and food and agriculture organizations.

Hammers at Gov't Trade Policies

OTTAWA — Solon Low, leader of the Social Credit party, pounded at the government's trade policies in a campaign address, contending that Canada faced such an intensive trade crisis that the Liberals had decided to go to the country "before the situation became too embarrassing."

MONTREAL, June 2nd—Time now to put your Spring suits in the back of your cupboard and take to summer cottons in silks! But before you do this be sure all your woollens are completely mothproof. Best way I know to mothproof your suits—coats—dresses or rugs is to do what the big woollen mills do—use LARVEX. It's so sure! Moths simply won't eat anything sprayed with Larvex—they'd rather starve to death! It's so quick 'n' easy! One "Larvex-spraying" actually mothproofs the cloth itself for a whole year. And you can wear the garment right away for there's no tell-tale "mothball" odour to Larvex! It's so inexpensive! . . . costs no more to "Larvex" a dress than to send it to the dry-cleaners! Excellent reasons all why Larvex is a household "buyword" in thousands of Canadian homes!

INDIANS HONOR PREMIER JOHNSON—Amid the colorful atmosphere of tribal custom and simple native language, at the Indian village of Kitsegukla, Indian chieftains and their tribes from the Skeena territory gathered to greet Premier Byron Johnson whom they hailed as "The Great Father." The event occurred during the Premier's election tour of the north country. Plumed in ancient headdress, Chief Peter Cooksen and Chief Arthur McDames officially greeted the Premier as an all-Indian "O Canada." Then, in affectionate terms translated by interpreter Mrs. Constance Cox, the Indian leaders expressed their appreciation of being granted the franchise. Likening the Premier unto "The Great Father," Chief Harold Sinclair of Kitwanga, said: "No father ever deceived or deserted his sons." Wise old Chief Martha Malkin, who has seen more than 100 summers, spoke of the franchise as the "opening of a locked door leading our people to freedom." Another tribal chief likened the event to "coming out of a deep darkness into a great light." Some of the tribes represented were the Kitseguklas, the Kitwangas, the Dahmlakamats, the Kitwancools and others. Shown in the above picture are, left to right: Interpreter Mrs. Constance Cox; Mrs. Maisie Armytage Moore; Chief Harold Sinclair; Hon. E. T. Kenney, Coalition candidate for Skeena; Chief Peter Cooksen wearing the ancient headdress symbolizing "The Friendly Welcome." Premier Byron Johnson; Chief Arthur McDames; Olof Hanson, former M.P., and Chief Letts. Front row, Percy Richards, Executive Assistant to the Premier; Mrs. Johnson and Byron Johnson, Jr.

Your Watch Education...
 Isn't quite complete until you have learned that our makes of watches are right at the top when it comes to reputations.
 There are many reasons why this is so. And not one reason ever came by accident, you may be sure of that.
 Watch reputations take years of building—and if you need a watch, you had better inquire.
 We carry Hamilton, Elgin, Gruen, Bulova, Waltham, Pierce, Mido, Omega and other makes.
 We guarantee all our watches.
