Disease Is Latest Danger In Stricken Fraser Valley

DWELLING MUST BE GIVEN CLEAN BILL OF HEALTH

Cannot Be Reoccupied Until Provincial Board of Health Approves

VANCOUVER (CP)—A new and grave danger loomed in the flooded Fraser Valley today—the threat of disease. Homes which were abandoned cannot be reoccupied until the provincial health department has inspected them individually and approved them as sanitary, according to an order made today. The order will not be lifted until such time as these approvals have been given. Water is continuing to recede from the inundated valley of fields and homes. Imported engineers have reiterated their opinion that Sumas Prairie is unsafe for occupancy until the river level has receded to eighteen feet at Mission.

Asking For Flood Plan

British Columbia Members Want to Know What Government Proposes

OTTAWA (CP)—James Sinclair, Liberal, Vancouver North, called on the government in the House of Commons Monday night to announce full detailed plans to help rehabilitate farmers of British Columbia's flood-stricken Fraser Valley. He said that the government should see that the publicly-owned Canadian National Railways paid in fair share the dyking tax levied on the people of the Valley. The railway had refused to pay the tax up to now although its lines run through the dyking areas. E. D. Fulton, Progressive Conservative, Kamloops, said that people outside the Fraser Valley who were also stricken by floods were anxious to know what help they could expect from the federal government. Rev. J. H. Matthews, C.C.F.-Kootenay East, said federal aid should apply to areas outside of the valley that was flooded.

MOTHER NATURE PUTS ON SHOW

Spectacular Summer Shower Brings Relief to Hot Weather Prince Rupert's extended heat wave was relieved last evening with a shower which was as colorful as it was welcome. The sultry air was finally freshened with a typical summer electrical storm. Darting chains of lightning alternated with straight flashes were followed by the reverberating rumbles. Fast-moving shower clouds and the orange orb of the setting sun combined to make spectacular and kaleidoscopic color effects in the western sky and on the harbor waters which were mildly whipped up by a brisk westerly breeze. The whole scene was one which would have held an artist spellbound. As it was local people gazed on it with wonderment.

Contract Is Awarded For New Gyro Swimming Pool

Announcement was made today by the Prince Rupert Gyro Club that the contract for the McClymont Park swimming pool had been awarded to Mitchell and Currie. Work is commencing immediately and it is planned to have this pool in operation by August 1. The successful tenderer's bid was $8,712. The pool will be of cement construction, 30 feet in width, 75 feet in length, with depths varying from three feet, three inches to a maximum eight and one-half feet. There will be a six foot walk encircling the pool and two standard diving boards will be erected at the deep end. This major project of the Gyro Club will be supervised by W. H. Shortridge who has designed the pool on the basis of standard specifications as set out by pool authorities. Water will be supplied from a four-inch city main, construction of which is now under way by the city engineer's department.

QUEEN'S APARTMENT GUTTED BY FIRE—The private apartments of Queen Wilhelmina of Holland were gutted by fire in her Noordeinde palace at Houe. She was not in the residence at the time but Prince Bernard, husband of Juliana was there and directed the removal of treasures while fire fighters fought the blaze.

Guarantee of Freedom of Press Is Being Sought by Newspapers

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian Daily Newspapers Association today asked for a law guaranteeing freedom of the press in Canada. In a brief to the Parliamentary committee the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association said that it is convinced these rights are "insecure."

BRING BUTTER HERE BY AIR

Aircraft was pressed into service at the end of the week to fly 5000 pounds of butter, ham and bacon into Prince Rupert due to the flood tie-up of the railroad which has brought about a shortage, particularly of butter. The butter was brought from Edmonton to Smithers by rail, transferred at Smithers to truck and brought on to Terrace whence it was flown in here. Despite the fact that the 6c subsidy of the federal government on butter flown to the coast in view of the current emergency has not been made applicable to Prince Rupert, R. E. Moore, manager of Burns & Co. Ltd., says his company will continue to use aircraft to deliver butter here until such time as rail transportation is restored.

Legislature To Be Called

VICTORIA (CP)—A special session of the Legislature is expected to be called at an early date to vote funds for flood relief and rehabilitation. An announcement on the matter is expected to be made today by Premier Byron I. Johnson following a re-visit to the flood-stricken province by himself and the flood commission. Meantime the commission, consisting of E. W. Hamber and Gen. B. M. Hoffmeister is authorized to take such steps as are needed to meet the situation pending federal and provincial authorization. Joint financial arrangements between the Dominion and British Columbia governments for relief and rehabilitation in the flood-stricken province was announced last week by Prime Minister Mackenzie King at Ottawa. Meantime relief will apply as far as the Dominion government is concerned to the Fraser Valley area. Other areas are under consideration. Costs of temporary relief will be divided equally between the two governments. The federal government will bear 75 per cent and the provincial 25 per cent of the cost of emergency measures already taken or being taken. Cost of eventual rehabilitation will be settled by later agreement.

Council Votes Chlorination Back on 'Temporary' Basis

Reverses Stand Taken On May 25 Regarding Treatment of City's Water—Full Council Not In Attendance

Prince Rupert's water supply is to be chlorinated again on a "temporary" basis following a city council decision last night which reversed action taken on May 25 when the aldermen by a majority vote decided to discontinue the chemical treatment. The re-chlorination decision was made on recommendation of the civic health committee that "chlorination be re-instituted on a temporary basis until a full council is in attendance." Only five of the full panel of eight aldermen were present last night.

Absent were Aldermen Casey, Brooksbank and Morin, each of whom had voted for its discontinuation on May 25. Alderman Robert McKay, who also had voted for the motion to stop chlorination last month, reversed his vote Monday night and declared himself in support of chlorinating the city's water. Only dissenting vote last night was by Alderman George Rudderham who stood by the stand he had taken earlier and spoke against chlorination.

Key to the council's backtracking on the chlorination issue were a number of petitions and letters said to have carried names of between 1,700 and 1,800 citizens protesting the council's May 25 decision and urging that chlorination be re-instituted. Alderman Rudderham urged his colleagues "not to be too hasty in this matter" and to table it until a full council is in attendance.

"It is only three weeks since our policy on this matter was decided," he declared. "I don't like to see us reversing ourselves in this way. It reflects on the council."

Alderman Rudderham declared that, in spite of the petitions, he felt that the citizens were in favor of discontinuing chlorination. "It is quite possible that a group could go out and get just as many names on an anti-chlorination petition—some of them the same names that are on those petitions," he declared. It was indicated that two of the absent aldermen, who had voted to discontinue chlorination, have changed their stand along with Alderman McKay. Mayor Arnold told council that Alderman Ralph Morin, who is now in the interior, had "felt that we should put back chlorination in response to public demand but should have a referendum on it at election time."

Alderman McKay said that Alderman Casey, who initiated the anti-chlorination move on May 10, had informed him that, "due to the strong protest, he was in favor of putting it back."

"I hold the same views myself," said Alderman McKay, "not because I favor putting it back but because this council is in a very precarious position. Our citizens go out of town on holidays and, if they get diseases while they are away and bring them back here, they might blame it on to us."

Alderman T. B. Black, who had voted against discontinuing chlorination last month, spoke strongly in favor of resuming it. "I believe our city council and committee proceeded in the wrong manner in this," he said. "They should have consulted our canitarians and public health doctor before making any recommendation. There is no use having health authorities if we are going to act against their judgment."

In the vote last night Aldermen Black, Stone, Nickerson, and McKay voted for resuming chlorination. Against re-suming chlorination was Alderman Rudderham.

Railway To Open July 1

Messaging in today to his office here, C. A. Berner, district superintendent, Canadian National Railways, now at the scene of the big washout three miles west of Kitwanga, gave "fourteen or fifteen days" as the time required before the railway line would be re-opened through to Prince Rupert following the recent floods. Mr. Berner has been in the interior since before the washouts. Meanwhile, it is now expected that it will be about June 23 before the line is reopened through to Terrace from Prince Rupert. It is at present blocked by washouts on either side of Shames. Flood waters of the Skeena River are still receding, according to this afternoon's reports.

DANUBE PARLEY, RUSSIA AGREES

WASHINGTON, D.C., (CP)—Soviet Russia has accepted a United States proposal to hold a 10-country conference July 30 to arrange for free international navigation of the Danube River. The State Department says that Russia has also withdrawn previous opposition to Austria's taking part in the conference. It said that Austria might attend a non-voting capacity.

SMELTER AIDS REHABILITATION

TRAIL, (CP)—More than $400,000 will be spent by the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. to aid in the rehabilitation of flood damaged Kimberley and Trail. It has been estimated that the property loss in Kimberley, a mining community in East Kootenay, will total about $1,000,000.

Alexander In Brazil

Canada and Latin-American Republic Both Love Peace and Freedom RIO DE JANEIRO (CP)—Brazil today put on its greatest military display in recent years as thirty-five thousand fully-equipped soldiers and the newest weapons, including heavy tanks, rolled past the reviewing stand and the honored guest, Field Marshal Viscount Alexander of Tunis, Canada's Governor-General. Yesterday Alexander addressed the Brazilian Congress. He said that Brazil and Canada have many things in common but the greatest link is their common aversion to tyranny. "We both love peace," declared Alexander "but we love freedom best and are prepared to fight for it."

An independent daily newspaper devoted to the upbuilding of Prince Rupert and all communities comprising northern and central British Columbia...

Come On, Good People

WE HOPE that all the good people of Prince Rupert are giving to the utmost of their reasonable ability to the British Columbia Flood Emergency Fund...

The time of the drive is being extended. Prince Rupert set a high objective and it is still short by more than half of being achieved.

Once again we emphasize the terrible affliction which has created a great and immediate cause transcending all others the appeal to provide assistance to the thousands of sufferers and victims of the awful floods...

Here in happy Prince Rupert we are secure and comfortable in our homes. We have not even had to go out and man the dykes as hundreds of men on the lower mainland are doing.

IN PORT DIRECTORY

NINTH EDITION of "Canadian Ports and Shipping Directory," a publication designed to provide complete information for shipmasters and others desiring to know the facilities available at over 300 Canadian ports...

Prince Rupert gets an adequate amount of space and the port's facilities are satisfactorily outlined in considerable detail. There is one notable error, however, and that is a flat statement that "there are no motor truck roads out of the port" when it is probably meant that there are no regularly franchised trucking services.

It is gratifying to note that the port of Port Edward with its great dock is also given due mention with reference to the Celanese Corporation of America's big cellulose pulp mill undertaking there.

IT MIGHT HAPPEN HERE

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY persons have perished in a Danish passenger vessel striking a mine and sinking in the Kattegat, the strait at the entrance of the Baltic Sea between Sweden and Denmark.

Numerous live Japanese mines have already drifted over to the British Columbia coast, some of them right into "Inside Passage" waters.

Possibly, as we have been told, there is nothing very much to worry about, what with the small element of chance and the safeguards with which modern vessels are equipped, but the incident in the Kattegat makes us reflect that some people at least would feel a little more secure on dark nights at sea if they knew that all possible steps were being taken to protect the coast by adequate anti-mine and mine disposal services and a coastguard service worthy of the importance of this coast and its shipping.

You'll find that the big potatoes are on top of the heap because there's a lot of little ones holding them up there.

What City Council Did

Referred to the Board of 25 and referred to the board of works for investigation a petition signed by 33 residents of First Overlook Street seeking a lane connection between that street and Second Overlook, further east.

Declared August 26 to be a civic holiday on request of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Port Day committee which plans to hold the annual Port Day celebration on that day.

On inquiry of Alderman Black, decided to activate the council's grain elevator committee which was appointed by Mayor Arnold early this year.

The City Hall is to have a new flag. Council made a motion to purchase one last night after Mayor Arnold pointed out that it had had none since the Roosevelt Park cairn dedication almost two years ago.

Gave final reading to a by-law reducing the business licence for busses operating solely between the city and outside points to $20.

Approved the granting of the following trade licences, as reported by the licensing committee: Harry Chen, painter; Bob Parker Ltd., service station; W. D. Weiss, second hand dealer.

Adopted a recommendation by the board of works that the city purchase a water tank from S. R. Donaldson for $100. The tank is to be used for spraying water on the city streets.

Accepted a board of works recommendation that a request by residents of Piggott Avenue for a sidewalk to Sixth Avenue East be approved.

SHORT SPORT

The Sunday sport issue took a going-over in a committee room at Sault Ste. Marie, last week. Nobody knows just who won the argument, but the solution left all parties shaking their heads sadly.

Then came trouble. The S.S.A. executive overruled Miller, and pointing out that Sunday sport was illegal, ordered the game replayed. Raj felt this was carrying things too far. Why, he asked, since the game was played and nobody complained, should the Association throw out the game?

Timely Topics from Terrace

STRANDED BY FLOOD, REMAIN

TERRACE—A party of friends, immigrants from Britain, stranded in Terrace by flood conditions, have decided to spend the summer here and to possibly settle permanently if they can find a suitable opening. They are Mr. Crane, Miss Trenton and Mrs. Barnes. The latter with her adopted daughter who, when only a few weeks old was taken, the only survivor from the blitzed ruins of her parents' home. Mrs. Barnes and Miss Trenton came to this country last September where they were employed at Aurora College near Toronto and where they met Mr. Crane. Work at Aurora being over for the summer months they decided to come out to the west coast their intended destination being Prince Rupert. However, they got no further than Smithers from which point they drove to Terrace arriving here last Thursday.

A watchmaker and jeweller by trade, Mr. Crane will work in co-operation with Mr. Brinkley and the two ladies have already found employment here.

With a good-sized list of passengers, including quite a number of round trip tourists, C.P. R. steamer Princess Adelade, Capt. Fred McGraw, arrived in port at 7:15 last evening from Vancouver and waypoints, sailing at 11 p.m. on her return south.

Reminiscences and Reflections

It must be a wrench for a home owner to return and examine a dwelling that had been under water for weeks. At best it would be like an evil dream—only with the difference that there will be no awakening with the glow of vast relief.

It was on June 3 that Hollywood observed the fifty-second anniversary of the first screen kiss. The principals were Mary Irwin and John C. Rice, and all it amounted to was a smothered sigh, and not much of that. Yet, it was enough to disturb propriety, and arouse the clergy. It also set attendance records and the box office was not going to overlook a little item like that.

No coast on earth has seen faster progress in travel development and convenience than this one. The Klondike boomer packed his blankets, shared board bunks with others and took a chance on drowning. And it was not until the coming of the G.T.P. that a voyage north was very different from what it always had been. Today, it's a privilege to have floating mansions call for you, when the sea beckons.

More stories—and not all tragic—keep coming from the Fraser Valley flood zone. There was the little old lady who took a great pride in her cottage home. The dyke broke, and an emergency squad rushed to rescue her. But would she budge? Nothing doing.

until she had finished watering her garden.

Once again, the record discloses, the best way to advertise is through the newspapers. It's the tried and the tested way. It has often been made to appear that new inventions (useful enough in their way), would mortally wound or sorely afflict the papers but somehow these sonorous and frightening pronouncements always sounded worse than they were. Calmly, sanely, the unshackled press just kept jogging along.

A candidate, if he honestly believes support is influenced or determined by the payment or non-payment of a glass of beer, or a cigar of villainous ancestry, must have an odd opinion of at least some of the electorate. The practice is said to have become fully matured. Which is more than can be said of the liquid refreshments.

POWERFUL LIGHT
FOWEY, Cornwall, Eng., ☉— St. Catherine's lighthouse here is to have a new 25,000 candlepower light which, under average conditions, will be visible for more than 20 miles.

ATTENDS CONFERENCE
AUCKLAND, N.Z., ☉— Sir David Smith, chancellor of the University of New Zealand and former senior puisne judge of the Supreme Court, will attend the Commonwealth Universities Conference at Oxford in July.

Timely Recipe

One can get that comforting feeling of satiety as easily from less known, less in demand, "thrifty" cuts, as from steaks and chops. Luckily these cuts, lower in price, are just as high in nutrition. But they must be cooked skillfully! Try this recipe:

- Lamb Neck Slices
- 6 lamb neck slices
  - 2 tablespoons lard
  - 1 cup water
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 teaspoon pepper

- 3 medium onions, sliced
- 3 potatoes
- 6 small carrots
- 6 large stalks celery

Brown neck slices in hot lard. Add water and seasoning. Cover and simmer for one hour. Add onions and lengthwise strips of carrots and potatoes. Continue to simmer 20 minutes. Then add celery, cut in 3-inch pieces, and simmer 15 minutes longer. Yield: six servings.
