Arms Are Standard

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada, the United States and Great Britain today formally made public one of their worst-kept military secrets that they have been working together on standardization of arms and training since 1947.

Informed quarters here said that the announcement includes no new or immediate developments in the long, gradual process of standardization.

Kunming Is Recaptured

TAIPEH, Formosa (CP)—Kunming, important Second World War base, was recaptured today by Chinese Nationalists. The fugitive Chinese Nationalist government announced here.

The government said that its twenty-sixth army had seized the large South China city from defending provincial troops who took it over as the nationalist government fled here from Chengtu.

Keep Haines Highway Open

Alaska Development Board Co-Operating With E. T. Applewhite

JUNEAU—Every effort is now being made in Ottawa to obtain a decision which would keep the Canadian section of the Haines Highway open on a year-round basis starting in 1950, the Alaska Development Board has been advised by E. T. Applewhite, member of Parliament for the Skeena district, Prince Rupert.

Mr. Applewhite reached Ottawa yesterday morning's session. He and Mrs. Applewhite reached Ottawa yesterday morning's session. He and Mrs. Applewhite reached Ottawa yesterday morning's session. He and Mrs. Applewhite reached Ottawa yesterday morning's session.

Collision Is Fatal

C.N.R. Freight Trains in Crash in Manitoba

DAUPHIN, Man. (CP)—One man is dead and five others are injured following a head-on collision Sunday between two Canadian National Railway freight trains at Dutton Siding, 24 miles west of here.

Dead is Douglas Lytle, aged 24, of Highfield, Manitoba, brakeman, who died when pinned under the wheels of a derailed box car. He had leaped from one of the freights just prior to the crash-up.

Is Building Battleships, Submarines

LONDON (CP)—Jane's fighting ships, authoritative naval publication, said today that the Russians are believed to be building three ultra-modern 35,000-ton battleships equipped with radio-controlled aerial torpedoes and rockets. Two others are said to be in the blue print stage and possibly in shipyard stocks.

Russia is already known to possess two battleships.

The Soviet Union also envisages, as part of the five-year naval building program, a fleet of from 750 to 1000 long-range submarines by 1951, Jane's said.

Final Classes Held Tuesday

The festive season is nearly here and for students of city public and high schools it means 13 days of "freedom." Commencing Wednesday, schools will be closed until the morning of January 4.

As for teachers, some of them will journey south for holidays while others will remain to enjoy holidays here.

Many ex-students attending U.B.C. and other educational institutions will be home for Christmas with yarns of Varsity and city life spur to wide eyed youngsters and adults alike.

Miner Trapped, Hope Fading

BLAIRMORE, Alberta (CP)—Weary crews of miners today continued round-the-clock digging with hope fading that they will find alive 66-year-old Ben Carter, trapped in a cave-in which claimed the life of another miner at Greenhill Colliery here last Friday. All regular work in Greenhill mine has ceased as the miners concentrate all their efforts on finding the missing man who is the father of five children.

New Houses Are "Chicken-Coops"

Vanouver Not Pleased With Units in Fraser View Project

VANCOUVER (CP)—The federal government's $9,000,000 low cost Fraser View housing development in South Vancouver is a "chicken coop" project, Jack S. Woods, president of the Vancouver Builders' and Contractors' Association, said at the week-end.

Mr. Woods, along with Ald. Archie Proctor, chairman of the Vancouver Housing Authority, and members of the Architectural Institute of Canada inspected the area Friday.

Kayhi Wins Over Booth

Ketchikan High School trounced Bo-Me-Hi in an exhibition game at the Alaskan town Saturday night by a 56 to 29 score. This was the first game won by the Kay-hi boys, and had no bearing on the International series, which was won by Prince Rupert by virtue of their first three game victories.

Ketchikan started with a big lead in the first quarter, and was only threatened in the third period.

Bo-Me-Hi, with the series already won lacked interest and fight and were penalized heavily for fouling, losing Scherk, Spring Carlson and Moore for five persons, only Webster of the first string, being in the game when the final bell rang.

Happy Musical Gathering At Civic Centre Sunday Night

"O come all ye faithful, Joyful and triumphant, O come ye . . ."

And they did come—approximately 600 citizens of Prince Rupert. They came to the Civic Centre auditorium last night to raise their voices in melodic tribute to a Man born 1950 years ago this month.

Among the most beautiful songs in the world are Christmas carols. And a tugging at the heart develops whenever any of these melodies are presented—whether by a choir, orchestra or an audience itself.

Fire Is Fatal To Small Girl

VANCOUVER (CP)—Fire gutted a two-storey house here Sunday and claimed the life of 4½-year old Annette Rigby. The blaze started in the kitchen, apparently from an overheated stove and spread through the house quickly.

T. L. Williams, pioneer resident of Port Clements, is in the city on a business visit.

Street Markings Needed

PRINCE RUPERT should not let another tourist season arrive without having effected some proper markings of her streets. As our "W.J.R." remarked in his reflections in the Daily News last week, it is very easy for old timers to find their way about because they are so familiar with every part of the city, but the confusion of newcomers and visitors is made even more complex by the complete absence of anything in the way of street markings.

It is also high time that something be done in the way of providing centrally located directional charts, by signs and cards, to show the location of points of interest and how to get to them as well as giving general directional information.

The example of Prince George might be pointed to. In that progressive interior town, the Junior Chamber of Commerce got busy and put up the signs. In Prince Rupert it is a job that might be done by an organization such as the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Public Relations Council or even one of the public spirited service clubs.

Of course, the city council itself might be expected to take a lead in the matter but its financial resources seem to be always taxed so completely that it might not see its way clear.

The job is one, however, that should be done as a service to the new people and the visitors who come here. It would add to the favorable impression that the city leaves.

GREAT PLANT TAKES SHAPE

WE have reported regularly on the progress of the construction of the Columbia Cellulose celanese mill at Watson Island but it requires a visit to the scene to get a real idea of the vastness of the project and the great planning and engineering skill that is entering into the building of the plant.

When it was a matter of heavy excavation and preparatory work on the ground, only a hazy idea could be gained. Much different, however, is the scene today now that some of the great buildings are nearing completion while the huge steel frames are being raised for others. The picture is gradually but surely forming of the enormity of the project.

Also it is possible to appreciate now the great degree of organization that is involved in the execution of the huge undertaking which is costing $35,000,000 and will give employment to hundreds of permanent and highly skilled workers when it is completed.

Yes, a visit to Port Edward, eight miles away by railway and twelve miles by road, is well worthwhile. Prince Rupert people have no idea about what is going on there if they have not made a recent trip to the site of this project which is changing the whole economy of this community and district.

ALUMINUM INDUSTRY

NO one who knows the facts will disagree with the opinion expressed in a press despatch Friday that the coming of an industry like the Aluminum Company to British Columbia outweighs in importance the value of salmon fisheries at least as far as the Nechako River project is concerned.

The Aluminum Co., one of the continent's major organizations and capable of commanding vast sums, is drawn here by what British Columbia possesses in the way of water power with the added advantage of being so readily accessible. This is an asset of peculiar advantage to British Columbia. The energy that water, under circumstances provided by engineers, will generate, is sold, yet the source of that power remains a part of the natural resources. The same can be said of hardly anything else unless it's the scenery.

Ray Reflects . . . . . . and Reminisces

More inquiries, concerning Prince Rupert, are being received by the Public Relations Council from various points all over the United States and Canada. They are already informed respecting fish and rain. It is however, high time the people of North America were able to share in a conversation in which this city might be mentioned without instinctively thinking of halibut and an umbrella.

In the good old days a man who was down to his last dollar at least knew where his next three meals were coming from.

It is about a year since a soured man down east tried to tell children there was so such a man as Santa Claus and that Christmas was a commercial racket on an enormous scale. The whole tin business was a dollars and cents invention. They listened, and agreed he was wrong. All were unanimous on that score. Yes, he was wrong but how greatly, even the kiddies themselves, couldn't imagine.

Traffic on Second Avenue is picking up, chiefly between McBride and Seventh Streets. It's been a long time developing and will be more noticeable when the Canadian Legion move to First Avenue and the new theatre stands completed at Third Avenue and First Street.

Perhaps local old timers are not already in the minority but, at the rate new citizens are arriving, it will not be so long, before they are.

Strange faces everywhere but it's all right. That's the way cities grow. Of course, some have been born and raised here, growing to maturity. Introductions can and do cause chuckle, when one casually inquires.

"You been long in town?"
"Oh, about forty years".

Deep snow may be beautiful but verily it can also be expensive. There comes this quaint tale of a mortorist in St Catharines, Ont. whose car slid off the street and found itself stuck in the sidewalk. He worked for an hour without result and was finally pulled free by a garage truck at the cost of $2, "because it was Sunday." How about overtime, or something for the collection?

The titles of these films were "Dick Whittington's Cat," "Big Bad Wolf," and "Chinook's Children" all of special interest to the kiddies. The adult show was held at the conclusion of the first showing.

Automobile Insurance Rates Revised

EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1st, 1950 IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Government statistics showing a large increase in road traffic; a sharp increase in the number of accidents; the well known increase in the cost of automobile repairs; these combined with other factors make a revision of automobile insurance rates necessary as briefly outlined below. Rate revisions will not apply to existing policies until their renewal.

Private Passenger Automobiles—Bodily Injury, Property Damage and Collision.

Frankly recognizing the human element in driving, a new classification is being introduced giving preferred rates on pleasure cars where there is no driver in the household under 25 years of age.

As statistics show that young drivers constitute a serious hazard, somewhat higher rates than those for the preferred class will apply on pleasure cars driven by any person in the household under 25 years of age, and more substantial premiums will be imposed on cars used for business purposes because the loss figures indicate many more accidents in this class.

Any increase in rates is due to the greater number of claims and the increased cost of automobiles, parts, and labour. For instance, in 1939 a new car could be replaced for say $1200, but today the same make would cost $2400. In cases of partial loss, fender, body and grill work particularly are now more elaborate and much more costly to repair or replace.

FIRE AND THEFT REDUCED.

Statistical records justify a reduction in the Fire and Theft rates for both Private Passenger and Commercial vehicles and these will be substantially reduced.

Commercial Vehicles—Bodily Injury and Property Damage.

Owing to the increased number of serious, expensive accidents resulting in higher amounts paid in claims, an increase in rates is necessary in most categories—EXCEPT IN GREATER VANCOUVER WHERE THERE WILL BE A REDUCTION.

Even with the revisions that are contemplated the cost of Automobile Insurance in say Vancouver will be lower than Montreal, Seattle and San Francisco—as the diagram shows.

How Can Rates Be Lowered?
 Rates are based on accurate statistical records of accidents. For lower rates there must be fewer accidents. The control is in the hands of the motorists. Continuous care, courtesy and the observance of safe driving rules are the only ways to reduce accidents, and so reduce rates.

For full particulars of the new rates see your Insurance Agent.

One String Team Downs Brownwoods—League Suspension for Holidays

Co-ops gave a first class demonstration of why they are the leading team in the Senior Basketball League when they trimmed Brownwoods 68 to 56 on Saturday night at the Civic Centre. They were short on spares and Playing Coach Angus Macphee did not strip. This meant that Arney, Holkestad, Flaten, Scherk and Davis went the whole route without a substitute and, by smart ball-handling, ended the game just about as fresh as they started. Ted Arney gave a peerless display of shooting. He made at least ninety percent of his shots, swishing 28 points through the hoop, a record in this year's play. Holkestad, Scherk and Flaten all made ten or more with 15, 13 and 10 respectively.

Brownwoods sincerely tried hard, but they just couldn't win against Co-op's brilliant play. They ended the game a mighty tired bunch, and had no excuses for their loss. Bill Sunberg was their high man and scored 16. Sunberg was exhausted during the last few minutes and could hardly keep on his feet. Reg Lavigne scored 13 and played a fine driving game. It was clean and fast, only 25 fouls being called by referees Comadina and Ciccone.

During the intermission period, basketball fan Jim Sheddson was presented with a going away gift by Art Murray on behalf of the Referees' Association. Jimmy has long been a keen referee balter and, in a humorous vein, Art Murray described how he could best make use of his gift, which turned out to be an official basketball rule book and whistle.

Brownwoods—Shier 8, Lavigne 13, Sunberg 16, Gurdich 4, Thompson 7, Bill, Pierce 8—Total 56.

Co-op—Arney 28, Holkestad 15, Flaten 10, Scherk 13, Davis 2.

INTERMEDIATE

The intermediate game between North Star and Fashion was the best game of the evening. North Star gave the league-leading Fashion a real scare, and Fashion barely eked out a 47 to 46 win. North Star's inability to score on foul tries cost them the game as they missed 14 of 24 free throws. Fashion potted half of their free throws and their better percentage was good for a win. North Star had a golden opportunity in the last seconds when they gained control under the Fashion basket but couldn't convert on the shot. Alan Hartwig went great guns all through the game, and scored 20 points, exactly double of his nearest rivals Hebb and Intermela who each made 10. Jim Intermela played another good game for Fashion. The North Star defence kept Bob Gill well under control and held him to six points. Sixteen fouls were called on North Star and a like amount on Fashion by referees

Slatta, Ciccone and Calderoni. Referee Slatta left the game at the half for another engagement. North Star—Hartwig 20, Smith 8, Young 3, Wesch 6, Parnell 4, Ketcheson 2, Sedgwick 2, Hamilton 1. Total 46.

Fashion—Gill 6, Hebb 10, Intermela 10, Hill 7, Lien 4, Haggan 2, Watson, Brew 3.—Total 47.

JUNIOR

In the two junior games Kinsmen beat Sea Cadets by a 38 to 22 score and Scouts scored an overtime upset over the league-leading Rupert Hotel by 19 to 13. It was Rupert Hotel's first defeat of the season. Sather was the high scorer for Rupert Hotel with two-thirds of his team's points, swishing the hoop for 12. In the Kinsmen-Sea Cadets game Reynold McKay made for 14 for the Kin and Weisford Drake kept up his high average with 10 points. The junior games are a pleasure to watch and attract more spectators each evening.

Kinsmen—White 4, MacAfee, H. Blackaby 5, Peneff 1, Letourneau 7, A. Blackaby 1, R. MacIntosh 4, McKay 14, W. Blackaby 2. Total 38.

Sea Cadets—Toderas 1, Christensen, Matthews, Wing, Leighton 1, D. Leighton, Davidson 4, Drake 10, Black 4, Ford 2. Total 22.

Scouts—R. Webber 1, Becker 4, Scherk 2, Ciccone 4, Eiriksen 2, Hodgkinson 6. Total 19.

Rupert Hotel—Morrison 2, Stacey, Marki, E. Stacey 4, Sather 12, MacFarlane, Donaldson, B. MacFarlane, Forman. Total 18.

Christmas is a time of words

Among other things Christmas is a time of words.

There are words that wish us well, that praise, that pay compliments and offer thanks for our many blessings.

And there are the words of the young—innocent words, full of the wonder of the day; and still other words, spoken over the vast spaces of a continent to waiting loved ones.

And there are words that are oft left unspoken, words revealed only by a firm handclasp or a trembling tear; and words too, that remind us of seasons gone by and of those to come.

And always—as long as time itself—there will be the familiar words—rich and splendid beyond compare, words alive forever with warmth and sincerity, and for which there is no substitute, words that are the finest of all words at this time . . . those words which say Merry Christmas!

Xmas Concert At Terrace School

TERRACE—Once again the school Christmas concert, held this year in the Civic Centre Auditorium Friday evening was a great success. The large hall was packed with the parents and friends of the youngsters and all thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Although not too long a program it was varied and interesting from beginning to end. It opened with the "Wedding of the Painted Doll" where the small children were very conscious of their grown-up appearance. The tiny "bride" and "groom" were every bit as smart as their grown up counterparts and every bit as solemn. It was a lovely opening.

The singing of carols and the recitation of grade 4's "Night Before Christmas," with the actions accompanying them, were all well received.

The High School girls sang "O Come All Ye Faithful" first verse in Latin.

The closing number was "The Christmas Carol" with Herbert Frandell doing a particularly good piece of acting as the miser "Scrooge".

Miss Annie Lips, Elementary School principal, was the announcer and she remarked how much the school had grown since seven years ago when there were only 4 classrooms in comparison with the 8 of today.

The P. T. A. helped make the costumes and sponsored the entertainment, which was, financially, as well as, from the entertainment angle, an unqualified success.

Packed House At Xmas Concert

Youngsters were everywhere at the Civic Centre Friday. They were on the stage, on the floor, in and out the doors, yelling, running, and enjoying themselves to their young heart's content.

"Hey, look there, there's my Joey on the stage. Now, isn't that sweet?" one excited father was saying.

"Jeannie wants to be an actress," a mother was whispering to another mother who was eyeing the stage looking for her Susie.

The event, staged to a packed house at the Civic Centre auditorium Friday was the annual Christmas concert of King Edward school. Grades one to six combined to present an excellent show and much credit must be given to patient teachers who helped make the concert a success.

The audience of parents and guests without a doubt, enjoyed the show. It's that thrill in a lifetime to see one's little tot performing, breaking all the rules of showmanship but nevertheless standing on his or her own two feet.

A varied program of precision chorus drills, choruses and plays was presented. Highlights of the program were the junior choir, grades 1, 2 and 3, under the direction of Mrs. Christianson, and the senior choir, grades 4, 5 and 6, under the supervision of J. Goscoe.

A Mother Goose play, entitled "Nursery Land," featured grade one students dressed in various colorful costumes. Miss A. Rogers and Miss Margaret Tait supervised the children for that particular contribution to the concert.

A musicale, "Christmas Tree," had grade three students on the stage hoping they would justify Miss A. Patterson's teaching.

Grade three students of Miss Patterson presented another number called "Peppermint Candy Cane." A three-act play by the grade two students of Miss D. Robertson was well liked. This was the story of the Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. Miss M. Caldwell's grade four students acted out a Christmas Story which featured the Three Wise Men.

Wind-up of the concert were two plays, "Coming Events" and "Teacher, It's Nearly Christmas" presented by grades 4, 5 and 6 students. R. G. Moore and J. Goscoe were in director roles.

Jeanette Spark was announcer and Miss Rogers, pianist. Supervisors of the concert were Mrs. B. Andrews and Principal R. G. Moore.

Hot Drama Of Desert

Searchng drama of nine men and a woman seeking fabulous treasure in the desert is the story of "Walking Hills," co-starring Randolph Scott and Ella Raines, which is showing at the Capitol Theatre here this Monday and Tuesday. The cast also features William Bishop, Edgar Buchanan, Arthur Kennedy, John Ireland, Jerome Courtland and Josh White, the blues singer.

The story revolves about a group of border characters from all walks of life who set out in search of a legendary golden treasure supposed to have been lost 100 years ago in the shifting sand dunes picturesquely called the "Walking Hills," located north of the Mexican border.

The characters include a cut-throat, a cowboy, a renegade and a policeman, all gamblers, who seek the storied treasure and escape from their pasts. Into this oddly assembled group stumbles the lone woman, Miss

Scott and Bishop, two of the gold seekers. Violent passions of love, hate and greed then clash hectically in the desert. A terrible desert sand-storm forms the feature of a blasting climax.

SKEENA MEMBER (Continued from Page One)

to be making very little progress but perhaps I expected too much of my first session.

"Two matters were a great disappointment to me: I was disappointed at not being able to persuade the government to reopen Atlin as a customs port of entry for aircraft. I feel very strong that developments in that part of the district justify this. In fact I think it is essential and I don't intend to let it drop.

"The other major disappointment, which will be a disappointment to thousands in our district was my failure to obtain a settlement of the problems and radio reception for Prince Rupert and the other towns on the northern main line of the Canadian National Railways. I hope that every organization from Prince Rupert to Burns Lake will keep up relentless pressure on this subject until we get it solved."

Mr. Applewhite paid tribute to Prime Minister L. S. St. Laurent. "There is no question at all," he said "but that the Prime Minister emerged from this session as a very outstanding Canadian. He did not speak often in the House but, whenever he did, he was listened to by all sides with the greatest of attention and respect. This was more than the courtesy due to the position of Prime Minister. It was a tribute to the qualities of the man. Having seen all the cabinet ministers in action, I feel surer than ever that the affairs of Canada are in very good hands."

At the same time, Mr. Applewhite feels that not all outstanding Canadians are on the government side of the House. George Drew, M. J. Coldwell and Solon Low are "all big men—men entitled to our very real respect, whether we agree with their policies or not." Mr. Applewhite also was anxious to mention the friendly and helpful attitude of the older members—those who had been in Parliament before—towards the new and inexperienced members such as himself. "It is good to realize from actual experience that politics and policies are one thing and they do not affect the human qualities of people and that human friendliness does not depend upon or is spoiled by party affiliations."

Speaking of other local matters, Mr. Applewhite said, he was hopeful that by next year there might be weekly air-mail service from Prince Rupert to Alice Arm, Stewart and Graham Island, arranged to alternate with the present weekly boat mail services.

The possibility of having an air field built at Prince Rupert also engaged Mr. Applewhite's attention at Ottawa. He will be active on it while at home between sessions.

Speaking of the breakwater for the protection of the fishing fleet at the Fairview Bay floats, the Skeena member said that the public works department had issued instructions to obtain estimates immediately on the cost of materials which would be needed so that tenders would be called with a minimum of delay.

Mr. Applewhite already has been booked for speaking appointments during the next few weeks including the annual meetings of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, the Terrace and District Board of Trade and the Junior Chamber of Commerce at Smithers.
