May Try To Drive Out Western Powers; Will Be Resisted To Limit

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CP) — Highest United States officials believe the Russians will try again next month to drive western occupation powers out of Berlin. They say this expected effort will come in the form of an invasion of the city's western zones by half a million German Communist youths who will be resisted to the limit, including the use of machine gun fire if necessary.

Five Years For McKnight

George McKnight, who admitted that he had been discharged only last May from New Westminster penitentiary after serving three years for theft and breaking and entering, was sentenced to another five years' imprisonment by Mr. Justice Coady at the Supreme Court Assizes here this afternoon. Sentence followed conviction on two charges of breaking and entering here during the Christmas season arising out of the burglary and safe crackings in two local stores. Stewart Thompson, 20-year old associate of McKnight, was sentenced to 18 months imprisonment at Okalla, having been convicted in only one case although having been charged in both.

Offer Made To Clear Up Deficit—Wilson re-elected President

The annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Football Association was held yesterday afternoon in the Canadian Legion Clubrooms when representatives of last year's three teams—120th Battery, Canadian Legion and General Motors—elected officers for this year and started plans for the year's activities. Officers for the year were elected as follows:

President, J. S. Wilson. Vice-president, Alex. Haig. Treasurer, Jock Davidson. Secretary, Ralph P. Smith. A review of last year's operations showed a deficit but the members were greatly cheered when John Wilson stated, on behalf of the General Motors Football Club, that the club had authorized him to inform the Association that the General Motors Club would be glad to pay the outstanding indebtedness of the Association so that they could start the year with a clean sheet. The offer was enthusiastically accepted. A hearty vote of thanks was passed to Sidney Woodside for his efficient and faithful services as referee.

Hainan Island is Lost By Nationalists; Formosa Next?

HONG KONG—Earlier reports that Chinese Nationalists had stayed the invasion of Hainan and killed most of the Communist landing forces are contradicted. New reports indicated, instead, that the Communists are nearly in control of the island, and its complete fall is imminent. Chiang Kai-Shek has announced his inability to stop the Communists. He now has his back to the wall in Formosa, the final stronghold.

Britain Asks Help Of U.S.A.

Proposed She Take Over Responsibility For India and Pakistan

WASHINGTON D. C. (AP) — The British government has proposed that the United States take over a big share of Britain's economic burden in India, Pakistan and Southeast Asia.

Officials disclosed today that the British embassy has put forward this idea in an exploratory proposal now under consideration by high administration officials.

The British plan would call for the United States to pay off in dollars to such countries as India and Pakistan part of Britain's £9,000,000 wartime debt to sterling bloc countries.

Main idea behind the suggested program is to help non-Communist countries in Asia to fight off Communism while at the same time easing the huge debt which is jeopardizing Britain's economic comeback.

Would Broaden Scope Of College Training

VANCOUVER (AP) — University training may some day be available to all high school graduates in British Columbia, Dr. N. A. M. MacKenzie, president of the University of B.C., said here recently. Every high school graduate in the province has the right to higher education if he is able to profit by it," he told the third annual U.B.C.-High School conference. "I can foresee the day, when through adequate scholarships, bursaries and loans, it will be possible to make this a reality. "But it must be remembered that not everyone is fitted to profit by a college education," he added.

Phone Workers' Strike Starts

NEW YORK (AP) — A coast to coast strike of 19,000 telephone equipment workers began officially at 6 a.m. today in the United States. The walk-out in the Bell system came after a union ultimatum expired at midnight with the collapse of peace talks. Since strikers handling buildings and maintenance only are involved, the public will not be affected immediately unless there should be breakdowns requiring repairs.

The danger of a complete telephone tie-up is postponed although not eliminated following a Union statement that it will not picket before President Truman's wage strike truce ends at midnight tomorrow.

TWO-FISTED M.P.—Clarie Gillis, CCF member of parliament for Cape Breton South, demonstrates how he tackled a Communist sympathizer in the back-alley of an Ottawa hotel. Mr. Gillis, once a coal miner, said he intervened during an argument between an elderly man and a young man in the hotel beer parlor. Mr. Gillis said the youngster tried to have the other thrown out because he would not listen to the "old Commie line." So Mr. Gillis invited the youngster outside and there "tossed a couple of rights" to his jaw. (CP Photo)

Succumbs After Mercy Flight

Alfred Gagnon, logger from the Justkatla camp in Masset, Inlet, who was brought to the city by a Queen Charlotte Air Lines special flight Friday afternoon, expired Saturday night in the Prince Rupert General Hospital. So far as police have been able to ascertain, there are no relatives in this area.

First Death From Flood

WINNIPEG, (AP) — Manitoba's first flood death was reported as residents buckled down to preparations against expected stronger blows from the spilling rivers and creeks through the southern part of the province. The Royal Canadian Mounted Police said a farmer had lost his life by drowning when he sought to cross a swollen coulee in a boat with his son.

Broadcasting Changes

Member of House Debates
Italian Parliamentarians Speak To Radio
Audiences Rather Than Fellow Members

By LOUIS L. LECK
PERNEY, Australia (CP)—Radio is changing the national character of the Australian parliament. Members no longer address their speeches to members but rather to a radio audience. The change began in 1946 when parliament, by instructing the government, appointed Australian Broadcasting Corporation to air speeches of either the Representatives or any day parliament

Doukhobors Obdurate

Twelve Krestova Buildings Burned and Nelson Jail Crowded
KRESTOVA (CP) — Police vigilance prevented fresh Doukhobor violence in this Sons of Freedom capital last night. Provincial police arrested fourteen more of the nude, chanting Freedomites while others shouted threats of burning the whole village as they danced around the ruins of the homes they had already put to the torch.
The jail at Nelson is jammed with nearly 100 of the radical cult and the authorities seem reluctant to arrest any more of the demonstrators.
Thirteen of those arrested yesterday were women.
So far twelve of the shantytown's 250 dwellings have been destroyed.

Detroit Wins—Stanley Cup Is Settled

DETROIT (CP) — Detroit's surging Red Wings last night won the Stanley Cup by defeating New York Rangers 4 to 3 in a bitter end game that went into two periods of overtime play. Pete Babando broke up the marathon game by banging in a fifteen-footer near the midway point of the second overtime period played before 13,095 fans. The goal ended 52 minutes and 44 seconds of scoreless hockey as the underdog Rangers battled the Wings all the way.
Last night's dramatic victory gave Detroit the best of the seven game series four games to three and climaxed a three-year quest which saw them get into the championship final twice. They had bowed to Toronto in 1943 and 1949. They had knocked the Leafs out of the semi finals this year.
In Saturday night's game the Red Wings overcame a one game deficit by winning a wide open thriller by a score of 5 to 4. Sid Abel scored the winning goal from Carveth in 10 minutes 35 seconds of the third period. New York had taken the lead with the two first goals and Detroit fought uphill until the end.

Would Implement Fish Regulations

Executive council of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce is wiring Hon. Robert Mayhew, minister of fisheries, asking what steps, if any, are being taken to implement recommendations by the International Fisheries Commission, especially in regard to a split season with a view to spreading out the season and taking better advantage of conservation quotas.
Recent statements in Ottawa by Mr. Mayhew in answer to questions prompted the executive to make inquiries.
E. T. Applehwaite M. P. is also being contacted.

Critical Or Co-operative?

A NEW PASTOR in a Prince Rupert pulpit yesterday, in addressing his congregation for the first time, expressed the hope that, instead of being critical, they be co-operative. What the pastor said to his congregation might well be applied to the community.

We are very much afraid that there is a tendency among many Prince Rupert people, to be critical rather than co-operative, to be supercilious rather than helpful, to be imbued with their own righteousness rather than understanding of the other fellow's problems and difficulties.

Criticism, as such, might as well be left unsaid unless it is accompanied by useful and practicable suggestion for improvement. Too often are we inclined to think the other fellow is not doing too well with his task without reflecting if we would do any better if we had to face the same job and solve the same problems under similar circumstances.

The easiest thing to do is to find fault and the fault finders are often the fellows with a lot of faults which, usually, they do not perceive themselves.

We, as a community, could accomplish a lot more if we could sit down together and consider our problems in a spirit of mutual desire to help and improve rather than merely criticize the other fellow for what he does or fails to do, generally without much appreciation of the difficulties which he has to face and the problems which he has to contend with.

Often the loud critic is the least constructive citizen. Often the quiet worker who is plugging away with his own responsibilities has not time to be finding fault with what the other is doing.

The habitual fault-finder often has a lot of faults himself. But he does not realize them or he might not be so ready to criticize.

IS THIS UTOPIA?

NAPIER MOORE, Financial Post columnist, rummaging through a stack of old music, came across a song entitled "In 1950." It was written 40 years ago by Nelson Jackson, then a popular English "entertainer at the piano." Among the many verses which used to send audiences into convulsions are these extracts:

Model dwellings, free clothing and six meals a day

Will be found by the State for all those who can't pay.

And what price the poor British Taxpayer, eh?

In 1950.

The Tories by then will have got back to power

In 1950.

And on us their blessings again they will shower,

In 1950.

Mr. Balfour will no doubt continue his plan

Of explaining his meaning as only he can, ...

And Winston will be quite a nice little man

In 1950.

A. W. Newman, assistant freight traffic manager, Union Steamships Ltd., after making the round trip to Queen Charlotte Islands, disembarked from the Camosun here yesterday afternoon and sailed last night on the Chilcotin to make the trip to Affie Arm and Stewart.

Australian Women Form Committees to Help Migrants Settle

SYDNEY, Australia - The Country Women's Association with more than 90,000 members throughout Australia is helping newcomers to the Commonwealth to settle in their adopted country.

The organization, dedicated to improving the welfare of women and children in rural districts, is affiliated with the Associated Country Women of the World.

Its activities include the setting up of baby health centres, rest rooms and school children's hostels in country towns. It also operates seaside and city holiday homes for country women, conducts handicraft classes and youth leadership schools.

The association has formed special committees at various branches to help new arrivals from Britain and European countries.

Members of these committees make a point of visiting migrant reception centres, where new citizens from Europe live until they learn English and can take their place in the community. The country women take presents and afternoon tea to these centres, invite the new arrivals to their homes and help them to learn English.

At Bathurst, about 150 miles west of Sydney, where there is a big migrant centre, Country Women's Association members have exchanged knowledge about handicrafts with the European women, teaching them to make Australian-type pottery or basketware, and learning to do the fine embroidery and handwork in which many of the migrants excel.

At Castle Hill, about 30 miles from Sydney, members of the district Country Women's Association branch recently held a special party to which all new settlers are invited.

The 24 new settlers who went to the party included women from the United Kingdom, Latvians, Australians and Czechoslovakians. Nearly all the new settlers work on farms in the district. After the party, many of the women joined the Country Women's Association and are now taking part in its activities.

Mrs. Heilbronner Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Max Heilbronner, pioneer Prince Rupert woman, passed away suddenly at the week-end in Phoenix, Arizona. News of her demise will be received with a sense of regret by her many old friends.

With Mr. Heilbronner in Phoenix were her husband, pioneer jeweler, and her daughter, Mrs. Maxine Carson of Ottawa.

Mr. Heilbronner has been in ill health for some years. Last summer he sold his business here to George Cook and left for Vancouver where a time was spent before proceeding to Arizona.

Mrs. Heilbronner was born near San Francisco in California 73 years ago. In 1904 she went to Dawson in the Yukon to marry Mr. Heilbronner. She and Mr. Heilbronner came here in 1910 from San Francisco and Seattle after having come out of the Yukon in 1908.

A son, Henry Heilbronner, died here several years ago.

Official Thumbs Down Work Return

LONDON - A leading Union official Saturday turned down a back to work offer from striking London dock workers.

The National Dock Labor Board reported that 7,931 men out of a total dock area force of 27,000 were on strike. This is an increase of 100 compared with the previous day.

The Board said that 39 vessels including eleven food ships are idle.

Strikers, in an unofficial meeting at the week-end, voted to return to work if the Transport and General Workers Union would poll all dock hands as to whether the executive council should reinstate three expelled dock workers' representatives.

Refusing the offer, General Secretary Arthur Deakin said he is making no response to an unofficial body.

Pastor Is Vigorous

First Presbyterian Church Hears Its New Minister

Rev. E. A. Wright, new pastor of First Presbyterian Church, opening his ministry yesterday, proved himself to be a vigorous preacher with a challenge for his congregation. He called in his morning sermon for the acceptance and application of the spirit of God's Word, not merely a profession of morality or philosophy. There was no substitute for the Gospel, he said.

Mr. Wright asked for the support and co-operation of the congregation in the dissemination of God's word. Unfortunately, Prince Rupert was not alone in the seeming disregard of the day for the principles of Christianity. He asked his congregation not criticism but for sympathy and assistance in the carrying out of the ministerial work. After all, he asked, who was there without fault who was justified in merely finding fault?

Mr. Wright discoursed in the evening on "The Main Character of History" and, after evening service, there was a congregational reception to meet Mr. and Mrs. Wright and their daughters.

B.E. GAMES BAIT—Toronto is bidding for the 1954 British Empire games and a lure is the Canadian National Exhibition's sports field shown above. The $4,000,000 grandstand will seat about 25,000 and Toronto officials promise to build bleachers to jack the figure up to 50,000 if necessary. The track is one-third of a mile but this would be altered to the regulation quarter mile. Toronto's bid, along with those of Vancouver, Hamilton and Montreal, will be considered at a Montreal meeting of the British Empire Games Association in May. (CP Photo)

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP)—A giant elm tree, about 150 years old, was cut down here recently—and none too soon. The tree 25 feet in circumference and 12 feet thick, was hollowed. Only five inches of wood held it at the point.

Boxing fans went home well pleased with one of the best amateur boxing shows staged here in many a season. After Friday night's fine card, which was witnessed by a capacity crowd it appears that boxing is back to stay. The first three bouts ended in a draw, the fourth, fifth and sixth ended in decisions and seventh ended in two minute and twenty-five seconds of the third round. The final bout of the evening ended in a draw.

Cathedral Marriage

St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral was the scene of an interesting wedding one evening recently when Miss Ellen Gladish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gladish, became the bride of Glen Ross of Port Alberni. The bride wore teal blue with grey accessories and had a corsage of pink roses. She was attended by Miss Ruth Laidie and Earl Batt was groomsmen. A reception was held later at the home of the bride's parents where a number of friends gathered to greet the couple. Toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Canon Basil S. Prockter who had performed the ceremony. The groom responded. Mr. and Mrs. Ross will make their home in Prince Rupert. The groom is employed here by the Columbia Cellulose Co.

Fine Party By Soroptimists

The hall of the Canadian Legion building was the scene of a gay party Friday night when 120 persons were present for a cabaret party by the Soroptimist Club. Balloons and spring flowers were effectively used in the decorative scheme. Music was by Andy McNaughton's orchestra with Dyke McMillan in the vocals. The amplification system was used to good advantage. An entertainment program before the supper hour included tap dancing by Elsa Fudger and vocal duet by Dyke McMillan and Harold Whalen. Dr. L. M. Greene was the winner in the raffle of a walnut table while M. Krueger won a permanent wave.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Ralph Smith, convener, Mrs. Norman Baker, Mrs. W. Edmondson, Mrs. P. M. Ray, Miss Winnie Poxon, Miss A. Mattson and Miss Muriel Vance. George Dawee presided at the door.

Interior Needs Early Seeding

SMITHERS—In north, central British Columbia, as in most agricultural areas, the time of seeding is one of the most important factors affecting yields of spring wheat, oats and barley. In this area, it has been established that, for maximum yields, cereal grains should be sown early, says J. V. Zacharias, Experimental Sub-Station, Smithers.

By what date should seeding be started? Owing to variations in the climate from year to year, exactness cannot be established by any calendar date. May 10 may be early one year and too late another year. The best time to sow spring varieties is just as soon as the seedbed can be well prepared.

Every day of delay after this point may result in a further reduction in yield. In this area, oats make up the bulk of the grain crop. Early sown oats are seldom injured by spring frosts. In fact, the chances of decreased yields due to late planting are much greater than the chances of injury by early planting.

Weather records taken at the Experimental Station over the past twelve years show that more hours of bright sunshine are recorded during the month of May than for any other month. They also show that of the total of 5.72 inches of rain which falls during the growing season, twenty-five per cent is received during the month of May. It is important that the crop should get the fullest possible benefit of this sunshine and precipitation.

Examining records further, it is found that frosts are normally recorded every month of the growing season and that the period with minimum temperatures above 28 degrees F. amounts to only 105 days.

Late sown grains are therefore exposed to the danger of severe frosts in the early fall. In addition, wet weather frequently prevails during the later part of September and invariably occurs during October, making the harvesting of late sown grains extremely difficult.

Local Member Appreciated

Communication has been received in the city from George R. Matthews, secretary manager of the British Columbia board of Retail Merchants' Association of Canada, expressing appreciation of the support given by John D. McRae, M.L.A. for Prince Rupert, to a legislative program submitted to the Association at the recent session of the Legislature.

Not only has he very materially assisted the retailers in his own district but those operating throughout the province as well," says Mr. Matthews' letter.

HOW CAN I...?

Q How can I repair a small hole in a window screen?

A. Fasten a piece of mosquito netting over the hole. Give it a coat of shellac, and a second coat if necessary. When dry it will be as stiff as the rest of the screen.

Q How can I renew jar lids?

A. Place them in a vessel and cover with buttermilk. Leave them for a day or two, and they will appear practically new.

Q How can I restore the gloss to saateen?

A. If borax water is used to wash saateen garments, it will restore the gloss.

Late sown grains are therefore exposed to the danger of severe frosts in the early fall. In addition, wet weather frequently prevails during the later part of September and invariably occurs during October, making the harvesting of late sown grains extremely difficult.

The vest can be worn over sweaters or classic shirts, smart with either skirts or slacks. Copied from a man's suit vest, it's snug fitting and buttons down the front with covered buttons. You could try it in light red wool or in white linen for spring. The skirt is slim, with trouser pleats at the top and a deep inverted pleat in the front. Here you see it in soft wool flannel.

HOUSEKEEPING

BUTTER THE BEST OF FATS, HAS APPEAL FOR EVERYONE

The flavour of butter appeals to nearly everyone. The names "buttercotch," "butterflake" and "buttercrisp" are used to describe products because the name of butter brings to mind mouth-watering suggestions. Fruit butters and nut butters are so-called because of the smooth spreading consistency which somewhat resembles butter. Rationing of butter during the war years taught us to spread the bread a little more thinly and to do without that delicious little pat of butter in the baked potato or on other cooked vegetables. Habits are easily formed, whether good or bad, but many of us are still foregoing a flavour treat as well as a good nutritional investment by continuing the habit of "going easy on the butter."

In Canada, the making of butter in the home was a necessary part of pioneer life. The commercial manufacture of butter has been established for many years and produces a more uniform product. Today we have more than a thousand creameries producing about three hundred million pounds of butter each year.

No matter how good butter may be when purchased, care must be taken to retain its sweet flavour. Butter should always be stored in a cool, dry place, away from all foods which have a distinct odour or flavour, as it readily absorbs foreign flavors. It should be kept in a covered container or well wrapped in the parchment paper in which it is purchased.

Nothing beats a topping of crunchy buttered crumbs on a casserole dish. Often such a topping makes the family forget that they are eating leftovers.

These recipes are recommended by the home economists. They are all exceptionally good.

- Butterscotch Sponge Custard
3 tablespoons butter
2/3 cup brown sugar
3 tablespoons flour
2 teaspoons vinegar
2 egg yolks
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups milk
2 egg whites

Cream butter and sugar. Add flour, vinegar, beaten egg yolks and salt. Stir in milk and blend well. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into buttered custard cups and set in pan of water. Oven-poach in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., until set, about 35 to 40 minutes. Cool and unmould. Yield: six servings.

- Butter Tarts
1/2 cup butter
1 1/2 cups brown sugar
1 teaspoon cornstarch
2 eggs
1 cup raisins or currants
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons lemon juice

Pastry
Cream the butter and sugar. Add cornstarch and cream well together. Add well beaten eggs, fruit and flavoring. Line muffin or tart tins with pastry and fill almost to top with mixture. Bake in a very hot oven, 400 degrees F., for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 degrees F., and continue baking until done, about 15 minutes. Yield: 24 small or 12 large tarts.

- Butter Wafers
1 cup melted butter
3/4 cup brown sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 egg
3/4 cups sifted pastry flour
or 1 1/2 cups sifted all purpose flour

1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
Add butter to brown sugar, mixing well. Add vanilla and unbleached egg and beat well. Mix and sift flour, cream of tartar and soda and add to creamed mixture. Drop by half-teaspoonfuls well apart on an unbuttered baking sheet. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for 5 minutes. Yield: eight dozen small wafers.

COURT SEES

boots are entered as evidence.

McKnight is again acting in his own defence and Thompson is being represented by R. M. MacLeod.

The trial got under way following a selection of jurors shortly after 10 a.m. Saturday.

The following were selected as jurors:

William Bowes, (foreman) Richard Brash, Charles E. Marineau, James Laurie, John May, Libertic Basso - Bert, William Knight, George Benson, E. Manson, H. Helgerson, John McLeod and David Geary.

The case should be concluded this afternoon.

As in the first trial of the pair of accused, Const. George Redhead testified he saw McKnight wearing light colored clothes and rubber boots in the Rex Cafe Christmas Eve. In cross-examination, McKnight asked the nature of conversation he and Const. Redhead were engaged in. The police officer quoted McKnight as saying: "I have given up the life of crime."

Violet Lampare gave similar evidence to that in the first trial stating that McKnight had admitted he had broken into certain establishments and offered her $20 to refrain from going to police. In cross examination by McKnight, she said she was serving three months on a liquor charge and was due for release that day (Saturday).

Antonio Quinville and Clifford McDow testified again that McKnight had told them he had broken and entered certain premises and added that they would read about it in the next editions of the newspaper.

Const. A. H. Taylor testified that he and Cpl. E. A. Wales called to the scene on December 28. Cpl. Wales discovered a crow bar on the second floor near the office while Cpl. Taylor found an envelope with boot markings on it. Const. Jack White, after arriving at the store, found a ledger sheet in the office. It also had boot print designs on it.

White said he investigated the scene and was in charge of exhibits which were forwarded to Victoria for examination.

Dr. Davis, analyst with the provincial government, testified that he photographed the impressions on the envelope and ledger sheet and in his opinion they were identical with the left boot pattern of the pair of rubber boots picked up in the King George Hotel December 28. He

ELMORE PHILPOTT IS COMING HERE

Columnist of the Vancouver Sun and radio commentator, Elmore Philpott will be a visitor here this week. He is coming north to address the Women's Canadian Club.

It pays to advertise.

Following return of the court from the Gordon and Anderson establishment, crown counsel, in absence of the jury, made an application. Justice J. M. Coady ruled the evidence inadmissible. Crown counsel T. W. Brown rested the case for the crown late Saturday afternoon and it was then that McKnight asked for an adjournment. He stated for an adjournment.

Justice Coady granted the adjournment until 10 a.m. this morning.
