SILBAK-PREMIER MINE IN FULL OPERATION, 250 TONS PER DAY

Silbak-Premier mine is operating at normal again following its seventeen-month shutdown with the mill treating 250 tons of ore per day from which twenty tons of gold, silver, lead and zinc concentrates valued at $250 per ton are obtained for shipment to smelter. One hundred and fifty men are now employed.

New Dep't Of Mines

Announcement to this effect was made by D. L. Pitt, managing director of Silbak-Premier, who was in the city on the Coquitlam last evening bound north for a week's visit of inspection to the historic mining property which has been one of the greatest gold producers in the history of British Columbia and which still appears to have a rich future in store despite the company's traditional conservatism in the way of making estimates.

LOSES FINGER IN GUN MISHAP

A railway speeder was used Sunday to bring James Flewin, 45-year-old Port Edward man to hospital in Prince Rupert following an accident in which he lost a finger in the accidental discharge of a shotgun. Flewin was brought to the city after his gun had gone off, and its load of pellets had taken off the index finger of his right hand. He was on a hunting trip along the Skeena at the time. Flewin is receiving surgical treatment at Prince Rupert General Hospital this morning.

Death Due To Neglect

Inquest Into Fatality On Highway Reconstruction Work

Neglect on the part of a trucking firm was blamed Saturday by a coroner's jury for the death of Hilding Swanson, rock drill foreman, who died Friday morning after being crushed by one of the company's vehicles on the Port Edward highway about one mile from the city.

The verdict was that "deceased came to his death December 2 due to neglect on the part of Contractors Russell Burt and Co." Edward Reimer, 20-year old driver of the six and one-half ton wheel truck which struck Swanson while working on a road construction project, was completely freed of blame as was the firm of Wood, Parr and McClay.

The jury recommended that Russell Burt and Co. provide swamper—assistants to the drivers on all vehicles and that Wood, Parr and McClay, the contractors on the job, provide proper turnouts along the road so that vehicles will not be required to back up for a long distance.

Dr. L. M. Greene, in a medical testimony, pronounced death was due to crushing injuries to the left side of Swanson's body. The accident occurred as the 50-year-old foreman was walking on the highway toward the city limits. The noise of compressors and drill hammers drowned the motor of the oncoming truck. Reimer was unable to see Swanson as he was on the opposite side of the road.

Walter Wendt, one of the witnesses, saw Swanson about eight feet from the oncoming truck and called to the drill foreman. "I yelled and he heard me. He made a step to turn when the truck hit him."

Alexander Grout, other employee who witnessed Swanson's death, stated he heard Wendt's call. He turned from his job and saw the truck wheels pass over the drill foreman's body. Reimer stated he had been backing the truck one-eighth of a mile preceding the accident, to a curve in the road where he would be able to turn around. He was in a standing position—left foot on the running board, his body arched out of the door, so that he was able to see the road for approximately 30 feet behind. Due to the box on the dump truck, the right side of the road was not in view. And when Swanson was struck, only Wendt's call caused Reimer to stop the vehicle.

Const. Jack White, at the scene following the accident, took measurements of the road and vehicle. Main travelling portion of the highway, he said, is 9 feet wide. Width of the truck was 7 feet, 5 inches. He stated it was impossible to turn around on the road. The practice of backing a truck to a spot wide enough to afford turning around was common on such projects, he agreed.

An independent daily newspaper devoted to the upbuilding of Prince Rupert and all communities comprising northern and central British Columbia. Future Citizens "FUTURE Citizens" — present-day students at Booth Memorial High School—will "take over" Prince Rupert tomorrow. They will play at being mayor and city council, municipal executives, operators of services and businesses, getting around generally to see and take a hand in the ramifications of the machinery which combine to make the community click.

While some of the people whose premises and sanctums the students invade may feel them to be a little in the way and upsetting the daily routine, it will be a good bit of practical education and training for the young folk and, who knows, if they are properly received, they may leave a few ideas that may be used for the betterment of the places where they go.

This get-together, something unique in Prince Rupert, should be an interesting precedent and some fun may also be derived out of it.

Our young guest editorial staff at the Daily News for the day is being asked to express some honest opinions about Prince Rupert, in general, and the Daily News, in particular. While, no doubt, we know our own civic and business and service shortcomings as well as anyone and also what we would like to do in the way of making improvements if circumstances were such that we could do so, it will be interesting to hear what the young folk think and what they would do. To arouse their thoughtfulness along these lines is useful training in good citizenship.

PRECEDENT OR PROGRESS?

ADVENT of a New Year has for some reason the effect of throwing our minds backward in time, observes the monthly letter of the Royal Bank of Canada. In a burst of making up for the sorrows of the past and smothering the memories of its mistakes, we indulge in a brief orgy of fun. Then we get down to the somewhat more grim business of looking ahead.

"This letter is frankly a plea that we stride into 1950 with our faces forward, instead of backing into it with eyes on the way things were done in the past. Our inclination, as lazy-minded people, is to follow precedent, to do what's been done before.

"As a result of too much precedent worship, staleness sets in. Repetition produces a gradual lowering of our vividness of appreciation. Life becomes dull. Our spirit of adventure dies. We are willing to hear only what we have always heard so our thinking processes wither. We bring old age upon ourselves prematurely."

But the truth is that "no static maintenance of perfection is possible. Advance or decadence are the only choices offered to mankind.

"Let's resolve to choose our precedents and adapt them to suit our needs, while we leave the mossbacks to carry their own load of outworn precedents. There is always a better way of doing things, and the person who forms the habit of changing to better ways has fun.

"In the face of what has been, we need not fear the future. We can enter upon it believing that our present epoch is a period of change to a new direction of civilization, bringing new blessings both material and spiritual to human kind. By contact with what is eternal, by devoting ourselves to bringing something of the divine into this troubled world, we add our contribution toward driving out the cruelty and strife that surrounds us."

LETTERBOX

ACTION NEEDED

Editor, Daily News

In reply to Mr. Hainsworth's letter in your paper of December 1 I quite agree with him that some folks are queer although I certainly do not claim to understand human nature. Human nature is just about the most complex thing known and people who say they understand it only show they don't.

However, I still believe that criticism only has value if it is constructive. The "sit back and beef" attitude never accomplished anything except perhaps to keep good men and women out of public office. We need criticism in a democracy but it must be coupled with a willingness to do something about it. Thank you.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. Graham Hughes, docked at Prince Rupert this morning at 11 a.m. leaving at 1 p.m. for Skagway and other Alaska points. The vessel will be here again Saturday afternoon enroute to Vancouver.

RAILROADER PASSES—B. T. Chappell, former general superintendent of C.N.R. in British Columbia, died in Vancouver. The veteran railway official was born in Charlotte-town P.E.I. and started work with the C.N.R. in Winnipeg in September, 1895. He successively served there as freight clerk, checker, switchman, yard foreman and yardmaster. Later, he was yardmaster and trainmaster at Port Arthur; trainmaster at North Battleford; superintendent at Saskatoon and Vancouver. In 1919 he was made general superintendent at Saskatoon. Mr. Chappell occupied the same position in Vancouver from 1929 to 1936 when he moved to Winnipeg to take over the Manitoba district until his retirement in 1942 after which he lived in Vancouver.

art dock by two five-ton trucks each of which make two trips daily—one in the morning and one in the afternoon, bringing the concentrates out and taking in oil and supplies.

Whereas, in the tram line days, the concentrates were brought down in buckets, the loading arrangement at the dock has been changed with the installation of a hopper, up to which the trucks back up to dump, the concentrates then being carried up to the old bins by an inclined belt conveyor.

While milling was resumed about two weeks ago, no shipments have yet been made but arrangements have been made with the Frank Waterhouse freight line for transportation south. Lead concentrates will go to Trail or Tacoma smelter and zinc concentrates to Trail or Kellogg, Idaho.

All ore is now being mined from the old Sebakwe workings. The last annual report of Silbak-Premier showed some 50,000 or 60,000 tons of ore reserves but diamond drilling is being resumed by Boyle Bros. for the purpose of proving farther bodies.

There are now about 150 men employed in connection with the Silbak - Premier operation and the force is being gradually built up. Twelve more men were aboard the Coquitlam going north last night.

Prior to the reopening, there was a complete rehabilitation of mine, mill and residential buildings. Seventeen families are back in residence at Premier while other workers commute between there and Stewart. The post office at Premier has been reopened and the school is also being reopened.

With Mr. Pitt as managing director, the official staff at Premier includes:

Mine manager, J. C. McCutcheon.

Mining superintendent, Al Kirby.

Mill superintendent, Sam McDonald.

Mechanical superintendent, Gardner Thompson.

Accountant, Leonard Gardner.

"Everybody Vote" Exhort Jaycees

Harold Hampton, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is organizing the "Get Out and Vote" campaign, urges all citizens to vote on Thursday in the civic elections.

Mr. Hampton stated: "We of the Junior Chamber in realizing our responsibility to the Community are calling on the voters to use their franchise.

"To give the voters the opportunity of meeting and hearing the candidates for Civic office we have arranged an election rally at the Civic Centre tomorrow night.

At this time the various Mayor and Aldermanic candidates will be called upon to put their platforms before the public. We sincerely hope that the voters will make every effort to attend this rally.

"To keep our democratic way of life, which so many in other countries have lost through negligence at the polls, let us use our franchise—Let's go to the polls on December 8 and remember "Vote as You Like, But Vote."

SCHOOL OFFICIALS HEADING SOUTH

School board secretaries from this area and school inspectors sailed from here last night on the Camosun for Victoria to attend a conference of school board secretaries from all parts of the province which will be held in Victoria this week. The party leaving here included School Inspectors Joseph Chell of this city and H. C. Ferguson of Telkwa, and Secretaries Mrs. M. M. Roper of Prince Rupert, C. W. Alger of Terrace and A. C. W. Smithers.

TO THE ELECTORS

Ladies and Gentlemen:

As a majority candidate I do not believe it is necessary for me to issue a 'manifesto.'

Two years service as an Alderman and three as Mayor should make you fully aware of my qualifications.

I make only one pledge, and it is this: I shall work with the aldermanic board to provide an economical, yet progressive administration of civic business.

Sincerely yours,
H. M. DAGGETT.

Mixed Bowling Contest Tight

Falling in step with the other leagues, the Mixed Bowling League monopolized the Prince Rupert Bowling Alleys last Wednesday night with 24 teams bowling in one evening.

Good play was featured with a new men's single game high for the season established in the Mixed League. Cy Kellet bowled 335 and also high men's three game for the evening of 809.

High ladies single game and three game total went to I. Gardner of City Transfer with 281 and 635.

Pushovers, Noble & Wick, Ideal Cleaners, Head Pinners and City Transfer won with four points each respectively from Royal Blues, Northern Lights, Booth School, Cantels, and Handicaps. Six teams won three points each. They were Maceys, Pioneers, Manson's Sport Shop, Velvets, Silver Streaks defeating P. R. Plumbing, Blow-Outs, Hangovers, Conrads, Bob Parker and Watts and Nickersons, respectively. Two points apiece went to C.P.A. and Wharf Rats.

Pushovers were anything but what their name implies as they walked away with three points in their match with Manson's in Mixed League Bowling the previous week. Manson's one point, however, was enough to put them in the lead by a point over Pioneers and Blow Outs.

In other matches, Ideal Cleaners won four points from Handicaps and Watts & Nickersons, Hangovers, Northern Lights, Headpinners, each won three points from Royal Blues, Booth School, City Transfer, and Silver Streaks.

The Northern Lights team produced all of the high scores for the evening's bowling. High ladies' single and three games were by B. Peterson with 270 and 622. High men's single and three game totals were by G. Shenton with 330 and 845.

All teams will play this Wednesday with the new alleys open now.

KAY-HI LOSES SECOND GAME

International Basketball is Disappointing Show

Bo-Me-Hi took another easy victory over Ketchikan Saturday night to win the game by an eight point margin. The final score being 32 to 24. The locals also won the series by an eighteen point lead, 69 to 51, and will carry this commanding margin to Ketchikan when the series is resumed there December 17 and 18.

The 1949 Ketchikan team was by far the poorest to come south from there for many a year. Usually the Kay-Hi vs. Bo-Me-Hi series can be counted on as being one of the best exhibitions of the season, but the Kay-Hi team was unable to produce this time and 700 fans left the Civic Centre Saturday night disappointed with the brand of basketball displayed.

There was some justification for Ketchikan's poor display, as they lost their outstanding player, Tucker, early in the first quarter with a badly sprained ankle. Spring was back in the game for Bo-Me-Hi, still showing effects of his accident before and spending a considerable amount of time on the bench.

Sid Scherk was high scorer for the game with 11 points. His foul shooting was phenomenal. He made nine of eleven possible. Spring scored eight and Carlson, who left the game on five fouls, was responsible for six. Chuck Webster again came through with six points, and gets better each game.

Tuesday night regular league games resume with Bo-Me-Hi meeting Brownwoods in the senior feature. The last time these teams played before one of the biggest crowds of the season.

It was announced to the crowd Saturday night that an exhibition series had been booked for the Christmas holiday, with the local all-stars playing U.R.C. Chiefs. This team is second only to the Thunderbirds and is the University's entry in the B.C. Senior A division. Also announced was a series for Jan. 30 and 31, when the barnstorming House of David team are booked to play at the Civic Centre.

Saturday Night's Line-ups:
Ketchikan—Nelson 1, Lewis 7, Tucker, Hinman 3, Boyd 6, Ohashi 1, Lund 2, Leask 2, Anderson 1, Reynolds 1.

Bo-Me-Hi—Carlson 6, Spring 8, Scherk 11, Webster 6, Moore, Bill, Ratchford 1, McChesney, Sharpe, Kristmanson.

Junior Game
The league leading Rupert Hotel once again just couldn't be berten Saturday night. Except for the third period they had it over the High School Juniors like a tent and the game wound up with a decisive win for the Hotel boys, the score 26-18. Dick Nickerson was high individual scorer for High School with seven points, and Bill Donaldson was high game scorer with eight markers to his credit. The Juniors are playing a good clean brand of ball, and Saturday night only 14 fouls were called by referees Dominato and Large.

Line-ups
Rupert Hotel—Sather, Marki 4, Donaldson 8, B. McFarlane 2, Forman 4, E. Stacey 2, B. Stacey 2, A. McFarlane, Morrison 4.
High School—Tait, Rhodes, Sheppard, Peterson, Nickerson 7, Flewin 4, Smith 4, Clarke 3, Brown.

Football Team Is Banqueted

Douglas Frizzell Host to General Motors' Aggregation

"I've always been interested in sport and its development, and particularly in its development among the youth of our city, and that is why I have been glad to sponsor the General Motors football club," said Douglas Frizzell on Friday evening at the annual banquet of the General Motors Football Club.

Mr. Frizzell went on to say that a city with a good sport-minded population was bound to be a good city built up by good citizens. There had been a tendency for some old-timers to keep on playing after their best days were over and resenting the entry of young blood into the games. He was glad to see the General Motors, mostly last year's High School team getting the chance to play and doing so well, even if they had not won most of the games. They had a record of being good triers. Mr. Frizzell then handed over the Benefit Shield to John Wilson who received it in the absence, through having to work, of team captain Glen Olsen.

Mr. Wilson (jr.) said that he was anxious that Mr. Frizzell would know how much the players appreciated the support given by him. The year before they had played in their own shirts, shorts and boots. It had been a great boost to their morale to have such a fine backing as had been given them by General Motors through Mr. Frizzell, and he could assure him the team would try to do even better next year.

Coach "Sonny" Dickens said that he had enjoyed working with the team and was sure with added experience next year's record of wins would be higher.

Chairman of the meeting was J. S. Wilson, president of the General Motors Football Club and also president of the Prince Rupert Football Association. He paid tribute to the willingness with which Mr. Frizzell had agreed to sponsor the team. He

Mixed bowling League play is now taking place every Wednesday evening at the Prince Rupert Bowling Alleys with the schedule for the season announced as follows:

December 7—Ideal Cleaners vs. City Transfer, Booth School

also reminded the players of the very many and varied activities of sport in which Doug had taken part and with success. His swimming of the harbor nine times was news to many of the lads, as well as his participation in football, baseball, lacrosse and track and field events. Mr. Wilson also said how impressed he had been with the improvement in play shown by the lads. The strengthening of the team by the fine play of Morris Bishop and veterans Joe Ward and Magnus Halvorsen was most encouraging.

Three cheers were enthusiastically given for General Motors and Doug Frizzell.

Following the dinner the players adjourned to Van Meer's studio where a team picture was taken.

Those present were Douglas Frizzell, J. S. Wilson, Glen Olsen, Morris Bishop, Pat Wilson, J. H. Wilson, Charlie Currie, Bob Garrie, Tommy Boulter, Arne Lien, Wally Price, Andy Owens, Alvin McKay, Rod Robinson, Sonny Dickens, Joe Ward and Magnus Halvorsen.

Railway Rates Case Going On

OTTAWA (AP)—A new phase of Canada's three-year battle over railway freight rates is being fought out before the Supreme Court of Canada.

Seven provinces are going to the mat with the Canadian Pacific Railway against its move aimed at getting a freight rate increase bigger than the eight per cent awarded the railways by the Board of Transport Commissioners in September.

The C.P.R. is fighting the award, which it considers insufficient, without help of the Canadian National Railway. It wants a ruling that the board failed in its duty of making an award of only eight per cent.

The railways, which got a 21 per cent hoist in 1948, had asked for a twenty per cent increase in last year's case.

CHECKS CORROSION—A scheme developed by four Canadian physicists in a Halifax dockside laboratory may provide the solution to a problem that has faced ship owners since steel hulls were first used—how to prevent corrosion. These two Royal Canadian Navy photos show how effective the new process has been on naval vessels. Left photo shows a corroded, rusted keel and propeller after five months under water. Up per right is a zinc plate which, when it reacted with steel and sea water, was supposed to generate an electric current and prevent corrosion. It never was satisfactory. The four physicists substituted magnesium bars for the zinc since that metal generates more intense current. The photo at right shows how little corrosion there is on the propeller of a vessel so equipped after months of underwater exposure. (C. P. Photo)
