New York Has Worst Railroad Tragedy

Loses Life In Harbor

A Prince Rupert woman was pronounced dead early this morning after her body was taken from the waters of the Home Oil Dock. Mrs. Jennie Pilfold, 50, died shortly after 1:50 a.m. Efforts of the city inhalator squad to revive her were futile.

Mother of five children, and wife of W. A. Pilfold, 140 Ninth Avenue West, she was examined by Dr. J. A. Macdonald, who pronounced her dead. A call was put into the city police station at 1:50 a.m. and Constables Len Turner and Gordon Simons proceeded to the scene. They, in turn, called the inhalator squad and the doctor.

Circumstances surrounding the tragedy are not as yet known. It was disclosed that three other persons, two men and another woman, were at the scene when police arrived. A coroner's inquest is being held Monday.

Deceased, in addition to her husband, is survived by four sons, W. A. Pilfold, jr., city; Tommy, Charles and Edward George, at home; one daughter, Mrs. H. Clifton, Hartley Bay; and her parents and brothers and sisters in Port Simpson, place of her birth.

Funeral arrangements, under the direction of B. C. Undertakers will be announced following the inquest.

Hopeful Of Aluminum

VICTORIA — Further exploratory work looking to the establishment of an aluminum industry in this province will be carried out this year, Premier Byron Johnson said yesterday. He hoped that British Columbia would be favorably considered in the final decision of the Aluminum Corporation. A site near Prince Rupert, where a town of 50,000 would result, was anticipated by the Premier.

More Drilling On Charlottes

VICTORIA — Much additional oil drilling and investigation will be done on the Queen Charlotte Islands, where one exploratory well has been completed. Premier Byron Johnson told the Legislature yesterday.

Much more drilling for oil will be done throughout the province, the Premier said. At the end of 1949 twenty-seven operators were applying for or holding 5,500,000 gas rights under permits, licence acres of petroleum and natural or lease.

Panther Case Adjourned

To Build Pacific Great Eastern Into Vancouver

Contract for Completion of Extension Into Prince George to be Let This Spring

VICTORIA—(CP)—In a lengthy speech in the Legislature yesterday that covered many phases of government, Premier Byron Johnson announced yesterday that the extension of the Pacific Great Eastern from Squamish to Vancouver was being seriously considered. It would take the place of the proposed scenic highway winding the rugged cliffs of Howe Sound over a right-of-way through West Vancouver to North Vancouver. The railway service would replace the present costly barge service.

The Premier said that satisfactory progress had been made with the extension north from Quesnel and that the contract for the remaining 35 miles into Prince George would be let this spring. He indicated that a new bridge and terminals would be built at Prince George instead of using those of the Canadian National Railway.

Mr. Johnson also hoped for the eventual extension of the line into the Peace River district to open up coal, wheat and other resources there.

Demented Bandit Is Being Sought

VANCOUVER — Orders of "shoot to kill" were issued last night as constables combed the city for an apparently demented bandit who touched off a chain of reaction bullets of terror yesterday. Within an hour he kidnapped a police officer forced a caddy to take to a "nice quiet bank" (Dunbar Street branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce) which he robbed of about $2,000, taking part of it to the caddy whom he had forced to scoup up the money, saying "this is your share."

Raiding Tactics Are Disapproved

TRAIL — Harvey Murphy, regional director of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (I.U.M.S.W.), said today that the United Mine Workers of America (I.U.M.W.A.) had expressed disapproval of "raiding tactics" of the United Steel Workers of America here.

Murphy said he had received a telegram from Sibby Barrett, Canadian director of the United Mine Workers of America, expressing his union's disapproval of the tactics of the S.W.A.

Ratepayers Talk Power

Ald. Casey and Ald. Fitch Represent City

Alderman George Casey, as representative of city council, informed the Community Ratepayers' Association at its meeting Thursday night that in 1943, the city and made application to the Northern B. C. Power Company to produce additional power to meet the requirements of here but, apparently the late J. J. Little, former general manager of the company, refused the demand.

Long Search Is Expected

Search for five missing United States airmen on rugged Prince Royal Island, 90 miles south of here, settled down today to a methodical inch-by-inch study of the terrain. Royal Canadian Navy officials at the scene tersely warned: "This is no 24-hour operation. We expect it will be a long search."

Twelve of the airmen who parachuted out of their flaming B-24 bomber early Tuesday, were rescued and are now back at their home base in Fort Worth Texas.

As time passes, hopes are fading, however, that the remaining airmen will be found alive. They might be too weak or badly injured to survive. Some of them might have dropped into the sea.

A Canadian Press dispatch received by the Daily News today said that a C-54, carrying survivors of the B36 crash on Princess Royal Island, landed safely at Carswell air base at Fort Worth, Texas, at 10:33 Central Standard Time last night.

City Sought More Power

Delving into correspondence and minutes at the City Hall has brought to light that back in October 1943 the city council did make an application to the Northern British Columbia Power Co. to increase the supply of electrical energy in Prince Rupert. That was back in the war days and the acknowledgement of the power company to the city's correspondence held that the company had complied with the terms of the 1929 franchise agreement by having made a 6,000 h. p. installation at Falls River, in addition to Woodworth Lake. The company held further that the heavy demand at that time was due to war industries and services and that there was adequate power supply here for normal peacetime and commercial requirements.

The application of the city council of that day was made under two sections of the 1929 agreement: Section 16 which provided that the company complete a hydro-electric development of not less than 5,000 h. p. within two years and thereafter complete further development until 100,000 h. p. or more shall be available for private or commercial use for the citizens and industries located within the city, such further development to be carried out from time to time as prospects for the sale of power justify and if the municipal council shall at any time require the company to undertake further development.

Section 17 which provided that the company will supply at all times the electrical energy required by the corporation and the citizens for light, heat and power and shall meet a reasonable surplus to meet increased demands.

R.C.A.F. Crash In Far North

DONJER LANDING, Y. T. — A Royal Canadian Air Force Dakota crashed on a lake near Snag, 215 miles northwest of Whitehorse and one of the 14 men on board was injured. The plane was badly damaged. It was engaged on operations in connection with Exercise Sweetbriar.

Name of the injured man was not given in announcement of the crash made by Air commodore Martin Costello of Winnipeg.

The four-man crew is reported to have been Canadian while the other ten aboard were Americans.

The crash-up came as the plane came in for a landing on a lake eight miles from the Alaska Highway. Both engine were knocked off.

Mrs. T. Rvstad is sailing tomorrow night on Chilcotin for a trip to Vancouver.

Thirty Killed As Long Island Trains Collide

Scenes of Horror as Electric Speeders Crash with 1000 on Board

ROCKVILLE CENTRE, New York—(CP)—A crowded Long Island electric railroad train ran through a red light on a makeshift siding last night and sliced into an oncoming train. At least thirty persons were killed and more than 100 persons were injured as the two electric trains, loaded with about 1000 passengers—shared lengthwise in two.

John Shirass Is Retiring

commissioner of British Columbia Police, will be retired at the end of this month, it is announced. Assistant Commissioner Roger Peachey will be his successor and Inspector C. Clark of Vancouver will be the new deputy commissioner.

Hospital Rates May Be Hiked

VICTORIA — Possibility of higher rates in the government's hospital insurance plan were seen following Premier Byron Johnson's policy speech in the Legislature yesterday. He warned British Columbians that they must understand revenues from the plan must be sufficient to meet costs of the service. He gave no hint of possible changes but informed circles consider he may ask for an increase from the present $23 limit on premiums.

Premier Johnson said it was the most complete service on the continent.

Liberals - Socialism

LONDON — The National Liberal party, fighting the February 23 election in alliance with the Conservative party, says in its manifesto that "our first immediate duty is to secure the defeat of Socialism."

"This means open and honest co-operation with the Conservatives," the policy statement said. National Liberals are separated from regular Liberals which are opposed equally to Labor and Conservatives.

Guarding the Coast

CANADIAN air-sea rescue forces, service and civilian, operating with dispatch under a new system of co-ordination, have been able to do a fine job this week in co-operation with the United States Coastguard in effecting the rescue of airmen who had to bail out of a flaming aircraft over Princess Royal Island while flying from Alaska to the United States. It is something of a pleasant change to note that Canada was able to play an effective role in this continuing rescue operation. Too often in the past it has been that Canada has had to depend entirely on the United States in marine casualties off the British Columbia Coast—the United States Coastguard, indeed, having at times to come out to assist even Canadian craft or seamen in distress.

The quick arrival of the Canadian Air Force, Navy and Army, together with the United States Coastguard, saved time and suffering for these survivors in a wild and rugged country under severe weather conditions. For some of them it undoubtedly meant difference between life and death. At the same time, the commercial fishing vessels, which diverted from their busy occupations, also did a grand job with the Canadian Fishing Co.'s packer Cape Perry in the heroic role of the actual rescuer of ten of the men.

The case of the B-36 was another striking illustration of the need for a well-organized and effective Coastguard off the British Columbia coast, something for which maritime interests and certain newspapers, including the Daily News, have agitated for a long time and which in recent years has won the support of every Chamber of Commerce and many other bodies on the coast.

True, the government is moving in the matter but it cannot move too fast as traffic both by air and on the surface along the British Columbia coast increases by leaps and bounds.

ARNOLD FLATEN

THE residence of Arnold Flaten, whose death in Victoria yesterday we recorded with such regret, was of comparatively few years—just nine to be exact—but few men who ever lived in Prince Rupert contributed more distinctly and actively to the welfare of the city than did he. News of his death shocked not only business circles of the community, but numerous friends, apart from those with whom he came in contact in business.

Arnold Flaten was a sound and discriminating business man who was able, in a most marked way, to temper his business transactions and astute judgment with sympathy and understanding. There was no person who called at his office for accommodation or advice who went away without having received assistance and also with a sense of appreciation for same.

Unostentatious and quiet in his business dealings he had a fine facility in dealing with all manner of customers, hearing their problems and assisting them to solve them and inspiring confidence withal.

And Mr. Flaten took his qualities of good business man and solid adviser out of his office as bank manager into the community as a good citizen. He contributed valuable service to the Chamber of Commerce and hospital board and played his part in the advancement and welfare of the city.

When he left here, Mr. Flaten's many friends wished and expected for him many more years of useful service to the institution which he served and eventual retirement amid congenial surroundings in a part of the province where, although he had always loved the north, it was known to be his secret hope to make his final home. That he was cut off so early in life makes the blow a harder one for his many friends as it does for his widow and family to whom deep sympathy will be extended by all.

AA's Organizing In Prince Rupert

As a stimulus to the organization of an Alcoholics Anonymous movement in Prince Rupert an open meeting will be held in the Civic Centre tomorrow night when educational pictures pertaining to the growth and effectiveness of the movement in recovering victims from the grip of alcohol will be shown. The movement here is in line with that which has been gaining ground elsewhere in the province and which has been receiving widespread support in the press. Alcoholics Anonymous has but one purpose," say enthusiastic workers on its behalf. "That is to help the sick alcoholic to recover if he wishes."

Power Bills Are Watched

Electric light consumers have been receiving their bills covering the recent austerity period with a little more than the usual casual attention and, in many cases, considerable critical comment. One of the customers called in the Daily News office to show that during the period from mid-January to mid-February he had been charged $23.20 for 1071 kilowatts as compared with $11.9 for 576 kilowatts during the December-January period which covered the ice-free season. He had sought an explanation and had been told that a variation in the voltage had run up the wattage.

However, some comfort may be in the offering for indignant consumers. Manager Thomas B. Black of the Northern B. C. Power Co. has made the statement that some adjustments may be forthcoming in certain cases at least on next month's accounts.

SATURDAY SERMON

(By Pastor L. A. Thorpe, Regular Baptist Church)

David's cry of "Oh taste and see that the Lord is good," should find a welcome in every ear. The people of every nation, in every class of society, of every type of livelihood; in short, the human race in its entirety, wants something truly good. There is so much in the world today that savors of goodness but which results in disappointment when its true character is revealed, that something, or somebody, of reliable goodness would be refreshing and inspiring.

At this Valentine season we are reminded of the ardor of love, but even more vivid in our memory is that first "broken" romance. The one of our dreams, so perfect, so wonderful has let us down. In later years these deep chasms of human experience do not lessen. Business partners prove dishonest, favored children do not live up to fond expectations and homes are broken by divorce and separation.

Human relations on a national scale are no better promoters of human happiness. Nation bucking nation, intrigue and espionage taken for granted, rumors of fresh wars erupting from the shadows of the last make one wonder if there is anything good, anything reliable left.

David, a man who experienced many wars and deep trouble during his reign, cries out with conviction of heart, "God is Good!" Jesus tells us that "There is none good but one, that is God." Here we are faced with the perfect infinite goodness that is only seen in God's nature. As God is love, God is good. The inevitable result of this unlimited, reliable goodness is told by the Apostle James who says: "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variableness." (James 1:17). David expands his testimony into "The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord."

If God is good, and His gifts unto His creatures are good, how are our lives then so destitute of goodness? Why do we not see more evidence of God's goodness? The most probable cause of such a lack is the rejection of God's only medium Learning Better Child Care in India A pediatrics nurse and a student from India's Delhi College of Nursing show a group of Indian mothers how to take better care of their children. The nurse visits homes in India under a child care program set up by the United Nations World Health Organization.

1:11,12). By opening our hearts to the Saviour and claiming Him as our own, we receive our first taste of God's goodness. Truly God is good when He lifts the burden of sin from our shoulders and sets us free. The experience of salvation is the gateway into the beautiful garden of God's goodness. Once inside the gateway the full flavor of Divine benevolence can be experienced. "Oh taste" the Psalmist cries. Not a mere sip restricted by unbelief, for blessed is the man that trusteth in Him. To taste is to trust. A life of faith is the life that our heavenly Father can bless. A moment by moment reliance upon His divine power and wisdom gives God the moment by moment opportunity to prove to us His goodness. Many before me have said that the proof of the pudding is in the eating, so taste and see that God is good!

Local visitors to Victoria, who have returned home, say that while Prince Rupert has had its share of storms, the weather in Victoria has been just one succession of gales and heavy rains, one after another, with roads around the city having wash-outs, as well as other kind of damage. Going driving meant risks and adventure.

C. H. Williams, Vancouver construction man, was a visitor in the city this week to confer with Telephone Superintendent Jack Edwards in connection with the projected new city installations. While here he made an inspection of city lines. Arriving from the south Wednesday morning, Mr. Williams returned Thursday night by the Prince George to Vancouver.

Boxing Revival Appears Coming in Prince Rupert

Several Factors in Awakening Interest—
International Competition in Prospect

The royal sport of boxing seems due to again come into its own in Prince Rupert. There are several reasons that indicate a revival of this time honored sport. One is the fact that the Canadian Legion Club, under the guidance of Constable Joe Ward, has been quietly training young local talent in the lightweight and middleweight class for the past six months. In the youth group the Civic Centre Club, under the capable training of G. W. Watmaugh, Harry Johnson, and Martin Saunders, has about twenty boys ranging in age from 8 to 12 years, all eager to take on boys of their own weight. To date training has been limited to the facilities available at the Civic Centre, and they are taxed to the limit. Now a new training centre will be opened in Russ Gatzke's and Johnny Gurvich's health centre which is being built in the former Rex Bowling Alley.

Another sign that competition will be available is the decision of the Ketchikan Civic Centre in co-operation with the U.S. coastguard to again sponsor boxing in that city. In a conference with Don Forward at Ketchikan this week plans were drawn up whereby intertown competition would get underway within the next two months. Ketchikan plans to send their first contingent of boxers here in mid-April with return matches on July 4, in the Northern city. Certainly with basketball season soon over there is every reason to believe that this city will have a popular indoor sport for the months of spring and early summer.

Russ Gatzke, former coach of the Boilermakers Boxing Club of Vancouver and long active in fisticuff circles both as a boxer and a member of the Vancouver Boxing Commission, suggests that now is the time to form a local Boxing Commission to regulate the sport in this city. He suggests that this board of four men be chosen consisting of a President, Vice-president, Secretary and medical examiner. The board would have no connection with any boxing club and neutral in all their decisions. They would regulate all local and inter-city contests, preside at the weighing in of fighters, appoint referees and officials, and grant promoters the right to operate contests. Each club would apply for a B.C. Amateur Charter, and club members would be entitled to box anywhere in the U.S.A. or Canada. Proceeds from matches would be allotted by the commission to the various clubs for the purpose of bettering equipment, for interclub travel expenses and for the promotion of Northern B.C. Championships, with the winners of each division entering the B.C. Golden Gloves tournament.

Yes, boxing seems due for a long-awaited revival in Prince Rupert and all that is necessary now is the active support of Prince Rupert sport fans.

First Round Nearing End

During the past week eleven games have been played in the first round of the English Billiards handicap tournament at the Canadian Legion Hall. Five games in this round remain and it is expected they will be played during the present week-end.

The committee is anxious to finish the tournament before the table is dismantled and removed to the new premises.

Results of the games played this week as follows.

J. Lawrie (plus 10) defeated W. A. Osborne (plus 30), 150-133.
Allan Marshall (plus 25) beat W. Parker (plus 20), 150-126.
J. Campbell (minus 30) beat Dave Owens (minus 5), 150-131.
Vic Duncan (plus 35) defeated C. L. Youngman (plus 5), 150-144.
W. Osborne, sr., (plus 40) defeated Geo. H. Brett (minus 10), 150-139.
Rod Smith (scratch) defeated Bruce Simundson (plus 10), 150 to 82.

P. M. Ray (plus 35) scored a win over Neil Cameron (playing 15 or no count) in a very slow game in which Cameron frequently just missed making his necessary counting points, with a score of 150 to 113. Cameron's best breaks were 27 and 22 twice.
W. Strachan (plus 35) defeated Alex Harvey (minus 20), 150-149.
R. Murray (plus 15) beat H. A. Daeres (plus 30), 150-134.

One match was played in the second round. Rod Smith, playing scratch, eliminating Wm. Osborne, sr., (plus 40) from the contest by scoring 150 to his opponent's 96.

Sport Shots

Those who have looked on the western Canada senior hockey league as just about the roughest senior puck-chasing in the Dominion got a severe jolt from a visiting Maritimer in Edmonton this week. He was Jim McDonald, manager of the Halifax forum. Jim thinks the Maritime senior league is a much-tougher proposition than the western loop.

Don (Edmonton Journal) Fleming reports that while he was in town scouting a few players, Jim took in a W.C.S.H.L. game between Regina Caps and Edmonton Flyers. "After watching Caps and Flyers in a less rambunctious game than usual, McDonald commented that the W.C.S.H.L. presentations aren't nearly so rough as the Maritime brand."

Don says McDonald has his eye on some of Flyers' coach Frank Currie's talent. The former Montrealer may lose two of his youngsters, Colin Kilburn and Doug Anderson. Both of whom have been showing high-calibre stuff this season, to Montreal Canadiens. But, the object of McDonald's attentions were four other Flyers' stalwarts Fleming reports. They are Andy Clavechok, Bing Marluk, P. J. Cuts and Bill Pettinger.

Eastern migration of Edmonton players would be nothing new, such products as Cy Thoms, Johnny Black, Bud MacPherson, Johnny Chad and Louis Trudell having made their mark in the Eastern leagues in Canada and the United States. But if the Maritimers pull off a snatch such as Fleming foresees it will be something a bit different. In recent years, only Dave (Sweeney) Schriener has deserted the W.C.S.H.L. for Maritime hockey, in his case the Cape Breton senior loop.

SPORTS

Between the BASKETS

Prince Rupert Jet all star basketballers returned home this afternoon on the Princess Norah from their Alaskan tour, not boasting since the best they were able to do was win but one of the four engagements in which they participated, but not unduly ashamed in view of the acknowledged strength of the opposition which they faced on the home floors of New Metlakatla and Ketchikan.

The results at a glance:
Monday—New Metlakatla 66, Prince Rupert 48.
Tuesday—Ketchikan 61, Prince Rupert 53.
Wednesday—New Metlakatla 77, Prince Rupert 63.
Thursday—Ketchikan 35, Prince Rupert 43.

The Ketchikan part of the tour was an exact stand-off with eight-point margins in each case—for Ketchikan in the first game and for Prince Rupert in the second. It extended the count on the four games the two towns have played during the winter to two game wins each and a margin of but one point in favor of Ketchikan in the point aggregate. It was a bad break for Prince Rupert that Billy Sunberg sustained an ankle injury before the half way mark in the Thursday night game.

The Metlakatla-Prince Rupert series will be resumed here early in March and, despite the fact that this smart native aggregation is admittedly Southeastern Alaska's stellar powerhouse in the hoop game, the locals are confident that, when they get the big natives on the floor here, it will be a different story. Meantime there is a two-game and 27-point aggregate deficit to be overcome which will take some doing. The New Metlakatla visitation here will be looked forward to with keen anticipation. It is going to give the Jets something real to shoot at and the fans some real action to see.

It was a hospitable reception, as usual, which the Prince Rupert lads were accorded both at Metlakatla and Ketchikan even though mal-de-mer did mar the joy somewhat at the Annette Island village. A reception in the Town Hall was the principal event at Metlakatla. While there was no formal entertainment, Ketchikan gave the keys of the town away and it was generous and spontaneous hospitality all the way.

On Wednesday afternoon the Prince Rupert team was driven out from Metlakatla to the Annette Island air field and, just as they arrived, a big DC-4 wheeled down and who issued from it but the House of David team, dropping down for a brief halt on the way from Anchorage to Seattle. Warm greetings were exchanged with the bearded players from Michigan who a couple of weeks ago had stopped off here for a couple of games while on their way north. They reported that

Another 10,000 Tons of Herring Allowed for Bait—Stormy Weather Hampers Fishing

An additional 10,000 tons was added this week to the 30,000 ton herring quota for the northern sub-division last week. Although the extra tons were added to the latter area the central sub-division quota remains the same at 40,000 tons, still not reached.

One of the reasons for the increased quota in this area was to enable the filling of Prince Rupert halibut bait stocks which had been interfered with by power shortage.

Stormy weather has been hampering seining operations in both areas this week but to date only 5,127 tons remains to be caught in the central sub-division by approximately 30 seiners operating there. In the northern sub-division, the catch remaining is 3,120 tons. The seiners have been operating in Edge Pass. Most of the fish from the central sub-division are being taken to Butedale, Namu, and other coastal points.

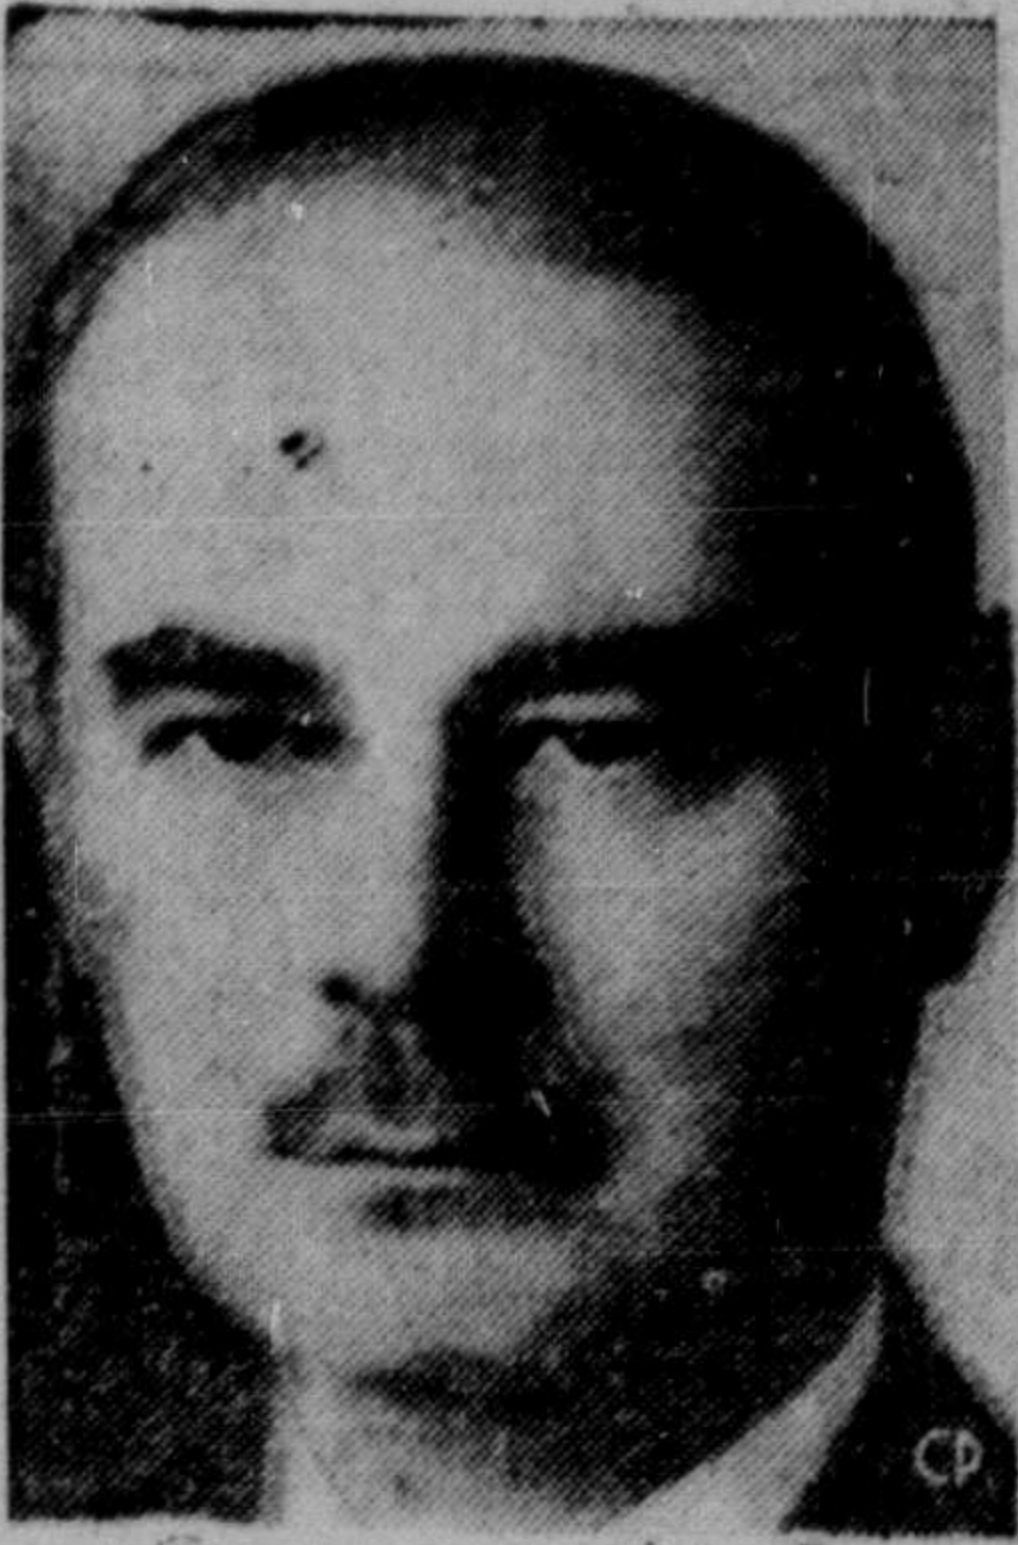

Motorship Sydney, Capt. O. Hendricksen, arrived in port on Friday with two car loads of frozen fish from Ketchikan for transfer by rail to American points.

Union steamer Chilcotin, Capt. H. E. McLean, arrived in port at 1:30 p.m. Friday enroute to north Queen Charlotte points. Passengers disembarking for the city included O. Antonson, A. Whitlan, C. Leeman, L. Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Edward, Miss E. French and Miss E. Jessie. Also aboard the Chilcotin Friday were 14 loggers enroute to Port Clements whence they will be taken to Juskatla for logging operations.

In northern waters for the past ten days patrolling the herring fleet, fisheries protection cruiser Howay, Capt. W. Reford, tied up here Friday for the week-end. The herring seiners, Capt. Reford said, were not running into any difficulty except perhaps for inclement weather which prevails along most of the B. C. Coast.

Deep Sea Fishermen's Union has been busy overhauling its by-law. This was the principal subject of a meeting of the Union on Tuesday night of this week with President H. Mork in the chair.

Modern Etiquette

Q. What is the best acknowledgment to an introduction.
A. The simplest and always correct thing to say is, "How do you do." "I am very glad to meet you," or "I am delighted to meet you," may also be used. Never say, "Pleased to meet you."
Q. Is it always necessary to write a note of thanks for a wedding gift received?
A. Under no circumstances should a bride tender her thanks by telephone or in person. A personal note of thanks should

Rotary vs. Gyro— Friendship Ends With Basketball

It is now apparent that the Rotary Giants are really preparing for the kill and it will take the full strength and skill of the Gyro Friendship club to offset the Rotary appetite.

However, with such power as Bill Stone, Joe Scott, Bill Lambie, Joe McKay, Don Forward and "One-Man Team" Lindsay, along with Grant Stewart, Frank Dobb, Orme Stuart, Alex Hunter,

WERE WELCOME AT KETCHIKAN

Prince Rupert Gyro Club delegation which visited Ketchikan while the steamer Prince George was in port there this Thursday may not have been large in numbers but it received a hearty reception. Mayor John Talbot, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce W. K. Boardman and Publisher W. L. Baker were among those on hand to greet the visitors. The three hours that the Prince George was in port gave Mr. and Mrs. Orme Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Baker and Mr. and Mrs. William Cruickshank time to be shown points of interest in town and vicinity and also to enjoy some matutinal hospitality.

be written promptly.
Q. Should one push his chair back into place after rising from a dinner table?
A. No; but this does not mean that it should be pushed two or three feet from the table.

Charlie Mills, Bill Cruickshank, and the doctors in the Gyro Club, it is hoped to preserve the city so that these Rotary Giants will at least leave the Gyro playgrounds for the children.

On Second Avenue anytime of day one can see Tom Christie, manager of the Rotary Giants, pacing up and down the street and at times running. Some one noticed the other evening that Manager Christie was doing extra roadwork at the Gyro party. This fellow certainly takes his job seriously.

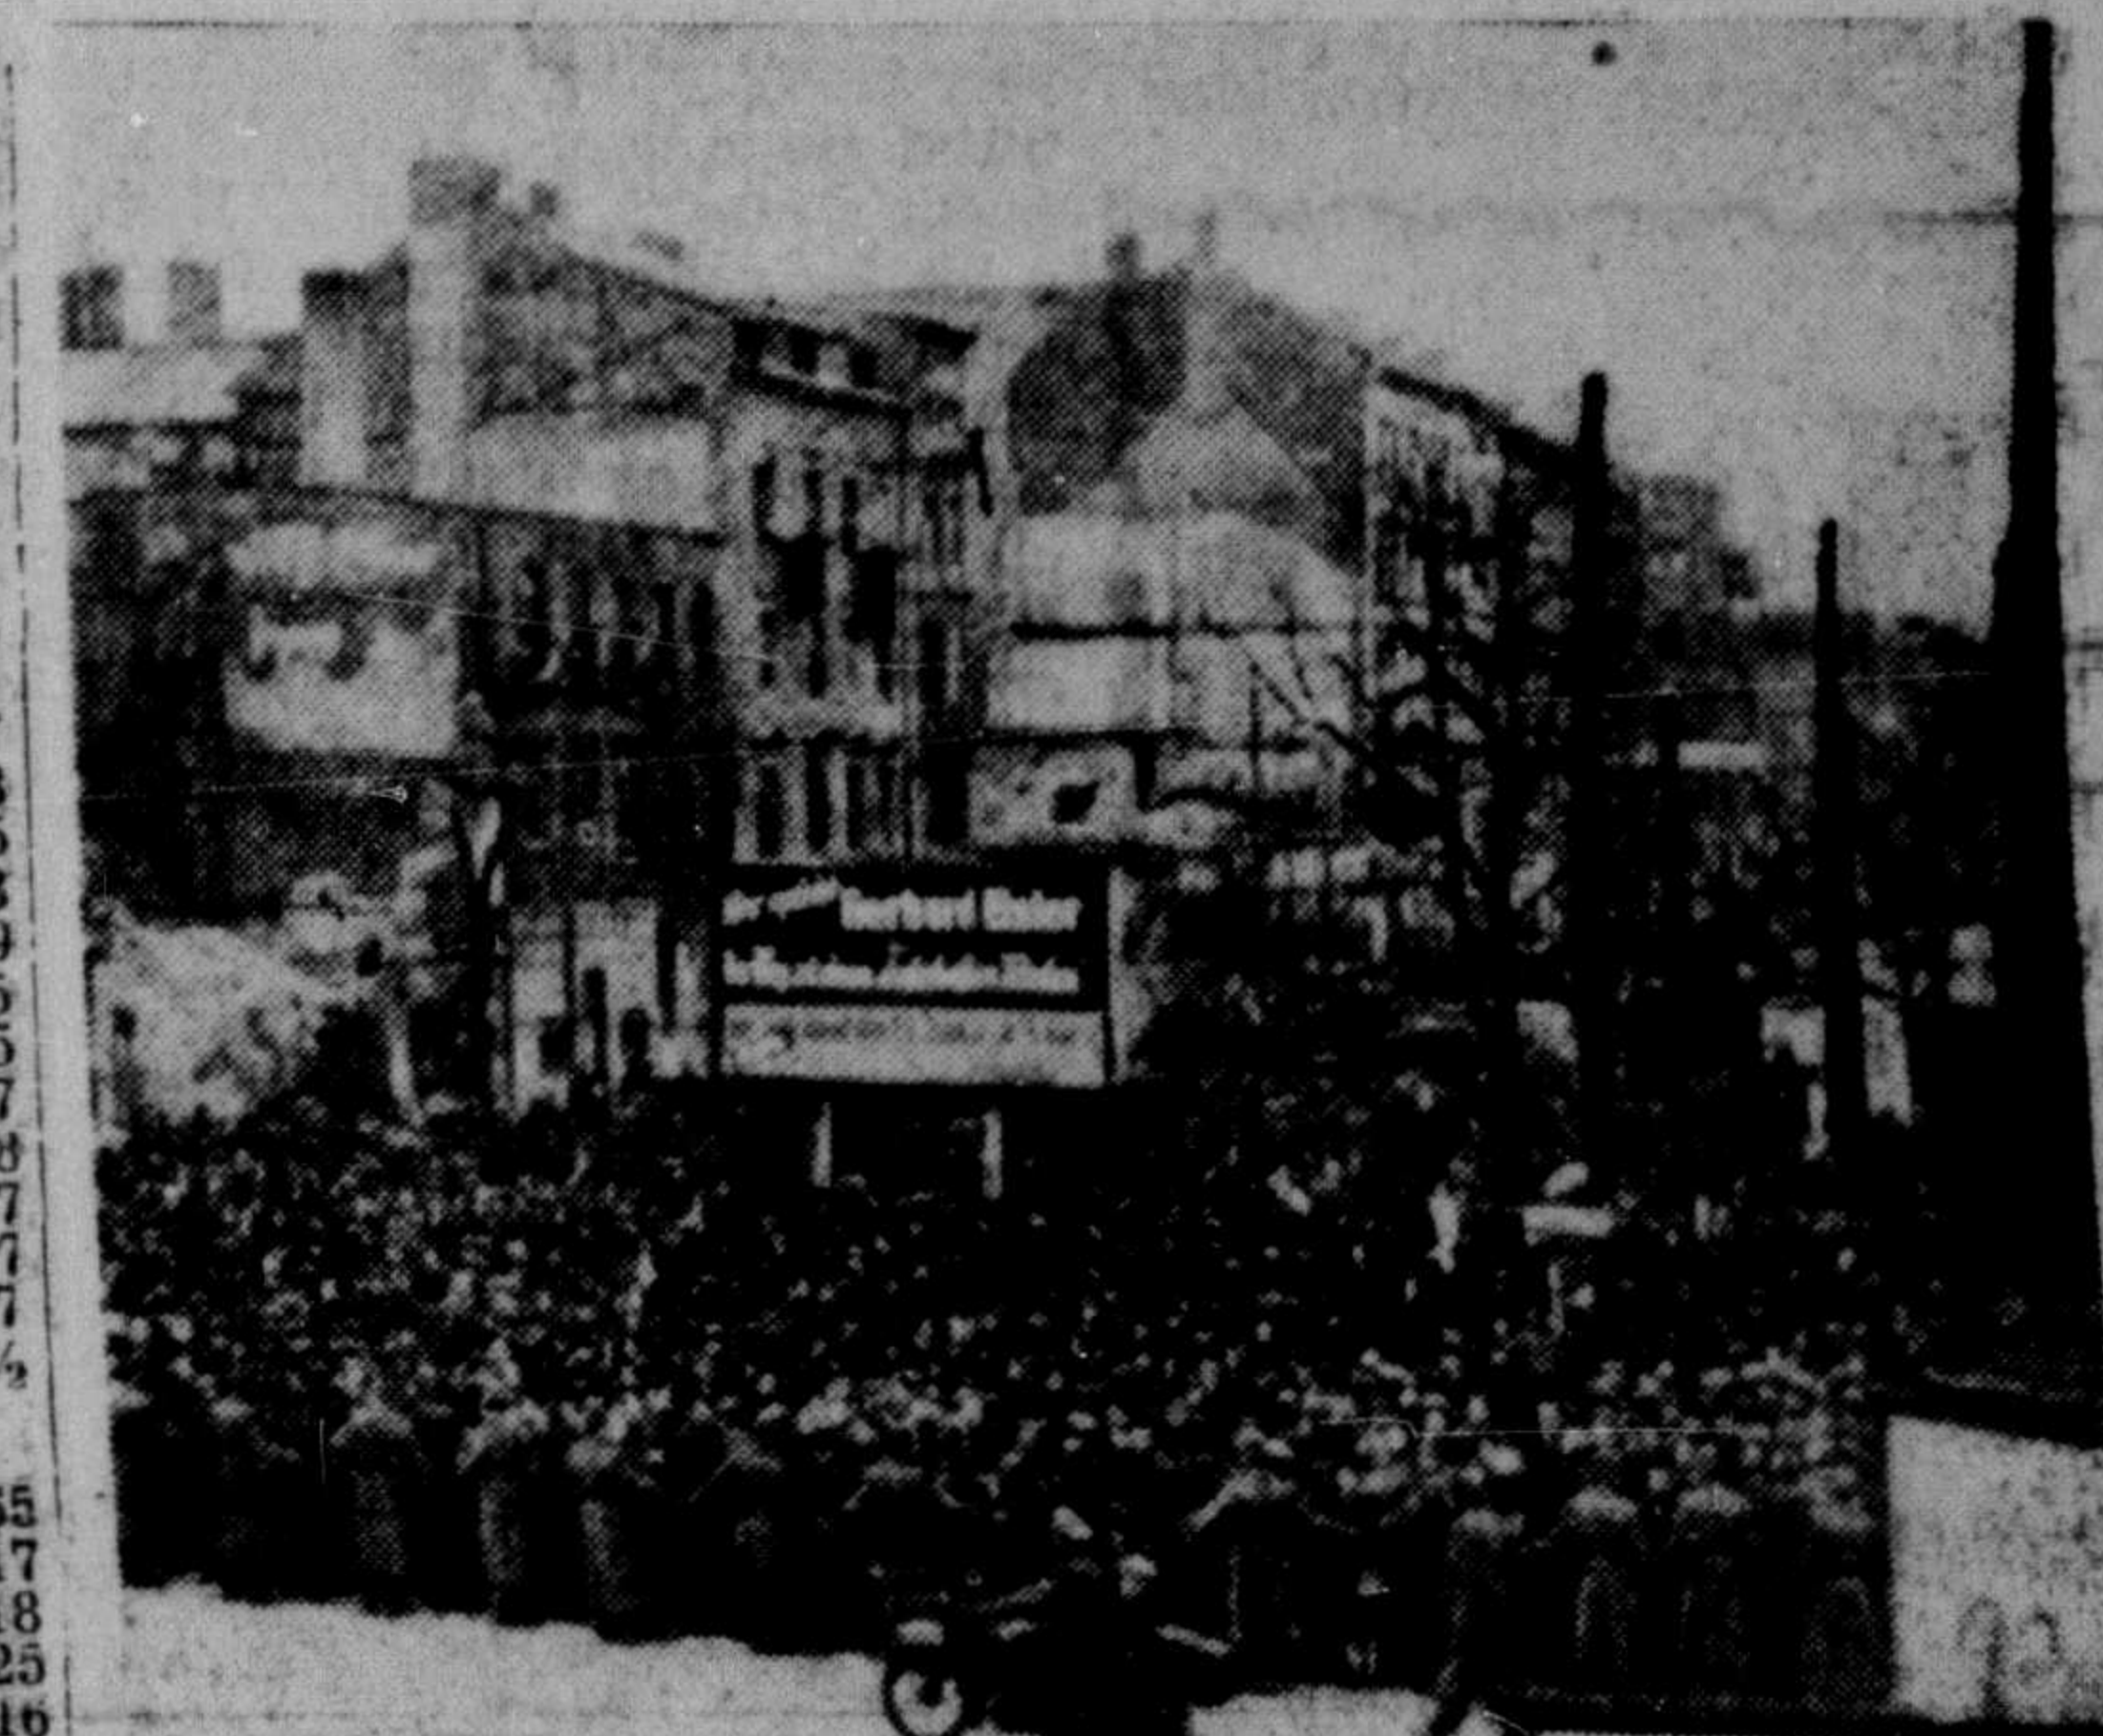

It seems that "Bear Hide" Scuby is also doing a lot of training although already he has enough weight to offset any of the Gyro gentlemen.

HOW CAN I ???

Q. How can I remove insects from vegetables when washing them?
A. By putting a little vinegar or a pinch of borax into the water. This will bring the live insects to the surface of the water almost immediately.
Q. How can I stop the bleeding of a cut?
A. It is claimed that a bleeding wound can sometimes be checked by applying very hot water, as hot as can be borne.
Q. What is the best way to wash rugs?
A. Do not wring them after washing. Hang them on the line and play the hose on them to rinse. Then let them drip and dry.

FEELS UNCOMFORTABLE—IT'S THE HEIGHT—While External Affairs Minister Pearson attends conferences and investigates possibilities of trade with Asiatic countries, crew members of the plane which was flying him around the world had opportunity to make friends and influence people on their own. Flt.-Lieut. R. McKee of Port Dalhousie, Ont., radio operator on the North Star, climbed aboard an elephant at Kandy, Ceylon, and found the height too much for comfort.

EISLER'S FRIENDS PUT ON A SHOW—Police of the western sector of Berlin form a human chain to hold back Communist demonstrators who tried to enter the French sector of Berlin during a Red rally staged by Gerhard Eisler, propaganda chief of the east (Soviet dominated) German republic. Eisler is the same Eisler who once was called the No. 1 Communist in the U.S. and who jumped bail while awaiting trial in the U.S. About 2,000 Communists attended the rally and heard Eisler demand that every American should be put out of Germany. Berliners of the west sector gathered at the border and yelled across the line to Eisler to "go back to Moscow."

THE WALLACE WAY

Ray Reflects . . . . . . and Reminisces

The Government and Labor continue to differ about the number of unemployed in Canada. Ottawa may be correct, but do they know very much about being unable to find a job. It is then one discovers that any number of folks are quite indifferent to listening to hard luck stories. Perhaps they think it's leading up to soliciting a little loan.

Comments the St. Louis Star-Times, with possible more truth than poetry, in reference to the robbers in Boston. When seven men can walk off with more than a million dollars in paper money without so much as a shot fired, an alarm bell, a police siren or even a cop's whistle, there is something rotten in the State of Massachusetts.

Nova Scotians are smarting under the sting of an inexcusable indignity. They want to know what the X Y Z, the bell of the "Bluenose," is doing in Edmonton, of all places. The "Bluenose," swiftest wind-jammer of any craft in all the fishing fleet and winner of many a glorious race, was lost in the West Indies a few years ago. In a broadcast from Edmonton the silvery tinkle of her bell was heard more than once. And now the query arises "How Come?" Here's a job for salty sailors. There's only one permanent resting place for that bell and it isn't being exiled away out among the oil boomers and wheat barons. It's down with the Lunenburgers or Halifaxians by the chilly Atlantic, on whose bosom she sailed to victory. "When a wind was humming o'er the flood, and waves were white below"

Frozen fish totalling 160 million pounds, a few hundred thousand more than ever before reported, remain stored in the United States. And this, with the auration of fishing seasons in some parts of the continent be-

Power Co. franchise and rate agreement.

It was suggested that information be obtained from the Northern B. C. Power Commission regarding operation reports and also that other utility companies in B.C. be contacted in order that rate structure may be ascertained.

It was also pointed out that the city, in future agreements, should see that a surplus of hydro power exists in order that industries coming here would run into no power difficulty.

A long discussion regarding the Conrad Street School playground led to a promise by Alderman George Casey that immediate representations would be made by him. In addition to Ald. Casey, Ald. Don Fitch was the second representative from the city council.

R. Ferguson was in the chair and in the absence of Secretary H. Thorsteinson, F. Baldwin acted in that capacity.

coming more and more restricted. There seems to be a stern resolve, somewhere, that no one is going to crave fish now, or in the future.

Calumet Athlete seems to appreciate a durable, honey looking pipe as much as Winston Churchill relishes a ceaseless flow of extra lengthy cigars. It's all right. There is something about a man using tobacco that gives an agreeable impression—whether he's head of a nation, or just another man. It has that calming, reasoning way.

Some visitors to Prince Rupert dilate on the scenery to be enjoyed from any part of the town-site. It is not necessary to ask their opinion. And this brings one around to the course being taken by the Public Relations Council which plans to have Mt. Hays and Mt. Oldfield set aside as provincial park areas. The former is the peak overlooking the west end of the city and the latter overlooks the center, or business section. Comparatively few of the present population have climbed either. It's worth the effort, particularly on a clear day in summer. But a bright idea anyway. Some day, there will be a motor drive from the Seal Cove neighborhood. A survey was run, years ago. No construction difficulties were found. Easy, in fact. What an attraction. Go mountaineering by car, from right in town.

FRANCO'S DAUGHTER SETS WEDDING DATE FOR APRIL—The wedding of 23-year-old Carmencita Franco, only child of the Spanish chief of state, has been officially announced, with the tentative date set for April 17. This photograph was made at an intimate party in the El Pardo palace to celebrate her engagement to the Marquis of Villaverde, 27-year-old Dr. Cristobal Martinez Bordiu. The ceremony is expected to be held in Los Jeronimos church with the Bishop of Madrid, Dr. Leopoldo Eijo Garay officiating. Left to right are Mrs. Carmen Polo de Franco, mother of the bride-to-be; Carmencita Franco; the generalissimo; Dr. Bordiu, the groom-to-be and his parents, the Count and Countess of Argillo.
