An Economic Victory

THE ORDER by the Board of Transport for the removal of the historic mountain differential rate on freight hauled by the railways through the Rocky Mountains is a great economic victory for British Columbia. For many years, British Columbia has irked under and protested against this discriminatory differential. It had seemed at many times an almost forlorn hope. Now the Transport Board, at long last, has seen the justice of this western province's contention. To Attorney General G. S. Wismer and his staff who argued the case before the Board with such evidently convincing success congratulations are due on their long hoped for and truly climactic accomplishment.

Of primary importance and benefit to the province is the removal of the differential on freight shipments. It means a saving after July 1 of twenty-five percent on haulage between the Pacific and the eastern foothills of the Rocky Mountains. The existence of the differential has long been a handicap to shipments of products East from the coast and likewise a hardship adding to the cost of commodities brought from the East to the coast.

The present order of the Board of Transport Commissioners, it is to be noted, applies only to freight. There is a similar differential on passenger rates which is not such a fundamental hardship but the equalization of which may likewise be reasonably anticipated.

ARE YOU ON LIST?

THERE IS just one more week—up to next Monday—for citizens of British Columbia to make sure that their names are on the voters' list for the June 15 provincial election. It should be understood that there is no automatic registration. Because one voted in the last provincial election does not mean that he or she is still on the list. For some months there has been a deputy registrar actually canvassing for names but, in spite of that, there are believed to be many citizens whose names are not on the list. During recent days, it is reported that no small number of people who had been sure their names were on the list have found, on checking, that they were not.

Since a primary function of citizenship is to exercise the franchise, it is being suggested that everybody ascertain definitely that they are actually registered. It would be better to be sure now than sorry later. The registrar of voters, who is the government agent, has stated that his staff is being detailed to concentrate in the time intervening between now and the final registration date—May 2—on the answering of inquiries of citizens as to whether or not they are on the list and to register all those who are not. While the electoral authorities are doing everything possible to ensure that everybody qualified is on the voters' list, it is after all the personal responsibility of every good citizen to see that he or she actually is.

FORMOSA'S POSITION

FORMOSA, named "Beautiful Island" some 400 years ago by Portuguese explorers, may become the refuge spot of Chinese nationalist leaders who have fled from Nanking, to set up, possibly, in the meantime at Canton. The nationalists have been for some time concentrating capital, airplanes, manpower and industry there.

If the Formosans consent to this influx of high Chinese officials, the island may become a center of nationalist influence, eventually seeking recognition as an independent country. It might join the Philippines and provide financial and technical aid to that little country, now embarked on a perilous adventure in extending western influence to the orient. It might even help organize a new nation of the United States of Asia, with perhaps Japan, the Philippines and the Dutch East Indies as members.

History has done some strange things to the world's maps through the years, some of them even as strange as this.

Letters to the Editor

CONSERVATIVE POSITION

Editor, Daily News:
We wish to express our approval of your editorial of the 20th which pointed out the necessity for co-operation between the two political parties comprising Coalition. Our approval is not of the eleventh hour type as we have consistently maintained that only by complete co-operation could we hope to defeat the socialist forces in this constituency. We have repeatedly emphasized this in our conversations with representative Liberals on numerous occasions. It was the dominant motif in our re-organization meeting of three weeks ago and has inspired us to refrain from proposing any candidate or taking any public action which would in any way jeopardise the principle of Coalition.

The developments of the past week have caused us to wonder if co-operation is really possible. Co-operation, Mr. Editor, means working together and that implies mutual confidence in each other's aims and intentions.

As you know, our party called a nominating convention for April 18 as the Liberals had taken similar action previously. Also, we appointed a committee to meet the Liberals to discuss the mechanics of arranging joint action and, at the same time, call off the two nominating conventions. On April 14 our committee met with theirs and, after a lengthy discussion, it was agreed to call off both nominating conventions and appoint delegates to a Coalition convention at which names of possible candidates would be presented. It was further agreed that no nominating of candidates by either party would take place previous to that meeting. These decisions were subject to ratification by the Liberal executive as their committee had no power to act.

The Liberal executive met and following the meeting, the president advised us that the executive agreed to our proposals and it would be in order for us to cancel our nominating convention. They, in turn, would change theirs to an annual meeting at which delegates would be appointed but no candidates nominated. We cancelled our convention by notice in your paper of April 16.

It now transpires, Mr. Editor, that the Liberal executive did not agree to our proposals and in fact, our suggestions were not even presented to the Liberal convention on April 19 with the result that candidates were nominated at that meeting and delegates appointed and instructed to support the Liberal candidate.

We will refrain from calling this action by its proper name, Mr. Editor, but we would like to point out the inevitable consequences. The Progressive-Conservatives have no alternative now than to call a similar nominating convention, nominate their candidate and appoint an equal number of delegates and instruct them to support our candidate. As any one can see, the result is a deadlock and we deplore having to take this step which is utterly foreign to our ideas of co-operative action.

We respectively suggest through your columns—for apparently we cannot reach the rank and file of Liberals through the usual channels—that a Coalition convention should mean something entirely different. Properly set up, both parties should appoint an equal number of delegates without instruction, and an election take place in a manner to be determined by agreement between the two parties and in accordance with democratic principles.

We have again suggested this procedure to the Liberal executive and have been informed that they do not agree to any change in their procedure. It is therefore, with extreme regret that we take our next step which is essential if we are to protect the interests of the anti-socialist portion of our community and call a nominating convention. Although the possibility of co-operation from the Liberals now seems entirely remote, we are still prepared to do everything in our power to cause the selection and election of a coalition candidate to reflect the will of the people of this constituency rather than that of a single political party.

MINISTER'S RIGHT

Editor, Daily News:
Some discussion has arisen regarding a remark which you attributed to Rev. Dr. Peter Kelly in your issue of April 22. In your article regarding the native vote you said, "To those who ask him, Dr. Kelly has been suggesting that it might be appropriate for them to express their 'Thank-you' by means of the ballot to the government which took the step for the first time of granting them the franchise. Assuming that you have quoted Dr. Kelly correctly there are two things which I would like to say.

First, I want to defend a minister's right both to have and to express an opinion on a political question. The fact that you may occasionally disagree with them is no justification for demanding that ministers in general be deaf and dumb politically. Secondly, whatever Dr. Kelly may have said, I must point out that he is not speaking for the church but as a private citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Olsen were passengers aboard the Chilco- being in charge of the cannery tin last evening going through which is now operated as a fish- to Wales Island where they will ing camp.

WHAT IS IT? This unusual looking animal is believed to be the offspring of a Holstein cow and a deer. Sam G. Clarkson, farmer near Hamilton, Ont., shown with the animal, says the calf is reddish brown, unlike the mother's black and white color. The head is furry, rounded on top, and the horn buttons are further back and higher than on the head of a normal calf. "It doesn't bawl like a calf; it doesn't make any sound at all," Mr. Clarkson says. "It runs like a deer and wants to jump all over the place. Even the hind legs are crooked like a deer." (CP Photo)

It's been a busy year!...

This week many thousands of Canadians will be reading the story told in Imperial Oil's annual report. It is a story of how, to meet your needs, Imperial last year found more crude oil, produced more crude, transported, refined, distributed and marketed more oil and products than ever before.

To do this we had to spend a lot of money. We sent men ranging over thousands of square miles in the search for new oil fields—and we found new oil. We built new ships... new pipe lines... new refining units... new marketing facilities... and a host of other things. Again last year we spent more money than we earned, but it was an investment in Canada's future as well as our own.

We raised most of the money we needed by borrowing and by selling some of our major investments; the rest was earnings put back into the business after paying dividends.

On the year's business we made a profit of less than a cent a gallon on products sold. This amounted to 4 and 9/10ths cents out of each sales dollar we received.

It was a busy, successful, interesting year. When it began we were sometimes hard pressed to meet all your needs; when it ended supplies were assured. It saw new oil discovered, making Canada less dependent on foreign supplies; new equipment added, helping to serve Canadians better with the products they need.

Bringing you oil is a big job—and a costly one.

If you're interested in facts...:

1948 set new records in all phases of Imperial Oil's operations. If the wells drilled by the company to find and produce oil in Canada during 1948 were placed end to end they would total 163 miles. Five large tankers were added to the company's fleets; the Leduc pipe line was extended to Edmonton, and plans progressed for a pipe line from Edmonton to Regina; 4,711 tank cars moved more than 150,000 car loads of crude oil and products. Imperial's eight refineries processed an average of 135,027 barrels per day, a new record. Sales totalled 1,819,000,000 gallons. On its operations the company earned $16,873,163—a profit of 93/100 of a cent per gallon for each of the 1,819,000,000 gallons sold. From its investments the company earned $5,968,907.

GIRL GUIDES' COOKIE WEEK

Cookie Week, inaugurated as Cookie Day last year, is being observed for the second time in Prince Rupert April 25 to 30, by the Girl Guides Association.

Girl Guides and Brownies in uniform will be knocking on doors taking orders for cookies. The cookies are attractively boxed in blue and yellow containers, with the Guide Trefoil on the sides.

Funds received from the cookie sales will be shared by individual companies and packs and divisions. Part of the proceeds will be used for extension work in the province and for Guiding within the Dominion. Receipts will also be used for the Field Secretary, who will start on her trips for organizing and training this spring throughout the Province. Guides and Brownies have been preparing eagerly to make this effort one of unity and real success.

Cookie Week is proposed as an annual event for the Province.

The Provincial Girl Guides Association this year, for the first time, will send the long-anticipated Field Secretary on the first organizing and training trip throughout the province. The great success of Cookie Day last year has made this possible. This effort last year was so successful it was decided to extend it to a week, April 25 to 30 inclusive.

Locally, Guides and Brownies are going into the community to take orders. They were very pleased with the excellent response from the public last year and feel confident that the response will be even greater this year.

Stylewise Floral Hints For Spring

Family allowances were first introduced to Canada in 1945.

Individual scoring records for the session gave Johnny Comadina of Headpinners the highest single game score for the men, a 295, while Jack Paul of Pushovers bowled the highest three-game total, 777, averaging 259.

Bertha Dunbar's marksmanship put her above the men in both the single game and three game scores. Her single-game total score was an even 300 and her three game total a tidy 822, for an average of 274.

FINAL BILLIARD TOURNAMENT OPENS

The final English billiards tournament of the season at the Canadian Legion got off to a god start over the weekend and three matches in the "foursom" event being played off. In the two matches between the "New Vets," F. W. Comadina and W. L. Judger, with a handicap of plus 20, defeated Bob Moxley and W. A. Osborne, playing scratch, by a score of 150-141. A well-played run of 26 by Comadina was the only break to be recorded during the day's play.

too big a lead on their opponents G. R. Brett and R. M. MacLeod, playing scratch, who were slow in getting started, with the result that the game ended in a 150 to 103 victory for the Bremner-Nixon combination.

In the first match between "foursomes" of the "Old Vets" Jack Judge and Alex Harvey, playing scratch, were both in form from the start of the game and showed no mercy on their opponents W. L. Gordon and J. Lawrie, whose handicap was plus 15, winning easily with a score of 150-56.

Further games in this tournament are scheduled for tonight.

Ray Reflects . . . and Reminisces

Some one is sure to say, when a few old sourpusses sit down to grin and bear it, that "oh well, we all came here about thirty-five years too early." Ponder the past, and strike a balance if you can. Instead of buying a lot at the wrong end of Third Avenue and letting it go for taxes, you might never have seen Prince Rupert and enjoyed peace and good digestion. Instead you might have become wealthy in Medicine Hat or Kalamazoo, caught stomach ulcers and a lot of new relatives all waiting for you to die.

The better. The longer neglected, the higher the cost—as well as damage action possibilities for a twisted ankle or fall. One has only to think of certain cities not so far from here where streets are no wider than a Rupert lane, and sidewalks with the breadth of a good sized table, to realize their own good fortune.

REV. ALFRED WILSON DIES

Former Local Pastor Succumbs to Heart Attack in Nanaimo

Rev. Alfred Wilson, who was pastor of First United Church in Prince Rupert from 1927 to 1931, succumbed yesterday to a heart attack in Nanaimo where for the past several years he had been pastor of St. Andrew's Church. The late Mr. Wilson was the officiating pastor at the marriage in Burnaby of the present incumbent of First United Church here, Rev. R. A. Wilson.

The late Mr. Wilson was born in England and was about 60 years of age. After leaving Prince Rupert in 1931 he went to St. James Church in Vancouver, then to Burnaby whence he moved to Nanaimo.

During his stay in Prince Rupert, Mr. Wilson became highly esteemed and his former parishioners here will learn with sincere regret of his passing.

Besides his widow, who has herself suffered from heart trouble for several years, Mr. Wilson is survived by three sons—Ronald Wilson of Port Alice; Leslie Wilson, Kelowna, and Jack Wilson, attending University of British Columbia in Vancouver, at one daughter, Mrs. John (Christina) Parks of South Vancouver.
