GOVERNMENT TO PROCEED WITH ALUMINUM DEAL

MARGARINE LEGALIZED BY B.C. GOVERNMENT

Session Prorogued Today—Speed Limit On Highways Is Raised

VICTORIA (CP)—The British Columbia Legislature prorogued at noon today after one of the shortest sessions since the end of the war. The session opened on February 8. It is expected that this will be the last session before the members are called together for dissolution. Indications are that the government will call an election with polling day fixed for late in June.

In the final sitting legislation to empower the government to make an agreement with the Aluminum Co. of Canada was given final reading. It gives the government power to negotiate for the granting of power resources and rights for the development of the largest aluminum industry in the world. Kitimaat, near Prince Rupert, is a favored site.

Another bill provided for a 50-mile-an-hour speed limit to come into effect at once on open highways. This speed limit came into force today when it received Royal Assent of the Lieutenant-Governor.

By another last-minute act of the Legislature oleomargarine becomes legal in British Columbia. The bill so providing was passed just before midnight last night after an eleven-hour attempt by members from dairy-conscious ridings to block coloring provisions of the bill. An amendment banning any coloring whatsoever was defeated and the bill passed final reading in original form, allowing coloring for the commodity. The bill was sponsored, after all, by Minister of Agriculture Frank Putnam.

Some delay in the appearance of oleomargarine on the British Columbia market may arise from the fact that manufacturers and wholesalers must first obtain licences from the minister of agriculture.

LARGE DROP IN BUTTER PRICES

MONCTON, N.B.—Butter prices have dropped from 75 cents to 66 cents a pound. Grocers say the cut seemed almost entirely due to the competition offered by margarine.

FIGHTS SECURITY PACT—Harry Archibald leading C.C.F. minority opposing Alliance, says Vancouver paper.

HARRY ARCHIBALD FIGHTS AGAINST ATLANTIC PACT, SUN NEWSPAPER REPORTS

Harry Archibald of Skeena and Rodney Young of Vancouver Centre are leading a fight within the C.C.F. party against the North Atlantic Security Alliance, according to an Ottawa dispatch to the Vancouver Sun. The issue came to a head at a party caucus, according to the newspaper. However, the

United States Coal Mine Strike Ending

PITTSBURG (AP)—John L. Lewis ordered 463,000 idle coal miners to return to work Monday. An executive order to district officers said the "present memorial period will terminate Monday, March 23. Production may then be resumed in all mines and all members should make themselves available for work on that date.

Here is the Vancouver Sun's dispatch:

"OTTAWA, March 21—A minority revolt within the C.C.F. against the North Atlantic Security Act is posing the problem of party unity for the leadership.

"There may possibly be a vote or two against the pact when it comes up for endorsement in the House of Commons, as well as a few more C.C.F. members being 'absent' when the roll is called.

The issue came to a head in C.C.F. parliamentary caucus here Sunday, when two British Columbia M.P.s led the fight against the pact.

They were Harry Archibald (Skeena) and Rodney Young (Vancouver Centre).

Reports from behind the closed doors of caucus indicated that somewhere less than a dozen of the 32 members of the C.C.F. bloc here were against the pact.

"It is understood that no concerted effort was made to clamp down party discipline and whip the rebels into line, and that the issue is not yet completely settled.

"Nevertheless, at the end of intense debate Sunday it seemed that some of the 'rebel' faction had swung into line and the others were hesitating to vote against the pact."

Noted Canadian Businessman Dies

MONTREAL (AP)—John Henry Birks, aged 78, vice-chairman of the board of directors of Henry Birks & Sons Ltd., and former president and chairman of the board, died in hospital here today. He relinquished the presidency in 1944 after six years at the head of the jewelry firm and was succeeded by his nephew, Henry G. Birks.

WESTMINSTER TAKES LEAD

NEW WESTMINSTER (AP)—New Westminster Royals have taken a one-game lead over Tacoma Rockets in the best-of-five final in the Pacific Coast Hockey League's northern division which opened with a 3 to 2 victory in overtime for the season's leaders last night. Second game will be played in New Westminster Saturday night and in Tacoma on Sunday.

Norman Nelson, who has been in the city for the past few days on business, is sailing by the Prince Rupert tonight on his return to Vancouver.

CHIEF Abercrombie is sailing tonight on the Prince Rupert for a trip to Vancouver.

FIGURES IN U. S. MINE WORK STOPPAGE. U.M.W. President John L. Lewis (left) has called an end to a "suspension of mining" east of the Mississippi river by 400,000 hard and soft coal miners. The shutdown was ordered, Lewis asserted, to "emphasize" the United Mine Workers Union's opposition to Dr. James Boyd (right), as director of the federal bureau of mines. The latter was nominated by President Truman on March 7, 1947, and has served without pay pending his confirmation by the Senate. Some 425,000 hard and soft U. S. coal diggers are home from work now but Lewis says they will stay out of the pits until March 28. The United States Senate confirmed Boyd yesterday.

TELEPHONE EXPERT RECOMMENDS AUTOMATIC SYSTEM FOR THIS CITY

Council Turns Down Alderman Casey's Suggestion to Bring in Ernest Love

An English telephone engineer who Wednesday made a survey of the city's telephone system recommended to city council last night that, when the system is renewed, as it must be in the near future, automatic, rather than manual facilities be installed.

He was James Scoweroff, of Glasgow, Scotland, who told the aldermen that the report on his findings was that "of an engineer, rather than the representative of a company."

Mr. Scoweroff surveyed the system in company with Telephone Assistant Superintendent Fred Kempton yesterday.

"I recommend the installation of an automatic exchange service for both individual and party lines because the annual costs are considerably lower for an automatic than for manual," he said.

"That is not peculiar to Europe but all over the world."

"People are no longer ordering manual equipment. Where they have manual equipment, they are switching to automatic because it saves them money."

Mr. Scoweroff was one of three representatives of the General Electric Co. Ltd. of England who visited the city after learning that plans are under way for the rehabilitation of the municipal telephone system. The other two are J. S. Langland of Coventry, England, and J. Bartholomew of Vancouver.

Their findings regarding the system and their recommendations as to its renewal, the aldermen commented, were similar to those of "three or four" other groups of engineers who have surveyed it during the last couple of years.

Mr. Scoweroff told council that, while the initial cost of installing an automatic system would be "somewhat higher," a manual system would cost "three times as much to maintain as an automatic equipment."

"I do not think that the initial cost of an automatic or manual system is of real significance. The bulk of the cost will remain no matter which you choose. You must remember that there are expenditures which must be met whether you install either type."

These expenditures, he said, are the costs of renewing the outside distribution system, which will constitute the major part of any renewal plan.

PLANE WRECK IN NEW YORK

HENDERSON, New York (AP)—Wreckage of a plane which disappeared March 16 on a flight to New York from Buffalo was found today on the east shore of Lake Ontario, about seven miles south of Henderson.

It is not known immediately if two occupants of the light plane were killed.

Two men on the flight were Harry G. Barenbrugge, aged 45 of Elmira, New York, and Stuart N. Johnson, 41, of Mansfield, Pennsylvania.

Both Canadian and United States search units had been searching for the plane since it was reported missing.

Can Do "Anything"

TO HAVE A TRAINING in at least one form of occupation is a good thing for any man. It need not, necessarily, be a college degree. But it should be something one honestly can say he can do better than anything else.

That much, in the event of seeking work, provides the ability to give a definite answer to a direct query, such as "what can you do?"

There always is more or less unemployment. To give vague and evasive replies certainly gets one nowhere. While it is perfectly true times can become so slack that qualified men walk the streets, it is also the truth that of those who hunt jobs in vain the greater proportion say they can "do anything" the actual meaning of which is "nothing in particular."

TWO WORTHY ORGANIZATIONS

PRINCE RUPERT Symphony Orchestra and Prince Rupert Film Council are two worthy local organizations which are contributing to the cultural life of the city. Friday night at the Civic Centre Prince Rupert people will have the opportunity of supporting both when the Symphony Orchestra presents a concert for the purpose of assisting the Council in raising funds. The funds are required immediately for the purchase of a projector which will enable the Council to function more effectively as the distributing and exhibiting medium for the National Film Board.

Those who attend the concert will be getting an evening of better class entertainment from a musical group which has been making distinct strides of late, amply demonstrating its increasing proficiency and accomplishments with each succeeding appearance. They will also have the opportunity of evincing their interest and support in the good work not only of the Orchestra but of the Film Council which has now become accepted generally as one of the city's established institutions.

NORTH ATLANTIC PACT

CANADIANS can well afford to pat themselves on the back about the North Atlantic Security Pact which has been made public.

The Pact was first suggested by Prime Minister St. Laurent and by Hon. Lester B. Pearson. It contains two features which Canada insisted upon: the economic clause, which is designed to show the world that the North Atlantic Nations are looking beyond a mere military alliance; and the review clause, which will permit revision of the Pact at the conclusion of 10 of its 20-year life. Depending on whether the United Nations is strong enough at that time to fulfill its purpose, the pact may be scrapped or altered and extended.

PARLIAMENT LIVENS UP

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS in Ottawa is becoming less dignified. Pounding on desks, cheers, and loud remarks now and then take the place of the studied calm and composure distinguishing the chamber during the past few years.

This is doubtless explained by the retirement of Premier King, the taking of office by his accomplished successor, the choice of a vigorous new Leader of the Opposition and the nearness of a general election.

The House is becoming alive, if not exactly emotional. The Prime Minister himself comes down to business earlier. Mr. St. Laurent reports at his office at 9. And speaking of the Prime Minister it is of interest to note that, contrary to impressions of his general personality, he seems quite at home in the rough and tumble of sharp parliamentary differences. He gives as well as he receives.

DISASTROUS FIRE—Loss was estimated at $2,000,000 and over 100 were made homeless by a disastrous fire which swept Rouyn, northern Quebec mining centre, March 17. The blaze broke out early in the morning and before it was brought under control had swept through a large portion of the main business section. This photo shows part of the damage caused, with smoke still pouring from one of the burning buildings. (CP Photo)

A Spot of Comment..

THE CRITICS

He just cannot understand why he ever came here in the first place or how people have actually lived here for years and seem happy about it.

"They must be bushed," says he.

We too, wonder why he came but think we know why he stays. He is making a better living here than he managed elsewhere. Yet listen to him:

"The rain is too wet; the roads are too few and too rough; The politics too narrow; pleasures too few and prices too high."

Very welcome would be his criticism if it was but the fore-runner of his active participation in some of the groups that offer opportunity to work and plan for the betterment of the district.

But no! His criticism is only a dirge, repeated every time he can corner an audience. To disagree with him is to be struck from his list of friends.

Such a one should be pounced upon each time he goes into his act and dares to shoulder a share of the work of improvement.

Almost any backward condition he can mention is being operated on by a hard working corrective group. Roads and streets? We refer him to the Chamber of Commerce and the Automobile Association. Schools? Attend the discussions of the Parent-Teachers' Associations. Politics? All parties are active here, even a non-partisan group operates in the field of civic affairs. Prices? The Chamber of Commerce and various Consumer groups. Weather? You have me there, Chum!

Almost as inept in the community is the other one who is continually crying in the wilderness of the past. Only the old ways are good ways. Anything new is automatically suspect. He is against chlorination of water, disposal of sewage, proper incineration of garbage.

He does not want to see much of anything happen by way of civic improvement because it might raise the taxes. That it also raises the value of his property is vehemently denied—until he has an interested buyer.

Prince Rupert's comparative lack of civic improvement is attributable to genuine economic reasons that none need avoid pointing to. I refer to the lack of development in the north in the hungry thirties. Improvement in those years was out of the question. Current support alone was problem enough.

Yet this old-time individual habitually stoops to excuses that weaken the community morally and handicap its development economically.

Among the pets are: "No use trying to do anything here anyway because Vancouver and the C.N.R. are both ag'in us. So what can we do?" Fortunately, these two groups of extremists are few in numbers. Between them are the majority who are living happily normal lives here. They are aware of the area's shortcomings and very much alive to its fine points and opportunities. They are working toward the elimination of the one and the development of the other. While appreciating that the city has been through bad times they are concentrating their attention on the prosperous era of development upon which we are obviously entered.

They realize that outside in-endo has had, and can have, little permanent influence on an era's ultimate function: that much of the outside adverse advertising started within our own borders! They know that the thoughtful, constructive work of those in it is what counts.

They are capable of enthusiasm for it and of constructive criticism of it. They are taking their part in the program that has started. Their vision and goal includes fine parks and modern schools; a community stature of character that unequivocally accepts its own responsibilities; the good-will that renders neighborly congratulation to those communities who have forged ahead of us in the past, knowing that they have not done so at our expense. And they find no difficulty in understanding that a railroad does not build into a country and promptly try to ruin its own investment.

The cue is given for this north country to assume its place on the world's stage. It has sounded not just for Prince Rupert—or Prince George or Edmonton—

CENTRE BRIDGE CLASSES ENDING

Civic Centre bridge classes, which have been conducted by Garnet Hull for the last three months, concluded Tuesday night with the 30 "students" expressing hearty thanks to their instructor for his efforts. Members agreed that the classes had been helpful to their bridge technique. Mr. Hull informed the gathering that the last of the bi-weekly bridge tournaments which have been held at the Civic Centre during the winter will take place on April 1 and the play-offs will be held on April 8. Names of those eligible for play in the finals will be made known after the completion of the schedule on April 1.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

It is betraying no transportation secret to say that more than seventy-one tons of roofing intended for dwellings arrived here aboard a steamer not so long ago. The destination of each ton was Prince Rupert. It cannot be said home building has been particularly active in Prince Rupert, but now and then, come signs and suggestions.

Lin Bell, engineer, used to work on the railway when it was known as the Grand Trunk Pacific. One day, a bull, belonging to a Skeena rancher, was killed, and the owner brought suit.

Lin, who stuttered slightly, was called as one of the witnesses.

"When did you first see the bull?" queried counsel.

"When it was coming out of the-the-grass."

"Yes! Now please tell the court when you next saw the bull, and under what circumstances."

"The grass was coming out of the bull, and it was dead."

They work quickly yet gently to carry away poisons and promote restful comfort."

And Mrs. W. R. Sharp says: "I nursed my baby shortly after being alarmed over a motor accident and her stomach became quite upset. I gave her Baby's Own Tablets and she soon stopped crying—and quieted down."

Someone of calculating turn of mind says a pair of rats left to breed, unmolested, can multiply to a total of eight hundred rats within a year. Who can the thoughtless individual be who left a pair on Kaien Island a year or so ago?

Time alone will disclose whether or not there will be floods in the Fraser and Skeena valleys as spring advances. But apprehension is softened to know that, as the waters subside, there will be no hateful scourge of snakes, scorpions and clouds of mosquitos such as freshet victims in Australia put up with, and told about in yesterday's Daily News. The worst B. C. can do is leave an unholy mess, lean pocketbooks and a few more unpaid bills. But spare us from serpents!

Don Forward Asked To Air Interview

Editorial comment in the Daily News a few days ago over Bill Herbert, CBC commentator, giving North Vancouver credit for having such a pretentious and useful Civic Centre and apparently not realizing that such an institution had existed in Prince Rupert for several years, has led to an invitation being sent to Don Forward, Civic Centre director, to be interviewed on the Ellen Harris program the next time he is in Vancouver. The invitation was received yesterday. Meantime, both Herbert and Miss Harris have been fully briefed with information about the local Civic Centre, stressing the widespread function it is performing as a gathering place for all manner of community assemblages and activities.

Attractive spring fashions displayed by winsome models inspired warm appreciation from a capacity crowd at the Rebekah's annual spring fashion show held in the Oddfellows' Hall Wednesday evening. The creations, which ranged through formal, informal and children's wear and included a formal wedding ensemble, were provided through courtesy of Wallace's Ltd.

The hall was attractively decorated in pink and green for the occasion and the show was opened by Miss Betty Hood, Past Noble Grand of the Rebekah Lodge, who welcomed the audience. Miss Hood introduced Mrs. Robert Strachan, who acted as narrator, and L. M. Felsenthal, proprietor of Wallace's, who spoke briefly.

The models were a picture of loveliness as they paraded to a prettily decorated arch on the platform at the centre of the hall where they pivoted, then continued to a larger platform at the end of the hall. There, their costumes were displayed against a mirror background, encircled with baskets of roses. Lighting effects were cleverly designed to enhance the harmony of the displays. Unusual musical effects were achieved by Mrs. J. C. Gilker with a solovox which created a wide range of musical effects in addition to piano. Models advanced to piano music, and retired to organ strains which lent rich variety to the effect. Mrs. Gilker also played two solo numbers.

Interspersed through the various sections of the show were musical numbers. Mrs. George Sendall, vocal soloist, sang "What's In the Air Today?", "Little Irish Girl" and, as the wedding procession formed at the bridal arch, "I'll Walk Beside You." Vaughan Tattersall contributed violin solos. Both were accompanied by Mrs. Gilker at the piano.

A feature of the program was the dancing of five pupils of Mrs. Mavis Colclough's dancing class, daintily costumed, their efforts were widely applauded. The dancers were Sonja Berg, Janice Taylor, Anna Colussi, Jackie Gustafson and Elsa Insuander.

Heading the bridal group which was costumed by Rupert Peoples Store, was Miss Ruth Jordan, gowned in a white satin model gown with veil. Bridesmaid Marie Boulter was gowned in heavy pink taffeta with shoulder veil and elbow-length gloves. Bridesmaid Margaret Brain was attired in a blue taffeta gown with shoulder veil and elbow-length gloves.

Footwear for the models was displayed through courtesy of Brownwoods. Committee in charge of general arrangements consisted of Mrs. Alex Barbe, Mrs. H. V. Tattersall and Mrs. George Howe. Decorating committee consisted of Mrs. Thomas Priest, Mrs. G. F. Petersen and Miss Betty Hood. Refreshments, which were served to the entertainers and models at the conclusion of the show, were arranged by Mrs. William McLeod and Mrs. L. McLean.

To Increase His Cabinet
Speculation As to New Members of British Columbia Government
VICTORIA @—Premier, Byron

Johnson introduced in the Legislature yesterday afternoon an amendment to the Constitution Act which would permit the enlarging of the cabinet to twelve full-time members. At present it consists of eight members. Attorney-General Gordon Wismer wants to divest himself of the Labor portfolio. The C.C.F. has asked for a full-time Labor department on the grounds that Wismer's duties as attorney-general detract from an efficient labor administration.

Hon. George S. Pearson, who has announced that he is retiring from public life, also has two portfolios — provincial secretary and minister of health and welfare. Speculation has followed the introduction of the amendment but appointments are not expected until after an election. Ald. K. Gervin, prominent Vancouver Labor man, has been mentioned as a possible minister of labor. Air Vice-Marshal Leigh F. Stevenson, Point Grey, is said unofficially to be in line for one cabinet post.

"In regard to the initial cost, I don't think you have anything to fear from British equipment. A large part of the cost of manufacture is in labor and British wage scales are much lower than over here."

Mr. Langland said that his company could guarantee delivery within 18 months and that because of the British need for dollars, parts and supplies depots for equipment are being set up in Canada.

In answer to a question by Alderman Casey as to the practicability of operating an automatic system with "less than 6,000 or 7,000 subscribers, Mr. Scowcroft said that automatic

THE NEW 1949 PONTIAC was shown to 1000 people in Civic Centre last night. Shown here is the Streamliner four-door sedan, on 120-inch wheelbase with a six or eight-cylinder engine. Completely redesigned, the 1949 Pontiac offers an entirely new concept of functional beauty. They are wider and lower than any model yet offered in the Pontiac line.

AUTO SHOW ATTRACTS ADMIRING CROWD OF THOUSAND CIVIC CENTRE

Doug Frizzell, assisted by his staff of Long Motors, welcomed a thousand or more interested friends at the spacious auditorium of the Civic Centre last night on the occasion of the first full-scale automobile show which has been held not only in Prince Rupert but anywhere in British Columbia since the war.

The display, attractively arranged on the floor of the big assembly hall, featured four of the brand new 1949 streamline Silver Streak Pontiacs and one Chevrolet Aero Sedan.

By opening time at 7:30 a large crowd had gathered and for three-and-a-half hours after the venerable George Frizzell had cut the ribbon at the auditorium door in the formality of the evening, the interested visitors circulated through the hall to inspect the five beautiful vehicles. They were the admiratory cyonure of all and, doubtless, many a possessive impression was resolved.

The five cars, so that the surprise of the initial reviewing might be complete had been quietly delivered to the auditorium by dead of night and, before the show opened, not half a dozen people had seen them.

Parts and accessories were also on display and the whole floor scene was an attractive one. Baskets of flowers adorned the floors and from the ceiling were suspended stik banners with appropriate texts. Around the walls were General Motors signs and emblems.

From the spacious stage, the backdrop of which was emblazoned with the single big letters "G. M.", the Shrine Club's Prince Rupert City Band under the leadership of Peter Lien, dispensed an excellent program of incidental music of the lighter and spirited type.

The Pontiacs were two four-door sedans, one two-door town sedan and one two-door aero sedan.

The visitors to the show found in the new 1949 Pontiac a completely restored motor car with new concepts of functional beauty distinguished by ultra-styled over-all pattern.

The Fleetleader Series offer (Special or Deluxe) sport coupe, 2-door sedan, 4-door sedan, 2-door sedan coupe, 4-door sedan coupe and business coupe (Special only) with the six-cylinder engine.

IT'S A HEAVY DATE—to keep from overtaxing the nerves, this young lady suggests that Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Public get going right away on their income tax reports. Even if they use the short form, it won't be long now—April 30, to be exact, is the last day for filing.

Mrs. E. Campbell, who has been visiting here with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Large, is sailing tonight on the Prince Rupert enroute back to her home in Toronto.

A thirty-three per-cent-increase in glass area in the 1949 Pontiacs is distributed so that both driver and passengers have added vision. The new, curved windshield is 30 per cent larger than in 1948.

The rear window is nearly twice as large as before.

The six-cylinder Pontiac engine offers 90 horse-power and the eight-cylinder offers 104 horse-power.

Engineering refinements featured in the new Pontiacs are roller type front seat adjustments, rear shock absorber shields, sturdier steering column to increase stability and safety engine mountings. The single new Chevrolet was view-

The 1949 Pontiac interiors offer generous elbow room, leg room and head room. Because front seats are two and one-half inches wider and windshield width increased five and one-half inches, the steering wheel has been moved out two inches farther from the center of the car, thus giving ample room for the driver and additional space for the front seat passengers.

Entrance room has been substantially increased to provide comfortable access to front and rear compartments.

Instrument and controls are grouped directly in front of the driver and centred on the steering column. Dials of all instruments are recessed and tilted to the driver's line of vision. A new push-button starter switch is mounted on the dash to the left of the steering column. The

Is it your breakfast that's wrong?

GALS EVERYWHERE—look this message over. It's built on plain but important facts. Something for your good. How your folks can benefit.

Why Breakfast is Specially Important to YOU

A good breakfast gets you off to a good start for the day. Hard work ahead? At home? At business? Take the nutritionist's tip. (They know.) For mental alertness, getting things done, that first meal of the day is important. Why? Because, for those who eat no breakfast or a poor one, results are fatigue, irritability, lessened efficiency.

Why Grape-Nuts is a Special Breakfast Cereal

Just two tablespoons of delicious Grape-Nuts provide the cereal share of a good breakfast. Golden kernels of whole wheat and malted barley... good... good... good. Fine food values too, because of useful quantities of carbohydrates, proteins, minerals you need. Grand flavour-lift with milk or cream. Grape-Nuts help you to healthful, economical breakfasts.

"Galt" Gal says "Mighty Handy"

"I find Post's Grape-Nuts mighty handy" writes a young lady from Galt, "not only for breakfast, but in all kinds of blance-manges and as toppings for cream pies."

Q. Is it correct to address a wedding invitation to "Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Wilton and Family"?

A. No; the words "and Family" are no longer used. An invitation should be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Wilton, and a separate invitation to each member of the family.

Q. I have noticed some people take a heaping teaspoonful of ice cream and then make several mouthfuls of it. Is this correct?

A. No; only enough ice cream for one mouthful should be taken at one time on the spoon.

Looking Back in SPORT

On an October afternoon back in 1923 Army and Notre Dame met in Brooklyn at Ebbets Field in an historic American football game.

It was in this game that the name, "The Four Horsemen," received its subconscious birth, to find life a year later. On a certain play Notre Dame's four flying backs came sweeping from the backfield around Army's left end. The interference was headed by Harry Stuhldreher at quarter, Elmer Layden and Don Miller were part of the speedy compact attack with Jimmy Crowley carrying the ball. They had picked up twelve yards on the play before Crowley was finally forced out of bounds.

A year later Notre Dame swung into action against another ly, and picked up pace as they moved along.

It isn't often that you hear of a 162-pound fullback on a team called upon to meet the country's best. But that was Elmer Layden's weight. Layden was no fullback to hit the line like a bludgeon. He was more the rapier type that struck with drizzly swiftness and held his feet as well as any 200-pound fullback you might see in action. Layden had run the 100 in less than 10 seconds, but it was his fast-lightning start that found even a half opening before it could ever close. Above all else he was the main point of danger against any hostile pass. Elmer proved this against a powerful Stanford team in the Rose Bowl of 1925.

The star in this big Stanford squad was big, blonde Ernie Nevers, one of the best of all time. Nevers, weighing 200 pounds, was the vital factor in the Stanford attack. But what both Pop Warner and Ernie Nevers overlooked was the speed and agility of Layden's forward pass defense. No matter where Ernie Nevers threw the ball in that Rose Bowl tilt, there was Elmer Layden on the wing, under the ball and on his way for touchdown runs. Layden was a pass-intercepting centipede that sunny afternoon in Pasadena as he covered almost every square yard of the defensive field.

Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen" might not have been the best backfield that football has ever seen. They lacked the offensive power and crash of Rockne's 1930 squad that knew Carideo, Savoldi, Schwartz and Marty Brill. They may not have been as good as Notre Dame's 1943 outfit with Creighton Miller, Bob Kelly and Bertelli—or the fast, powerful Army delegation of 1944 with Blanchard, Davis, Hall and Kenna. Not to overlook an old Carlisle avalanche that carried Thorpe, Calac and Guyon. But certainly, pound for pound, they stand alone. They had no need for any sheer power. When you consider such assets as speed, brains, heart, alertness and rhythm, they had no equal.

After graduation Layden, Crowley and Stuhldreher all became successful coaches at Notre Dame, Fordham, Michigan State, Villanova, Wisconsin and Carnegie Tech, while Don Miller stuck to the law to find his place as a judge in Cleveland.

A WEEKLY INFORMATION SERVICE
MONTREAL, March 24—The history of food preparation is the happy story of constant simplification of meal preparation. That, and the improving of flavour enjoyment. And one of the most wonderful developments in the world of food is SHIRRIFF'S GINGERBREAD MIX! Its truly delicious — tastes even better than the gingerbread grandma was so proud of — but unlike grandma's gingerbread, you don't have to buy a lot of ingredients — flour — eggs — spices — they're all there! You don't have hours of work with a lot of clearing away and washing up! All you do is add water to Shirriff's Gingerbread Mix and then pop it into the oven. It's so easy! Once you've "discovered" Shirriff's Gingerbread Mix — you'll never want to go back to the fuss of making gingerbread — none of the fuss!

How Can A Breakfast Cereal Be So Smoo-oth? I don't know how they make "CREAM OF WHEAT" so lusciously "creamy"... but I'd suggest that you try it for yourself and see what folks mean when they say "It's so smoo-oth!" Truly delicious! And 5 Minute "Cream of Wheat" is so very easy to prepare. It cooks to complete digestibility — even for baby — in just five minutes of boiling. It's good for you, too... for 5 Minute "Cream of Wheat" contains blood-enriching Iron, and provides extra Calcium and Phosphorus for diets deficient in these elements. That's why it's such a good idea to make a family habit of smoo-oth "Cream of Wheat"!

Cool March Sunshine shows up winter-soiled fabrics rather disconcertingly. Fire is a good friend of the gardener in cleaning-up and getting ready for the new season but, like all drastic remedies, it can also be abused.

Now is the time to get all old weeds, brush and dry grass cleared away and burned. While some of this may rot into humus, if handled properly, the dryer stuff takes a long time to disintegrate and usually it contains a lot of weed seeds that are best destroyed.

Where at all possible burning should be done where the ashes can be worked into the soil. These ashes contain a little potash which is one of the essential fertilizer materials. A good supply of the same can be obtained when the ashes from the fireplace, especially where hardwood is burned, are spread over the soil. Coal ashes, on the other hand, have not much value as a fertilizer but they will help open up heavy soil.

For the Compost Heap—
Later on when growth starts, green weeds, leaves and other trash, should all be piled up in a corner of the garden, covered with a few layers of soil and, if obtainable, some manure. If watered occasionally and perhaps treated with some of the special humus-making chemicals this material will break down rapidly and make the finest sort of garden soil. Most experts regard the compost pile as an essential part of their gardens. Almost anything that will rot can be incorporated. Where the pile is larger it can be screened with some quick-growing annuals or some permanent shrubbery.

Miniature Greenhouses—
In recent years there have appeared on the market little waxed paper cups. In shape and size these resemble the old-fashioned straw hat or "cow breakfast." By using them the gardener can get a fortnight to a month start with such things as melons, tomatoes, cabbage, and other tender plants that normally cannot be set outside until all danger of frost is over. Little beds about a foot across are made, the seeds sown or the plants set out and then the whole is covered with the paper cap, anchored fast with a bit of soil or a stone or two. In these beds too can be planted very early a bit of lettuce or a few radishes. The paper cap acts as a greenhouse, protecting from late and even severe frosts, and pushing growth along weeks ahead of normal.

Something Will Grow—
No matter how unfavorable the location there is some flower vegetable or shrub that will thrive in it. Some flowers, vegetables and certain varieties of grass actually prefer shade, some want acid soil rather than sweet, some like heavy clay better than loam or sand. The thing in planning is to consider these special likes and dislikes, then to select those plants that suit one's special location.

Most vegetables, however, are pretty keen on a generous amount of sun, but they have distinct likes and dislikes in the matter of soil. For deep-rooted carrots, potatoes, etc., it is important that the soils be fairly loose at least a foot down. Certain types prefer sandy soil to clay. But no matter what the soil is to start with a little planning and care one can change it fairly easily.

STEWART MOOSE WOMEN'S MEET

STEWART—The semi-monthly meeting of the Women of the Moose, Chapter 16, held in the Moose Home on Thursday, March 17th, witnessed the initiation of two new members, Mrs. T. Palmer and Mrs. R. MacLeod. The feature of the evening was a social service and chapter night program under the direction of Mrs. Betty Walker. It was very thoroughly enjoyed by the members and their guests. Senior Regent Wilkinson contributed vocal numbers to the program. Sympathy was extended to Mrs. J. Hutchings at the loss, by fire, of her furnishings.

In addition to the regular program, a shower was tendered to Mrs. J. Hutchings. Food, clothing, kitchen utensils and many other necessary items for the home were contributed by the members of the Chapter and friends. The manner in which everyone in the district contributed in tangible form, was commented on. When these spontaneous gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Hutchings the following day, they were both visibly affected by the kindness of everyone, and expressed their sincere appreciation.

Activity at Stewart expected—Riverside opening soon—Possibly Premier

There is likely to be considerable activity in mining in this district this year. Several partnerships have been made either to reopen and high grade existing properties or to develop other new discoveries.

A. H. Kirby, who was in charge of the Riverside Mine, near Hyder, Alaska, arrived on the Camosun on Monday and proceeded to the mine. It is understood that preparations are being made for the reopening of the mine by the middle of April. Mr. Kirby was accompanied by Mrs. Kirby. Mrs. Kirby was formerly nurse at the Silbak Premier Mines.

There is every likelihood of the Dunwell Mine being opened this year under new ownership. Application has been made to the Department of Mines for assistance in making the Dunwell Road passable for vehicular traffic.

At the moment there is nothing definite as to whether or not the Silbak Premier Mine will reopen in the near future but the hope is still entertained here that it will open in the early spring. Meanwhile the Department of Public Works is continuing its efforts towards opening up the road to the mine. The road has been broken to within two and one half miles of the property. Mr. Hunger, who is in charge at the mine, states that snow is going rapidly.
