Strike Settlement

MONTREAL (CP)—Settlement has been reached between dock and engineer unions and ship companies in the six-day strike which held up Canadian shipping on both coasts. Details are available later. The men had a contract for war wages.

Warning Of Communism

Representative of Canadian Chamber of Commerce Here. Ekroyd of Montreal, representative of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, in today after a tour of Prince Rupert which he had over 8,000 miles, expressed his gratification at the hospitality extended to him everywhere he went. Mr. Ekroyd defines the functions of the chamber of commerce as a group of citizens who themselves together for the good of the city—and defend its activities should be.

Ekroyd arrived in the Saturday night's train, where he met the Board of Trade. He had a luncheon with the Prince Rupert Board of Commerce today. He will leave on tonight's train for Prince George and the Cariboo.

IMMIGRANT TOO? It is a popular theory that the American Indian originally from Asia to the Behring Strait because there is so much similarity between the Eskimos on both the strait and the Indian.

COMMUNIST-CALLED STRIKE IN ITALY
ROME (CP)—A country-wide Communist-called general strike went off as ordered in Italy today morning. First reports, however, indicated that work stoppage fell far short of achieving the general paralysis predicted by the instigators, the Communist General Confederation of Labor (CGIL).

Strike was called in protest of the slaying of thirty-five labor leaders during the war years. There were some terroristic acts in the south where it is reported two persons were killed and twenty-two injured. Some street cars and buses were open, employees ignoring the strike call. Government officials said they were working normally. However, were idle.

New Traffic In Alaska Lumber To Start At Prince Rupert

A brand new shipping operation taking practical advantage of Prince Rupert's position as the strategically economical port where rail and water meet for Alaska is being inaugurated this week. Its continuation and development will depend to some extent at least on the coast aspect of handling the transshipment through here.

BULLETINS

PALESTINE TRUCE?
NEW YORK—The United States today stepped up its determined drive for a truce in Palestine. Everyone, except Andrei Gromyko, is expected to attend a meeting of the security council in a supreme effort to reach a peace.
LEWIS TO TRIAL
WASHINGTON—Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough today ordered John L. Lewis to face trial Wednesday on contempt of court charges. Despite settlement of the twenty-nine day old stoppage, Goldsborough holds Lewis has not purged himself of the contempt charges.

LEAFS WIN
DETROIT—Toronto Maple Leafs defeated Detroit Red Wings 2-0 Sunday night, taking a three to nothing game lead in the best of seven final series for the Stanley Cup. In Toronto Saturday night the Maple Leafs won the second game 4 to 2. The series resumes here Wednesday night.

MORE RED HOLD-UP
VIENNA—Official British sources said Sunday night that new Soviet restrictions had brought highway traffic between the British zone of Austria and Vienna to a virtual standstill.

DRY WEATHER BRINGS FIRES
A week of dry weather caused the city fire department to answer calls to two brush fires and a roof fire at the week-end. All three were put out before damage was done.
At 12:30 p.m. Saturday, the firemen put out a blaze on the roof of the residence of Syd Alexander, 1162 Beach Place, after a small area of shingles had been burned. A spark is believed to have set the tinder-dry roof ablaze.
An hour later the department truck rushed to Comox Avenue where a grass fire was blazing merrily. It was put out before it spread to nearby buildings.
A second grass fire occurred at 9:30 Sunday night on Fourth Avenue West. This also was put out speedily.
Children were believed by Fire Chief Lock to be responsible for both grass fires.

MECHANICAL WEAVER
The shuttle of a loom weaving a carpet 15 feet wide travels a total distance of three miles within one hour, making about 1,000 trips carrying yarn across the width of the loom.

Sees Rupert Alaska Port
Not only will southeastern Alaska take advantage of a great saving in shipping charges through using the port of Prince Rupert instead of Seattle as the rail entry point for the United States once the Jones Act is repealed or statehood is granted Alaska but so will western Alaska. "By using the port of Prince Rupert we could save 15c on every dollar in transportation charges between Anchorage and such cities as St. Paul and Minneapolis in the Middle West," declared William (Bill) Ward, Anchorage paint dealer and enthusiastic business man of what in recent years has mushroomed into Alaska's most populous city, who spent the week-end in Prince Rupert.
Expecting that Prince Rupert may soon be playing a very important part in the Alaskan transportation set-up, Mr. Ward explained that he had come here especially to look the port over and make contacts. While here he conferred with officials of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce and local transportation concerns. Mr. Ward said he was impressed with the fine people here who, in addition to being hospitable and courteous, were certainly on their toes as far as working and boosting for Prince Rupert is concerned.
Mr. Ward has been strongly advocating the repeal of the Board of Trade On New Steamer

Canadian National Steamship's fine new coastal liner, now nearing completion of construction at Victoria, may be seen in Prince Rupert even earlier than June 21 when she is scheduled to be here on her initial voyage in the Alaska service. According to reports from Vancouver, the Board of Trade of that city is negotiating to charter the vessel for a goodwill cruise to north coast and Alaska points, reviving what some years ago was an annual Vancouver Board of Trade feature. The only question now appears to be whether or not the Prince George will be ready in time for such a trip.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION

Departmental Official and Union Leader do Not See Eye to Eye on New Salmon Restrictions

VANCOUVER—While George J. Alexander, deputy minister of fisheries for British Columbia, said at Victoria that the multi-million dollar salmon canning industry of the province would be saved by the embargo, Homer Stevens, secretary of the United Fishermen's and Allied Workers' Union, said that the reimposition of export restrictions on "raw" salmon will be a "definite blow" to British Columbia fishermen.
Fishermen may export unrestricted quantities of raw spring salmon to the United States and exports of raw coho will be permitted until September 1 but sockeye, pinks and chums will be retained in Canada.
Stevens said the new order is a selective restriction and, in effect, permits only salmon canners to sell to the United States.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
A storm centre developing over interior British Columbia is resulting in cloudy to overcast skies over the entire province. Snow flurries are general over the northern half of the province and rain showers are reported along the coast. Snow is expected to spread to the southern interior during the day as the storm moves south-eastward. Some clearing is expected along the northern coast tonight in the wake of the storm. Otherwise there will be little change in conditions.

Forecast
Prince Rupert, Queen Charlottes and North Coast—Clear tonight and tomorrow, northern section, and cloudy, southern section. Winds light, becoming northerly (15 m.p.h.) by evening. Colder tonight, northern section, with little change in temperature elsewhere. Lows tonight and highs Tuesday—At Port Hardy 35 and 45, Massett, 32 and 43, Prince Rupert 30 and 45.

Jones Act so that Alaska might be released from her transportation fetters but he now thinks that the salvation of the territory will come through statehood, early granting of which he anticipates. With statehood, the Jones Act would become inoperative. He pictures a situation between Alaska and Prince Rupert and Northern British Columbia such as that which exists between the state of Maine and Eastern Canada where shipping moves freely whether they be American or Canadian vessels.
Mr. Ward said that Anchorage today has a population of 20,000 and, at the rate people are pouring in, there should be 30,000 before the year is over. Establishment of Anchorage as a principal army base was what started Anchorage on its great career of expansion but important industries are now moving in. A plant for the processing of birch wood for use in manufacture of furniture has just been started up and now a large deposit of lignite for use in making of brick is under development.

PREMIER BYRON JOHNSON—Whose first legislative session is nearing end with further verbal action expected in regard to sales tax.

GREAT BRITAIN HONORS F. D. R.

LONDON—Britain's memorial to President Franklin D. Roosevelt was unveiled by his widow and dedicated by the King today on the third anniversary of the wartime President's death. The Stars and Stripes hung side by side in thousands of windows as the King and his people stood at salute in grateful memory of the President.
His Majesty, asking Mrs. Roosevelt to unveil the ten-foot bronze monument, assured her "on behalf of the peoples of the whole British Commonwealth" that they would regard it as a fitting memorial to "a great man and a great friend."

CAPITAL CITY OF BOGOTA IN CHAOS OF RUIN; MORE THAN 300 ARE DEAD

Diplomatic Relations With Russia Broken Off After Communist Conspirators Are Arrested

BOGOTA (CP)—Situation in this capital was still critical today after revolutionary riots which killed three hundred persons, smashed at least 1000 stores, set ablaze forty major buildings and damaged many fine churches. The problem of getting food and other supplies moved is serious with transportation in a snarl. The situation is improved slightly, however, from virtual anarchy which prevailed for a time.
Army troops are on patrol with orders to shoot looters on sight.
Rescue squads are picking up corpses amid heaps of rubble ten feet high.
All authority has been vested in the army under martial law.

ARABS TAKE KASTEL BACK

Official Jewry Denies Responsibility for Massacre—Would Take Truce

JERUSALEM—Counter-attacking Arabs Sunday night recaptured Kastel in an assault against the Jewish garrison there, the British Army reported.
Meantime Hagana Jewish Agency, which is ready to accept a truce, denies responsibility for the reported massacre of 250 Arabs, many women and children, in a village near Kastel, blaming it on Irgun Zeumi and the Stern Gang. The Arabs are threatening reprisals.

Big Miners' Strike Off

WASHINGTON D. C.—John L. Lewis today told 400,000 striking coal miners that their pensions had been granted. This is the signal which is expected will end the four weeks' old soft coal strike.
Lewis sent out the word after accepting a tentative pension plan, proposing $100 a month for miners sixty-two years old who have served twenty years in the industry and who retired after May 28, 1946.
Lewis had demanded a $100 pension for miners sixty years old.

PROTESTING AT SALES TAX

VANCOUVER—British Columbians, faced with a $12,000,000 increase in the cost of living under the new three percent retail sales tax, Saturday voiced protests.
The protests came from merchants, restaurant owners, the man on the street and housewives.

Directors of the Retail Merchants' Association met Saturday to plan a province-wide increase in prices if the government fails to allow more expenses for collecting the tax. George Mathews, Retail Merchants' secretary, declared that "the merchants will refuse to absorb the loss on collecting the tax and setting up the necessary records" if the reported two or three percent of the collections is to be the full remuneration.

VANCOUVER HAS FIRE IN HOTEL

VANCOUVER—Alertness of a night clerk is credited with saving the lives of 200 persons early Sunday when fire broke out in the beer parlor of the downtown St. Regis Hotel on Dunsmuir at Seymour Street, causing damage of $25,000.
Night clerk Archie Currie turned in the alarm and roused guests in 120 rooms. The night-attired people filed out without panic.
The fire started from a cigarette in upholstery.

MARKETS THREATENED BY INCREASE IN FREIGHTS, MILLS LOOKING HERE

The 21 percent freight rates increase on the railways may not be an altogether ill wind for Prince Rupert, even though it does pose a serious problem for the shipping of lumber from sawmills of the central interior. Already eastern agents have ordered shipments withheld following the increase in rates.
With the industry thus facing a serious threat, the Smithers and District Chamber of Commerce has gone on record as favoring investigation into the possible use of the port of Prince Rupert as a shipping point for lumber to obtain the benefits of lower waterborne rates. Support of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia is being sought.

New Business

AFTER YEARS OF TALK and advocacy about the strategic advantage which Prince Rupert has to offer as the logical port connecting Alaska by rail with the United States, it is satisfactory to see this week that something more, real and substantial, is happening about it. This is the inauguration, as referred to in our news columns today, of a tug and barge service which will bring at regular intervals of possibly about ten days some half a million or more feet of spruce lumber from a large Juneau sawmill to this port for bonded shipment by rail from here to the Eastern States.

It is easy to picture that this may be but the starting of a very large volume of traffic in another of Alaska's important natural products. We are all familiar with the large utilization of this port in the handling of Alaska fish products for transshipment to the United States, a business which has increased greatly in volume even in recent years. Possibilities of expansion of the lumber traffic may be even greater, even to the point of taxing our facilities to handle it.

So the initial shipment of Juneau lumber due here tomorrow is something of more than usual significance.

Canadian National Railways officials are known to have been active in connection with lining up the organization for this new traffic for their Prince Rupert line and, while for some reason or other they have been rather chary about saying much about it, we think they are deserving of some commendation for getting the business.

BOLIVIA'S REVOLUTION

WITH THE SOVIET Fifth Column obviously active throughout the world, it is quite believable that the bloody leftist revolution in Bogota, Bolivia's capital, was Communist-engineered and, as suggested from Asuncion, Paraguayan capital, where a similar coup was put down, timed for the occasion of the Pan-American conference. No doubt it was a part of the present "cold" war which the Soviet is waging upon the United States. Of course, this time it was not so cold. It was a hot war, in perfect keeping with the Russian campaign to foment civil wars and keep countrymen fighting with countrymen, brothers fighting with brothers, and the field well broken for the sowing of treacherous seeds of Russian Imperialism in the doubtful garb of Communism which some people, who know nothing about it and are actuated by propaganda, still think is good.

South America, which lent itself to Fascist philosophy could be expected to also be tempting ground for the Communists, equally as clever and equally as cunning.

No doubt, the Communists in Canada would try the same thing on but, fortunately, they are not strong enough, to date at least, to dare.

INFALLIBILITY OF JUDGES

COMPLAINT has been made by a federal cabinet minister that press criticism of the judiciary may weaken respect for the administration of law and bring the judiciary into contempt.

The minister, Mr. Isley, seems to proclaim, by implication, a new doctrine, the infallibility of judges, and to threaten with excommunication all editors who do not subscribe to it.

Even the judges, whatever may be their private opinions, have not gone so far as to proclaim their infallibility. Members of the bar, when they lose a case, do not invariably praise the judge for his legal acumen, while behind the courteous language in which a court of appeal reverses the judgment of a lower court one may sometimes discern an opinion of the trial judge's ability that is not essentially different from that expressed privately by the lawyers who brought the appeal.

Life might be a little simpler if there were infallible judges, whose decrees would be accepted without criticism by everyone. For practical purposes, the highest court of appeal before which a case can be brought must be treated as the ultimate repository of wisdom and justice. According to circumstances, this may be a provincial supreme court, the supreme court of Canada or the judicial committee of the Privy Council. Mr. Isley's doctrine does not take account of the fact that infallibility must be considered to be variable, if it is to conform with the reality of current practice.

Accepting the infallibility of judges, one must take a further step, the infallibility of the person who appointed them, whether it be Mr. Isley or one of his predecessors. Can Mr. Isley conscientiously maintain that all his predecessors shared with him in the divine gift?

The subject leads into fascinating bypaths of metaphysics, but none that leads directly towards a slavish worship of the judiciary. In fact, it may be concluded that the judiciary owes the general respect in which it is held to a general endeavor by its members to deserve it. To forbid criticism of a judge who appears to be in error would not assist in maintaining the public's regard for what he represents.

LETTERBOX

JUST DUST

Editor, Daily News:
Between coughings and sneezings I take this opportunity of expressing my appreciation for your editorial "How About This Dust?" which was by no means "dusty" even though it was literally covered by Prince Rupert's Third Avenue. . . . And in further comment I beg to submit the following:

He who hath 'dust' to criticize the dust . . .
The 'danged' dust we all do tread
Through morning, noon and night; and thereby Helplessly help to dust the dust
That whimsical weather
Hurts and swirls almost unto our soul!

For years, Prince Rupert's cried for sunshine
A respite from its weather's rain
Yet now we hear, "Wait! one once,"
When it doth rain and the whole day's rainy
The dust will set, "Yah shure, by yim'ny!"

Complacent that it will rain again
Thus causing the dust to "sit down" again
"Why shure, it yust be yust t' ting; yah?"
Or, shure as do the fish, do come again,
With clouds of dust we'll be dusted again
Till all that's not just dust in us
IS dust, DUST, DUST!

BIG SEASON FOR JASPER

JASPER—Harold Gunning, recently appointed manager of Jasper Park Lodge has arrived here to commence his season's work. Mr. Gunning, who has been assistant manager for several years, is well known to guests who have visited the Lodge from all parts of Canada and the United States.

"The coming summer would appear to be one of the busiest in the history of Jasper Park Lodge," he said on arrival. "Dozens and dozens of our regular guests have renewed reservations for this year and our big trouble is to find enough accommodation for those who wish to come."

"We will open the Lodge on June 11 to accommodate the annual meeting of the Canadian Feed Manufacturers and we expect a large number of guests to check in when the Lodge officially opens on June 15."

"The Canadian Rockies will attract great attention from all parts of the continent this year and Jasper will play a big part in assisting Canada's tourist problem," said Mr. Gunning.

Mrs. Ross Richardson returned on Saturday night's train from Montreal where she attended the funeral of her uncle, Dr. T. E. Donnelly.

TERRACE SCHOOL BOARD MEETING

TERRACE—At the regular school board meeting last Tuesday evening, the most important item dealt with, other than routine business, was the consideration of the number of new pupils that could be expected at the beginning of the fall term. All beginners reaching the age of six years by the end of September must be registered at the school board office before July 1 in order that the school board may know if an additional teacher will be needed at Terrace at the beginning of the fall term.

Another item was a proposal that school grounds be fitted with a number of pieces of playing equipment for the children. The action of the school board was to establish these items at the various schools along the line where they have not such equipment.

Report of the various committees—education, transportation, buildings, grounds and finance—showed that the educational program is proceeding satisfactorily.

Plans for new buildings and alteration of present buildings are being proceeded with as rapidly as possible.

How jet propulsion creates employment for Canadians

The principle of the gas turbine has long been known but its most recent application to the jet engine is one of the sensational developments of our time. One of the main problems in these engines is to get metals to stand up under the intense heat and stresses involved.

Development work on the gas turbine is now world-wide. Much progress in design and development has already been carried out in Canada.

To stand up under the terrific stresses at high temperatures, the important parts of turbines, blowers and combustion chambers in the gas turbine are being made of Inconel, Stainless Steel and other Nickel alloys. Without such heat-resisting metals, these new type engines would not be possible.

The International Nickel Company is co-operating to the fullest extent with the technicians who are developing these new engines, and placing all their technical knowledge regarding Nickel alloys at their disposal.

When these new engines are brought into volume production thousands of Canadians will be employed in making this entirely new source of power available to industry and transportation. This and numerous other present-day developments will provide new markets for Canadian Nickel, and so provide jobs for the thousands of men employed in the Canadian Nickel industry. Thus does research develop better products, create more employment.

GEORGE CONNELL PASSES AWAY

George Connell, a veteran of the First World War and a retired miner and prospector, was found dead in his home at 533
Eighth Avenue West Saturday evening by the city police who entered the house through a window after the neighbors had reported that the 69-year-old man had not been seen for two days.

Constable Jack White of the city police department found Mr.
Connell lying on the kitchen floor where he had apparently collapsed and died. He had been badly wounded and gassed overseas in the First World War.

A resident of Prince Rupert
since 1939, deceased came here from Atlin where he had been a miner for a number of years.
In 1943 and 1944 he worked for ment on patrol boats but since that time he had suffered ill health.

Mr. Connell was born in Eastern Canada in 1878 and served overseas with the First Battalion, C.E.F. Following the war
he lived at Atlin.
He was unmarried and had no known relatives.

ALL-STARS OFF FOR SOUTHERN HOOP TOURNEY

Led by Coach Alex Bill, ten Prince Rupert all-star basketball players are leaving tonight on the Princess Adelaide for Port Alberni, where they will meet the west coast Island team for the British Columbia senior "B" hoop finals on Thursday and Friday nights.

The team, elected by a vote a week ago of all-star players, will be accompanied by at least six supporters whose enthusiasm for the game has inspired them to take a week off for the southern trip.

Alex Bill, whose coaching of Booth Memorial High School games has resulted in an impressive list of victories, is replacing Art Murray, regular all-star coach who is too ill to make the trip.

Port Alberni took the southern B.C. senior "B" championship a month ago when they defeated Kamloops in the finals. The Prince Rupert team, northern challengers for the provincial
"B" title, demanded and finally received the right to meet the southern winners. They based their claims mainly on their record against visiting southern teams.

The team will arrive in Port Alberni Thursday afternoon, playing the first game of the two-game total-point series Thursday night. The second game will be played Friday night.
The team will return to Vancouver Saturday and board the northbound Princess Adelaide for home.

All star players are Sonny
Beynon, Angus Macphee, Herb Morgan, Don Fitch, Jack Lindsay, Sev Dominato, Jim Forman.

Joe Davis, Mel Holkestad and Rupert Holkestad. Among their supporters will be Dave Macphee,
Neil Macdonald, Al Jackson,
George Howe and Angus Mc-Donald.

You never save until you start

Most of us have a savings account.
But to make it really mean something calls for planned saving... and a strong mind. One way is to work toward what you want most: a new home, a car, an education for your children, the extra security or opportunity that a "nest egg" provides... Savings can mean so many things... The important thing is to start... and to put aside so much a week—every week.
Remember, some are born lucky; smart people save.

SHORT SPORT

Maureen Gardner, 15, Britain's champion woman hurdler, is to make a third attempt in May to convince the Women's Amateur Athletic Association she has beaten the British 80 metres hurdles record of 11.8 seconds. Her first attempt was disallowed because of a following wind, her second because the track was four inches short. Mrs. Dorette Neal, an official of the Midland Counties' W.A.A.A., said, "we shall do our very best to make sure nothing goes wrong this time."

W. E. Ward of Basingstoke, Hampshire, England, offers his own snooker achievement to compare with Joe Davis' perfect end-of-game colors clearance. Ward's opponent took the last red, but left Ward the yellow—and the remaining balls to pot in the Davis manner. "Not a bad performance," Ward commented. "I shall be 80 next month."

Ketchikan Takes Main Event In Canadian Legion Boxing Card

HOWEVER, BOTH CITIES SHARE EQUALLY IN PRELIMINARY RESULTS

Billy Hamilton, Ketchikan 132-pounder, took the decision over Pat Johnson of Terrace in the Canadian Legion's international boxing card Saturday night at the Civic Centre but in the long list of preliminaries both cities shared about equally in the decisions. A crowd of more than 600 witnessed the show.

Outweighed by four pounds, 15-year-old Johnson showed excellent speed and form but was outpointed by the rangier, faster Ketchikan lad who carried the fight through the greater part of its three rounds.

Undoubtedly the best bout of the evening was the semi-wind-up between Bobby Scharff, 145, of Prince Rupert and Jimmy Zaugh, 145, of Ketchikan. Although it ended in a draw decision, the fans thought otherwise, favoring the Prince Rupert fighter.

Taking the initiative, Scharff set a terrific pace at the start and was able to maintain it for two rounds but in the third round he obviously became tired and Zaugh moved in to make up points that he had lost earlier in the bout. If Scharff had been able to maintain his pace, he would have taken the decision.

Some of the most pleasing fighting of the evening was done by the series of "paperweights" who opened the card. These lads, aged between 10 and 12, put on displays that warmed the hearts of both the fans and their trainers. They showed no fear and bored in after each other with vigor that was lacking in some of the more canny older fighters.

First of the three-round decision fights, between Ray Davidson, of Prince Rupert, and Ray Meyers, of Ketchikan, ended in a draw. The second bout between Bobby Vincent, 80, of Ketchikan, and Gordon Brain, of Prince Rupert, saw the Ketchikan lad take a decision in a moving encounter.

Jordan Smith 82 pounds, took a decision from Dick Maddox, 90, of Ketchikan. This bout saw the flyweight Prince Rupert former Golden Gloves contender in good form. Although just in his teens, Jordan is a ring veteran of several years standing and he put on a show of exceptionally good quality.

In the 100-pound class, Ketchikan's Lawrence Marks won the decision from Bill Stacey, of Prince Rupert, in three fast rounds.

Billy Whalen, of Prince Rupert, stocky, forceful 120-pounder, lost the decision to Alf Berry, same weight, of Ketchikan in one of the best of the earlier battles of the card. Whalen was out-reached by his rangier opponent but kept boring in steadily.

A draw decision, which displeased the fans, was awarded in the fight between Duane Vincent, of Ketchikan, and Sandy Hamilton, of Prince Rupert. Hamilton carried the initiative throughout the bout and, from the viewpoint of the crowd, the decision was legitimately his. However, the judges felt otherwise.

Tom Fitzgerald, of Ketchikan, and Charlie Place, of Prince Rupert, fought to a draw decision. Fitzgerald weighing 128, outweighed Place by six pounds but otherwise they were evenly matched.

Alvin McKay, 130, Prince Rupert, and Gerry Brenner, 132, of Ketchikan, put on one of the most vigorous shows of the evening, resulting in a decision for the Prince Rupert fighter.

Chuck deKergommeau, 122, of Terrace, also took a decision from Corky Poorman, of Ketchikan.

Walter Carlson, of Prince Rupert, won the decision from Woody Mahoney, of Ketchikan, in the 145-pound class. This was a fight that featured good, clean hitting, especially on Carlson's part, and the decision was well received by the fans.

The card concluded with an exhibition bout between Shorty Contreras and Guy Poorman, both of Ketchikan. It was more of a sparring match than a fight but it served well as a closing feature.

Neil Ross, Civic Centre athletic director, was announcer for the fights while Jack Judge and George Howe were judges. Benny Winkle of Prince Rupert and Ray Benson of Ketchikan were referees. Bob Cameron was timekeeper.

Reminiscences By W.J. and Reflections

You know, there are incidents back years ago when events that defy explanation. For example, why is it a man in a cafe, his nose interred in that day's paper, finally withdraws it and makes a remark to his nearest neighbor. Nine times out of ten, he will say "there's nothing in the sheet anyway." As a matter of fact, the paper is packed with news, but he prefers to say something else. Then giving the paper another casual survey, he carefully pockets it and goes away.

There must be something in the Alaska climate that encourages long life. Tom White, sordough, aged 85, has just taken his first ride by air from Cordova, where he lived for 60 years without going away once, to Seattle. Tom is the same man who saved another Alaskan's life by using whiskey as an internal and external antiseptic, when a hand had to be amputated. Resourceful folks, up north!

The week-end spurt in pugilism brought many a little reminder of the cauliflower industry in Prince Rupert away

FORMER CITY TELEPHONE WORKER DIES

Frederick McLeod, a former employee of the city telephone department and a resident of Prince Rupert for more than 30 years died at his home in Victoria on Saturday, according to word received by friends here at the week-end. He was 62 years old.

Born at Alberton, Prince Edward Island, Mr. McLeod came to Prince Rupert in 1910 and entered the city telephone service. He enlisted in the 48th Battalion at Prince Rupert in 1915 and went overseas, serving in France with the 31st Battalion. He was badly wounded at Ypres in 1916 and never recovered his health.

He returned to the telephone department after the First World War, remaining here until 1941 when ill health forced him to go into retirement. He moved to Victoria.

He was unmarried. His relatives are not known in the city.

J. P. Cross, after a week's visit to his home here, sailed by the Catala Saturday on his return to Bella Bella.

GARDEN NOTEBOOK

Getting Most of Vegetables

It is amazing what production one can get out of even a tiny vegetable garden. A plot 10 feet by 20, with a little planning and double cropping, will yield many meals and at last winter's fancy prices for vegetables the total crop would be worth a really substantial sum.

Of course, in the very small vegetable garden one is wise to forget those bulky or spreading sort of things like potatoes, squash or peas. One should concentrate on beans, carrots, beets, spinach, radish, lettuce. None of these vegetables take up much room. Beans, beets and carrots, for instance, can be grown in rows only a foot apart, and 10 feet of any of them will produce many meals for the average family. With some of the very early things like lettuce, radish and spinach, double cropping can be practised. Plant these in rows, say, 18 inches apart, with rows of the later things—beets, beans, carrots, parsnips, etc., in between. Long before the last named are full-grown the first will be used and out of the way.

Showy and Easily Grown Flowers

An amazing showing can be made with a few annual flowers and with a minimum of effort. Cosmos, giant marigolds, zinnias, petunias, portulaca, nicotiana, calendula, alyssum, nasturtiums, etc., are easily grown. Some of the larger flowers can actually be used in the place of shrubs. Seeds should be started early and in finely prepared soil. Plants are transplanted to permanent quarters when they are well established with several sets of leaves. Ready-started bedding plants can be bought from greenhouse people. For husky growth, cosmos, gladioli, dahlias, giant marigolds and zinnias should have about two feet each way—petunias need about a foot of room.

Will They Grow in Canada?

One reads of lots of beautiful flowers, shrubs and even vegetables that may not do well in Canada. These were developed for the Southern States or England where the climate is milder or the growing season is longer.

It is a waste of money, time and effort in trying to grow them here. Our climate, soil and other conditions are not suitable. To guard against discouragement one is advised to stick to those flowers, shrubs and vegetables that are specially recommended for Canadian conditions. These are the varieties and types listed in any

To Get Top Quality

But planting and spacing the vegetables is only part of the plan. To get top quality, growth must be hurried along. Really tender vegetables are those which are grown fast, that have never known a set-back and are picked when they are at their best and quickly put into the pot or on the table. When a vegetable stops growing for any reason—lack of attention, over-crowding, drought or just plain maturity—they start to turn tough. The

The luxury yacht Corsair, formerly the property of J. Pierpont Morgan, will sail from San Francisco June 18 on a cruise to Alaska, the cruise to conclude at Vancouver June 30. For the rest of the summer Corsair will run between Vancouver, Prince Rupert and Northern B. C. and Alaskan ports. She has accommodation for 85 passengers.

Taking over the Vancouver-Prince Rupert-Stewart route in place of the Coquitlam which is being transferred to the Queen Charlotte Island run, Union steamer Cardena, Capt. John Boden, arrived in port at 11 o'clock last night from the south, sailing early this morning for Alice Arm, Stewart and other northern points. The vessel is due back here tomorrow morning to sail at 1:30 p.m. for Vancouver and waypoints. The Cardena had on board a large number of workers for the Torbrit mine at Alice Arm.

With a capacity list of 118 passengers including Alaskans and Yukoners returning north after spending the winter in the south, C.P.R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. Graham Hughes, arrived in port at 8:45 Sunday morning and sailed just an hour later for Skagway and other Alaska points whence she is due back here Thursday afternoon southbound. After this voyage the Princess Norah will be replaced for the remainder of the spring on the Alaska run by the Princess Louise. Sixteen took passage from here for the north on the Norah, one disembarking at this port.

A meeting was held in Seattle last week, when the business under discussion included the barge service soon to be inaugurated between Prince Rupert and Alaskan ports. At the luncheon, was James Hawthorne, president of the Southeast Alaska Transit Co., a new firm to operate the barges. According to Mr. Hawthorne, this will be under way shortly, with converted L.S.T.'s as barges.

Paying her first visit to the port this year, the Venetta Prince, belonging to Capt. Adolph Prince, well known pioneer halibut skipper of Prince Rupert, and sons, arrived over the week-end. The Venetta Prince is among the vessels

The Experts Say

Salads Still Possible—Fresh fruit and vegetables may be at a premium these days, but if mother is wise she'll see that her family has a daily salad in some form or another.

And grown-ups and children who don't like some vegetables cooked plain, often can be lured into eating them if they are blended with other vegetables and tossed with some favorite mayonnaise or dressing.

Cooked Dressing—Ingredients: three tablespoons butter; three tablespoons flour; one tablespoon sugar; one teaspoon salt; one-quarter teaspoon paprika; one cup milk; one egg; three-quarters cup vinegar.

Combine and cook the first six ingredients the same as for a white sauce. Beat the egg and then gradually add the cooked sauce to the egg, stirring well. Cook until the mixture thickens stirring continually. Add vinegar and cool.

Eggs—Vegetables may be scarce, but here is a salad that requires eggs instead of vegetables as its main ingredient.

Moulded Egg Salad—Ingredients: one tablespoon plain gelatin; one-quarter cup cold water; 1½ cups boiling water; two tablespoons vinegar; one teaspoon salt; hard-cooked eggs, sliced; one tablespoon chopped parsley; three tablespoons chopped pickle; one tablespoon grated onion; one tablespoon chopped pimento.

Soften the gelatin in the cold water. Add boiling water, vinegar and salt. When the gelatin mixture begins to stiffen add the remaining ingredients. Pour into wet moulds and chill. Serve on lettuce leaves and garnish with mayonnaise.

Glamorous Dessert—At dinner the other night the hostess served a dessert so glamorous that she had every one of the women guests begging her for the recipe.

Reluctantly she confessed it was a Jelly Roll Dessert and really quite easy to make.

Ingredients: two raspberry jelly rolls, one butterscotch pudding mixture; one pint whipped cream; maraschino cherries, chopped walnuts.

Line a bowl with wax paper and then line the bowl with thin slices of jelly roll. Fill the bowl with alternate layers of jelly roll and pudding mixture, ending with a layer of jelly roll. Cover with wax paper, then place plate over it and weight it. Let sit for 12-24 hours in a cool place, or refrigerator, before serving. When ready to serve, remove from mould and ice with whipped cream. Garnish with nuts and cherries.

Household Hints—When ironing starched clothes, wax the bottom of the iron to keep free from starch. To remove ink stains from cloth, soak in milk. Salt in the rinsing water will keep clothes from sticking to the clothes line in cold weather.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I overcome a very tired feeling from a hard day's work, when every muscle seems to be sore?

A. Some people find it very effective to add a cup of Epsom salts to the bath water and staying in the bath for about ten minutes before retiring.

Q. How can I remove rust from iron utensils?

A. Rust can be removed from iron by applying kerosene with powered bath brick to give it roughage.

Q. How can I keep bread from sticking to the pan?

A. Heat the pan, then grease it and sprinkle dry meal in the bottom. The same applies to cake, using flour instead of meal.

ECONOMIC SALVATION OF ALASKA IS USE OF PRINCE RUPERT PORT

By RICHARD NEUBERGER, in Washington, D.C. Post

Why have Americans—the greatest frontiersmen on earth—fallen down on the job in Alaska? The answer is that Alaska with neither political influence or economic strength, is considered a colonial empire to be looted rather than a sovereign part of the American Union. Alaskans laugh ironically at

LEGION OBSERVES BATTLE OF VIMY

Thirty-first anniversary of the battle of Vimy Ridge was observed Friday evening by more than 200 Canadian Legion members who gathered in the Legion hall for a smoking concert, singing the songs of two World Wars and listening to a varied program of songs and recitations.

Well known Legion entertainers, including Soloists J. A. Teng, Mrs. Ralph Smith, James Green, took part in the program, as did Reg Kings and Wright Davis, who gave monologues; David Jones and J. McKeever, harmonica artists, and George Elliott, accordionist.

The concert was directed by Legion Vice-President Ralph Smith who acted as master of ceremonies.

The function, commemorating the battle of Vimy Ridge, fought on April 9, 1917, was arranged by Miss Mary Morton of Miller Bay, chairman of the Legion entertainment committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lecross of Regina arrived last week to spend a month visiting at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McEwen.

crimination on the ground that Seattle, an American city, should receive Alaska's business. Alaskans contend that the Territory, if freed from high freight rates and the locking-up of resources, will develop from a wilderness into a genuine civilization, and Seattle will ultimately benefit far more.

The real ruler of Alaska is the U.S. secretary of the interior. The legislature is elected, but its acts can be vetoed by the governor, who is appointed by the President and is subordinate to the secretary of the interior. Any decision made by the governor in Juneau can be vetoed by the secretary in Seattle.

Governor Gruening, points of President Roosevelt was often forbidden by Secretary of the Interior to leave the Territory.
