A New Champion

PRINCE RUPERT welcomes George Murray, publisher of the Alaska Highway News, Fort St. John's weekly newspaper, as a new and outspoken champion of this port as the Pacific Coast railway outlet for the Peace River country. Mr. Murray's article on this important matter, reprinted in the Daily News yesterday, was read with great interest and appreciation here. It should give us new heart and enthusiasm for our own campaign which has been dormant for some time after years of disappointment because of apathy and indifference of the authorities in the matter of the Peace River railway outlet in general.

Mr. Murray's outright assertion that "a Grande Prairie-Prince Rupert line would involve less capital expenditure than the extension of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway north" was of particular interest and in complete accord with views which have been long held by the champions of the direct outlet to Prince Rupert.

It is also something to have the former M.L.A. suggest that the trading possibilities of Alaska through Prince Rupert with the Middle West of the United States might be extended as far west as Montana.

INCREASED TRAIN SERVICE

WHEN TWO YEARS or so ago the Canadian National Railway discontinued the daily or six-times-a-week train service between Jasper and Prince Rupert we protested loudly. It is fitting, therefore, that, now it is being restored, we should acknowledge the decision with appreciation.

It is to be realized, of course, that the increasing of the service by regular trains is to some extent a substitution for special express trains which would, otherwise, have to be operated during the fish shipment season. However, it will provide the facility for handling more tourist and general passenger traffic and will be a boon to those travelling through the central interior.

It is to be hoped that conditions may be such that the daily train service will be for all the year around instead of only in the summer.

ETHICS IN BUSINESS

BECAUSE IT GOES to the very heart of human nature, the question of right and wrong is not a simple subject. But since it is so important to the well-being of individuals, social communities, and the nation, it is well worth a little thought, says the Royal Bank of Canada monthly letter.

From the very beginning of things, there have been obligations arising out of social contacts. The fourth chapter of the Bible's first book puts on record a momentous question: "Am I my brother's keeper?" Today's viewpoint is that every man has a certain responsibility toward others.

When we narrow this down to the morals of business, we find that the spirit finds expression through fair play, honorable dealing, and keeping one's word.

Most business men have a solemn feeling of their obligations to maintain honor in the business world. They are men who recognize the importance of the square deal as part of creative industry.

In recent years a new sense of community obligation has been added to old ideas of personal goodness.

LETTERBOX

WOULD RAISE CAPITAL

Editor, Daily News:
With reference to a letter which appeared in your paper, regarding lack of employment opportunities for school graduates and local residents, the following remedial measure, which, with the co-operation of the required number of interested persons, would develop a progressive community.
The writer is anxious to contact energetic persons with vision and enterprise who would be interested in forwarding a program, on a contributory basis, to raise sufficient capital, with a view toward establishing an industry which would supply work on a year-around basis.
JOE FELLER.

JACES URGE BETTER RADIO

The cause of improved radio broadcasting from Prince Rupert is to be taken up by the Junior Chamber of Commerce which will urge the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation to release its better network programs through the local station.

According to a decision made at the monthly meeting of the Junior Chamber last night, a survey will be made among city radio listeners to determine the type of programs favored. A committee will convey the information to the nationally-owned broadcasting corporation with a request that the desires of the public be considered.

Heading the committee will be J. H. Jefferies who will supervise the survey. He told the Junior Chamber that "if we get the whole of Prince Rupert behind us, we can force the Dominion government to give some consideration to Prince Rupert."

COASTGUARD, LIFE SAVING, MERCY FLIGHTS TO BE DEMANDED

The Junior Chamber also will submit a resolution to the Association Boards of Trade of Central B.C. urging support of member Chambers of Commerce to support better radio programs for the district.

Some type of coastguard service which will make provision for mercy flights to remote communities also will be demanded by the organization in a resolution submitted to the regional convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The resolution will ask that, in the interests of public safety, the Canadian government make some provision for a coastguard and rescue service, or else eliminate barriers to American aircraft entering Canada so that such services can be rendered by U.S. aircraft without customs barriers.

The regional Junior Chamber convention is to be held in Victoria at the middle of May.

MANY VISIT NEW GARAGE

Lindsay Motors Service Station and Showroom Centre of Attractions

There was a steady flow of interested callers throughout yesterday afternoon and into evening for the opening of the fine modern new garage and service station of Lindsay Motors Ltd. on Second Avenue at First Street.

President J. S. Lindsay, Manager S. J. Hunter and other courteous guides proudly showed the guests around the splendidly built and admirably equipped establishment.

Particularly interesting was the showing of new DeSoto and Dodge cars and trucks, most of which it was learned had already been sold and would be soon moving off the showroom floor.

The premises continue open for public inspection.

PRICES ARE FANTASTIC

Ben Sampson Tells of Conditions in California "Prices are fantastic" remarked Ben Sampson, speaking of conditions in Southern California when he returned to the city this week.

"And the way people are streaming toward that part of the west does not help the situation any. I was told that on an average, about 20,000 persons from the middle west and east, move to Los Angeles and other California cities each month."

Mr. Sampson left here last January 1, and arrived back Wednesday aboard the steamer Prince Rupert. He is staying for the present at the St. Elmo. While away Mr. Sampson lived at Burbank, which has a population of about 70,000. Los Angeles is near. There, the people number about a million and a quarter. Burbank is named for Luther Burbank, the famous botanist and naturalist, who settled there many years ago, and when the city of today was a comparatively small community.

Mr. Sampson says he found a decided difference in the people dwelling in the south, and those up north. This is explained, doubtless by the fact that where the former are concerned, the cities are large and busy.

Everyone appears hurried and intent on his own affairs exclusively.

Mr. Sampson, who sold his

SANDY HAMILTON

KEEN FOR PHOTOGRAPHY AND BASKETBALL—TO BE DRAFTSMAN

Sandford Hamilton, who never gets anything but "Sandy" from his friends, has delivered papers four out of the five years he has been in Prince Rupert. The first ten years of his life was spent east of the Rockies where he was born in the little town of Mielmorn, Saskatchewan.

Sandy is in Grade 9 this year. A keen amateur photographer, he is a member of the Booth Memorial School photo club. For hobbies he divides his interests between stamp collecting and building flying models of planes.

Basketball, according to Sandy, is a first rate sport and, as a member of Booth Memorial High School's junior basketball team, he gets plenty of action in the game he enjoys above all others. Sandy is a member of the Civic Centre and this coupled with all his other activities fairly well takes care of his spare time but, when he has a few minutes free, he enjoys reading.

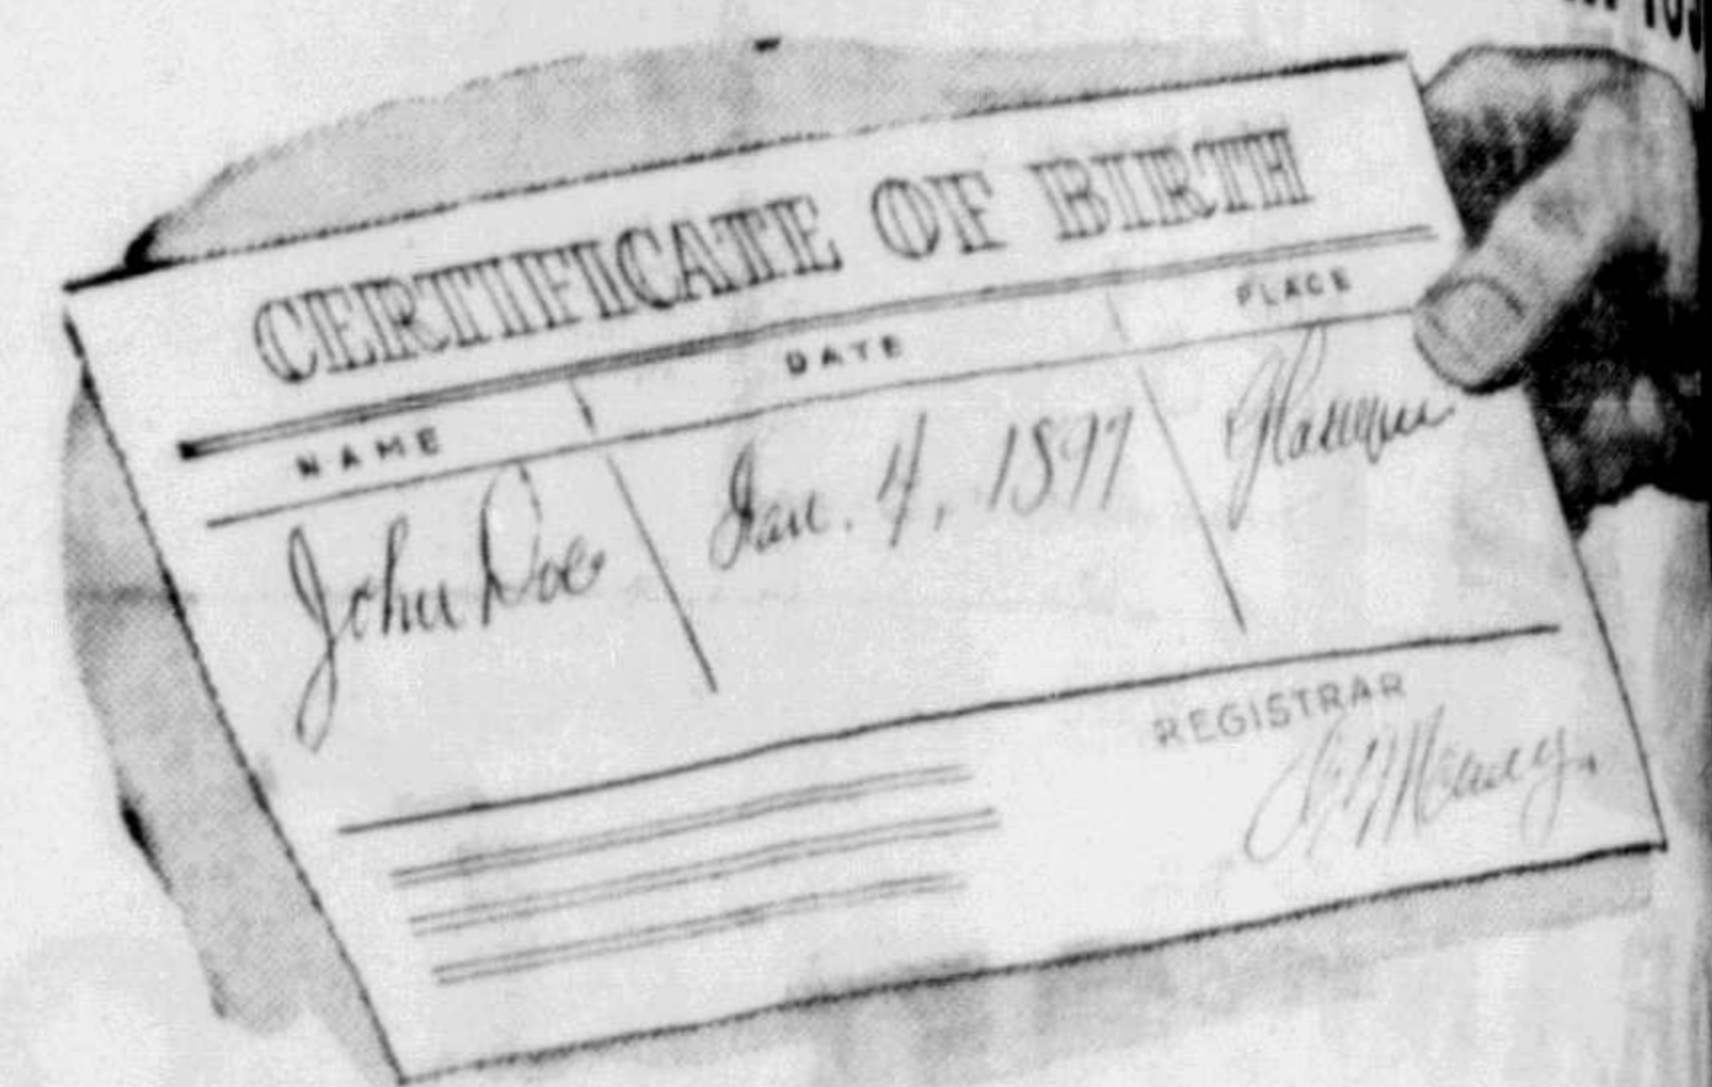

Sandy, who recently returned to the service of the Daily News after an absence of several months, has a newly formed route—number 22. It is a very straightforward beat taking in the stretch of Sixth Avenue East between Ambrose and Second Overlook.

When it comes to naming his life work Sandy doesn't hesitate. He is going to be a draftsman.

Just because he was born in the

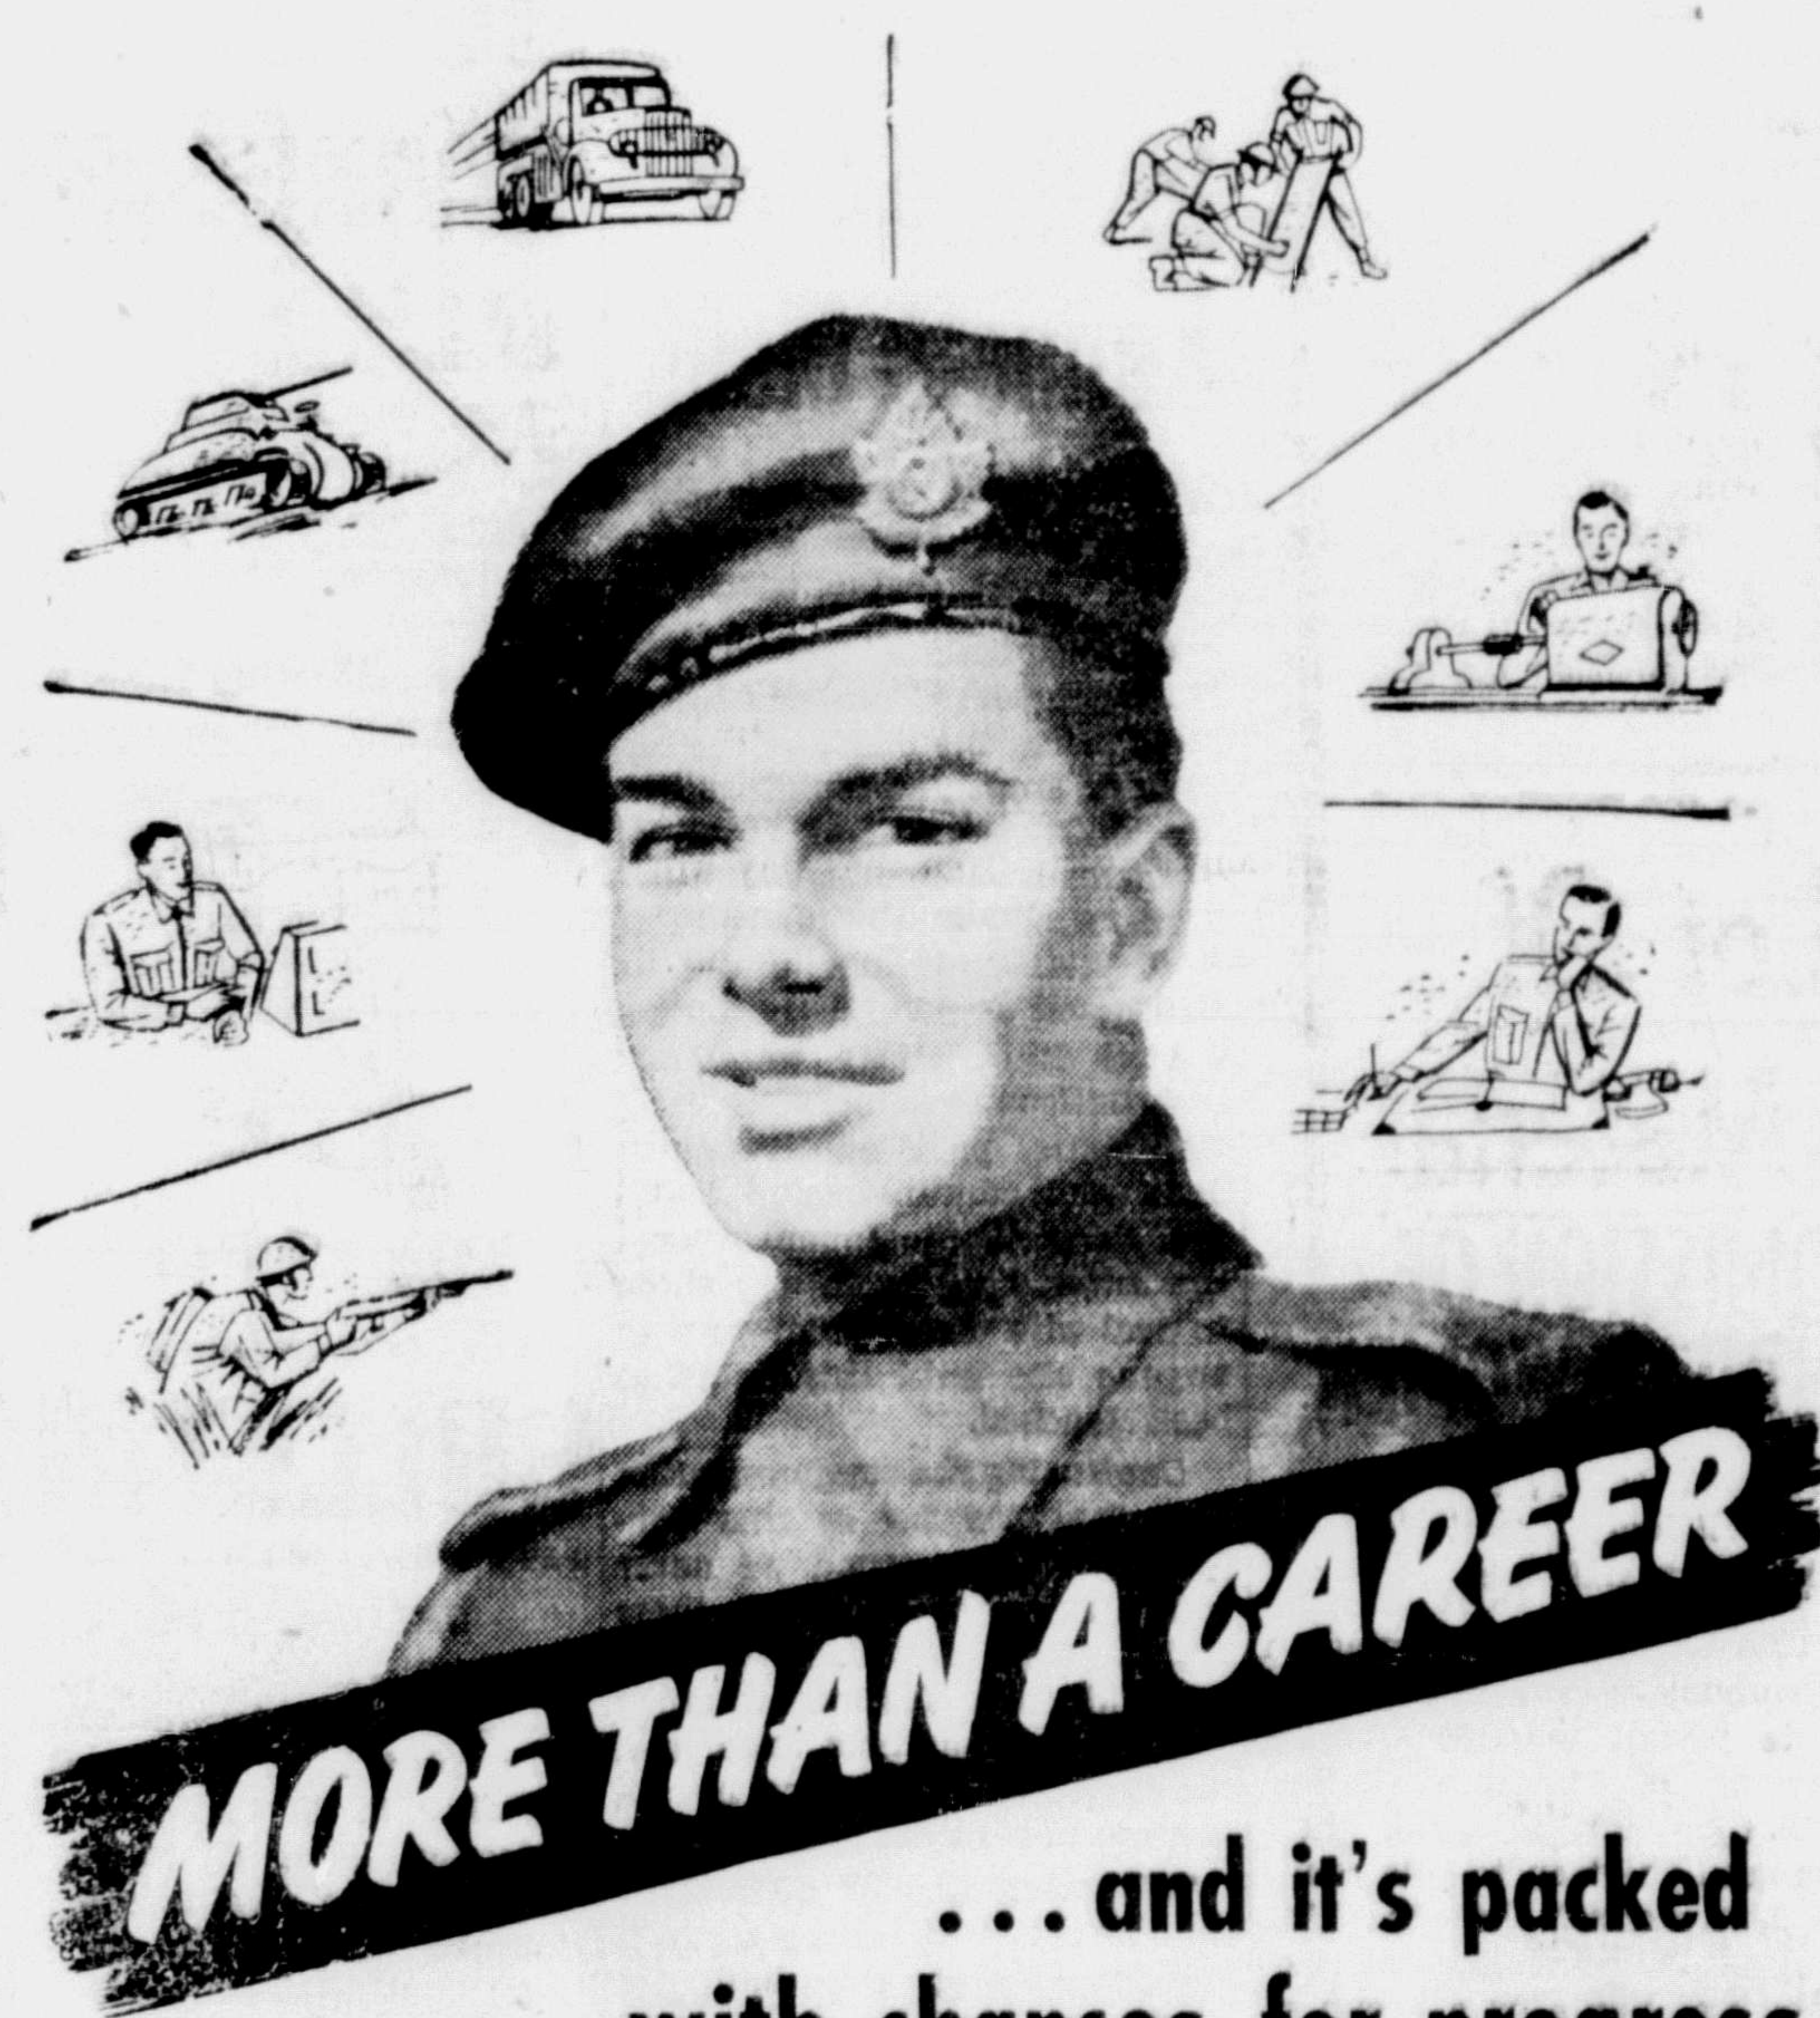

Does that mean he can't apply for a job with you?

His birth certificate is dated 1897— he's 50—does that mean, Mr. Employer, that he's "too old for the job"? Many employers do tend to reject men over 45 years old, and women over 35!

Consider carefully when you have a vacancy whether it could not be filled as capably by an older man or woman—due to the experience and stability they bring with them.

Reminiscences
By W.J. and Reflections

Which way a city will grow is always a live topic and it's true enough of Prince Rupert. Disappointments have not been few and, as time lengthens, the impression grows that early predictions suggesting expansion would be more in the general direction of the east would appear justified. At least, it's been like that, to the present. But it must be remembered that Rupert is still small. A section has not yet been placed on the market and unlooked for and surprising developments could bring about changes influencing the trend of local events.

Back from a three months sojourn in southern California, a local citizen says he prefers the north. People are different. Of course they are. When Prince Rupert has a population of a million and a quarter (embracing Digby Island, part of the Tsimpsian Peninsula, and the local waterfront resembles the paintings on the old Westholme Theatre curtain, the people will be all hard boiled, going like mad, and just as apt to give a woman a slap on the wrist as a seat. And not a single soul will say, "How'dy old timer. Reckon there'll be rain in the morning."

He won't have time or inclination.

The Special Parliamentary Committee on High Prices has fixed the fees of two lawyers and an accountant serving it at $125 each per day. The fees are to be supplemented by living allowances. Presumably, when these important tasks are faithfully and fully discharged, the Special Parliamentary Committee on High Fees will swing into action.

There used to be a time when Seattle was generally regarded as one of the rainiest towns in the United States, and Seattle was astute enough to turn what appeared to be a liability into an asset — and raise laughs while so doing. The city joined everybody in admitting the truth of what was charged and the Times cartoonist created the daily front page feature the Umbrella Man. He had a small umbrella rigged permanently over his hat, had a news stand, looked at you through a maze of whiskers, and with an engaging grin, got off some timely crack that harmonized with what was in the public mind.
People forgot about rain—what they looked at was that famous philosopher, the Umbrella Man, and what he'd think up next.

Kinsmen To Canvass For Kiddies' Camp

Kinsmen will be out in force next Tuesday night when they launch their drive to canvass every house in the city, selling tickets to the May 24 celebrations. Profits from that day will be used to make the Kinsmen Kiddies Kamp at Lakelse Lake a bigger and better place where youngsters can enjoy their holiday. Plans as laid down by the executive last night call for the drive to start at the east end of the city and eventually work right through to Westview. The executive approved the nomination of Walter Morgan for membership to the club and proposed that his initiation take place at the next general meeting.

They are thinking seriously of asking for a meeting with Prince Rupert junior boxers later.

"GRATEFUL" FOR J.C. TROPHY

Appreciation of the gesture of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in donating a trophy for the Northern B.C. Native basketball association was voiced last night by Indian Agent F. E. Anfield who described it as a "generous thing which will pay dividends in friendliness between the city's young business men and the native people."

Mr. Anfield was a guest speaker at the Junior Chamber monthly dinner meeting, held in the Civic Centre. He spoke on "sidelights" of more than a quarter of a century of work among the coast native population.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce trophy was posted earlier this month for the winner of the consolation round in the native basketball tournament held at the Civic Centre. It will come up for annual competition.

"I can assure you that they are profoundly grateful," Mr. Anfield declared, "Such gestures are worth while."

Mr. Anfield concluded from his experience with Canada's Indians that their logical destiny is "complete integration" into the population of the country. He appealed for tolerance and understanding for them while the process is developing.

Junior Chamber President A. P. Crawley thanked Mr. Anfield for his address and welcomed G. A. Hunter as representative from the Senior Chamber of Commerce at the meeting.

CITY HOOP STAR MAY TRY OUT WITH VANCOUVER PROFESSIONALS

Rupert Holkestad, Savoy's star forward in the senior basketball league, may wind up as a professional hoopster if he decides to take up an offer extended by a Vancouver pro team.

Clem McDonald, owner of the Vancouver Hornets professional team, has expressed an interest in giving Rupert a try-out next season after learning of the record he has made in the city's top-drawer amateur hoop society.

Rupert, 21 years old and not particularly impressed with his own virtuosity, does not know whether or not he would accept a bid from a professional team but he is giving the matter some thought.

"They haven't asked me, personally, yet," he commented. Currently, Rupert holds top position in the league scoring race with 265 points against 258 held by his closest competitor, Jack Lindsay, of Co-op.

McDonald's interest in Holkestad was aroused when Civic Centre director Don Forward wrote the professional team owner naming Rupert as likely material for his team.

McDonald replied that he would be interested in giving him a try-out for next season. Rupert is at present employed by the Imperial Oil Co. here.

SHORT SPORT

The incomparable Wallabies from Australia generated exhilaration and exuberance for more than 10,000 English rugby fans at Vancouver recently—including Don Carlson of the Vancouver Sun. Watching them play, he writes, revived the age-old debate: Resolved that rhubarbs and bloodshed are not the only ingredients of sport thrills Carlson concludes: "The Wallabies are the kind of athletes who make you think of artists of sportdom (Apps, DiMaggio, Gehring) who have thrilled you with their skill rather than their boisterousness."

Everybody has rupees to wager at Bombay and Calcutta race-tracks. And you could lose fabulous San Anita inside either of them.

Tanned and talkative Peter MacRitchie trundled into Vancouver recently and unfolded weird and wonderful tales of the turf in Palestine, India, China and Japan. He didn't mention "Salome." Enroute home, the Montreal Gazette city editor told Ken McConnell of the Vancouver Province that in the Far East there are sad conditions everywhere but at the races. The Bombay and Calcutta tracks each have a capacity of 125,000 fans. And at Hong Kong races—or "rices"—they have a $147,000 sweep three times annually which makes it the biggest "stake" in the world today.

LEGION GAINS SIXTY MEMBERS

During the past year sixty new members were enrolled in Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Legion and 33 members were transferred to the Prince Rupert branch from other branches. Nine members were transferred from Prince Rupert elsewhere. During the year, eight members died. The total membership is now 620.

President V. G. Houston, in a review of the year, has asked that the younger members maintain an active interest in the affairs of the Legion.

As for the new building, it was still somewhat early to say how soon construction will start although there is a possibility it will begin during the summer.

In the course of a general discussion relative to various matters of Legion interest at the general meeting Wednesday night, it was mentioned that, throughout the year, there had been 104 calls made at the hospital.

J. S. Wilson suggested that the Legion do its part in reviving interest in football and this matter will have attention.

Votes of thanks were passed the secretary-manager, P. M. Ray, the Legion staff, and all others who, in any way, had given of their time and effort.

Refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned around midnight.

FRANCOIS LAKE
 Mrs. John Gilgan is teaching school again. She is at Bridge Lake, near 95 Mile House. There are nine pupils at the school. Her children are with her.

Dorothy and Elmer Mills and Colleen left on Tuesday morning by train for Chilliwack where they expect to stay until the end of the month. Captain Laing left on Thursday morning for Victoria to spend his holiday.

There are several areas on the lake where there is no ice and it will only take a good wind to clear the ice right out.

District Agriculturalist Johnson showed films at the hall here last Wednesday evening and there was a good attendance. Lunch was served by the members of the Women's Institute, followed by a dance until midnight. The orchestra donated its services and the dancers had a good time. A collection was taken which amounted to a little more than five dollars.

The Women's Institute monthly meeting was held at Mrs. Noble's home on Thursday afternoon. There was a small attendance as it is hard for the women to get to meetings these days.

Miss Preston, matron of the Burns Lake Hospital, spent the week-end at the Reg Partington home.

Pat Partington is helping in the hospital in Burns Lake. Janet Wade, who has just learned to ski, travelled on her skis from Pelletier's Store at Ootsa Lake to Grassy Plains on Saturday, a distance of nineteen miles. Janet has recently come out from London, England, and is nurses' aid in the hospital.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Les. Taft and Paul Piche of the Southbank Forestry Service and Janet Wade came around the lake via Nadina by road. The road is narrow but good for travelling.

Princess Norah had been thoroughly searched and there was not the slightest sign of him. So, having hunted through the ship, a posse went ashore to do some hunting there. Among the party were the Wrangell C.P.R. agent, Joyce Hay and a provincial police officer. It was a thorough search but the missing stranger was not there. He was not in a bar nor was he anywhere else within the town limits. And about that time, came a messenger from the steamship. He had been found snugly resting in the back seat of an automobile lashed on deck and all covered with tarpaulin. He was quite comfortable.

RESERVE UNIT RECEIVES GUN

Will Now be Able to Get Down to Serious Training

Prince Rupert's reserve army unit, which recently received its official designation of 120th Heavy Anti-Aircraft Battery (Mobile), Wednesday received its first piece of training equipment—a 3.7 inch anti-aircraft gun. The 14-ton weapon was landed here from the freighter Chilliwack this week.

According to Col. S. D. Johnston, officer commanding the unit, more equipment is expected later, thus giving the battery an opportunity to begin its first training program since it was organized almost two years ago.

The gun, which was landed at the lumber assembly dock near the elevator, will be set up at the battery garage at the corner of First Avenue and First Street. Its great weight prohibits it from being placed in the armory.

Other equipment, a projector, height-finder and radar, will be sent shortly from Vancouver, Col. Johnston said.

"Now that we have the gun we will be able to start training classes, which we were unable to do previously," he declared. "We expect to start an N.C.O. training class which will prepare the unit for later expansion."

The battery has three officers—Capt. L. M. Gordon, Lieut. Pierre LeRoss and Lieut. Frank Parlette—whose wartime technical training with ack-ack guns make them competent to train others.

Col. Johnston said that it is the desire of the members of the unit to get back the former 102nd designation which was dropped when the battery was re-organized after the war. They feel that the old 102nd was a traditional part of the local background and that it should be continued.

WEDDED IN VANCOUVER

Miss Bernice Matheson Becomes Bride of Gerry Woodside

The marriage took place on Saturday at St. Mary's Anglican Church, South Hill, Vancouver of Bernice Dorothy, only daughter of F. Matheson, 435 East Fifthth, Vancouver, to Gerald Patrick, only son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Woodside of this city. Rev. James E. Whittles of All Saints, Vancouver received the vows of holy matrimony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long-sleeved gown of white satin, with a bouffant skirt, tunic effect, flowing into a graceful train, featuring a bateau neck. Her hand-embroidered tulle veil misted from a coronet of orange blossoms and she wore the groom's gift of pearls. Pink roses, carnations and white freesia were in her bouquet.

The bride was attended by Miss Irene Fleming, who wore a bouffant gown of mauve brocade, styled with the plume. Little Miss Judy Turnquist, in floor length yellow nylon, made a charming flower girl. Matching Dutch caps completed the costume of the attendants and they carried bouquets of purple iris with daffodils.

Ronald T. Jones of Ladysmith was groomsmen and ushers were George Hankinson and Gwyn Holtby, both of Prince Rupert.

Miss Beverley Hill sang "Because" very sweetly at the signing of the register.

Following the wedding reception at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. Matheson, the bride changed to a blue gabardine tulle, worn with alligator accessories, and a corsage of yellow iris, for a trip to Cultus Lake and the Fraser Valley. On their return the couple will reside at 435 East 50th Avenue in Vancouver.

Out of town guests included Mrs. T. W. Wiltse, Mrs. R. H. Linley, Mr. and Mrs. H. Turnquist of Victoria, Mrs. D. Bergé and Walter B. Johnson, formerly of Prince Rupert and now of Seattle, H. C. Purdy, Leoville, Sask., Mrs. H. B. Rochester and daughter Janet, Gwyn Holtby, George Hankinson, Jack Breen, Howard Haugan, John Moore and Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Woodside, all of Prince Rupert; Mr. and Mrs. F. Ostman, Port Renfrew, Mr. and Mrs. S. Larson, Crescent.

There were also quite a number of former Prince Rupert residents at the ceremony and reception.

The bride is a former physical education teacher at Booth Memorial High School. The groom is a well known Prince Rupert boy and was formerly employed in the office staff of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. Ltd. He is now in the costing department of Jantzen Knitting Mills, Vancouver.

The father of the bride is the popular and well known chief engineer of the steamer Camosun at present on the Cardena.

REHEARSAL PROMISING

Borden Street School Children do Well in Readiness for Operetta

Yesterday afternoon's rehearsal of the operetta, "The Pixies' Triumph," being staged at the Civic Centre tonight by the pupils of Borden Street School, was very pleasing.

The fairy group sing well, their dancing and acting are attractive, and coupled with their dresses, the stage takes one to that fairyland where we like to go to get away from worldly worries.

In contrast to these are the very colorful Pixie Army. Their marching and a sword drill were very smartly carried out. They too sing well.

The singing and acting of the principals are of a high standard. One forgets at times that these are children of eight to 12 years of age. Beverly Comer, as Queen Fatima, and Mary Lou Lunn, as King Jewel Scissors, were outstanding. Other principal parts taken by Neila McKelvie and Agnes McIntosh, the Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, held at the home of Mrs. Bruce Love, Eight Avenue East. Title of the paper was "The Threat of Communism to the Canadian Way of Life." It was read as part of the Empire Study course of the Chapter.

The meeting was opened with the prayer of the Order, delivered by Mrs. S. A. Keilback, Chapter Regent, who asked that a letter of condolence be sent to Mrs. A. T. Parkin on the loss of her husband.

Initial item of business was the initiation of five new members.

Arrangements were completed for the spring sale to be held in the Civic Centre ladies' lounge on Easter Monday under co-sponsorship of Mrs. W. J. Lineham.

It also was decided to obtain queen's attendants; Ivy Gillespie, Jacqueline Moore and Olive Strand the King's associates were capably done.

The Rhythm Band with 32 instrumentalists under Drum Major Art Nickerson, made a big hit with the rest of the school, who provided the audience for the occasion. A dancing group of 12 from Grade One provided an attractive number.

The operetta, which is quite an ambitious achievement, will undoubtedly be counted one of the most successful entertainments of the season, and is sure to please the public tonight.

a quantity of wool and stamped goods in preparation for work for the fall bazaar. Reports of various activities of the Chapter were read.

Mrs. Keilback was elected delegate to the annual provincial convention to be held at Victoria this spring.

The meeting also took the form of a grocery shower to aid the food parcels for Britain drive.

Following the business session, refreshments were served by Mrs. H. M. Foote and Mrs. George Howe. Mrs. G. E. Moore was winner of the monthly raffle. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Boddie.
