YOUNG FARMER IS CRASH HERO

WILDWOOD, Alta. (C)—A young farmer yesterday fought his way through flames into the wreckage of a crashed airplane to rescue an injured pilot and a woman passenger.

The hero of this small community, 70 miles west of Edmonton, is Charles Soucy, aged 36, who heard the plane crash after it attempted to land in a farmer's field a mile away and hit a bluff. He immediately rushed to the scene.

In a serious condition are Nancy Cameron of Anchorage, Alaska, and Pilot Taiho Aho of Seattle. Less seriously hurt is Ruth Cameron, Nancy's sister.

SCENE OF SLAYING—Outside the converted-box-car home of Michael Joseph Hayes in the Edmonton suburb of West Jasper Place, police found the bludgeoned body of 59-year-old W. W. McKay. Hayes, a former Edmonton policeman, was held on a murder charge. Police said McKay was slugged over the head with a lead pipe, buried alive in a shallow grave in a backyard potato patch and then hacked to death with an axe. Neighbors are shown examining a hole which Hayes ordered dug the next day. Police said the pit may have been intended as McKay's grave. (C. P. Photo)

HUGE BORROWING BY G. T. BRITAIN

LONDON—Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps revealed yesterday that Great Britain had borrowed $4,000,000,000 from United States since the end of the war. He hoped that the borrowing would not be increased this year.

LUMBERMEN NOT WORRIED

British Purchasers Expected to Go Through With Orders

VANCOUVER (C)—British Columbia lumbermen said today that they are confident that Great Britain will honor newly-made contracts with the West Coast despite sweeping curbs on United Kingdom purchases. Great Britain recently negotiated the purchase of nearly $15,000,000 in fish and lumber from British Columbia.

NO DECISION IMMEDIATELY

VANCOUVER (C)—No decision will be given by the British Columbia Public Utilities Commission for at least two weeks on the application of the British Columbia Electric Co. for an increase in street car and bus fares in Vancouver.

The company announced at the first of the week that "rising deficits" have forced it to apply for an increase in fares in Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster are not affected.

Elimination of a three-quarter fare for a straight 10c ticket is proposed.

The city of Vancouver will not oppose the request but the Public Utilities Commission will make a detailed investigation prior to a public hearing on the question.

Capital To Capital Yacht Race To Pause Here Next Wednesday

Smartest and speediest power boats of Puget Sound—eight of them—with one each from Portland, Nanaimo and Juneau will converge on Prince Rupert next Wednesday afternoon for an overnight stay after completing the second lap of a three-stage international race from Olympia, Washington, through Nanaimo and Prince Rupert, British Columbia, to Juneau, Alaska.

Feature event of the pause in Prince Rupert will be a dinner dance at the Aero Club, Seal Cove, when presentations will take place of four historic trophies which were originally put up in a former international race from Seattle to Prince Rupert for the reception of which the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club went all-out in 1930.

The host organization again this time will be the local Yacht Club of which A. P. Crawley is president and Dr. R. G. Large, secretary.

The race is under the sponsorship of the International Power Boat Association whose president, R. J. Hart of Bremerton, is the owner and skipper of one of the racing boats aboard which is also coming Milt Benson, secretary of the Association.

Staggered from the starts on predicted logs, the racers are scheduled to reach Prince Rupert at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the finish line being abreast the Imperial Oil Co.

BLOOD STORAGE UNIT NEARING READINESS NOW

The blood refrigeration unit which will permit Prince Rupert General Hospital to store adequate quantities of fresh blood, is now under construction in Vancouver and will be shipped here later this month.

Meanwhile, the Red Cross committee, which is in charge of the blood donor campaign which will culminate with the arrival here on August 1 of the travelling Red Cross blood donor clinic, is stirring into action.

The committee, headed by T. Norton Youngs, plans a meeting next Tuesday at which final plans for the campaign will be made.

Prince Rupert will be asked to contribute at least 700 pints of blood to the central provincial Red Cross blood bank. This bank supplies hospitals in British Columbia with their requirements of fresh blood for medical purposes free of charge.

The local committee is working through organizations which are supplying it with the names of prospective donors. These will be called to make their donations during the three day visit of the travelling clinic.

Four Hundred Indian Votes Could Change Outcome of Election

STEWART—Count of the absentee vote, consisting largely of natives from the Naas River who were employed on election day at Skeena River canneries, is proceeding here today. They may affect the result in Atlin provincial riding in the count to date for which W. D. Smith, Coalition, is leading Frank Calder, C.C.F., by 118 majority.

Flash

BIG BANGOR FIRE
BANGOR, Maine—A $1,500,000 blaze early today laid waste a quarter of a mile of Bangor's waterfront. Five fuel plants, a bus garage and storehouses of a hardware and plumbing supply firm were levelled. Drums of gasoline and oil caused explosions. Several firemen, overcome by smoke, were the only reported casualties.

There are 427 absentee ballots in all. A heavy preponderance of these going in his favor could conceivably turn the result in favor of Mr. Calder. However, Mr. Smith's supporters consider this unlikely although they are not making any confident claims of the Indian vote going preponderantly in his favor.

The returning officer stated this afternoon that it would probably be this evening before he is finished counting the absentee votes.

Steel Strike In U.S. Looms

Breakdown In Negotiations Over Wages, Insurance and Pensions

PITTSBURGH (C)—The United States today faced threat of its first major steel strike since 1946 following the saying of "No" yesterday by the United States Steel Corporation, bell weather of the industry, to the demands of United Steel Workers (CIO) for a fourth-round wage increase and for company-financed pension and insurance programs. The Union immediately called a meeting for July 13 of its wage policy committee to consider a possible strike July 16.

FIGHT IN LEGISLATURE

EDMONTON—After a major battle, in which one member of the Legislature was ejected from the House, the Alberta government's strongest bill on natural gas export controls moved into clearer waters today. Arthur Wray, stormy petrel Social Credit member from Banff-Cochrane, was marched under escort from the House after a short, bitter fight with Attorney-General Lucien Maynard.

ONLY SYMPATHY

WASHINGTON—Great Britain seems likely today to get United States sympathy—and not much else—in her newest financial plight. Members of Congress generally reacted coolly to the announcement that Britain is down to her last £406,000,000 ($1,624,000,000) in gold and dollars and their general observation was that the problem is one Britain will have to solve for herself without increased United States financial aid.

SOMETHING TO AVOID

On summer vacations learn what poison ivy looks like—then avoid it.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jack of Duncan, Vancouver Island, arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert yesterday from the south for a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wightman.

OFFICIAL COUNT OF PROVINCIAL VOTE BEGUN IN RIDING TODAY

Official count of ballots cast at the regular polls in the June 15 election today left the majority of J. D. McRae, Coalition candidate, unchanged. Candidates and their agents accepted a check of the preliminary counts, neither calling for a recount of any of the votes. Counting of the absentee ballots is now proceeding.

The official count gives McRae a majority of 587. The Coalition candidate received 2,627 votes, W. H. Brett, 2,040 votes. There were 36 spoiled ballots. Total vote was 4,703.

Present during the vote count were the two candidates, and their official agents, Robert McKay, representing Mr. McRae, and George Hills, representing Mr. Brett.

Official count of ballots cast in the provincial election of June 15 was begun this morning by Returning Officer A. Bruce Brown. The count will reveal for the first time the result of the absentee vote which was cast outside and within the riding for the two candidates, John D. McRae, Coalition member-elect, and W. H. Brett, defeated C.C.F. candidate.

Counting of the absentee ballots will be a time-consuming process which may not be finished today, Mr. Brown said. The absentee vote includes ballots cast by voters at polling stations within the riding and by voters qualified to vote here but who were at other parts of the province on election day.

Official count of the regular votes took little time because the affidavit of the Deputy Returning Officers in each case were accepted without question.

If the returns from any particular polling station had been questioned, the ballots would have had to be recounted.

Uranium

Exploration for Uranium Ore on Roche Mountain

de Boule, massive crag, producer for years of gold and silver, in substantial volume of spectacular value, has become the centre of a hunt for uranium, the radioactive ore used in the production of atomic energy. Geiger counter located the ore sufficiently to cause the formation of a company in Vancouver and a syndicate in Prince Rupert for the purpose of further exploitation.

The Vancouver company is known as Western Uranium Mines Ltd. which is operating on the old Victoria property. The local syndicate of P. J. Lindsey, T. D. Christie and George Royles is working on the Homestake claim, the principal feature of which is an 800 foot tunnel, now flooded, in which gold and silver was mined years ago. The uranium was located on the dump by means of the geiger counter. Samples of the ore to Ottawa assayed 0.14 per cent uranium which would give a value of $7 per ton plus gold and silver content.

George Royles, locator, returned to Prince Rupert Tuesday spending a month at Atlin in a fruitless quest for uranium. He is now heading back to Atlin to further check the ground in the hope of obtaining better values.

Ground is situated at an elevation of 5000 feet on the steep slope of Roche de Boule and is reached by a good trail which leaves the highway west of South Hazelton.

PREMATURE STATEMENT

No Boycott Yet of British Ships on East Coast

MONTREAL (C)—Threatened boycott of British ships in east United States ports remained unsettled today following reports from two major maritime groups that the announcement was "premature."

Joseph P. Ryan, president of the International Longshoremen's Union, said in New York last night that he agreed with a statement issued by the Maritime Trades Council of New York that the boycott statement made here yesterday by Hal C. Jones, international representative of the Seafarers' International Union, was "premature."

Mr. Ryan had told reporters that the boycott would start at midnight last night. Banks could not be reached for comment following the statement by the two maritime bodies that his announcement was premature.

Mrs. R. Taper has returned to the city from Winnipeg where she paid a visit with her son, an Taper, who is a professor in the staff of the University of Manitoba.

BUCK BOUCHER NAMED COACH

BOSTON (C)—Appointment of George (Buck) Boucher of Mountain, Ontario, as bench coach of the Boston Bruins National Hockey League Club under a one-year contract was announced by President Weston W. Adams. Boucher, aged 53, is a member of the famed Canadian hockey family and one of four brothers who played in the National Hockey League last season. He coached the Ottawa Senators of the Quebec Senior Hockey League to the Allan Cup.

FISH INVENTOR MAKES ALL-METAL CONVERTIBLE COUPE—This all-metal convertible opens in 55 seconds by means of four simple locks. One minute it is a normal coupe. The inventor is a sleek convertible with no roof in sight. It is the invention of 42-year-old Col. John Dolph, inventor of the one-man submarine and of the paratroopers' folding motorcycle (now in use). He calls his patent the "Dolphin Swinging Roof Body." The steel roof slides to rest in a gentle curve, and lies out of sight under the hinged boot cover. Col. Dolph has made 12,000 miles with a prototype car and there is not a squeak anywhere. His next step is to make it power-operated and mass produced. Here Col. Dolph lifts the steel hood into position with one hand.

Britain's Position

THIS IS NO TIME for gloating with anything in the way of political satisfaction over the critical economic situation in which Great Britain finds itself. Possibly, other than a Socialist government might have been making a better job of things. However, that is quite a hypothetical supposition. It is equally possible that no other government could have done better. Indeed, it might even have had more serious industrial troubles than those which the present government has had to deal with.

What we are all hoping for, of course, is that Britain may soon be finding a solution of her troubles and an easier row to hoe. Her position is a difficult one and, in some ways, seemingly unnatural but there it is! Sometimes, it seems that the monetary and fiscal angles are somewhat rigid and that there might be a little more give and take. However, there is also the rest of the world to contend with a grim economic struggle for survival ever to be considered.

In international, like in other business, sentiment is often lacking.

Now and during the next few weeks it will be well for Americans, Canadian and Britons to keep firmly in mind the political as well as the economic aspects of their mutual relations. These weeks promise to be trying ones, testing patience and wisdom among the western nations. The test will come in the field of economics and international politics. It will be fought out in terms like "dollar scarcity," "sterling area," "transferability of credits," "convertibility of currencies." It will concern imports, exports, employment, prices.

It would be well, though, that we do not become so fascinated with the entangled trees that we lose sight of what Stalin, Molotov, Vishinsky and their friends will be watching—namely the forest.

As in the war so in the postwar conflict, the strength of the west has been built around the keystone of co-operation. The global dyke against communism is of paramount importance. Trading positions of the nations are, of course, to be considered but the political solidarity of the west is the first consideration of all.

BIG RESPONSIBILITY

THE NATIONAL electoral decision removes one major worry that has been hanging over the country since the campaign started, observes the Financial Post. There is no question of an ample working majority for the new government.

Had either of the major political parties been forced to depend on a minority group for parliamentary support, there would have been no hope of stability at a time when a strong, stable government is of the utmost importance.

But the present top-heavy majority was neither necessary nor desirable. Not only did it mean the loss to the country of many promising young members of other parties who had much to contribute to Canada, but it is potentially hazardous for the country. A one-sided House increases the risk of the government extravagance and of the Cabinet ignoring parliament.

Lack of a more powerful opposition means still greater responsibility for Mr. St. Laurent. In any democracy the party out of power is only second in importance to the one that is in. In constructive criticism, in keeping the government on its toes and in fighting for economy in the spending of public money the Opposition has a vital contribution to make.

But Canadians generally can be thankful that the election was decisive and that at the head of the new government is a man who commands of all universal respect.

RUNS LARGEST WOMEN'S SECTION

Editor of Canada's largest daily newspaper women's section, that of the London (Ont.) Free Press, Mrs. Marjorie Oliver was in Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon aboard the Princess Norah after making the round trip to Alaska and was a caller at the Daily News office. The London Free Press carries at least seven pages of women's news a day and sometimes more as compared with two or three in the most of the larger metropolitan dailies.

So popular are the social pages of the Free Press, said Mrs. Oliver, that there has to be a limit on what is accepted for publication. It is physically impossible to handle many contributions. Mrs. Oliver does not have to send her reporters, of which she has a staff of seven, to weddings. The people bring them in and do it promptly too.

Recently the Free Press published a notable one hundredth anniversary number. It was the largest single issue of a newspaper ever published in Canada and took a whole year to prepare with three months of concentrated effort by the whole staff before it was finally issued. "I wonder how we ever accomplished it" said Mrs. Oliver. "It was a great job of journalistic organization."

Mrs. Oliver was not to the newspaper business born or trained. When she became widowed several years ago in

The child appeared to be normal in every respect.

Prince Albert she got a job in a newspaper here and liked the work to which she applied herself diligently and progressed well. "Yes, we have to work night and day," she said, "but I wouldn't do any other kind of work for the world."

Ray Reflects . . .

. . . and Reminisces

While some folks profess to regard it as an easily understood and unadorned chore, there are also those who confess to a feeling of curiosity about this business of helping get out a paper. They have any number of unanswered queries. They liked to watch the sheet "being put to bed" and listen to the low, regular rumble of the press. They are not sure pictures can be made on the premises. To explain by saying, off hand, that mats are cast or cuts used, does not enlighten in the least. As for the linotype? That's a study in itself. People sometimes inquire where news comes from and all of this, he it said, is not so simple to answer to the outsider.

Perhaps it would not be a tiresome notion to reminisce a bit longer about newspapers, and the life in general, nearly fifty years of it spent drifting across Canada from the Maritimes to Skeena. Everywhere, duties and responsibilities, problems and people have been much alike and, on the whole, useful and pleasant experiences vastly outnumbered the distasteful and unwelcome. One can remember so many incidents, anecdotes and happenings that can occur only where records of day to day developments are being chronicled.

So now, with the elections safely over, school holidays in

What is news, anyway? There are occasions when a good story is instantly spotted by one man and not even noticed by another. News is being created everywhere all the time. What to some is all important is to others of trifling concern. Summing it all up, news is life, and it can come from any part of the earth. Speaking of relative news values, if your home in Rupert burned down this afternoon, the tidings, to you would be more vital and startling than word of a faithful earthquake in the South Sea Islands.

FUN CLUB'S FIRST OUTING

Members of the Civic Centre "Fun Club" met for their first outing yesterday and boasted 100 percent attendance. Although the clouds looked a little threatening there was enough light to have a snapshot taken of the group before starting out. Gathering at the Cow Bay dock, the "A.P.C." Salt Lake ferry was boarded. The trip across the harbor, was enjoyable especially for those who had not taken it before. The majority were soon in the water in different parts of the lake. Log battleships were launched and carefully manoeuvred with one hand while the other hand clutched a sandwich, probably soaking wet but utterly delicious because of the hazard of eating at sea. The landlubbers sat around a small fire and ate their fare while the clouds above gradually cleared and let the sun through. Tag and exploring trips were other forms of enjoyment and finally there was a grand rush out of wet bathing suits to catch Captain Crawley's cruiser back to home base and make plans for the next outing on Friday which will be a bike hike to Grassy Bay.

SHOWER HONORS GLADYS FOSTER

A bridal shower of much interest was held on Monday, July 4, at the home of Mrs. W. D. Faught, 701 Fifth Avenue West, in honor of Miss Gladys Foster, formerly of the Borden Street teaching staff, bride-elect of Fred Smith of Digby Island.

The bride-elect was seated in a pink and white bower centred by a large white bell.

The early evening was spent in playing amusing games and community singing, at the conclusion of which the wedding march was played to herald the entrance of two little bridal couples — Dayle Faught and Jimmy Schumann, Loretta Faught and Louise Skogmo, who wheeled in a model house filled to capacity with gifts. On one side of Landing, the other "Bound for the roof was written "Happy Digby."

After the opening of the gifts Miss Foster thanked all for the beautiful and useful gifts.

Delicious refreshments were then enjoyed by all.

Those present beside the hostess and guest of honor were: Misses Margaret McLeod, Helen Hurd, Daisy Sharpe, Beth Astoria, Jeanne Thompson, Lenora Faught, Jean Faught, and Mesdames Santurbane, Ciccone, Webber, Irvine, Thompson, Moore, McClintock, Barclay, Schumann, Judge, R. Judge, Leeming, Foster, Skogmo, Long, Skinner, Whittaker, O. K. Faught, O. R. Faught, McDonald, Haapala, Penoff, Petroff, Clapp, R. G. Large, Chell, Olson, Howe, Carr, Withers, Bernie, Greene, Astoria and Dolphin.

The event was recorded by the taking of flash pictures.

VIKING SHIP PREPARES TO INVADE ENGLAND—This is an artist's impression of the Viking ship now being built at Frederikssund, Denmark, for use when the Viking landing on England's coast is re-enacted on July 28. The ship is 24 metres long and weighs 15 tons and, since it is also to sail to London, has a mast which can be lowered to permit passage under the Thames bridges. The new "invasion" is being planned by the British and Danish Travel associations to commemorate the 15th centenary of the original Viking invasion of Britain.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

Berry-time is here. It is a joy to the homemaker to have strawberries, raspberries, blackberries, loganberries and blueberries follow in quick succession, making desserts no problem for the next few weeks. Some families are satisfied to have fresh red-ripe strawberries with cream served three times a day while the season lasts. Old-fashioned strawberry short cake is always tops. Double crust strawberry pie "like mother used to make", may be dad's choice while teen-agers rave about Raspberry Chiffon Pie.

Home economists have many tested recipes using berries in various ways. Plain cake served warm with a topping or sauce of sweetened crushed berries, is equally good with all types of berries.

Genuine strawberry short cake is not a cake but a baking powder biscuit baked in two layers served hot and well buttered, with berries lightly crushed and sweetened between and on top. It should be served with rich cream but not whipped. This masterpiece of cookery is supposed to have originated in the State of Maine and was originally a breakfast dish. Elsewhere, however, it is usually a dessert.

Berry Pie Filling
4 cups berries (strawberries, raspberries, blackberries huckleberries)
3/4 cup sugar
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon quick-cooking tapioca
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
2 tablespoons butter
Uncooked pastry shell
Mix together all ingredients except the fruit and butter.

Crumb Berry Pudding
1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1/2 cup quick-cooking rolled oats
1 cup sour milk
1/4 cup shortening
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon soda
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup berries (strawberries, blueberries or raspberries)
Soak crumbs and rolled oats in sour milk for 1 1/2 to 2 hours. Cream shortening and sugar. Sift together the flour, baking powder, soda and salt. Add berries to dry ingredients and add alternately with crumb mixture to the creamed fat and sugar mixture. Blend thoroughly. Fill individual moulds two-thirds full. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 375 degrees F.

Sprinkle light layer of mixture on pastry in pie pan. Alternate layers of fruit and mixture. Dot top with butter, bake pie 15 minutes in a very hot oven, 450 degrees F, reduce heat to 350 degrees F, and continue baking 35 minutes.

Berry Sherbet
2 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup light corn syrup
2 cups cereal cream
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 lemon, grated rind and juice
1 1/2 cups crushed berries
3 tablespoons sugar
Beat eggs until light and lemon coloured. Add sugar, blending well. Combine remaining ingredients except the berries and sugar; add to egg mixture. Freeze at low temperature in refrigerator tray until just firm. Remove from tray, whip until light and add crushed berries to which sugar has been added. Pour mixture back into freezing tray until firm, about 3 hours. Yield: Six servings. Garnish with whole berries. Any fresh berries may be used. Raspberries and blueberries are especially good.

MONTREAL, July 7th—"More homelike" was the verdict of a women's club member who participated recently in her club's taste test... comparing Heinz Cream of Tomato Soup with a leading competitive brand! Interesting comment to all of us who like our soups to be high in quality—tops in taste—yet "jiffy-quick" to prepare! And this lady's preference for Heinz Soup was strongly seconded by her club friends. Heinz Soup and the other brand were identified by numbers only in this society's taste test. And, as in five similar tests—Heinz was the favoured choice—in this case, by almost 90% of the ladies! Comments ranged from "perfect" to "no improvement could be made"! Why not ask your grocer for to "no improvement could be made"! The result, I'm willing to bet, will be the beginning of a long friendship between your family and the House of Heinz!

HORSE KICKS LITTLE GIRL

FRANCOIS LAKE—Little Loretta Hickey, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hickey's little year-old girl, gave her parents a few hours of intense worry when she was kicked in the face by a horse. She had been riding in a little wagon in the yard being pulled by her brother Dennis, who evidently grabbed its leg for perfectly quiet and children, he kicked face. Covered with bleeding from the mouth, she was rushed to hospital in Burns Lake. Only injury was the teeth and several AUCKLAND, N. Z. —The president of a bowling club staggered players at a green here by asking them how to play the game. He explained that he came from a remote district which was laying out its first green and although elected president of the new club, had never seen a game in his life.

FIRE taught me a lesson!

about the worth of DUROID Shingles

As fire raged through the house next door Sonny's kid-voice shrilled at me: "Hey, Pop, our roof's on fire too!"

It looked bad. Our old wooden roof was tinder dry. "Here goes everything," I thought.

But we were lucky. Fire hoses swung around, hurled water with terrific force and killed the blaze in time.

Afterwards, I learned that sparks had showered down harmlessly on my neighbor's DUROID roof.

So I made up my mind—and roofed our new home with Forest Green DUROID Shingles in hexagon style. That was several years ago and our roof is as bright today as when it was applied.
