Child Burned To Death In Interior Village

Adjudicator Is Talented

Drama adjudicator at this week's Music and Drama Festival will be James McGrath. According to word received by Canon Basil S. Prockter, president of the Festival Association, the Department of Education was unable to send Mrs. Johnson again this year and arranged for Mr. McGrath to replace her. Mr. McGrath is a former professional actor and director. After many years on the stage in England and India he came to Canada with the McLeod Repertory Players and continued with the company until their return to England several years later. Mr. McGrath both sings and recites and the Festival committee hopes that there will be opportunities to make use of his talents during the Festival sessions. Stanley Bligh, music and drama editor of the Vancouver Sun is here to act as adjudicator for all music classes. Mr. Bligh is no stranger here for he was in the city in a similar capacity last year. He arrived from Vancouver on the Princess Norah this morning.

Winter Ending, Spring Begins

Winter ends and spring begins at 2:36 a.m. tomorrow. Of course, this is just the official change of the season. Actually, Prince Rupert has been enjoying typical spring weather for the last few weeks. Gardeners have been bestirring themselves and there has been the urge to clean up and improve. Civic beautification and town planning ideas have taken new birth. For those who may be interested in the technical determination of where winter ends and spring begins, it may be explained that it becomes spring at the vernal equinox when the earth's axis is perpendicular to the plane of the orbit of the earth around the sun, is at right angles to the direction of the sun and the length of day equals the length of night. From now on day become longer than night in the northern hemisphere until the summer solstice on June 21 when the North Pole starts tilting away instead of toward the sun and the days start shortening again.

Would Make Road Repair

Residents of Rushbrook Heights are to be canvassed to sign a petition regarding the road situation in that area, it was decided at a meeting of the Community Ratepayers' Association in the Civic Centre last week. The petition requests repairs to roads be carried out by the city or private contractors at the Association's expense. The petition had been held up for the past four months but was finally brought into the light at the meeting.

R. D. Cleland, member of the I.T.A., attended the meeting and requested support by the Association in establishment of a kindergarten program. Mr. Cleland had not sufficient information with him but would compile all necessary data. He stated that during last year, 180 children were eligible for the pre-school classes and more will be available this year. Ratepayers were of the opinion that a kindergarten operated by the school board would be better than the present set-up. They believed regular school teachers were favorable.

Applewhaite On Warehouse Deal

Inquiries instituted by wire late last week by the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce in regard to disposal of the American-built warehouse on the local waterfront, demolition of which was to be commenced today by its purchaser, Soren Madsen of Edmonton, have brought a reply from E. T. Applewhaite, M.P. for Skeena, to the effect that, when not owning the land, War Assets procedure is always to sell outright on restoration of site basis as only the owner of the land can make further agreements for its use. (Canadian National Railways are the owners of the land in this case.) Mr. Applewhaite's message to the Chamber adds: "You all know of my efforts to preserve these buildings for use and my promise to Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe not to raise further objections to the sale if the administration building is held up long enough to enable us to get it into use. (The administration building has been since purchased by Frank Kalford of Toronto who is having it converted into an apartment house.) Mr. Madsen, who was interviewed soon after he arrived in the city last week both by the Daily News and the Chamber of Commerce, said that "the door is open," as far as he was concerned, to any negotiations with a view to use of the building but, unless other arrangements were made, it would be demolished although not hurriedly.

Basement Fire Caught In Time

A fire which had evidently been smouldering for several hours around an old stump at the rear of the former Hyde Transfer and bottling works building at 171 Third Ave. East, resulted in a call at 5:30 Saturday morning for the services of the fire department. By that time a patch under the building was afire and smoking profusely. The alarm was turned in from the adjoining Pioneer Rooms. Soon after Mr. and Mrs. Russ Gatske, who occupy the upper floor of the building, were aroused by smoke. No damage was done to the property which is owned by Oscar Havroy. Plumbers were reported to have been working on water pipes under the building on Saturday.

Communists, Police Fight

SAIGON, Indo-China.— Communist-led Indo-China rioters battled with police for four hours yesterday in protest at Americans backing Viet Nam, the new pro-French government. Students and laborers, waving the gold-starred flag of Moscow-trained Ho Chi Minh's guerrillas, burned a block of market buildings before French police dispersed them with tear gas and volleys fired into the air. It is estimated that eighty rioters were injured but no deaths are listed. George L. Rorie and S. B. Laird are leaving on tonight's train for a week's business trip to Smithers and Hazelton.

Hopes Are Raised—Landing On Mainland

TAIPEI.—Capture of the mainland town of Sungmen, 200 miles south of Shanghai, in a commando-type operation has raised Nationalist hopes for more extensive future attacks on the Communist coast. Seizure of Sungmen Wednesday did not represent the establishment of an invasion beach-head. It is generally believed in this Nationalist capital that the landing party was prepared to withdraw any time superior forces showed.

Wing Tip Of B-36 Sighted?

VANCOUVER.—A Royal Canadian Air Force plane and a salvage launch are searching off the northern tip of Vancouver Island following report of a freighter that an airplane wing tip had been sighted 30 miles north of Cape Scott in Queen Charlotte Sound. It might have been from the B36 bomber ditched February 13, off the British Columbia coast, twelve men parachuting safely to earth and five others still being missing.

ARTIST-PREACHER.—Well known throughout Western Canada and the Northwestern States, Rev. H. G. Jorgenson will shortly conduct a series of on-the-spot illustrated lectures at First Baptist Church here. Mr. Jorgenson, who comes from Fosston, Minnesota, has been engaged in missionary and evangelistic work in the four western provinces for nearly seven years. His work is under the Baptist Union of Western Canada and the Norwegian Baptist Conference of America. Commencing Friday evening of this week, he will be here for ten days with meetings each evening except Saturday and Sunday. He will take part in church services on Sunday. Mr. Jorgenson's procedure* is to transform what he is saying into a large picture before the audience, the picture being usually given to the person who has brought the most visitors.

International Hockey—Canada And Britain Tied

LONDON.—The Edmonton Mercury's today coasted past Norway 11 to 1 for their first straight victory in the round robin finals of the world's amateur hockey tournament. Edmonton Mercury's threw a four-goal third period splurge at the United States Saturday night for a 5 to 0 victory and moved closer to the world's amateur hockey championship. The victory left Mercury's at first place tied with Britain for that time with four points each but Canada's goals for and against record is far superior. All other teams have been defeated once or more.

BELGIANS STRIKE
BRUSSELS.—Belgians, opposed to the return of King Leopold III to the throne, began a round of work stoppages today, calling out 30,000 men to underscore determined Socialist opposition to pro-Leopold forces. Tramway and foundry workers walked off their jobs in widely scattered parts of the country but the hardest hit city was Antwerp where 128 ships were immobilized. Then entire administrative staff of the port, including 126 pilots, joined with 11,000 dock and shipyard workers in a 24-hour strike.

Their spokesman, Don Peck, said they had failed to get action from the provincial department of public works after repeated requests.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
The sun was shining brightly over much of the interior of British Columbia and the lower mainland this morning but unsettled weather is expected to herald the arrival of spring on the west coast. Another active centre appears to be developing off the west coast of Vancouver Island and rain associated with this disturbance will spread over most of the Island by mid-day and into the lower Fraser Valley this afternoon. Increased cloudiness and scattered showers will extend to the interior by this evening. Outlook for Tuesday is very little better as another storm appears to be developing about 600 miles off the coast. Forecast
North Coast Region.—Cloudy today and Tuesday. Scattered showers today and intermittent rain beginning Tuesday afternoon. Little change in temperature. Winds — southeast, 20 miles per hour, in the exposed areas and light elsewhere today, becoming southeast (25 miles per hour) over the entire area Tuesday morning. Local Pioneer Dies Suddenly

John Eklund, 77 year old pioneer of this district was found dead in his cabin at the Fisherman's Floats east of the dry dock shortly after 5 p.m. Sunday by his friend Charles Erickson and two companions. Prior to 5 o'clock, Erickson had been visiting the deceased and thought that he was dying. He immediately left the dwelling in search of Bart Hedstrom, another friend. Not being able to locate Hedstrom, he contacted two other persons. Upon arrival at the cabin, Mr. Eklund was found dead.

Police and Coroner M. M. Stephens were notified and an inquiry was held at the Sheriff's office this afternoon. Cause of death was found natural and due to coronary thrombosis, the coroner reported. Mr. Eklund had lived in this district since 1914, the most of the time spent in this city. A logger by trade, he was also employed as a rock man by the city during the early days of construction. He also worked in Alaska.

Born in northern Sweden, he came to Canada in 1908 and later journeyed to the west coast. An old age pensioner, he had been retired since 1941. For the past two years, he had been a member of the Valhalla Lodge. He was single.

Funeral arrangements, under the direction of B. C. Undertakers, will be announced later.

Police at Hazelton report that on two previous occasions, Johnson's 13-year old daughter Lillian had attempted to set fire to the dwelling. On Friday she was left in the house with the youngster. The coroner at Hazelton is in contact with the Attorney-General in Victoria to obtain permission for an inquest. The body of the infant has not been located.

Hand To Dr. Millikan

SPEECH-WEARY newspapermen and perhaps some other polite people who frequent banquets and such gatherings and listen through report after report, "brief remarks" after "brief remarks," introductions often as lengthy as the lectures will, we think, give a hand to Dr. Robert A. Millikan, the famous American scientist.

If some of the speakers who can't wait to get started and never know when to quit or those who rise to face an audience already numbed by long and wearisome preliminaries only could realize how they could make themselves popular, they might do like Dr. Millikan did recently.

The noted doctor had been out-talked by those who went before in spite of the fact he was billed as the principal speaker so he met the situation thus:

"At this hour, I fear the mind is too weary to listen to the speech I have prepared. I had intended to discuss one of the chapters in my new book, 'The Road to Peace.' Any of you who are interested may read the book.

Then he sat down.

Just right! Exactly what thousands have longed to hear; exactly what other thousands have longed to do.

NEW ANGLE ON DEMOCRACY

THE BELGIAN people have voted on whether they want to have King Leopold back and by a small majority the answer was affirmative. Now Parliament is to confirm the matter and, if they confirm, Leopold says he will return.

All of which is a new angle on democracy—voting on a King! What would some of the old time regal despots, who made all decisions, much less consulting with the people whether or not they should occupy the throne, have thought of such a thing as this?

At least, the head that wears or would wear a crown rests more easily nowadays.

But there are still despots around. They don't happen to wear crowns and they need not dress so fancily, but are just as powerful and just as cruel, it seems as some of our late lamented rulers of ages past could have been at their worst. And maybe it's harder to get their heads into a basket.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

The agility of a monkey is necessary to use some of the waterfront facilities here in the way of venerable ladders, slippery spots, doubtful floats, and back of all this a lighting system that has all the dimness of half an hour before dawn. The Community Ratepayers, in giving a resounding shout for a new deal, earn public gratitude.

British Columbia has been hearing a lot about hospitals for the last few months. So has England where, in some cities, daily menu cards are handed around the wards. At the top of each appear the words: "Good Morning." Not a bad idea! Makes the place seem less like a hospital.

A modern hotel is to go up, and a modern warehouse is to come down. So what!

Praise of British Columbia artists has been heard in the legislature. Encouragement is deserved and comes none too soon. A province such as this gives countless opportunities for studies. Painting scenes of beauty is never a waste of time, as some might indirectly suggest. Few lives have been more crowded than Churchill's, with immense responsibilities. Yet he found time to excel with brush and canvas.

Coming down to private affairs, we know hardly anything about saucers—flying or stationary. The dish remembered best was the saucer we had a habit of filling with scalding hot tea and blowing on. But by that time, sharp reproach from the head of the house was on the way for such an outrageous example of table propriety.

Possibly the general election has something to do with it? At any rate, word from Britain says there is a decline in the demand for spectacles, wigs, medical attention and the Lord knows what else, which is little short of amazing.

Senator Eaton of Montana suggests that, as a substitute for statehood, Alaska might be content to become a northern outpost of the State of Montana. Wonder if he's ever been as far west as British Columbia. Or would it be possible Alaska might have a few remarks to make on the subject.

A leopard, escaping from a zoo in Oklahoma, ate a chunk of meat in which poison had been placed and died. He had been pursued by several thousand citizens. Neither the dope nor the chase could be called good sportsmanship. Since then, another leopard, this time in New Zealand and loathing a life sentence as much as the other one, was killed while seeking liberty. No one, by any chance, has noticed any cougar tracks out around Shawatlans or on the mountain back of the city, has he?

with organization of the Parks Board, and beautifying of the city. It's perhaps to be regretted that, before the townsite was cleared, some of the fine old trees still standing, had not been spared. For no man can make one.

Justice Rand of the Supreme Court of Canada has been offering young lawyers a little free advice. It deals chiefly with questioning of witnesses but its application could be general. Boiled down it means simpler language, the wisdom of short, ordinary but apt terms, instead of stilted, artificial, formal words which do not put people at ease, or simply understanding. More than young lawyers could take the wise counsel to heart.

Prince Rupert remains the home of quite a few railway veterans practically all of whom can spin yarns of incidents and experiences. It's an entertaining collection. Many, at least for a while, have worked in regions far distant from Skeena. One night, a train from Florida, was approaching Kentucky. It was long past bedtime hour. In a sleeping coach, a well cut the composure. More followed. A few mixed with profanity, came from men. Women shrieked, and gowned figures began to appear from behind rows of curtains. A passenger had among her possessions a medium sized box to which she had been giving personal care. Fellow travellers never suspected what it contained. It consisted of merely a couple of baby alligators. In some way they had managed to free themselves and go crawling over the sleeping forms around them. "By Jingo!" observed the old railroader "how those women screeched!"

LETTERBOX

VISION NEEDED

Editor, Daily News.

Can you imagine a "Sir Wilfred Laurier" looking at a map of Canada, especially of British Columbia and putting a TransCanada Highway through the Big Bend and on to Vancouver at the extreme southwest corner of our country? Would we ever have had the C.N.R. with this kind of vision?

They already have a good highway to Vancouver and the resources of southern B. C. are pretty well developed, while from Jasper to Prince Rupert lies a vast empire, capable of supporting at least two million people, a country rich in timber, minerals, water power, fish, game, and a great agricultural area just waiting for good transportation to lure not only settlers but tourists by the thousands to visit this land of Golden Twilight and the scenic beauties of the "Canadian Alps" from Smithers to Prince Rupert.

Here, there is no high pass and winter closed highway but great valleys through the centre of our country from which feeder highways can tap the Peace River, Northern B.C. and Alaska, and to the south, the Thompson and Fraser Valleys, the great Interior Lakes district and Tweedsmuir Park. From this great country, even Vancouver would reap great rewards.

Surely an intelligent study of the map coupled with unselfish vision would convince any fair minded person of the great advantage of this route.

Let us forget about votes and politics, and think of the future of our country.

Dry Dock Busy on Boat Overhauling— Barney Kristmansson's New Boat

Approximately 50 vessels are being overhauled at the Prince Rupert Dry Dock at the present time. The scene is busy with noise of workmen painting and repairing hulls and overhauling engines. Superintendent Robert Cameron stated a large number of boats have been coming in and leaving throughout the year and no slump in boat repairing was evident.

The light house tender Alberni, Capt. J. Petersen has been undergoing an annual overhaul for some time now and at the week-end was near completion. In section three, the packer Fitzhugh, rammed during the herring season by one of two scows it was towing, is just being given its final treatment by workmen. In section two, two Columbia Cellulose barges are high and dry awaiting overhauling. For the past two weeks, H.M.C.S. Chatham's patrol vessel has been undergoing repairs. Also in drydock is the Indian Department vessel Naskeena and the Anglican Mission boat Northern Cross.

Barney Kristmansson has been spluttering around the harbor in his new craft Lady Luck I, which was recently completed at Wahl's shipyard on Digby Island. The vessel is powered by an 84 horse power Scripps' diesel engine and travels at a real clip. The boat is 34 feet in length with nine feet four inches beam. Barney was working on the vessel during a bright sunny Friday afternoon. His first jaunt in the vessel was on Thursday.

Nelson Brothers at Port Edward are to engage ten beam trawlers for sole and scrap fish in the near future. Three company craft are out at present. These include the Twinkle, Capt. John Johanson, which was moored at the Imperial Oil dock Thursday afternoon and the Smith Sound, Capt. A. Brown, The Twinkle and Carolina Maria recently landed a load of flatfish at B. C. Packers. All vessels are presently engaged in dragging for flatfish. The Morris H. landed some fish at the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative last week and at Atlin Fisheries. Flat fish were brought in by the Skeena Maid and Hero No. 1. Most of the fishing is concentrated in Hecate Straits and around Butterworth Rocks. The latter is approximately 25 miles out of Prince Rupert. Weather

British Columbia Steamships freighter Alaska Prince, Capt. At Port Edward at the week-end, before heading for Alice Arm, the Alaska Prince discharged cargo for Nelson Bros. Ltd. and the Columbia Cellulose Co.

Legion Women's Annual Banquet

The Canadian Legion Women's Auxiliary held their annual banquet last week at the Broadway Cafe. Some ninety members attended. The hall was beautifully decorated with spring flowers, and the flag and poppies, emblems of the Legion.

The banquet was formally opened by the flag being brought forward with a toast to the King and singing of "O Canada." The members then enjoyed a fine turkey dinner. A handsome birthday cake was cut by the president, Mrs. W. Rothwell, who then made a short but interesting speech.

A bouquet of flowers was presented to past president Mrs. J. S. Black, who told experiences as president and also read an article very suitable to the occasion.

Presentation of corsages to all past executives by Mrs. W. Rothwell, president, and Mrs. J. S. Black, past president, was made as follows: Mrs. M. J. Keays, Mrs. A. Holbrook, Mrs. W. Garbutt, Mrs. A. Hardy, Mrs. D. Kerr, Mrs. A. J. Croxford, Mrs. J. Hanley, Mrs. W. Murdoch, Mrs. C. Anderson, Mrs. W. Rothwell.

Community singing was enjoyed during the evening with Mrs. Frank Ellison as accompanist. The remainder of the evening was spent playing court whist with Mrs. L. Peachey, Mrs. A. J. Croxford and Mrs. E. Goodsell being winners.

The committee in charge of the banquet consisted of Mrs. M. J. Keays, Mrs. A. Murray, Mrs. D. Gomez, Mrs. F. Ellison, Mrs. A. J. Croxford, Mrs. C. Micholoff, Mrs. M. Gilchrist.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Froese were here yesterday aboard the Coquitlam returning, after a trip to Vancouver, to Alice Arm where Mr. Froese is foreman of the Torbit mine.

Mrs. Robert Gordon, who has been visiting for the past three weeks at Southbank on Francois Lake with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Antilla, returned to the city on Sunday morning's train.

CITY BASKETBALL ENDS —

Co-ops, Fashion, Play-Off Winners Bo-Me-Hi Falls Apart At End

The curtain fell on City League basketball Saturday night. Co-Op made it two straight to win the Senior play. They won a 42 to 36 victory over Bo-Me-Hi. Fashion won the Intermediate title with two consecutive victories over Merchants.

Co-Op. win the Civic Centre trophy for their play-off victory and also will hold the Sun Life Cup, emblematic of the league championship.

Fashion is the winner of the Grotto Cup in the play-offs, and the George Cook trophy for league leadership.

The winners of the Bobby Houston Memorial Trophy for good sportsmanship and the Forward Trophy awarded to the most valuable player was announced to the spectators at the conclusion of the games on Saturday evening. The good sportsmanship award went to Robert Smith, of the North Star team. This is the first year that the winner has been from a division other than the senior. Smith has played a sterling game all season, and his ability to keep smiling under all conditions was a big factor in his winning the award.

Joe Davis of Co-op. was the winner of the most valuable player award. This trophy was won last year by Angus Macphee of the same team.

The awards were made by committees appointed by the basketball executive for the purpose. Each committee consisted of a member of the executive, an official, and a spectator on their membership.

The winners of other league and play-off awards were People's who took the Manson Trophy emblematic of the Ladies' League championship, and the Civic Centre Trophy for their play-off victory. In the Junior Division Rupert Hotel won the McMordie Cup as league leaders but lost out in the play-offs to Kinsmen, who, trounced them two straight to take the Civic Centre Trophy.

Senior Play-offs Saturday night's game was a repetition of the first game of the play-offs between Bo-Me-Hi and Co-ops. With four minutes left to play High School had a four point lead and looked like the winners. Then they repeated their performance of Tuesday night going all to pieces and letting Co-op pour in ten straight points which gave Co-op. the game, 42-36, and the play-off series in two consecutive wins. Joe Davis played one of his best games of the season to spark his team to victory with his sterling defense. He scored a big 19 points. For Bo-Me-Hi, everyone played of their best, with McChesney starring at guard. He was all over the floor and intercepted a good many Co-op. passes, besides scoring 8 points. It was a case of experience winning over youth.

Line-Ups:
Co-Op—R. Holkestad 6, Flaten 7, Scherk 6, Davis 19, Beynon, Arney 4, M. Holkestad, Morgan. Total 42.

Bo-Me-Hi—Carlson 5, Spring 8, Scherk 5, Webster 2, McChesney 8, Bill 4, Ratchford, Kristmanson 4, Sharpe. Total 36.

INTERMEDIATE
Fashion won a double-barrelled title Saturday night by taking the second straight game over Merchants in the Intermediate League by a 40 to 33 score. They are now the league champions the holders of the Grotto Cup. As winners of the intermediate playoffs they add the George Cook Trophy to their silver collection.

It was a fairly dull game, most of the action being in the third period. During the first half the score was close with Fashion having a slight edge at the 20-19. Merchants held a 17-10 lead in the early part of the second but could not keep it for long. In the third, Fashion pulled away ahead at 32-23. On the final frame Merchants had the edge—but it was too late.

Young Derek Letourneau, drafted by Merchants from the Junior Division, was the high scorer for the game with a sparkling 12 points. Bob Gill, with 11, and Intermela, with 9, were high for Fashion. Fouls were few 10 on Fashion and 9 on Merchants. Referees were Statta and Calderone.

Line-ups:
Fashion—Bob Gill 11, Barry Hill 6, Jim Intermela 9, Watson, Hougan 6, Drake 2, Brew 4. Total 38.

Merchants—Dumas 6, Marshall 4, Currie, Christoff 1, Davidson 4, Walsh 4, Letourneau 12, Boulter 2. Total 33.

HOCKEY SCORING RECORD

Edmonton Flyers are leading contenders again this year for the Allan Cup they won in 1947-48 season. One of the Flyers is 21-year-old Colin Kilburn who set a goal-scoring record in winning the point-getting title this season in the western Canada Senior Hockey League. The scrappy left winger in his second year in senior ranks collected 51 goals and 29 assists. Kilburn who had a try-out last fall with Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League was voted the league's most valuable player in a poll of sports writers. In the previous year he won the circuit's award as the outstanding rookie. (CP Photo)

Nanaimo Is Eliminated

Nurses' Home Under Way

Contractors Mitchell and Currie, now that the cold weather is over, have made a start on the building of the addition at the east side of the Nurses' Home of the Prince Rupert General Hospital for which they were awarded the contract a few months ago. Excavation having been pretty well completed, forms for the concrete foundations are now being put in. C. W. White of the firms of McCarter and Nairne, architects, visited the work this week.

FEW people can kill it singlehanded!
THIS IS THE PUT-OFF BIRD.
He usually appears just when you're deciding to do something that should be done without delay. Then he tries to talk you out of it.
When you're planning a trip, he'll tell you not to bother making reservations when you have a slight toothache, he'll say: "Don't worry, pal — it'll soon pass. Besides, you're too busy to go to the dentist today!"
Oh, he's a sly one, this Put-Off Bird! And such a trouble-maker that he even gets fathers to neglect their family's financial security. But fortunately a deadly enemy of this bird often appears at such critical moments — and saves the day.
This enemy of the bird — and friend of fathers — is the life insurance representative. Aiming a few realistic facts at the mischievous creature, he kills it dead. Its dangerous propaganda is silenced. And always the father realizes why he should act to protect his family immediately.
Thus the life insurance representative helps prevent countless people from depending on charity or relatives for their support in years to come.
Life underwriters help people in other ways, too. They are trained to analyze facts related to the family's future needs... then build a sound life insurance plan that meets those needs exactly.
More than a million Canadian families have benefited by the services of the life underwriter. And he's always glad to help you!

A helpful citizen in your community
When a life insurance representative sells you a policy, helps to improve your community. For a large part of the insurance dollar is put to work through investments in schools, bridges, highways, industrial plants and many projects that create jobs and make for better living. You see, these improvements, made possible through the efforts of helpful fellow-citizen — the life underwriter!

St. Patrick's Dance Draws 200 — Sell Home And Leave Terrace—Building Sold

Almost 200 people attended the St. Patrick's Day dance which was held in the Oddfellows Hall on Friday night. The Civic Centre orchestra was in good form and dancing continued until the early hours of the morning. Refreshments were served at midnight by the members of the Oddfellows' lodge. Presiding at the door were Jack Barman and Frank Craig. Winners of the door prizes were Fred Douglas and Denis de Kergommeaux. An interesting interlude during the evening was the presentation to Lawrence (Bud) Kirkaldy of a bronson lighter bearing the navy crest and engraved with his name. The presentation was made by Frank Gavan, conductor of the Civic Centre Symphony orchestra of which Bud was a faithful member since its inception. Bud left later on the early morning train and will proceed to Esquimalt where he will continue his naval training on H. M. C. S. "Maden". He has spent the past few weeks on holiday here with his parents Mr. and Mrs. S. N. G. Kirkaldy.

Having sold their home on Lakelse Avenue to Harvey Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Muller and children left on the early morning train for the south where they will reside in California. On Thursday evening, a farewell party was given for them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Robinson where their friends gathered to wish them God speed and good luck in their new environment.

Alex Gillanders left last week to attend a Co-operative convention in the south.

Miss Dorothy Irving R. N. returned on Thursday morning from Vancouver to which point she accompanied John Lokzyn who had been sent south for treatment following a serious accident at Kalum nearly two weeks ago.

W. Crego has left for Port Edward where he will be employed with the Neison Brothers Fisheries. His wife and family will follow later.

Two Romances Are Depicted

A romantic theme extending from one generation to another is the unusual and appealing basis of the story of the picture "Enchantment" which comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this Monday and Tuesday. David Niven, Teresa Wright, Evelyn Keyes and Farley Granger are the featured players.

Two love affairs—half a century apart—both take place in the same setting—a gracious and stately old London home.

A young British subaltern and his father's pretty ward are the principals in the earlier romance which never culminates because of family jealousy. But, by the time the young officer has become a retired and embittered general, he finds himself an interested spectator of a second romance between his American grand niece and the nephew of his old fiancée. At the crucial moment, he steps in to keep the pair from suffering the same frustration that he did.

Niven and Miss Wright are the principals of the first episode and Granger and Miss Keyes, the second.

Cemetery Body Is in Session

TERRACE—The community is showing very little interest in the upkeep of the Kalum Cemetery. This was made apparent at Thursday night's public meeting in the credit union hall when only the cemetery board members were in attendance.

It was the annual meeting and they voted themselves back into office. Harry King has fulfilled the office of chairman for the past twenty years. R. Corey is secretary. Others on the board are W. Warner, J. B. McKay, J. T. McKay, W. Donald and J. Normandeau.

Much of the business was postponed until the next meeting which will be held at the cemetery at the end of April.

The board has a bank balance of $230 which will not cover the plans they have for this year.

Donations of lumber are needed to make a tool building which is needed at the cemetery.

A plan of the location of the graves is also needed.

At the next meeting the board will try to comply with a request to have sections of the cemetery allocated to churches and lodges.

Insurance On Civic Centre

TERRACE—Twelve ratepayers turned out at Wednesday night's meeting of the Civic Centre Association which was held in the lecture room of the fire hall, free use of which had been offered by the fire department. H. Smith presided.

The renewal of the $10,000 insurance policy on the Civic Centre building was the main business of the meeting. The meeting went on record as favoring the commissioners paying the policy which was to expire at noon Saturday.

Commissioners Haugland, Little, and Kirkaldy met in the municipal office on Thursday afternoon to discuss the renewal of the Civic Centre insurance policy.

Ben Dodds, president of the Civic Centre Association, and Mrs. Newhouse, secretary, and also representing the Ratepayers' Association, were present. The commissioners decided to renew the policy on the expectation that the Civic Centre will reimburse them over a period of three years. In this way the Civic Centre would not become a liability on the municipality.
