Russian Officers Attend U.S. Army Berlin Party

IN (CP) — Two young Russian officers attended a United States Army Day reception in the American zone in Berlin today. It was the first time since the Russian attitude toward the American zone was announced that Russian officers had attended a function since the commencement. How particular significance is attached to it as far as a reflection of the Russian attitude toward the American zone is not known. General George P. Hays.

BERLIN HOST—Gen. George P. Hays host at party attended by Russians. Gen. Hays dedicated Roosevelt Park in Prince Rupert following World War II.

THIRTY-ONE SHIPS TIED

Seafarers' International Union Replaces Canadian Seafarers at Victoria

HALIFAX — Eric Atkins, a national officer of the Canadian Seafarers' Union (TLC) said here today that thirty-one ships are tied up now by the week-old strike against Canadian deep-sea shippers. Eleven of the vessels are in Halifax, three in St. John, two in Louisburg, Nova Scotia, and the remaining fifteen in British, French, Australian and Cuban ports and Vancouver.

At Victoria the Seaboard Queen was preparing to sail this afternoon for the United Kingdom with cargo of lumber and a crew of Seafarers' International Union members taken aboard after a sit-down-striking Canadian Seafarers' Union crew had been ordered off yesterday.

Halifax Fishing Vessels Missing

HALIFAX, — Two small fishing craft, with three men aboard, were reported missing today after gales had swept the Maritime Provinces, disrupting communications. A search by the Royal Canadian Air Force and rescue unit was planned for the two craft in the Bay of Fundy area.

BREAD AMPLIFIED DESPITE STRIKE

WINNIPEG — A strike at Winnipeg's four major bakeries moved into its twenty-sixth day today and the strange part of the whole affair is that there is no bread shortage in this city of a quarter of a million people. Chain stores still have plenty of bread on their shelves and restaurants have enough to go around.

Although the striking bakers normally produce about sixty percent of the bread used in the city, smaller bakeries and shops plus housewives who make their own bread are keeping the city supplied. However, no bakery has time to make cakes or pastry so such supplies are non-existent.

ALASKA DEP'T OF FISHERIES

JUNEAU—Governor Gruening has signed a bill, creating a new territorial Department of Fisheries to co-operate with federal agencies and to take over Alaska's fisheries in the event of statehood. He also signed the bill to increase fishermen's license fees—$5 for resident and $50 for non-resident.

DENIES SUBVERSION
OTTAWA—Sam Carr, calm and collected in the witness box, categorically denied today that he had ever engaged in subversive activities for Russia in Canada. He said that he had remained in the United States because his health was poor but always intended to return to Canada eventually.

YOUNG PEOPLE KILLED
BRANDON—Seven persons, four men and three teen-age girls, were killed near here last night when their automobile crashed into the rear of a parked snow plow. Known dead are Alvin Grieve, Elmer Grieve, Bernice Jackson, Jean Karnes and Pearl Stevens, all of Brandon, and Jack Hodgkins of Killarney, Manitoba. One of the male victims, body badly mutilated, has not yet been identified.

SURRENDER—OR ELSE
SHANGHAI—In a surprise move today, the Chinese Communists gave the nationalist government until Saturday to start and until Tuesday to complete their surrender or "face the consequences." Failure to surrender would leave only one course, the Communists said—crossing of the Yangtze River and wiping out of the last vestiges of the Kuomintang.

MARGUERITE ARRIVES
VICTORIA — The Princess Marguerite, new and largest passenger ship on the British Columbia coast, arrived yesterday from her builders on the Clyde. She will later go on the Vancouver-Victoria-Seattle triangle run.

SAM McCLURE PASSES AWAY

NEW YORK — A man who started some of the nineteenth century's most widely known literary figures died here late last month, in his 92nd year. He was Samuel S. McClure, first to syndicate fiction to newspapers. He had the idea first, and it paid.

McClure discovered Kipling. He was a friend of Robert Louis Stevenson. Sherlock Holmes entertained the world through the McClure syndicate. Others who won renown and money, once McClure took them in hand included Ida Tarbell, biographer of Lincoln, Booth Tarkington, Anthony Hope, O. Henry and Jack London.

WILLIAM HILLS IS OTTAWA SPEAKER

OTTAWA—Rev. William Hills of Victoria spoke at the closing banquet of the Fisheries Council convention here. He paid his respects to socialism and communism.

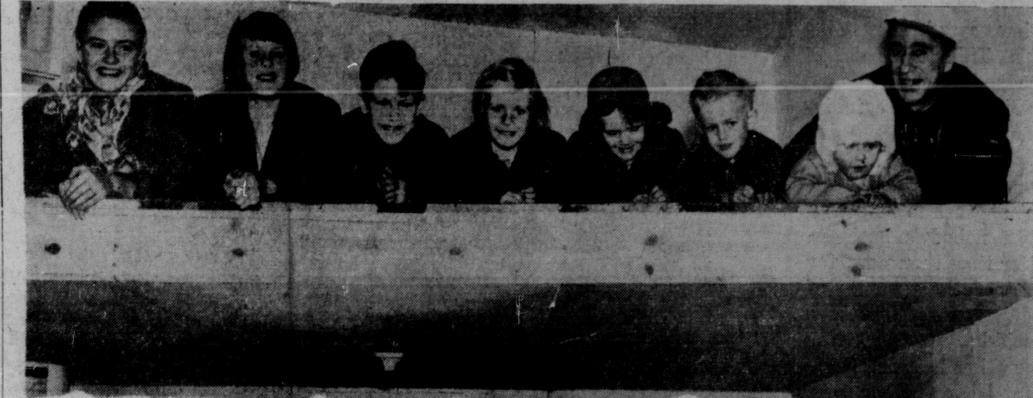

"We will," said Mr. Hills, "do away with soldiers, sailors and airmen as soon as we can do away with policemen. At that time I will be out of a job. Heaven will be here on earth."

FIFTY MILLION NEWFOUNDLAND

OTTAWA—The Federal Government probably will spend more than $50,000,000 in Newfoundland during the first year of union. Special estimates will be introduced later to provide for expenditures. The amount will cover family allowances, old age pensions, veteran benefits.

Constable Alex J. Davidson, until recently on city detachment of provincial police here, has succeeded in a traffic officer's course at Victoria and has been transferred to Fort Nelson for highway patrol duty on Alaska Highway. Mrs. Davidson and child are leaving tonight on the Prince Rupert for Vancouver to join him and proceed north.

Election Talk In Air As Grit Convention Opens In South

SMALL-TOWN SPIRIT PROVIDES NEW HOME FOR FAMILY OF ELEVEN—On March 17, St. Patrick's Day, Paul Brunette, his wife and nine children were made homeless when a fire burned their frame house to its foundations. But today the family, who arrived in Belleville, Ont., from Montreal only 18 months ago, have a new house, thanks to the work of neighbors who in 12 hours erected the building and contributed to the cost of new furnishings. Here Paul Brunette and seven of his nine children pose happily in section of their brand new home. Youngsters reading from left are: Pauline, 16; Lucille, 12; Roger, 9; Helen, 7; Lise, 6; Robert, 4; and Jacqueline, 2. The other two youngsters not shown are John, 14, Denise, 11. Children had great time lending hand while home was being built.

FIREMEN AGREE TO ABIDE BY CONCILIATION

Prince Rupert local of the International Association of Fire Fighters agreed last night that they would abide by the recommendations of a conciliation board which recently sought settlement of a wage dispute between the firemen and city council.

The board recommended that a 12 percent wage increase be given for all classes of firemen with the exception of probationers, whose wage scale remains at the $170 a month level set by the 1948 agreement.

City council's reaction to the board's decision will be learned Monday night when the aldermen formally consider it. The recommendation of the board would increase the salary of a first class fireman from $200 to $224 a month with corresponding boosts for all other classes with the exception of probationers.

Last night, the firemen confirmed an earlier statement that they were willing to abide by the recommendations of the board which heard their case and that of the city at a two-day hearing last month. They will so advise the provincial Labor Relations Board.

Members of the conciliation board were Judge W. O. Fulton, chairman, William Watts, representing the city and Thomas Elliott, representing the firemen.

LOCATIONS FOR MOORING BUOYS

Proposed to Department of Transport by Chamber of Commerce

Following up a proposal which it made several months ago that cement blocks formerly used as anchors for the wartime submarine net at the entrance of Prince Rupert harbor and buoys and chains left behind by the Royal Canadian Air Force be combined and used as mooring facilities for cruising and fishing vessels in adjacent waters, the port and marine committee of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce has submitted a list of 12 points at which such facilities should be installed.

Here are the places: Squadree, three-buoys; Metlakatla Passage, west side of Tugwell Bar, one; east of Metlakatla village, one; Port Simpson harbor, two; Lowe Inlet, one; Klew Nugget Inlet, one; Salmon River, one; Red Bluff, one; Indian River, south of Butedale, one.

PUB PROSPECT AROUSES TOWN

BRAUNSTONE, Eng. — Prospects of a pub being built here is causing the greatest excitement in centuries. And, above all, the site is near a church. "It's sacrilege, that's what it is," said Councillor Harris. "There's never been a pub here and we don't want one now." Ninety-eight per cent of the villagers have signed a protest. Said Mrs. G. Strowiger: "I think it's terrible they want to build a pub in the field where we kept our best cow."

DRAMATIC SIGHT AS LIGHTS GO ON

LONDON—The lights of London made a gay city Saturday night. It had a wonderful effect on the population. It is doubtful if ever before in her history there was lighting on such a vast and powerful scale. This did not come on all at once. It extended gradually, and as the illumination grew, so did the volume of cheering ascend from the crowds that filled the streets.

Coalition To Be Decided in Party Meeting

Premier's Appeal Expected to be Heeded—40 Resolutions

VANCOUVER (CP)—Election talk was in the air today as five hundred delegates sat down at the opening of the two-day British Columbia Liberal Association convention. At the convention the fate of the coalition is expected to be decided and announcement of the election date is expected to follow within a few days. Much will depend upon the decision of the federal government and its election plans.

June 27 or 28 has been mentioned as a probable election date for British Columbia but this is based on the belief that the federal election will not be called until fall, possibly October. The delegates were welcomed this morning at the opening by Mayor Charles Thompson of Vancouver.

This afternoon Premier Byron Johnson is delivering his keynote address which is expected to contain a strong appeal for the continuation of the coalition. Observers do not believe the Premier will meet with much resistance in his desire for such continuance.

Meantime the resolutions committee of the convention, under chairmanship of H. G. T. Perry of Prince George, approved resolutions to be placed before the convention. These are resolutions dealing with the completion of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway to Prince George, the Quesnel hydro-electric project, federal aid toward immediate completion of the railway to the Peace River, breaking of land for farmers and completion and improvement of the Trans-Provincial Highway from Prince Rupert to the Alberta boundary. Over forty resolutions are being presented to the convention by the resolutions committee.

Tourist Accommodation

PRINCE RUPERT has had a highway for years but still Prince Rupert has no tourist camp. A party of holiday-makers decides to drive away up into this new country in the north and reach the Pacific at Prince Rupert. The journey through a virgin, unspoiled, beautiful region is all very fine and possibly surpassing in interest what was pictured.

They arrive at Prince Rupert! And what? Where to park the local business cars is already becoming a perplexing question. This gives point to the problem of how to handle the increasing volume of tourists, practically certain to be here in increasing numbers every summer.

To date there has always been a certain looseness and lack of organization in dealing with tourists at Prince Rupert. What appears to be everybody's business seems to be nobody's business. There has never been a better time than now, for the fostering and development of the presence of these welcome strangers. But first of all, there should be a plan. There should be some centre, or camp to work from. Co-operation is good. So is the museum. But there must be more than this. The friendly contact, the cheerful willingness to provide ample information in print as well as verbally—the numerous little attentions that can go so far in creating good impressions—are all factors in causing the tourist to stay a while, rather than just pass through as so many do—unimpressed if not badly impressed.

LONDON LIGHTS UP

ANYONE can understand how London felt last Saturday night when for the first time since 1939, the blessed lights were turned on full blast and everyone rejoiced. Great cheers rang from packed streets, and faces reflected the feeling that the long night was passing.

Ten years of gloom is something hard to take. Ten years of blackness, total blackout or partial lighting comes as a strain on the system after a while.

The war ended yet it did not end the lack of satisfactory illumination. There were many reasons, some having nothing to do in particular with war, or its results. Providing power becomes a matter of cost and cost involves the general economic state of the country.

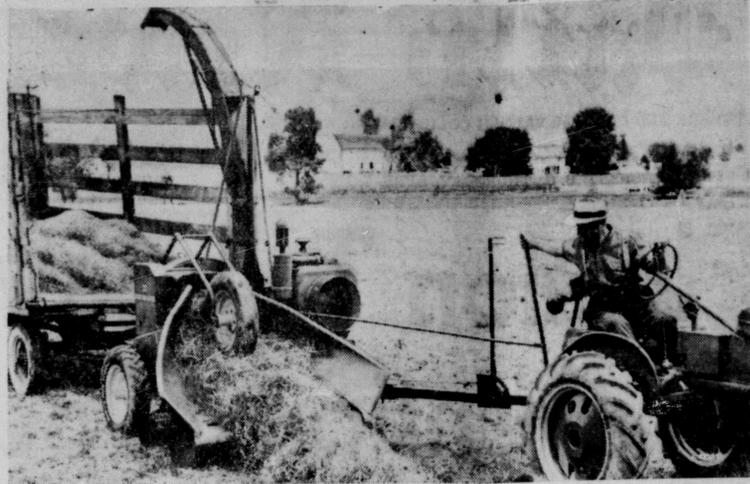

But whatever the reason, the situation is improving and that goes for Canada as well as London. No one has patience with dim, shadowy streets, where crime becomes easier, accidents more frequent and enthusiasm dampened.

NEW ZEALAND 'PARADISE'

CCF speakers have delighted to tell of how New Zealand has become the working man's paradise because of Socialist planning.

P. V. McLane, Commercial Secretary for Canada in Wellington, New Zealand, recently reported a few interesting facts. Said Mr. McLane:

"Butter is rationed and subsidized. Fish is relatively expensive and scarce. Fruit is generally scarce, and, with the possible exception of apples, too expensive for the ordinary purse. Eggs would be consumed in greater volume were it not for the fact that production is far from adequate, due to price control and feedstuff shortage. Housing is far from adequate. The demand will not be met for years to come. —Toronto Telegram.

ANOTHER FARM JOB BROUGHT CLOSER TO COMPLETE MECHANIZATION — This new time-and-labor-saving farm machine can be changed from a hay to a corn harvester in a few minutes. Here the field forage harvester automatically picks up hay from the windrow, chops and blows it into a trailing wagon for removal to mow or silo. Hay pick-up attachment can be easily removed and a row crop unit substituted for cutting and chopping corn. Production of the new machine is expected to speed mechanization of forage handling. Moving along the windrow, the machine can harvest up to 15 tons of hay an hour. In corn it will chop up to 25 tons an hour. The basic unit contains whirling knives which can be set to cut hay or corn in lengths from 1/4" to 4". From the tractor seat, the driver can start, stop or reverse the feeding mechanism, change the angle at which chopped material is being blown into trailing wagon, and raise or lower the harvesting unit.

A Spot of Comment..

HUMANITARIAN BUSINESS—

Not so many years ago the humanitarian in the business world was viewed with genuine alarm by his associates. He was regarded as a crank; a dangerous freak; a keaking; or a disarming combination of all three.

P. T. Barnum commonly receives the dubious credit for saying: "Never give a sucker an even break." Barnum was heavy timber in both the financial and entertainment spheres. It was considered good business to beat a competitor into the musk by fair means or foul.

But today the tough business man is not necessarily the unscrupulous one. True, some still subscribe to Barnum's hypothesis; but the tough one often disdains such a course as being unworthy of his mettle. He sets himself a higher standard of values and his toughness lies in his strict adherence to them. Even an adversary must meet him at that level or fail to reach him.

The group composing this type is becoming more prevalent every day. For so-called tough men of business they are doing strange things and making them pay. It may be that they are simply applying some of the basic precepts of theology. But whatever it is; conscious or not on their part, a new spirit is evident in the affairs of men in this western world. I use the word "western" in the geo-political sense.

We discover labor leaders, Walter Reuther is an example, advocating co-operation for the common good rather than a knock-down fight for special rights for a group of faithful heeled and payers of dues.

We find industrialists voluntarily making plans to provide security for employees without also sacrificing their individual freedoms.

At the extreme end of the scale, and admittedly an isolated example, is the firm of shoe manufacturers in Rhode Island, the Bristol Manufacturing Corporation, who have actually set up a Department of Christian Relations. It is complete with its own vice-president, a former minister, with an unlimited expense account for carrying on its affairs. The "profits" claimed for the department are astounding.

The eminent economist, Roger Babson, in his book "Investment Fundamentals," charts a loss-proof basis for granting credit. It lists nine basic requirements. The first three are Character, Spiritual Reserve, Integrity. The last three are Capital, Financial Reserve, Industry.

Winston Churchill points to the manner in which the United States is using its position of world leadership as an opportunity for world service, even to the point of sacrifice, rather than for profit. Yet observe the unsought profit flowing to them.

Business competitors are co-operating to an amazing extent. The old "money-bags" type of capitalist is almost extinct. Where he does exist he is treated only with cold suspicion by his associates.

Is it possible that the actual process of a change has been active but so gradual as to be indiscernible to the participants? Will it suddenly be realized that a change has been

BLAST OVER LOCAL RADIO

Chamber of Commerce Wonders Why "Free Enterprise" Subject Cannot be Broadcast

The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation is to receive one of the periodical blasts from the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce in regard to service and policy in the operation of the local station.

Recently the Chamber sought to have broadcast over the station here a series of transcriptions on the theme of free enterprise. The idea was ruled out by the regional director, Kenneth Caple, on the ground that the subject was contentious.

Mr. Caple's reply led the Chamber at its meeting Monday night to carry the matter to CBC policy officials to inquire as to the actual status of the local station.

The Chamber has been irked for some time over the failure of the station to carry certain of the more desirable network programs.

something finer, higher.

In business today there are many concerns, large and small, whose phenomenal strength and virility is obviously derived from the vast goodwill created by the use of Golden Rule principles.

Naive? I think not! Too many top-flight business leaders regard it as good business and a sound economic principle that cannot be ignored with impunity.

Perhaps it is one of those simple steps forward that, in the retrospect of history, prove of such importance.

Whatever it is, it has a marked humanitarian slant. The ugly spots, where individual rights are distorted and become viceries, are less evident every day.

Twenty-Five Years Ago
Prince Rupert dry dock received contracts to repair all six of the Department of Marine and Fisheries' patrol boats. In addition, the Hecate Straits Towing Co.'s tug Lorne was due in for repairs.

BABY'S CONSTIPATION SERIOUS IF NEGLECTED

BABY'S daily movements are something of which absolutely accurate track must be kept. When he misses, something must be done at once. Constipation is serious for baby.
Mrs. John T. Reid of Hespeler, Ont., has this to say: "Having had seven children and having used Baby's Own Tablets for all seven can say they are the best and gentlest regulator for children. During teething Baby's Own Tablets were a boon to me as they cleared up at once any digestive disturbance or fretfulness."
Equally effective for simple fever, teething troubles, upset stomach and other minor ailments of babyhood.
Quick in their action. Sweet-tasting—easily crushed to a powder, if desired. No "sleep" stuff—no dulling effect. Get a box today. Sick-ness so often strikes in the night. 25 cents. Money back if not satisfied.

effected? Possibly. Certainly the idea is invigorating. But it must at first be accepted with the same casual lift of delight provided when a blaze of crocuses blighted when a customarily bare slope and, overnight, creates a new and refreshing vista of spring.
If that is the explanation then a Goethe, Emerson, or today's Lloyd C. Douglas, must express it for it is of spiritual character. It would be understandable only against the backdrop of that unnamed, half apprehended, inner urge that cries out against things as they are and insistently demands

TREATMENT OF MORONS

New Technique Being Tried in Old Country

LONDON, (AP)—Sex crimes, increasing alarmingly in Britain, call for medical treatment of offenders rather than punishment, the Home Office has been advised.

Detailed suggestions to curb the growing number of attacks on children and women were made by a committee of 13 physicians and magistrates after months of painstaking study.

The committee, on which two women served, emphasized it was not advocating "softer" treatment of sex offenders. In fact, the medical and psychiatric treatments proposed would in many instances last longer than prison terms now commonly imposed.

Numerous changes in the legal attitude toward sex crimes were suggested. They include: Trial of offenders by magistrates and medical officers rather than by expert juries.

Examination of the accused by experts rather than by lawyers exclusively.

Confinement of convicted persons in special prisons or departments of prisons in which cures for mental and physical abnormalities might be undertaken.

Indeterminate sentences, the length to be determined by the physical and mental condition of offenders rather than by an inflexible penal code.

Simplification of court procedure to enable authorities to get full information from timid children and women victims of sex offenders.

PRIVATE HEARINGS

Hearing of some phases of sex trials in private to shield victims from publicity which might be psychologically damaging.

Closer observation of children to detect and arrest tendencies that might lead to sexual perversions and crimes.

Reconsideration of views on homosexuality.

"Present methods of trial and sentence do not offer sufficient certainty that these offenders will cease to be a menace to the public and in particular to children," the committee reported.

"Unless all possible medical aid, and especially psychiatric treatment, is used they will in all probability remain a danger to themselves and others."

"The committee is convinced that punishment without treatment is not likely to have a beneficial effect. Indeed it may make these offenders worse."

Limberlost Draws Much Attention

Limberlost Lodge, new holiday resort which is being opened by local interests at Sangar River, Queen Charlotte Islands, is feeling the effects of widespread publicity. Inquiries have been received from points as far away as Honolulu, North Dakota, Ontario and the prairie provinces. Neil G. Kingston, Limberlost president, has written to the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce thanking that organization for its support and co-operation. A special invitation has been extended to Chamber members and their wives to take in the special excursion to be run to Masset June 25 on the occasion of the formal opening of the resort.

BUSH WORKERS WITHOUT JOBS

PORT ARTHUR—A thousand bush workers in this district are seeking employment and not finding it.

All who wish jobs are advised to steer clear of Port Arthur.

The Experts Say - -

HONEY TALK—Let's talk about sweet stuff—such as honey.

There's plenty of it on the market and in the stores these days—hence mother should have no excuse to offer when the youngsters come begging for a slice of bread and honey.

While most persons prefer the mild flavor of light-colored honeys nevertheless there are some who really enjoy the golden hues and more pronounced flavors.

The housewife should remember to keep her honey at room temperature and in a dry place. Never put it in the refrigerator.

Honey Almond Balls—Ingredients: four squares unsweetened chocolate; one-half cup liquid honey; one-quarter teaspoon cinnamon; one-eighth teaspoon salt; one-half cup finely chopped blanched almonds.

Melt chocolate over hot water, add honey, cinnamon and salt. Beat well, add almonds. Chill until firm enough; to handle. Form into small balls about one inch in diameter. Roll balls in icing sugar or coconut. Yield: 30 balls.

Popcorn Balls—Ingredients: one cup honey; one cup sugar;

one-half cup water; one teaspoon salt; one teaspoon vanilla extract.

Combine honey, sugar, water and salt in saucepan. Place over low heat, stirring until mixture begins to boil. Cook to the firm ball stage and remove from heat. Add vanilla and stir only to blend well. Pour slowly over three quarts popped corn in large bowl. Lightly grease the hands and press corn into balls. Wrap in waxed paper.

Cabbage and Pineapple—Those non-cabbage-eaters in the family might be persuaded to try the leafy vegetable if it is prepared as a Cabbage and Pineapple Salad.

Ingredients: three cups shredded cabbage; one teaspoon salt; three-quarters cup mayonnaise; one head lettuce; one cup sliced pineapple.

Soak cabbage in cold water until crisp; drain, mix with salt and half of the dressings. Pile lightly on a crisp lettuce leaf and then place halves of pineapple rings in vertical position to hold cabbage on plate. Top with rest of mayonnaise to which two tablespoons of chopped pimento have been added.

WAIT FOR IT—but no crash came. Glasses, cups and mugs fall from the tray, but nobody cares because they are some of the "new" unbreakables made in plastic. New varieties of plastics in original fresh pastel shades has now reached a point at which many articles previously available only for the export market are at last to be released for the home market in Britain. An exhibition of the new ware, held in London, proved of great interest to housewives.

May Operate Kindergartens

Kindergartens may become a part of the regular city school system next year if the school board decides that such a course would be practical. During the board's regular meeting last night Mrs. Earl Becker and W. J. Scott were appointed as a committee of trustees to investigate the situation following the presentation of a brief by Rev. R. A. Wilson representing the Parent Teacher Council.

According to the brief the Parent Teacher Council recently conducted a survey among parents of school children and discovered there are 157 potential pupils for organized kindergarten classes. In the Conrad area there are 64, in King Edward 60 and only 33 in the Borden Street School area.

Mr. Wilson had been asked to present the brief in order that he might also point out to the council that the United Church kindergarten, which is the only school of this type operating in the city now, may have to close at the end of this term due to the lack of trained leadership. Trustee Bruce Brown declared it was not practical for the board to operate kindergarten classes this year and stated he was against kindergartens in principal.

Trustee Scott was not in agreement and insisted that the possibilities of organizing classes should be explored. Asked about the position of the Department of Education in regard to kindergartens, School Inspector Joseph Chell stated that they were treated similarly to any other organized school classes providing it was a full-time position for the teacher or teachers employed. He named Vancouver, Victoria and Ocean Falls as communities that are operating kindergartens as an authorized part of their regular school system. General feeling of the meeting accepted the possibility of kindergartens becoming the responsibility of school boards throughout the province.

INDIAN SCHOOLS
Another proposal for expanding the facilities of the Prince Rupert School District was put forward by William Bailey, assistant superintendent of Indian Affairs, speaking for Indian Supervisor F. E. Anfield who was unable to attend the meeting. According to Mr. Bailey it is not the policy of the Department of Indian Affairs to operate schools that are not located on reservations and would, therefore, like to turn the responsibility and equipment of the Port Edward native school over to the district school board. Subject to the approval of the B.C. Commissioner for Indian Affairs, the supplies, equipment of the school, along with the furniture in the teacherage would be passed along to the board. Continued contributions to support of the school could be expected in the form of tuition fees. He said the present school enrolment was 24.

The board decided to hold another meeting next week to discuss the problem, when Harry Robins, representing Nelson Bros. Ltd., owners of the building in question, and Mr. Anfield will be asked to attend SCHOOL ATTENDANCE
Conrad Street School had the highest attendance percentage of the district schools during the month of March according to a report read by Mrs. M. M.

Timely Recipe

RAISIN OAT MUFFINS
1/2 cup seeded raisins
3 tablespoons shortening
2 tablespoons granulated sugar
1 egg
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 cup buttermilk
1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup quick-cooking oats
Melted butter or margarine
Rinse and drain raisins. Cream shortening and sugar. Blend in well-beaten egg. Dissolve soda in buttermilk and add to creamed mixture. Sift flour with salt and baking powder. Combine with oats and add to first mixture. Stir in raisins. Fill greased muffin pans about three-fourths full and brush tops with melted butter. Bake in very hot oven (450 degrees F.) 12 to 20 minutes. Makes about 12 small muffins.

Roper, secretary of the board. Number of students registered at Booth Memorial High School last month was 441 with attendance percentage of 93.7%. At Borden Street School there were 227 pupils with 94.5%. Conrad Street School had 223 pupils with 96.4%. King Edward School 288 pupils and 94%; Digby Island School had 24 pupils and 84%; Port Essington 45 pupils and 95%; Port Edward 9 pupils with 90%, and Port Simpson 13 pupils with an attendance of 70.5%.

Following comment on the operetta presented by Borden Street School the secretary was asked to write a letter to Principal J. S. Wilson congratulating the staff and the students for their part in producing the fine entertainment.

Arrangements are being made for Mrs. Roper and two other members of the board to attend the annual convention of the B.C. School Trustees Association to be held at Qualicum Beach September 12, 13 and 14. Tentative appointments were Mrs. Earl Becker and W. J. Scott.

Dealing with correspondence on the subject of joining the northern interior branch of the B.C. School Trustees Association the board voted to apply for membership and to make efforts to have delegates attend the convention at Vanderhoof May 7 and 8.

It was reported that O. R. Green is now occupying the position of engineer at King Edward School, replacing Robert Irvine.

H. S. Hurn, organizer of school and community drama for the Department of Education, Victoria, who passed through the city yesterday enroute to Hazelton where he is adjudicating at a drama festival this week-end, will return here on Saturday night's train and sail by the Coquitlam Sunday night for the south.

IRON CROSS IN CODFISH

SEATTLE—A German military decoration, the Iron Cross, has been found in the stomach of a gray codfish, caught in the Behring Sea. How it got there, no one can explain, although guessing is still going on. Geisley Thorsteinson, the fisherman who made the catch in Aleutian waters, surmises that the medal came from the body of a member of a submarine crew. The grey cod is found only in cold Arctic waters, but is known to migrate from Norway to the North Pacific each year. Another bit of speculation is that the Cross was given to a Russian by Germany—but why or when no one can ever know.

REVIVAL OF DRAMA SEEN

Finer Things in Life
Gyro Club by Speaker
The encouragement of things in life such as drama... so that there is fuller living by the community and was voiced by H. S. Hurn, organizer of school and community drama for the B.C. Department of Education, in speaking before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at luncheon yesterday. No nation could be truly great, declared Mr. Hurn, if it devoted itself entirely to material, industrial and economic interests and failed to look after artistic, cultural and spiritual values. He stressed the importance of the people in large places and small being able to enjoy such cultural pleasures as drama, ballet, music and painting and urged the desirability of forming government assisted arts councils with that end in view.

As it had been in ancient times long before Christ and again in the Middle Ages, the drama was an integral part of human life today. The speaker traced the history and development of the drama from the ancient times down through the mediaeval days and described its vicissitudes. At one time it was church-sponsored. In the days of Cromwell it had almost disappeared when all enjoyment was banned. Then in the time of Charles II, because of almost bawdy aspects, it had fallen into disrepute and become disassociated with the church. Later in the Victorian period it had had a modern renaissance.

The modern theatre of living drama had sustained a distinct blow with the advent of the talking picture in 1925. While the movies and the radio brought the drama today to millions of people who would otherwise have been unable to enjoy it. Mr. Hurn expressed the opinion that the moving picture and the radio could never substitute for the real flesh and blood drama and declared that there was still "nothing more exciting" than a good stage production. He predicted a gradual revival of interest in the living theatre, possibly along lines such as prevailed during the Shakesperian days.
Mr. Hurn recalled how he himself, when superintendent of schools here twenty-five years ago, had had a hand in the introduction of music in the schools of the city, meeting with opposition of some of the staid pioneers of those days. "Life without rhythm is not worth a hoot," declared the speaker in closing. "Without rhythm no country can become great."

President Maurice Brydges was in the chair and the speaker was thanked by High School Principal A. M. Hurst, Luncheon guests included W. L. Lockie, Norman Ogden and Bruce Mills.

Between the BASKETS

Last Saturday night Co-op lost their first game to High School in the finals of the City basketball league in a complete reversal of their usual record against the Bo-Me-Hi team. As a matter of fact it was High School's first win over the Co-op team in a season of play as in their five previous engagements they were beaten by scores of 33-26, 43-41, 50-46, 60-43 and 51-42. Co-op scoring a total of 237 points in the five games to High School's 188.

Co-op are counting on their all-season odds to ensure them of a victory this Saturday night, when they will try to even up the series and force it into the third and final game. Percentages say they are the best team and, if you match Jack Lindsay's total against High School's 73, with Flaten's 61; Macphee's 49 with Spring's 34; Beynon's 47 against Carlson's 23, and Dominato's 21 with D. Scherk's 21, the basketball fan who gazes into the stars for his guidance sees a win for Co-op on Saturday night.

Of course, Alex Bill's boys are just now hitting their stride. In early March they were at the bottom of the league. Then they climbed to a tie with Savoy and knocked them out of the playoffs on March 15. Next they took Brownwood's in a two-game series in the semi-finals. Then they took a week off to enter the High School tournament in New Westminster and won three of their four games for third place. Now they are at the threshold of the City Championship. Saturday night's question is: Can Co-op stop them?

Fans will see a lot of championship playing for their money this Saturday, as High School meets Dom's in the third and deciding game of the Girls' League, and the Civic Centre open table tennis championship will also be settled that night, when H. Stadnyk meets D. Shu in the semi-finals, the winner going on to play Heige Holkestad in the finals the same evening. It is also planned to declare a winner in the Hoop Shoot, and unfinished contests are being completed this week so that the finalists can take their 25 shots for the Championship Trophy at Saturday night's interval.

Rosa Lees, who have held a dominant spot in the Ladies' "B" Five Pin Bowling League all winter emerged as city women's bowling champs Tuesday night in a final play-off series with DeJong's who a week ago, claimed championship in the "A" League.

STEVE KING IS PROUD OF SON

The three University of British Columbia students, Pete Postak, Bob Purvis and Steve King, who have been adventuring in Central America, have their portraits in the Vancouver press. They all look quite happy about it.

Postak's father says the paper, is freer boss at Prince Rupert. King's father, Stephen King, said at Salt Spring Island that his son plans to return to UBC this fall to continue his Commerce studies.

"This is a serious trip, not entirely a skylark," the elder King said. "They want to get a bit of Latin culture and learn some Spanish. My boy has a flair for adventure inherited from me," the father said proudly when notified of young Steve's gun-running exploit.

MUSEUM BOARD ANNUAL MEET

Board of Directors of the Museum of Northern British Columbia heard reports on last year's operations, elected new officers and laid plans for the coming season at their annual meeting held in the Civic Centre last night.

The Board set June 1 as the opening date this year and re-appointed C. E. Cullin to the post of Curator which he has held for the last two years.

During the election of officers it was decided that appointments to the directorship should be invited from the Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Business and Professional Women's Club both of which have shown active interest in the museum in the past. In anticipation of these appointments, two positions were left open on the five-man board.

New officers and directors are:
President, F. E. Anfield.
First Vice-President, J. K. McLeod.
Second Vice - President, J. Harry Black.
Secretary, Canon Basil S. Proekter.

The financial report, read by Treasurer J. C. Gilker, showed that receipts for the year totalled $1,133 with expenditures of $912, leaving a balance of $221. Largest expenditure, with the exception of salary, was repair of the building which excluding a portion of the cost of raising two totem poles, was $169. Total assets were set at $1,738.

The Board moved to send a copy of the financial statement to the provincial Department of Mines, owners of the museum building, pointing out the sum spent on the building and suggesting that work on the museum grounds would be appreciated. Board members felt that the Department of Public Works might undertake the repair of the lawn and construct a fence to separate the Museum grounds from the adjacent Health Unit.

Curator C. E. Cullin reported that during the tourist season last year, there had been 733 paid admissions to the museum and that the Association had 106 members. Receipts from memberships and admission fees totalled $305 which was $187 greater than the previous year.

IMPROVEMENTS
Retiring President Theo Colart reported outstanding problems and events during the last year, listing the renovation of the upper floor of the museum and the raising of two large totem poles at the front of the building as major changes.

Secretary Basil S. Proekter told the meeting that the museum is in process of losing the argolyte totem pole collection which was the property of the late George Cunningham, and suggested that pending its eventual disposal by the present owner, a request be made to

The collection, composed of more than 50 finely carved pieces, has been for years one of the major examples of native artifact in the museum.
Rev. Mr. Proekter reported that Mayor Arnold had received a number of native articles, through gift and on loan from Jack Scott, provincial forester, on the Queen Charlotte Islands. Additional exhibits will be sought.

For repair work on the museum steps, which were found to be in a weakened condition during the totem raising operations, the provincial Public Works department will be asked to supply materials and the city to provide workmen.

WEDDING BELLS WERE RATIONED

MALTBY, Eng.—Wedding bells were rationed one day recently, in this Yorkshire town. It was an extra busy day for Rev. Wm. Surtees, who performed no fewer than eleven marriage ceremonies on that date. Mr. Surtees had to work out a schedule. He told the church bell ringers just how much time they could devote to ringing the chimes before and after each wedding.

MARRIAGE AT TERRACE

Miss Judy Curtis Bride of Alexander Houlden

TERRACE—In a lovely setting at St. Matthew's Church, decorated with spring flowers, a wedding of great interest in the district was solemnized at 7 o'clock last Saturday evening when Mary Julian (Judy), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Curtis, became the bride of Alexander Sidney, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Houlden.

Rev. P. Mallet officiated and Miss Lorna Melvin played the nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the radiant bride was lovely in a heavy white satin bridal gown, short-sleeved with sweetheart neckline and white embroidered fingertip veil. Her bouquet was of yellow daffodils, white tulips and blue iris.

Maid-of-honor was the bride's sister, Miss Betty Curtis, who looked charming in a pink gown, blue shoulder veil and a bouquet of daffodils and white narcissi. Three pretty little flower girls, all in white, made a lovely picture as they led the bridal procession up the aisle and as they followed the bride and groom from the church. These were, Leona Dominato of Prince Rupert, Doreen Jackson, both nieces of the groom, and Bernice Pinchbeck, niece of the bride.

Groomsman was Robert Cooper and the usher was A. J. Harrison.

A recording of the Bells of St. Margaret's, Westminster, was played just before the bride entered the church.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents were hosts at a wedding dinner in the Silver Tip Cafe. The toast to the bride was proposed by the groomsman R. Cooper and responded to by the groom.

A lovely wedding cake made by the bride's mother was cut in the traditional manner by the bride.

Later in the evening, a reception was held in the Grange Hall and dancing to the music of Mr. Palmquist, Rawley Beecher, Eric Turner and Lawrence Kirkaldy was enjoyed. A lovely array of gifts was on display.

The young couple will make their home in Terrace, birthplace of the groom.

Commissioner John Shirras, provincial police, who arrived from the south yesterday, will proceed by train tomorrow night to the interior in the course of an inspection tour.
