Many Boatmen Drown In East

NEW YORK — Treacherous spring squalls caught thousands of New York and New England boatmen without warning during the sunny week-end and left about 20 dead or missing in lakes, rivers and salt water. High winds fell end of the midwest storm, reached 65 miles an hour. Winds also fanned forest fires in New England and blanked out most private flying. Upper New York state had the worst drowning toll with 10 dead or missing.

Thousands Evacuated In Manitoba Floods

WINNIPEG — The Red River today added more than 1,000 victims to its 1950 flood score in Greater Winnipeg. Its muddy, sluggish torrent—already higher than in any year since 1826—lashed at shaky dikes in a dozen places. Hundreds of service men and civilians under military control stacked sandbags against leaking barriers. While they worked in the glare of searchlights, a hurried but orderly evacuation of 1,450 men, women and children from low-lying parts of Norwood and East Kildonan began. When all were out, the number of Southern Manitoba homeless would be 10,000 or more, about half in the Winnipeg area. The Red was still unsatisfied. United States army engineers in North Dakota said a new and still more violent attack was coming.

Slight Damage Caused by Fire Derby Won Easily By Middleground

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Middleground, chestnut ranger from the fabulous King ranch in Texas, came a-running into the stretch at Churchill Downs Saturday to out game everything that challenged him. He won the 76th Kentucky Derby with something to spare. Son of Bold Venture, he never, in early contention, proved himself a better colt than Your Host, California favorite or Hill Prince, the Virginia threat and the other 13 rivals when the chips were down. He ran the 1 1/4 miles in two minutes, one and three fifths seconds, on one fifth off the derby record set by the immortal Whirlaway in 1941. He rewarded R. J. Kleberg, Jr., owner of King ranch, with $92,650.

Hill Prince finished second, 1 1/4 lengths back. Mr. Trouble was third with Sun Glow fourth.

Railroad Agent Advises Go North

"American railroads are conscious of the potentialities of business in northern British Columbia and are watching the situation very closely with a view to development up to the present stage and the future business expansion," said E. C. Chapman of Vancouver, general agent for B. C. with the Chicago and Milwaukee Railroad.

Mr. Chapman arrived in the city yesterday and expects to remain here until Wednesday night. This is his first inspection trip to northern B. C. this year. He says he makes about four such visits every year. His company, Mr. Chapman stated, works very nicely with the C.N.R. Frozen fish, for instance, is loaded into C.N.R. freight cars from American vessels and is shipped to the eastern United States. From there the Chicago and Milwaukee Railroad takes over. A large consuming area, Mr. Chapman said, is Illinois, Iowa and Indiana. Much fish is transported to that territory.

From here Mr. Chapman travels as far as Red Pass Junction, near the Alberta-British Columbia border. His business interests there are all timber products.

The general agent foresees a large business turnover in this territory and exclaimed this area is ripe for investment. It isn't "Go West, young man" any more, he said, but "Go North."

Rimouski Bewildered By Disastrous Fire

RIMOUSKI, Que. (CP)—Stunned and bewildered, residents today counted their loss in one of the most disastrous fires in Canadian history.

A thin mantle of snow that moved in with cold, biting weather covered the blackened ruins of 312 homes and a dozen business, educational and religious buildings, prey to a roaring conflagration that caused monetary loss of $20,000,000 and made 2,500 of the 15,000 population homeless. So far as could be learned, there were no deaths in the fire that raged for more than 30 hours.

The Red Cross treated scores of people for cuts and burns.

Believed to have started when a power line snapped in Saturday's heavy wind, fire raced through the lumber yards of Price Brothers Lumber Company. It spread with almost unbelievable speed, whipped by wind at times reaching 80 miles an hour. The fire cut its swath through the western section of the city, licking up building after building. Thousands of dazed residents loaded their belongings on vehicles of all descriptions and fled amidst the smoke and showering cinders.

St. Joseph's hospital, a four storey brick building, and the Sisters of Charity orphanage were destroyed. Other buildings destroyed were Rimouski Seminary, the technical school, Rimouski hospital, two hotels, a theatre and nearly a score of stores, large and small.

Many homeless were taken care of by residents. Others were sheltered in tents and buildings thrown open to them.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis

The weather is sunny over most of the province today. The only cloud area is around Prince Rupert which is on the edge of a group of storms moving across southern Alaska. Clear skies are expected again tomorrow with temperatures reaching to the low sixties at Vancouver and Victoria and to the mid seventies in the southern interior.

The second storm in a week to strike the west central plains of the United States is bringing snow, rain and thunderstorms in a band from Montana through Wyoming and the Dakotas and southward into Kansas and Arkansas. This is the storm which shows signs of moving northward and dumping more rain on the flood swollen Red River and its tributaries.

Regional Forecast

What Canada's V.C. Winners Are Doing On V.E. Day

CURRIE

REMAINS IN SERVICE—Five years after the end of the war in Europe one of the eight surviving Victoria Cross winners of the Second World War still serves in the Canadian armed forces. He is Lt.-Col. John Keefer Mahoney, New Westminster, B.C., native who now is director of public relations for the Canadian Army. His Victoria Cross was won on the Melfa River in Italy.

DRUG EXECUTIVE—Maj. Fred A. Tilston, 44-year-old pharmacist, is vice-president of The Sterling Products of Canada Limited, one of North America's largest drug manufacturing firms, at Windsor, Ont., five years after the war in which he won the V.C. He joined the firm in 1929 after graduating from the Ontario College of Pharmacy and in 1939 was its national sales manager. He served as a major with the Essex Scottish and took part in the 1942 raid on Dieppe. He was awarded the Victoria Cross for bravery during the fighting in the German Hochwald during which he lost both legs. He was presented with his V.C. by the King at Buckingham Palace and was invalided back to Canada. In 1946 he married a Vancouver girl and they have one child.

SPIRITS ADMINISTRATOR—Major John Weir Foote, Madoc-born padre who won the Victoria Cross for heroism during the bloody raid by the Canadian forces on Dieppe in 1942, is deputy commissioner of the Liquor Control Board of Ontario five years after the end of the war in Europe. Maj. Foote was chaplain of Royal Hamilton Light Infantry. He remained in the army for some time after the war resigning to contest the provincial riding of Durham in the 1948 Ontario election. Following his election to the Legislature, he was appointed to his present post on the liquor board.

FIRST V.C.—Lt. Col. Cecil C.

Merritt won Canada's first Victoria Cross of the Second World War when he rallied the South Saskatchewan Regiment, which he commanded, to plunge through a line of German pillboxes at Dieppe. He was captured and liberated in 1945. The former Progressive-Conservative M.P. for Vancouver Burrard is shown in his Vancouver law office.

V.C. AT WORK—Alvia (Smoky) Smith now shoots a camera instead of the deadly Piat gun which won him the Victoria Cross in Italy when he broke up a German detachment trying to wipe out a Canadian bridgehead on the Savio River. He is now manager of a flourishing photo studio in New Westminster, B.C. Previously he had been an insurance salesman. He is married and has two children.

PAPER COMPANY OFFICIAL—Five years after the end of the war in Europe finds Maj.

David V. Currie who won the Victoria Cross for his bravery at Falaise Gap, occupying the position of equipment superintendent for the Woodlands Division of Quebec North Shore Paper Company and the Ontario Paper Company at Bale Comeau, Que. A Moose Jaw, Sask., garage worker before the war, Maj. Currie served with the South Alberta Regiment. He left the army in 1945. He is 37 and has a 15-year-old son.

LUMBER SALESMAN—The fifth anniversary of V-E Day finds Victoria Cross winner Paul Triquet at his desk in Montreal offices of H.R. Macmillan Sales (Quebec) Limited, a lumber firm. He was captain with the Royal 22nd Regiment when he won the V.C. "for determined leadership and example" in action at Ortona, Italy, in 1943. A native of Cabano, Que., Triquet stayed in the army until the end of 1947 with rank of lieutenant-colonel. (All CP Photos)

"V-E" Day

TODAY we celebrate the anniversary of the final and absolute end of Nazi Germany's delusions of subjecting the world to its will. V-E Day brought unconditional surrender of the unprincipled armed forces of one despot.

Today, unfortunately, we also live in awe and fear lest one of the great powers who stood by our side during the struggle against Hitlerism might itself loose on the world forces even more destructive than those of the Nazi monster.

Five years have passed since the world was saved for Democracy for the second time in one generation. Those five years have been fraught with fear and jealousy. A cold war of ideologies has been in constant operation, giving freedom-loving peoples no rest from the gnawing doubts of their ability to keep the cold war from developing into a shooting war.

The Western Democracies have given every indication that they are willing to live peacefully beside Communist neighbors. Apparently those neighbors do not want to aid international understanding by allowing normal passage of information to and from other countries. Their proposals in the United Nations have been of the "take it or leave it" variety with little room left for peaceful bargaining.

But a faint light of hope is gleaming on the dark horizon of international relationships. United Nations Secretary General Trygve Lie is planning a trip to Moscow to try to arrange a meeting, not only of delegates from member countries, but also of national leaders and their cabinets. This meeting, where the complete governing bodies of the world's powerful nations are gathered at one time, where none will be able to say he must have ratification from home, would be tantamount to a World Parliament. It should bring about better understanding.

If Mr. Lie's representations at Moscow are successful, we may reasonably look forward to a V-F Day—the day of the world's victory over fear, the greatest menace of our time.

LIQUOR BOARD POLICY

FROM the report of a meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce we learn that W. F. Kennedy, chairman of the B.C. Liquor Control Board, suggested in a letter to the Chamber of Commerce that "it would be a backward step to approve a beer licence for a hotel that would be smaller than the largest in Prince Rupert."

We have sincere respect for Mr. Kennedy and firmly believe he has done a good job as Liquor Board chairman.

However, we think it is ludicrous to continue the title of "chairman" when he is chairman of a Board comprised solely of himself.

Assuming he has decided upon this policy of granting no beer licences to any new hotel that is not larger than the largest in the community, we can only say it is a bad and vicious principle to establish.

Whether or not there should be additional beer licences granted in any community should depend upon many factors: increased population, the transient and tourist population, the quality of the accommodation suitable for the class of customers, the provision of dining facilities, the type of building constructed and its protection against fire and other hazards, and, of course, the character of the licensee.

Notwithstanding a probable increase of 100,000 people in Vancouver, if this policy is applied a beer licence could not be granted to any hotel smaller than the Hotel Vancouver. Of course, Mr. Kennedy intimates that Vancouver is an exception to the rule. If that is correct, then this is a second bad and vicious policy.

Why should Vancouver be treated differently than any other city if a principle has been decided upon as being in the best interests of the public?

The size of a community should have no bearing upon a policy based upon a principle.

The principle that should be the basis of a formulated policy should be one that serves the public interest in fairness and equity to all.

The policy allegedly decided upon to grant no beer licence other than to a bigger than the currently existing hotel is based on no sound principle of justice, fairness or equity.

The legislature is the high court of the land in enacting legislation. If it has abrogated its traditional power, then it is time the people themselves swamped their members with vigorous protestations.

"Did you call me, Mrs. Price?"

LETTERBOX

Editor, Daily News—
Dear Sir:
In your paper, April 18th, there is a sweeping statement from the Public Health Unit quoting that paleness, undernourishment and lack of rest and sleep were found in all the children of Port Clements.

As one mother I think that is very unfair to put in print. We do our best. The children have fruit, milk, eggs, vegetables, meat etc. and most of them go to bed, as mine does, about 7:30.

If what the Unit says is true, why haven't we been told and advice offered. All I was told is that my daughter, age 7, weight 70 pounds, had poor posture and skipping was suggested.

THE FACTS—From another B of M customer . . .

"My Bank" helped us pay for Tommy!

Tommy won everyone's heart—but he couldn't charm away the hospital bills. I was a student-vet taking pharmacy. My DVA cheque and a part-time job were my only resources, and our family savings had gone into the down-payment on our house.

So I put my problem to the manager of our B of M branch—we had a small savings account there. Asked him for a loan of $200. I wasn't too hopeful, but he agreed to the loan on the spot. Knew I had a steady income and always paid my bills. Repayment was spread out over two years—just $8.34 a month.

And that's only half of it. Later on, "My Bank" advanced me another $100 to meet dental bills, and even merged the loans . . . still keeping my monthly payments at $8.34.

I received another much-needed loan before graduating. Then I got a good job in my home-town, sold the house at a profit and paid off what was left of the loans. That's how I began my career with a solid bank balance behind my family.

Thinking it over later, I couldn't help but write my old B of M manager . . . "Once more I wish to thank you for your confidence and financial assistance during those trying years at University. You have proved to me that the Bank of Montreal is truly 'My Bank'."

A personal loan from the Bank of Montreal costs you only six per cent interest—27 cents a month per $100, when repaid over 12 months. Every year, tens of thousands of Canadians borrow from the B of M for all kinds of useful purposes.

Do you need money? . . . If your proposition is sound, there's money for you at the B of M. Provided you are in a position to repay your loan out of regular income, we are in a position to lend you money. Remember—when you ask for a loan at the B of M, you do not ask a favour.

V.P.'s Win From Prexy's Entry

The 1950 football season got off to a fine start when, in an exhibition pre-season game, the vice-president's team won from the president's team by two goals to one. It was a good display of football. Many individual players showed to advantage. There was good combination, and some new players made a good impression. A good crowd saw the match in perfect weather.

The first half saw both sides getting their share of play. A play from Billy Gomez to Pavlikis to Wyatt was the only goal of the half and gave the president's team a 1-0 edge.

Several changes in line-ups were made at half time. With play proceeding at the same fast clip, Ralph Smith took one from Pat Wilson to score the equalizer. On another set-up from Wilson Smith scored his second goal and the winner for his team a few minutes later. Spectators saw a really good game and the standard of play

Three League
Clubs Certain

Baseball practice yesterday saw a turn out of 24 enthusiastic players anxious to get down to the business of the season's play.

The ball picture looks bright this year with two entries certain from the city proper and the Watson Island boys shaping up promises well for a good season. Sid Woodside handled the game expertly and Pat Forman and Magnus Halverson were efficient linemen.

Line-ups were as follows:
Vice-president's team—Boulter, Krause, Dunbar, Charlie Sunberg, D. Gomez, Cornwell, Alexander, Price, McAfee, Bill Davidson, Cameron, Parkhouse, Pat Wilson, Ralph Smith, Vackovich, Dave Murray, McInnes.
President's team—Vanderheide, "Monk" Sunberg, John Wilson, Robinson, Veitch, Greer, "Erick" Eby, captain, Baxter, A. McKay, Pavlikis, Wyatt, Bill Gomez, Alex. Gomez.

Dining Room At Prince Rupert Hotel Now Open

The modernistic Prince Rupert Hotel dining room will be open to the public today and citizens are invited to inspect this new dining service.

The dining room contains ten tables and forty chairs finished in light maple with ten green covered leather unholstered stools at the coffee bar. The incandescent lighting was installed by the Northern B.C. Power Company. The dining room will be open from 7:30 to 10 a.m. in the morning, 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. for luncheon and from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. for dinner.

The coffee bar is also finished with a light maple back bar, an abortive topped counter and will be open from 7:30 a.m. until 11:00 p.m. each day.

The roomy, up-to-date kitchen includes two electric stoves with four hot plate burners each and additional Moffat and Silex hot plates. In one corner is a new Gilso freezer, which was installed by the Rupert Electric. All meals will be served on the latest Lenix pattern vitrified English china with beautiful Tavern Puritan silverware.

The dining room was installed by Mrs. Agnes A. Rochester of the Prince Rupert Hotel. Mrs. H. Haudenschild will be the manageress of the dining room.

well to become the third local entry. Chief worry of the island crew is lack of a sponsor, but that situation is also well on the way toward being solved.

The weatherman did his best to make his department co-operate with the boys yesterday, putting at the league's disposal as fine a blue sky as the district has seen in a long time. Another practice Tuesday night will help file off some more of the rough edges accumulated during the winter.

With the closing entries Wednesday the club is pretty sure of having three good ball teams lined up locally. League play starts Sunday.

Footballers Ask For Times at Park

The Football Association has applied to the Parks Board for the grounds for Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays leaving Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays for the baseballers. The grounds are in surprisingly good shape and had been well marked out by the football executive on Saturday afternoon. The pitcher's mound and the home plate "hole" are hazards for the footballers but generally speaking the surface is not bad.

Lynn Patrick To Victoria

NEW YORK ©—Lynn Patrick, the man who brought the New York Rangers from the N.H.L. cellar to the brink of the Stanley Cup, has quit the N.H.L. to coach the Victoria Cougars of the Pacific Coast hockey league. Lynn will join his father, Lester (Silven) Fox in running the Victoria Cougars. Victoria finished in the league cellar last season and they are hoping Lynn can do for them what he did for the Rangers.

Stamps Must Show Up Better Tonight

CALGARY ©—The Calgary Stampede will be behind the eight ball for sure if they don't stop the Toronto Marlboros tonight in the Stamps' last home game of the Allan Cup final. The well trained Marlies Saturday showed superiority in nearly every department in waltzing to an easy 4-1 victory. It gave the Dukes a 2-1 lead in the best of seven series for the Dominion senior hockey title.

Victory March For Miss Northern B.C.

A victorious Miss Northern B.C. returned to the city Saturday afternoon driving up and down Third Avenue accompanied by a cortege of autos with blasting horns. The party drove to the end of Third Avenue, back again, thence west once more along Second Avenue.

Attractive Joyce Tattersal, 18 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Les Tattersal, went to Smithers early last week as Miss Rupert. There she captured the title of Miss Northern B.C. She had a delightful smile and friendly wave of the hand for all who were about to witness her triumphant return.

The parade was arranged by Mr. H. Hampton of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

make quick, big money for the promoters there is no doubt that the U. S. A. First line has it all over the Canada—First proposition. The big gas markets are already there, in U. S. A. and we may be sure that, if Canada hands over Canadian natural resources on the pipeline proposal that the big markets will stay in U. S. A.

British Columbia will remain a vast undeveloped Empire—with a few little towns here and there and great ports on the coast—but still mostly a sleeping wilderness.

Cheap natural gas available throughout the whole interior of B. C. might well prove the key factor in opening up B. C. as nothing else has done in our whole history.

HENCE WE HAVE a clear-cut choice.

If we are content to remain an outpost people—if we are willing, generation after generation to see our brightest youngsters go off to the U. S. to seek jobs, then we should let the mainline pipeline go where its Wall Street promoters want it—via U. S. A.

But if we really want Canada to grow up, to develop, to use Canadian resources to develop, a diversified Canadian industry, then we should insist on a Canada—First pipeline—with no hidden jokers.

SURELY THE PEOPLE OF Canada have a right to demand a clear-cut stand by their elected M. P.'s on an issue so big as this. It is a downright insult to the intelligence of the people of Canada for M. P.'s and even cabinet ministers to wriggle and quibble when it comes to answering a straight question like this.

Are you for an All-Canadian pipeline to the Pacific coast; or are you for Mainline-via-U. S. A.? If you are for Canada, why the hesitation about writing into the law of the land a clause saying that the pipe shall go via Canada, and serve Canada first and foremost?

Belated May Day Demonstrations

LONDON (C)—Mounted police and riot squads clashed with crowds making a belated May Day demonstration in Trafalgar Square Sunday. Authorities arrested 69 persons.

The demonstration extended to Oxford Street, about a mile away, where mounted officers rode into crowds which were throwing traffic into confusion. Some demonstrators carried banners with slogans of a Communist flavor. One placard read, "We want peace. Stop American warmongers."

Man Held in Case Of Slain Blonde

GLENAVON, Sask. (C)—Police today held an unidentified man for questioning in the baffling slaying of blonde Anna Yuzwak. The girl, about 22, arrived Friday, Early Saturday morning her body, a bullet hole in her head, was found in the snow behind a Glenavon home.

ELIZABETH RETURNS HOME NEXT SUNDAY

VALETTA, Malta (C)—Princess Elizabeth expects to leave Malta for Britain May 8, it was officially announced. The Princess, expecting a second child this summer, has been on a visit to her husband, who is serving aboard the destroyer Chequers here.

Waterfront Whiffs

The packer Cape Perry, Capt. Henry Helin returned to the city Thursday after a trip to Port Simpson where fire Wednesday destroyed the home of the skipper. The Atlin Fisheries owned vessel had been packing halibut from fish camps, but upon receiving word of the fire, Capt. Helin nosed his vessel for home. His wife and children were not injured in the blaze. The packer had been up in the northern Queen Charlotte waters when the blaze at Port Simpson occurred.

"There comes the mosquito fleet," somebody yelled on the busy waterfront Thursday afternoon. Sure enough, plowing into Prince Rupert harbor for Cow Bay were 12 small craft, skippered by natives from the Naas River country. Most waterfront observers thought the vessels were escaping the rough weather in the fishing grounds. One of the skippers said the weather was bad in that area but they were not fishing for halibut. The boats were enrou...

to the mouth of the Skeena River and the canneries situated there. They will be engaged, as always, in salmon trolling.
Weather situation up the Naas, one of the natives said, is very good.

It looked as if the halibut vessel J. H. Todd, Capt. Paul Duvic, was going to unload a catch of halibut here Thursday, but the vessel stuck around for a while, took on supplies and fuel and continued to Klemu. It had, in its holds, 10,000 pounds of fish.

Purser Reg Stover and Assistant Purser Don Nelson are back on duty aboard the steamer Camosun after an extended holiday jaunt by bus to California, New Orleans, Florida, Washington and New York. It was no busman's holiday either. They kept away from steamships and, as modern knights of the road, saw many interesting and impressive things. With Mr. Stover returning to the Camosun, G. C. Foote, who has been relieving as purser on the Camosun, has gone over to the Cominlam to relieve Purser A. H. Robinson who has gone ashore in Vancouver for vacation.

A considerable amount of hard work goes into a fish catch and when an above average catch is made, a great deal of credit should be given to a crew, especially the Captain. Not since the steam trawler days here during the First World War and up to 1934, has a catch of flatfish amounted to 100,000 pounds. The Canadian Fish and Cold Storage plant at Seal Cove Wednesday morning tipped its hat to Capt. Dave Moore, skipper of the Santa Maria No. 11 who landed the mentioned weight of sole at the company's dock. An official of the company phoned the Daily News office the same day and talked highly of Capt. Moore.

Union Steamships' Camosun, Capt. W. McCoomb, arrived in port Friday at 1:30 p.m. from Vancouver and waypoints, sailing for southern Queen Charlotte points at 10 p.m. On his first trip since his vacation, Reg Stover was back in the purser's office. Passengers disembarking here included Mr. and Mrs. D. R. West, Mrs. Whitaker, J. Bulger, R. Gillies, Mrs. S. M. Johnson and child, Mrs. E. M. Beeststone, R. Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pettenuzzo, Mrs. A. Moore, Alex Bezks, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Cawdell and children.

Tuesday, the first carload of fresh fish left Prince Rupert, and from now on, or until after the end of the season, this class of freight will be moving steadily. No one, at present, can say precisely how long halibut fishing will last for the catches are being made on the quota basis.

Salmon trollers clearing for the fishing grounds during the week have included the Active, Capt. J. Jenkins; Banner II, Capt. S. Sjoberg; Hansine, Capt. A. C. Crompt; Pride, Capt. S. J. Amstutz; Mermaid, Capt. J.
