YOUNG WOMAN IS MURDERED

Brutal Bludgeoning In Winnipeg Leads to Police Court Sequel
WINNIPEG.—Midnight bludgeoning of an attractive Winnipeg brunette will have a sequel in court today when, police say, Clarence G. Richardson will be charged with the slaying of 25-year-old Ann Varty.
Body of the mother of three children, including a seven-year-old boy at a Brantford, Ontario, school for the blind, was found late Saturday in a snow bank. Fifteen hours later Richardson was arrested but details leading to his arrest were not disclosed.

DeGaulle Suggests Corporate State

PARIS—General Charles DeGaulle has called for a corporate state in France. Under his plan management and labor would be represented in the National Assembly.

COLLAPSES AND DIES ON STREET

Canadian Employee of Vancouver National Succumbs
Thomas E. King, a veteran employee of the bridge and building department of Canadian National Railways, collapsed and died on Fulton Street, near Fifth Avenue, while on his way to work shortly before 8 o'clock this morning. He was 54 years old.
Born in Shelton, Washington, Mr. King served in England with the Second Battalion, B.C. Regiment, during the First World War. Since returning from overseas, he had been with the bridge and building department of the railway. He was a member of the Canadian Legion.
He collapsed on his way to work at the C.N.R. dock, and was dead on arrival at Prince Rupert General Hospital. He was taken to hospital in the city ambulance.
He is survived by his wife who resides at 343 Seventh Avenue West.

NEW HIGHWAY WILL SERVE YELLOWKNIFE

EDMONTON.—A $4,000,000 highway, started in the summer of 1946 and expected to be completed next summer, will usher in a new era for Canada's northland.
Only 75 miles of road remains to be completed in the Grimshaw-Hay River highway. This all-weather road extends for 383 miles along the bank of the Hay River, through a wilderness of forest and boulders between Grimshaw in the Peace River country and Hay River post on the south shore of Great Slave Lake.
When the highway is officially opened next August Yellowknife and adjacent mining areas will be served for the first time in history with a first-class gravelled highway over which heavy freight and supplies may be shipped the year round from Edmonton and other north-country supply depots.
One of the wettest summers in northern history held back scheduled progress of the work during 1947. It had originally been planned to complete the highway before freeze-up.
The permanent frost problem, one that plagued United States Army engineers while building the Alaska Highway and the Canol pipeline road, entered the picture in this highway too.

The 1948 city council will hold its first meeting tonight. The new council consists of Mayor Arnold, and Aldermen Black, Brooksbank, Rudderham, J. R. Morin, W. F. Stone, McKay, Casey and Nickerson.

Grand Forks Is Alarmed

After Arson Fire In Which Business Block, Housing Doukhobor Store, Destroyed
GRAND FORKS.—Assistant Provincial Fire Marshal Percy Nicholls of Vancouver arrived here by plane Saturday night to launch a probe into the dynamiting resulting in a $20,000 fire which destroyed the Burns business block on New Year's Eve.
Police today were continuing the search for an arsonist.
Meanwhile a wave of fear engulfed this small city and its inhabitants that there might be new outbreaks of Doukhobor fire raids. The people were staying away from theatres and public gatherings.
Marshal Nicholls indicated that a "considerable" charge of dynamite and gasoline-soaked sawdust had been used to cause the explosion and fire.
A Doukhobor store was housed in the building and authorities believe the explosion and fire originated there.
"This is a threat to our community," said members of the city council when decision was made to offer a $2,000 reward for arrest and conviction of the arsonist.

STRIKERS HALT TRAFFIC ON THE ANCIENT APPIAN WAY—The ancient Appian Way—artery of empire when Rome ruled the world—is blocked by road-block set up by striking workers and farmhands on the outskirts of Albano. The block completely disrupted traffic on this route. The disturbance was only one of the series of similar disorders that tore Italy.

Will Attack Government Policy, Says Archibald

OTTAWA—H. G. Archibald, C.C.F. member for Skeena, said in an interview today that his party intends to attack the government policy of sending military aid to Nationalist China. He was commenting on $15,000,000 of arms having been sent from Canada to China since V-J Day. Canada, by its action, declared Archibald, was upholding a system of feudalism in China.

RUSSELL SPEARS IS RECAPTURED

Penticton Desperado Taken Only After Being Shot Down
PENTICTON.—Russell Spears, who escaped from jail here November 14 while awaiting sentence on a charge of assault, was captured by police after being brought down Sunday by a shot which went through his left knee. He was brought to hospital here and doctors performed an operation in an attempt to save the leg.
Spears had been living in a hide-out in the woods in relative luxury with turkey and venison in abundance and a comfortably furnished shack.
The hide-out was found December 14 but he escaped in a running gunfight in which a police officer was wounded.
Early Sunday an Indian notified the police that he had seen a "suspicious character" on a reserve south of here. The police found another home-made shack under nesting trees. When Spears appeared, he refused to drop his rifle and the police opened fire, dropping him in the snow.
Cpl. Jack Watts of the British Columbia Police led the capture party.

Tragedy on Rail Track

Ten Children Killed When New York Central Crashes Into Bobsled
ARCHBOLD, Ohio.—A New York Central passenger train knifed through a bobsled party of children on Sunday, killing ten farm children from three families and scattering parts of the tractor-drawn sleigh and bodies for a mile down the right-of-way.
The two other children were injured but Jesse Wyse, driver of the tractor, and his son, John, 13, escaped without injury.
"I thought the track was clear," Wyse said today. "I just stiffened in my seat. The train hit the sled, tore it loose from the tractor and hurled it down the track."
The train was traveling at eighty miles per hour.

WITNESSES SCORE CURBSIDE TREES AT INQUEST INTO HOLMES DEATH

Evergreens On Lamp Posts Branded 'Public Nuisance' By Taxi Driver—No Blame Attached to Anyone for Christmas Eve Mishap
Christmas trees lashed to lamp posts on Third Avenue, were branded as a traffic hazard before a coroner's jury Saturday afternoon by Lionel (Bill) Lamb, driver of the taxi cab which struck down 70-year-old George Holmes in front of the post office on Christmas Eve.
The jury found that Holmes died on December 30 "as a result of injuries received in a collision with a moving automobile on December 24, about 11 p.m., on Third Avenue between Third and Fourth Streets."
"From the evidence, we are of the opinion that deceased walked into the side of the moving vehicle and that the driver, Lionel Lamb, did everything possible to avoid the accident," the verdict stated.
Both Lamb and Cherrill McIntyre, driver of another taxi which followed closely behind Lamb's cab as it drove westward on Third Avenue, asserted that Christmas trees, tied to downtown lamp posts were a threat to public safety.
Lamb, who gave testimony on invitation of Coroner M. M. Stephens, said that he had been driving westward between "15 and 20 miles an hour" through the driving rain. He drove a normal distance from the curb, he said.
"I passed a parked car and a Christmas tree in front of the Post Office," he testified. "As I passed the Christmas tree Holmes stepped out onto the street. I swerved to miss him, but struck him with the right front door. I pulled over to the curb, then ran back to him. Cherrill McIntyre had him in his arms, so I ran back to 80 Taxi and telephoned the ambulance."
Lamb said that, when Holmes emerged from behind the tree, he was so close that "I felt sure I couldn't miss him. I swerved to avoid hitting him with the front of the car."
McIntyre, who had been driving behind Lamb from McBride Street, estimated the speed of the two cars at about 25 miles an hour. Visibility at the time, he said, was "practically nil."
"Near the post office, the car in front suddenly swerved. Then I noticed a man lying on the road. The driver of the other car pulled over to the curb and stopped. I didn't see the man at all before he was lying on the road," McIntyre said.
"Do you think that the Christmas trees there obscured the view?" Coroner Stephens asked.
"I certainly do," McIntyre replied. "They are a public nuisance."

DARING SAFE CRACKING JOB

VANCOUVER.—Safecrackers escaped with $1500 today after blowing a strong box in the Barn, a Granville Street cafe. They also took $400 in checks. Police said they had enough nitroglycerine to blow up the whole building which is also occupied by a hotel. They left a quantity of the "soup" behind.

VANCOUVER.—Thomas H. R. Graham, 40-year-old newspaperman, died suddenly on Sunday. He was a member of a Vancouver publishing firm and editor of the magazine, the Canadian Weekly Editor.
A former president of the Courtenay-Comox Board of Trade, Mr. Graham was editor of the Comox District Free Press in 1944-45. He is survived by a widow and two sons in Courtenay.

Canadian Freight On U.S. Roads Up

MONCTON, N.B.—Effective today, Canadian freight on United States railroads will be subject to a twenty percent increase, replacing the ten percent boost effective last October. This sudden announcement came last night from Rand H. Matheson, manager of the Maritime Transportation Commission. There was no immediate explanation of why. No previous announcement had been made from Ottawa.

French Strong Man Sustained

PARIS.—By a count of 308 to 272, the French National Assembly today voted down another attempt to amend Premier Schuman's anti-inflation bill upon the passage of which he has staked the life of his coalition government.
The amend was only one of five to be voted upon during the day and on all of which the government was later sustained.
Schuman had threatened to resign if any changes were made in his program during its passage through the Assembly.
"We were bothered with them all through the holidays," George D. Haigh, driver for 80 Taxi, said he saw the man come out from the curb, then fall down, but he did not actually see him struck by the car.
Dr. C. H. Hankinson, who attended Holmes, said that the "force of the blow was centred on the left breast" causing fractured ribs which punctured the lung.
WOMEN SAW ACCIDENT
Mrs. Emily A. Sargent of Hazelton and Mrs. A. St. Amour told of seeing the car swerve as they crossed Third Avenue on their way to Midnight Mass but did not realize that an accident had occurred until they saw a man lying on the street.
Mrs. Sargent estimated the speed of the car as "not excessive" while Mrs. St. Amour declared that she thought it was going "very fast."
Thomas White, who identified the two cars at the accident, said that his knowledge Holmes was "not a drinking man."
Constable John R. White and Keith De Witt gave evidence as to the location of the accident. Sgt. L. A. N. Potterton identified a Rosary found on the street as one which Holmes had claimed as his while in hospital.
Jurors on the inquest were George Dybbavn, foreman, H. D. Thain, Stewart Donaldson, Donald Nelson, Samuel Blanchard and George McLean.

CANADA OPENS WAR COLLEGE

KINGSTON.—Defence Minister Brooke Claxton today opened Canada's new national defence college, declaring its establishment "is another stage in serious acceptance by Canada of its defence responsibilities in the post-war world." Courses at the college, located at historic Fort Frontenac, will be similar to those of Britain's Imperial Defence College and the United States War College with emphasis on co-ordination of defence.

AGITATOR DOWNED BY ITALIAN POLICE—Seated on the street with his hands to his head is an alleged Communist agitator, after he was downed by Italian police who broke up an impending riot outside the Italian chamber of deputies, during the general strike called by Communist labor boss Giuseppe Di Vittorio. The riot started outside the chamber of deputies building in Rome when police tried to disperse mobs of yelling strikers. Red deputies from the chamber ran out to try and halt the police beating their fellow Reds, and they too fared very badly because police mauled and beat some of them also. The strike was called off when thousands of workers returned to work after two days.

ABORIGINES GET FIVE-POINT QUIZ

SYDNEY, Australia.—A test questionnaire that might well cause many white men and women to balk, or at least comment perjury has been drawn up for West Australian aborigines. The West Australian government is granting full citizenship rights to the aborigines providing they can answer under oath before a magistrate that they live a life strictly conforming to the following standards:
1. Are you of industrious habits and of good behaviour and reputation?
2. Have you for the past two years adopted the manner and habits of civilized life?
3. Are you reasonably capable of managing your own affairs?
4. Are full rights of citizenship desirable for you and are they likely to be conducive to your welfare?
5. Are you able to speak and understand the English language?
Sixty-three natives have answered to the satisfaction of the magistrates and have been granted full citizenship rights under an act introduced in 1944. News of the act is spreading among the area's 25,000 aborigines, and more apply to take advantage of it every day.

HUMAN DEBRIS FOUND IN ITALY

ROME, (AP)—War has left in Italy human debris of races, nationalities and political beliefs amounting to perhaps 500,000 persons who have settled to stay, if they can.
Police, who give the 500,000 estimate, say many of these people are centres of political intrigue webs reaching into eastern Europe and Russia.
The most important group of "newly-seeded" foreigners is made up of Slavs—all shades of them, from White Russians and Ukrainians to Poles, Serbs, Croats and Bulgars.
Poles number many thousands. They came with the Germans and later with Gen. Anders armies, and they are among those who least desire to return to their own country.

The Dull Dog Days

THESE ARE THE DULL DAYS for business between the rush of the Yuletide, when the most of folk lay in their goods and supplies and the springtime when industrial activity starts moving anew. These are the days when business people are inclined to feel a little downhearted and pessimistic, when we settle down to inventory our affairs and face the realisms. But this is also the time for courage and hope in taking stock and doing some of the serious jobs that have to be done. The picnic is over and it is time to settle down to work and the sooner we all do so, the happier we will be. The dog days can be put to good use if we go at them with the right spirit and resolve and take them in our stride. There is certainly nothing to despair about even in business.

JONES ACT STAYS

THE MOVEMENT for a repeal of the Jones Act, in which Prince Rupert and southeastern Alaska are most vitally interested, particularly in these days when there is so much effort to set this up in reality as Alaska's most strategically situated port of entry, takes a body blow with the United States Maritime Commission disapproving of proposed legislation in Congress to bring about such repeal. Fine hand of the powerful interests of Seattle and the Puget Sound shipping people can, at last, be detected after their period of watchful waiting. Possibly, it was a little too much to expect that the yoke, which these powerful interests still hold upon Alaska and the lifting of which might have meant so much to Prince Rupert in its ambition and friendly willingness to become the port of Alaska, would be so easily yielded.

Alaska will, of course, go on fighting against the Jones Act with Prince Rupert's sympathetic interest, doing what it can with propriety to support the territory in its campaign.

NO MORE XMAS TREES

WITNESSES at a coroner's inquest here on Saturday held that Christmas trees, which had been set around on Third Avenue as a festive season decoration, were at least partially responsible for the death of a man who came off a sidewalk behind one of these trees to be struck down by an automobile, the driver of which appears to have been fairly enough exonerated of any blame in the matter.

After this, it will, of course, be unlikely that Christmas trees will again be placed out in this manner, since they had been considered a nuisance in other ways as well. But it does not mean that Prince Rupert on Christmases to come up may not be adorned again. Indeed, a more effective job may be done.

In other places, illuminated lighting has been found to greatly enhance the scene. Not so far from here, the paper town of Ocean Falls this Christmas and New Year presented a colorful nocturnal scene with standing trees at various vantage points wired up for electric lighting in variegated hues. It was particularly impressive as viewed from vessels approaching the port.

In Vancouver homes throughout the city played a large part in the general decorative scene, prizes having been offered for the most attractively illuminated dwellings. When two-thirds of the day around Christmas is dark anyway, night decorating is as important as day anyway.

CITY'S SNOW BLANKET MELTS UNDER RAIN

The eight-inch snow blanket which covered the city since January 1 began dissolving under the force of a gale-borne rain early this morning, turning streets into avenues of slush. The saturated snow added to the difficulties of driving and walking. Snow removal work done by the city engineer's department on Saturday and Sunday eased the traffic situation on the main streets but side streets which had not been cleared posed a test to drivers' skill as the snow softened.

The rain—almost an inch of it—began falling when a gale started building up during the early hours of the morning, and added to the difficulties of work-bound pedestrians and motorists.

Almost an inch of rain for overnight. No traffic accidents were reported over the week-end. Most hills and dangerous places on the streets had been cleared of deep snow and sanded by city trucks. The sanding spoiled many of the best juvenile sleighing slopes but added to the general safety.

Sunday's snowfall was almost two inches, falling in squalls that came in from the southwest. About midnight, the wind changed to southeast and built up to gale force, varying between 40 and 50 miles an hour. Snowmen, which achieved a sudden appearance on scores of front yards on Sunday, were sorry and wilted-looking this morning after being harassed by the driving rain.

WANT A MONKEY?
VANCOUVER, B.C.—Fred Edge says he will gladly trade Bongo, his pet monkey, for an apartment. "A paper clip I gave him was promptly jabbed into a light socket, short-circuiting lights all over the building. Then the curtains, blinds and everything that could come down came down—a few minutes later an eviction notice was pushed under my door."

Reminiscences By W.I. and Reflections

It is perhaps not generally known that there used to be three newspapers in Prince Rupert, this being away back before the era of wars, and there were great expectations. A morning paper was printed in the cool grey dawn by O. H. Nelson. He ran it for some years and the street public and householders would digest the contents along with breakfast. The Journal had its own building on Third Avenue, just east of McBride Street, facing the Court House square and handy to the laundry. To enter and leave, it was necessary to use the sloping side of a retaining wall in order to regain the street level. But that was a mere incidental in those picturesque days.

It's seldom, if ever, Prince Rupert escapes a winter without some slush but it's rarely serious. There is more inconvenience than anything else. If you have a luxury of a passenger car, there is no occasion for grief and should you have ability in sprinting or leaping, you will keep dry shod even with light rubbers. There was more to stand away back 35 years ago. Slush comes nearer home when eroded streets and sidewalks have yet to be built.

There seems to be a movement abroad in Skeena to restore the board—in other words,

Butcher's Display Thrills Immigrant

Oslo Women and Husband Join Children in Canada

TORONTO (C)—There aren't many cheerful faces in front of Toronto meat counters, but Mrs. George Paulsen is one shopper whose enthusiasm is undimmed by the price tags.

Newly-arrived from Oslo, Norway, Mrs. Paulsen still gets a thrill from the mere sight of a roast of pork or a few chickens on the butcher's counters.

Mrs. Paulsen and her husband completed a family migration to Toronto which started when her son, Ragden, came here during the Second World War and married a Toronto girl. Five other children and grandchildren preceded Mrs. Paulsen and her husband.

to make facial foliage live again. The gesture is feeble, yet it is a commencement. Why, this column does not presume to suggest, unless it is to encourage thrift or, in the general scheme of things, to enhance manly beauty. More newborn beards are being noted on the streets. A set of whiskers, seen unexpectedly and in broad daylight, undoubtedly stimulates interest and may invite a more than casual inspection. It is self-evident the wearer acted on the spur of the moment without worrying as to whether the choice should be mutton chops, Galways, dundrearys or vandykes.

Yet who can say the whole business has not stemmed from the sudden awakening of a sense of inferiority, due to contemplating the wretched little patch of ill-nourished looking hair seen today on countless upper lips! And thus reflecting, masculine pride and dignity reasserts itself. The Charlie Chaplin insult must go.

DETERMINING KOREA'S FATE

By LARRY HAUCK

LAKE SUCCESS, (AP)—The political fate of Korea may be decided this month after a United Nations commission in Seoul asks the Russians to help carry out a U.N. decision calling for country-wide elections leading to establishment of an independent Korean government.

If the Russian answer is unfavorable, the alternative conceivably could be a course leading to partition of Korea.

The Russians, firmly entrenched as occupying power in the northern half of Korea, are expected to reject all overtures for their sanction of an election or permission for U.N. observers to cross into Soviet-held territory. Such moves were forecast here in November when Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky described the assembly's decision as "illegal" and said his country would not co-operate.

The Soviet boycott took tangible form when the Soviet Ukraine, one of the nine nations election to the commission, refused service. The body will function with delegates from eight nations: Australia, Canada, China, El Salvador, France, India, Syria and the Philippines. The United States, which occupies the southern half of Korea, sponsored the assembly step and naturally is ready to co-operate.

The commission's secretariat of about 25, headed by Assistant Secretary-General Victor H. China, left New York Friday by chartered plane. Stops will be made in San Francisco, Honolulu and Tokyo. The first commission meeting is scheduled in Seoul, in the U.S. sector, January 8.

MRS. BUCHANAN PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Elizabeth Lindsay Buchanan, a resident of this city since 1925, passed away early Sunday morning at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cameron, 1302 Overlook Street. Mrs. Buchanan was 89 years old.

Born at Coatbridge, Scotland, Mrs. Buchanan came to Canada in 1916, taking up residence in Montreal with Mr. and Mrs. Cameron. She came to Prince Rupert with the family in 1925 when Mr. Cameron joined the staff of the Prince Rupert Dry Dock of which he is now manager.

Mrs. Buchanan's husband predeceased her in Scotland in 1911.

Throughout her life, she was an active church worker, being a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are three sons in Scotland, three daughters, two in Montreal and Mrs. Robert Cameron of Prince Rupert, 25 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at B.C. Undertakers' Grenville Court Chapel with Rev. Allan M. McColl of First Presbyterian Church officiating.

EARLY PIONEER TO VISIT HOME

First Jewish Woman in Edmonton Still Plans to See Russia

EDMONTON (AP)—Mrs. A. Cristall, first Jewish woman to reside in Edmonton, still hopes to revisit her native city of Odessa in Russia even though she is 72 years old.

Mrs. Cristall who came to Edmonton when the Indians still had the habit of dropping in once in a while uninvited for a friendly visit thinks the hardy pioneers could give the present day residents a few good lessons in neighborliness, religious tolerance and racial goodwill.

Being the first Jewish family in the city the Cristalls had no Hebrew church and they went on Sundays in turn to Catholic, Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian and Salvation Army services.

"The Indians would drop in on me when I was alone in our small shack on Jasper Avenue (then and now the city's main street) at practically any hour of the night or day," said Mrs. Cristall in an interview. "I was pretty scared at first but finally learned enough Cree to talk to them an d found out they just wanted to be friendly."

Twice in the past she made plans to revisit Odessa. Once she booked passage on the Titanic but it sank on its maiden voyage. Later outbreak of the First World War stalled her again.

She still hopes to return to Odessa but in the meantime she is a trifle wistful for Edmonton's pioneer days when people were "more friendly."

SUPER SENSE SELLS HATS, PICKS HUBBY

By MARILYN LAMBORN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO — Advantage of being psychic vary from selecting a "satisfactory" husband to selling hats.

At least that's the claim of Mrs. Catherine Whaley, whose ability to "see into the future" led her to Christie Street Hospital where she cheers up bed-ridden veterans by giving them pleasant glimpses of what fate has in store.

The daughter of an Irish detective and a psychic mother, Mrs. Whaley says she picked out the best husband in the field—and it was all done through psychology and psychic power.

"Of course I was much younger and didn't know then what I know now," said the motherly woman with a flash of her penetrating blue eyes.

Even though few persons have the "super sense" attributed to Mrs. Whaley, she says most bright girls on the look-out for a husband can develop their powers of observation and use a bit of intuition enabling them to "see right through a man and be three jumps ahead of him."

Another practical application of her psychic ability is placing the right hat on the right head, a trait which makes cash registers ring at the two millinery shops she manages in downtown Toronto.

But "most fun of all" is dropping into Christie Street Hospital Saturday nights where her fortune telling is regarded as beneficial to morale as well as entertaining.

"Mind over matter" is Mrs. Whaley's philosophy when she talks to veterans who might be worried about coming operations.

Tea cups and cards have been her fortune-telling medium for years but she freely admits that she ignores their messages in favor of the individual. Character analysis, psychology

ACTORS PLAN WORLD TOUR

HOLLYWOOD, — A new "international set" is forming among topflight members of the movie colony.

Latest to express her desire to make pictures almost any place in the world but Hollywood is Merle Oberon. Miss Oberon and her husband, cameraman Lucien Ballard, along with Paulette Goddard, her husband, Burgess Meredith, and the Gary Coopers are seriously considering touring the far places of the globe and making movies as they go.

Many of the film's more serious say they dislike the artificiality of Hollywood. Some live here only when working. Others have moved their residences 30 to 40 miles away.

Miss Oberon, who lives on a lonely stretch of seacoast 50 miles to the north, explains that "Hollywood gives you no freedom. It butts into your private affairs. People want to peek into your bedroom to see what's going on—and get sore if you don't let them. They seem to think that because you work here you're their property."

Before the war, one section of high society was represented by an "international set" which spent its days wandering in luxurious comfort from one spa to another around the world. Today, few of the old continental fortunes are intact, and about the only group with enough spare time and money to take the place of the "international set" is the movie crowd.

For them, the Ballard-Meredith-Cooper idea is a natural. Picture people get bored easily, so they like to travel. If you can travel and make money, too, asks Merle, why not?

and psychic power are the things that really count.

By looking at individuals she says she can approximate their mentality. A "super sense" tells her if anyone has had an accident or might have one. In fact, when driving, she knows if an automobile is approaching around a curve.

"My husband always lets me drive the car," she said as final proof that her type of psychology really works.

WEEKLY RATION FOR ONE ADULT
RATION PER WEEK PER ADULT—Austerity rules more stringently than ever in Britain today. Above is one week's food ration for the average adult. Official food ration of milk is two pints, as shown, but people in urban areas can get only one and a half pints. The one egg per week has a big "if"—if you can get it.

HOMEWARD BOUND

WALLACETOWN, Ont., — Nearly 100 years ago an oak chest was brought from Scotland to this Elgin County community by James Stalker who crossed the Atlantic in six weeks. Packed by his descendants with food for Britain, the chest will shortly make the return crossing—in much faster time.

LAWYER ELECTED

EDMONTON, — A prominent lawyer and former military secretary to the minister of national defence, Col. H. A. Dyde, was elected president of the United Services Institute at the annual meeting here. He succeeded another Edmonton lawyer, Maj. Sydney Wood.

OUT OF WORK

RED DEER, Alta., — After 12 years of collecting taxpayers' money, marking up village ledgers and solving land-title problems, S. G. Broadfoot left his position as secretary-treasurer of the village of North Red Deer when the area was dissolved December 31. The village amalgamated with the city of Red Deer.

STREAMLINED HOSPITAL

HALIFAX, — The new Victoria General Hospital which will be opened here soon is one of the best equipped in Canada. Electric signal systems, pneumatic tube communications and automatic dumb waiters which will carry food trays from the kitchen to all parts of the building are among some of the hospital's modern features.

MYSTERY SOLVED

INDIAN HARBOR, Nfld., — A nine-year old mystery was reported cleared up here when a police constable found remains of clothing and the skeletons of two children. The bodies were believed to be those of James Kerrivan 11, and his seven-year old brother who were lost in a blinding snowstorm February 4, 1938.

Margaret Is In Limelight

Gossip-mongers Trying to Match Princess
By NORMAN CRIBBENS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON — Britain's most eligible young woman, the 17-year-old Princess Margaret, has been constantly in the limelight since her sister's royal wedding faded into history.

No sooner had Elizabeth and Philip left for their honeymoon than the public were startled with rumors of a potential match between winsome Margaret and young Prince Michael of Rumania.

When these proved groundless, gossip-mongers seized on the young princess's friendly association with Philip's best man, the Marquess of Milford Haven, said to be a favored dancing partner.

Regardless of her choice, and she has many young male admirers, friends of the royal family say there is little likelihood of the princess becoming officially engaged for at least three years to come.

"The royal family" is less bound by tradition than it used to be," one said, "but the King and Queen have very definite views against premature engagements."

To compensate for the loneliness she felt after sister Elizabeth departed, the King and Queen invited a number of escorts, chiefly stalwart young guardsmen, to provide opportunities for Margaret to attend parties in private homes and restaurants.

PHOTOGENIC AND ROGUISH

Because she is photogenic and has a roguish smile, newspapers have made the most of her public appearances. Their pictures reflect an amusing young woman with an impish twinkle in her eye and a capacity for seeming at home in all kinds of company.

When she danced with a footman at the Buckingham Palace servants' ball, Margaret looked as if she did this sort of thing every day of her life. Swaying easily to his steps, she laughed and chuckled in his ear and occasionally flashed him a quick appreciative smile.

Young men who partner her at dances find her easy to talk to and amusingly flippant. She is a graceful dancer with a good sense of rhythm, tireless as long as she is having fun. But unlike Elizabeth, she gets easily excited and just as easily depressed.

Already she is taller than the Queen and may soon be taller than her sister. Like them she has a lovely complexion, perfect teeth, vivid blue eyes and dark hair.

She is slimmer than Elizabeth, has a good dress sense, is fond of clothes and likes bright colors, particularly red and blue. She prefers wearing skirts and jumpers to dresses and is noted for her dislike of hats. Only recently, since she became more prominent in public life, has the princess bowed to convention by wearing them.

Although she has a variety of jewelry, Margaret wears it sparingly—usually a small pearl necklace and sometimes a charm bracelet. Only in recent months has she been allowed to use pow-

HOW TO MAKE REAL FRIENDS

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Folks in the biggest small town in the world were downright neighborly about helping each other out after a snowstorm so bad hardly anybody could get downtown to pick up the mail.

One of the most helpful was Henry Brockstedt, one of Mayor O'Dwyer's constables, who knew what to do—storm or no storm—when an ambulance failed to get through to the home of an expectant Brooklyn mother.

Patrolman Hank, helped by another blue-coated guardian of the law, just went ahead himself and delivered a fine 6½-pound daughter to Mrs. Vivian Love, 31.

The doctor arrived an hour and 15 minutes later and congratulated Brockstedt, but Hank didn't allow as how the occasion called for any special praise. He said he had delivered 10 babies before during his police career.

Well, Hank will make more friends that way than passing out parking tickets.

der and lipstick.
The princess excels at tap dancing and ballet and in her early teens she had a passion for fancy dress. Once when she dressed up as an angel, the Queen said to her: "You will have to be good now you are a holy angel."
"Oh, no, Mummy," she replied. "I'm a holy terror."

BASKETBALL CHATTER
 (By BILL LONG)

Prince Rupert's all-star hopefuls will have their final, pre-series practice tonight in preparation for their conflict with Vancouver Arrows. Then, Coach Alex Bill will make his fateful announcement as to the final selection of players.

Just who these will be is still Bill's secret but it appears likely that the starting line-up will include those four Old Reliabilities—MacPhee, Lindsay, Dominato and Morgan—with Beynon and Ted Arney the alternatives for the fifth spot.

Jim Flaten and Reg Lavigne will be leaving with the Bo-Me-Hi team for Ketchikan on Wednesday night but it is rumored that they both may see action in Wednesday night's Arrow game.

The preliminary games will see Kitkatla Excelsior Club meet Sev Dominato's Fashion Footwear squad on Wednesday and on Thursday the starter will be a game between the intermediate Merchant's team and either the Metlakatla Panthers or the Port Simpson Athletic Club.

This column still stands by its choice of the locals to take the series from the Vancouver Arrows. Word from the sporting back rooms indicates nothing better than even money and, at that, bets on Vancouver are not too plentiful.

According to some who have witnessed "A" basketball in the south, the locals will have a bit of an edge in scoring, and a little experience to spare. Past local teams have showed up pretty well, it may be remembered.

I did a bit of investigating last night regarding the financing of this series and found that basketball in Prince Rupert has become a very popular diversion. I gathered that this series will cost about $750 and that some 1,500 fans will see the games, with possibly five times that number listening to its broadcast over station CFPB.

All in all, we would say that Prince Rupert has begun to show a real appreciation of its athletes and the athletes, in turn, are beginning to respect that appreciation.

Charles Cote arrived on Tuesday from Edmonton where he is attending a Catholic seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Baxter of Vanderhoof arrived last week in Terrace and plan to spend the winter here.

Mrs. E. Hamilton was a passenger to Prince Rupert on last Tuesday's train.

Mrs. A. J. Dominato and family of Prince Rupert returned home on Tuesday after spending Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Houlden. Mrs. C. Houlden accompanied them to the coast, returning Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammer left on Tuesday for the south where Mr. Hammer will take a three months forestry course.

Miss Eva Peterson of Smithers arrived on Tuesday for a short visit and left on Friday's train.

Miss Edna Robson returned from Smithers on Tuesday's train.

The New Year's Eve ball sponsored by the Canadian Legion and held in the Orange Hall was a great success. The hall was packed at midnight when the New Year was welcomed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and the blowing of horns. Dancing to the music supplied by local talent continued until 4:15 a.m. and a very merry time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Seton, who has been very ill at her home here for sometime, recovered sufficiently to be able to travel to Smithers at the week-end where she entered hospital for x-ray and further treatment.

Mrs. Spitzel was taken to Prince Rupert General Hospital on Tuesday's train for surgical attention. Mrs. H. Dell accompanied her, returning the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clifford have purchased from W. A. Kirkpatrick a remodelled army building on Greig Avenue and moved into their new home on Tuesday.

New Year's Eve parties were held at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. F. Fisher, D. G. Little and Charles Adam, Terrace's newly-elected commissioner, where about 30 couples gathered to "see the Old Year out and the New Year in."

At the turkey shoot held by the Rod and Gun Club in the old brickyard Constable Brue and Herb Larsen each won two turkeys, while Dudley Little won one and Tony Cote won the $8 cash prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry La Barr of Ansonville, Ontario, spent the week-end in Terrace before returning to their eastern home today. They spent the Yuletide season with Louis Neuheuser and Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Jackson at Kwinitsa.

ARROWS LEAVE SOUTH TONIGHT
VANCOUVER—Ten members of the Vancouver Arrows basketball team are leaving here tonight on the steamer Prince Rupert to play a two-game series with a senior Prince Rupert team.

Vancouver Blue Bombers Champs
VANCOUVER—Vancouver Blue Bombers today were Canadian junior football champions after they outfought rain, hail, mud, eastern rules and the Hamilton Tigers to win six to three in the final of a two-game series here Saturday. Hamilton was trounced on the series, having suffered a 13 to 5 reverse in the first encounter under the western code on New Year's Day.

Heavy Snows Over Terrace
TERRACE—Heavy snows blanket Terrace and district with over three feet falling between Friday and Saturday. There is no sign of any let-up and the public works department is doing a valiant job trying to keep the village roads and highway cleared for traffic.

E. S. Laird, high school teacher at Terrace, visited Prince Rupert on Tuesday, returning on Wednesday's train.

JOHN McLEOD HURT IN FALL

This morning's gale was responsible for injuries to John McLeod, proprietor of the North Star Bottling Works, when it loosened a section of the roof of the Second Avenue plant which he had been attempting to repair, hurling him to the rocky ground at the rear of the building.

Mr. McLeod was taken to Prince Rupert General Hospital at 9 o'clock this morning in the city ambulance, suffering three broken ribs and shock. He was treated by Dr. C. H. Hankinson and is reported to be in good condition.

He had been trying to make fast a section of the asbestos-cement roof which had been loosened by the wind during the early morning, when it came free in a gust and started to slip. Mr. McLeod was thrown to the ground 16 feet below, landing on his side.

MOOSE PARTY IS USUAL SUCCESS

The weekly program of card playing and dancing in the Moose Temple under auspices of the Loyal Order of Moose was the usual success Saturday night. Card playing, under direction of Bill Terry, took up the early part of the evening. The winners for the women were Mrs. T. Latch and Anne De Graff, with John McNaughton and Peter Swicki tallying high scores for the men.

Dancing to music provided by Stevens' orchestra commenced at 10:30 with Carl Brechin as master of ceremonies. During intermission refreshments were served and prizes distributed to the winners at cards.

With a fair-sized list of passengers and considerable freight cargo on board, Union steamer Catala, Capt. Alex McLennan, arrived in port at 8:45 last evening from Vancouver and way-points, sailing at midnight for Alice Arm, Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow morning to sail at 1:30 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and way-points.

The four men employed on the Seattle fish packer Terry have been allowed wage claims ranging from $200 to $500 in the Admiralty Court, Vancouver. The packer started to leak last July while on her way from Port Townsend to Juneau and was towed into Vancouver. The Terry was ordered sold to satisfy claims.

With Dr. A. L. Tester, biologist, in charge, collaborating with J. P. Tully, oceanographer, further tests of direction finding instruments are about to take place off the West Coast of Vancouver Island. Chief efforts will be made toward locating herring schools, which have had some measure of success. The 85-foot motorship Entokoll is being used. The instruments are said to be capable of finding schools of fish anywhere within one mile range forward. Horizontal beams will also be tested.

W. H. CHAPMAN DIES IN SOUTH

Mr. Chapman was on the coast, having been in the Department of Field Artillery in the First World War.
