CONFERENCE WOULD NOT FORCED PERSONS—UNAL-
OPPOSED TO MARXISM

(CP)—The Lambeth Conference last night, the governments of the world to work for the final elimination of armaments" ex-which might be necessary for inter-protection.

also pleaded for closer unity between "the different parts of the Anglican communion and the Protestant churches," adding that "in the United States, in Canada, in Australia and in the British Isles there are projects and schemes of various kinds, some for organic union, some for a mutually recognized ministry."

The report, published last night, presents the conclusions of 329 archbishops and bishops of Anglican and Episcopal churches who conferred here for five weeks in closest session beginning July 1.

The church heads reaffirmed a resolution passed at the 1930 Lambeth Conference, "that war as a method of settling international disputes is incompatible with the teaching and example of Our Lord Jesus Christ."

The report urged that the use of atomic energy "be brought under effective international inspection and control as to prevent its use as a weapon of war."

CHURCH DIVISIONS
The first part of the report, an encyclical letter from the bishops to be read in churches Oct. 10, refers to the "deep divisions existing within the church itself."

Emphasizing a need for unity, the letter states: "We feel more and more keenly the rift between the different parts of the Anglican communion and the Protestant churches and we have a great desire to find a way forward to closer unity with them."

Closer fellowship of Episcopal churches was also stressed. While reaffirming the church's refusal to marry a divorced person while a former spouse is still living, the conference urged that divorced and remarried persons should not be "banished from the concern of the church."

The conference also condemned Marxian Communism (Continued on Page Six)

Sparling, general manager, Canadian National Railways, western region, with headquarters in Winnipeg, arrived in the city this morning in the course of an official inspection tour. He is leaving this evening on his return East. He is accompanied by J. F. Cooper of Vancouver, general superintendent for British Columbia.

Miss Dorothy Becker is sailing tomorrow night on the Prince Rupert for a three weeks' trip to Vancouver where she will take a sewing machine course.

TAKES SERIOUS VIEW
WASHINGTON—Secretary of State George Marshall said today that United States viewed with serious concern Russian charges against the United States government and some of its officials in connection with refugee school teachers' cases in New York. The United States may ask Russia to recall Yakov M. Lomakin, consul-general at New York, because of his role in the Kosenkina case. Meanwhile diplomatic authorities are puzzling over indications that the Soviet Union is closing all schools operated in many countries for children of diplomats and other employees abroad. The families may be ordered home so there may be better control of the envoys.

BABE RUTH IN STATE
NEW YORK—Babe Ruth's body lay in state today at Yankee Stadium where 50,000 persons yesterday filed past his candle-lit bier. The funeral will take place tomorrow from St. Patrick's Cathedral.

SEAMEN SENTENCED
SARNIA—Seven members of the Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.) received sentences ranging from six months to two years today for incidents arising from the strike called by the Union in an effort to force four Great Lakes shipping companies to sign new working agreements. All cases involved charges of illegally boarding lake freighters.

HEADS CONCILIATION
VICTORIA—Mr. Justice H. I. Bird of the British Columbia Court of Appeals has been appointed chairman of a conciliation board in the wage dispute involving 40,000 members of the International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.), it was announced by the British Columbia Labor Relations Board. The appointment of the chairman was made by the Labor Board after union and employer representatives failed to agree on the selection. The Union is asking a 25c an hour wage increase.

MILITARY MANOEUVRES
BERLIN—United States troops wound up all-night defensive manoeuvres early today in Grunewald Forest of Soviet-blockaded Berlin. Reports from Hamburg said the Russians were winding up summer manoeuvres near their own zonal frontiers.

WEST INDIES HURRICANE
MIAMI—A tropical disturbance off St. Lucia in the West Indies, about 250 miles north of Trinidad, was reported early today by the United States hurricane warning service. The British radio station at Kingston, Jamaica, is broadcasting warnings to ships at sea.

AGAINST COMMUNISM
LONDON—Translated into more than 100 languages, a call to Christians to oppose Communism was dispatched today to all corners of the earth. It was sent by the Lambeth Conference. The conference report was published last night in the form of a volume presenting the views of 29 archbishops and bishops of Anglican and associated churches who had met here for five weeks.

BUTTER CRISIS
OTTAWA—Butter riches of New Zealand and Scandinavia have taken on new importance in the light of Canada's steadily worsening domestic supply situation. Informed sources here believe the government may soon take action to avert a critical winter shortage which now seems inevitable. The question of butter substitute has been all but shelved for the time being.

Impossible Russian Demands Reported Negotiations Believed Bogging Down

Jimmy Gardiner Heads For Farm

OTTAWA—The Minister of Agriculture, Hon. J. G. Gardiner, who was one of the candidates for the Liberal leadership, is leaving shortly for his home in the west—a farm at Lemberg, in Saskatchewan. Mr. Gardiner has been having a busy time and will now enjoy a rest, chat with his neighbors, look over the crops and check up on his fences (not political).

BEAUTY WINNER RECEIVES GIFTS FROM CITIZENS

"I've heard of girls being beautiful but dumb, but this girl is not only beautiful, but she's all brain," quipped Mayor Nora E. Arnold as she presented Margaret Brain, Prince Rupert's entry in the "Miss P.N.E." contest, with several gifts on the stage of the Capitol Theatre last night.

Seventeen-year-old Miss Brain, who will leave Friday night to take part in the province-wide beauty contest at the Pacific National Exhibition at Vancouver, was literally floored by the presents lavished by city business houses to enhance her chances for the coveted glamor title.

Among the gifts was a silver-blue fur coat, donated by Bill Scuby. There also was a certificate for a suit, coat, hat and blouse from Wallace's, a formal evening dress from Annette's Ladies' Wear, a make-up kit from McCutcheon's and a large framed picture from Van Meer Studios. These were presented by Mayor Arnold.

Miss Brain also received checks from Famous Players Canadian Co. Ltd. and from the Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored her in the beauty contest.

"I almost fainted, it was such a surprise," said the beauty contest winner after she retired from the stage where the presentations were made before a packed audience.

Mayor Arnold's comment was not amiss, because Miss Brain has talent in addition to charm. Last May, while a Grade Eleven student at Booth Memorial High School, Margaret won first prize in an art contest sponsored by the Junior Chamber for an illustrated cover for its monthly publication "Jay-See-Saw." The prize was a wrist watch.

PLAN FIGHT ON INCREASED RATES

WINNIPEG—Representatives of Canada's four western and three maritime provinces are today studying plans for a continuation of joint opposition to the granting of freight rate increases. Only Ontario and Quebec were without representation.

Mrs. J. W. Scott returned to the city at the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott and sons from a motor trip to Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Olof Hanson, after a week-end visit to the city, left Monday afternoon by car on their return to Smithers.

Having been delayed by a freight train derailment east of Jasper, the train, due from the East at 11:45 last night, will not be arriving until 4:15 this afternoon.

Overwhelming Victory For Alberta's Government

Liberals and C.C.F. Almost Wiped Out— Question As to Who Will Be Opposition

EDMONTON—The question today was not who won yesterday's provincial general election in Alberta—it was an overwhelming victory for the government headed by Premier E. C. Manning—but who would be the official opposition—the Liberals or the C.C.F. For the fourth time in fourteen years the province had elected a Social Credit government with a top-heavy majority.

Early today the government had swept at least forty-six of the fifty-seven seats in the Legislature and was leading in three. The Liberals and C.C.F. had each won only one seat with the Liberals leading in three and the C.C.F. in three.

The entire nine-man cabinet was re-elected and in Edmonton Premier E. C. Manning was accorded the largest personal poll that any candidate was ever given in a provincial election in this province.

The government was solidly entrenched for its fourth consecutive term in office.

Harper Prowse, the Liberal leader, and Elmer E. Roper, C.C.F., were, apparently, elected in the five-seat riding of the capital city of Edmonton but John Percy Page, Independent movement leader, was trailing. Prowse and Roper were the only two candidates the two major opposition parties had so far been able to elect.

Not long after half an hour had elapsed following the closing of the polls Mr. Roper conceded the re-election of the government.

The long process of ballot counting—due to the combination of proportional representation and single transferable ballot—made it uncertain up to early this morning as to whether the Liberals or the C.C.F. would have the more seats or whether they would be left on an even footing.

TO TAKE OVER POWER

The Albertans voted to turn control of the province's vast power industry over to the government. With the return of Premier Manning's Social Credit administration to power, it appeared to be a certainty that he would be called upon to socialize Alberta's 5,000-odd miles of power lines, a move he termed "risky" during the election campaign.

1948 WHEAT CROP LARGER

OTTAWA—Canada's 1948 wheat crop will be 372,000,000 bushels, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics estimated today. Last year's crop was about thirty million bushels less.

American Rifles Are Being Used

LONDON—According to the Weekly News Review, the western union military committee has decided to replace rifles now in use in the west, including Britain's standard Lee-Enfield, with the American army service rifle. The movement is part of a plan for co-ordinating the military activities of Britain, France and the United States.

Mrs. M. Banas sailed by the Princess Adelaide Monday night for Vancouver enroute back to her home in Winnipeg after a week's visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mussellam.

Stalin Parley Seems Unlikely

Situation Believed Right Back Where It Started

MOSCOW—There was still no indication today of an official statement from Moscow conversations. However, there were indications that the talks were winding up, possibly without any further meeting with Premier Joseph Stalin for the time being at least. There was a report that the Russians had made impossible demands which had caused the negotiations to bog down to a point no better than when the blockade began.

Meantime in Berlin it was indicated that the western powers were turning their attention to speeding up the air life and the establishment of a government in western Germany.

REFUGEES IN NEWFIE

Estonians and Poles Arrive At St. John's After Navigating Atlantic In Small Boat

ST. JOHN'S, Newfoundland—Seventy-five Russian-shy Estonians and Poles stretched their legs here last night after a twelve-day voyage from Scotland in a 64-ton vessel.

The Swedish craft Ostervag numbered fifteen children among her passengers. It arrived here after having navigated from Stornorway by means of a watch compass and an old-fashioned sextant.

A government spokesman at Ottawa said they would likely be given sanctuary in Canada.

The refugees came from Sweden, having fled that country, they said, in fear that Russia would demand of the Swedish government that they return to the Soviet sphere.

Tuna Fish Fever Brings Run On Gear In Local Ship Chandleries

Tuna fish have captured the imagination of many Prince Rupert fishermen in a manner similar to the lure of gold and so great has been the demand for tuna fishing gear that a shortage exists in local fish chandlery establishments.

The arrival here early this week of the boat Great Northern with 15,000 pounds of tuna, plus later reports of good catches off the Queen Charlotte Islands has excited the imaginations of boat owners who previously had never bothered with tuna.

They hesitated to make the outlay required since in the past all tuna fishing has been done off the lower B.C. coast and in waters off Washington and Oregon.

Now, however, with the appearance of tuna off the Queen Charlotte Islands, the tuna fishery is beginning to take on the aspect of the halibut fishery and dozens of larger boats are preparing for it.

Of the tuna boats which have been fishing off the west coast of Moresby Island at least four were reported to be heading for Prince Rupert to unload their catches today. The fishery has been so good that they have remained out until they ran out of ice and were forced to come in and unload.

The Great Northern's catch may be a historic one, first of many which will be landed here, thus making Prince Rupert a northern tuna centre as well as a halibut and salmon port. "If it becomes an established industry, it will be the best news the fishermen have had for a long time," one veteran halibut man said. "The halibut seasons are becoming so short that some other type of fishery is needed to keep the boats busy."

If Capt. Morgan Berg's fortune is repeated by other fishermen, the tuna business has every indication of being profitable. With only a two-man crew, the Great Northern brought in a cargo of tuna worth $4,800 in little more than a week of fishing.

He and his crewman, Tom York, will divide the proceeds from its sale on the basis of two-thirds to the boat owner and one-third to the crew man.

That sort of talk is real music to anybody's ears and other fishermen are listening eagerly. They also are scouring ship chandlery shops for already scarce tuna gear to get in on the profits.

Alberta Election

AS EVERYBODY EXPECTED, Alberta has returned its Social Credit government to office for its fourth term, thus setting up a record for that province in longevity of tenure for any political party. The measure of re-mandate was possibly even more overwhelming than might be normally desirable but the endorsement was undoubtedly deserved and is not misplaced.

Social Crediters, although they might have had their inception in promises that were not fulfilled, have given Alberta good and sound government and have won a name for honesty and sincerity. Their tendency of late, at least, has been to be conservative rather than radical.

The people of Alberta expressed their satisfaction in no uncertain terms and, no doubt, had good reason for doing so.

What issues as there might have been were of purely provincial character.

It was the sixth general provincial election in Canada this year and, like all others, resulted in a return to office of the incumbent party.

GOVERNMENT DILEMMA

THE LABOR GOVERNMENT of Great Britain is about to face a test on its courageous attempt to curb inflation. It has to meet the criticism and opposition of a large proportion of its own normal supporters in its wage-fixing policy and of the opposition party on price freezing. It would appear to be in somewhat of a dilemma indeed. But, to give it its due, it is at least endeavouring to meet the country's grim economic situation in a realistic and practical manner, even if it involves double-barrelled unpopular moves.

The Trades Union Congress of Britain is in a spot for it has pledged support to the Labor government's freezing program but, at the same time, its members are demanding more money.

FOR GOOD OR EVIL

ON AUGUST 6, 1945, the first atom bomb devastated Hiroshima. Since then atom energy and uranium, its source of power, have become the most publicized subjects in history. On one horizon this new creature of science has instilled the minds of people with dread and fear: an important factor in preserving peace. There would be insurrection if war lords tried to summon armies to face certain, instant annihilation.

Peace seems assured as long as this fear remains; as long as the great supply of uranium, and the secrets of the atom, remain in possession of traditionally peace-loving nations.

On another horizon, uranium has great commercial value associated with its ability to serve humanity rather than destroy it.

When the first atom was split, a great, new field was opened to scientific exploration. Great advances have been made in this direction. Headlines in the press, and new ones that appear every day, can hardly keep pace with the advance that scientists are making toward an "Atomic Age."

Atom energy has been called the greatest boon to mankind since the discovery of fire; the greatest contribution to industry since the invention of the wheel; and, as exploration continues, its ability to cure many human ills and prolong life is already well established.

Letters to the Editor

POLICING PLEBISCITE

Editor, Daily News:
I wish to support the views expressed over the signature of Harold Sinclair in your paper of August 16. Today, as always before, I am opposed to surrendering local autonomy to any group or set of citizens whether they be classed as police officers or party politicians, military or any group that is not subject to the approval of all the people.

Therefore, it is my intention to place a resolution before the city council prior to the next municipal election providing for a plebiscite on the question of police administration whether through a police commission or a single police officer.

In the name of Democracy.
GEORGE B. CASEY.

INDIAN CO-OPERATION

Editor, Daily News:
I always thought that Prince Rupert was a town that discriminated against Indians. This week at Cow Bay I asked several Indians to help me raise a sunken boat. I had no help from Indians who said it belonged to a white man. One person did, however, bring his boat around to help me out.

DESPICABLE

Editor, Daily News:
To be an Indian is no disgrace but it must be very inconvenient. The fact we do not realize is that they are as necessary in the scheme of things as we whites. We white people have knowledge in a small degree and complacency in a large degree and that causes a smudge.

Mr. Sinclair's portrait of the police invading the privacy of the Indians was not an attractive one. What a despicable thing to do or cause to be done as to enter a man's room to find out whether he has imbibed the stuff which the government provides for imbibing and which the white drinks like a fish without interference.

Unless we get wisdom and understanding and respect human rights the cataclysm which seems to face us will be well deserved. I hope the best is yet to be. But, Mr. Sinclair, do not imbibe because it is not good.

By W.J. and Reflections

Vancouver hears that, among the uses of celanese, will be its conversion into cloth, with good wearing qualities. This is interesting. What could be simpler when thinking of that new spring suit, than to step into the woods and pick an attractive looking tree? That makes the job already half done.

Possibility of a second theatre is admitted. Years ago, when there was no real justification for so many, there were three doing business here. Today, with what looks like sound reasons for having at least two, there is still but one.

Port Churchill is having a more active August. Merchant ships landing goods for Regina and Saskatoon, and loading grain for Europe. Fine! But who wants to live in Port Churchill? And what about Prince Rupert?

The airplane carrier H.M.C.S. "Magnificent" and a couple of destroyers will sail from Halifax before long for Hudson Bay. The Navy grows! Once, Canada pointed with pride to the Niobe and the Rainbow.

That acknowledgment from the mayor of Poole, Eng., to Mayor Arnold is worth reading more than once. The sending of some fish from Prince Rupert for distribution among the needy of Poole is described as "the magnificent gift of canned salmon." A fine food, it is cheerfully admitted. In B. C. it's just another salmon, but in lean Poole, it is something else again. His Worship, sounding the note of true sincerity and gratitude, takes care of that.

A jet plane travels fast. The same may be said of a car. A vacation can go swiftly as well.

There is the fellow who talks baseball all night and cannot understand why everyone else does not feel the same way. And there is the man who is supremely indifferent and mystified why there is excitement at all. And so it goes. But to attend a ball game because somebody wants you to go along, and pretend to like and understand it when in reality you do not care a hang, is to experience dreary hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Neuberg, who were in Prince Rupert recently enroute north, plan to spend about six weeks in Alaska. The former will gather material for articles on the territory for publication in the New York Times. He expects to study the fish trap controversy, the health problem, veterans' provisions and other matters affecting Alaska's needs and problems.

During the time they were in Juneau, Mr. and Mrs. Neuberg were the house guests of Governor and Mrs. Gruening. The visitors have already been in Ketchikan, Petersburg and Wrangell and, after leaving Juneau, will go to Chilkoot and Fairbanks, and before returning south, spend a while at Whitehorse.

ATOMIC FILM COMING HERE

A scientific film couched in spiritual theme, "God of the Atom," a 45-minute movie in full color, recently produced by Dr. Irwin A. Moon in the Los Angeles laboratories of the Moody Institute of Science, is to be shown on at least three occasions over the coming week-end by Fraser McRae, special Moody film representative, under local church auspices.

After demonstrating the theory of atomic power, the film concludes with a presentation of the world crisis caused by the discovery of atomic power and offers a unique solution to the problem. "There is no defence against an attack by an atomic weapon," says Dr. Moon in his narration. Scientists have predicted that fewer than ten percent of those now living would escape such destruction. The only way to avoid such a possibility is to return to a belief in God as a dynamic for ethical living.

"God of the Atom" is second in a series of scientific movies. The first, "God of Creation" was shown here last year.

The showings here will be this Friday night at the Armory, Sunday night at First Baptist Church and Monday evening at the Salvation Army.

Inspector F. B. Woods-Johnson, provincial police, left on today's plane for a trip to Queen Charlotte Islands on official duties.

The fishing vessel Western Cruiser, owned by Nelson Bros. which went aground at the entrance to Queen Charlotte Straits recently, is reported safe at Bull Harbor. She has a six man crew. The Western Cruiser went aground in a heavy fog.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When a hostess knows that a guest is dieting, isn't it inconsiderate for her to insist that the guest eat more than she desires?

A. Yes. Whether the guest is dieting or not, a hostess should never urge that she eat more than she wishes.

Q. When asking a person to repeat something, is it all right merely to interject an inquiring "what"?

A. No; this is very crude. Say, "I beg your pardon, what did you say?" Or, "I am very sorry. I didn't understand you."

SUITS OF CELANESE

Celanese suits are looked for in British Columbia next spring according to a clothing manufacturing concern in Vancouver. In fact, new clothes, made of wood, have already been turned out in their plant. Trousers were made for some of the company officials.

This has a direct interest for Prince Rupert. The Canadian Cellulose Limited, with plants at Drummondville and Corel, Quebec, make the cloth from wood pulp, such as will be produced by the Celanese Corporation of America subsidiary at Port Edward, near this city.

things picked up. Attendance this year has been lower than in 1947, however.

"So far, we have had 552 visitors, averaging about 55 a week," said Mr. Cullin, consulting his record book which bears the signatures of all who view the exhibits. "The 25-cent admission fee has brought us $137."

The Museum Board's financial starvation, however, was somewhat reduced earlier in the season when Mr. Cullin made a canvass of the city seeking memberships. This brought in additional $106.

The visitors' book records signatures from all parts of the United States and Canada, Hawaii, Alaska and the West Indies.

Last year, the museum closed for the season on September 30, but this year it looks as though its doors will be shut a month earlier. Financial provisions indicate a September 1 closing, although efforts are being made to have it extended to September 15.

Mr. Cullin is continually bringing to light exhibits which were stowed away during the long war years and, apparently, forgotten. Among them is a passenger list of a voyage of the river steamer Skeena from Port Essington to Hazelton in 1910. Among the faded signatures on the sheet are those of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Fred Stork, Prince Rupert's first Mayor.

Another little item has Mr. Cullin mildly worried.

It is a menu of the first annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Museum Board. It lists a banquet with many exotic native foods and promises an imposing list of speeches by local notables. It is an interesting document from both the gastronomic and historic angles.

"There is only one thing about it, though," said the curator. "It doesn't give the year it was held."

N.Z. CADETS TO CANADA?

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (P)—The New Zealand Navy League is investigating the possibility of sending a party of 25 New Zealand sea cadets to Canada next year. An invitation has been received from the Navy League of Canada of a New Zealand party to attend the Empire camp in Canada in July and August, 1949.

ANGLICANS FOR ARMS ELIMINATION

because of the "cruelties and injustice and lying propaganda that are inherent in it" and recommended that Jerusalem be placed under permanent international control.

The conference published its conclusions in a volume of 174 pages. It consists of three parts: The encyclical letter, a collection of resolutions adopted by the conference and a series of committee recommendations.

OUTLAW ATOMIC BOMB

The plea to outlaw the atomic bomb was stated most forcibly in the encyclical letter.

"We call upon all nations collectively to control the manufacture and use of atomic power and to pledge themselves never to use it for purposes of war," the letter said. "We call upon the nations also, even at the price of limiting their own sovereignty, to work together to remove the causes of war and to promote human culture and welfare. We trust therefore that the Christian churches will give strong support to the United Nations, so that it may become a more effective organ of world co-operation."

The conference opposition to Marxian Communism was uncompromising. One resolution said:

"The conference, while recognizing that in many lands there are Communists who nevertheless declares that are practising Christians, Marxian Communism is contrary to Christian faith and practice, for it denies the existence of God, revelation and a future life; it treats the individual man as a means and not an end; it encourages class warfare; it regards the moral law not as absolute but as relative to the needs of the state."

"The conference holds that, while a state must take the precautions it regards as necessary to protect good order and peace from all subversive movements, it is the special duty of the church to oppose the challenge of the Marxian theory of Communism by sound teachings and the example of a better way."

The conference proclaimed anew the rights of man in a resolution proposing their protection by international law. In a declaration on human rights, the conference said:

"Among such rights are se-

One of the final acts of the conference was to approve a scheme for a pan-Anglican congress, for representative of both the clergy and the laity, to be held in 1953. It was felt in many quarters that such a congress might get closer to the rank-and-file feeling in the church throughout the world than even the Lambeth Conference.
