RAILWAY STRIKE DISPUTE SETTLED

PRINCE RUPERT CELANESE MILL BONDS ARE OFFERED TO PUBLIC

Arrangement is being made today by Nesbitt, Burns and Company, Limited, and Wood, Gundy and Company, Limited, of an issue of $15,000,000 first mortgage bonds of Columbia Cellulose Company, wholly-owned subsidiary of Celanese Corporation of America, which is proceeding with the construction of a high alpha pulp mill on Watson Island, near Prince Rupert. Proceeds of the sale of these bonds is to provide funds required to defray, in part, the cost of erecting the plant, estimated at $25,370,000.

The issue comprises $5,000,000 serial bonds, 3½% series "A", to mature $625,000 annually from July 2, 1951 to 1958 inclusive, and $10,000,000 17-year bonds, 4½% series "A" to mature July 2, 1965.

The parent company, Celanese Corporation of America, has subscribed for 60,000 preferred shares of $100 par value each, and 65,000 common shares, par value $100 each—totaling 12,500,000.

The mill is designed to produce 200 tons per day of high alpha pulp by the sulphite process. The demand for high alpha pulp is substantially in excess of supply, and with the growth in use of cellulose for synthetic textile fibres this demand is expected to grow. The parent company, which has assets in excess of 200,000,000, will take the full production of the mill.

It is expected the plant will be in production in about two years, and gross profit is estimated at $3,819,200, after depreciation but before taxes, being an amount equivalent to more than six times the maximum interest charges on the first mortgage bonds.

Columbia Cellulose Company has been granted a large tract of forest land near Prince Rupert and, under a forest management license, the first of its kind to be granted by the B.C. government, the timber will be harvested in such a manner as to ensure a perpetual supply of wood. From the company's point of view the timber stands are considered to be the finest on the continent, over 70% being spruce, hemlock and balsam, which are the most desirable woods for the sulphite pulping process.

Watson Island, on the main C.N.R. line to Prince Rupert, lies in a land-locked harbor. A concrete-decked dock on the island was built for and used by the U.S. Army during the last war. The mill will have excellent facilities for shipment both by rail and water, and being close to Prince Rupert an adequate labor supply is assured. Power for the plant will be provided by a coal-burning power plant to be constructed at the mill site, while ample water for the mill is available from near-by lakes.

HANSON, 69, former leader of the Communist Party at Ottawa and opposition leader for after 1940, died at Fredericton, New Brunswick today after a short illness.

LE OF IN U.S.

A—Minister of Finance Abbott yesterday announced the sale at par to the United States Insurance Corporation of $150,000,000 Canadian 15-year three per cent bonds. Most of the proceeds are to be repaying credits to the American import bank.

More than 100 members of the Royal Navy will be in Prince Rupert for the annual regatta, which will include regattas, showers, and regattas.

LAUNCH LARGEST TANKER EVER BUILT IN CANADA—Imperial Sarnia, Canada's largest oil tanker built in a Canadian shipyard, is shown as it takes to the water in a spectacular broadside launching at Collingwood, Ont. The 6,500-ton ship, 390 feet long and 53 feet wide, was launched by Miss Beverley Hewetson, daughter of H. H. Hewetson, president of Imperial Oil Ltd., who smashed a bottle of Canadian champagne over the ship's bow. The tanker, which will be completed in September, will go into service between Sarnia, Hamilton, Toronto and Fort William.

ITALY'S RED LEADER SHOT

ROME —A Sicilian law student today pumped three bullets into Palmiro Togliatti, Italy's leading Communist, during a Communist-led Labor demonstration in Rome as police battled a mob of youths.

One surgeon expressed the belief that Togliatti would live. Police seized the assassin and identified him as Antonio Palante, 25, an ardent nationalist without party affiliation.

Togliatti was a signer of a recent complaint by the Cominform against Premier Tito and the Yugoslav Communists.

Mass Meeting of Women Called for Next Week to Talk Living Cost

Dissatisfied with the mounting cost of living, a small group of women, gathering in the Moose Temple Monday night, decided to call a mass meeting in the same place next Monday night with a view to organizing a protest movement. Future of the organization would depend, it was stated this morning by leaders of the movement, would depend upon the response to the coming meeting.

TRUMAN IS CERTAINTY

President Arrives at Philadelphia to Give His Acceptance

PHILADELPHIA — President H. S. Truman arrived here by plane today to accept the Democratic presidential nomination from the party's national convention following his conceded choice on the first ballot.

His running mate will, doubtless, be chosen in the person of Senator Alben B. Barkley of Kentucky.

Senator Claude Pepper of Florida withdrew as a candidate although reiterating that there had been "bungling and ineptitude" on the part of the administration.

The Democrats entered the third day of their national convention with increasing enthusiasm and apparent design to nominate Truman and Barkley for the November elections.

Barkley, who was stamped official by Truman when he said he would be glad to have him as his running mate, moved into prominence with a wild wave of enthusiasm for his keynote speech which lasted an hour. The delegates cheered tremendously.

Nominations are starting today with balloting expected late in the day.

Resolutions include one for a middle of the road policy of civil rights and another saying that the Taft-Hartley law had failed.

OUT OF POLITICS

TORONTO—Mitchell F. Hepburn, who spent an interesting few hours in Prince Rupert on a summer afternoon years ago, has said good-bye to politics if his wife and the family physician have their way. His heart, it appears, is not what it used to be.

Mr. Mitchell is a former premier of Ontario and was once known as the boy wonder of that politically-minded province. But, well or unwell, his interest in public affairs continues to be strong, although he cannot take any part.

Hepburn had hoped to attend the approaching Liberal convention but that is off. He will not be there, either privately or as a delegate. Just now he is in hospital for a complete check-up and rest and, as for a telephone in his room, that's completely "out."

Agreement on Seventeen-Cent Increase Eliminates Big Tie-Up

Russ Reply Is Evasive

Attitude Is Not Officially Indicated But Newspaper Indicates Rejection of Protest

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Russia replied today to the United States, British and French protests against the Soviet blockade of Berlin. Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panyuskin delivered Moscow's response personally to Secretary of State George Marshall, answering "no" when asked to indicate what attitude the Soviet note took toward the United States protest.

In Berlin the Soviet military newspaper hinted that Moscow would reject the notes. The paper, Tageliche Rundschau, in an editorial entitled "Whom do they think they are frightening?" described the western protests as "laughable."

Meanwhile United States officials say the air lift had built up a four-week food bank for 2,000,000 Germans. The report came as the communist press warned that the siege may last into the winter.

OTTAWA (CP)—Minister of Labor Humphrey Mitchell announced today that the railway wage dispute had been settled with the unions agreeing to an increase of seventeen cents hourly retroactive to last March 1. The basis of settlement was a final suggestion by the government which was accepted this afternoon by both companies and unions.

Railways All Clear Again

MONTREAL (CP)—Canadian National Railways announced today that it had lifted embargoes on freight, express and telegraph services and was withdrawing its warning to passengers and hotel guests of a possible cessation of services.

The union officials discussed the latest offer and then adjourned. Later the statement came from them that the offer was acceptable.

There had by this time been an air of cheer apparent among the negotiators.

Minister of Labor Mitchell, when asked then as to the prospects of settlement, said "Just look at my face!"

Originally, the railway unions had taken the stand that any increase obtained would be retroactive to last December 20. The railways had set April 8 as the date.

DEMOCRAT DEADLOCK

PHILADELPHIA—The Democrats today threatened to bring their intra-party fight into the open at their national convention as the rebellious southern states remained adamant against a platform plank assuring equal treatment for Negroes. The delegates had a chance to complete the nomination of President Truman and Senator Alben Barkley of Kentucky and go home but the platform writers were unable to reach a compromise on the civil rights plank.

ROYAL CRASH

COPENHAGEN—Queen Ingrid of Denmark and her two daughters were injured today when her automobile crashed into a tree. They are in hospital but their condition is described as not serious. The Queen was driving the Royal Car.

ALLIES PLANNING

WASHINGTON—The western allies proceeded today with plans to set up a government for western Germany while awaiting details on the Russian replies to notes on the Berlin situation. General Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor, arrived in Frankfurt, then went into conferences with his advisers on German counter-proposals for a west-German government.

THE DEWEYS FEEL WONDERFUL — Governor and Mrs. Thomas E. Dewey look mighty happy in this picture and with good reason. It was taken as Governor Dewey accepted the Republican convention nomination for the presidential race in the United States next November. He declared himself "unfettered by any partisan obligation."

Child Burned to Death As Massett Home Burns

FOUR-YEAR-OLD SON OF MR. AND MRS. ERNEST YELTATZIE PERISHES DESPITE VALIANT RESCUE ATTEMPTS

Terry, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Yeltatzie of Massett, Queen Charlotte Islands, was burned to death at the week-end in an early morning fire when the home of his parents was destroyed by fire. Mr. and Mrs. Yeltatzie were visiting in Prince Rupert at the time. The grandmother, Mrs. Martha Edenshaw, and three other children were in the house but escaped. The children jumped from a second-storey window and one of them, Janet, aged 19, sustained a fractured ankle. The fire was discovered by the neighbors who aroused the sleeping occupants.

Valiant efforts at rescue were made by a neighbor and cousin of Yeltatzie, Jeffery White, after discovering the fire and raising the alarm, who several times entered the blazing house in the attempt to rescue the young child. His foot was swollen and cut and he sustained burns.

Horace Yeltatzie, aged 16, after making his own escape by climbing down a ladder which had been put up, also tried desperately to save the child. Finally, the burning stairs collapsed beneath him.

Vernon, aged 12, was the other child who jumped out of a window after having his face burned.

Celanese Mill Shares

EVERYBODY in Prince Rupert has been admitting gratification for the past year over the wonderful thing it has been for the Celanese Corporation of America to start the big mill at Port Edward. Everybody has been talking about the great benefit it will be to Prince Rupert and, of course, all of us who live and have our stake here. We are all going to be better off some way or another as Prince Rupert, at long last, comes really into her own as an industrial and commercial metropolis with the big primary payroll and all the expansion that will result therefrom.

Now the Celanese Corporation is going to give us the chance to back our faith in the new undertaking with our cash. It is offering for public sale serial bonds at as low as $100 each. We are not in the habit of boosting any kind of stock promotion in our news columns, let alone in this editorial section. But this is somewhat exceptional so it seems worthwhile at least drawing special attention to.

Perhaps the most of us have too long expected someone else to come in, put up the cash and do everything for us without us sinking much of a stake ourselves. Here then is a chance for us to get in after a great deal has already been done in the way of preliminary organizing and starting the thing really moving.

Columbia Cellulose Co. Ltd. serial bonds, being floated to provide part of the funds required to defray the cost of the $25,370,000 plant, would appear to be of most particular interest right here in Prince Rupert. Investing in them will give local people who have a few or a lot of dollars to spare the opportunity to help along a project which everyone has been agreeing would be of inestimable benefit to this city and district.

We can be sure that the company will be watching with interest the measure of support they get here. In fact, we are somewhat "on the spot."

STRUGGLE FOR PEACE

PEACE REMAINS ELUSIVE. To say sincerity is lacking would be to state an untruth for among the statesmen who labor for an enduring good will are those whose supreme objective is to see that war shall perish from the earth. Such men could be counted in the membership of the League of Nations years ago. Such sit at meetings of the United Nations today. Yet peace seems no nearer. If anything, the drift of the times is in the other direction and this cannot be ignored or under-emphasized.

"I am a broken machine," said Woodrow Wilson, as he lay dying in February, 1924. An idealist, he toiled to a point beyond the limit of his powers. Grievously disappointed, he possibly had no wish to live. He had witnessed war and studied the consequences.

"This," he said, touring Europe's battlefields, "must never be allowed to happen again." But he was new to the ancient continent where hundreds of wars had already been fought and where, verily, they would occur again. He did not reckon with a situation where cynicism and selfish national interests came first and the framing of lasting friendships second.

SIGNIFICANCE SEEN

THE RECENT ELECTION in Saskatchewan has been analyzed as an expression of the people that the business of government is to govern and stop there. Commercial enterprise is something else again and perhaps by this time it is thoroughly understood by two former members of the Douglas cabinet, O. W. Valleau and J. L. Phelps.

The former was at the head of a ministry that dealt with insurance in direct competition with private offices. It was an experiment the electors apparently did not feel like endorsing, for Mr. Valleau was defeated at the polls.

Mr. Phelps was another minister who launched his department on a program of industrial effort, this embracing a woollen mill and a shoe factory. Here, also, was direct government competition with private enterprise. Mr. Phelps was likewise beaten at the polls.

Both were the two cabinet members most directly and intimately identified with a policy that had been preached loud and long and both failed to be returned. Significance is attached to their defeat.

ORDERS WERE ALREADY OUT FOR STOPPAGE OF TRAINS

BEFORE SETTLEMENT OF STRIKE WAS ANNOUNCED TODAY

OTTAWA (CP)—As the federal cabinet met again today after spending four hours in session yesterday in a last-ditch attempt to resolve the wage dispute between the railways and the unions representing 150,000 railway workers, announcement was made by J. A. Brass, general secretary of the Railway Association of Canada that Canadian railways will accept no freight shipments after midnight tonight. This action was decided upon by the Railway Association as a result of the Dominion-wide strike then set for 6 a.m.

The Railway Association also said that seventeen hotels operated by the Canadian National Railways and the Canadian Pacific Railway "may be unable to provide services to guests" after that hour.

The decision of the railways not to accept freight shipments of any kind followed by three days the embargo on acceptance of livestock and perishable commodities.

There was no statement from either Prime Minister Mackenzie King or Minister of Labor Mitchell after yesterday's cabinet sessions.

Frank Hall, chairman of the local time Thursday. Passenger trains would not operate after this evening unless there was further notification, it was also stated.

Reminiscences and Reflections

By W.J.

Well, sometime in the gloaming this evening, O my darling, we should have a pretty fair notion as to what side our bread is buttered on. Ottawa can be stubborn, and also the Unions.

The Fraser Valley flood continues to bequeath grief. A farmer, picking his way to a wrecked home steps into deep roadside hole, drowns before wife can save him. Shocked and bereaved, wife is packed off to hospital. Nine children become fatherless. Yes there are still victims in need of assistance.

Police court fines in Prince Rupert for June totalled $2,920, because quite a few misguided folk had been trying to compete with the government. That's a noble fistful of money. It would have looked large indeed to Billy Vickers back in the old Knoxville days when a few kopecks were gathered in on the charge of liquor selling. The dispenser of refreshments would pay up, with a hurt look, and once outside say things were coming to a pretty pass when a "feller couldn't sell a little cider."

Commencing this month, the British government, and not the patients, will do the worrying over how to play the bills presented by physicians and hospitals. One may not adore Socialism but to the poor man, with an encore family, this is a freedom from care he can hardly resist.

negotiating committee for the unions, said the strike would not be called off unless the railways obtained an "honorable and satisfactory" settlement. If the strike did get started, it would take at least two or three days to get trains moving again.

Last night the United States railways declared an embargo on coal shipments to Canada so they would not get their cars tied up in the event of a strike on Canadian railroads.

From Ottawa comes comforting news that the price of honey is coming down. Let it be heralded far and wide that Canada has a thoughtful and kindly government, so long as a later despatch announcing that the cost of buckwheat is going up, is not received.

A few years ago, the Skeena Highway, the Alaska Road and the Haines Cut-off were unknown. They did not exist. Pioneer settlers were hoping and striving, but their best efforts did not go much beyond that. Today, the summer motoring world is shifting north. There's a reason.

HONEY PRICE IS DROPPING

OTTAWA—The cost of honey will take a substantial drop in the near future. The four main reasons are return of sugar in pre-war quantities, increase in price of staple goods which lowers demand for "luxury foods," abundance of low priced commercial syrups on the market, and imports of low priced honey from South America and Mexico.

Freezing Food

A food locker means garden-fresh fruit and vegetables all winter long. But the housewife should guard against letting her enthusiasm run away with her storage space.

Some economists warn housewives to budget food needs for the year ahead. Since frozen foods may deteriorate in flavor appearance, and food value, after more than one year's storage, it is not wise to store more than actually used.

Here is a suggested budget for a family of four, based on the six-month no-productive period of the year:

Asparagus—12 pint (16-oz.) containers; beans—24 pint containers; peas 24; spinach 24; corn (whole kernel) 24; corn on cob 12.

This amount will serve 120 dinners during the six-month period, or frozen vegetables served five times a week.

Strawberries—24 pint (16 oz.) containers; raspberries—24 pint containers; rhubarb—12; fruits for pies (gooseberries, sour cherries or blueberries) 12.

This will give 21 frozen fruit desserts for a six-month period, or three times a week.

Cherry Olives

Cherry Mock Olives is a new dish which may be served as a relish or hors d'oeuvres and makes a colorful garnish for salads, meats or poultry. Here is the recipe:

Make a pickling mixture in the proportion of one teaspoon salt, one cup cold water, one cup cider vinegar; three tablespoons brown sugar; one-quarter-ounce stick cinnamon; two tablespoons whole cloves.

Tie the spices in a small piece of cheesecloth, put all the ingredients in a saucepan and boil five minutes, cool and remove spice bag.

Select and wash firm ripe cherries, pack unpitted and with stems attached in sterilized sealers. Cover with the strained cold vinegar mixture and seal. Store in cool, dry, dark place for one month before using.

Fairy Dessert

This dessert is another cool dish destined for hot-weather popularity.

Ingredients—six egg whites, one-half teaspoon baking powder; one cup fine granulated or fruit sugar.

Beat egg whites until stiff. Sift baking powder with sugar and gradually beat into egg whites. Put mixture into two well-buttered cake or pie tins and bake at 350 degrees Fahrenheit for 20 minutes. Turn out. When cool put together with sliced fruit mixed with whipped cream. Cover top with whipped cream. Chill well in refrigerator before serving.

Timely Recipe

If you plan your buying, meat won't be "something to be made into hash." You can make it an adventure in ingenuity!

To prove my point, buy four to five pounds of thrifty cut beef round. Ask your meat man to cut a third of it in very thin slices, the other two thirds in chunks for braising. Now with the thin slices, try this:

BEEF STROGANOFF

1 lb. beef round strips, 1x2x1/4
4 tablespoons fat
1/2 cup chopped onions
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon paprika
1 cup hot water
2 tablespoons flour
1/4 cup cold water
3/4 cup sour cream
Brown meat in fat with onion in heavy frying pan.

Add salt & pepper, paprika and hot water.

Cover. Cook until meat is very tender.

Mix flour and cold water to smooth paste.

Add to sour cream. Add that to meat and stir constantly over slow heat till it thickens. Serves four.

Sit back and watch the pleased faces 'round your table.

Next day braise the rest of the beef round. Remember Burns & Co's directions?

Brown meat in fat. Season. Add enough liquid to cover bottom of pan. Cover tightly. Cook slowly. Add vegetable and top those and half the meat and gravy with pastry. It's a good pie!

Then the following day try this:

Grind braised meat. Mix with macaroni and sauce and bake to make a savory casserole.

If you buy carefully, use ingenuity in cooking, you'll never hear the family say, "I'm tired of roast beef every day."

OLD PICTURE

Recalls Days When Railway Was Being Linked Up

S. B. Peacock, veteran railroad man, has a picture of historic interest. It shows the meeting of the two steam shovels, working east and west, in a cut at a point at Fraser Lake, in 1914. It was here, not long after, that the steel laying crews completed their work and the rails of the new transcontinental railway, the Grand Trunk Pacific, were joined.

Of those in the group, S. B. Peacock of Summit Apartments is residing here. Another, Mr. MacGinnis, who was serving as walking boss at the time the picture was taken, became located at Grassy Plains. There is a man in the party wearing a bowler hat named Pat Muirville, who was killed as the result of an accident. There are four pit men, engineers, boom operators and firemen. A fox terrier, known as "the railroad bum," is seen. The shovels are the seventy and forty-ton Bucyrus Atlantic type. There are ten men in the party standing around the machinery, and the cut appears to be a rather deep one.

OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCE

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Vic Raschi, strong silent newcomer to all-star ranks, slugged and pitched the injury-riddled American Leaguers to a 5 to 2 victory over their "cousins" from the National League yesterday, the Americans thus taking an 11 to 4 edge in the lop-sided series.

Besides being the winning pitcher, Raschi came through with a two-run single, breaking the fourth inning tie.

Raschi's performance was the highlight of the fifteenth all-star contest.

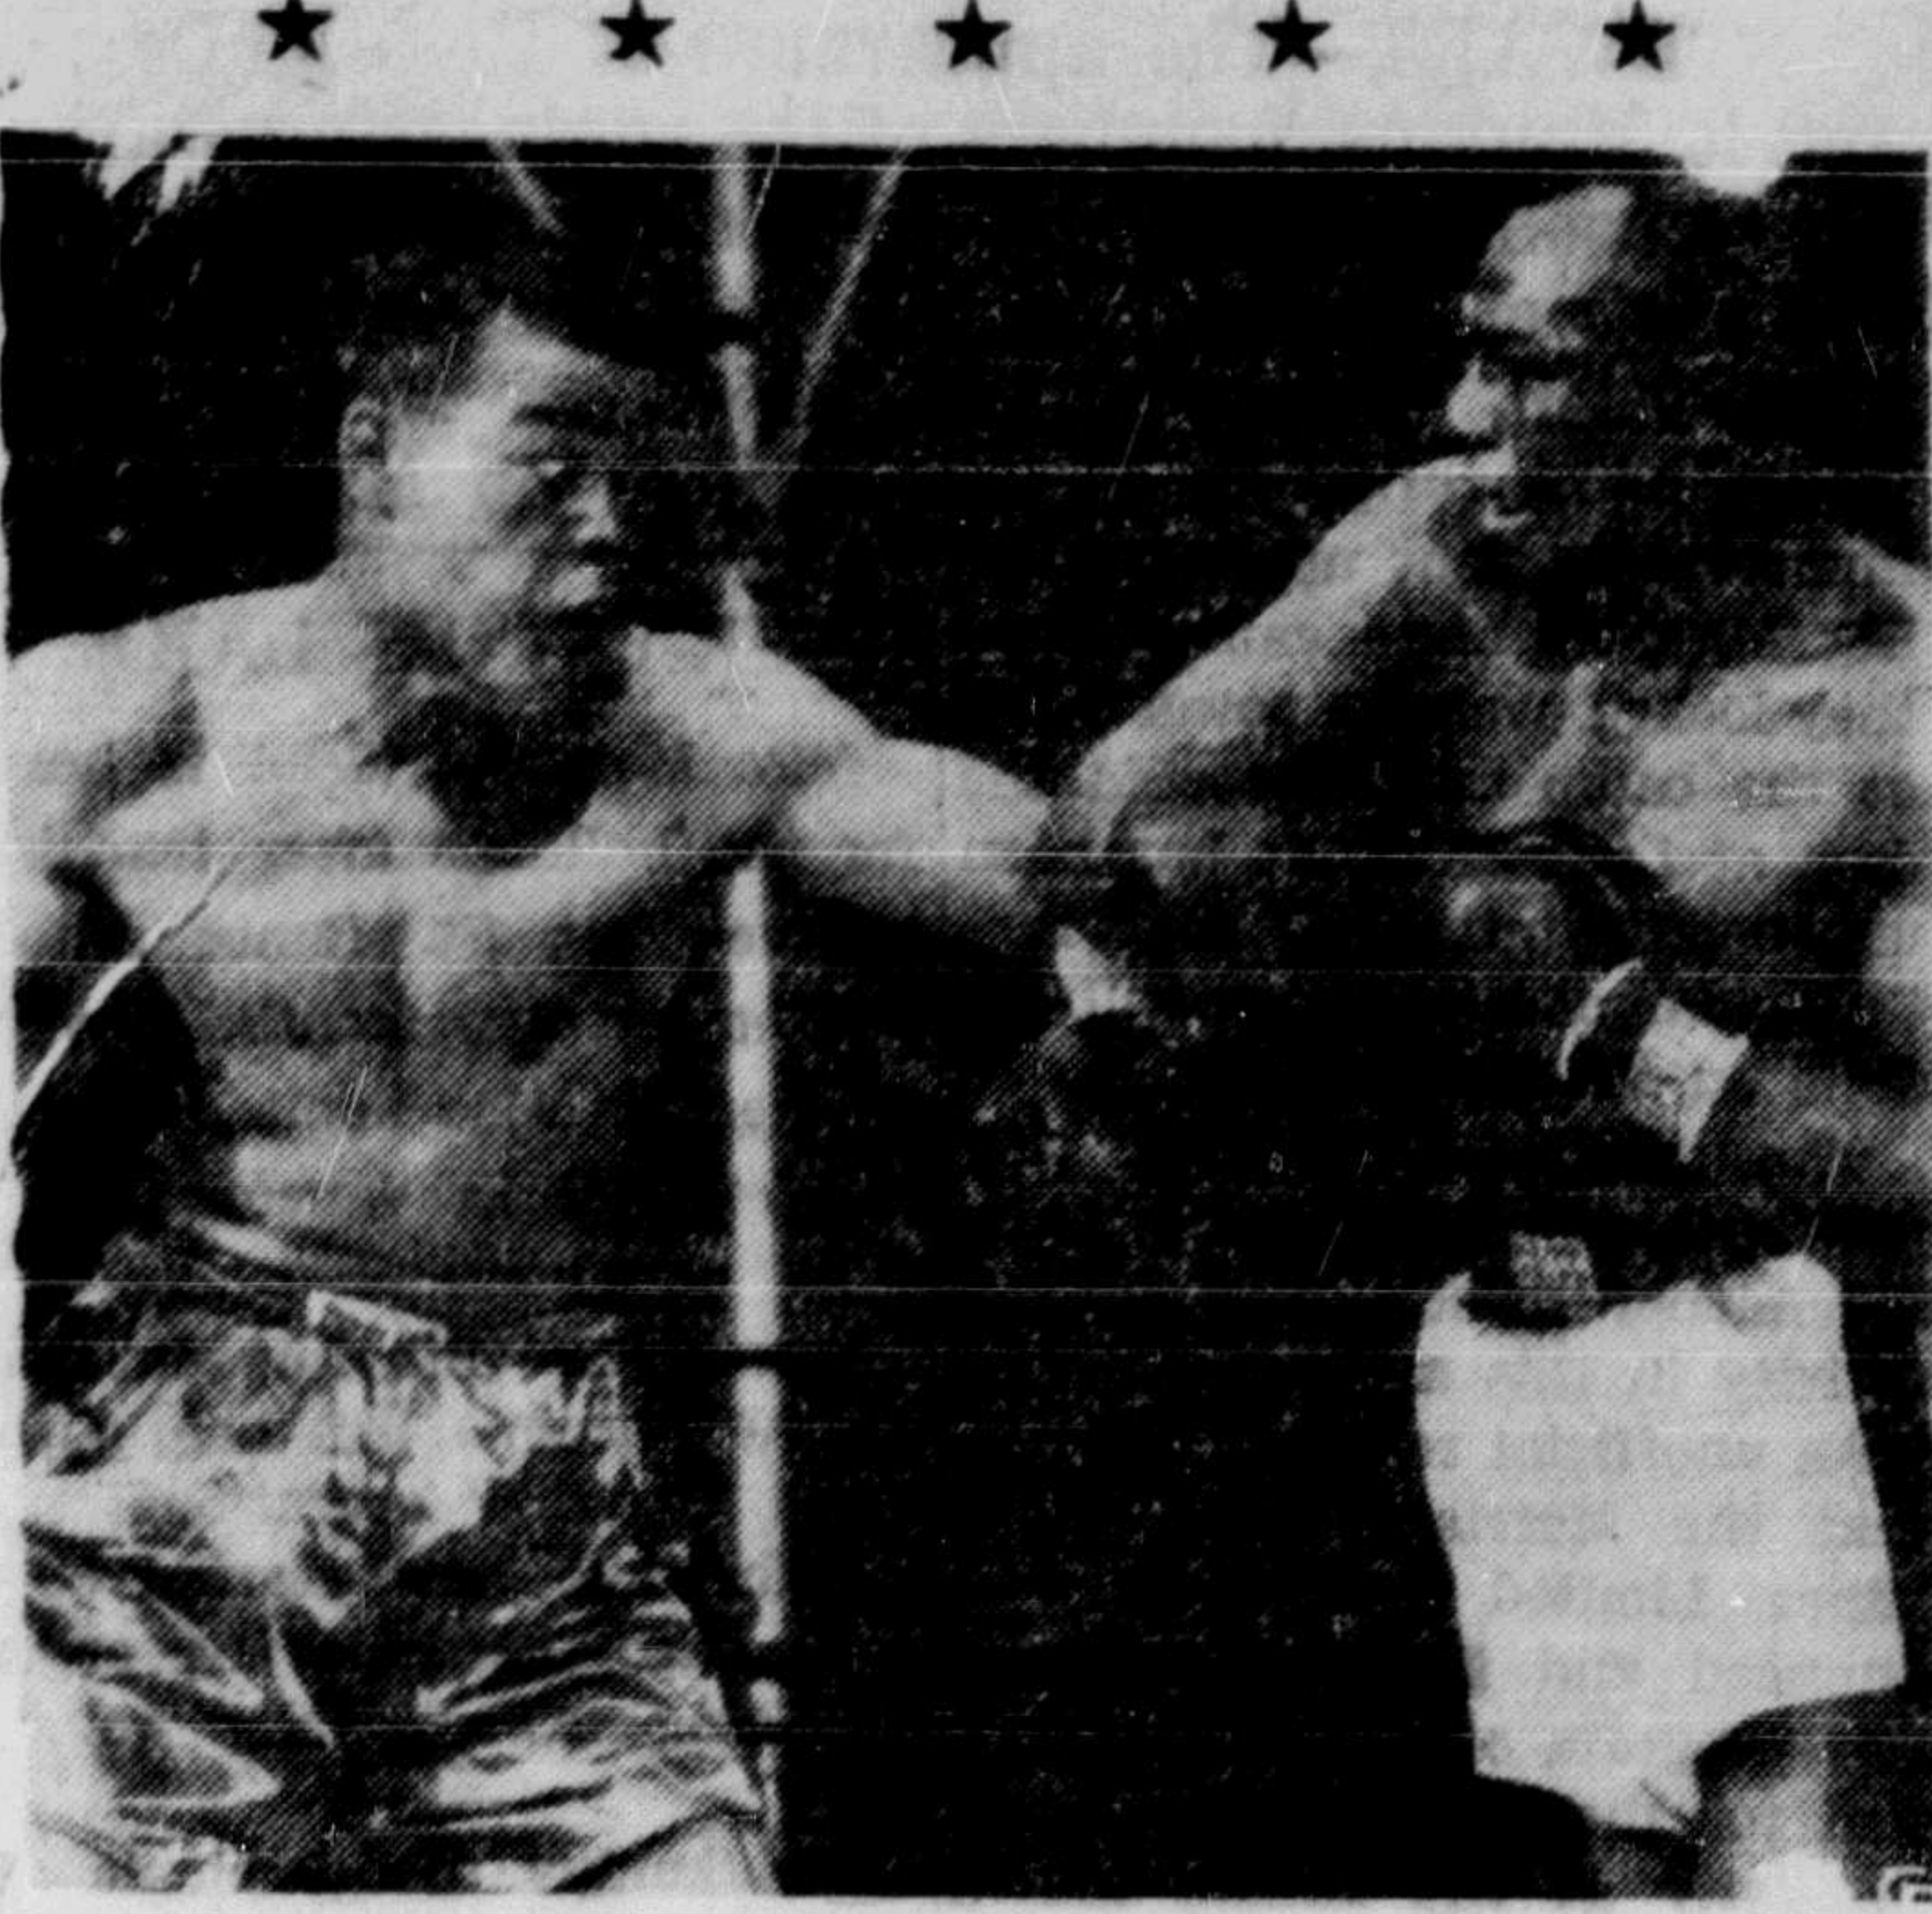

A capacity crowd of 34,000 paid a net gate of $93,447 into the players' pension fund.

MIXING IT UP—In a moment of fast action Champ Joe Louis and Challenger Joe Walcott are shown mixing it up in an obvious attempt by both men for a knockdown. After two minutes, 56 seconds of the 11th round the champ came through with a barrage of rights and lefts to send Walcott down for the full count and retain his world heavyweight title.

BALL BENEFIT

Plans Games in Aid of Casualty

Moxley's heartfelt "Ouch!" hard driven ball met the face at Goro Saturday night left the player in a daze. The ball pierced the sensibility of his fellow fastball and, as a result, they agreed to take action on the matter.

Gordon and Anderson, retired from the and Anderson-High School game with one tooth knocked out and several loosened as a result of the line bangle which took him full in the countenance. It was a painful injury.

So now, his companions of the city league are planning a benefit game for him on Friday night. At latest word, details of the players had not been completely worked out, but it is likely that the game will be an All-Star one.

Moxley's injury, coupled with a foot injury received by Ed Hildebrand of C.N.R.A. a few weeks ago, is inspiring support for some sort of injured-player fund, although just how such a fund could best be raised and administered is subject to varying points of view.

There have been suggestions that a percentage of each night's gate be placed in such a fund, but the obvious difficulty with this is that gate receipts are usually insufficient to cover normal operating expenses.

Another suggested answer is that periodic All-Star games be played and the gate receipts turned into the injured player fund. This, many of the players feel, is probably the best answer.

Sport Shots

Walter Hagen won his first—and only—Canadian Open golf championship 17 years ago today at Toronto. Hagen won the title after a 36-hole play-off with Britain's long-driving Percy Allis with whom he had tied for first place in the regular 72-hole tournament with 292.

Arthur Fagg, Kent professional, scored 244 and 202 not out, against Essex in a county championship match concluded 10 years ago at Colchester, England, to set a word record in first-class cricket. It was the first time that double-centuries in consecutive innings had been recorded in the same match.

Revision on Account of Withdrawal of Softball Entry

Because of the withdrawal of the High School entry, a revision in the Softball League schedule has become necessary and the schedule is now as follows:

July 14—Canadian National Recreation vs. Co-operative.
July 17—Co-operative vs. 99 Taxi.
July 19—General Motors vs. Gordon & Anderson.
July 21—Canadian National Recreation Association vs. General Motors.
July 24—Gordon & Anderson vs. Co-operative.

July 28—General Motors vs. Taxi.
July 31—Co-operative vs. General Motors.
August 2—99 Taxi vs. Canadian National Recreation Association.

Merchants sustained their competitive position near the top of the city baseball league at Roosevelt Park last night by using the lowly Moose as a stepping stone to recover from the beating which they took from Savoy on Sunday. They defeated the lodgemen 9 to 4.

The league, obviously, has developed into a duel between Savoy and Merchants, with the hotel men holding sufficient lead to require at least a couple of week's play to be caught by Merchants, even if they lost every game. This, the record indicates, will be highly unlikely.

Moose, who have dragged their antlers through the season with only a single win against 10 losses, have proved themselves a negligible factor, except to aid the other two teams in advancing their winning records.

Despite the fact, however, that the results of a game involving Moose are practically known in advance, with only the exact score remaining behind the veil until the ninth inning, the lodge brothers have been involved in some good baseball games. But they do not seem to be able to maintain that spark that lights the torch of victory.

Last night's game with Merchants witnessed this peculiarly Moose characteristic. The fraternal brothers put up a strong fight for a full eight innings holding the line in reasonable form until Merchants swamped them under a barrage that ballooned the score awkwardly.

Merchant pitcher Dick Letorneau, who has had little opportunity to exercise his developing right arm in past weeks, used it to good advantage last night, while as usual, Moose southpaw Jack Rosedale failed to get the (Continued on Page Six)

THE COMPANY

Columbia Cellulose Company, Limited (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Celanese Corporation of America) was incorporated under the laws of the Province of British Columbia on October 28, 1946. The Company's principal business is to be the manufacture of high alpha pulp under a contract with Celanese Corporation of America.

The Company has not yet commenced its manufacturing operations, but is proceeding with the construction of a high alpha pulp mill on Watson Island, B.C. The plans of the Company for the production of high alpha pulp combine a number of features which should contribute greatly to the success of the operation. The location, manufacturing process and wood supply for this mill are very favorable.

At the present time the demand for high alpha pulp (acetylation grade) is substantially in excess of supply, and with the growth in the use of cellulose for synthetic textile fibres this demand is expected to grow. Celanese Corporation of America requires an assured supply of high alpha pulp (acetylation grade) for its textile and plastics operations. According to the best information available to the Company no plans for increasing the supply of high alpha pulp (acetylation grade) have been announced except by the Company.

The Serial Bonds are not available for public subscription.

We offer as principals, the 17-year Bonds, subject to prior sale, if, as and when the Bonds have been issued and received by us, and subject to the approval of all legal matters on behalf of the Company by Messrs. Douglas, Syme & Brissenden, Vancouver, B.C., and on our behalf by Messrs. Montgomery, McMichael, Common, Howard, Forsyth & Ker, Montreal, P.Q., who will rely on the opinion of said Counsel for the Company in respect of the validity of the incorporation and organization of the Company and the titles to its properties and also in respect of all matters of local law in British Columbia.

Price: 100 and accrued interest to yield 4.50%

It is expected that Bonds in interim form will be available for delivery on or about July 29, 1948.

STEWART ACTIVITY IS RESUMED— SMELTERS RETURNING TO FIELD

STEWART—The appearance of Ross McDermid and R. Hopkins, members of the engineering staff of the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company, in this district during the past week has caused much speculation. Following an inspection of the power plant at Anyox, they arrived here on Monday and immediately went up to the old Big Missouri Mine camp where they looked over the power plant at the camp and inspected the dam at Long Lake. It has been unofficially intimated that further diamond drilling will be done on the property.

The reappearance of this powerful company should have a tendency to stimulate mining activity in this area.

An unofficial report is current that the Morris Summit Gold Mines Limited has been re-financed and that a considerable program of work is scheduled for the near future.

Activity at the Indian Mine continues. The reconstruction of the bridge across Cascade Creek is under way and also of the camp which collapsed during the heavy snow last winter. William Patmore is in charge of operations, with Seymour Campbell as his assistant.

Contractors Ollif Bjork, Herbert Anderson and Edward Edvardson have gone to the Silver Tip Group on the Upper Salmon River area. Their contract with the company calls for 100 feet of tunnelling and several open cuts. In addition further investigation and development of the ore discovered last year will be initiated. W.R. Tooth, who represents the company here, says that George Winkler, engineering director, is expected here shortly.

HOW CAN I ??? BY ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make new points when the metal tips of shoe laces pull off?

A. Melt a small quantity of sealing wax, the same color as the lace, and dip the ends of the laces into this. Use the fingers for shaping the points.

Q. How can I avoid a disagreeable taste on steel knives and forks when serving fish?

A. Silver utensils should always be used when serving fish, as steel often imparts a very disagreeable taste.

Q. How can I keep roasting meat from scorching?

A. This can be prevented by placing a dish of water in the oven with the meat.

CITY TENSE AS DEADLINE NEARS

Strike Threat Made Prince Rupert Conscious of Position

Prince Rupert was conscious of its isolated position as never before today as its 8,000 residents waited word on negotiations between the railway companies and their 122,000 union members which would decide whether or not the country was to be paralyzed by a rail strike.

With meat and butter stocks sufficient for little more than a week, threat of a transport strike brought home the city's dependence on its rail and water connection with the prairies and Vancouver. Fervent hopes of settlement were voiced continuously on downtown streets.

Contained in the rail strike, which was scheduled to begin at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning, threat of disruption of coastal steamship service, since some crew members of the boats belong to the unions which had proposed to walk off their jobs. Cancellation of freight shipments had little effect on local railway operation today since no freight train was scheduled to leave the city until Thursday afternoon. A freight is expected from the east late today, which would probably have been the last one for some time if the strike had gone through.

Workers in the railway offices eagerly awaited word on the progress of negotiations.

Completing the city's isolation would have been the stoppage of telegraph communications, although long distance telephone service would have been maintained at least until line trouble stopped it. Then, because the telegraph linemen are involved in the dispute, it would have been unlikely that further service could have been given.

A telegraph tie-up would have resulted in disruption of nationwide radio hook-ups as well as the movement of press messages.

Feeling in the city this morning seemed to be that the threatened strike would not come off, mainly because the government could not allow action which could not help but disorganize the country's economy.

"There will be a last-minute settlement," one man said. "The government would not dare allow itself to be put in a position where a government-owned railroad becomes an instrument of chaos. And that's what a strike would mean."
