Harrowing Scenes As Patients Are Trapped In Fire

Screaming Mental Patients Struggle at Barred Windows

DAVENPORT, Iowa (CP)—Twenty-six women are known dead and eleven others are presumed dead as a result of a fire which swept through the mental ward of the city's largest hospital today. Fire Chief Les Schick said that the dead consisted of women patients and one nurse's aid. There were sixty-one women and three men in the ward.

The fire broke out in the three-story St. Elizabeth's section of Mercy Hospital about 2 a. m. The 60-year-old brick structure was virtually destroyed before the firemen could bring it under control four hours later.

Screaming mental patients, who could be seen at the windows, and calm attendants were trapped. The way to safety for many of them was blocked by barred windows.

Coroner Wildman said that the bodies of twenty-six women had been removed up to noon today and eleven others were believed to be dead in the still smouldering debris. Wildman said that thirty-seven others were injured thus accounting for the 68 persons said to have been in the building.

The women patients, many of them infirm in body as well as mind, beat against barred windows and screamed in terror. Some fainted away in the smoke and flames.

Ukrainian Christmas

This is the Russian, Ukrainian, Yugoslav and Greek Christmas Day and there is joyous observance, as well as the more formal recognition of the great festival. With feasting, giving of gifts, and general merrymaking and hospitality the occasion is being made the most of.

The celebration of these people lasts for three days.

The Ukrainians rank among old timers in the Canadian northwest. They hail from south western Russia, with chief commercial port Kharkov on the Black Sea. Ukraine is fertile, being in what is known as the black earth region, and productive in the cultivation of wheat and grains, sugar beet and oil seed, as well as raising live stock and mining. It is said the country has 27,000 collective farms.

Seven Missing—

Lost From Whitehorse

EDMONTON (CP)—Royal Canadian Air Force Dakota aircraft prepared today to begin an aerial search of the desolate northern region more than 1000 miles north of here for seven missing men who have not been heard from since December 7. They are members of a salvage crew dismantling the Canol pipe line in the Northwest Territories south of Whitehorse.

The R.C.A.F. search machinery got into action after a report from the R.C.M.P. at Whitehorse yesterday that the men were "long overdue."

Police report said that the men had ten days' food when they last reported to their base at Whitehorse, 1100 miles northwest of Edmonton.

Europe Aid Awaits O.K.

WASHINGTON D. C. (CP)—Officials today awaited President Truman's approval of new Atlantic Pact defence plans as a signal to start in full a $1,000,000,000 nine-year arms program rolling to western Europe within a month.

Official nod from the White House is expected promptly and that is all that is needed now to make available the full amount appropriated by Congress last summer to rearm America's European allies. Only $100,000,000 has gone into the arms program so far.

CHELOHSIN RELOADED

VANCOUVER—The former Union Steamship Co. coastal steamer Chelohsin, impaled on rocks off Stanley Park since she grounded November 6, was reloaded today, paying off a gamble against time and pounding seas for Victor M. David, director of Food Dehydrators Ltd. which purchased the ship for $1600. Reloaded, mariners say, it is worth $100,000.

MURDER IN SEATTLE

SEATTLE—The leader of Seattle's Filipino colony was ambushed by gunmen and killed in his expensive car early today in front of his home here. Fidal Molina, 42, who fatally wounded a man last May in what was termed self-defence died in his bullet-ridden car in what is believed to have been a revenge slaying. Three men are being held for questioning.

CANADA'S WORKLESS

OTTAWA—The Department of Labor today estimated that 261,069 persons were looking for work in Canada late in December. That amounts to about 5.2 percent of the country's total labor force. That is the number of persons in Canada working or looking for work.

Former Mayor Is Committed

SYDNEY N. S. (CP)—Former Mayor Dan Jack MacLean was committed for trial on a charge of murder at the conclusion of his preliminary hearing today. He will appear in Supreme Court at Sydney late in February.

The 62-year-old MacLean is charged with the murder of Joseph MacKinnon, aged 65, crippled registrar of voters, whose crushed body was found in a south end alley December 8.

In court today Magistrate Verne Read said he could not accede to request of defence counsel that the charge be reduced to one of manslaughter.

Four witnesses appeared at today's hearing, bringing the total of witnesses to 34 since the hearing opened here yesterday.

SOLE SURVIVOR—Gerry Anderson, 17, was the lone survivor when the tug George McGregor foundered in high winds and heavy seas half a mile off Victoria recently. Six men were drowned. Anderson floated ashore on a capsized lifeboat. (CP Photo)

Little Real Danger Of War Is Seen By Author

Leslie Roberts of Montreal, Saturday Evening Post Writer, is City Visitor

Prince Rupert is to figure in another article in the Saturday Evening Post, greatly circulated American weekly magazine, and the author will be Leslie Roberts, noted Canadian author and article writer, who is at present visiting the city. With Mrs. Roberts he arrived by train yesterday morning from Montreal. They will sail tomorrow night on the Chilcotin for Vancouver. It is Mr. Roberts' first voyage to Prince Rupert although he has been on the coast before.

A former war correspondent and military observer, Mr. Roberts is particularly interested in defence matters on the national level. Mr. Roberts discounts the possibility of a war with Russia in spite of the general "ephemeral" talk of such a conflict. And, as years pass, (Continued on Page Four)

Campaign Part Won

IT APPEARS THAT the campaign which has been waged for some time with a view to having radio broadcasting service from Prince Rupert improved by the omission from the local station CFPR of full Canadian Broadcasting Corporation network programs is about to be rewarded with success.

So far, so good—the releasing of the CBC network programs, which, whether or not we may like them all, have been given a rating in excellence of quality unsurpassed anywhere in America, will be the best the CBC can do for Prince Rupert in the way of National programming and we are appreciative of that.

Prince Rupert can well be thankful and appreciative of what it is getting but it cannot be entirely satisfied until something has been done in the way of a like public service for the wide open spaces in the hinterland whose isolation makes it the more important that they too should get a break.

“CLIPPING THE COINAGE”

BY 1970 it won't pay to be educated says Financial Post. College graduates will learn less than manual laborers; frustration and disappointment will be the lot of a great many of them.

So says Seymour Harris, Harvard teacher, in his new book "The Market for College Graduates."

His argument is that by 1970 there will be about four times as many living graduates as there were in 1940; that most will aspire to jobs in the professions; that there won't be nearly enough room to accommodate them.

Presumably we're supposed to be very sad about this situation. Our tears refuse to come. The reason: A goodly percentage of college graduates will do better at manual than at intellectual work.

Canada's college population in 1921 was 22,000. Now it's over 90,000.

The universities, most of them dependent on government financial aid and most of them infected with the 20th century mania for bigness, have so "clipped the coinage," made the attainment of a degree so easy that they regurgitate a great rabble which includes a lot of people whose claim to intellectual capacity is, to say the least, small.

The idea that a college graduate can think, can think straight and can be a better, happier citizen than other people is under the present university system just a superstition.

Some day we hope some university will bring distinction to itself by forgetting about the aim of growing big in numbers and by focusing on quality.

The present policy of graduating hordes, fills too many youths, maidens and parents with delusions, which inevitably cause waste and grief in later years.

CHORAL GROUP APPRECIATED

Huntley introduced the choir and the program was as follows: "The Lord's Prayer" (Mallotte) and "In That Day" (Ashford). "Blessed Be The Lord" (Ashford) (From the Cantata, "Holy Night"). "Holy Art Thou" (Handel). "Gloria" (From the 12th Mass) (Bordeaux). "My Task" (Ashford). "Sanctus" (Gounod). Vocal Solo, "The Lost Chord" Raymond V. Haldane.

SATURDAY SERMON

LIFT UP HIS STANDARD!
(Rev. Fred Antrobus, First Baptist Church)

"When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him." Isaiah 59:19.

There are two persons in this quotation, the 'en-emy', and the 'Spirit of the Lord'. The world of nature is attractive, as the hymn-writer says, "where every prospect pleases, and only man is vile". The world of people, as the apostle Paul said, 'lieth in the wicked one'. It is apart from God, and evil, and in many obvious respects, that evil seems to be on the increase.

Now the Church of Jesus Christ is a group of those who are 'called out' of the world, in the sense that they forsake its evil ways and, by trusting the Lord Jesus Christ, for salvation, they have become 'sons of God'. Christians are thus to forsake the things of this evil world but yet geographically speaking to remain in it, and seek to bring others from its darkness to His light, and from the power of Satan unto God.

The world, therefore, as it is, is an enemy of God and back of it is Satan, that wicked one. How shall the spirit of the Lord lift up a standard against the enemy? I believe one answer to that question is this: He will do so through His own people, the Christians in the world; He will do it through His Church, where that Church is faithful and obedient to Him.

The standard, lifted up, will be one of righteousness, of righteous, holy living on the part of each one who is loyal to Jesus Christ and, therefore, has the Spirit of the Lord living within his own heart, as the Scripture says. The characteristics of a Christian man are given in various places in Scripture; Matt. 5:3-12, and Gal 5:22,23. I could wish for the gospel's sake, that the evangelicals were more loving and desired each other's fellowship more, instead of adopting the monastic ideas of exclusiveness which hinders the growth of His Kingdom.

It is true, that, if you live this kind of Christian life, people will not flock to the Standard in great numbers, but some will come, and believe on His Name. You must make your Christian living as attractive and loving as possible, without compromise of course.

This brings me to another thought about the Standard and here we cannot be exhaustive. Two or three matters will suffice to show the principle involved. I refer to the misuse of the Lord's Day for one matter. We are taught to remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy. Now the world is constantly working to make Sabbath laws more easy. What should the Church do? If we go along with the world, a little here and a little there, we may save our faces for a moment, but we shall miss our function, of lifting up the standards of God's Word. These may be 'modern times. The age may be 'more enlightened' but it is the same old world, estranged from God. It matters not what the world may think or say, whether the majority agree, or some nominal Christian want to let down the bars or not. We have a standard to uphold for His Name's sake.

I refer also in this same connection to the divorce laws of our time. Many are the subtle arguments brought forward as reasons why divorce laws should be eased. Yet Jesus our Lord said there was only one cause for divorce, not many or any. And He is our righteousness. We cannot be governed by what men want nor what the evil desires of men dictate.

When Jesus said "Thou shalt not commit adultery", He was setting forth the sacredness of marriage, through which the race is to be propagated and trained—Matt. 5:21-48. He was speaking from the flaming heart of purity, loving the children, taking care of succeeding generations. God's first circle of society is not the church, but the family; and races are made or unmade, as the family is made or unmade. The Church should not cater to the demands of men, but be loyal to her Master. So my Christian friends, may the Spirit of the Lord find in us, those through whom He can show forth God's tion in passenger train service on U.S. railway lines.

"We have been gratified by the action of the U.S. Government, which is our principal supplier of coal in the Maritime provinces, in undertaking to supply us this month with an additional 20,000 tons of suitable locomotive fuel to be delivered at the rate of 5,000 tons a week. This action is particularly timely as it is directed to relieving the inevitable apprehension we have felt as coal supplies dwindled that a still further cut in train services might be necessary. We will be able to continue both a day and a night train between Montreal and Halifax. We have now arranged that the evening train from Montreal and the morning train from Halifax will be a combination of the sleeping car equipment of the Ocean Limited together with the day coaches and other cars of the Scotian. So far as the Scotian is concerned, it will run on the Scotian time. The Maritime Express will be continued on its present schedule.

"Meanwhile," said Mr. Gordon, "we are continuing to take all suitable coal we can from the Maritimes, from Alberta, or from the United States and move it westward and eastward to the best possible advantage."

"Our coal reserves have been seriously depleted by the strike in United States mines followed by short work weeks in those mines. We remained hopeful however, that our coal situation would improve sufficiently to allow us to rescind the planned cut in passenger train service, but, unfortunately that has not yet taken place. When it does, we will promptly restore any cuts that may have been made. At the present time, in the interests of public convenience, it has been decided not to go beyond the 25 percent reduction in passenger train service already announced and given out, in detail for Monday, January 9. This decision has been taken after reviewing most carefully any advantages that might accrue through following at this time the formula of the Interstate Commerce Commission today's plan for a trip to Vancouver for a 33 1/2 percent reduction.

HIS NEWSPAPER WORK IS HIS CONTACT WITH THE BUSINESS WORLD HE WILL FACE FULLY WITHIN A FEW YEARS. AND IT PREPARES HIM BETTER TO MEET LIFE'S PROBLEM BY:

Teaching him the meaning of dependability and responsibility. He soon knows that his customers expect to receive their newspapers regularly and on time, and he soon realizes that the full production force of the newspaper depends on him to see that the readers get the product of their labors.

Teaching him sound business methods which he can use throughout his life—salesmanship—how to keep books—extend credit—collect—manage money—increase volume. In a simplified form, yes, but adapted perfectly to the development of a teen-age mind.

Teaching him the value of developing good traits of character such as courtesy, thrift and honesty.

Teaching him how to meet people and hold his own, and to play and work successfully with his fellow men.

Teaching him that the Canadian way to get things you want is to work to earn the money needed to purchase them.

Teaching him the value of education both at school and at home to enable him to be a real success.

Basketball re-opens tonight at the Civic Centre after a three weeks' holiday from league play. Some thrilling games are on tap with Brownwoods and High School fighting it out for second place in the Senior division, and Merchants taking on their arch rivals, Fashions, with the top spot in the Intermediate League at stake. There will be two games in the Junior division—Stones playing Rupert Hotel in the opener and High School meeting Kinsmen in the second game of the evening.

This promises to be a big month for basketball fans. There will be regular league play every Tuesday and Saturday evenings and two outstanding exhibition series have been booked. On January 13 and 14 the local All-Stars will meet the University Chiefs in a two game total point series. The Chiefs play in the Lower Mainland Senior League division and have won victories over each team in that league except the Canadian champions, the Cloverleafs. On January 30 and 31, Prince Rupert will be host to the famous House of David basketball team. The local All-Stars will play the bearded boys both evenings and Bo-Me-Hi will play them in a matinee game for school students.

This week the B. C. Basketball Association meets in Vancouver and League Scorer Oliver Santurbane will represent B. C. Council member Don Forward at the meeting. The venue for the various British Columbia playoffs will be decided at the week-end and Prince Rupert will soon know whether they defend their Senior 'B' title at home this season or travel south to play in the B.C. finals.

Colder Weather Hitting City

By the time citizens had finished with the final dinner morsel last night, the weather outside had definitely changed again. Skies were clear and, with cold air moving into this area, temperatures dropped to the 20 above mark.

Rain and snow followed by frost made it increasingly difficult for cars to ascend steep avenues. The route 4 bus enroute to the bus terminal early Thursday night attempted to climb the McBride Street hill directly below Seventh Avenue but three attempts were futile. So, the driver took another route and barely made it. The mild air had melted some of the snow-fall for the past three days and this coupled with mixture of rain and snow had citizens stepping in unseason slush puddles, which froze overnight and presented hazards for both pedestrians and drivers.

Since Tuesday, six inches of snow has been recorded. Before Thursday afternoon, most of the precipitation was a mixture of rain and snow. Thursday afternoon, in a four hour period, over one and one-half inches of thick crystals settled to the ground. Total snowfall was two and one half inches, mostly melted away, and three-tenths of an inch of rain.

Temperatures Thursday were moderate. A maximum of 36 above was recorded at 7 p.m. and the minimum reading was 30 above at 10 p.m. The official minimum during last night was 21 above. Another low pressure area is moving into this area. This may mean a short life for the cold weather expected meantime.

He believes the possibility will become the more remote. Higher military staffs in both United States and Canada, Mr. Roberts says, believe that, if there was such a war, the principal theatre would again be in Europe and any action in Alaska or the Pacific Northwest would be merely diversionary. "But," he hastens to add "that is not necessarily my opinion." In any conflict involving the Canadian Northwest, Prince Rupert would probably play an important part. He was interested to hear that installations of World War II in Prince Rupert were being retained.

Mr. Roberts is a writer of long experience which started as a boy when he had his first job on a newspaper with John Dougall's old Montreal "Witness", later joining the Herald. Serving overseas from 1914 to 1919 with the Fifth Canadian Mounted Rifles and later the Royal Air Force, he came back to Canada and started law studies at McGill University. However, writing was in his blood and he took charge of the McGill daily newspaper which he came to operate as a commercial venture. It was then that he gave up law ambitions for newspaper and writing work, a decision which he did not ever regret as he had "a lot more fun out of life than he would ever have had in any stuffy law office or courtroom." Later Mr. Roberts became identified with the Press Gallery in Ottawa and then received the appointment of "Canadian man" for the International News Service (Hearst), this leading to transfer to New York where he was engaged as an aviation expert by the great news gathering concern until 1926. Then he took to free lance writing and in 1927 produced his first book "These Be Your Gods," a series of satirical pen sketches on "the great and near great."

Chief Petty Officer A. E. Sewell, R.C.N. of Victoria, and Cadillac, Sask., hit a virtual jack-pot of prizes and trophies in the annual meet of the Royal Canadian Navy's Pacific Command Rifle Association meet held at Victoria recently. Although Sewell took away 12 different trophies and cups, he received in all about 19 awards for marksmanship.

Outbreak of World War II found Mr. Roberts offering his services to the Canadian government, being appointed as executive assistant to the late Hon. Norman Rogers, minister of national defence, with whom he remained until his death and remaining for a short time longer with Hon. J. L. Ralston, who succeeded Mr. Rogers. Then he became a correspondent and wrote "Canada's War in the Air" and "Canada's War at Sea." On D-Day he was in the North Atlantic travelling with the Canadian Navy as a correspondent for the Saturday Evening Post and Star Weekly. After D. Day he was with the Canadian Army in Europe and in 1945 he returned to Canada. The greater part of last year he spent in Europe including a period in Russia, "Home From the Cold Wars" being the outcome.

All of which sounds like a rather full career but which Mr. Roberts dismisses rather summarily as "52 years of newspapering and writing with, of course, some normal vicissitudes."

FIGHTING FAR TO REPRESENT CANADA AT B. E. GAMES — Eddie Haddad, Dominion amateur lightweight champion, lands a sizzling right to his opponents jaw during an exhibition fight at HMCS Naden, Esquimalt, B. C. Petty Officer Haddad, a native of Winnipeg will represent Canada at the British Empire Games to be held in New Zealand in February of this year. Haddad will leave, with other members of team, for Down Under, by air on Jan. 17.

BUT IT CAME JUST THE SAME—Glamorous Rita Hayworth, and her husband, Prince Aly Khan are pictured in their cream-colored convertible outside the Chateau Dorigny at Lausanne, Switzerland, where they received members of the press. Princess Rita is reported to have looked a newsman straight in the eye during the interview saying "I don't expect to have a baby until February, and why everybody seems to think it's going to happen earlier beats me."

ONLY ONE PAIL TO A CUSTOMER—One thing the elephants of New York's Central Park zoo must forget is the time when water was served in huge containers. With the acute shortage forcing rationing, keeper Bob Montana gives them the precious fluid in a pail. Other animals are also forced to conserve.

IT'S A BIG PLACE NOW—At midnight Dec. 31, Ottawa became nearly five times larger than its original 6,000 acres. The solid black line on this map indicates the new boundaries, the dotted line, the boundary before Jan. 1. The growth resulted from annexation of 22,000 acres of land in the adjoining townships of Nepean and Gloucester. The shaded portions, marked Rockcliffe and Eastview, are villages likely to be annexed in 1950. These areas are all involved in the new national capital planning scheme. (C.P. Photo)

Enlarged Nelson Bros. Port Edward Plant Starts Operating on Herring—Kwakshua is Bounteous Source

Port Edward reduction plant of Nelson Bros. Fisheries, which has just completed a big program of extensions during the past winter including enlargement from 10 to 25 tons hourly capacity and the installation of evaporating equipment which will be used to manufacture protein feed products from liquids which up to now have been thrown away, started operations today on herring from a big run at Kwakshua near Bella Bella. The company's packer Audrey D. Capt. John Blum, arrived at the plant last night with 150 tons of herring and eight or nine vessels are in before tonight with some 1000 tons. Manager Harry Robins said this morning that the plant would be operated on a 24-hour day basis while the herring run continues. From 110 to 115 persons are in employment. In addition to putting up a big pack of products through the reduction plant.

BANK NOTES—Shown above is one of the earliest Bank of Montreal bills, issued soon after the bank was founded in 1817. Below it is a five-dollar bill issued in 1942, the last year the B of M issued its own money. The old bill shows a picture of Montreal harbor in the early 1800's, while the recent one carries pictures of the late George W. Spinney, president, and B. C. Gardner, then general manager, and now president, of the bank. In case it's not the bank-notes that interest you, her name is Patricia Plant, of the B of M's head office in Montreal.

HOPE TO CAPTURE EUROPEAN HONORS—Nearly 100 of Britain's leading manufacturers and designers pooled their resources to build this racing car to challenge state-backed Italian and French racers. At a recent secret trial it notched nearly 150 miles an hour. The new car, chief designer of which is Peter Berthon, is expected to be prime favorite for the Grand Prix d'Europe, the classic race Britain will stage for the first time this year. At the wheel of the new B.R.M. racer is veteran racer, Raymond Mays.

A $50,000,000 MARRIAGE—Prominent figure in a fight for a $50-000,000 fortune, Frieda Koesling, Berlin nurse, gains U.S. citizenship by marrying Paul Kosswig in the German city. The vast sum was left by her uncle, Charles Koesling, who emigrated to the U.S. in 1900. Some 500 persons claimed the estate, but the field was narrowed down to two families. The newlyweds will go to the Carbondale, Ill., home of the 62-year-old groom. They are shown leaving a Berlin church after the wedding ceremony.

OFF ON THEIR HONEYMOON—Waving to well-wishers, New York's Mayor William O'Dwyer and his bride, Sloan Simpson, are shown at Stuart, Fla., aboard the yacht Almar II on which they spent their honeymoon. After a cruise through Florida Keys, they returned to New York.

MOB OUST SIX FROM TOWN—Jehovah Witnesses Olive Lundell and Winifred Parsons were run out of Joliette, Que., for the second time on Monday when they returned after being warned by a mob of townspeople not to return. Joliette residents, 99 per cent Roman Catholic, says the Witnesses are a nuisance, stir up trouble and advocate "immorality." Police did nothing to interfere when the girls were put in a cab and taken to the outskirts of Montreal, 45 miles away.
