British Warships Under Fire of Reds With Heavy Casualties

Conflict Resumption Attended By Serious International Aspects

NANKING (CP)—The Chinese civil war exploded all along the Yangtse River front tonight. Communist attackers were started at several points. Gunfire could be heard and for the first time war was seen from the capital. Bukow, across the river, was under attack.

Kaiungpo, on the north bank seven miles southwest of Nanking, was hit.

Serious fighting was reported opposite Wuhu, 60 miles southwest of here.

Hsikkang, 35 miles north of Hankow, is the focal point of the Red Army.

A top ranking Nationalist general expressed fear that the Reds may try a quick landing in this vicinity, trapping nationalist officials in the capital.

Earlier Premier Ho Ying-Chin told Chinese Parliament that the government had rejected Red peace proposals in their present form. He said the communist plan was not to provide for lasting peace.

Her guns blazing, the British destroyer Consort reached the Yangtse port of Kiangyin late today after a 50-mile duel with Communist shore guns along the river. The fight had begun some 60 miles northeast of Nanking where Red shore guns had earlier crippled the British sloop Amethyst.

Kiangyin is some 110 miles down the river from Nanking.

The 2000-ton sloop suffered heavy casualties in the sudden attack. Twenty of the crew were reported killed and a similar number injured. She carried a crew of eight officers and 140 men.

The Consort's running fight was witnessed by foreign airmen.

The Consort was 15 miles below Rose Island where the silent Amethyst, flags still flying, lay aground.

A later report from the British Admiralty in London said the Consort had reached the sloop but did not say if the Consort suffered any casualties.

Other British warships, including the cruiser London, are racing to the aid of the Amethyst which is said to have been on a peaceful mission, delivering supplies to the embassy in Nanking.

Jack McRae Is Choice Of Rupert Liberals

Prominent Young Business Man and Former Naval Officer Is Proposed As Coalition Candidate Here

John Duncan McRae, 33-year-old city business man and ex-naval officer of World War II, is the Liberal choice as candidate for this riding in the next provincial election. The Prince Rupert (provincial) District Liberal Association Tuesday night proposed Mr. McRae for the coalition nomination. His name will go before a joint Liberal-Progressive-Conservative convention tentatively set for next Tuesday.

Mr. McRae was chosen from among three candidates for the Liberal nomination, being given a large lead on the first ballot over L. M. Gordon and T. N. Youngs.

T. N. Youngs was elected new president of the Association which pledged itself to a prompt and energetic election campaign.

Following the taking of the ballot, Mr. McRae's nomination was made unanimous on motion of Mr. Youngs and Mr. Gordon.

Present during the early part of the convention last night was Hon. E. T. Kenney, minister of lands and forests, who stressed the need of coalition in order to combat effectively the socialist party members of which had openly expressed the intention of taking over industry in the province. The minister emphasized the continued need of stable government against the "real menace and threat" of the Socialists. Particularly was this important in the north which was on the eve of long anticipated and long deferred development.

More than ever was the security of democratic government, which the coalition offered and was able to give, essential. British Columbia was today in the prettiest position of any province in Canada. The coalition should be maintained so that the great plans should come to full and effective fruition without running the gauntlet of socialistic experimentation.

Following their nomination, Mr. McRae, Mr. Gordon and Mr. Youngs each spoke briefly. Each promised to put up the strongest fight possible. If nominated and to loyally support whoever was chosen.

The vote resulted. McRae, 30; Gordon, 8; Youngs, 7.

Mr. McRae, in acknowledgment and expression of appreciation, voiced the hope of having full coalition support.

Delegates to the coalition convention will be appointed by the Liberal executive and will be instructed to support Mr. McRae, it was agreed.

The meeting proceeded to elect officers who were chosen as follows:
Honorary President, Rt. Hon. L. S. St. Laurent.
Honorary First Vice-President, Hon. B. I. Johnson.
Honorary Second Vice-President, Hon. E. T. Kenney.
President, T. N. Youngs.
Vice-President, W. J. Davies.
Queen Charlotte City.
Secretary-Treasurer, Pierre LeRoss.

Executive—L. M. Gordon, A. S. Nickerson, Earl Gordon, R. H. Parker and B. J. Bacon.

Representative natives, now that the Indians have been accorded the provincial franchise, will be added to the executive in an honorary capacity.

The meeting heard a report from T. N. Youngs on the recent provincial convention in Vancouver.

SEAMEN FACE CHARGES—Two of the five members of the Seafarers' International Union (S.I.U.) taken from a Halifax-Moncton train at Moncton, N.B., are returned by R.C.M.P. officers to Halifax to face charges laid following shootings which occurred during the clash of rival unions. The incident took place when S.I.U. men broke through Canadian Seamen's Union picket lines to board three Canadian National Steamships' vessels in Halifax harbor. CANADIAN LEGION BUYS FORMER NAVAL OFFICERS' QUARTERS HERE

Announcement is made by the local branch of the Canadian Legion of the completion of negotiations for the purchase of the former naval officers' quarters of H.M.C.S. "Chatham" and adjoining 3 1/2 acres of Crown-owned harbor front land from the War Assets Corporation.

The building, erected in 1943, is a two-storey structure of frame construction, approximately 196 by 36 feet and stands on the cliffside with a commanding view of the harbor. The front of the building faces First Avenue near the intersection of First Avenue and Second Street.

It is the intention of the new owners to convert the building into a modern up-to-date Canadian Legion Headquarters for the local branch. Plans for the necessary alterations are already being drawn up by John H. Harvey, M.R.A.I.C. of Vancouver, who was attached to the Naval Engineering Staff at H.M.C. Dockyard, Esquimalt, during the war and was associated with that department at Prince Rupert during the construction of the building for the Navy's use.

The new Legion building will provide additional facilities and much-needed increased accommodation. Alterations contemplated will provide for an auditorium 74'x26'6" with a stage off it measuring 18'x10'. This will be available for public dances and such functions when not required for Legion use. A spacious billiard room overlooking the harbor, 19'9" x 51'3", will allow room for three full-size English billiard tables; two card rooms; reading room, lounge, a snack bar and kitchen, increased office space, a dressing room for the staff, a sports dressing room with showers, etc., attached, and a complete suite that will provide quarters for a married caretaker. Lighter and more commodious rooms where beverages may be consumed are contemplated on both floors.

The Women's Auxiliary of the local branch will have their own entrance to spacious quarters set aside for their use on the ground floor and; to meet their ever-growing needs, a large meeting room, reading and lounge room, wash-rooms, kitchen and storage facilities are expected to be provided.

No plans have as yet been made, in regard to the disposal of the present Canadian Legion building and it is not expected that any decision in this matter will be arrived at until nearer the time when the new building will be ready for occupancy.

Part of the Crown-owned land purchased will be disposed of in due course when the necessary preliminaries have been completed and the Canadian Legion's future requirements have been given careful consideration.

YOUTH GIVES UP AFTER BANK THEFT

VANCOUVER (CP)—A pug-nosed, 16-year-old boy with a pistol robbed the Granville Street branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, where he worked, of $2,000 and fled into the lunch-hour traffic yesterday. He was taken into custody less than 12 hours later with all but $2 of the loot still intact.

The youth gave himself up at 9:45 to a policeman on a Granville Street beat and was lodged in jail.

The pimply-faced boy from Hamilton, Ontario, astounded teller Bill Slater, 22, by knocking on the cage door at lunch-time, flashing the gun.

He warned: "Don't sound the alarm."
"You're fooling," said Slater. "I am not," said the boy.

No shots were fired. The boy snatched a roll of bills and walked briskly out of the bank. Slater dumbfounded for a minute, sounded the alarm.

When he gave himself up, the youth surrendered the pistol, an unloaded Browning stolen from the bank. Search of his clothing revealed $1,998 of $2,000 taken from the bank.

COALITION HERE

PROMINENT young local business man and ex-naval officer of World War II, John Duncan McRae, proposed by the Liberals of Prince Rupert provincial riding as the coalition candidate in the forthcoming general election, could well enough meet with the approval of the joint Liberal-Progressive-Conservative convention to be held next week. Under the accepted procedure for the nomination of coalition candidates, it is, of course, the prerogative of the Conservatives, if they are not satisfied with the Liberal offering, to present the name of another candidate whereupon there would be a vote of the joint convention and the choice thereby reached would, under the formula, be the official candidate.

As has been said before, the contest in this election is not between Liberal and Conservatives but between the coalition of the Liberals and Conservatives against the Socialist opposition. Accentuation of differences at this time between Liberals and Conservatives would do neither of them any good but would certainly be beneficial to the C.C.F.

The coalition is essentially a proposition of compromise and give-and-take as between the two parties which it comprises. Its keynote is the submersion of party interests and considerations to unite against what they claim to be a menace and threat to the public weal. Beating of the party drum, both old parties should remember, can but defeat the purpose of coalition to which both are pledged. There will be plenty of time for that when the federal election comes around shortly. If the Liberals and Conservatives really mean business in the common aim of defeating the C.C.F., they will refrain from antagonizing each other but, rather, would be mutually forbearing and understanding. They might as well admit that it will be hard enough to defeat the C.C.F. provincially in Prince Rupert even by an earnest and hard-working fusion. Division between them, no matter how it might come about, would be fatal to the chances of both.

MR. DOUGLAS' ADMISSION

IT WAS INTERESTING to hear Saskatchewan's C.C.F. Premier, T. C. Douglas, come right out and tell the Rotary Club in Montreal yesterday that free enterprise could be expected to remain as a basic principle of Canada's economy. That was really something coming from the head of a socialist government which is supposed to be averse to capitalism and all its works. Possibly, Mr. Douglas' statement may be his honest conclusion after his experience of the past five years in leading the government of his province. Labor or Socialist governments appear to have the habit of reacting in that manner after getting into office. The British Labor government, in spite of its experiments in nationalization, appears to be finding similarly—that there is no substituting successfully for private enterprise which is another name for personal initiative.

It becomes increasingly apparent that government, no matter what the party may be, is largely a matter of expediency. That being the case, efficiency and ability may, after all, be an important factor in choosing governments. Even the Socialists, after getting in office, find there is no panacea for all economic ills as, in the flush of aspiration to power, they might have suggested.

HOBBY SHOW COMING

IN THE MULTIFARIOUS activities which engage our attention these busy days, it is refreshing to think that the third annual Hobby Show is coming up next week. Two Hobby Shows have already been held in Prince Rupert and the idea caught on so well and was accepted with such interest and acclaim that the event has now become an institution.

From all accounts, the 1949 Hobby Show, which is really something more than a Hobby Show but a comprehensive exposition of the arts and crafts of many skilful, talented and versatile local people, will be even larger and more diversified than ever before. Not only will there be the exhibits of the elder people but youth and children will show accomplishments in the field of handicraft and artistic and cultural skills which have been under development at the Civic Centre.

The show gives promise of being a common meeting place for large numbers of participants and spectators.

day after the outbreak of World War II, he joined the Searchlight Battery here as a private but soon transferred from Army to Navy as a sub-lieutenant. He won quick promotion to lieutenant-commander. After instructional service at H.M.C.S. Naden on this coast and H.M.C.S. Cornwallis on the East Coast, he went afloat, specializing in gunnery, and saw service at Scapa Flow, off the Norwegian coast and in the Mediterranean off North Africa. He put in destroyer time on the Atlantic convoy service in 1942-43. During one of the early Victory Loan campaigns, he attained considerable distinction on being chosen as representative of the Navy in a "Carry the Torch" flight across Canada, the torch going on to Britain as a symbol of Canada's support of the war effort. In 1943 he was the admiral's gunnery officer on the Atlantic and his final assignment before the end of the war was as first lieutenant of H.M.C.S. Punter, Canada's only aircraft carrier.

At the conclusion of the war, Mr. McRae returned to Prince Rupert to take over the management of McRae Bros. Ltd. on the retirement of his father. He takes an active part in community affairs and is a member of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce and Prince Rupert Rotary Club as well as being president of the Prince Rupert Liberal Association and Prince Rupert Retail Merchants' Association. In club and fraternal circles he is also well known as a member of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club and Tsimpean Lodge A.F. & A.M. The Navy continues as one of his principal interests and he is commanding officer of the local naval division, H. M. C. S. Chatham.

Mr. McRae was married at Wolfville, Nova Scotia, in 1945 to Miss Grace Oxner. At present he is engaged in building a fine new home on Fourth Avenue West.

FRED PEARSON LAID AT REST
 Final respects were paid to the late Frederick Pearson yesterday afternoon when members of the Canadian Legion and many friends attended the funeral in Grenville Chapel of the B.C. Undertakers where a short service was held prior to interment in the Soldiers' Plot at Fairview Cemetery.
 Rev. Fred Antrobus officiated at the chapel as well as at the graveside and Mrs. J. C. Gilker acted as organist. Hymns were "Jesus Lover of my Soul" and "Abide With Me." Many beautiful floral offerings adorned the casket which was covered by the Union Jack and borne to its last resting place by members of the Canadian Legion who were fellow workers and war companions of the deceased. They were Peter J. Peterson, Horace Shrubbsall, Geo. Hague, Anthony McDonald, Doug MacGillivray and James Hogg of Smithers. As the remains were being lowered in the grave the "Last Post" was sounded by Sgt. Bugler W. J. Rance and the flag dropped to half-mast.
 Dr. R. G. Large, district deputy grand master, returned to the city on the Prince Rupert today from a Masonic visit to Ocean Falls. He was accompanied by William Cruickshank, D. C. Stevenson and R. E. Benson.

Lil' Arthur King, rated by many as the best scrapper to come out of Canada since Vancouver's Jimmy (Baby Face) McLarnin, has designs on the world's lightweight title. But not while Ike Williams has the crown. "I'm not even good enough to hold Ike's gloves now," said the 22-year old British Empire and Canadian champion from Toronto. "But he's older than I am and will grow older faster." Williams is 25. But the 135-pound Canadian negro makes no bones that he'll go after the championship when Williams either steps down or is beaten. He tells you he can lick any of the other contenders. Jimmy Wilson, trainer of both Williams and King, is of the same opinion. "Arthur is one of the finest boys I have ever trained," said Jimmy. "He never makes the same mistake twice, is willing to learn and packs a wallop in his left hand."

Lil' Arthur is thankful for the day he left Toronto and signed to fight for the Philadelphia partnership of Frank (Blinky) Palermo and Frank Palumbo who also manages Williams. King won the British Empire crown in London with a seven-round technical knockout over Billy Thompson. But there wasn't much ahead of him in the way of fights in Canada.

Davey Yack, the last of four managers King had in Canada, told the champion if he could make a better deal for himself in the United States to go ahead. A friend, Dr. Jack Dick, knew Palermo and that's how King landed in Philadelphia last October. He's won 13 fights under his new managers for a professional record of 26 triumphs, including 10 knockouts, in 29 outings since turning pro at the age of 18. He later squared accounts with the three

IT'S A HABIT—For the third consecutive year, Toronto's Maple Leafs are holders of the Stanley Cup, symbol of National Hockey League championship. The Leafs tucked the title under their belts Saturday night at Maple Leaf Gardens when they defeated the Detroit Red Wings 3-1 to make it four straight games. Here Captain Ted Kennedy is presented with the cup by Clarence Campbell, N.H.L. president, while Connie Smythe, left, and Coach Hap Day, right, beam approvingly. (CP Photo)

WARM-UP HOOP CHAMPIONSHIP — KAMLOOPS RAINBOWS DUE FRIDAY

Prince Rupert Jets meet Kamloops this Friday and Saturday in a two-game total-point series for the B.C. Senior "B" Hoop Crown. Last night they played a practice game with the fast-stepping High School team as a warm-up for the B.C. series and proved they were in top form for the coming Rainbows.

Lindsay and Beynon, were absent from the practice game, and, of course, their high scoring habits make a difference but, in spite of this, the Jets racked up 60 points in the forty minutes of play with Arney, Morgan, Macphee, and Flaten all shooting in the over-ten bracket.

Coach Alex Bill, tried out every form of offense and defence during the evening and did his best to have the younger team run the Jets off their feet and the game ended with the Jets on top, the score 60-58. Bill uncovered some fine material for his second string line and, with the outstanding players of the High School team to fall back on for relief material in the Kamloops series, Prince Rupert should have more than an even chance to take the crown. With players like Spring, who racked up a brilliant 21 points in this practice game, on call for the series, the Jets seem set to keep the "Star" cup right here in Prince Rupert for another year.

The Rainbows arrive in Rupert on Friday's plane and will be accompanied by Harry Chapman, President of the B.C. Amateur Basketball Association, and Referee Winkler of the B.C. Referees' Association. The other whistle man for the series will be Referee Johnny Comadina of Prince Rupert. Preliminary games are being lined up with tentative arrangements made for Fashion to meet Metlakatla on Friday evening.

FOOTBALLERS ARE ACTIVE

Three Teams Will Enter Competition in Senior League

While the basketball season will not reach its climax until this week-end when the provincial championships will be played off in Prince Rupert, talk of football is already very much in the air.

The team that played under the name of High School last year has had a meeting and is very anxious to take up where they left off. Practically all players from last year's eleven are available for this year's team. The boys are awaiting a sponsor but even without one, they will go ahead. Feelers have been put out and a response has been assured.

At the last monthly meeting of the Canadian Legion it was decided to support a team in this year's competitions. With that veteran Alex Haig taking an active part in the Legion's team, good sound opposition will be provided for all.

It is understood that the Battery, who won all trophies last year, are eager to repeat their record performance so that a three team league will be in action.

In the meantime President J. S. Wilson has called a meeting of the executive for next Monday evening so organization should soon be completed.

BOB FELLER FALLS DOWN

NEW YORK. (AP)—Bob Feller's failure was the most disturbing note of the opening of the Major League baseball season which otherwise read like a carbon copy of 1949. Feller was yanked after two innings yesterday because of wildness and a sore arm. He yielded one run as Cleveland Indians lost to St. Louis Browns 5 to 1.

Big League crowds were slightly off but most of the games were held in smaller parks.

fighters who beat him.

King had a few thousand dollars saved up when he came to the United States and he has added to it under the guidance of the two Franks. He had an expensive car when he arrived here but they told him to sell it. He did, without a squawk. In fact Wilson finds King hard to manage when it comes only to one thing. That's when there's boogie woogie music on the radio. "I've had to turn off his radio several times at 1 a.m. when we're up in the woods training," said Wilson.

The Canadian fighter also is a piano player of a sort. You can guess the kind of music he plays—all by ear. The only sweet music he likes is the kind his gloves beat on an opponent. "That's real music," said Lt. Arthur "and I expect to hear a lot of it enroute to the championship."

USE HEAD AND KEEP FEET WARM

Trappers and other hardy men of the outdoors make a practice of sleeping with their feet toward their campfires when they are on the winter trail. The theory seems to be that if the feet remain warm the rest of the body is less likely to become chilled.

Whether the rugged type keeps his head covered while curling up on spruce bough mattress in the dead of winter is not a certainty but chances are he does.

In line with this question of keeping warm in cold climates the United States Army has conducted some experiments and Dr. Paul A. Siple, Arctic explorer and author, attached to the general staff, has made some interesting statements in a recent issue of Look magazine.

Dr. Siple claims that "a man can keep his feet warm by using his head. This means that by covering it, and reducing heat loss due to radiation, his feet will probably stay warmer longer." Dr. Siple points out that, when the feet become cold, it is because there is no longer any heat being delivered to them by the blood and added insulation in the form of socks, is futile—"for feet are heated from within."

According to the article, cold feet sufferers rarely complain of cold face or head. Yet, they will continue to leave their heads uncovered while, through radiation, a tremendous amount of heat is being lost from the face because of the difference between the warm skin and the cold air.

In replacing this lost heat, the head robs more from the body and the body takes what it needs from the hands and feet. It is a chain reaction for which there is but one sensible solution. Cover the head and keep your feet warm.

So maybe our pioneer fathers had something when they cultivated a beard and let their hair grow long. And maybe they knew a thing or two when they donned their wool night caps when the mercury began to drop zero.

W. H. Brett, M.L.A., returned to the city on the Prince Rupert this morning following the closing of the provincial house recently.

WIDE SELECTION OF TALENT TO COME TO LIGHT AT HOBBY SHOW

Talents which have blossomed in basements and work rooms in central British Columbia will have opportunity to find public recognition when the Civic Centre sponsors its third annual arts, crafts and hobby show, which will open for four days on April 27.

New and original examples of craftsmanship will be sought to exemplify the lively condition of homespun arts and crafts in this part of the province, although older exhibits will also be welcomed. Individuals, institutions, schools and clubs have indicated their intention of placing displays in the rooms and lounges which will house the show.

Graphic art is expected to be one of the interesting features. In the small gymnasium will be work of artists from Quesnel, Hazelton and Smithers, as well as part of the works of Jean Ness Findlay of Masset. Local artists also will display there.

The ladies' lounge will be given over exclusively to the work of Miss Jeanne Faure, octogenarian painter, and her pupils. Miss Faure has a number of interesting paintings this year. These will include a still-life of wild flowers, an autumn scene, which almost cost her life when she was mistaken for a bear by a hunter as she worked at her easel, and a snow scene which was done with the warming aid of two hot water bottles out-of-doors.

The display of her pupils' work, Miss Faure intends to arrange in a way which will demonstrate their progress from simple drawings through studies in the painting of metal, glass, flowers and, finally, scenes of the Prince Rupert region done in black-and-white, pastels and oils.

HOBBY CLASSES TO SHOW OFF

Activity of hobby classes at the Civic Centre during the last several months will be reflected in the wide variety of fancy work, woodwork, rug-making, leather-craft and other creative

DEPENDABLE

COOL ... because proper insulation keeps the heat in the range where it belongs. Hours of cooking won't send the kitchen's temperature soaring.

LABOR SAVING ... and time saving too! No black-bottomed pots and pans to scrub. The beautiful enamel finish of the stove itself is easy to keep clean.

DEPENDABLE ... electric heat gives a steady, even temperature, excellent cooking results.

SAFE ... even if switches do get turned on accidentally, there's no real danger.

ECONOMICAL ... it costs only 1¢ per meal per person to cook electrically.
