NEW YORK (CP)—A powerful United Nations fleet is building up today in the West Pacific to aid the United States against the Communist invasion of South Korea. British Commonwealth countries have rallied to Britain with offers to help the United States.

Cannot Extend Ship Subsidies

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada's home program has run into a two-pronged snag. A new program in building costs and a shortage of lumber. Resources Minister Winters told the Commons yesterday, are the two factors "likely" to reduce the number of homes constructed this year.

Nine ships are now tied up, compared with 42 prior to the announcement of the $30,000,000 subsidy.

Mr. Chevrier said 95 Canadian-owned vessels have been transferred to United Kingdom registry.

No money has yet been paid to Canadian ship operators, but applications for assistance by more than 30 have been approved.

Applewhite Backed By Vancouver Member And Wins Minister's Sympathetic Consideration

OTTAWA—In a speech which lasted nearly 30 minutes last night when Fisheries Department estimates were being debated, E. T. Applewhite, member for Skeena, urged provision for a split season for the Pacific halibut industry. Mr. Applewhite ended his remarks with a tribute to Fisheries Minister.

Applewhite admitted that decisions of the commission should be based only on considerations of preservation and conservation of fish stocks. He stated that the halibut fisheries of the British Columbia coast desired to have a split season and the first requisite is a treaty which permits such a season. He further claimed that a split season, by allowing the fishing of stocks now never harvested, would be a measure in conservation.

The Pacific coast member suggested that the United States and Canadian governments possibly did not put the same interpretation on the present treaty and that a new treaty would remove all possible doubts as to the existence of the power to impose a split season.

Applewhite urged the negotiation of a new treaty with provision also for one commissioner from Alaska.

Howard Green of Vancouver endorsed the Skeena member's remarks.

Replying the minister indicated that the government had an open and a sympathetic mind on the subject.

Churchill Is Hopeful

Fish Official Shot In Head

William Hitchcock in Fair Condition here after Mercy Flight

A Department of Fisheries inspector is in General Hospital here today in fair condition following a brush with death late yesterday afternoon near Kincolith on the Naas River 60 miles north of Prince Rupert.

William Hitchcock was flown to hospital here last night by Captain Robert McInnis, piloting a C.P.A. Canso. He had been shot with a 22 rifle while hunting for seals.

In a small motorboat Hitchcock and the skipper of the patrol vessel Onerka II were seal hunting a short distance up the Naas River. The skipper, Capt. A. M. Orr, levelled a rifle at one of the huge mammals. He shouted: "Look" and, as Hitchcock rose, the rifle discharged. The bullet entered the back of the victim's head and lodged in the skull. He was about four feet from the barrel of the rifle.

Bleeding rapidly, Hitchcock was rushed to the tiny hospital at Kincolith by Orr. There a nurse stopped the flow of blood, banded his head and awaited the arrival of the plane.

It was about an hour following the arrival of the plane that the patient was in the air. The aircraft was not able to taxi to the shore due to low tide. A small motorboat with two occupants sped to the scene of the landing. It was decided by Capt. McInnis to follow the boat in but this idea was quickly abandoned. Perched in the nose of the aircraft Engineer Jerry Robertson poled the aircraft in. At one spot depth of the water was below five feet.

Surgery was performed on Hitchcock shortly after his arrival here but the bullet was not yet removed. The doctor relieved the pressure on the brain, as a result of which the patient's condition was improved.

Hitchcock's mother lives in Vancouver. His wife and three small children live here.

Pension Without Test Advocated

OTTAWA (CP)—A $40 a month pension to persons 70 and over regardless of their means was proposed yesterday by the Parliamentary committee on old age security as the most suitable retirement plan for Canada.

The committee expressed the view that a pension of $40 a month should also be paid to needy persons between 65 and 70. In a report tabled in the commons, the joint Senate-Commons committee said it favored a "universal pay-as-you-go system" applicable to all persons in Canada 70 and over.

Last Call For Barrel Derby

The Rotary Club's barrel on the progress of which local guessers hope to win prizes of $1000 or $250, will start its course down the Skeena River from Terrace bridge to Kwinitsa promptly at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon and the final rush o' festivities is now on.

D. C. Stevenson, William Scuby and Thomas Christie will leave Friday afternoon for Terrace to see that the barrel gets on its way.

Expert native river navigators in two boats will convoy the barrel.

Grave Turn In War Seen

Seoul Is Still Objective As Counter-Attack Looms

TOKYO (CP) — Gen. Douglas MacArthur returned to Japan today from the South Korean war front. He was gone slightly more than 15 hours. He had been expected to stay two days but the reason for his early return was not disclosed immediately. This gave rise to speculation that the war situation in Korea might have taken a graver turn than was generally expected.

Gen. MacArthur flew to flaming battle front as United States bombers entered battle against the Communist invaders from the north.

A Korean mission said southern forces were rallying and hammering back into Seoul, the capital they lost yesterday.

MacArthur, commander in chief of American forces in the Far East, arrived in Korea aboard his unarmed personal plane to see the war situation "for myself."

A short time later he announced superfortresses made their first attack this morning. The big bombers, capable of carrying atomic bombs, blasted Seoul's Kimpo airfield with conventional bombs. Primary targets were hit with "good results." All returned to base, presumably Guam.

The Korean mission here said South Korean forces aided by the superfortress assault, stormed back on the offensive, driving back a heavy Red concentration of Soviet made tanks from the western sector of the capital. Fierce fighting is also reported at Kimpo airfield, 16 miles from Seoul.

Reports not carried by the Canadian or Associated Press that the first cavalry division had been ordered to the front from Japan were denied officially. It was later reported that MacArthur decided to step up the scale of assistance to South Korean forces in an effort to hold the present line of defence. He appeared confident on his return to Tokyo.

He ordered B-29 bombers to knock out three vital bridges to halt a Northern drive and requested Australian fighter aircraft, made available to him yesterday, to go into action. Preparations were made to send British warships into the Korean operations.

1950's Great Hoax

At the week-end the world was shocked at North Korea's attack on her sister state of South Korea. It was hailed by people in high places as the final dropping by Communism of subversive methods of spreading Marxist domination and resorting to force.

Western democratic United States immediately dispatched airplanes and warships to the aid of the attacked republic and rightly so and Britain put at the disposal of the Americans warships in the adjacent Japanese waters. Russia, to date, has made no move toward taking an active part in hostilities. Nor is she apt to. The game is going all her way.

Russia has had a beautiful opportunity, at no cost to herself, to find out just how well the democracies would respond against an aggressor. She has proved that if she goes to war she will have to confront the whole civilized world. It is doubtful if she will accept that challenge at the moment.

But the lovely part of it all, from the Russian point of view, is that after she has declined to enter the conflict she will be able to turn to the rest of the world and say: "Those capitalist war mongers tried to pick a fight at the earliest opportunity. Benevolent Russia remained out of the conflict in order to maintain world peace." Some will believe her.

But in reality, the West has won a great victory. They have proved their readiness to stand together against a Communist aggressor. Russia can not help but be impressed. Her tune may change in future dealings with other nations now that she knows there will be no appeasement.

It is difficult to surmise what might have happened if the democracies had not responded so quickly to South Korea's need.

THE PLAYGROUNDS

POSSIBLY SOME Prince Rupert citizens are not aware of the impressive community operation which, even though the summer holidays have barely commenced, is already in progress on the various playgrounds. Of course, the most of people with children know about it and are appreciative and enthusiastic. A statement entitled "Your City Playgrounds," appearing elsewhere in the Daily News today, tabulates the combined operation by the City Parks Board, which maintains the parks, the Gyro Club, which equips them, and the Civic Centre staff, which supervises them.

Dominating the scene at scenic McClymont Park is the swimming pool where hundreds of youngsters in all age groups disport themselves daily and, what is very important, are learning the all important lessons of swimming under expert direction.

At Seal Cove, Totem and Westview are also recreational facilities along lesser scale while Gyro Park is the central venue for the softball leagues.

Prince Rupert may be lacking in some things about which we hear a good deal from time to time. However, one thing it excels in, and which probably we do not hear as much about as we should because we take them for granted now, are the recreational facilities as depicted the year round at the Civic Centre and these summer months at the playgrounds. The energetic and enterprising people who year in and year out are responsible for the good work being carried on thereat are entitled to the deep appreciation of the community.

As I See It

By ELMORE PHILPOTT
MUST HOLD THE LINE

PORTLAND, Oregon:
My special assignment at the 1950 Northwest Conference on International Relations was the Atlantic Pact.

I made my main speech on it a week before the outbreak of open war in Korea and my last speech just a few hours prior to that aggression by the Communists of the north. I did my best to make these points:

1. Wherever we draw the defence line of the western democracies we must be prepared to do whatever is necessary to hold that line.

2. There is only one answer to the technique of world Communism, which organizes to take over countries one by one by "inside job" methods. That is an international federation which guarantees the democratic system in the entire area concerned and which is prepared to maintain it by the entire might of the whole international union.

BELOW IS THE REPORT OF

my main speech exactly as it appeared in the Oregon Journal for June 20, under the byline of Bob Morse. It carries a two column headline saying

U.S., Canada 'Vital' To West Federation

The United States and Canada would have to join a federation of the western democracies or it wouldn't work, a top Canadian journalist told the second night session of the Northwest Institute of International Relations at Lincoln High School Monday.

Elmore Philpott, one of the Institute's faculty members, said it's up to Uncle Sam whether a union, economic or otherwise can be formed.

Britain, he said, would never join without Canada and he doubts Canada would throw a collective hat into the ring unless the United States took the lead.

Philpott's answer to the question posed by his topic "Will the Atlantic Pact Work?" was a qualified "yes."

"The Atlantic Pact will work," he declared, "if it is used as a stepping stone toward formation of an out-and-out federation of all the Western democracies."

But it won't work, he maintained, if the United States attempts to prolong "the rich uncle-poor relation set up" of the Marshall plan beyond the time necessary to bring economic stability to Europe.

FEAR EXPRESSED

He expressed the fear that this country might drift into "a new more subtle form of imperialism applied through the bankers and governments." Such a trend, he predicted, would be met by growing resistance in Europe.

Germany, the speaker said, can be prevented from "making a new deal" with Russia by formation of an all-inclusive federation of the west into which the Germans could become assets as citizens.

"But Germany," he declared, "as a separate sovereign power can never be fitted into a peaceful, stabilized Europe, and without such a Europe there can never be a peaceful, stabilized world."

DEFENSE VITAL

Philpott, turning to the Pact as a military instrument, said the "balanced contribution system" in which, for example, France would furnish infantry power, Britain short range planes, and the United States long range bombers and the atom bomb wouldn't work in wartime.

He recalled the German's slogan used to demoralize the French in the early stages of World War II "England will fight to the last Frenchman."

"We must be very clear in our own minds that wherever we draw a line we must be prepared to defend that line," he said.

Mrs. George D. Mead will be leaving next week for Victoria where she will join her husband, Sgt. Mead, who was transferred recently to the capital in the service of the British Columbia Police. Mrs. Mead will be accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gavin Mead, who will take up residence in Vancouver.

Accepted report's recommendations that police accounts amounting to $684.63, with a net cost to the city of $331.31, be paid; That two traffic lanes be painted in the centre of Seventh Avenue East from its intersection with Eighth Avenue East to the approach to the bridge on Sixth Avenue; That two sheds at the rear of the women's jail be demolished to provide parking space for employees; That the following trade license applications be accepted: Dawson & Hall Ltd., building contractors; Fraser Valley Builders Ltd., building contractors; Alfred Myer, U-drive; Mrs. Agnes M. Three year old Bruno Daudrich and his sister Vera, six, are too young to know just what a cheque for $300 means, even when it comes from the Manitoba Flood Relief Fund. But to their mother, Mrs. Jack Daudrich, it means the first step towards making a home again out of the flood damaged Daudrich house in Morris, Manitoba. The $300 is the first installment of what the fund will give the Daudrichs to replace their furniture and personal effects.

Academy asking for tax exemption on that portion of the school set aside as a chapel.

Accepted as a body the invitation of the Chamber of Commerce to meet Grant McConachie, president of Canadian Pacific Airlines, and party July 1 at the reception and buffet supper.

Make Strawberry Jam this Easy, Short-Boil Way

1 THIS "SURE-RESULTS" RECIPE WILL SAVE TWO-THIRDS OF YOUR TIME

Crush thoroughly 2 quarts of fully ripe berries. (Use ripe fruit, not the under-ripe fruit called for in old-fashioned recipes.) Measure 4 cups of the crushed fruit and 7 cups of sugar into large saucepan. Mix well. Bring to full rolling boil over high heat. Stir constantly before and while boiling.

2 BOIL MIXTURE ONE MINUTE ONLY KEEP FRESH FLAVOR AND COLOR

Here's where you save time and work! BOIL HARD ONE MINUTE BY THE CLOCK! (This short boil retains the luscious taste and lovely color of the fresh fruit.) Remove from heat. Stir in half-bottle of CERTO Fruit Pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly and prevent floating fruit.

3 YOU'LL GET 50% MORE JAM FROM SAME AMOUNT OF FRUIT

Because you don't have to "boil down" your fruit to make it set, very little juice wastes away in steam. You'll have about 10 glasses to ladle and paraffin instead of the 6 to be expected from old-fashioned long-boil recipes. With CERTO you average 50% MORE jam from the same amount of fruit.

4 NO GUESS WORK. FOR SURE RESULTS FOLLOW SIMPLE DIRECTIONS EXACTLY

With CERTO you get a booklet of 78 kitchen-tested recipes... a separate one for each fruit since different fruits need different handling. Follow the simple directions exactly and you'll have bright, sparkling, better-tasting jams and jellies whatever fruit you use. Even beginners can be sure of results with CERTO.

CERTO BRAND FRUIT PECTIN

CERTO is fruit pectin—the natural jelling substance in fruit—extracted and concentrated for easier, quicker, better jam and jelly making.

Avenue Discussed

bound vehicles on McBride into Third Avenue discriminated against Third Avenue merchants.

Ald. Douglas Frizzell said the pedestrian traffic on Third Avenue had always been the merchants' biggest asset and it was in consideration of them that the restriction had been thought necessary. "We have to take into consideration our traffic regulations in this growing city," he declared. He added that the by-law was for the purpose of keeping unnecessary traffic off the avenue and that anyone wanting to shop could get back to it almost immediately. It was decided to let the amending by-law stand as drafted.

Bishop Anthony Jordan, after a trip to Vancouver, returned to the city aboard the Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Prince Rupert's harbor is taken as matter of course once you become accustomed to so grand a haven. As first, one can hardly keep his eyes away. As a centre for waterfront sports and competitions on Port Day, this superb and sheltered arm of the sea has every thing. Canada has some harbors, so called, where money for improvements has been spent for generations and the job has still to be completed.

Prince Rupert's harbor staged a celebration on the morning of November 11, 1918. There had been little, if any preparation, but rarely has anything more impressive been witnessed here. But, Thank God, the war had ended. People were in the mood. Yes it was wild and wet. There was a gale, of course. How about a parade. Sure! So all the ships in port—and there were plenty, from regular steamers down to whatever would float—mobilized away up Tucks Inlet and headed for Digby Island. It was a gray, stern, austere, unrelenting sort of show—somehow in keeping with the years that had passed, a stormy finish to a stormy era.

High ranking officers of the Northwest Air Command, Edmonton are taking off for an inspection of air defence installations along the MacKenzie River. They say this has nothing whatever to do with the situation in Korea. How can anyone doubt it.

Rudolph Haasburg of Pentticon, who never smoked, drank or married is reported dead, aged 115 years. This story needs confirmation. Mr. Haasburg must have been dead most of his life.

Some months hence, doubtless more folks will be taking treatment for nervous prostration, caused originally by sleepless nights and wondering how soon Canada would become involved in all that excitement over Korea.

HOME, SWEET HOME IN WINNIPEG — The piano has toppled over, the chesterfield is floating, floors have warped, wall have cracked. This interior shot of a Winnipeg home, to level above the picture on the wall, shows what hundreds of home-owners in the flood area saw when they entered their homes.

A pleasant summer in Prince Rupert, so far. There is, of course, criticism. The latter is a necessity in the starting of small talk. How about temperature? We know, or should, that it controls human life. If it were increased by 400 degrees, there would be no water, lofty clouds would always obscure the sun and there would be no weather except wind. So, taking it all in all, let's be satisfied with what we have. It could be worse.

To date, internationally speaking, there has been no appeasement, and not likely to be. Had there been none, prior to 1939 there might have been peace.

Sneak Attacks On Canadian Cities

OTTAWA—Protection for the North Pacific Coast is being urged by Howard Green (PC—Vancouver Quadra), in view of the situation in Korea.

Addressing the Minister of Defence, Hon. Brooke Claxton, he said hostile planes could come across Siberia and Alaska at short notice. Edmonton and Vancouver, undoubtedly, would be bombed without warning, if they did come, he said.

Farewelled At Stewart

STEWART—Many Legion members and a few invited friends gathered at the Legion hall recently to bid farewell to President G. J. S. Anderson, manager of the local branch of the Bank of Montreal, who has been transferred to Enderby to manage that branch.

The affair started with a whisky drive. Mrs. V. Lupick won first prize for ladies and Mrs. M. G. Genge consolation. For the men I. Sodelev was high and C. P. Crouch low. After a bounteous supper, Master of Ceremonies J. Bouzek called on speakers and introduced the new manager and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Genge.

Mrs. F. Young, chairman of the village commission, expressed regret at the Andersons going and at the same time welcomed the couple, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Genge, who were to replace them.

Charles Lake spoke for the hospital board of which Mr. Anderson was treasurer, and Mrs. W. J. Crawford spoke for the Hospital Auxiliary, of which Mrs. Anderson was secretary-treasurer.

Other speakers were C. G. Tran, mining recorder; W. R. Toon, Board of Trade; Mrs. L. G. Behrens, P.T.A.; Mrs. J. McLeod, Legion W.A.

The speeches were interspersed with community singing led by J. Bouzek, who also spoke on behalf of the Canadian Legion.

Then Past President D. Norton was called upon to present the couple with a sterling silver sandwich plate, a token of appreciation from the Legion members for the work they have done for the Legion and the community as a whole.

On the call of "speech," Mr. Anderson expressed his regret at leaving Stewart, where he and his wife had found happiness right from the beginning and they had felt at home. He wished he could stay, but when duty called the best of friends must part. Mrs. Anderson followed in the same strain.

"For they are Jolly Good Fellows" and "Auld Lang Syne" concluded a memorable evening.

Here's The Quickest, surest way I know to make tender, beautifully set jams and jellies—use CERTO Fruit Pectin!

Certo is the natural substance in fruit that makes jams "jam" and jellies "jelly"—extracted, concentrated and conveniently bottled. Certo recipes use fruits at their choicest—fully-ripe, full-flavoured—and retain the precious flavour and tempting colour you lose by the long-boil method! (Certo recipes cut the boiling time to just 1 minute for both jams and jellies, and make up to 50% more jam or jelly from the same amount of fruit.) Yes, you can make thrifty use of this summer's fruits with Certo... and end all the guesswork by following exactly the recipes under the label of each Certo bottle!

Publisher Moves Out

H. E. Moore Saw History in Making at Whitehorse

After sixteen years as publisher of the Whitehorse Star which period encompassed the strenuous days of World War II when the community was changed from a sleepy jumping off point between White Pass railway trains and Yukon River boats to a transportation, distribution and military centre of prime importance in the prosecution of the war in the Pacific and has now become a thriving hub of activity for the north, boasting a permanent population of 4000 with the status of incorporated city, H. E. Moore passed through Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon on the Princess Louise on his way to Victoria where he will make his future home in retirement.

Mr. Moore admitted that his journalistic career at Whitehorse had left him financially secure and, after sixteen years of hard and strenuous life, he intended to settle down quietly and enjoy things. However, once a newspaperman, always a newspaperman, and he intends to keep fit by engaging in lifetime writing. And, after those historic years in the north, he has a wealth of background.

Mr. Moore has sold the Whitehorse Star to Thomas G. Bain, formerly of the Mainland Printers Ltd. of Vancouver and president last year of the Vancouver Junior Chamber of Commerce who has taken over as from June 1. Mr. Bain is a printer and all-round newspaperman.

When Mr. Moore went north in 1934 he found the Whitehorse Star a struggling four-page hand set sheet. Today it is a twelve-page job with a fully equipped mechanical and electrical shop employing six persons and expanding—so rapidly that a new building and even more equipment is needed.

An outstanding achievement of which Mr. Moore is justly proud was that of winning the Charters Cup in 1942 for being the best all-round weekly of its class in Canada. Mr. Moore says this was the only time that this distinction ever came west.

Having been incorporated as a city with territorial charter, Whitehorse will be having its first civic election on July 15 and much interest is already being taken in the contest. There will be a mayor and four aldermen.

Of the 4000 population of Whitehorse today, there are about 800 military personnel with many civilian workers.

A school population approaching 800 children has necessitated the building of a modern $600,000 school which is now in progress of construction.

But the outstanding project in the Yukon area these days, Mr. Moore says, is the new dam project.

U.N. Orders Armed Force

LAKE SUCCESS (C)—The United Nations embarked upon an historic venture yesterday by calling upon members to use military force to back up the cease fire order defied by Communist North Korea. The decision was taken late last night by the Russian boycotted Security Council a few hours after Truman announced the United States was ordering planes and ships to support the invaded republic of South Korea. The vote was seven to one, a minimum of the affirmative votes required. India and Egypt asked to be recorded as not participating because they had not received instructions. Yugoslavia cast the negative vote.
