REGINA PIPELINE TO BE IN FALL 1950, COMPANY SAYS

Oil should be flowing through the Regina line by the fall of 1950 and to the Superior, Wisconsin, by early in 1951, says the president of Interprovincial Pipe Line Co. today, following hearing of the application for a Regina-Gretna extension.

Construction is expected to employ between 1,000 and 1,500 men for about 150 days and work will probably be in progress at as many as 10 different locations along the line at the same time. Contractors' equipment involved at each point will probably be worth about $500,000.

Terminal facilities at Superior will include loading docks for lake tankers and it is expected that some 57,000 barrels a day will be shipped by tanker to Canadian refineries. As navigation on the Great Lakes is closed for about five months of the year, storage capacity for at least 1,000,000 barrels will be required at Superior, which will permit the steady accumulation of oil during the closed season.

Cost of constructing the line has been estimated at $85 million. An additional $5 million will be required as working capital, bringing the total projected cost to $90 million.

JOINT BRITISH-U.S. ANTI-RED POLICY MOOTED

WASHINGTON—Development of anti-communist policies by Britain and the United States in the Far East along largely parallel lines was forecast today by diplomatic authorities.

Their prediction was based on talks now under way between Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and State Secretary Dean Acheson. The two were believed to be in agreement, particularly that a peace treaty for Japan is long overdue.

There were no conclusions reported as to whether or not the western powers should now proceed to active work on drafting the Japanese treaty or without the active participation of Russia.

Don McAra, who has spent the last year working in Vancouver, returned to the city this afternoon on the Prince George.

GIVE-AWAY SHOWS GET TEMPORARY STAY ON AIR

CHICAGO—A federal judge blocked temporarily an order by the Federal Communications Commission banning radio "give-away" shows in the United States and the networks said they will continue the shows full blast until the courts finally settle the issue.

Judge Michael L. Igoe granted a temporary injunction against the F.C.C. on plea of Radio Features Inc., a Chicago firm that produces syndicated radio programs.

The restraining order will remain in effect until a three-judge federal court convenes on October 7.

FIRST CARGO DELIVERED TO SHELL TANKS

The Shell Oil Co. tanker Western Shell docked at the company's wharf near the grain elevator this morning to make initial delivery of 250,000 gallons of oil and gasoline to Shell's new storage facilities on the Morse Creek flats.

The vessel's arrival marks the final step in an expansion program which has resulted in the company entering the domestic, marine and industrial lubricant and fuel business in this city.

Under command of Capt. R. C. Laing, the tanker will remain here until Saturday afternoon before sailing south. She will be here during the local plant's official opening Friday afternoon.

Officials of the company who are due to arrive this week include N. Y. Knox, vice-president and general manager, who will arrive by boat Thursday, and G. E. McKinnon, assistant to the vice-president, and J. M. Courtwright, provincial retail sales manager, who will arrive by plane.

Aboard the Western Shell were H. L. Hinchcliffe, operations manager for the company, and R. M. Nicol, marine manager.

JERUSALEM PROPOSAL HITS TROUBLE
LAKE SUCCESS—A new United Nations proposal for international control of Jerusalem appeared today to be headed for trouble.

The plan was submitted yesterday for consideration in the 39-country assembly by the Palestine Conciliation Commission as the basis for peace in the Holy City.

U.N. delegates were reluctant to comment on the plan until they had time to give it more study, but informed quarters said that bitter opposition may be expected, at least from the Israeli government.

JET FLIES 3,600 MILES NON-STOP—Proving that jet planes are capable of sustained flight, this Gloucester Meteor set an endurance record of 12 hours continuous flight, flying 3,600 miles in that time. It refueled in the air by pipeline, shown centre, suspended by a "tanker" plane. The Gloucester pilot aimed the plane's snout at the funnel on the end of the pipe, took on fuel, kept on flying.

Improved Method Of Taking Oil From Coal Reduces Cost Factor

By NORMAN ALSTEDTER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

BRUCETON, Pa.,—United States government scientists have improved on the German methods of making oil from coal which were a vital factor in the strength of the Nazi war machine.

That is the claim of Dr. Henry H. Storch, chief of the research and development branch of the United States office of synthetic liquid fuels.

A present gasoline can be made from coal for only two cents more a gallon than gasoline produced from petroleum, Storch said. Methods are being improved and it is hoped to bring the cost down.

Storch made the estimate for a group of scientists, experts and administrators visiting the Bureau of Mines Laboratories here following the United Nations scientific conference. The visitors, from 41 countries, including Canada, are touring conservation projects in the eastern United States.

The $3,500,000 experimental plant here was built in 1947 to help ensure that, if United States petroleum supplies are cut off for any reason, the country's economic and military security will be backed by adequate methods of producing oil from coal.

Dwindling petroleum reserves in the United States have been a major spur to development of new processes.

Since the war they have improved the synthetic fuel processes to a point where the German methods now are obsolete, the department says.

Officials told the visiting scientists that the staff of 300 here will eventually "make available a potential reserve of synthetic gasoline and oil dwarfing all our other resources."

TO GET ELEVATOR RAINY RIVER, Ont.—A by-law approving construction of Rainy River's first grain elevator was approved recently. Eighty-two voters approved—and not one voter opposed it.

EDMONTON—Oil worker Angus MacDonald added further evidence to reports that Alberta is being invaded by rats. His jeep ran over a rat more than a foot long and weighing about six pounds.

ATTEMPT ON MOUNT ARARAT TO CONTINUE

SURBEHAN, Turkey—The party of Americans that made one attempt to scale Mount Ararat will try again. This time, they may be away longer and be favored with better weather. They say their objective is to try and determine, definitely and absolutely if anywhere on the vast peak can there be a trace of Noah's Ark.

So far, there is one story only recently disclosed, that originated at the time of the First Great War. There were pictures of amazing interest taken, and which might have led to astonishing developments but for the Russian revolution. Certain important reports and records were lost forever with the death of the Russian Royal Family.

According to this story, a White Russian, Vladimir Roskovitsky, in the Russian Air Force was stationed with his squadron 25 miles from Ararat. One day he took up a machine equipped with a super-charger to test altitude.

He circled the snow-capped mountain at 14,000 feet and then went into a long glide down its southern slope. Then, to his amazement, he saw, beneath him a ship "as long as a city block." It has stubby masts and the top was rounded over, as though its designer had expected the waves to roll over the top most of the time.

It was lying partly submerged in a lake and on one side was a "great doorway nearly twenty feet square"—where the animals went in two by two." This the pilot saw, according to the story and so did the observer, whose name is not given.

The airmen reported their discovery and made another visit to the scene with their captain who told them the strange ship was Noah's Ark, and that it had been buried in ice for 5,000 years. The captain in turn reported to his superiors and the Czar sent two companies of soldiers to climb the mountain and investigate. It took them a month of climbing and chopping, but they reached the ship, took exact measurements and many pictures, and sent them off to the Czar. Just then came the revolution in Russia—the records were never made public and probably were destroyed in the zeal of the Bolsheviks to discredit all religion and all belief in the truth of the Bible.

HELD IN ROBBERY—Lou Ward, alias Louis Molner, 27, faces six charges of jewelry theft and police are probing the possibility he may be the smooth-talking thief who charmed Vancouver social circles to pave the way for large-scale robberies. Ward, shown being led into a Toronto police station was arrested in a Toronto hotel Sunday as he answered the description of a man wanted by the Vancouver police in connection with several thefts including a $30,000 jewelry robbery. He is a former resident of Brantford, Ont. (C. P. Photo)

LOTTERY CHARGES ARE DISMISSED

VANCOUVER—Charges of conducting a lottery laid against four officials of the West Point Grey Community Association were dismissed by Magistrate MacKenzie Matheson in police court Monday.

The Magistrate said that he was not seeking to lay down rules in the case of lotteries and that his findings were not to be taken as a criticism of the police.

He said: "It was all done under the eyes of the police officers. At the last minute, when hundreds of citizens had bought tickets on the draw, the police stepped in."

CAPS CAPTURE SECOND GAME

YAKIMA—Lean, right-hander Bob Snyder—a 22-game winner this season—pitched the Vancouver Caplanos to a 3-2 win over the pennant-winning Yakima Bears last night in 10 innings.

The Cap victory gave the visitors a 2-0 edge in the five game final playoff series in the Western International League.

The third game will be played tonight in Vancouver.

President Roosevelt's Name Tied In With Syndicate Said To Have Used Mails Fraudently

'Prince Rupert Development Co.' Got B.C. Lands As Favor For Wartime Ship Deal

A man who tied in the name of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt with an apparently non-existent firm known as the Prince Rupert Development Company, was arrested today in Minneapolis and charged with mail fraud and the issuance of fraudulent stocks.

The man, identified as Ingwald S. Steensland, used Roosevelt's name to promote the sale of stocks in a company, which would develop a vast tract of land in British Columbia, rich in timber and coal, the American government charges.

Howard Gelb, assistant United States District Attorney, at Minneapolis, gave this account of Steensland's alleged operations:

The Minneapolis man operated a company, known as the Prince Rupert Development Company, which, Steensland claimed, was organized under a secret Canadian corporations act.

Steensland represented that after President Roosevelt in 1940 negotiated delivery of 50 over-age destroyers to Britain, Prime Minister Churchill wanted to "do something big" for Roosevelt.

And the President, in turn, wanted to do a favor for a friend in Chicago closely associated with Steensland's development firm.

So Churchill and the King, Steensland went on, got Parliament to convey title to a vast tract of British Columbia land rich in timber and coal, to a syndicate Steensland represented.

Gelb said that investors in Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota and some Canadian provinces lost more than $100,000.

A bench warrant was served on Steensland Tuesday. He was held under $2,000 bail.

(Responsible persons in Prince Rupert today were unable to find any company known as the Prince Rupert Development Company listed as owning property in this land district. Several early companies with names approximately the same were organized, but none of these has been recently active nor have any connection with Steensland's operations.)

BRITAIN MUM ON DEVALUATION SUGGESTION

WASHINGTON—Silence from Britain's monetary delegation indicated today that it has no present intention of yielding to pressure for devaluation of the pound.

Some United States officials at the fourth annual meeting of the World Bank and international monetary fund conceded that they can see no sign that Britain will give ground in the near future.

The fund's annual report poured on Britain the heaviest pressure to date—without mentioning either that country or its currency by name.

It invited the deficit countries—those like Britain which have critical dollar shortage—to increase their exports and their dollar earning capacity.

Vincent Massey is chairman of the Royal Commission on National Development in the Arts, Letters and Sciences. The commission will make a country-wide tour after it concludes its hearings in Ottawa. ROBESON PROTESTS AGAINST PROTESTERS—Paul Robeson was the picture of indignation as he spoke to reporters at a press conference, charging that state and city apparatus had assisted "in the acts of terror" that took place during the three-hour rioting at the scene of a scheduled concert near Peekskill, N.Y. Veterans of the American Legion, vets of Foreign Wars, Catholic war veterans and Jewish war veterans had staged a parade protesting the concert by Robeson, which was to benefit the Harlem branch of the Civil Rights congress, and clashed with Robeson supporters. Cars were overturned, one veteran was stabbed, and 13 people in all required hospital treatment.

Culture In Kilts

THE THIRD Edinburgh Festival recently opened with all the color of a Highland tartan against the gray of old stone walls.

The romantic beauty of Edinburgh, the austere beauty of Scotland itself, are the setting for this more-than-Scottish festival of music and drama to which European culture makes gala contribution. The handful of earth brought by the mayor of Athens to this "Athens of the North" symbolizes the universal spirit of art which finds a home among gray northern mists as well as on sun-drenched Mediterranean shores.

People far from Edinburgh, remembering traditional Scottish frugality and postwar British austerity, may feel a little of the thrill with which the people of that tight little island greet the wealth of talent and beauty unfolding prodigally through festival days. But travelers who have tasted of Scottish generosity in times past will find an appropriate symbol in the cab driver who refused to take payment from T. S. Eliot (arriving for the presentation of his new play) because to carry so famous a poet was reward enough in itself.

What Athenian festival of old could crown a poet with a finer wreath?

ATTENDANCE COUNTS

Editor Daily News:

I noted with interest Alderman Stone's remark appearing in last night's paper that Prince Rupert has as many or more churches per capita than any other city in Canada.

It might be well to mention that the number of churches a city contains has no bearing on the life of the community. It is the number of people who attend such churches and who from such attendance gain guidance in everyday life.

TERRACE KIN INSTAL OFFICERS

TERRACE — "Fellowship through Service" was the keynote of the address given by the installing officer, Mr. R. E. Montador, Northern district deputy governor of the Kinsmen Association at a banquet held in the Orange Hall on Saturday evening preceding the installation ceremonies. He noted that the Terrace Kinsmen had done a lot of work for such a small community and the members should feel that their activities have been worth while and that a need had definitely been fulfilled in the town.

He followed this with an explanation of Kinsmanship and admonished each officer to faithfully carry out their duties which he gave to them. Following the banquet a film was shown by Mr. George McAdams and a social evening ensued.

Visitors from Prince Rupert included besides Mr. and Mrs. Montador, H. Young, E. Garner, George Dibb, C. Barber and Bud Timmermeister. Two honorary members were welcomed by past president Mel Peeke Vout, Rawley Beecher and Mr. E. Haugland who was there with Mrs. Haugland. Mr. and Mrs. Macted, senior, of Ontario were also welcomed.

PLAN INVASION TO STOP GREEK BORDER WARFARE

ATHENS (AP)—Greece will invade Albania "in self defence" if any new attacks are launched by Communist guerrillas from the Albanian side of the border, a responsible Greek source said today.

He said that his country would notify the United Nations of its plan of action at the coming U.N. general assembly.

The source, a high-ranking delegate to the Assembly, said that Greece had decided on this action to put an end to guerrilla threat on the Greek-Albanian border.

The communist guerrillas, pushed farther and farther back from their former holdings in northern and western Greece are now using Albania as a jumping off point for counter thrusts.

The American-equipped and advised Greek army cannot get at the source of these rebel attacks because of its current observance of the border.

Francois Lake News

Mrs. Bernard Kirby entertained a few friends to tea on Tuesday afternoon at Southbank. Mrs. W. Antilla and her mother, Mrs. Robert Gordon of Prince Rupert were present. Mr. Gordon is also staying with Mr. and Mrs. Antilla and he and Mrs. Gordon will be returning shortly to Prince Rupert.

Jack and Virginia O'Meara are staying with Virginia's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Keefe. Their home is at Albreda.

Central Lakes District winners at the Vanderhoof fair on Monday were as follows: Grace Millar, first for best dressed cowgirl in the parade, Chuck Millar, first for wild cow milking, and best all-round cowboy. He was presented with a riding bridle. Bruce Snyder won first prize for steer riding, and Louis Nyder came in second. Matthew Nobles' riding was mentioned in last week's news.

The weather continues perfect and the farmers are working overtime to take advantage of it. Unfortunately frosts at night have commenced spoiling most of the flowers which were very late this year owing to the cold, wet spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindsay made a promise last year that they would attend Hugh Neave's wedding if he should ever get married. Since then they have moved to Quesnel so it seemed unlikely that they would be able to keep their promise. But on Saturday morning they drove into the Landing in their brand new Austin just in time to go to Burns Lake for the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller have a baby son—a brother for the other three boys and daughter.

Mr. Stanley, the post office inspector, has been visiting the post office on his annual inspection. He visited all the post offices in the district this year.

Donna Gardner of Smithers was a week-end visitor, having come with Mr. and Mrs. Fredrickson and Mr. and Mrs. McCone to stay at the Trailer Camp.

HALF OF JEWELS STILL MISSING

TORONTO (C)—A search of homes in Toronto, Brantford and Simcoe, Ontario has failed to uncover a cache of jewels stolen from British Columbia estates.

The cache is part of a haul believed stolen from the Glaspie estate in Vancouver. Diamonds valued at $6,000, from the Glaspie haul, were found early Monday in a safety deposit box here. Police are seeking the rest of the loot.

The contract has been taken to build a road to the Perlite Mine.

At a meeting in the school on Thursday evening it was decided to start a Parents and Teachers Association at Francois Lake. Right off, forty parents were interested and would join if the association were formed and six were chosen to study the literature and then call another meeting to form the Association with correct procedure.

Lakes Country Families Joined

Popular Young Francois Lake Couple Wed

A double ring ceremony was performed in St. John's Anglican Church, Burns Lake, at 2:30 on September 10 by Canon Hinchcliffe uniting in marriage Josephine Marie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Keefe of Francois Lake, and Hugh, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Neave also of Francois Lake Landing.

This marriage unites two well known Interior Lakes District families which have been close friends for many years. The groom is well known throughout the district as the Francois Lake taxi operator and helps his father in their store at the Landing.

The bride wore a nylon velour gown with sweetheart neckline, and floor length veil gathered into a Mary Queen of Scots headdress. The full skirt extended into a train. She carried a bouquet of dark red roses and white gladioli.

Entering the church on the arm of her father she was attended by her sister Virginia (Mrs. Jack O'Meara) as Matron of Honor who wore a turquoise gown and halo headdress. Her bridesmaid Anne Schreiber, wore a floor length gown of rose taffeta with flower headdress. The little flower girl, Iris Nixon, wore a floor length turquoise gown and wore a pink flowered headdress. The attendants carried colonial style bouquets.

The groom's brother, Peter Neave, was best man, and the ushers were John and Ralph Keefe.

The church was bright with cut flowers and was filled to capacity with friends and relatives some having travelled a long way to be present. Mrs. Saul sang the solo "I Love You Truly" during the signing of the register and Mrs. Gordon Williams presided at the organ.

After the ceremony the bridal party led the procession by car fifteen miles to the bride's home at the Landing. The weather was perfect with brilliant sunshine, and the lake was a deep blue. After numerous pictures were taken on the lawn all gathered in the Keefe residence where refreshments were served to seventy guests. The room was decorated with pink and white streamers and silver bells.

Tea was poured by Mrs. J. Reed and Mrs. C. E. Lobley, the bridegroom's aunt who is visiting from England.

The bride wore her gift from the groom a gold pendant with a ruby inset, her birthstone. Her gift to the bridegroom was a travelling kit. His gift to the matron of honor was a pair of cameo earrings, to the bridesmaid a pearl necklace, and to the little flower girl, a gold cross pendant.

After the toasts, Canon Hinchcliffe an old friend of Mr. and Mrs. Keefe, spoke for a few minutes and wished the young couple health and happiness and a long life together. Another old friend, T. P. Mulvany, spoke in the same strain. The cutting of the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake followed.

The numerous gifts had been arranged on tables for the guests to see. Telegrams had been received from England and Norway as well as from various parts of Canada.

Between four and five hundred attended the wedding dance in the hall in the evening. When the couple and their party entered the hall the orchestra played the Wedding March from Lohengrin. Then the orchestra struck up a dance tune and the party was surrounded with dancing couples. Dancing continued until 3 o'clock, when the couple left by car, expecting to be away two weeks.

As Josephine Keefe, the bride had the honor of christening the new Francois Lake Ferry last May.

ALL-OUT ATTACK
YORKTON, Sask. (C)—Peter Brown had only a .22-calibre rifle and an ax, but he killed a 350-pound bear three miles north of here. He chased the bear into a hangar at the Yorkton airport and caught the animal with 12 shots while Bruin climbed out a window. He finished off the ob with an ax blow on the head.

BUT CAN HE SPELL IT BACKWARD—Sir Tiruvayangudi Vijayaraghavacharya, known to his pals as Diwan, demonstrates that at least he knows how to spell his name, after his arrival at New York airport. As the representative of India, he is en route to Toronto, Ont., to attend the Commonwealth conference to be held there. The 73-year old diplomat lays claim to having the longest name in the world and if he hasn't, he's so close to it that no one would dispute him. He said his first name is the name of his village. "It means village of prosperous rice fields. Second name—Vijaya is a war cry; Ragha is the synonym for Rama, the great Indian conqueror; Vacharya is the name of the 14th century Hindoo religious leader."

"Someday" comes closer with every dollar you save

Most of us have to plan for the good things of life. And a big part of that planning is a matter of dollars and cents—of earmarking a certain part of our earnings for the things we want most. It's not always easy, especially these days. But the fact remains that what you save is still the most important—the most satisfying—part of what you earn.

Are you hoping for something...or saving for it?
