Apprenticeship Is Valuable

Local Employment Committee Meets With Official

At a special meeting of the local Employment Advisory Committee with Ted Ivay, Inspector of Apprenticeship for the Province, the whole question of apprenticeship and its application locally was discussed.

The situation with respect to the response of local youths to the value of apprenticeship was reported as very unsatisfactory. The boys preferred working for the higher wages offered for the unskilled laborer to working on the lower rate offered the apprentice but failed to see the far more beneficial results to be obtained in later years when, as qualified and certificated mechanics, they would earn the higher rates of wages and be assured of steadier employment. It was felt that a steady and continuous program of education was needed. The program should include the boys themselves, their parents, the employers, and even the journeymen in the various trades.

It was a matter of fact that, when there was so much unemployment in Vancouver last winter, most of it was among the unskilled workers. The lad who completed his apprenticeship was far more certain to be able to get work when employment was slack.

It was pointed out, however, that even an apprentice could not be blamed if he found that he was doing the same work as an unskilled worker but was getting only forty cents compared with the ninety cents or the dollar an hour that his companion was earning. It was felt that the disparity in wages was a strong deterrent to the apprenticeship system. However, it was also pointed out, that, in the case of a construction firm in Vancouver, all the present superintendents had been former apprentices.

Mr. Ivay gave figures to show the great extent of the apprenticeship system in the province. Four thousand certificates had been issued. Locally there were seven lads who were completing their terms and would be certificated mechanics. The value of the certificate was highly regarded by responsible employers. It was felt, however, that other firms in Prince Rupert could well undertake to train apprentices. It would be a very good investment for the employers and a contribution to the stability of the community. The over emphasis frequently placed on the white collar job was blamed for the failure of some youths to take up manual work. Yet very often the manual work was better paid and made a much greater contribution to the happiness of the individual.

On behalf of the local committee, chairman J. S. Wilson expressed the gratification of the members at Mr. Ivay's visit. He was glad to know that arrangements had been made to have Mr. Ivay speak to groups of employers and service clubs as well as to meet representatives of workers. It was only through the concerted actions of all that the apprenticeship movement could become successful and so provided the needed outpouring for the advance of the community.

Other members present were Mrs. Hunter, Robert McKay, J. S. Black, George Anderson, with E. Ivctor Whiting, local manager Unemployment Insurance Commission, and A. Waterman, secretary.

MR. WALTON VISITS WEST

WINNIPEG — On his way through Western Canada on a regular trip of inspection, N. B. Walton, C. B. E., executive Vice-President of the Canadian National Railways, was in Winnipeg and left for Calgary, Edmonton and other railway centres in the west accompanied by J. P. Johnson, vice-president for the region.

Speaking of the grain movement, Mr. Walton expressed satisfaction at its progress. "The out-turn appears to be a little better than we anticipated in many sections and the general movement appears to be rapid. At the head of the lakes yesterday I noticed that the shipping was keeping pace with the grain deliveries and things are moving quite satisfactorily," he said.

Mr. Walton said he was looking forward with keen anticipation to an inspection he proposed to make of the Redwater oil producing fields which he has not seen for some months.

Speaking of conditions in general, he stated there probably has been a flattening out in production in some lines, but generally business maintained a satisfactory level.

TRYING TO END STRIKE

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Prodred by the government, soft coal operators today moved to resume contract talks with John L. Lewis in an effort to end the mine strike now in its twentieth day.

A conciliation chief told Lewis and operators that "each day brings the United States closer to a crisis" as coal supplies shrink.

The operators made immediate overtures to Lewis to resume negotiations next Tuesday or Wednesday.

CANUCKS FAVOR MEAT OVER FISH

OTTAWA — Fishermen are probably unhappy but Canadians are primarily meat-eaters and are likely to remain that way. They don't necessarily dislike fish but they just prefer meat.

The federal Department of Fisheries announced today that Canadians last year ate an average of 135.3 pounds of meat. Then came poultry, eggs, and, finally, fish.

The average consumption of fish last year was 12.2 pounds.

Cloudiness has spread to the southern coast ahead of the storm this morning and will persist for the next 48 hours. However, no general rainfall is expected over the southern coastal region until later tomorrow.

BOARD SIGNS SCHOOL BYLAW

An elated group of school trustees last night gave their final approval to a money bylaw aimed at raising $67,000 as the rural portion of the $407,515 district cost of the new school building program which was passed by a wide margin in the ratepayers' plebiscite Thursday.

The city's school bylaw, which was put to the ratepayers simultaneously by the city council, must receive its final consideration and approval by that body. It probably will be done at Monday night's council meeting. The city bylaw asked authority to borrow $340,000 for the project.

School Board Chairman Dr. R. G. Large signed the rural bylaw after he and other Board members had expressed gratification at the support received from organizations and individuals in putting the need for new schools before the people.

Trustee A. Bruce Brown moved that the document be signed by Dr. Large, have the Board's seal affixed by Secretary Mrs. M. M. Roper, and then sent to the provincial Superintendent of Education for certification.

Legitimate objections to the bylaw must be placed before the provincial Department of Education within 30 days of its certification in order for an appeal against the ratepayers' wishes to be considered.

Final architects' drawings of the new Booth unit and the King Edward school replacement will be started at the conclusion of the appeal period. Construction is expected to begin early next year.

"There are so many people who act as if they don't care about the bylaw that it would be impossible to express our thanks individually," Dr. Large said, "but we certainly would like to know that we appreciated their support."

Capital Is About To Be Moved To Chungking

CANTON (CP)—The Chinese began fleeing from Canton today as the front to the north showed signs of caving in under pressure of the attacking Red armies. Diplomats say that they expect to hear Monday that the nationalist capital is being moved to Chungking, wartime capital of western China. Today Kung, anchor city, only 125 miles north of Canton, yielded without a fight.

New York Yankees Take Solid Two-Game Lead

Record-Breaking Rally in Sixth Fails to Save Day for Brooklyn—6 to 4 Score

EBBETS FIELD—A seven-hit (five of them in a row record) batting splurge for Brooklyn Dodgers in the sixth inning failed to overcome a six-run deficit, piled up between fourth and fifth innings by the Yankees, and New York today went into the driver's seat in the 1949 World Series with a three to one lead in games. The score was 6 to 4.

After the Yankees had scored three runs on four solid hits, three of them for extra bases, in the fourth inning, Pitcher Joe Hatton, who had replaced Don Newcombe on the mound for the Dodgers, made a tactical blunder in the fourth by failing to back up Third Baseman Eddie Miksis in preventing a double steal and the three runs which ensued were ample to see the Yankees through.

Hitting star of the game was Third Baseman Billy Brown of the Yankees with three-bagger, two-bagger and a single. He was largely responsible for the Yankee victory.

Eddie Lopat, showing beautiful control, pitched a cool and effective game for the Yankees until the sixth inning when he ran into the Brooklyn barrage. Allie Reynolds took over to put out the fire and hold the Dodgers completely at bay.

Don Newcombe pitched 3 2/3 innings for Brooklyn, Joe Hatton, 1 1/3, Carl Erskine, 2/3 and Jack Banta, 3.

Eddie Lopat pitched 5 2/3 innings and Reynolds finished. Lopat was credited with the win.

Fifth inning, Henrich was walked. Barra singled. Henrich got on third and Barra on second when Hatton held the ball. Miksis being charged with an error. DiMaggio was purposely walked. Brown's triple scored Henrich, Barra and DiMaggio. Woodling was fielded. Hank Bauer, batting for Mapes, went out on a fly ball to centre field. Coleman was out, short to first.

Sixth Inning, Reese was safe when DiMaggio fell down while running for a fly. Billy Cox (pinch-hit for Miksis) singled, Reese to second. Rizzato took Snyder's grounder. ## Pray Tomorrow

WE THINK it very worthwhile to commend to the support of all citizens of Prince Rupert, regardless of denominational affiliation, the mass prayer meeting which our good Catholic friends are holding tomorrow afternoon in the Civic Centre. In their current campaign, it is quite evident that the Catholics are earnestly concerned about the falling away from spiritual association with God and have, therefore, started this crusade.

As for ourselves, we would say it matters not so much where you pray—with the Catholics, with the Protestants, with the Salvation Army or any of the non-denominational or ind denominational—so long as you pray. Maybe, or a lot of us, it would be a good thing to start or re-start with the Catholics tomorrow and sustain our prayers in our own way. We note the thousands that have joined with the Catholics in the large cities of Canada—35,000 in Vancouver, 50,000 in Winnipeg—and we think Prince Rupert would do well to follow suit. It cannot but be all for the good.

THANKSGIVING DAY

IT'S A FAR CRY from the days of ancient Rome to the modern Thanksgiving Day, which Canada celebrates for the 71st time next Monday.

When Autumn came to Rome's Empire, pagan Caesars looked on while the Roman mob carried cornucopias brimming with fruits and flowers to celebrate the bounty of their Mediterranean fields and orchards. Now Canadian children watch pop-eyed as steaming turkeys and pumpkin pies are set before them, celebrating an even more benevolent harvest in North America.

Rome's thanks were offered to a galaxy of pagan gods—one of whom was Caesar himself. The modern Thanksgiving Day has a deeper religious significance, stemming from both Christian and Jewish faiths.

The religious basis of the celebrations was voiced in Canada by the Marquis of Lorne, former governor-general, who on Nov. 6, 1879, called on Canadians "to attend church and give thanks for the blessings with which Canada has been favored during the year."

Since the first official pronouncement of the holiday in Canada in 1879, the date of the holiday has been often changed.

After the First World War and up until 1930, it generally fell on Armistice Day, Nov. 11. The Thanksgiving holiday did not revert to an early Monday in October until 1931. The actual date is now set by order-in-council.

NOW FOR BETTER SCHOOLS

THE TAXPAYERS of Prince Rupert are to be congratulated on their emphatic approval of the money bylaws providing for the construction of two new school buildings. There will be no cause to regret the decision, we are sure.

As some of those who might not have been so enthusiastic about the school bylaw said, there are plenty of other things that the city needs such as streets, waterworks and sewer improvements and telephones. Nobody disagrees with that. However, there might be some things that are more badly needed than others.

Taxpayers, evidently, decided that schools were as badly, if not more badly needed, than anything else.

Our educational facilities are something that must be maintained and, through lack of adequate buildings, they certainly have not been maintained these last several years in the way they should be. Lack of water, sewers and streets, if not telephones, might make a city unliveable. Certainly lack of schools could.

Fortunately now the passage of the bylaws gives the green light to take a solid move ahead in rectifying Prince Rupert's educational deficiencies.

SATURDAY SERMON

SECOND COMING DUE

(By PASTOR C. FAWCETT, Full Gospel Tabernacle)

In St. Matthew we find these words: "But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and knew it not until the flood came, and took them all away, so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be."

We are living in momentous days. Everybody realizes that One does not know from one day to the next what is going to happen. The international situation is by all means uncertain. There are wars and rumors of wars. There is famine on every hand. Men's hearts are failing them because of fear. This old world is on the threshold of one their personal Saviour might look up when they see these things come to pass for they will know that their redemption draweth nigh. There are many signs that are passing before our very eyes daily which point emphatically to this event. One of them is earthquakes this world is experiencing; more earthquakes now than at any other time in the history of the world. Why? Because the COMING OF THE LORD DRAWETH NIGH. Men shall be lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God. Isn't this quite evident today? And as we read in the scripture above they shall be eating and drinking marrying, and giving in marriage. What do we see before our very eyes? Men and women drinking themselves to death. They have to have the bottle wherever they go. Stand on a street in this city and watch the number that go into the liquor store—men and women from all walks of life patronize it. The thing that causes more broken homes, more heart aches to wives and to children, more sickness and sorrow than anything else in this world. I was talking to a man just three weeks ago from Sacramento, California. This man has travelled much from Texas to the Canadian border. He told me "I have never seen so much drunkenness and brawls anywhere as I saw on the."

Why Pray To Virgin

(By MOST REV. ANTHONY JORDAN, O.M.I.)

No one who believes in God and in the difficulty in understanding why Christians pray to their Father in Heaven and to But there are many who simply cannot why anyone else in Heaven or on earth recipient of our prayers. A special difficulty is seen in the Catholic practice of praying to the Virgin Mary. An attempt will here be made to deal with this difficulty.

Let us begin by recalling that it is not uncommon to give the name of "body" to a number of persons who are banded together under an authority for a particular purpose. But, when we speak of Christians as the "body of Christ," the term is used in a special sense to indicate a unity far more intimate far more real, than that which it commonly designates. The bond that unites the members of any human society can never be other than external. Each member lives his own life and the only sense in which he can be said to be one with his fellow-members is that, in common with them, he desires the same end and is subject to the same authority. But the bond which unites the members of the body of Christ is an internal bond, a vital bond. The members of Christ are one with Christ and with each other—in the sense that each lives the same supernatural life of grace which he receives from the Head of the body, the living Christ. The intimacy and vitality of this bond are expressed by Our Lord Himself when He says: "I am the vine; you are the branches. He that abideth in Me and I in him the same beareth much fruit: for without Me, you can do nothing. If anyone abide not in Me, he shall be cast forth as a branch, and shall wither."

The Family that Prays Together - Stays Together

MESSAGE FROM MAYOR ARNOLD

I am very pleased to be given the opportunity to endorse the appeal being made during the forthcoming crusade to encourage family prayer in the home.

One of the greatest evils that follow in the train of any war is the breakdown of family life and the consequent breakdown of morality among its victims.

The basic foundation of our nation, our cities and our villages is the family life of its members and any movement to stimulate the spiritual reunion of families within the home, is a step forward in the progress of our people, and provides another weapon in the battle against the forces of evil rampant in the world.

I urge that all heads of families give serious consideration to this crusade.

NORA E. ARNOLD,

streets of Prince Rupert." This, my friends, was only three weeks ago. Yes, men shall be eating and drinking as never before at the time of the COMING OF THE SON OF MAN. Then there is another sign that is very prevalent today, that of marrying and giving in marriage. If there is one thing that is looked upon very lightly today it is the sacred act of marriage. Divorce is on the increase continually. It is nothing in the sight of men to be married several times but in the sight of God it is a serious offence. The fact that men and women are marrying and giving in marriage as never before is another inevitable sign that the SECOND COMING OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST IS ALREADY AT THE DOOR.

I can almost hear some of you say: "I don't believe that stuff at all." It does not make any difference if you don't. It won't change things at all. The fact of the matter is that it is so and this event will take place.

Others may ask: "Well, what has that to do with me?" It will make all the difference, for when the Lord Jesus comes He will take only those who are looking for His appearing out of this world and immediately this world will be ushered into a time of tribulation, known as the Great Tribulation, during which time the wrath of God will be poured out as never before. So terrible will be the wrath that men and women will cry, for the rocks and the mountains to fall upon them. My friends, when this time comes upon the earth, man's opportunity to be saved will be forever passed. Man, if he is going to find God, must seek Him while He may be found. Man must determine His eternal destiny while in this life. The scripture says that it appointed unto man once to die then the judgment. How shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? Jesus said: "Marvel not that I say unto you ye must be born again." The way of salvation is very clearly outlined in the scripture. Why not get right with God today and know that your name is written down in the Lamb's book of life.

WHY PRAY?

Catholic Church does not look upon the Virgin Mary as a goddess. She is a creature. An infinite distance separates her from the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. She has no grace, no virtue, no privilege which she does not owe to God. It is as true of her as of every other human being, that, without God, she can do nothing. His might, His power, His love made her what she is; it was from His bounty that she received the signal privileges that make her the most glorious representative of the human race. Although the Catholic prays to her and seeks her favor, he knows that the Virgin Mary can do more than plead his cause before her Divine Son.

Yet in the sphere of excellence obtainable by a creature, how outstanding, how majestic she is! First of all, she alone of all the children of Adam was conceived immaculate. You know that through Adam's fall every one born into this world comes burdened with the effects of original sin. For a period of our lives until Baptism, we are utterly without God's grace—AM, except the Virgin Mary, who through a singular privilege, was exempt from the common lot of mankind. This is her first title to greatness. Not only that, however, but hers was emphatically the path of the just and sinlessness in thought, word and deed, in small things and in great, attended her until she breathed her last breath. As the poet Wordsworth puts it, she is the "Mother whose virgin bosom was uncorrupted"

By the least shade of thought to sin allied,
Woman above all women
Corrupted,

This unrivalled virtue in itself would make her worthy of our admiration. If we pay homage to patriots, if we honor heroism, if we recognize achievement, surely this woman who is the very embodiment of goodness has a special claim on our admiration. We all know the constancy, the strength of character that are needed if we are to persevere in well-doing. Only all too often, we have to admit that, in spite of our goodwill, we fall short of the perfect accomplishment of duty to God. Here is a woman, who, from first to last, was without fault, entirely without blame.

However, the Virgin Mary was called to fill a unique role in the world. We Christians, believe that the Divine Son of God became Man. He was God from all eternity but He was born a babe in Bethlehem. He had a mother and that mother was the Virgin Mary. Here is another reason why she is entitled to honor. She is the Mother of God. She must have been of singular worth to have been chosen from all the women of the world to be the mother of the Redeemer.

Is it any wonder that we believe and know she is able to intercede with God on behalf of those living on earth? The Bible tells us that if a man or a worshiper of God and do as will, God will hear him and if the continual prayer of a just man availeth much, if patient Job was able to have his prayers heard because he had spoken right things before God, why should we wonder on hearing that Mary, the Mother of God, should have influence in heaven? Let me say again that no attribute to the Virgin Mary any power of her own and the prayer which we constantly say to her is proof of it: Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us, sinners, now and at the hour of our death."

In conclusion let me give you

HANDS UP, THUMBS DOWN—These delegates to the annual convention of the Canadian Congress of Labor at Ottawa may have their hands up but they are turning thumbs down on the left-wing elements in the organization. the testimony of an unbiased witness. John Ruskin, the famous English critic, wrote:

"There has probably not been an angelic cottage throughout the length and breadth of Europe, during the whole period of Christianity, in which the immaculate presence of the Madonna has not given sanctity to the humblest quies and comfort in the sorest trials of life. Every bright and lofty achievement of the arts and chivalry of manhood—nay, every golden deed performed which is recorded in the writings or traditions of the nations—has been the fulfillment of the assured prophecy of the Israelite maiden: 'From henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.' After the most careful examination neither as friend or as adversary, I am persuaded that the worship of the Madonna has been one of Catholicity's most noble and vital graces, and has never been otherwise than productive of true holiness of life and purity of character."
