

Need of Coastguard Stressed At Ottawa

Fisheries Inspection To be Made Stricter

OTTAWA (CP)—Members from the Atlantic and Pacific coasts had their day in the House of Commons yesterday. They had the floor practically to themselves as they debated legislation providing for closer inspection of fish products and discussed the need for improved life-saving services in Canada's shipping lanes.

SAFETY IS NEGLECTED?

OTTAWA (CP)—The Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees (T.L.C.) charged today that Canadian railways are violating safety regulations laid down by the Board of Transport Commissioners and the railways themselves.

The Brotherhood asked the Board to order the railways to increase the number of sectionmen on the railways and said that "present conditions of under-employment seriously jeopardize the safety of the travelling public."

The application of the Union will be heard by the Board on Monday.

TEACHERS' PRESIDENT

F. R. Wright was elected president at the regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert and District Teachers' Association. Other officers are:

Vice President, J. B. Densmore
Secretary, Mrs. B. Andrews
Treasurer, J. Oldham
Executive—F. R. Wright, J. B. Densmore, R. D. Cleland, S. A. Cheeseman, Miss N. Irving and Mrs. B. Andrews.

Elected as members of the Northern British Columbia District Council were F. R. Wright and R. D. Cleland.

On relinquishing the post of president, R. D. Cleland gave a report of the local association's activities during the past year and dealt briefly with the work of the Provincial Executive at the meeting which he attended in Vancouver in September.

Chairman of the Association's convention committee, A. M. Hurst gave a report on transportation difficulties in and out of Prince Rupert and expressed the view that it should be feasible to arrange transportation from outlying points if a convention were held.

The President-elect welcomed the replacement teachers to the meeting and asked that active support be given by everyone to the Association's plans for 1949-50.

Second reading—approval in principle—was given the fish inspection bill, and it was given to the standing committee on marine and fisheries.

Fisheries Minister R. W. Mayhew suggested that first reading in committee be postponed until November 7 to give representatives of east and west coast fishing industries time to come here and make representations. The legislation would tighten and clarify the government's power to carry out firm inspection at all stages.

Auto Strike Deadlocked

OSHAWA (CP)—Strike of 5,200 General Motors workers over claims of an assembly line speed-up attempt by the management is stalemated. Hopes of bringing the union and company together for settlement talks appear to rest upon Labor Minister Daly of Ontario. Such a conference is suggested by the United Automobile Workers (CIO) which called the strike on Wednesday.

The strike is causing anxiety to 20,000 residents of this city, thirty miles east of Toronto, whose business and industrial life centers on the General Motors main industry which draws supplies from smaller plants in the area.

Loss of production of automobiles is 360 per day.

Conservative Organization

TO BE PRINCIPAL TOPIC OF DISCUSSION AT SESSIONS OF PARTY HIERARCHY

OTTAWA (CP)—First meeting of the hierarchy of the Progressive Conservative party since the general election of June 27 will be held here Monday and Tuesday. The session will bring together the executive of the Progressive Conservative Association of Canada.

The group is largely responsible for the party's organization and, to some extent, for policy. Discussions will be held in camera but party headquarters have disclosed one of the main items of business will be the question of party organization.

Sheer Delight—Miss Grescoe Captivating

Fresh Youthful Personality Accentuates Talents of Rising Visiting Artist

Fresh, youthful charm of a rising young star of the concert stage combined with her remarkable technique and facility of tonal interpretation combined to make the violin recital of Donna Grescoe at the Civic Centre auditorium last night as delightful an entertainment of its kind as has ever been presented in Prince Rupert. An audience of about four hundred persons was completely captivated and was ready to agree with critics who are predicting for this willowy Winnipeg girl a great career in the world of music.

With a tense yet gentle air, Miss Grescoe lives her music. At times, according to the theme, she seems to become virtually submerged and completely oblivious of her surroundings. When the subject and the tempo quickens, she becomes vivid and dynamic. Her poise, her pleasing smile, her girlish manner all add to her charm but do not diminish the realization of her skill and perfect artistry. The agility of her bow and fingering match the finely developed tonal and interpretative quality of her playing.

To those of less classical perception, the early part of Miss Grescoe's program was somewhat lofty. She chose numbers of high technical character in which she was able to exemplify her remarkable powers of sheer skill and timing. These numbers were Fritz Kreisler's "Praeludium and Allegro," Edvard Grieg's "Sonata in C Minor, Opus 45" (Allegro molto ed appassionato, Allegretto espressivo alla Romanza and Allegro animato), the first section concluding on a spirited note with the prelude, adagio and finale of Max Bruch's "Concerto in G Major."

It was after the intermission that Miss Grescoe won the hearts and the enthusiastic approbation of her audience. After substituting Vieux Temps' "Ballade and Polonaise" for Saint-Saens' "Introduction et Rondo Polonaise," she went on into lighter vein with a "Song Without Words" by Mendelssohn-Kreisler. It was William Kroll's musical conversation, an agile alternation of pizzicato and vigorous bowing, that captivated the listeners. F. Pollak's "Le Canari," with warbling harmonics skilfully employed to depict the song bird's moods, was another ovation-winning selection.

Ottawa Is Putting Up Over Million Dollars For P.G.E. Completion

OTTAWA (CP)—The government said today it will ask Parliament to authorize subsidies of up to $1,240,000 for the completion of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway from Quesnel to Prince George. Hon. Lionel Chevrier, minister of transport, gave notice on the House of Commons order paper and will introduce a resolution preliminary to a bill asking Commons for the money.

The subsidy will be $15,000 a mile for a maximum of 32.7 miles. There was no mention of aiding in completing the southern end of the railway, owned by the British Columbia government, from Squamish, the southern terminus to Vancouver.

Completion of the northern link is estimated at $10,000,000. The railway has been mentioned as part of a railway link from United States to Alaska and earlier this month the United States Congress authorized President Truman to begin negotiations with Canada for construction of the new line.

PURGE IN POLAND
WARSAW — At least three vice-ministers, whose names are being withheld, have been dismissed in a widespread purge of Polish public life following disclosure in Hungarian treason trials of alleged existence of an espionage network in eastern Europe.

NEHRU ARRIVES—Ottawa officialdom turned out en masse to give elaborate, formal welcome to India's Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru. The welcome including a 19-gun salute, was the most glittering accorded a visitor to Canada since President Truman visited the Dominion two years ago. Premier Nehru addressed a joint session of the Commons and the Senate during his three day visit to the capital. ### Victoria Labor Council Would Give Control of Radio to Commission

Profit Motive Should Not Be Permitted to Rule Broadcasting in This Country
VICTORIA (CP)—Complete control of Canadian radio by the Canadian Broadcasting Co. was advocated yesterday by the Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council, A. P. Rayment, council secretary, told the Royal Commission on Arts, Letters and Sciences.

Canada does not want the profit motive to rule radio in this country as it does in the United States.

The Labor Council brief was one of eight presented at the first two-day session here. The Commission will complete its hearing here today and move back to Calgary and Regina.

The brief said that the Canadian Broadcasting Commission's control should include "right to take over privately-owned stations."

President Truman, However, Impounds Congress Air Force Appropriation
WASHINGTON D. C. (CP)—President Truman today signed the largest military appropriation in peacetime history of the United States but impounded an item of $815,000,000 which it carries to build up the air force to 58 groups. The measure carries a total of $15,585,863,498 for operation of the Army, Navy, Air Corps and Marines.

In a statement, the President said that the action of Congress in increasing funds for the Air Force beyond his budget recommendations "could have serious effect on our ability to maintain balanced military forces in subsequent years." He declared that the larger air force insisted upon by the House of Representatives would be "inconsistent with a realistic and balanced security program which we can support in peacetime."

Basketball

IN THESE DAYS of worry and uncertainty, it is fitting that a lot of us should turn our attention to complete diversion on occasion as a tonic so that we may be refreshed and invigorated for the serious tasks at hand.

Keeping scores of young folk busy in active play and attracting the interest and enthusiasm of thousands of spectators, basketball has long since been the leading winter sport in Prince Rupert, providing wholesome and healthy diversion for a large section of the population, both old and young.

And our success in provincial competition has also brought us a measure of good publicity in spite of the fact that we may feel the Vancouver press has been inclined to play us down some times.

Yes, without basketball through the long winter months, Prince Rupert would be a dull place.

So, all out tonight!

OUR RADIO CASE

THE CASE for Prince Rupert and the central interior district for better and more readily available radio broadcasting service has been ably presented in the comprehensive brief of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia to the Royal Commission on Development of Arts, Letters and Sciences.

The brief asks for setting up of booster stations at Vanderhoof, Burns Lake, Smithers and Terrace so that network programs may be received by the sets in those immediate areas, also that the full network programs be broadcast from the stations at Prince Rupert and Prince George.

The authorities have given the excuse that lines were not available to meet requests of this kind in certain parts of Canada but certainly that cannot be said for Prince Rupert and the central interior since the lines are already here and all that is necessary is to have the authority to limit the programs from the transmitters.

Probably no more reasonable requests have been made to this commission than those from the Associated Boards of Central B. C. and we have no doubt that they will be passed along with a blessing.

ALUMINUM DEAL

THOSE WERE rather serious charges that Senator Thomas Reid made in connection with the negotiations between Aluminum Co. of Canada and the provincial government for water power rights in British Columbia. They are of particular concern to this part of the country which has been counting upon the establishment of an aluminum industry to play a prominent part in the impending industrial development of the area.

We suppose that Senator Reid has been very careful of his ground before making charges which cannot but help to have an adverse effect upon the fruition of the whole project.

Doubtless, the provincial government itself will have something to say about the matter to throw a different angle of light on the impression which has been left by Mr. Reid.

IT WORKS TOO—With an old Model T generator, a 12-volt storage battery, $35 and several evening's work, Walter Foster of Toronto built this electric car for his three-and-a-half-year-old daughter, Barbara. Here Mr. Foster checks over the power plant while Barbara the envy of her playmates, looks on.

SATURDAY SERMON

JESUS WENT ABOUT

(By Rev. Lawrence G. Sieber, First United Church)

Cornelius invited Peter to come to his house and talk with him and his friends. Peter was impressed by the reception given him and by the eagerness of the household to hear what he had to say. So Peter started where anyone of us would start with experience. He noted how they, not being Jews, desired to know the Gospel. He spoke of the things they knew and then talked of Jesus 'who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed of the devil.'

This is what Jesus did. There was nothing very startling about it all. He simply did ordinary things out of kindness and concern for his fellows. People are ordinary and their needs are so common. God, who made man in his own image desired for his children the best things. Seeing they needed an example more than many things God sent Jesus into our world and he went about doing good.

Jesus didn't stay at home all the time. He went about. His idea of the religious life was not to live apart from his people. The monastic idea is incomplete. We must mix with others, else man of her meetings in Rossland before a Communist party was ever heard of in the United States or in Canada. She was at that time organizer of the Independent Workers of the World (IWW) and led the free speech fight in Spokane in 1909. A crusader and comrade of "Big Bill" Haywood, she was known in those days as "Joan of Arc, girl orator." At the same time W. W. B. McInnis, later a judge and now police magistrate in Vancouver, was a boy orator. It seems such a short time ago. GEORGE E. CASEY.

Ray Reflects . . . and Reminisces

Soviet Russia is subscribing for papers published in Northern British Columbia, and presumably, in Alaska as well. We can see picture Uncle Joe, at the end of a hard day, long boots off and with pipe drawing freely, sitting back getting the low down on weddings, basketball, council meetings and personal notes in Prince Rupert and such places.

Someone, posing as an alarmist, asks nervously what has become of all the women? Speaking offhand we'll say all that's needed to bring the situation back to normalcy is a dozen or so honest to God bargain sales and a few weeks of clear and sunny weather. There will be a gal every ten or fifteen feet.

The heaviest twenty-four hour rainfall in the history of the British Columbia coast, according to official records, took place on November seventeenth 1917. This happened at Pr----- No, not there. It occurred at Swanson Bay.

It was not until J. C. Sykes of South Carolina was carving meat, the other day, that he discovered Nature had intended him for a surgeon, instead of just another butcher. The knife slipped and he cut an incision that was perfect for the removal of his appendix. That organ was removed, there being no vital reason or it, and anyway it would have been a crime to allow such a flawless incision to have healed without being put to use. And as for Mr. Sykes? Well, he can't help feeling just a bit superior to all other butchers of his acquaintance.

Familiar Kriesler pieces "Liebeslied" and "Liebesfreud," brought the program to a fine conclusion and Miss Grescoe then met the demand for more with a lucid rendering of Schubert's "Ave Maria."

There was a second outstanding artist on the stage in the person of her eminent accompanist, Leopold Mittman, one time colleague of Fritz Kreisler and a pianist of primary rank.

Throughout the program his complementing and support of Miss Grescoe and his resourceful understanding were to be noted. There was a tangible expression of appreciation when little Anita Rogerson gracefully presented Miss Grescoe with a beautiful bouquet of carnations as the audience expressed its approval of the gesture by their applause.

The usherettes for the evening were the Misses Honora Silver-sides, president of the Women's Business and Professional Club Mrs. S. J. Hunter, Miss Frances Cross, Miss Joan Cross, Miss Evy Rivett, Miss Frances Partridge and Miss Netta McLeod.

Following the concert, members of the Civic Centre executive and the Women's Business and Professional Club, which assisted in the presentation, entertained Miss Grescoe and Mr. Mittman in the ladies' lounge. This morning, Mayor Nora Arnold was their hostess before they left by plane on their return to Vancouver.

that one, and finally returned to their own gate. "When shall we begin to preach?" asked the brother. "My child," said Francis, we have been preaching as we were walking, we have been seen, looked at, our behaviour noticed and so we have delivered our morning sermon. It is no use that we preach anywhere unless we preach as we walk! There is need today for good preachers. But there is a far greater need for Christian living—for men and women and youth who by life and character tell others that they have been with Jesus, and learned of him. Jesus went about doing good, ways burning itself out, but it catches fire again every time a child is born—G. B. Shaw.

Now that the novelty of being President has worn off and there is no necessity to court goodwill, Mr. Truman is becoming irritated with the press of the United States. It's like that, sometimes. Perhaps he is unable to recall it was a newspaperman who steered him into national politics in the first place and that a friendly press had something to do with landing him in Washington in the last election. And incidentally it might be said the press can be critical, without being unfriendly, which is worth remembering—by a public servant as well as private citizen.

Mr. Wright, as chairman, gave a report on the right of teachers to hold public office and stated that active support had been given to this movement locally by Alderman Whalen who had taken the matter up with his fellow council members. However, the move had received only partial support at the Union of B.C. Municipalities gathering held recently. Association members agreed that the Prince Rupert and District Teachers' Association should continue pressing strongly for the right of teachers to hold public office.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a public hearing will be held at the office of the Workmen's Compensation Board, 411 Dunsmuir Street, Vancouver, B.C., on November 3rd, 1949, at 10 A.M. for the adoption of revised regulation for the prevention of accidents in the LOGGING INDUSTRY which comes within the scope of the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Large Salmon Pack Stored at Ocean Dock
Fishing at Low Ebb—Shrimp Fishery Active in Small Way

The major portion of the ocean dock has become a repository for the bulk of the season's salmon pack of Nelson Bros. cannery, waiting shipment to Vancouver and its ultimate market. The salmon—about 100,000 cases of it—has been brought gradually to the big dockside warehouse for labelling and will be shipped south during the season as the demand requires.

The western section of the dock, which has been walled off for use as a bonded warehouse, contains a relatively small quantity of American canned salmon, and in that, it presents a different picture than it did a year ago when heavy shipments were arriving from the north for temporary storage here while in transit to the United States.

So far, shipments of Alaskan salmon through this port have been very light, compared with a year ago when some 2,000,000 cases were bonded here at various times. However, the picture may change before the year ends.

The Alaska Steamship Co. motorship Lucidor, arrived here last night to deliver 20 carloads of frozen halibut from the north. The Lucidor, under command of Capt. C. E. Trondsen, is enroute to Bellingham with cargo of canned salmon.

Right now, the fishing industry is at a record low as far as activity is concerned. Weather, combined with closure of the salmon season in the whole northern area, has laid up all but a few of the harder fishermen. A few boats—among them Capt. Ben Peterson's Lois N., are out after black cod, but they have largely been in shelter, instead of on the grounds due to the seasonal storms. Four or five beam trawlers are making spasmodic efforts to fish, but they too have been bringing in small catches.

There is some activity in the shrimp fishery in the harbor. E. Olsen is working the shrimp beds near Galloway Rapids and is aided in his efforts by the recently developed mechanical shrimp sorter which the Pacific Biological station has placed in these parts for test operation. It is mounted on a Co-op scow and is said to be working satisfactorily. The machine, a revolving grilled iron drum with several refinements, sorts out the shrimp for size, from prawns down, leaving the immature crustaceans to be returned to the water to grow to commercial size.

Frank Watrouse freighter Chilliwack, Capt. G. Pangell, docked here late Friday afternoon from Watson Island, where she unloaded general cargo for Columbia Cellulose, and took on a quantity of lumber at the Philpott, Evitt dock for delivery to Hartley Bay. Later, she will call at Ocean Falls to unload the balance of the load which she brought from Vancouver.

Union steamer Camosun, Capt. Harry McLean, is making a determined effort to meet the 2 o'clock Friday arrival time which has been set by the company on her run from Vancouver. Yesterday, she docked here at 2:15 with a fair-sized list of passengers and company agent Frank Skinner thinks that despite stops at Westview, Bella Bella, Butedale and Watson Island, she will be able to meet the schedule and provide comparable service to other passenger vessels which make fewer stops. With a light passenger list, the Camosun sailed for Masset Inlet ports at 10 o'clock last night and will return Sunday afternoon enroute back to Vancouver, sailing at 9 p.m.

The Shell Oil Co. tanker Western Shell, which now makes deliveries to Prince Rupert, where a new branch of the company was established in September received some bottom damage this week when she went aground during a fog in Vancouver harbor. Fog is one navigational hazard rarely encountered in northern waters. Capt. Ernest Caldwell of the Canadian National steamer Prince George, reported heavy fog in the Gulf of Georgia on his weekly arrival here Wednesday and declared that he had been happy to quit the fog-infested southern area.

Hoping to increase its strength soon from the present 45 to the minimum requirement of 60, H.M. C.S. Chatham, local naval division, is planning an active winter season of training, athletics and social activities. Basketball practice has already started and the commodious drill hall may also be put to use in other lines of athletics. Regulation service rifle shoots have been inaugurated at the old Army range on the highway off Eleventh Avenue and are being held each Sunday, about ten marksmen having been out last Sunday.

NAVIGABLE WATERS PROTECTION ACT R.S.C. 1927, Chapter 140 THE COLUMBIA CELLULOSE COMPANY LIMITED hereby GIVES NOTICE that they have under Section 7 of the said Act, deposited with the Minister of Public Works, at Ottawa, and in the Land Registry Office at Prince Rupert, British Columbia, a description of the site and the plan of the dolphins proposed to be driven on Water to 7263, Range 5, Coast District, in Porpoise Harbour, near Prince Rupert, and lying North of Zanardi Rapids and South of the Canadian National Railway.

AND TAKE NOTICE that after the expiration of one month from the date of the first publication of the Notice, the Columbia Cellulose Company Limited will, under Section 7 of the said Act, apply to the Minister of Public Works at his office in the City of Ottawa, for approval of the said site and plan.

WHAT ARE WE TRYING TO DO?

We try to have what people want.
We want our goods as good as you expect them to be according to the price you pay.
We try to sell well known goods at the prices advertised all over Canada.
Community silver, Bulova and Gruen watches Parker and Waterman pens are examples.
We sell Big Ben clocks at the same price as the jeweller in Peterborough where they are made.
We try to be earliest with the latest new goods.
We are trying to build a reputation for reliability and service.
No high pressure: no marking up goods to give a discount off.
Just plain reasonable profit.
